Chapter 3701 Levi Getting Stabbed

“What? Boss got stabbed?” “How is that possible?” “Our checkpoints didn’t issue any warning!” “Master Garrison was in solitary training, and the ambusher should be a fighter sent by the Glorian Order.”

“It could be a mighty being from Kenfort as well! Who else could sneak into the base unnoticed?” The news of Levi getting stabbed caused a huge commotion in the base.

A lot of people thought that was a signal for the tripartite alliance to launch their attack on the base. Fortunately, Zoey and the other core members were there to calm everyone down. Hence, the situation stabilized slightly.

After that, the high-ranking members all rushed toward the secret room Levi was in when he was in solitary training. Floyd followed them there as well because he wanted to see Levi’s condition for himself.

“Master! How’s Master? Out of my way!” Floyd roared anxiously. Undeniably, Floyd’s acting was perfect. The secret room was packed with the base members. When Floyd arrived, they lined up on both sides and created a path for him.

Chapter 3702 Doubting Floyd

Floyd breathed a sigh of relief inwardly. That’s the best thing I’ve heard from Phoenix recently. Phoenix is one of the most influential members at the base because she’s good at analyzing situations. Now, everyone’s going to think that the assassin was a fighter from Kenfort.

“Tell everyone at the base to strengthen our defense and activate all the defensive formations. We have to be prepared for an ambush from the tripartite alliance.” Floyd knew his chance to shine had arrived. Now that everyone is panicking, the calmer I am, the more people will trust me. I need to start paving my way toward being the leader of the base.

Indeed, a lot of people started to look at Floyd differently. Even Azure Dragon and the others, who had just had a fallout with Floyd, were starting to see him in a different light. They didn't expect Floyd to be so calm under such circumstances.

Spurt! Right then, Levi spat out a mouthful of blood. "Master, how are you feeling?" Floyd quickly rushed up to him to take a closer look. He noticed that there was a hint of purple in the mouthful of blood Levi just spat out.

The blood had a pungent smell so bad that some of the people nearby—who were less capable in terms of combat prowess—felt dizzy when they smelled it.

Meanwhile, at the Ecclesiastic Order, Thundera and the others had received the news from Gloria, and they were aware that Levi had been severely injured.

"Even God is helping me! It'll be so easy to attack his base now." Thundera was overjoyed. He had been worried about going up against Levi because the latter was the strongest at the base.

Now, we have nothing to worry about. Thundera collected himself and turned toward Hansel. "What do you think, Master Hansel?" Although the Ecclesiastic Order was his, Bluesky Sect was his key pillar of support.

Hansel kept mum for a while before answering, "F*ck that monkey! I was hoping that I could tear him apart with my own hands. Who would've thought that he would fall on his own? Fine, then. I'll just kill all his friends so that he doesn't need to die alone. By the way, did you hear from the Cetus?"

Chapter 3704 Suspecting Floyd

Back at the base, everyone was already terribly frightened and anxious when they first heard that the tripartite alliance had formed to attack them.

After hearing about Levi getting ambushed, though, the members were on the verge of a breakdown. In their eyes, Levi was their unbeatable God of War.

With their God of War dying and the tripartite alliance as their enemy, they knew it was almost impossible for them to survive. At the same time, the guards at the perimeter kept reporting that the fighters from the tripartite alliance were gathering outside their base.

"The tripartite alliance has already surrounded our base. We can't even get out now. What should we do?"

"What's so scary about that? It's just death!"

"That's easy for you to say. Don't you know how cruel the followers of the Glorian Order are? They'll torture you and make you wish you were dead!"

"F*ck! I heard that Master Eusof and the Top Ten were brutally tortured by them!"

"You all forgot one more thing. Divine Perish is something that only the Medical Guild possesses, and Gloria's Bone Grandmaster once had a deep connection with the Medical Guild," Phoenix continued. Dead silence ensued.

Azure Dragon and the others exchanged looks. Disbelief could be seen in their eyes. After a long while, Azure Dragon spoke. "Is that really possible, Phoenix? After all, Boss is Floyd's master. He treats Floyd really well, as though they were relatives. I can imagine him hurting us for a woman, but he would've at least considered everything that Boss has done for him, right?"

The others shared the same sentiment. After all, compared to them, Levi had a much stronger relationship with Floyd. They couldn't believe Floyd would betray Levi, someone who was like a father to him, just because he was in love with a woman.

"Besides, when Boss was hurt, there was nothing odd about how Floyd was acting!" Kirin uttered in a deep voice.

Rubbing her throbbing temples, Phoenix thought about what they had said. I do suspect Floyd was the culprit. However, what Azure Dragon and the others are saying also makes sense.

