Chapter 3721 Attack Of The Bluesky Sect

While on her way to visit Levi, Forlevia bumped into Phoenix and the others. Alas, the group was utterly perplexed when they noticed how relaxed she was. "Has all the stress taken a toll on Evie?" Azure Dragon asked worriedly.

The tripartite alliance has been putting a lot of pressure on everyone recently. If even the most seasoned fighters like us are struggling with it, what else can we expect from a child? She may be powerful, but I doubt her emotional resilience is as strong as ours.

"When the war begins, we have to do whatever it takes to get Evie out of here safely," Azure Dragon added with determination.

The others instantly nodded in agreement. After all, Forlevia was their last hope, and as long as she had enough time, she'd have no problem reaching the pinnacle.

Just then, one of their subordinates reported, "Urgent news! Several elites have launched a surprise attack on us, and our guards on the outer perimeter can't hold up much longer."

Needless to say, Phoenix and the rest were dumbfounded. "What?"

"Let's counterattack according to plan and deploy elites to protect Boss. He can't move in his current condition," Azure Dragon ordered.

As he marched off with his men, he tasked some of them to protect Levi and Forlevia while the others gathered forces to prepare for battle.

Floyd, who was patrolling the perimeter, was the first to get wind of the Ecclesiastic Order's surprise attack.

“Master Hansel, let’s help them out! We don’t want any unnecessary complications, do we?” Jasper suggested. “Yes,” Hansel replied with a nod. “Let’s make this quick.”

With that, seven fighters from Bluesky Sect joined the battle and immediately turned things around. After all, they were fighters from Kenfort, and even though they hadn’t unleashed their full power, it was more than enough to deal a blow to the base.

Within seconds, casualties among the base members had increased dramatically. Floyd’s situation, too, had begun to worsen over time. As much as he hated to admit it, Thundera was beating him down.

Unfortunately, Zoey and the others had also sustained injuries. Just then, Hansel spotted Forlevia and dashed toward her. “Grab that child!”

“Evie, be careful!” Zoey and the rest warned. Although they wanted to jump to her rescue, they knew they were helpless. They were already struggling to keep up with the onslaught of Bluesky Sect fighters, so how could they do anything more?

As a cultivator, Hansel was acutely aware of the dangers around him, and the sense of foreboding continued to grow.

Being rooted to the spot might not be a big deal for ordinary people, but it was undoubtedly a life-and-death situation for fighters in the same class.

Just then, a terrifying surge of energy washed over Hansel. “Oh, sh*t!” he muttered before activating a protection technique. Layers of energy immediately burst forth and surrounded Hansel, wrapping him in what seemed like a thick energy shield.

Boom! The next second, a gust of wind swept over as a palm strike landed smack on the back of Hansel’s energy shield.

Crack! A spider crack instantly formed and began spreading, and it didn’t take long before the shield shattered into pieces. Hansel finally lost his balance and was sent flying backward by the powerful force. It wasn’t until he was more than ten feet away that he managed to catch his footing.

“D*mn it!” he cursed as he wiped away the blood from the corner of his mouth. The attack had left him with an internal injury, and even though it wasn’t serious, it had nevertheless affected him.

“You’re a bunch of insufferable fools!” Hansel yelled as anger thrummed through his veins. “I must destroy all of you today!” If word gets out that a fighter from the mundane world had injured me, how can I ever maintain my foothold in Kenfort?

Wynona warned. As it turned out, Mia had been the one to sneak up on Hansel. She had just killed a few elites from the

The rest of the enemy troops weren't doing any better either. Not only were they fighting a losing battle, but two of them had also sustained internal injuries.

"This won't do. We have to retreat as soon as possible. Otherwise, there's a possibility that our entire army might perish!" Jasper said.

Just then, Cyrus' cold voice rang out from behind. "Hey, old man, now isn't the time to daydream. Take this!"

Jasper froze as his instincts to danger kicked in. Knowing it was too late to dodge the attack, he quickly activated his protection technique instead. The next second, a powerful force hit him from behind, causing the energy shield that had just materialized to shatter into pieces.

Jasper got flung out instantly, and the excruciating pain he felt was almost unbearable. If it weren't for him suppressing the urge, he'd have vomited blood a while ago.

"How dare you!" he hollered, his face contorted into a scowl. He was shaking with rage and wanted nothing more than to reduce Cyrus into a pile of ashes.

However, rationality told him that it wouldn't be wise to stay on any longer. It was bad enough having to deal with Levi's elite troops, but it'd be even worse if the Glorian Order and Void Sect joined in the battle. We'll be wiped out if that happened!

"Master Hansel, things aren't looking good. We have to retreat!" he yelled. Unfortunately, his well-intended warning distracted several Paladins, who ended up being dealt severe blows by their opponents.

The group went to clean up the battlefield within the base. The sight of the elites of the Ecclesiastic Order either howling in pain or lying unmoving on the ground stunned them, especially when their gazes landed on the two bodies from Bluesky Sect.

Zoey turned to Wynona, Mia, and the rest in shock. She had so many questions racing across her mind at that moment that she didn’t know where to start.

“How did you guys do it, Wynona? Such level of combat prowess is astounding!” Zoey suddenly recalled the scene where Forlevia returned to base with a relaxed look.

I remembered urging Evie to flee for her life, but she said there could be a silver lining at the end of the tunnel and even comforted me not to be too depressed.

“I’m sure Evie knows something!”

