Chapter 3651 Huge Difference

No one came to their rescue after waiting for a long time in the darkness. Suddenly, Eusof frowned. For some reason, he felt a bad premonition in the pit of his stomach.

“Are they not here yet?” he mumbled. Floyd found it odd, too. After all, the base was not too far away. It would take only an hour for Forlevia and the others to arrive on foot.

Why am I not sensing their aura yet?

“They should be here soon,” Floyd said uncertainly.

The moment he finished, a mocking voice rang out.

“Master Eusof, you’ve been hiding really well. It took me ages to find you!”

Xylas?

Floyd’s and Eusof’s hearts sank.

That voice could not be more familiar to them.

Why is he here?

Before Floyd could even ponder more on it, he felt a wave of foreign aura approaching them in all directions.

“Run!” Eusof yelled.

"You need to be capable enough to ambush someone. Otherwise, you're just putting yourself in danger." As Xylas was saying that, he turned and launched a kick without even looking.

A powerful force shot out into the area. Eusof halted when he was about three meters away from Xylas. It was as if Eusof was stopped by an invisible force. No matter how much strength he exerted, he could not break free.

"Get lost!" Xylas bellowed, and the unmoving shield rampaged in an instant.

Following that, a powerful force threw Eusof into the sky.

As he was still soaring into the sky, he vomited blood, for he had suffered serious damage and internal injuries in his eyes.

Thump!

Eusof smashed heavily to the ground after being thrown about thirty meters across the woods.

His aura withered instantly.

He's too powerful!

Suddenly, a feeling of hopelessness crept upon Eusof and Floyd.

They had joined forces, yet they could not endure more than three attacks from Xylas.

Floyd felt his temper flare at Phoenix's and the rest's barrage of questions. Yet he kept it in check, knowing it wasn't the right time. I can't let them know I've already told Gloria about Master Eusof. Based on Phoenix's and the rest's prejudice against Gloria, they'll surely be suspicious of her. I still don't have any power of discourse at the base.

"I didn't tell Gloria anything," Floyd denied. "Moreover, Xylas had already confessed about the Glorian Order sending troops to areas near the base."

Phoenix and the rest gave up trying to break through Floyd's firm attitude. "Has Master Eusof even told you anything, then?" Azure Dragon continued his questioning.

Floyd shook his head. "Xylas and the others arrived not long after Master Eusof and I hid. We didn't even have the chance to talk."

Everyone shook their heads and sighed with regret at his answer. Phoenix and the rest were crestfallen.

The Glorian Order has now captured every escapee. These people most likely knew about the secrets of the Glorian Order. They might even know about the Order's lord's identity. Now, even that only crucial piece of clue we have leads to a dead end.

Everyone returned to base with disappointment and despair weighing on them while Floyd continued to devour without restraint.

"A bootlicker like Floyd, naturally, is willing to do anything for me. Even if I ask him to jump to his death, he'll do it in a heartbeat, let alone tipping me off about you guys," Gloria continued as though she knew what the audience was thinking.

Sonja and the others were once again shocked. Despite their unwillingness, they still had to admit Gloria's words to be true. They knew Gloria's capability in controlling men well enough, especially the trio.

Many male members of the Ecclesiastic Order were so obsessed with Gloria to the point of insanity. Those men might hold influential positions or were cultivators with immense talents. They wouldn't even think twice about mass suicide to cover for Gloria. She has terrifying techniques for controlling men. Understandably, she has Floyd eating out of her palm.

"Of course, none of you have to be worried. I'll avenge you for Floyd's betrayal."

Catching the confusion on their faces, Gloria explained, "Floyd, as a pawn, still has use to me as of now. He might be able to find out all the Ministers' identities and backgrounds and even inflict a heavy blow on Levi at a crucial time. After he finishes his tasks, I'll let all of you have your way with him to relieve the hatred burning within you. How about that? I'm kind, no?"

Everyone was stunned by her horrible means. She's like a nightmare as an enemy. Meanwhile, Levi and the rest took full advantage of Elterton's spiritual ley line to metamorphose.

With the rapid channeling of his basic techniques, Levi's body and meridians were repeatedly tempered and strengthened. A faint golden luster started to appear on Levi's body.

Just like that, a few days passed, and Levi slowly opened his eyes. Swoosh! Those eyes were like two peerless divine weapons unsheathed, making people dare not look directly at them.

Levi stood up slowly. There was a terrifying aura in his every move. His body was extremely firm, giving people a strong and powerful feeling even when he was just standing still.

Such terrifying power! Levi was overjoyed. Then, he threw a punch at the towering glacier at the far end.

Everything that happened next was completely against the law of nature. Levi swung his fist at a very low speed, but the power emanated was frightening.

It seemed as if the space where the trajectory of the force of his fist whistled out distorted in an instant. A piercing cracking sound rang out as if the space shattered after being extremely deformed.

Boom! After a while, the force of his punch hit the glacier.

“This armor is amazing!” said Levi with satisfaction. Levi had used almost fifty to sixty percent of his power. He was shocked that the armor could resist it.

Wynona and the two felt unbelievable, too, as they could clearly feel how terrifying Levi’s punch was just now. “Digital God, how many pieces of this armor do you have?” asked Levi.

Digital God smiled and replied, “As many as you want.”

“Great! I’ll take all of them!” said Levi. Digital God’s lips twitched at that. The armor had just been invented, and it had all been taken away by Levi.

