Chapter 3691 Levi Wants Gloria Dead

In the past, Floyd could still judge objectively what he heard about Gloria. Yet, with Gloria gaslighting him and the effects of Demon Incantation and the Pill of Evil at play, Floyd could no longer assess the situation clearly.

He still insisted that they were trying to set Gloria up even though Phoenix had given him compelling evidence of Gloria's crimes. If Floyd had not had innate self-control, he would have destroyed Phoenix and the others long ago.

Every time someone said something negative about Gloria, the impulse to kill them would burn like wildfire in his heart. "Are you okay, Floyd?" Black Tortoise asked.

"Stop spewing nonsense, and I'll be okay," he retorted, suppressing the urge to kill them. He left in a hurry to avoid them and came to a quiet place where he punched a few trees vehemently until the trunks exploded into pieces. Only then did he feel slightly better.

Yet, his anger was not fully appeased. He badly needed to vent the frustration boiling in his chest. Suddenly, he received news from Gloria saying she wanted to meet him at a particular place so she could go to the base to clarify all the misunderstandings.

Floyd was exhilarated. His ability had improved so much, and he was confident that he would have more say than ever over matters in the base.

He was delighted that the day when he could finally be together with Gloria had finally come after such a long wait.

Gloria put up a pitiful face and coughed a few times until blood trailed down her mouth. "I'm sorry, Gloria. I should've saved you. I was so shocked I didn't know what to do," Floyd said regretfully.

I should've stopped Master just now. Then, Gloria wouldn't have ended up becoming like this. Gloria waved her hand dismissively as she continued to manipulate Floyd. "This has nothing to do with you.

The misunderstanding between Master and me is too deep, so it won't help even if you get involved. If you had stopped him just now, Master might have hated me more and wanted to kill me."

Naturally, the person who injured her earlier was not Levi but Wade. Wade had employed a technique of Void Sect to conceal his aura and managed to trick Floyd into believing that the person just now was Levi.

"Why does Master not believe me? Someone is clearly framing you. Can't he see through this ploy? This is so frustrating! How can he kill you without even finding out the truth first? He's not worthy of being a master!" Floyd fumed.

He grew more agitated as he spoke, so much so that the veins on his forehead bulged. If one were to look closer, one would notice the dark purplish glint in his eyes, which made him look extremely evil.

Given the circumstance, there was no way Gloria would let such a good opportunity slip through her fingers.

Chapter 3693 Tipping Levi Off

Back at the base, although Floyd had earlier warned the group from speaking ill of Gloria, Phoenix and the others still thought they should inform Levi of everything, especially since Levi had returned to the base and did not seem to be leaving in the near future.

They agreed that Levi should be given a heads-up, just in case Floyd suddenly decided to kill them. "Come on. What is it? Just say it already. Don't beat around the bush with me," Levi commanded with a stern expression.

Azure Dragon made up his mind and reported, "Boss, we wanted to tell you about Gloria and Floyd."

"Floyd? I thought he made an oath in front of everyone to stay away from that woman from the Ecclesiastic Order?" Levi asked with a smile. "Besides, even if they're still talking to each other, there's nothing to worry about. We just need to be more vigilant. Nothing will happen."

Phoenix was concerned when she saw that Levi did not seem to take the matter seriously. "Boss, things are different now," she insisted.

Levi felt everything suddenly make sense. Back then, not many knew of his plan and itinerary, so under usual circumstances, the mysterious woman should not know about his exact location—unless someone on Levi's side had been ratting on him. Someone close to him.

At the time, Levi refused to suspect anyone around him. After all, they were either his family and friends or his disciples. If Levi were to distrust them, it would hurt their feelings, so he simply considered the whole incident a pure coincidence.

“Besides, Boss, you were certain that the mysterious woman was in the West Pavilion. That was why you pressured them and almost killed them all. Gloria turned out to be among them.”

Levi’s face fell as Phoenix continued recounting everything.

“A mysterious elder intervened and helped. That was how Gloria escaped in the end. According to our investigation, that old man is probably the Bone Grandmaster the Ecclesiastic Order’s Medical Guild banished. This man happens to be one of the top people of the Glorian Order and is definitely one of the council members.”

“So,” Levi concluded coldly, “we’ve all been fooled all this while. That makes her a worthy opponent.”

Chapter 3695 Levi Talks To Floyd

“What do you mean, Boss?” Azure Dragon was confused. The others also directed their gazes toward Levi. What their leader had just said was meaningful. It was as if Levi was expecting Floyd to do something, but Levi did not explain himself.

Instead, he changed the topic. "Don't make things difficult for Floyd from now on to prevent unnecessary trouble." What?

Everyone was astonished. Is Boss closing this chapter just like this? "What? Do you guys have an opinion?" Levi questioned. "No!" all five of them answered in unison.

"Good. Ramp up the security. The alliance will be attacking soon. Go and get prepared," Levi ordered, waving his hand. "Yes, Boss!" they replied and left.

Behind them, Levi watched their retreating figures as a meaningful smile spread across his face. Meanwhile, Floyd had just received updates from his subordinate that Phoenix and the others had gone to see Levi after the latter arrived at the base.

Chapter 3696 Made Up His Mind

As Floyd spoke, he surreptitiously observed Levi's reaction. When he mentioned about being angry at the latter, the man's brows furrowed slightly.

