Chapter 3501 Killing Levi With God Crusher

Gloria stood in the center of the vortex on the South Pole glacier and began devouring the spiritual energy underneath her.

Like waves from the ocean, the energy from the super-spiritual ley line washed over Gloria as she swallowed it all.

As her power increased, so did her devouring speed.

It was so fast that it had become too late for the Esoteric Guild, Ecclesiastic Order, or even Levi to intervene.

Gloria's three precautions would stop Levi from reaching her anytime soon, but even if he did, she'd have devoured the entire ley line by then.

He could attack all he wanted, but his efforts would be useless!

Gloria was growing exponentially stronger by the second and bursting with immense power!

The speed and process of her becoming more powerful were undeniably miracles.

No one else had experienced something like that, and it was both shocking and terrifying.

Before long, Gloria had devoured half of the super-spiritual ley line.

She could feel her powers being elevated to a whole other level—one that was beyond her wildest imagination.

I have Levi and those around him to thank for my achievement! They're the ones who made me who I am today.

"Don't worry, Levi. I'll make sure to show every single one of you my utmost gratitude. Just wait and see. I'll send all of you to heaven!" she said as her lips curled into a devilish smirk. "Oh, and how can I forget Floyd? He deserves the highest credit! No, I won't kill him. I need him to witness my growth. For that, I shall let him live in eternal agony and regrets! Thank you so much, Floyd. I could never have done this without you. Watch out, though, because the best has yet to come..."

Who would have guessed? Back then, I had almost rejected Floyd, yet he turned out to be the biggest reason for my success. Unbelievable! Thank goodness I didn't shoo him away like the other men I've met. I was only looking for some fun, and it became the best decision in my life!

While Gloria continued to grumble about Floyd, the latter, who was currently on base, couldn't stop sneezing.

"I bet Gloria must be thinking about me. That would explain the sneezing fit!" Floyd muttered with a dreamy smile on his face. "Oh, I'm sure of it! She probably can't express it given the situation, but she must miss me as much as I miss her!"

As though having read his mind, Gloria took the initiative to contact him the very next second.

Chapter 3504 Stop Fighting For My Sake

No one expected his appearance.

The theurgist were stunned.

So were the members of the Ecclesiastic Order.

"What? Levi?"

Solocus and Magdalena were baffled when they saw Levi appear out of the blue.

They were just about to execute their plan, yet a nasty saboteur showed up.

They were so close to unleashing the Cetus.

When the Ecclesiastic Order and the Esoteric Guild fought till the last moment, the Cetus would show up and reap all the winnings.

Hence, Solocus and Magdalena wouldn't allow anything to disrupt their plan.

They had to eradicate the Ecclesiastic Order and the Esoteric Guild before the Cetus appeared regardless of the cost.

That way, they could catch both sides off guard.

It was part of their plan when the battle started.

However, just when the battle was escalating, Levi showed up.

"Everyone, stop! Stop fighting! All of you dense people are still battling mindlessly here! Someone has set you up! The culprit is intentionally driving a wedge between you so that you will fight each other.

Chapter 3505 No Worthy Opponent

Do I care who the third party is? I'm only concerned about my plan. Whether or not I can control the Ecclesiastic Order and not reveal the Cetus. Now that my plan has failed, I would have to obey Levi's demands.

"You may leave now. Go back and focus on looking into the West Pavilion."

Solocus led his men back.

However, Levi wasn't in a rush to leave.

He had a hunch that the third party had succeeded. Everything they did was for distraction and delay.

The culprit is becoming strong at a crazily fast rate. Although I don't know what method the opponent used to absorb that much power in such a short period, that person's cultivation must have reached a critical point now that the culprit had released the news about the Cetus to start a war between the Ecclesiastic Order and the Esoteric Guild.

Maybe the opponent had reached a higher realm and was able to fight me without any fear?

Even though Levi didn't know about the details, he still got a gut feeling that his opponent had become extremely powerful.

I'm still too late in the end. I didn't manage to find out about the opponent's identity before that person makes a move. Going up against that person will be very challenging.

Levi's intuition hit the bullseye again.

Gloria's powers were so powerful that she could move heaven and earth.

Eusof could feel the terrifying surging powers within Gloria's body.

That's horrifying! It's like I'm looking straight at a super-spiritual ley line. Once it explodes, the whole world will come crashing down. No one can save it. The reality finally comes crashing down that no one will be able to save it. I have given up and merely waited for the end of my life before, but I have lost all hope now.

