Chapter 3671 Wade Allies With Gloria

The resulting energy shockwave expanded with Xylas at its core, forming an energy maelstrom that spun around him.

It was so powerful that the space within the maelstrom looked as if it was about to be contorted and torn to shreds.

"I'm surprised at how strong you are. It seems that you're more powerful than Master Thundera when he was searching for Kenfort back then."

Wade was visibly impressed by what he saw.

As for Grant and the other Paladins, they too were equally shocked.

"How can there be such a powerful fighter in the mundane world?"

"Given his aura, he certainly won't be among the weakest in Kenfort!"

"To have reached such a level in the mundane world where spiritual energy is limited, he certainly has a lot of potentials."

"Wade, is your son interested in joining the Void Sect?"

Thundera even threatened her to release Eusof and apologize, or he would destroy the Glorian Order.

This upset Gloria even further and made her panic even more.

I wonder how Xylas is doing...

She knew Xylas had gone to meet Wade. If the talk went well, then the Cetus would become a great help to her.

However, allying with the Cetus was just a temporary way for them to survive the threat posed by the Ecclesiastic Order.

Gloria was eyeing a higher goal. She wanted to get into Kenfort and seek a more advanced cultivation level.

Wade was where the key lay. It would be much easier to get into Kenfort through his recommendation rather than trying herself.

Gloria would drool whenever she thought of the holy ley lines and divine ley lines in Kenfort.

The feeling only intensified when the extreme devouring technique she cultivated had experienced a tremendous boost from the ordinary spiritual ley lines.

Hence, it was not difficult to imagine just how powerful a divine ley line would be.

Chapter 3673 Gloria Pretended To Be Defeated

"Huh? A test? Will it be too difficult?" Gloria pretended to be in fear and trepidation. Her looks had Grant all hyped up, and he had this strong urge to protect the angel before him.

"Lord Gloria, I will control my power. I promise I won't hurt you." "Thank you, Mr. Grant." "Please drop the formalities. Just call me by my name."

"Okay." The smile on Grant's face widened as he said, "Gloria, we're going to be in the same sect, so just Grant will do."

"Okay. I suppose I'll be in your care in the future, Grant." Gloria returned him with an alluring smile.

On the side, Wade was in awe at seeing how Gloria quickly charmed Grant by building a bridge with Grant and closing the distance between them.

Putting her strength aside, Gloria's ability to charm these men by just talking alone proved her worthy enough to be an assistant to him in the future.

Besides, his son, Xylas, was Gloria's apprentice.

He changed the subject curtly. "If you wish to attain a higher position, however, you will have to offer something bigger."

"I understand, Lord Wade." Gloria nodded, then put on a troubled look. "But what should I offer to get the sect's attention? Could you please advise me?"

"Easy!" Grant piped up. "The head of the Void Sect focuses on swordsmanship, but he couldn't find a good weapon for himself after all these years."

"Grant is right. The Void Sect will ascend as one of the strongest sects if we acquire a mighty strong sword."

"But that's too difficult for Gloria, is it not?"

"Yes. There's no way that the mundane world possesses such a powerful sword. I guess we have to look for another way."

Gloria's heart thumped. She recalled the God Crusher that she had stolen from Levi's base, which came in handy right now.

If she presented it to the council members of the Void Sect, then perhaps she would be valued and could soar to a greater height.

Chapter 3675 Making Moves

In the Ecclesiastic Order's meeting room, everyone's expression was exceptionally solemn. The core members of the Ecclesiastic Order dared not even take a breath.

The room fell so quiet that one could hear a pin drop. Upon catching a glimpse of Hansel's ugly scowl, Thundera said, “Leave us. I have something to talk to Master Hansel.”

Only then did the members of the Ecclesiastic Order breathe a sigh of relief as if a huge burden had been taken off them. They bolted out of the room. They could tell the arrogant Hansel was stressed at the alliance of the Glorian Order and the Cetus.

After they left, Thundera unleashed his aura to form a soundproof barrier around the meeting room. “Master Hansel, what do you think about this?” Thundera asked cautiously.

After pondering for some time, Hansel said, “This is tricky. It's a bit embarrassing to say this, but I must admit that the Void Sect outperforms the Bluesky Sect overall. If the council members of the Void Sect get involved, even the Bluesky Sect will face destruction, let alone the Ecclesiastic Order.”

Fear had finally found its way into Hansel's mind.

The Void Sect was a mid-level sect in Kenfort, and it overwhelmed the Bluesky Sect in every way.

“In my opinion, you don't have to worry too much, Master Hansel,” Jasper said abruptly.