Noticing that, he hastily changed his tune and fibbed, "Of course, I also know that you only did that for my own good. As time passed, I learned to accept it."

Sure enough, the man's brows smoothed out after Floyd said that, and his expression reverted to its usual calmness. "I'm glad you understand my good intentions." Gratification was written all over Levi's face.

Contrarily, Floyd sneered inwardly. The primary source of his fury stemmed from the fact that Levi almost killed Gloria a while ago.

Yet, he's now pretending as though nothing ever happened, inquiring about Gloria with fake concern. What an utterly pretentious, two-faced man!

"Actually, Master, I recently obtained some information regarding Gloria. It popped out from nowhere like a swarm of bees," Floyd remarked.

Smirking, Levi drawled, "Are you saying that the information is fake?"

"No, Master. It's just that I think someone seems to be manipulating things behind the scenes, deliberately leaking some information out lately," Floyd hastily clarified. "If Gloria is indeed the lord of the Glorian Order, we naturally have to deal with her in full force. But if someone else is trying to mislead the public, we can't allow the culprit to remain at large either."

Floyd, you must remember one thing. The situation is delicate right now, for a lot of evidence is indeed pointing at Gloria. As the saying goes, there's no smoke without a fire.

Chapter 3697 Divine Perish

After leaving Levi's room, Floyd no longer bothered to conceal his murderous intentions. If one were to look closely, one would realize that his eyes had already been blanketed by a purplish-black aura at that moment.

It made him look utterly demonic. Through his conversation with Levi, Floyd had ascertained that the man would never allow Gloria off the hook.

It's probably only a matter of time before he makes a move against her. With Phoenix and the others instigating him from the side, there's no way he'd change his mind. No matter who wants to stop me from being with Gloria, I'll eliminate them all!

After turning it over in his mind, he ultimately decided to be with Gloria. At present, the greatest obstacle between them was Levi.

Only by killing him will I be able to spend the rest of my life with the woman I love. Although Floyd was being controlled by the Pill of Evil and Demon Incantation right then, he didn't lose his mind completely.

In fact, his mind was even clearer than when he was at his peak form. Alas, he had plunged into a fanatical love toward Gloria, so extreme that it bordered on obsession.

"That's for sure," Grant interjected. He then stated proudly, "This powerful short sword has been nourished by a spiritual ley line for over twenty years. While it's no match for a truly legendary weapon, it's undoubtedly a top-notch sword.

No matter how powerful someone is, it can definitely inflict damage on the person, let alone Levi, who's merely an ordinary physical cultivator."

As Gloria took the powerful short sword from him, she could distinctly sense the terrifying corrosive aura glinting off the blade. "All that's left is to see whether Floyd succeeds in the assassination attempt," Gloria murmured insidiously.

Shortly after, Gloria met up with Floyd. Having listened to some seemingly dissuading and comforting remarks that were instigative and provocative in reality, Floyd left in a fit of pique with the powerful short sword in hand.

Gloria grew all the more smug as she watched Floyd storm away. Everything was ready then. All that was left was to wait for the results of the assassination attempt. After parting ways with Gloria, Floyd swiftly made his way back to a secluded place outside the base.

He placed his ear against the stone door and listened for movement inside carefully. Vaguely, solitary training, and from the look of things, he seems to be at the critical stage. When one was at Floyd's cultivation level, one could basically judge speeds up before making your move. Everyone knew that cultivators were wholly engaged while cultivating in solitary training. Their breathing would also increase in speed as they practiced their they were attacked at such a time. For that reason, those in solitary training

Floyd gave it his all when he ambushed Levi. In fact, he was moving as fast as a bullet when he launched himself at Levi. At the same time, the powerful short sword glowed with a strange blue light, as if it was going to devour Levi.

Whoosh! As the short sword was about to reach Levi, he finally reacted. He did move at the last second, but it was too late. Swoosh!

The powerful short sword penetrated Levi's body in an instant. Floyd heard the distinct sound of the blade running through a human's flesh. My ambush was successful!

He was overjoyed because he never thought everything would go so smoothly. Gloria had told him that the powerful short sword had been laced with Divine Perish, and even divine beings would perish from the deadly poison.

I must leave now! Floyd didn't bother to pull the short sword out of Levi's body. Instead, he made use of the momentum and landed a kick on Levi's body. Why are his movements so slow? Could it be because of the poison?

Although Levi tried to avoid the kick, it still landed on him, and he was sent flying away. I've succeeded! Filled with a sense of fulfillment, Floyd quickly left the secret room.

Chapter 3700 Floyd Is A Disappointment

Back in the secret room at the base, the supposedly severely injured Levi suddenly sat up. It was as if icy stars had been trapped in his eyes because he looked utterly disappointed.

Shortly after, the emotion disappeared. “Floyd, you still ended up this way in the end.” Levi sighed. In actuality, Levi had already felt something wrong with Floyd when the latter walked past him the last time around. However, he hadn’t thought too much about it back then. After all, everyone at the base was on edge at that time.

Despite that, he formed a preliminary judgment after he received the reports from Phoenix and the others. Coupled with how Callahan and the others had died, he concluded that Gloria had a special way of controlling men.

Hence, he knew there was a possibility Floyd was also being controlled by Gloria. However, he didn’t know to what extent his disciple was being controlled.
