Chapter 3611

Turn Against Us

Word of the bloodbath at West Pavilion soon reached Levi.

It was evident that the mysterious force was behind it, and after further investigation, they discovered traces of Xylas' and the Fatalis Warriors' handiwork.

However, this mysterious woman's whereabouts and actions are extremely strange. I simply can't guess what her next step will be.

"She may very well be planning to attack the base next," he mused.

With that thought in mind, Levi redoubled his efforts to find a place for his friends and family to go into hiding.

I'm eager to metamorphose using the three super-spiritual ley lines. Hence, I have to think of a way to ensure everyone's safety first so I can do so without any worries.

Meanwhile, Phoenix and the others were still investigating the massacre at West Pavilion and soon obtained a piece of crucial information.

"Just because of a woman? That's easy for you to say!" Floyd gave a mirthless chuckle, then asked, "If your loved ones were unjustifiably accused and doubted by others, would you still be reasoning with others so calmly? You can't understand someone until you've walked a mile in their shoes. Don't you even understand such a simple concept?"

He was very upset indeed.

The good mood I had after finding out that Gloria is safe and well is now ruined. Although many signs show she's innocent, she's still getting doubted by all these evil people. Moreover, it feels like their suspicions have intensified. That's really crossing the line!

"Floyd, you're Boss' best aide and a brother to us. That's why we're saying all this. We mean well, but why do you keep taking our kindness for malice? Have you thought carefully about how much you actually know about Gloria?"

Azure Dragon was also getting a little angry. He even felt that Floyd was becoming increasingly unreasonable.

Why does his wisdom turn into stupidity whenever the issue has anything to do with Gloria?

"Azure Dragon, you've finally touched the crux of the matter. You're right. If it weren't because of our bond, I'd have already taught all of you a lesson. Forget it. People who have different values can't work together. Some day, you'll realize how wrong your suspicions are."

With that, Floyd turned and walked away.

Metamorphose With Heavenly Thunder

Confronted by a formidable enemy, the theurgists unleashed the Thunder-Summoning Technique right off the bat.

In an instant, dark clouds gathered. Lightning flashed, and thunder roared.

The theurgists chanted incessantly as they launched the technique.

Crack!

Alongside a deafening clap of thunder, a bolt of lightning split the sky.

On the heels of that, countless thunderbolts as thick as tree trunks clustered together interminably.

Even the people on the ground could hear the crackling sound of electric current despite the vast distance.

"The Esoteric Guild has no intention of making an enemy out of you. I'll spare you if you leave now. Otherwise, wherever the Heavenly Thunder strikes, flesh and blood will turn into ashes," the master theurgist warned solemnly.

In response, Gloria sneered, "You're still putting on a tough front when death is close at hand. Is the ultimate technique of the Esoteric Guild the Tough Front Technique?"

At once, fury blazed within the master theurgist.

Although summoning Heavenly Thunder to attack one's opponent could attain evident results, the activation of that technique took a lot out of the theurgists.

As such, the Esoteric Guild wouldn't easily employ the Thunder-Summoning Technique unless absolutely necessary.

"Since you refuse to repent, don't blame me for showing you no mercy. Summon the Heavenly Thunder and attack!"

The Esoteric Guild Seeks Help

Out of the blue, the master theurgist cried out, "Halt the Thunder-Summoning Technique! She's using the Heavenly Thunder to metamorphose!"

That single remark had realization dawning upon everyone.

Even if Gloria were so arrogant that she wanted to go head-on against the Heavenly Thunder, logic dictated that she would launch a counterattack after withstanding a round or a few rounds of Heavenly Thunder.

That would ruin the formation of the Thunder-Summoning Technique.

However, she showed no signs of counterattacking despite withstanding several strikes of Heavenly Thunder.

Instead, she continued waiting for the next round of Heavenly Thunder after each strike.

Thus, it was clear as day that she was using the might of the Heavenly Thunder.

As understanding dawned upon the theurgists, they hurriedly halted the technique.

Following that, the Heavenly Thunder that had condensed into a ball earlier slowly dissipated.

Levi Starts Making His Move

While Levi was mulling over the matter, he suddenly remembered something very important. This incident proves my suspicion that the mysterious woman has probably hit her devouring limit as correct. Now that she has gone to the Esoteric Guild and forced them to launch the Thunder-Summoning Technique, she likely wants to use Heavenly Thunder to metamorphose, thereby building up her body to be stronger.

Then, she would be able to boost her devouring capacity. And according to Caelum, the mysterious woman said she'd return before leaving. That means she hasn't completed her metamorphosis yet. Therefore, I've got a chance, no?

"This female lord has a lot of spies. If I were to rush over rashly, she wouldn't appear once news of it leaks out. At that time, it'll be difficult to lure her out. How about this? Go back and keep an eye on things first. Notify me timely if there's any crucial news. I'll then appear when the time is right so that I can get her in one fell swoop," Levi proposed grimly.

