Chapter 3591

One Of Us Disclosed It

Levi recalled how mysterious spies had been exposed and caught near the base a few days ago.

Azure Dragon and the others tortured the ones they had captured for information.

After interrogating them, they found out that the spies were looking for their underground base.

As Levi had been quick to jump to conclusions, he assumed the mysterious organization had yet to pinpoint the underground base's exact location.

After everything that had happened, Levi realized that could be part of the enemy's plan.

"What do you have to say about this, Floyd?" Levi asked coldly.

Apart from his wife and daughter, Floyd was the only other person he didn't want to doubt as he valued Floyd greatly.

Putting Floyd's hopeless obsession over Gloria aside, he was actually a great man with both brains and brawn.

On top of that, Floyd was extremely loyal to Levi as well.

However, Levi was worried that Floyd would end up making grave mistakes because of how foolish the latter was in relationships.

“Master, I...” Floyd didn’t know what to say.

On the one hand, he didn’t want to lie to his mentor.

Gloria Came Back Again

Levi was well aware that the mysterious woman’s plans were very well thought out. On top of that, the enemy was attacking them from the shadows while they were sitting ducks in the light.

As if that was not bad enough, his comrades were possibly getting manipulated by the enemy without even realizing it. Because of that, Levi felt that he had always been a step behind the enemy.

It was very dangerous to dance to the enemy’s tune, especially with the location of their base and underground base completely exposed.

Levi couldn’t construct another base like this in a short period of time, so his best bet was to fight the mysterious woman head-on as soon as possible.

Otherwise, his family and friends could fall victim to yet another attack when he left.

Xylas had attacked the base shortly after Levi left, which meant the mysterious woman must be aware of his every move.

I can't let this carry on, or we'll all end up dead!

Offer Up His Life

"Oh, thank goodness she's alive and well!" Floyd exclaimed in excitement upon hearing the news, but quickly calmed down when he realized something.

Logically speaking, Gloria should contact me as soon as she returns to West Pavilion. Why hasn't she done so? It's like she doesn't even remember that I'm her boyfriend! Wait... Could it be that she's afraid of contacting me because she leaked the information on the underground base's location?

Oh, Gloria... Did you really do such a thing? Hmm... Now that I think about it, it's highly unlikely that she leaked the information. If she really was the culprit, then it'd make more sense for her to go into hiding instead. Showing herself now would only draw attention to herself and arouse suspicion.

Heck, Master might even interrogate her personally! It wouldn't make sense for her to put herself in such a dangerous position! She must have nothing to hide if she's making an appearance in public like this! But if that's the case, then why hasn't she contacted me?

After taking some time to consider all the possible reasons, Floyd came up with a seemingly logical explanation.

"Ah, I know! She's deliberately keeping her distance from me to avoid causing a misunderstanding! She knows she'd be putting me in a tough spot if she contacts me immediately upon her return. By keeping her distance, she's able to draw their attention away from me. Still, wouldn't that mean she's choosing to bear this burden all by herself? Looks like Gloria cares deeply about me! This must be true love, huh?" Floyd muttered to himself.

Floyd Begged For Forgiveness

Gloria nearly threw up in disgust when she saw Floyd's messages that kept flooding in.

Ugh... Why don't you look in a mirror, Floyd? A useless piece of trash like you shouldn't even dream of dating me!

Gloria sneered at the thought of that.

She only contacted Floyd to toy with him and, if possible, gain more control over him.

Ideally, she wanted to drive a wedge between Floyd and Levi so she could tell Levi that his precious disciple had long since fallen under her control.

Instead of just killing someone, Gloria preferred to make them suffer a fate worse than death.

She took great pleasure in manipulating and toying with others.

Floyd Tested Gloria

Floyd was truly prepared to give up his life, but the sensation of her soft palm around his wrist snapped him out of it.

Upon looking up at Gloria, he saw a hint of concern on her face.

Gloria couldn't bear to watch me die! I knew it! She still loves me! Otherwise, she wouldn't have stopped me from taking my own life!

Floyd felt touched to the core that his eyes brimmed with tears.

"Gloria, have you forgiven me?" Floyd asked with a pleading look in his eyes.

The corner of Gloria's lips twitched slightly when she heard that, and she was starting to regret stopping him.

On the one hand, she wanted to put up with the disgust for the sake of her plan. On the other, she wanted to just let Floyd take his own life.

At that very moment, the scale was starting to tip in the latter's favor.

Floyd thought he was smart, but Gloria had already seen through him. He was actually playing into Gloria's hands without even realizing it.

The two immediately made their moves.

Although Floyd had worked really hard in his cultivation and made a lot of progress, it was nothing compared to what Gloria was capable of.

Not only was she able to accurately determine his maximum combat prowess the moment he channeled his technique, but she also knew how much force she should use to avoid exposing herself.

Her main objective was to satisfy his vanity without making it too obvious.

More importantly, she wanted to make Floyd feel guilty for doubting and hurting her.

After pretending to endure a few of his aggressive attacks, Gloria deliberately got her back hit by him.

Deliberate Guidance

Floyd was flattered and excited as he was listening to her compliments.

Of course, he understood the hidden meaning of Gloria's words.

Her words implied that she had found someone to depend on.

"Don't worry, Gloria. As long as I'm here, no one can hurt you," said Floyd in a domineering tone.

Floyd felt that he was finally qualified to say such words to Gloria, since he was so much more powerful than her now.

I've been trying my hardest to cultivate for so long, and the effort is finally paid off.

At that thought, Floyd felt an immense sense of fulfilment.

He put in so much effort to cultivate during this period, not only because he wanted to help Levi to fight with the mysterious woman and Xylas, but he desired to get Gloria's acknowledgment.

He did not want others to comment that he was not worthy of her when they got together in the future.

Finally, all his worries and concerns were gone now.

Floyd Mastered The Devouring Technique

“Floyd, do you think it’s all right to employ the technique this way? Last time, I did it in a similar way, but my body could not bear the impact of the sudden surge of spiritual energy. You’re much stronger now. I think you can give it a try.”

Under Gloria’s deliberate guidance, Floyd slowly discovered the characteristics of the extreme devouring technique.

The spiritual energy in his body suddenly soared. The plentiful feeling in his elixir field made him feel pretty good.

“So I can use Forlevia’s technique this way?” Floyd was pleasantly surprised.

He realized this kind of extreme devouring technique could boost his cultivation drastically in a short time.

He also remembered his master and Forlevia had explored this technique before.

However, even though Floyd had tried it out multiple times, he was still unable to find the correct way of cultivating the extreme devouring technique.

Unexpectedly, he found the key to cultivate that technique by chance today.

Floyd stayed until midnight before he parted with Gloria reluctantly.

Naturally, she had utilized the Charm Technique to trick him into experiencing an illusion again, causing him to think he had shared a long and intimate time with her.

Phoenix and the others were bewildered when they saw Floyd looking radiant.

"He was so listless in the day. Why is he so elated all of a sudden?"

Phoenix and the others were baffled.

Meanwhile, the Holy Guild and the Ecclesiastic Order were under much pressure.

Fear and anxiety filled the air inside the room as they dreaded the mysterious force that might attack them at any time.

However, the seal suddenly lit up at that moment.

There was news from Thundera, not to mention it was a message drafted by the Minister in person.

"I know everything that has happened to the Holy Guild and the Ecclesiastic Order. I'll be back very soon to take charge of the situation. All of you can rest assured while waiting for my return."
