Chapter 3491 Worthless Piece Of Trash

Floyd was completely dumbfounded when he heard Gloria's nasty response.

It struck him like a bolt from the blue and hit him so hard that it left him completely frozen in shock.

In that instant, Floyd felt so empty inside that he was no different from a zombie.

W-What? How did things turn out like this? Why would Gloria yell at me so angrily? Am I hearing things? Was it all just my imagination? No, I can still hear her insults echoing in my ears and stabbing at my heart! It's true that I lied to her about there being an emergency, but I only did that because I miss her like crazy!

It's true that I'm being watched right now, and that I could easily expose her location by contacting her. Even so, I am still her man!

What? No, this can't be right! Isn't this the part where she apologizes to me and says it's all good? Why would she hurl more abuse at me and cut off all communications between us?

Still in disbelief, Floyd stubbornly tried calling Gloria again and again, but to no avail.

It was as if she was utterly disappointed in him and had decided to leave him for good.

Floyd was going crazy from the stress and anxiety at that point.

We should've been a sweet and lovey-dovey couple, so how did things turn out like this? Gloria must be really mad at me, huh? She's a woman of principles, so my actions must've crossed the line or something! She warned me not to contact her unless it was a real emergency, but I let my feelings get the better of me and went against her instructions anyway. I can understand why she'd be mad at me, but something doesn't feel quite right... As angry as she may be, her response was a little too extreme! It's almost like she's determined to dump me or something! What the heck is going on here?

Floyd was utterly devastated and heartbroken at the thought of losing Gloria forever.

Chapter 3493 Could Gloria Be The Mastermind

There are good explanations for everything that happened previously, so there is no reason to suspect Gloria. Her master, Linda, and Callahan were the ones behind those incidents. Furthermore, I killed Linda. Nothing is more convincing than this!

Therefore, Floyd admitted, "Phoenix, I won't hide it from you! I did lie..."

"Huh? What is going on?" Phoenix was stunned by Floyd's statement.

She thought he would stubbornly refuse to admit anything.

"I have been pursuing Gloria from the Ecclesiastic Order! However, I am unsuccessful, and she still hasn't shown any interest in me. I even told her I am Levi's disciple, but she said that has nothing to do with me..." Floyd quickly created an excuse and astounded Phoenix.

She was starting to believe him.

After all, she knew Floyd was obsessed with courting Gloria when they were at the Heavenly Base.

At the time, Gloria refused to pay Floyd any attention.

Chapter 3494 She Must Be Concerned About Me

A scary thought appeared in Floyd's mind.

Could Gloria have been the mastermind? I heard from Master that the mastermind's power keeps growing! Could it be due to Evie's technique? Only Evie's technique can allow someone to improve rapidly within a short period of time! Everything matches now! She deliberately hurt herself and told me training in this technique would make her insane! It was a trick to prevent me from finding out that she wanted to continue learning this technique.

Floyd widened his eyes in shock.

Gloria had also stolen Master's God Crusher. Other than Sonja knowing our base previously, I think Gloria knows too. Although she didn't come in openly, she could have followed me. With her level of power then, it would have been easy for her to follow me. After she understood the base layout, she deliberately informed the Cetus and stole God Crusher. If I connect Gloria to everything that happened after that, it would explain everything. It makes sense!

Floyd analyzed every matter carefully and took into account Gloria's involvement.

Suddenly, he realized everything made sense.

It confirmed his suspicions about Gloria.

Levi's first guess was that someone was deliberately spreading fake news to distract them.

Are they using this trick again? Didn't they use it before? It might be enough to trick those idiots in the Holy Guild, but they would need to do much more than this to deceive me!

After all, Levi was making good progress in his investigation.

If the enemy did not take measures, Levi would soon find out the truth.

They probably noticed my investigation and are likely using this news to distract my attention.

However, when Levi, Solocus, and others each carried out investigations, the news they heard seemed real.

Little did they know that it was part of Gloria's plan.

Magdalena frowned in confusion. "Huh?"

"Master Eusof is too powerful. Thus, his presence might not be to our benefit. We should secure everything first before asking for his help!" Solocus seemed deeply terrified of Eusof.

Even though Eusof is obsessed with making pills, he is the biggest threat to me! He is too strong and is closest to people connected to the Minister! I fear once he gets tired of making pills, he might suddenly decide to take over the Ecclesiastic Order.

One should know Eusof had the respect of many people in the Ecclesiastic Order.

If he ever decided to take charge, nearly everyone would support him.

Furthermore, Solocus was given charge of the Ecclesiastic Order as a last resort.

If Eusof decided to take over, Solocus feared everyone would switch to supporting him.

Solocus did not wish to see that becoming reality.

Therefore, Solocus was determined not to let Eusof join the war, no matter the strength he could bring to their battle.

However, Solocus was unaware that Eusof was long gone. Even all the magical medicine in the Medical Guild had disappeared.