Caelum nodded in agreement. As long as he agrees to lend us a hand, my mission is considered accomplished!

Meanwhile, Levi's mind whirled at warp speed as he pondered upon a slew of things.

Since the mysterious woman is currently utilizing Heavenly Thunder to metamorphose, she certainly wouldn't have the time and energy to deal with me. Therefore, this is a good opportunity for me to use those three spiritual ley lines. Even if she successfully metamorphoses, I would've long since drained all the energy in those spiritual ley lines. This would put a kibosh on her plan. At the same time, I can boost my capabilities significantly. Two birds, one stone! Of course, I've got to hide Evie and the others away before doing so.

Chapter 3616

The Return Of Thundera

As for Floyd, he had grown obsessed with devouring all sorts of energy. His obsession ran so deep that he didn't even take the initiative to contact Gloria.

He only had a single thought right then—to become stronger in the fastest time possible. Then, he would have more say in the base and before his master.

Consequently, he would be able to bring Gloria back to meet everyone even sooner.

Only by enduring the temporary pain of missing her would I be able to be with her forever.

Every time that thought flashed across Floyd's mind, he was all the more motivated to cultivate.

Besides, he grew increasingly familiar with the extreme devouring technique, so his capabilities were indeed skyrocketing.

Meanwhile, Gloria had already gained full control of the Esoteric Guild.

Her capabilities were simply too terrifying.

The theurgists had studied other ways to kill her, but they all gave up in the end because they had no confidence that they would succeed.

Therefore, Gloria was actually ordering the Esoteric Guild to launch Heavenly Thunder for her to metamorphose.

Having no other recourse, the Esoteric Guild could only bear the humiliation and submit.

It went without saying that all the theurgists understood that the Esoteric Guild would no longer be of any use once she completed her metamorphosis.

The Mark Of The Glorian Order

The Acting Minister of the Holy Guild was so shocked that words eluded him.

He continued reading the missive from Thundera.

After such a long time, both Thundera and Wade had joined the super sects in the legendary world.

The capabilities of the super sects were beyond imagination.

Wade had learned that his clan had been wiped out, so he was returning to exact his revenge.

“What should we do now?”

The brows of the Acting Minister of the Holy Guild creased deeply.

Ultimately, Wade’s return wasn’t good news for the Ecclesiastic Order.

Right now, the Glorian Order has set its sight on us, and there are signs of Xylas working with them. If Wade were to return, he would most likely form an alliance with the Glorian Order. At that time, the Ecclesiastic Order would be all the more powerless to go against them!

Fortunately, Thundera’s subsequent remark had relief suffusing him.

It read: Don’t worry, for I won’t stand idly by as the Ecclesiastic Order is annihilated. I’ll also be coming back in a few days to defend the Ecclesiastic Order.

Coming Closer To The Truth

Everything was extremely obvious, and it was not difficult to investigate it either.

More information came one after the other.

Phoenix and the rest even discovered that Gloria was one of the West Pavilion members who almost got killed by Levi.

This information was extremely critical. In fact, it pointed them to a very clear direction.

Back then, Levi had suspected that there was a mysterious woman amongst the members of West Pavilion.

Furthermore, Phoenix discovered that Linda, Gloria’s master, had been killed by Gloria and Floyd.

Azure Dragon and the rest were dumbfounded when they heard the news.

Back then, Linda had been accused as a traitor. According to an insider, she had brought multiple apprentices to kill Gloria.

No one knew exactly why Gloria and Linda suddenly became enemies, despite initially being in a teacher-apprentice relationship.

"Phoenix's hypothesis is very likely."

"Yeah! Even if Floyd had been tricked, he wouldn't have known at all."

"Furthermore, he's completely smitten with Gloria. It would only be natural for his first impression about the situation to be one that was not negative."

As the group expressed their opinions, Phoenix's expression became even more solemn.

If their guesses were true, Gloria's manipulations were simply too terrifying.

Even if Floyd was in love with her, he was still a very intelligent man. To be able to deceive him completely, she would need an extremely elaborate plan.

Azure Dragon sighed and said, "Although we are basically sure that it is Gloria, we lack actual evidence."

"That's true. If we want Floyd to give up on her completely and for Boss to believe it, we'll need to continue searching for evidence."

Phoenix and the rest mustered their energy and continued looking for evidence regarding Gloria.

The expression on Forlevia's face turned grim.

Upon thinking that this would concern everyone's safety and Floyd's future, she revealed everything without holding anything back.

Forlevia only described the approximate time period—it was much earlier than when she taught the others the technique.

"Furthermore, Floyd especially reminded me not to tell Daddy about teaching him the technique."

Recalling what had happened back then, Forlevia tried her best to narrate all the details.

As the most meticulous member, Phoenix revealed a serious look when she heard that.

Logically speaking, Floyd should not be worried about Levi knowing about it even if he asked Forlevia to teach him the technique.