Chapter 3676 Backstabbing Levi

Everyone's heart fell further into despair. They were crystal clear that Hansel was speaking the truth. After all, if Levi, a commoner in their point of view, could stand unrivaled just because of the God Crusher alone, then a powerful swordsman could undoubtedly unleash a power stronger by folds.

Coincidentally, all the Void Sect needed was just one powerful sword. If the Glorian Order offered the God Crusher in exchange for the help of the powerful warriors from the Void Sect, it would be a catastrophe.

"So it's impossible to demand them to release Master Eusof and apologize to us anymore?" Thundera sounded a little bitter, but he also knew that they were worried not without reason.

Although he was on good terms with them, this moment was critical to the sect's survival. Thus, if it involved the welfare of the Bluesky Sect, Hansel would choose the latter over them even if he was on good terms with them.

"Not only is it impossible, but we're also in danger." Hansel heaved a sigh.

Despair was written all over the faces of the Bluesky Sect members.

Meanwhile, those on the base had also received the news.

In an instant, chaos descended, and the lethal pressure on their shoulders intensified.

Gloria went through every plausible plan with careful consideration. She reckoned that an extreme measure must be taken to have Floyd commit such a treacherous act as he was Levi's most trusted apprentice.

She had poured a lot of effort into sowing discord among them, or he wouldn't have told her that he had made a move against Bruno.

If it weren't for Forlevia's interference, Phoenix and the others would have also suffered severe injuries. All of these indicated that the previous work she had done to drive a wedge between them was starting to bear fruit.

However, with them being only Levi's subordinates, it was not particularly burdening for Floyd psychologically when he attacked them.

Looks like I have to exploit Floyd's feelings for me now. Maybe accusing Levi of injuring me will result in an incredible outcome.

Gloria started thinking carefully to ensure her plans were flawless.

Floyd didn't doubt Gloria's words one bit. Gloria's aura is a lot stronger than the last time I met her. She must've used a secret technique. Otherwise, she couldn't have improved so quickly.

Gloria stared at him alluringly and said, "You're my man. Who else is going to be nice to you if not me?" Floyd was on cloud nine when he heard that.

"Take this pill and quickly channel the technique I've taught you. At first, you'll feel agonizing pain. However, you must endure it and keep going. Otherwise, all your efforts prior would be in vain." With that, Gloria gave him the Pill of Evil.

Floyd unhesitatingly swallowed the Pill of Evil. After that, he cultivated by using the technique Gloria had taught him.

In the beginning, Floyd felt nothing out of the ordinary. As time ticked by, he started feeling his veins swelling up at an incredible rate.

However, he remembered what Gloria had told him, so he just kept cultivating.

A few moments later, Floyd was on the verge of losing himself.

However, Floyd was completely unaware of it. He could feel a strong aura circulating within his body, so he merely thought the secret technique was working.

"Courtesy?" Hansel laughed as though he had just heard the funniest joke in the world. "Do you deserve it?" Zoey's expression changed instantly. At that moment, she was on the verge of having a fallout with them. However, Levi is not at the base now, and these people are mighty beings from Kenfort.

If we were to fight them, everyone here is going to die. Besides, the Glorian Order and the Cetus have their eyes set on us. It's actually best if we can link up with Master Thundera and the others. After all, we were worried that Master Thundera would target our base prior to this.

"These people are too arrogant!" "They're so cocky! If Master were here, they wouldn't dare to act this way." "Still, considering our circumstances, it's better if we can work together with them."

Everyone at the base was pissed off, but they were forced to face the harsh reality. Regardless, it would be hard to work together with people who had their noses in the air all the time.

"Why not?" While everyone was in a dilemma, a deep voice rang out from afar.

"Boss is back!"

"Master is finally back!"

Chapter 3680 Fight Levi

After a long silence, Phoenix was the first to ask, "Boss, are we really not going to form an alliance with them?" Hearing that, everyone turned their attention to Levi. Our refusal to work together means we're going against Master Thundera and the fighters of Bluesky Sect.

In other words, we'll become enemies with the Ecclesiastic Order. "Did they look like they were sincere in forming an alliance with us?" Levi retorted.

Phoenix found herself at a loss for words. Indeed, Hansel clearly didn't respect them. "Don't worry, everyone. I have a plan." Levi calmed the crowd down.

Levi wasn't being reckless. It was just that he knew what Hansel and the others were up to. Therefore, he knew how to deal with them.

At the same time, Thundera and the others were annoyed because they had just gotten rejected.

They didn't expect Levi to turn them down so bluntly.

"Levi, that b*stard! He's so ungrateful!" Hansel was infuriated.
