Chapter 3601

I Can Also Try

At that moment, Yartran was a complete mess.

Bodies of the dead were sprinkled across the ground, and all the buildings were in ruins.

Levi quickly examined his surroundings but failed to come across anyone alive.

The members of the Glorian Order and the citizens of Yartran were nowhere to be seen.

“Did they retreat from here, or are they in hiding?”

No one knew of his whereabouts as he had decided to begin an assault on Yartran’s base alone.

He did not even mention his plan to his closest family and friends.

Levi also took extra precautions before departing the underground base.

He had made sure no one was following him before secretly taking his leave, so he was confident the other party would not discover his trail.

In that case, Levi figured it was more likely that everyone from the Glorian Order had withdrawn from Yartran.

Pull Yourself Together

In truth, the continuous improvement of Gloria's abilities had invoked an unprecedented sense of crisis in Levi.

He felt the desperate need to take his capabilities to the next level.

Therefore, Levi was overjoyed as he had found a feasible method now.

Besides, he could also utilize the super-spiritual ley line underneath the Ecclesiastic Order and Project Atlantis.

The super-spiritual ley line before him might not be useful to Gloria, but it was to him.

He could even use three spiritual ley lines to strengthen his body.

Once his cultivation level increased, Levi would be more confident in facing Gloria.

Levi chuckled, proud of himself for coming up with such a great idea at that critical moment.

Levi practiced a basic technique mainly to boost his power and speed. As a result, his cultivation progress was slow.

On the other hand, if he chose to risk his life, the outcome would be entirely different as he could accomplish great leaps in his cultivation even by using only a short amount of time.

However, that form of high-intensity training would require one to risk their life.

Floyd was indeed mad. How can they accuse Gloria just because the organization's name overlaps hers? There are countless people with similar names on this earth. Not to mention, the Glorian Order means the mysterious woman wishes her organization to attain eternal glory and rule forever. Why are they relating this matter to Gloria? This is outrageous!

"Floyd, we have your best interest at heart. Gloria is really not a good woman. You may bring harm to Boss if you don't pull yourself together and continue with this obsession. You may even put Boss' life in danger," Phoenix said sincerely.

"I will repeat what I said. Unfounded assumptions are not constructive references. If you all are so capable, produce some solid evidence to prove me wrong. Otherwise, all of you should just shut up." Floyd's tone turned frosty.

In his opinion, no one was allowed to tarnish Gloria's reputation.

Floyd would not permit even Levi to slander Gloria without basis, much less Phoenix.

“You’re hopeless! Are you only going to realize your error when everyone, including Boss, gets caught up in a crisis?” Azure Dragon could no longer contain his fury.

In fact, if it weren’t because of Levi, he would not have wasted his time and effort to persuade Floyd.

Azure Dragon would have directly given the latter a beating, and perhaps that would clear up Floyd’s mind more effectively.

“Azure Dragon, Phoenix, I warn you not to spread these baseless conjectures around. I will not let any of you go if you disrupt the base’s peace and sow discord between Master and me. Believe me. All of you cannot win against me even with your combined strength now.”

The other four hurriedly protested.

“Phoenix, don’t you think it’s inappropriate to tell Boss?”

“After all, we don’t have any conclusive evidence. If Gloria is wrongly accused, it will affect the relationship between Boss and Floyd.”

“Floyd is such an intense person. If he ends up despising Boss because of this, there will be endless trouble!”

“Let’s dig deeper into the Glorian Order. We can report to Boss once we have solid evidence.”

Phoenix carefully considered the words of her comrades.

It was a delicate situation. There was no room for mistakes.

It would be too late for regrets if any irreversible consequences were to happen due to them keeping silent.

Besides, they could just notify Levi about the existence of Gloria and the Glorian Order while not mentioning anything about whether she was the leader. It would be up to Levi himself to draw the connections.

However, as long as they revealed this matter, Floyd would take offense, no matter what Levi did next.

To be fair, Floyd had no other flaw aside from his unhealthy obsession with Gloria.

He was Levi’s favorite disciple and was an excellent assistant.

Gloria decided on a plan and immediately began to carry it out.

She was already in the West Pavilion, and in the eyes of the elite disciples, she was insignificant.

Hence, not many people paid attention to Gloria’s movements.

Therefore, Gloria was able to quietly mobilize Xylas and the Fatalis Warriors.

With the help of the Glorian Order’s spies, the West Pavilion was successfully cut off from the outside world.

After confirming that everything was in place, Gloria walked straight into the main hall of the West Pavilion.

The main hall was heavily guarded as guards were posted everywhere.

After all, this was the heart of the West Pavilion, and there were many highly-secret technique books stored there.