Zoey was sure her daughter couldn’t foresee the future. It could only mean Forlevia received information from somewhere if she had that relaxed expression on her face. Besides, the crew at the base would’ve been ecstatic if they knew about the reinforcement coming to help them. It’s easy for two people to put on a show, but difficult for everyone to put on the same act since someone might give themselves away. I have to interrogate Evie after the battle.

Zoey decided.

All of these should've been mine. It's all Levi's fault for teaching the others behind my back. I would've stabbed him in the back if I'd found out earlier.

The flame of anger in Floyd burnt fiercely. He clenched his fists so tightly that cracking sounds echoed from them. This bunch was the one who stole my glory. Just wait, all of you! All of you will regret neglecting me one day!

Floyd roared within. One would notice something purplish-black swirled within Floyd's eyes if one was watching him. The sight was rather bewitching. Meanwhile, within the main hall of the Glorian Order, Gloria had just given the orders, but Wade stopped her.

"Lord Gloria, don't you have an acquaintance within Levi's close circle? You can decide after you understand the situation through him. After all, it was unexpected for Bluesky Sect to be defeated. Since we want to annihilate Levi's forces, having a thorough understanding of their situation is crucial."

Gloria's eyes narrowed, thinking Wade's words made sense.

"You're right. A thorough understanding of their situation will give us an upper hand and guarantee our victory in the battle against them. I'll ask Floyd now."

Gloria immediately reached for the communication device to contact Floyd.

Reluctance filled Gloria after her call with Floyd. Even though I can gauge their capabilities, Hansel and the others are still the elites of the Bluesky Sect. Adding Master Thundera into the team, they're all Kenfort's fighters.

If Santino didn't join our fold, our overall capabilities couldn't even overpower that of Bluesky Sect. Yet, two of them were defeated, and the remaining five fled in a wretched state. The crucial part is how Wynona and the rest achieve their breakthrough, Bruno, in particular. Floyd beat him up not too long ago.

Yet, he's much stronger than Floyd who had devoured the spiritual energy from the spiritual ley line and had his potential tapped into with the Demon Incantation. Puzzlement filled Gloria.

Chapter 3728 Surprise

Gloria, Grant, and the rest all showed up simultaneously outside Levi's base. Without any intention to hide their abilities, they unleashed a few terrifying energy vortexes with them as the center. "Greetings, Lord Gloria!"

Fear and respect filled the eyes of the followers of the Glorian Order when they saw Gloria walking toward them, looking like Hell Witch descended onto Earth in a black dress.

Their admiration for Gloria had reached an obsessive level. The fear they felt from Gloria's aura had sent their blood boiling. "Victory belongs to the Glorian Order!"

Gloria's voice had a mesmerizing effect that could stoke the fire burning within her followers. Her words were like a Deity's command. A command that would be answered.

"Victory!" her followers roared. Their cheer was so loud it echoed across the area. Pride crept up Gloria's face. "Attack!" Everyone unleashed their attack. Tens of thousands of her followers swarmed Levi's base from every direction.

Levi's base was completely surrounded from every direction. Looking at the mass from afar, her followers looked like an ancient beast opening its bloody mouth, preparing to devour the base.

"Daddy, Santino is powerful. I heard that he even defeated the female lord as if it was just a piece of cake. I think we should proceed carefully," Forlevia suggested concernedly.

Wynona and the others expressed their agreement as well. They had found out about Santino's incredible position in Void Sect at a very critical time.

Even if Santino could be defeated this time, it could cause them a lot of trouble in the future. "Levi, we only have too little knowledge about Kenfort, and we can't keep being in a defensive state. We'll be too passive that way.

The fighters of Kenfort are known to be very strong. If we can enter that place and develop our skills, we might be able to avoid this kind of situation.”

“That’s right. What we are missing now is a way to enter Kenfort.”

Wynona and the others each voiced their concern.

Levi nodded slightly. He totally understood how they were feeling.

However, he did not think it was a big deal. After all, he had a rough understanding of the cultivation strength of the fighters from Kenfort through the battle.

Take Hansel of Bluesky Sect as an example. Mia and Wynona can easily defeat him if they work together. Even ordinary people like Top Ten and Cyrus can fight Hansel alone. In fact, they have the power to make their opponent suffer. Besides, with Digital God’s new detector, more super-spiritual ley lines and even holy ley lines have been found. So, it’s not a problem for my people to level up their abilities even in this mundane world. Of course, it’ll be better if we can enter Kenfort. The problem is, the people in Kenfort have become our enemies. So, the idea of entering Kenfort has to be thrown out of the window.

Chapter 3730 The True Identity of Gloria

Suddenly, a charming voice of a woman rang out. Though it sounded incredibly alluring, it was laced with a thick, murderous aura. "It's the lord of the Glorian Order."

"D*mn it! How dare she still say that knowing Master is terribly injured?"

"We're in trouble. This wave of attack will be more terrifying than the Ecclesiastic Order." As the crowd discussed among themselves, Floyd was left dumbstruck. The voice was all too familiar to him.

"No way. It can't be!" Floyd quickened his pace. He needed to confirm if that voice belonged to Gloria. Soon, the crowd arrived outside of the base. Both parties had pulled out their weapons, filling the entire area with an intense, murderous aura.

"Very well. Let's hope you guys can last a little longer. Otherwise, all this killing will be no fun," Gloria taunted. Phoenix and the others were the first to recognize Gloria, and they had a look on their faces that seemed to say, "I knew it was you."
