Chapter 3531 Problematic Woman

If Levi and the others were to find out about Gloria's thoughts, they would be mind-blown.

No one would've expected her to think so far ahead and come up with such an elaborate scheme.

Pretty quickly, the people Gloria sent had already discovered plenty of small and medium spiritual ley lines.

Naturally, she started devouring everything like crazy.

Although none of the spiritual ley lines were enough to make her incredibly strong, her strength was increasing bit by bit.

Meanwhile, Levi was keeping an eye on those two super-spiritual ley lines and investigating West Pavilion at the same time.

This time around, Levi was looking into every one of them thoroughly and meticulously. Although it wasn't a smart plan, it was his only plan.

Phoenix nodded, as that, too, was how she thought about it.

Given that Floyd, who was supposed to be the riskiest choice, was targeted by the woman, it was evident she was trying to assassinate him.

By combining the news that Floyd had provided—Gloria had recently abandoned him again and again, there was a high chance she wanted Floyd dead.

Previously, they had suspected that something was wrong with Floyd and considered the possibility he had been cheated.

But now, they were sure that he was related to that faction, just that he wasn't aware of it.

Thus, they wondered how they should connect Floyd with that faction and came to realize the answer lay with the woman from West Pavilion—Gloria.

Levi's conclusion that the faction was in West Pavilion further cemented their belief.

Nonetheless, Azure Dragon reminded, "This remains conjecture on our part, as we do not have a single shred of evidence at all."

"That's right. If we speculate without basis and tell Boss, we might be accused of trying to sow discord."

"All this while, we never had a case of betrayal or anything even close to it. Thus, we can never raise this matter unless we have solid proof. Until then, everyone is forbidden from mentioning it."

Cognizant of the rationale behind it, Phoenix and the rest agreed, "You're right. Evidence! We need irrefutable evidence!"

Chapter 3533 Locating The Minister

Meanwhile, Gloria, with Xylas in tow, was traversing between all kinds of spiritual ley lines.

She was devouring them and training Xylas at the same time.

By then, the small and medium spiritual ley lines didn't make a big difference to her.

All she could do was accumulate her strength slowly.

In contrast to her, a small spiritual ley line was as powerful as the sun for someone who had just begun to devour them like Xylas, to the extent that he was incapable of devouring it in its entirety.

Instead, all he could manage was the leftovers from Gloria.

Even then, his strength progressed by leaps and bounds.

Within a short period of time, he had elevated himself to another level.

It was something that he didn't even dare imagine before.

After obtaining the elemental spiritual bone, he felt that he possessed an exceptional level of talent, which was unprecedented since ancient times.

Once he began training, the explosive progress he made bordered upon the divine, filling him with ecstasy.

There was a lot more to Gloria that met the eye.
Only those from West Pavilion knew of her terrible reputation.
In fact, she was ostracized by them to the extent of no one wanted to be associated with her.
They were filled with resentment for her and even accused her of being a slut.
This was also taken into account by Gloria in her plan to eradicate the Ecclesiastic Order. Other than West Pavilion, who would be mercilessly slaughtered, the other factions were allowed to join the Glorian Order as long as they submitted to her.
That was how much she hated those from West Pavilion.
Upon learning that Gloria was infamous for seducing men, Phoenix and the others realized that they had made a monumental discovery.

Even though she had seduced countless men, there were plenty of others who willingly subjected themselves to her manipulation despite being aware of her infamy.

Among them was Callahan, son of the West Pavilion's master.

Even though Levi was exceptionally strong, it took him a long time to get to where he was.

If even he couldn't have achieved it, how is it possible for anyone else? This is just too unrealistic.

The only one who could make similar progress in such a short time was Forlevia.

Her skyrocketing strength was there for all to witness.

She had improved so fast that everyone was left speechless.

Even at the pace she was growing, she was still incapable of reaching the heights of Levi's power.

Therefore, it was clear that at the rate the enemy was growing, it was impossible for Forlevia to catch up.

It was such a baffling phenomenon that no one could comprehend.

Chapter 3537 Waiting For The Enemy

As for the other three, they definitely existed, albeit had yet to be discovered.

Even among spiritual ley lines, they, too, varied in quality.

For example, the super-spiritual ley line beneath the South Pole glacier was considered to be more potent in terms of power.

Even the ones within the Ecclesiastic Order or Yartran couldn't compare.

In fact, they didn't even qualify to be classified as super-spiritual ley lines.

Furthermore, the records described the existence of ley lines—there was even a class of them.

They were labeled as dragon ley lines, earth ley lines, and even divine ley lines.

It was just that members of the Ecclesiastic Order had not encountered them before.

Nonetheless, rumor had it that the Minister did notice their presence and went in search of them. The powerful spiritual ley lines that he discovered were located in a mythical world that no one had any idea of. Unfortunately, he was never heard from since, and there were no further records of it.

Levi, too, hadn't expected that there was still so much more knowledge out there on spiritual ley lines.

There's even a mythical world? Is it a small one? Or is it just a massive area that feels like a small world?

Chapter 3538 Singled Out

Levi stopped searching for other spiritual ley lines.

He decided to lie in wait, more certain than ever that his enemy would show up.

Levi's predictions were proven right.

Gloria was determined to devour all the spiritual ley lines.

Even medium and small spiritual ley lines were not spared.

She would continue to devour them all.

It was only a matter of time until she tracked Levi down since he was guarding a medium spiritual ley line.

All he needed to do was to wait.

Meanwhile, Phoenix and the others had made significant headway in their investigation, discovering more and more people associated with Gloria.

The results had given them a shock as well.

They did not expect her to have so many men under her spell.

Despite her reputation, she had seduced about eighty percent of the men in West Pavilion.

Chapter 3539 Tricking Forlevia

Absorbed in his cultivation, Floyd was blissfully unaware of the goings-on in the base.

When he emerged from his isolation, he realized the base was near-deserted, save for Forlevia and a few others.

Everyone else was missing, and he had no idea where they had gone.

It was also around that time when Floyd noticed that those left in the base camp were deliberately avoiding him.

Something was obviously very wrong, even if no one had deigned to inform him about it.

Everyone was wary toward him, that much he was clear, especially Phoenix and the others.

Are they worried about Gloria? Maybe they think something's off about her, but they don't want to tell me about it. That means they won't tell me about their plans. Master won't tell me about it either. I'm being singled out and kept in the dark!

The thought upset Floyd to no end.

What did I do wrong? Why is everyone acting like this? Worst of all, Phoenix and the others are wrapped up in the idea that Gloria is problematic.

"If you see someone using spiritual ley line, they're most probably the people we're looking for!"

Floyd was stunned by Forlevia's words. Devouring spiritual ley line? That's frightening! I hope this has nothing to do with Gloria. Otherwise, it would be troublesome.

"How about Phoenix and the others?" Floyd asked.

"Phoenix and the others have gone to find Xylas. They'll surely seek revenge! They couldn't take it anymore, so they sought approval from Daddy to look for Xylas," Forlevia answered.

Indeed, Phoenix had gone to seek approval so that no one would know they had actually gone to investigate Gloria.

Needless to say, using Xylas as an excuse was a good move because that would stop people from getting suspicious.

Floyd was convinced.

"Carry on with your cultivation, then. I need to cultivate as well so that I can be of help when we've found Xylas! I shouldn't just rely on Master." With that, Floyd left. At the same time, Forlevia didn't get suspicious.

After all, she thought Floyd was just keeping them in his mind, and he was just trying to help.