Levi was thrilled too. The defense level of everyone at the base would improve significantly with the assistance of this armor. Following that, he also took a lot of weapons invented by Digital God.

Although those weapons were relatively traditional, their power was far stronger than Yartran’s.

Of course, this was all thanks to the super-spiritual ley line of Elterton.

Not only did Levi significantly improve his cultivation, but he also returned with many new weapons and equipment.

These things would be his new trump card. At the thought of that, he felt extremely good.

Chapter 3657 Dissatisfied With Levi

Although such a phrase was commonly used between couples, Gloria had never been the one to say it first. As such, Floyd was on cloud nine. The yearning he felt for her intensified, filling his heart.

With as much sincerity as he could muster, he said, "I missed you too, Gloria! A day without seeing you is like a day without sunshine!" Gloria tamped down the nauseous feeling surging within her from hearing his declaration of love before replying in kind reluctantly.

She then changed the topic. "By the way, did Master Eusof tell Master about the situation? The Holy Guild has started urging about this, but with my current status, I don't think I can enter the base."

She was feigning ignorance. "So, you really didn't know about this." Floyd was overjoyed, and he felt indignant once again at being doubted by Phoenix and the others.

"Gloria, I'm really sorry. It's because of my uselessness that Master Eusof was taken by Xylas again." He proceeded to tell Gloria what had happened.

After he was done, Gloria asked puzzledly, "How is that possible? You guys were so close to the base! Besides, with Master's capabilities, this shouldn't have happened even if Xylas was strong, or if the Glorian Order tried to get in the way."

Chapter 3658 Kenfort

Nobody knows where Levi's gone, not even Zoey and Evie. This is weird... Gloria muttered, "What on earth is Levi doing? Why is he making it seem so mysterious? Could it be that he went somewhere to increase his abilities?"

She quickly scrapped that thought. In her mind, no one could match her when it came to improving one's strength in a short period of time.

Well, it might be possible for Evie to surpass me since she has the devourer spiritual bone, which is much stronger than the spiritual bone I created. But Evie is in the base, and according to the Fatalis Warriors' report, her strength is not as terrifying as we imagined. Besides, even if she decided to become a devourer, the super-spiritual ley line in all parts of the world is gone. Without an energy supply, it'd be hard for her to increase her strength even if she has the devourer spiritual bone. There's no way she would be able to catch up to me.

Just then, another thought crossed Gloria's mind, and she scoffed coldly before mumbling to herself,
"Levi's probably thinking of ways to stop me. Since they couldn't increase their strength, the next best course of action would be to stop me from devouring."

Even if I stop devouring, Levi is no threat to me. The only person I'm concerned about now is Thundera, or rather, the powerful fighters that are coming along with him. Only by gaining more information about them can I plan my next step better. Judging from the current data I have, the legendary world is a place called Kenfort. Supposedly, there are many sects in Kenfort, but there is no substantial record of the power the place contained. One of the spies I planted in the Ecclesiastic Order found out that when Thundera first enter Kenfort, his cultivation level was below average.

Wade said, "The fighters that Master Thundera will be bringing with him will be superior to those that I'll be bringing with me." Hearing that, Xylas felt his mood turned glum.

So, what he meant to say is that this will be a battle between the top fighters of Kenfort. They are the only ones who can determine the outcome of the incoming battle.

Wade continued, "That being said, you don't need to worry too much about it, for the ones who will be accompanying me are all Paladins of the Void Sect. Although their strength might pale in comparison to the top Paladins of the sect, they are still much stronger than me. Even if they can't win against Master Thundera's fighters, I reckoned they'll be evenly matched."

Xylas felt more reassured after hearing that.

Through his conversation with Wade, he was able to learn more information.

For starters, he found out that with his father's current status, he still could not approach the top Paladins of the Void Sect.

Regardless, it was already a miracle that Wade could bring some average-level Paladins home with him.

Xylas also realized that Kenfort emphasized more on the utilization of elements and the cultivation of nature's powers.

Excitement coursed through Xylas' veins when he asked, "Father, does that mean it would be advantageous to devour the power contained in the elements?"

Wade replied, "That's right. Apart from that, there's an abundance of spiritual energy and elemental energy in Kenfort. If you can devour those energies for your own use, you'll definitely earn a place in the Void Sect."

"You have no right interfering in my business! Now get out of my sight!" Before anyone could react, Floyd had already disappeared. Azure Dragon exclaimed, "Bruno, watch out!"

After having countless close encounters with death, he could sense the murderous intent rolling off Floyd. Luckily, Bruno's level of cultivation was high enough for his instinct to react in time, making him dodge to the side. Bam!

Alas, Floyd was faster, and he was able to land a strike on Bruno's shoulder. Crack!

The sound of bone breaking rang out, and Bruno was sent flying backward. Floyd looked at him in disdain and spat, "I can't believe you had the audacity to tell me what to do when you're so much weaker than me."

He then turned to look at the others. "And you guys, you've been putting the blame on me and Gloria without any evidence. Well, I had enough! I'll settle the scores with you all today! So come at me!"

His eyes had turned bloodshot, and he was exuding a malicious aura.

Azure Dragon and the rest were stunned by the sight.

However, what surprised them even more was the fact that Floyd had raised his hand against Bruno.

Anger was already boiling within Kirin when they were confronting Floyd earlier. Now that the latter had struck Bruno, Kirin's fury erupted. "Seems like you've really lost your mind. Phoenix, let's rush him together and see if we could beat some sense into him!"
