Chapter 3541 The Informant

“Our preys have arrived...” Levi was getting excited when he felt the incomers approaching. I’m going to catch a big fish! These enemies are much more interesting than the ones I’ve faced! They’re intelligent and powerful. Besides, they know me well. Let’s see who I’m dealing with.

At the same time, Gloria and Xylas were getting closer.

“Master, I have a bad feeling. I’m s-scared...” Xylas stammered.

Gloria shot him a helpless look.

She would be concerned if that was the first time Xylas had said something like that. However, he would say that everywhere they went.

In fact, he was acting paranoid, and he would get scared whenever he entered an unfamiliar place.

Chapter 3542 Could His Adversary Be A Woman

Floyd felt relieved.

Gloria truly loves me.

What came before was the stick, now, it was a carrot that had him steadfast in the belief that Gloria had told him off for his own good.

That is apparent now, more so than ever, as I was, after all, the one who reached out to her first this time. What is puzzling, or should I say unbelievable, was how gentle Gloria was...

Unbeknownst to him, Gloria was currently within the vicinity of the spiritual ley line.

In panic mode, she thus gave Floyd this reply, "I might have underestimated Levi again, thinking that he would remain focused solely on the two super-spiritual ley lines! To think that he had figured out my plans and begun to set his sights on the medium and small spiritual ley lines as well..."

Through Floyd's cautioning and upon learning what Levi was up to, she was swiftly able to work out Levi's mental approach.

He's going to try and ambush me either at this medium spiritual ley line or the next one... but should I be trying to take him on in a straight fight?

Gloria was still quite wary about telling herself that she was already capable of crushing Levi outright.

Needing to bide her time so that she may continue to build up her own strength, she knew that she could not afford to be too hasty.

Chapter 3543 New Sources Of Energy

Though it may be counter-intuitive to imagine how a woman could have masterminded everything, that was something that others may tend to overlook and a possibility that did elude him at the beginning as well.

It was precisely the fact that she was a woman that made her less conspicuous and thus able to stay off the radar with greater ease.

Levi had not entertained the notion that she could be female before, but the voice he had just heard proved otherwise.

She may have chosen not to conceal her gender as a direct challenge against me! Considering the circumstances, it must have made no difference to her now whether or not to reveal her gender, but perhaps that may have happened sooner than she would have liked, as she would definitely have shown herself if she felt strong enough. The timing of that reveal could have been premature.

Since her strategy of using the small to medium spiritual ley lines had been exposed, she'd surely not continue to target them anymore.

To him, that meant she could very well be switching up her tactics. But apart from the two super-spiritual ley lines, Levi could not think of any alternative means by which she might be able to access more energy.

I must stop her! I have to put a stop to her growth, and also, uncover her identity as soon as possible!

"Hahaha..." after Gloria's departure, she began to laugh maniacally.

that moment, Xylas suddenly blurted, "I know where to find more spiritual ley lines, Master, and two of them, at that! One belongs to the Cetus, and another, the Orthus. Both of these are considered large spiritual ley lines. Gloria believed that Levi would not be able to find it.

After all, even the Ecclesiastic Order would not know.

The two deviant clans had their own spiritual ley lines, and they were both empowered by evil spiritual energy.

The Ecclesiastic Order had never been bothered to tap into the energy, much less explore it.

Hence, they would not suspect it.

Shrewd as Levi was, it would have been too late when he realized it. She would have devoured everything.

Despite the odds seemingly in her favor, Gloria was still apprehensive.

She had hoped to wrap things up soon, as it was a chance that would not easily come by again.

She could not access the other spiritual ley line at the moment, and she had delegated great resources to her disciple, Xylas.

Gloria wanted to cultivate Xylas.

It was pointless being the only strongest presence.

Besides, it was inevitable that she would become the strongest.

It was her goal to cultivate Xylas so that he could lend her a helping hand against Levi's vengeance.

She wanted to drive Levi to a corner, making it so that he could only watch her go free without retribution.

Nobody had suspected Floyd after Levi recounted the incident.
After all, Floyd did not have any idea about Levi's whereabouts.
It had nothing to do with him.
However, the realization made everyone shudder.

They eyed their surroundings warily as they could not help but feel like there were ears in the walls.

They used to be able to blame Floyd for what happened in the past.

However, who else was there to be blamed this time?

