Chapter 3461 Turn The Table

Panic. That was what Floyd felt.

He had heard what the situation was from Gloria, and he was afraid that Levi would come to him.

That was why he had rushed back, hoping to hide away for a while.

Yet, to his surprise, he never even got the chance to recollect himself before encountering his master.

Luck was certainly not on his side.

Floyd found himself sweating buckets from the anxiousness he felt.

It was the most nerve-wracking moment he had ever been through.

It was especially so when he looked into Levi's eyes. It was as though Levi could see right through him.

At that moment, he felt that all his secrets were lying bare in front of Levi.

Just as Levi parted his lips to say something, Floyd interrupted while panting, "Oh! Master, I am actually looking for you."

Floyd had decided to turn the table and take control of the situation.

Chapter 3462 Links To Gloria

If something was amiss, there was only one possibility—Floyd was lying!

In other words, he was the one who leaked everything. At the very least, he was aware of the situation and had been colluding with the other force.

That was a huge possibility.

However, it was impossible for Levi to believe that because he trusted Floyd unconditionally.

Even if he felt that something was off, he wouldn't suspect anything of the man.

Floyd was his most trusted disciple, so he had no reason to doubt him.

For that reason, he acquiesced silently.

Without a shadow of a doubt, news of me stalking Callahan was leaked by Floyd. Nonetheless, the leak only happened when he was investigating Callahan. Then, that won't be a problem. It's fine as long as it wasn't the third unknown force that directly discovered my tracks. I'll just remind him to be more careful next time.

"Floyd, don't be reckless when investigating anything in the future. Follow my orders and don't reveal any of my affairs or whereabouts. Do you understand me?" Levi instructed.

In response, Floyd nodded. "I understand, Master. I'll ask you for directions before I do anything in the future!"

Then, he inquired, "Oh yes, why did you summon me, Master?"

"Well, nothing's the matter anymore. Callahan is dead, and you know that, so it's no longer of import."

Floyd started suspecting Gloria.
It must have been Gloria who leaked that piece of news. Master had kept an eye on Callahan, so the latter died. It was too much of a coincidence!

Right then, he couldn't quite tell whether Gloria was colluding with Callahan or whether she inadvertently leaked the news.

He plunged into a dilemma.

Although he trusted her indefinitely and had sworn to never doubt her again, the facts were right before his eyes.

As such, he had no other choice.

No matter how much he liked her, the reality was there in the open.

Thus, it was only natural that he was suspicious.

If Gloria couldn't give him a reasonable explanation, he would definitely suspect her.

However, Gloria was an exceedingly smart woman, so she naturally anticipated Floyd's thoughts.

Hence, she certainly had a subsequent plan.

Shortly after, Gloria contacted Floyd.

"What are you..." Linda uttered in disbelief. What is Gloria doing?

Gloria ignored her and continued to rub fresh blood on herself to pretend she was severely injured.

“What trick are you pulling here, Gloria?” Linda was starting to feel a little scared.

After all, Gloria had become too powerful, at that moment.

Linda didn’t have the guts to fight her.

She stared at Gloria as her desire to escape dominated her mind.

Her plan was to run away and then tell the Ecclesiastic Order and even Levi everything about Gloria.

Both her mind and body were telling her to run, but when she tried to, she found out she couldn’t muster the strength to do so.

It was as though both her legs were shackled to the ground. If she wanted to leave, she had to tear the ground up.

She felt as if there were hundreds of thousands of mountains pressing on her shoulders. It was breaking her apart as she stood completely still.

Her voice wanted to crawl out of her mouth, but it could only squirm in her throat.

She felt as though her entire being was controlled by Gloria.

Chapter 3465 Innocence

Ever since Floyd learned Forlevia's technique, his power had increased greatly, especially when he was quick on the uptake.

He was getting more and more confident.

"Are you okay? It must've hurt..." His heart was in anguish when he saw Gloria covered in blood. "If I have arrived earlier, you wouldn't have been injured this badly. This is my fault!"

"You came at the right time, Floyd! If you had come earlier, we wouldn't have been able to kill my master together! The moment she tried to kill me, she exposed her back to you..." Gloria explained.

He didn't think about that. So I actually came at the perfect time? Haha...

He started laughing because he didn't know that the perfect opportunity was arranged by Gloria.

In reality, Floyd didn’t care about that matter at all.

He became much more relaxed after seeing her calming down.

“You should go back! It seems to me that the truth will be out soon. Once everything has been taken care of, I’ll go and meet your master and let him host our wedding!” Her suggestion made him so excited that he almost leaped in joy.

That was exactly what he wanted, to marry her. I’m so excited right now! Although, I have to make sure she’ll be safe first and won’t be exposed ahead of schedule.

Once he left, Gloria dropped the act.

Then, she created an illusion that made it seem like people from the Esoteric Guild were the ones who killed Linda and the others.

That way, everything would have a logical explanation, including Callahan and the others’ death.

The Holy Guild soon figured that out and became certain the Esoteric Guild was behind the matter.

Because the Ecclesiastic Tower was isolated from the outside world, as long as the tower wasn't destroyed, no one would notice anything.

That was why Gloria was able to devour the energy core quickly without anyone noticing.

Her strength was rapidly increasing.

She had gotten so powerful that no one could imagine it.

It was faster than you could ever imagine!

Additionally, she was still in control. She tried to prevent her rapidly growing strength from causing abnormalities to occur in her surroundings.

Crack! Crack!

Still, heavy, dark clouds enveloped the entire area where the Ecclesiastic Order was located. It was so thick that it almost reached the ground.

Lightning bolts were blasting everywhere as thunder was heard again and again.

The scary amount of energy had even caused a storm to form.

Lastly, the clouds had started to turn scarlet red, as though the sky was dripping in blood.

Chapter 3469 Gloria Has Been Spotted

Levi's abrupt appearance sent everyone in the Ecclesiastic Order into a frenzy.

No one expected that he would suddenly show up.

Because they didn't know why he was there, they panicked.

If Levi was there to wipe them out, then they were doomed, because they hadn't prepared themselves yet.

Everyone was at their wits' end.

Soon, elites from all the other factions flooded into the area.

Even the elders from the Holy Guild were there.

They were all staring at him, preparing for a battle that might soon begin.

"Is he Levi?" Solocus and the others stared at him from a distance. I can't believe this guy has the balls to come straight into our main base. He's clearly looking down on all of us...

The members of the Ecclesiastic Order might be angry, but they didn't have the nerve to even breathe loudly as they fixed their gaze on Levi.

No one dared to act blindly before they figured out why he was there, including the Holy Guild.

The others answered.

The members of the Ecclesiastic Order were getting really curious. What does Levi want from the people of West Pavilion?

Solocus and the others didn't dare to move, because they didn't know what Levi was doing.

Gloria was in full panic mode as she felt a fear she had never experienced before. He knows I'm here!

It was the first time she met Levi in such close proximity.

Even though there were hundreds of meters of space between them, he still sensed her presence.

Currently, she was no different from anyone else in the crowd.