Chapter 3706 Condition Of Levi

When Floyd raised his head, he saw Forlevia approaching him. She quickly arrived in front of him and asked suspiciously, "You're already here. Why don't you go in?"

Panic rushed into his mind, but he pretended to be calm and spoke in a deep voice. "I suddenly remembered that there are weaknesses in the arrangement of the defensive posts. I plan to deal with it so the tripartite alliance won't take advantage of that."

"I see!" Forlevia didn't suspect anything because Floyd had been working hard at setting up the base's defenses ever since Levi was hurt.

Almost every day, he would survey the guard posts and ask about the defensive formation's conditions. "So, you're here to visit Master too, huh?" He quickly changed the subject.

She nodded. "Daddy's condition has become even more serious. All I can do is use my energy to suppress the spread of the poison."

"Are you talking to me right now, Daddy?" Forlevia thought she was hallucinating because when she turned to look at Levi, she saw his eyes were still tightly shut.

"You aren't hallucinating right now, Evie! Don't draw anyone's attention and cut off all contact with the outside world. Isolate this place!" His voice was heard clearly again.

A joyous smile formed on her face as she quickly completed his request. Using the energy that existed in the environment, she unleashed a technique that turned the room into an isolated space.

"I've isolated this place from the outside world, Daddy. You can tell me everything without worry," Forlevia whispered. Levi's voice came from his body again. "I'm actually fine. This is just a disguise to fool people."

The expressions on Phoenix's and the others' faces changed instantly. They felt shocked, confused, and puzzled, among other emotions, when they heard that.

"You want to leave the base with how things are right now, Evie?" Phoenix asked to confirm again. To her surprise, Forlevia nodded with determination. "That's right. I'd rather not just sit around and wait for something to happen."

It was clear that she had no intention of explaining herself further. In fact, she didn't even give them a chance to ask her more questions before she left.

As the group watched her leave, they remained silent, stunned. It wasn't until five or six minutes later that they returned to their senses.

"What do you think Evie is trying to do, Phoenix?" Azure Dragon asked first.

Phoenix continued to stay silent for a long while because even she didn't know what to make of Forlevia's decision.

Since Levi was injured, Forlevia was probably the most powerful fighter left on the whole base. Her sudden departure would only make the anxious people on the base even more stressed out. However, it's not like I don't Evie alone can't change the outcome and left us here to die? Even though she's Boss' daughter, she didn't inherit his unyielding determination if Boss will survive, we should think about what we should as they discussed the matter. #### Chapter 3709 Only Child

Gloria and the others were confused as well because Forlevia had somehow managed to sneak out of the base undetected, despite the fact the base was heavily surrounded.

"No need to worry about it too much, Gloria. She's just a kid. There's nothing much she can do," Grant comforted when he saw Gloria's frown.

"You may not know about this, but Evie is the most powerful fighter on the base after Levi. Her sudden departure makes no sense. Many people currently on the base are Levi's friends and family. She should've stayed there and protected them. Something is definitely going on. Maybe this is a scheme of some sort?" Without hesitation, Gloria told him everything she was thinking about.

Xylas uttered in a deep voice, "Your worry isn't unfounded, Master. However, from another point of view, this isn't difficult to understand. After all, Evie is Levi's only child. They should know that, even if Evie stays, they can't change the tide of battle. Maybe that's why they let her leave, hoping that she'll survive and come back with a vengeance in the future."

Wade added, "That makes sense to me. Lord Gloria, I believe we should keep an eye on the movements inside the camp. As for the runaway kid, we can use Zoey and Levi to bait her out when we attack the base. I don't believe she can stand by and watch her parents and friends be murdered."

Chapter 3710 A True Man

"You were willing to destroy your family for me. There aren't a lot of people in this world who can do that. That's what makes you a true man. Don't forget you're currently the sole supporting pillar of the base. If you fall, the morale of the people on the base will crumble even faster." As Gloria continued to comfort Floyd, he gradually calmed down.

"Do you really think that, Gloria?" Hope shone in his eyes when he asked that. She nodded. "Of course. How can the man I fall in love with be a piece of trash?"

Her words were so sincere that even the ever-observant Levi wouldn't detect anything wrong with them, let alone Floyd, who was deeply in love with her.

That was because Gloria really did think that. It was just that such a man hadn't shown up in her life yet.

If even Grant and Hansel were just her stepping stones to reaching greater heights, then Floyd certainly wasn't the man of her dreams.

"You're so good to me, Gloria." Floyd became so emotional that he was close to crying.
