Chapter 3441 Lie Again

If he said that Gloria was already his woman, he was afraid that Azure Dragon and the rest would suspect something. After all, the Ecclesiastic Order was the enemy now.

If Gloria was so close to Floyd, they might suspect that she was using him.

Azure Dragon and the others glanced over simultaneously, as if they had noticed Floyd's odd reaction.

Something's wrong! Is there a problem?

Naturally, Floyd understood this clearly. Even if they knew about this, he must not expose Gloria.

If they tell Master about it, we'd be doomed. Others might not be able to tell, but he'll definitely find out at first glance.

"Is there a problem, Floyd? Are you hiding something?"

Black Tortoise immediately became wary.

"We are no longer in touch!" lamented Floyd.

If I didn't practice it, how would I know that one would lose oneself when practicing this technique? If this continued, I would expose Gloria.

Considering how observant Master is, he'd definitely suspect something immediately.

Hence, to protect Gloria, Floyd did not say anything—even if someone would get hurt after losing themselves in the technique.

After all, Gloria was the most important to him. Everyone else ranked behind her.

Still, he was a bit worried. Hence, he did not leave immediately and observed them from afar.

If anything happened, he could still intervene. In that case, he would not be completely ignoring them.

When he observed them, he was stunned.

It seemed like Forlevia had been teaching Zoey and the rest for quite some time. They could already use the technique skillfully.

At the very least, they were as familiar with the technique as Gloria.

Does this mean that they're going to lose themselves? That happened to Gloria when she reached this stage. They're going to be in danger!

Anxious, Floyd stared at them intently.

Zoey and the others started to cultivate the technique.

Chapter 3443 When Did Floyd Learn The Technique

A terrifying thought popped up in his mind, shocking even Floyd himself.

"What am I doing? How dare I suspect Gloria?" Floyd chided himself.

However, he could not stop wondering about it. Even though so many people practised the technique, none of them lost themselves.

Why is Gloria only the one who faced difficulties? She's even stronger than them! How could she have lost herself?

Furthermore, her cultivation techniques aren't too extreme. They're the same as mine. But I didn't lose myself, so how could she have?

Gloria even said that the technique was overpowering and that anyone who practised it would lose themselves. But I cultivated it earlier. How is it overpowering? Not at all! Though the speed at which I absorbed the spiritual energy was overpowering... Is it Gloria's own problem or is she lying to me?

Even though Floyd tried his best not to suspect Gloria, that thought kept surfacing in his mind. He could not control himself at all.

Floyd turned around only to see Levi standing behind him for who knows how long.

He quickly greeted Levi to mask the guilt he was feeling.

"Oh? You know Evie's technique too?" asked Levi.

"Uh... Evie taught it to me! She taught Mrs. Garrison and the others her technique too in hopes that everyone can grow more powerful. That way, we can help you!" Floyd instantly came up with an excuse.

"That's great! Practice to perfect it!" Levi nodded in approval.

"Evie's technique truly suits you guys, unlike my basic technique!"

With a final smile, Levi patted Floyd on the shoulder and departed.

Tailing Levi's diminishing silhouette with his eye, Floyd let go of the breath he was holding and started panting for air.

I can't keep doing this! It feels as though I'm treading on thin ice every day. How long am I supposed to live like this? Please let this torture end soon...

Floyd could not wait to introduce Gloria to everyone else.

Although Solocus still was a bit hesitant, he could not deny the fact that the Esoteric Guild had the power and ability to do so.

After all, who would believe that all that had happened was controlled by an anonymous person within the Ecclesiastic Order?

Who could have such an advanced ability?

There had to be a much stronger force behind everything.

If that was the case, everything could be explained.

That would also mean that there were spies from the Esoteric Guild within the Ecclesiastic Order.

The crowd seemed to follow the same train of thought. "Of course, they must have spies within the Ecclesiastic Order! If not, they couldn't have carried out their schemes either!"

"Their target must have been to turn those within the Ecclesiastic Order against each other. They must have been surprised when we united with each other instead."

"Now all they can do is trigger our animosity against Levi so that our two parties could fight each other till we used up the last bit of our energy. That way, they can reap the benefits without having to do anything at all!"

"That's what happened to North Pavilion..."

At that moment, everyone was sure that the next step would be to uncover the spies from the Esoteric Guild within the Ecclesiastic Order.

The elder of East Pavilion spoke up, "According to my deductions, they were the ones who took the Top Ten and the cornerstone divine tools."

"What about the Three Sages of North Pavilion? Why would the Esoteric Guild be after them?" Someone pointed out.

Chapter 3448 Seize All Of Them

The moles in the Esoteric Guild were seized in a short time.

"If our plan remains on the right track, we've seized important clues! Soon, we'll be able to figure out the mastermind in the Esoteric Guild behind everything!" Solocus said.

However, someone reported some bad news to Solocus soon. "Master Solocus, bad news! The moles were all murdered when being transported! Some mysterious fighters had killed all of them in the shadows! They acted so quickly that we couldn't withstand their attack!"

"What? Did you say all moles are dead?"

Solocus' expression turned grim upon hearing it.

As soon as something occurred to him, Solocus shouted, "Hurry! The four persons are in imminent danger!"

With that, Solocus headed toward the detention center hastily.

When Solocus arrived at the entrance of the detention center, all he saw were four corpses.

Jake and the other three persons were already murdered.

"Who did it?" Solocus asked coldly.

"Master Solocus, they assassinated all four of them at lightning speed! I think they could be assassins from Hell's Gate!"

Why would the mastermind abandon the bodies? It doesn't make any sense!

Well, there is another possible explanation— The Esoteric Guild is overly confident that no one can trace it.

Nonetheless, Levi thought the explanation was rather unlikely.

Judging from the mastermind's style, he was cautious and mindful of every tiny detail.

Therefore, Levi couldn't believe that the mastermind would casually abandon the corpses.

After considering every aspect, Levi began to think it could well be the masterminds' plan to frame someone else for their crime.

Therefore, Levi opined that he had to keep a close eye on the West Pavilion, for the so-called evidence could be a false front to distract him and the Holy Guild.

If Levi's inference was correct, the mastermind could be brewing a horrible plan now.

It is the only explanation!

At that time, Levi felt he was close to the truth but couldn't be entirely sure.

All things considered, Levi's best course of action was to keep a close watch on the West Pavilion.

Unlike Levi, the Holy Guild didn't have the same doubts because it discovered the evidence.

No! I have to investigate!

Besides himself with worry, word arrived from Gloria's end via their secret channel just as Floyd was about to set out in search of her.

In his haste to express how worried he had been, Floyd did not expect a man on the other end.

His name was Callahan Wolden, Gloria's most capable assistant whose absolute loyalty earned him the honor of temporarily being in charge of all her affairs.

Callahan merely laughed at Floyd's concerns.

"Look at you, dog! Do you imagine yourself worthy of Gloria? Stop dreaming! Even I do not dare think of her that way. She will be a powerhouse soon, placing herself even further beyond our reach!"

As per his orders, Callahan carried out his communication with Floyd in the manner with which Gloria herself employed.

It was her who had arranged in advance for Callahan to communicate with the men she controlled on her behalf to avoid any accidents that may jeopardize her plans.

Floyd was not the only one.

Over twelve hours, Callahan had contacted and communicated with more than a hundred people. All of them Gloria had charmed.
