Chapter 3431 Gloria Is Alarmed

In actuality, Solocus could not resist feeling thankful to the unknown force. If not for it, how's it possible for me to unify the Ecclesiastic Order within such a short span?

"Yeah! Since Levi Garrison claims he'd let the Top Ten off, I'm sure he's being truthful!"

"To him, the four cornerstone divine tools are just something worthless!"

The other elders echoed.

Everyone suddenly had a grasp of the situation. Evidently, the Ecclesiastic Order was exploited by the others to annihilate Levi.

"But who could be this unknown force?"

"Based on our observation, this unknown force knows well about the Ecclesiastic Order, the Cetus, Levi Garrison, and Yartran. But I can't seem to relate it to any forces in my mind!"

The elders asked in bafflement among themselves. They racked their brains, trying to identify the mysterious force.

As for Solocus, this mysterious force had indirectly given him a hand, turning his secret plan toward success.

Chapter 3432 Floyd Is On Pins And Needles

If I take the risk to remind Floyd now, I tend to put myself in deep water, right? There was nothing Gloria could do to turn back time. She could only keep her fingers crossed that Levi would not find out Floyd was the one leaking information to her.

Gloria hid somewhere right after much contemplation. She started working on the preparation for a backup plan in case Levi found out she was the mastermind behind everything.

On pins and needles, Gloria broke out in cold sweat. She was all tensed up about the tragic fate that might befall her.

In the meantime, Levi was back in the base.

"Boss! Master! You're back!" everyone greeted him in unison.

"Gather everyone now!" he instructed grimly.

"Huh? What's wrong?" someone asked apprehensively.

Even though everyone's curiosity was piqued, they still assembled as instructed by Levi. Soon, everyone gathered right in front of the latter.

Looking intently at them, Levi stated solemnly, "I have the utmost trust in all of you, just like how you trust me!"

All the others described willingly what they had done and who they had met while away from the base in detail.

On the contrary, Floyd was becoming more anxious as time went by.

Nevertheless, he got a grip of himself and pretended to be pondering something. No way! I can't let them sense anything! Floyd Irving, you must stay nonchalant as ever, by hook or by crook!

At the same time, it was as though all the others' eyes were on him. He kept his head down while deep in thought.

Moments later, all the other twenty persons stepping forward had provided the relevant details as requested, except Floyd.

Based on their descriptions, it could be concluded that they did not reveal the information to anyone else. There was even concrete evidence to prove that they were being truthful.

Since none of them had anything to do with the exposure of Levi's whereabouts, Floyd was the only one left. In other words, he should be the one exposing the latter's whereabouts.

At that moment, everyone had their eyes on Floyd. No words could describe how tensed Floyd was at that very moment. Must I reveal Gloria's name? No way! I shouldn't expose her now! Once I mention her name, Master and the others will surely draw speculation that she's the culprit!

That stare pierced right through Floyd and he felt as if his entire soul was being bared.

He began to break out in cold sweat from his fear and panic.

Is he suspecting me of something?

More importantly, Floyd certainly had some skeletons in his closet!

"Floyd, if you don't mind me asking, do you have any outside sources from which you get your information? It's just that you always managed to get some of the most crucial information about the Ecclesiastic Order, including the Bonemaster's name list. I just wanted to know where you get that from," Levi asked.

Floyd felt his fingertips begin to freeze up in fear.

His heartbeat was so loud that he could hear his blood rushing in his ears.

Levi never asked because he had always assumed that Floyd was simply talented in this aspect.

But now that such things were happening, he couldn't help but wonder if Floyd was being used.

That's why he wanted to know how Floyd was getting his information from people in the Ecclesiastic Order.

What do I do? What do I do? All of this information is from Gloria! If they continue investigating, she'll get in trouble!

To be fair, it was also thanks to Gloria’s intelligence.

If she hadn’t ‘given’ herself to Floyd, he wouldn’t have wrung his brains out trying to come up with a plan to protect her.

Even if he had to suffer all the blame, he certainly wouldn’t have allowed Gloria to be dragged in.

After all, she was the most important person to him, even more than Levi.

If Gloria hadn’t wholeheartedly given herself to Floyd, he might have been able to think more calmly and might even have suspected her or exposed her.

Even Gloria herself hadn't imagined that dating Floyd would bring such benefits.

Before this, Floyd had still leaned more toward Levi's side.

Even now, he was beginning to suspect Gloria.

If this had happened earlier, he would probably have said it out loud and might even have gone to investigate himself.

"Everyone should be more careful from now on. In the case that the enemy attacks when I'm not around, you guys really have to take care of yourselves. The best thing to do would be to hide in the underground bunker. That's our wild card, so you guys shouldn't tell anyone about it," Levi reminded seriously.

The moment he said that, Floyd felt his heart drop into his stomach.