How could they explain what happened?

Could there be someone else involved, or that the enemy had some secret pawn that they knew nothing of?

It was terrifying.

It was as if everyone was under scrutiny.

Even Levi was not spared from the eerie feeling.

If Floyd was not involved, it would be difficult to explain everything.

Could it be that some other person had spread the word?

It was impossible, seeing as he had only told Zoey and Forlevia of his whereabouts.

"I really wanted to know where you've been and what you were up to because I wanted to help! Master, I wished to help you with your problems and also help Azure Dragon and the others get their revenge, but I was too scared. I was afraid that if I got involved, I'd be blamed if anything were to go south. I got fearful that I dreamed about your suspicion toward me! I guess this isn't all bad. Since you kept me out of the loop, you can't blame me when something happens." Floyd smiled bitterly and seemed like he was about to cry.

Immediately, everyone at the scene was dumbfounded.

They never expected to hear Floyd say something like that since they did not suspect him, but they felt guilty nonetheless, especially Azure Dragon and the others. If this really has nothing to do with Floyd, we'll be guilt-ridden!

"I won't ask any of you about Master or if you need help ever again! Never! From now onward, whatever you do is none of my business," voiced Floyd while glancing at Forlevia since his words were meant for her.

Forlevia could feel her heart shatter after listening to the man's harsh words.

Although nobody wanted to admit it, they did shut the poor man off.

Floyd was sensitive, so he dared not to ask them even though he wanted to know what they were up to.

Chapter 3547 Forlevia And Her Devouring Technique

Suddenly, Floyd felt as though his feet had been glued to the floor.

For some reason, Floyd was utterly stupefied when Levi revealed that piece of information.

Floyd could not help thinking that Levi was talking about Gloria because she was the first person to pop into his head.

Before then, Floyd would never think Gloria was involved in any way.

However, that was not the case when he heard what Levi said.

As much as Floyd wanted to stop thinking about it, his mind would not let him.

To do that, the user would have to become one with the universe.

That would be impossible if one were to absorb energy from the universe by force.

Essentially, doing that would defeat the purpose of the technique.

Even so, Levi never expected that Gloria was actually using Forlevia's technique.

So far, Forlevia was the only one who knew how to take her technique to the extreme.

Others did not even know what Forlevia's technique was, much less if it could be taken to the extreme.

Anyhow, the woman proved that it was possible to improve that quickly.

While everyone else went about their business, Floyd finally crawled home with great difficulty.

All he could think about was Gloria. No, it can't be true! I have to stop thinking about this! Why would Gloria be involved? There's nothing to prove that. Maybe it's those close to her; it could be Callahan or her master, Linda. I have to inform Gloria about them so that she doesn't get caught off guard.

With that thought in mind, Floyd immediately contacted Gloria to inform her of what Levi had found out and remind her to be on her guard.

I can't be suspicious of her! She must be cultivating somewhere or just busy with something else. Even if the Ecclesiastic Order is going through a tough time right now, no one says she has to be here. Floyd tried to convince himself to continue to trust Gloria.

"You must be Floyd," uttered a voice before several figures appeared behind the man.

"Huh? Yes, I am. And you are?" inquired Floyd curiously.

"I guess you can say we're like Gloria's sisters."

Upon hearing that, Floyd immediately greeted the women warmly.

"You must be here for Gloria," teased the ladies after sizing Floyd up.

To that, the man responded with a nod. "Yes. You're right."

"You can stop looking for her now because you're not going to find her," continued the women, chuckling.

"You're not suitable for her, so you might as well give up. She's not interested in you at all."

One of the ladies could not hold it back any longer, so she directly shouted the truth at Floyd. How can someone be so stupid?

Smiling, Floyd gladly agreed with the woman. "You're right. I admit it. I am under her spell, and nothing makes me happier."

"Do you know that you're not the only one under her spell? There are many other men just like you." The woman could not believe how nonchalant Floyd was with her revelation.

"Of course. I know how attractive Gloria is better than anyone else." Floyd was not surprised by what the woman had just said.

"You've completely lost yourself. You're nothing but a tool now."

"Forget about him. Nothing we say will change his mind about Gloria. He won't listen to us even if we have solid proof!"

The ladies decided not to waste their breath on Floyd, who still had trouble understanding what they were trying to tell him.