Maybe Minister has a chance to stop Gloria before her latest breakthrough if he returns, but it's impossible now. No one can stop her now! Only annihilation awaits the Ecclesiastic Order.

Even if Minister found the Celestial Gate and attained an even higher realm, he would merely see the ruins of the Ecclesiastic Order when he returned. Everything is pointless by then.

Bone Grandmaster was getting impatient. "Should we start making a move against the Ecclesiastic Order?"

"There is no rush. Let me release the news about the Cetus first. Let them fight and cripple each other." Gloria grinned wickedly.

Now that I have the ultimate power, I can kill whoever I want, but that will be too boring. Where's the fun in doing that? I prefer to use tactics.

Chapter 3507 In Wait Of A Good Show

Everybody, including Levi, will be putty in my hands.
She was looking forward to the moment when she showed herself, which would undoubtedly be interesting to behold.
Solocus and his party hastened their preparations to act at a moment's notice.
Gloria then discovered something in her investigations that thoroughly shocked her.
As it appeared, Solocus was a spy planted within the Ecclesiastic Order by the Orthus long ago.
He had grown up in the Ecclesiastic Order, having arrived in his youth.
The Orthus, on the other hand, had been the deviant clan wiped out by the Ecclesiastic Order.
The sky-devouring python was the emblem of the clan.
The Orthus' plan of razing the Ecclesiastic Order was about to commence but they were wiped out instead.

Solocus managed to rescue Magdalena at a critical moment.

Chapter 3508 The Cetus Strikes

"Solocus is a member of the deviant clan? The one who transplanted my brothers' spiritual bones was Solocus' son?"

Levi was furious upon hearing the news.

How could I have found these people with them hidden within the Ecclesiastic Order all along?

At the mention of the Cetus, Levi was reminded of the suffering Azure Dragon and his gang had endured.

I have sworn to have their savage deeds paid with their blood, no matter who it was. The moment for revenge has finally arrived!

The thought of vengeance against the Cetus consumed Levi then, causing the search for the other force to be abandoned to the recesses of his mind.

First, I have to annihilate the Cetus!

"The Cetus will die by my hand! Everybody involved will suffer the same fate!"

Levi was beginning to look deranged.

Soon, Zoey, Forlevia, Azure Dragon, and his companions were gathered.

"Listen up. We have discovered where the Cetus had been hiding, and we will set out for vengeance immediately."

Azure Dragon and his group turned pale at Levi's declaration.

Avenging themselves by slicing the culprit to pieces was all they could think about.

"For a very long time, it seems."

The group conducted another thorough search of the Medical Guild's main hall and discovered no trace of him.

"Something's wrong!"

"Look! The magical medicine of the Medical Guild is gone!" Magdalena exclaimed at the discovery of another problem. "Somebody has raided this place!"

Sure enough, not even a scrap of the magical medicine was found in the main hall's medical cabinets and secret compartments.

Even the storage compartments for the most precious magical medicine were empty.

Solocus gulped as he felt his heart sink.

Aside from killing Eusof, his other reason for coming was to take control of the Medical Guild.

With the supply of magical medicine from the Medical Guild on hand, his and the Cetus' power would increase to another level.

Chapter 3510 Count Me In

Despite their conviction that hiding in the Holy Guild would offer them enough protection, Solocus and his group were terrified to consider that their unseen enemy had already known everything.

It's a disaster!

Solocus felt as if a venomous snake was watching him at that moment. The feeling of having every move of his observed by evil eyes he could not see unnerved him.

The elders of the West Pavilion are only moderately powerful. Who else could it be?

Suddenly, Solocus realized something amiss. "It's time to leave," he shouted, leaping into action as he turned ghastly pale. "We're in danger!"

We should have acted before being exposed if we were to pull off by picking a fight with the Ecclesiastic Order. If the unseen force controlling everything knew about our intention ahead of time, then our presence would have exposed us instead.

"Charge!" A series of battle cries sounded from outside the Medical Guild at that moment, announcing the arrival of the Ecclesiastic Order's army.

The elite fighters of the Holy Guild and the detention center heavily surrounded them, with the same happening at the Cetus' headquarters.

Solocus and his group were stunned at how the tables had turned on them.

Initially, their surprise assault would have been enough to take down the Ecclesiastic Order with the current strength of the Cetus forces.