Chapter 3436 It Has To Be The West Pavilion

"Still, we can't forget that possibility. If the others simply took a risk, it isn't impossible that they could have done it," the other North Pavilion members mused.

Levi chuckled.

After his multi-faceted observations, he had deduced that the people who had done this must have been members from all around the Ecclesiastic Order.

They must have had to have enough information from all sides before they could have controlled the situation as they had.

However, whoever had done this must have been extremely careful and wouldn't have barged into things blindly, much less taken such a risk.

That's why he was sure that the murderers must have been from the West Pavilion.

The person in charge behind the scenes must have been from the West Pavilion as well.

Without another word, Levi arrived silently at the West Pavilion.

He wanted to see exactly who in West Pavilion was the culprit.

Weirdly enough, however, the West Pavilion was perfectly normal.

Even after half a day's worth of searching, he couldn't find anything.

Chapter 3437 The Exact Same Excuse

Things just kept coming up for her to worry about.

She didn't even know if Floyd had exposed them yet. Either way, those whom they had been in contact with from Yartran had already been targeted.

Even though she had done her best to foresee what might happen and had originally arranged for those people to be killed, Levi was still too fast for her overall plan to succeed.

There wasn't anything else she could do but personally go after and kill all of those people.

If she had allowed the original plan to move forward, Levi would definitely have caught them in the act.

Just like that, her plan was foiled.

If she hadn't been as skilled as she was, Levi would have caught her red-handed.

She continued hiding in West Pavilion and she had a feeling that Levi had definitely come to look for her.

Luckily enough, those six people and whoever else she needed to kill were all close to West Pavilion. She was also lucky that she was familiar with the place, or else she would have been found out.

"What? How are the Holy Guild so fast? Are they already looking through the name lists?" Gloria said, panicked.

She hadn't imagined that the Holy Guild would be so fast as well.

Chapter 3438 Three Days Until The Devourer Spiritual Bone Is Complete

Things were beginning to look extremely dangerous for Gloria.

Both Levi and the Holy Guild were looking into the case, which meant her means of escape were getting slimmer and slimmer.

She had to use Floyd even more carefully now.

The most she could do was get information out of him. She could no longer get him to do anything important, or else Levi would find out.

After Levi's most recent plans got exposed, he would definitely become more cautious.

He would certainly begin paying close attention to those around him, too.

The number one thing that Gloria had to do was improve her skillset. Only then could she truly protect herself.

She had to complete the devourer spiritual bone as soon as possible.

She didn't have any way to aggravate things between Levi and the Ecclesiastic Order any more, since both sides already knew about her plan.

If she were to actually put it into action, she wouldn't fool anyone. Worst comes to worst, she would only expose herself.

Another bad thing would be that Levi and the Ecclesiastic Order would both stop their fight and begin investigating her with full force.

By then, no one would be distracting Levi, which meant that she would really be in deep trouble.

What about the Cetus clan? If they were here, they would be able to distract Levi.

After all, she already had the skill. Once she had the actual power, even if she couldn't defeat Levi, she could still manage to get away.

Then she could slowly work on making herself stronger once she got away.

The Bone Grandmaster chuckled. "Another good thing is that you won't have to waste any time getting used to the devourer spiritual bone. After all, the only way to get used to it is simply to devour!"

Gloria's eyes lit up at those words.

That sounds too good to be true!

Most of the time, one had to really take time to get used to a spiritual bone.

After all, it was from an external source.

The time varied from individual to individual, and some people managed to get used to it in a few days, while others never got used to it even across a few years.

Still, Gloria hadn't expected that the devourer spiritual bone would be this efficient.

Devour to get used to it? That's exactly what I want!

That meant she wouldn't have to waste any time getting used to it.

Chapter 3440 Kirin Asks About Gloria

There was another force that could control Levi—the Esoteric Guild. However, it was too late now. She would have to come up with a last-minute plan.

It would be useless to deal with Levi by intensifying the conflict on both sides. He would not fall for it anymore.

Hmm? The Esoteric Guild?

Gloria's eyes lit up. She was so excited that she was on the verge of tears.

Who said that the Esoteric Guild cannot control Levi? It's true that I don't have any plans, nor can I resort to some old-fashioned tricks to create a grudge between them and Levi. But I can make the Esoteric Guild act as the scapegoat!

Now, Levi and the Holy Guild were trying to find a force that could control the entire situation. The Esoteric Guild is the perfect scapegoat!

According to my knowledge, neither of them is familiar with the Esoteric Guild—even Levi doesn't know anything.

If the Esoteric Guild is given the blame, they can't prove their innocence either. Even if Levi and the Holy Guild eventually finds out that the Esoteric Guild didn't do it and is merely a scapegoat, it would take some time. That'll give me more time, then! If I can grab the opportunity and make them fight with each other, it'll be even better!

"Hahaha!" Gloria burst out laughing.

The scapegoat has appeared!