It was also the base of the leader of the West Pavilion.

“Gloria, what are you doing here?” one of the guards asked in a steely voice.

“I have business with the Master,” Gloria answered with a smile.

“Nonsense. The Master did not call for anyone today.”

“How dare you, a nobody, come here and make trouble?”

You Must Die

Gloria's eyes searched for the source of the voice and found a woman in a white dress rushing toward her.

"Well, if it isn't the Master of the West Pavilion! Shannon, how are you?" Gloria said in a mocking tone.

Shannon glanced around at the disembodied limbs and lifeless bodies littering the ground.

She gasped as the full force of Gloria's power dawned on her.

Even the strength of Gloria's own mentor, Linda, could not match up to this, let alone Shannon's.

However, Shannon was the Master of the West Pavilion. If she did not stand up to Gloria, she was afraid that no one would be left alive after Gloria's rampage.

"Gloria, these are all our own people! Why are you killing them so mercilessly?" Shannon asked in confusion. "Why are you doing this?"

Gloria sneered and replied, "When all of you humiliated and bullied me, did you ever think of me as one of you? Now that you are facing death, you expect me to think of you as family? What double standards! This is all your fault!"

It was true that they were guilty of treating Gloria terribly all along.

They had deprived her of cultivation resources and rained down endless verbal abuse on her.

"Gloria, what do you want?" Shannon asked in a serious voice.

Chapter 3607

The Truth Will Be Revealed

The hall was filled with the sound of gasps.

Gloria's mindless cruelty had left everyone present in a state of shock.

Finally, someone broke the silence and screamed.

Most of the others were paralyzed by what they had seen, unable to move or even speak as they collapsed to the ground.

Everyone present in the hall was an elite disciple of the West Pavilion, and yet, they had all sustained bloody injuries.

The sight of Gloria cackling cruelly after slaughtering her fellow disciples made the rest of them tremble.

"Gloria, I was wrong. Forgive me!"

"I will do anything for you if you will spare me!"

"Gloria, from now on, you will be our Master."

One by one, all the disciples of the West Pavilion knelt before Gloria.

Their voices were choked with tears as they collectively begged for their lives.

"It's too late to beg for mercy now!" Gloria declared.

Then, she once again turned into a ruthless murderer, mercilessly ending the lives of all the elite disciples of the West Pavilion.

Gloria Is Dead

Azure Dragon and the others nodded in agreement. All of them were also convinced that Gloria was still alive and related to the massacre.

That was the only explanation for everything that had happened and everything which would happen in the near future.

“Also, keep an eye on Floyd. I think he may have means of contacting Gloria somehow.”

As soon as Phoenix voiced that thought, the others immediately turned to look at her.

Doubt flickered in their eyes.

“Think about the way Floyd has changed in the past few days!” Phoenix explained.

With those words, realization dawned on the others.

Azure Dragon and the others immediately understood what Phoenix meant.

For a long while, Floyd had seemed to be utterly despondent. He had been distracted, listless, and had not been taking care of himself.

However, just a few days ago, he suddenly appeared reinvigorated with no explanation at all.

Then there was the fact he had acted out of the norm by warning them, even going so far as to propose introducing Gloria to Levi.

All these signs combined pointed to the high likelihood that Floyd had contacted Gloria, but for reasons unknown to them, he had kept this secret.

Just as Floyd was beating himself up about it, he suddenly heard the faint sound of footsteps behind him.

Turning toward the sound, he saw that it was Phoenix and the others. "Hmph!" After snorting coldly, Floyd got up to leave.

He was still angry at them after their quarrel previously.

If not out of respect toward Master, I would've gotten into a physical fight with them. After all, they keep targeting Gloria and won't leave her alone. That irks me so much!

"Wait," Phoenix said, blocking his path.

Floyd frowned. In an annoyed tone, he said, "If there's nothing important, step aside. I'm busy."

"You're planning to go and look for Gloria, aren't you?" Phoenix asked seriously.

Floyd Devours Dead Bodies

The communication device displayed a message: Floyd, come and save me! It was a distress signal from Gloria! Floyd's spirits lifted instantly.

It's just as I expected. Gloria is alive! However, she's also being hunted down and may be in mortal peril at any moment.

He dared not delay any longer and quickly followed the coordinates on the communication device to track her location.

Vaguely sensing that someone seemed to be trailing him, Floyd could not help but quicken his pace.

The feeling that he was being followed finally disappeared after half an hour.

After that, he hastened on a two-hour journey that led him to a dense forest.

"Where on earth is Gloria?"

He quickly searched for signs of Gloria's aura, and soon, he sensed something.

He ventured into the forest, and it did not take long before he spotted her in a relatively open space.