Magdalena considered and said, "But if we don't inform Master Eusof, we won't be able to use magical medicine from Medical Guild. Once the Esoteric Guild declares war, we need magical medicine to sustain the Ecclesiastic Order! They are extremely vital to us!"

"No! We will do without the magical medicine, and we won't inform Master Eusof either!" Solocus remained stubborn in his stance.

Chapter 3497 The Only One For Him

Furthermore, Gloria was also responsible for the multi-faceted conflict between the Ecclesiastic Order and the Esoteric Guild.

The constant friction caused the strife to intensify over time, to a point where both parties were now on the verge of war.

There was no doubt that Gloria's expert manipulation had made it such that a battle was inevitable.

The Ecclesiastic Order was so hellbent on attacking the Esoteric Guild that they couldn't even be bothered to deal with the Cetus for the time being.

Likewise, the Esoteric Guild knew they had to start gearing themselves up for a big fight.

Meanwhile, on Levi's side, North Pavilion's investigation in Gerton was going strong.

After much effort, they finally had a breakthrough—the Cetus was hiding in one of the factions in the Ecclesiastic Order!

Even though they needed to investigate further, their current information was enough to make Levi sit up and take notice.

After all, he wanted revenge.

He needed to avenge Azure Dragon and the rest!

"We're almost done, Mr. Garrison. We'll have the information ready within three days!" one of the North Pavilion members reassured.

Phoenix sighed. "It's scary what a broken heart can do to a person..."

Before long, Zoey decided to approach Floyd directly.

"Floyd, what's wrong with you? Did something happen?"

Upon hearing that, Floyd reeled in shock.

Oh, sh*t. I'm attracting attention to myself. Phoenix and the others aren't a problem since I know they won't say a word to Master. But Mrs. Garrison's different! She'll likely share her concerns with him, and that'd be disastrous! I may not mind it at all, but it'd undoubtedly affect Gloria. How can I let that happen when I've sworn to protect her with my life? Oh, no. I can't afford to mess anything up at this juncture.

After much hesitation, he decided to tell Zoey the same excuse he had given Phoenix.

"Please don't tell anyone else about this, Mrs. Garrison. I have my pride, and so does Master. If word gets out that his senior disciple is in a slump because of affairs of the heart, it'd be a disgrace to us both!" Floyd urged, having gone to the extent of demeaning himself and making him sound like the most useless and worthless man on earth.

Chapter 3499 Fantasies

Before long, Floyd had fully convinced himself.

Anyone in Gloria's shoes would be angry, so I'm sure she's scared of seeing Master again. Who knows? She might even have nightmares of him trying to kill her. Her fears have gotten to the point where she's terrified of exposing our relationship. If Master learns about it, he'll hunt her down again. That's what scares her the most! Not only does she have to live with the fear, but she's probably also praying hard that Master never finds out about us. Otherwise, he'd definitely kill her without question.

With that, Floyd smacked himself on the forehead.

Slap!

"Ah! Why did it take so long for me to realize this? Gloria, I've misunderstood you. I can't believe I even had doubts about you. It's all my fault!" he muttered under his breath.

I've only cared about myself and wondered how I should express my love. Not once have I ever considered Gloria's feelings. She's clearly afraid of Master and refrained from contacting me to avoid any risk of exposing our relationship. Only those who have had near-death experiences will know how scary it is! Why would she still think about other matters?

Floyd heaved a sigh. I, on the other hand, have been such a letdown. I forcibly contacted Gloria to satisfy my own selfish desires, so it's no wonder she's angry with me! I'm to blame for this mess! Instead of sparing a thought for her plight and feelings, I questioned her motive and doubted her. I'm inhuman!

It didn't take long for Floyd to believe he had figured everything out.

Chapter 3500 Three Precautions

There was no doubt that Gloria was a master manipulator.
She had played Floyd like a fiddle, and even a simple reply from her could bring about such a huge change!
Floyd was back to his old self and now had two goals—to protect Gloria and increase his power.
He was so motivated that he even wanted to hunt down the Cetus to exact revenge.
At the same time, he'd be able to prove to everyone that the Floyd they knew was back in full force.
Seeing that, Zoey nodded as relief filled her eyes.
It's good that Floyd can adapt so quickly! That also means my advice worked! I've done an excellent job if I do say so myself.
Even though Phoenix found the sudden change in Floyd rather odd, she was still glad that the latter had managed to come out of his slump.
Everything was going swimmingly, just like how Gloria had expected.
The conflict between the Ecclesiastic Order and the Esoteric Guild also worsened with every passing day.
Solocus blamed the Esoteric Guild for the case of the missing Top Ten from Five Pavilions.
He insisted it was a well-crafted plan on the latter's end to destroy the Ecclesiastic Order.
Of course, that accusation only drove everyone in the Ecclesiastic Order up the wall.
