Chapter 361

Winston and the rest were confused as to why the younger ones were so shocked.

“We should take a look too!”

They turned.

Winston, Eric, and the others almost fainted when they saw Levi’s face.

“Levi? It’s Levi?”

“No way! How could it be Levi?”

“I don’t believe it! I must’ve seen it wrongly.”

Winston and the others couldn’t accept the reality. They just couldn’t believe it even though they saw it with their own eyes.

Even North Hampton’s highest leader, Grover Cooke, paled upon seeing Levi.

“This- Isn’t this Levi Garrison? Levi is the God of War? I’m not dreaming, am I?”

Those who knew Levi felt as though their life was about to collapse soon.

The young man who had once been imprisoned had transformed into an unparalleled general in a blink of an eye!

He was a capable and powerful person now!

It was unimaginable!

The scene before their eyes was just too shocking.

The upperclassmen were absolutely dumbfounded, it was as if they had been struck by lightning.

Percy and the higher-ups of the North Hampton Warzone looked at Levi with curious eyes.
They knew nothing of the upheavals of the North Hampton.
But Xander, Grover, and a few others already knew that something was up.
They broke into cold sweat.
“Winston is here, right?” Levi asked suddenly.
Boom!
Winston was about to have a heart attack at that moment.
He coughed out another mouthful of blood!
“Is Winston here?” Levi increased his volume into a thunderous roar.

Everyone in the room felt the powerful aura Levi exuded.

“H-here... I’m here...”

Winston almost fell on his knees out of fear.

“How did you treat me when I saved your life the other day?”

Thud!

Both Winston and Una fell onto their knees.

“How dare you repay my kindness with enmity? Your granddaughter threw money at me to humiliate me. She kept provoking me and even tried to kill me!”

Caitlyn nudged Aaron and said, "That's classified information! Why are you asking that?"

Aaron laughed.
The few of them enjoyed their dinner together afterward.
Aaron still had questions on the way out, "I think a new commander-in-chief was appointed today!"
"That's right!"
"Well, we don't need to think about people like him. But you did really well today, Levi. We're really happy for you!"
Aaron grinned as he spoke.

Shaun and Melanie Lopez shouted.

“What are you up to? Why are the both of you so frantic? Didn’t I tell you to move the company?” said Harry as he frowned, obviously displeased.

After he took over Zoey’s company, the first thing he did was to move his company to Union Square.

After all, Union Square was at the center of the city.

It feels good to have a company building in the middle of the city.

“Grandpa, the company has been moved. But there’s some other stuff...”

“Grandpa, we don’t know what happened but... Just this morning, large numbers of the Company’s workers resigned. What’s more, it was none other than the executives who led them to resign! It’s a huge loss to the company!”

Shaun panted.

Melanie's face was extremely sullen.

"What? Did all these really happen?"

"God damn it! I thought we actually had a billion in our hands. But who knew all we got is this mess?" said Harry furiously.

In the meantime, a car stopped in front of the Lopez family's residence.

There were a few men and women in suits.

“Which one of you is Mr. Harry Lopez?”

“That’s me. And you are?”

Harry had an unsettling feeling.

“Hi, we are the person in charge of Union Square. We’re here to inform you that the lease contract of the company is a temporary contract. This is the official contract. Naturally, the prices will be revised accordingly.

It will be revised from the previous ten million every five years to a hundred million every five years. Please pay as soon as possible or you will be ordered to excavate within three days!” One of the persons in charge from Union Square said coldly.

Boom!

A wave of shock washed over Harry and he almost lost his balance.

Shaun took the new contract with trembling hands and read through it.

The more he read, the darker his face got.

The Lopez family was at the verge of going mad.

A hundred men or more had the Lopez family completely surrounded.

They made a big ruckus out of it.

The Lopez family were completely stunned.

Did a bunch of workers come out to protest?

Previously Zoey had arranged for the contractors to be paid at the end of the month and it just so happened that today was the payday.

The Lopez family might have to foot the bill in her stead.

"Zoey is the one who had your money! Find her if you must but it has nothing to do with us!" yelled Shaun angrily.

"What nonsense is this? Shouldn't it be the opposite? Ms. Lopez has nothing to do with the company anymore!"

"That's right! Ms. Lopez has already been disowned by the Lopez Group. How could she be a part of this?"

"We won't leave until we receive what we were owed!"

The workers were starting to be unreasonable.

"You are trespassing on private property. Get out of my sight or I'll have the cops arrest you!" warned Shaun.

"Pfft!"

Harry was seething with anger.

"Zoey you little b*tch! You tricked me?"

At this moment, the Lopez family were all sold with the idea that Zoey was having them clean up her mess.

But she had no idea at all.

When she was at the helm of Imperial Meadows, things were doing well. The business was growing and the company had sufficient capital.

Little did they know that Levi was actually the one behind it.

Within the span of a night, he had changed the fate of Imperial Meadows for the worse.

“Grandpa, I think it would only be reasonable for Zoey to return and clean up her own mess!” suggested Henry.

“Yes, we should do just that! We’ll let her solve her own problems!” responded the crowd angrily as they agreed to Henry’s proposition.

"Zoey should you agree to it you may now come to the Lopez family residence and I'll personally reinstate your family!"

Harry had foreseen that it wouldn't take long for her to agree, she just needed a little push.

"Grandpa, I..."

Just as Zoey was about to agree on it, Levi snatched her phone away from her hands.

"Who the hell are you? It would be best for you to stop harassing my wife or I'll beat you up!" said Levi angrily.

"Levi, it's me! Did you not recognize your grandpa?"

Harry was furious but he had no choice other than to hold it in.

"Grandpa? Never heard of him. Now scram!" shouted Levi before he hung up the phone.

He even blocked all the contacts of the Lopez family.

Harry tried to call her again, but to no avail.

"With the project coming to a halt, the construction workers gone and your company facing cash flow issues, we would like to terminate the contract. Of course, it goes without saying that you will have to pay us back the amount that we have invested!"

"We have already appointed our lawyers, why don't you have a nice long talk with them?"

It seems that the co-developers had already made their preparations.

"Why would you involve the lawyer at such an early stage? Did we say that we disagree to it?"

Shaun was about to lose himself.

"Thump!"

A brute had stepped forward and threw a punch at Shaun's nose, causing blood to spew everywhere.

"How dare you hit me!" said Shaun angrily.

"Just you wait, I'll call the cops!"

The brute gave Shaun a cold sneer before saying, "Call the cops if you wish, but I'm just a passerby. I just couldn't bear to look at you."

"You..."

Needless to say the Lopez family was enraged by this, but there was nothing that they could do.

A phone call cut the tension that was starting to build up.

As Seth had his phone on speaker mode, Harry and his family members could hear it clearly.
What? He is not going to meet us?
"Hey Levi, it's me! Your grandpa!" said Harry immediately.
"Who the hell do you think you are? Why don't you call me grandpa instead!"
And with that, Levi hung up immediately.
"This..."
The Lopez family were dumbfounded.
It was a force of habit that these words had slipped from his mouth.

Seth stared at Harry and the people behind him before saying, "You all are not here to seek for trouble, are you? I can't believe you just called yourself Mr. Garrison's grandfather."

The other guards were also staring at them.

While Levy was given the cold shoulder by Iris and the upper management inside the company, he could get along well with the security guards and also the janitors.

They were always seen hanging around smoking or chatting during tea breaks.

So naturally, Levi had a good reputation among them.

To be hearing someone calling himself as Levi's grandfather, the security guards immediately turned hostile.
