Chapter 3771 Virgin No More

Primo was pleased with Gloria's meekness. However, he had a peculiar habit whereby he wanted to be the one to deflower his women. Moreover, he also wanted them to have specific talents that were best suited for cultivation so that they may be of help to his own cultivation.

It was a high bar to achieve for most women. However, not only did Gloria fulfill all his requirements, she was also an exquisite beauty. It was because of Gloria's rare qualities that Primo was infatuated with her.

"Even though I have many women, most of them could only fulfill two out of the three qualities that I am looking for. Those with the right talents are not good-looking, while those who are beautiful do not have extraordinary talents. You are the only one who ticks all the boxes, Gloria."

Primo was thrilled. He could not wait to consummate his marriage with Gloria.

Soon, the news that Primo would marry Gloria as his seventeenth concubine spread like wildfire to the nearby sects, no matter major or minor.

Void Sect was only a medium-sized sect, owing to its lack of an ultimate weapon.

If this aspect were not considered, however, the sheer number and qualities of elites in the Void Sect would place it among the ranks of the larger sects.

Chapter 3772 Clarifying Things With Gloria

Wait a minute. Did they say Gloria will be the seventeenth concubine of Primo of Void Sect? Is she stooping this low to climb up the ranks? Is this even the Gloria I know?

Floyd's breath quickened. Impossible! You can't do this to me, Gloria. You need to tell me what happened back then! As he spoke, he became progressively agitated, and the veins on his forehead bulged.

"Tell me everything in detail," Floyd ordered sternly. Hearing his words, two chieftains hurried over and explained everything in detail. They had received Hansel's order in advance and dared not ignore Floyd.

"You must be wrong. There's no way Gloria is still a virgin!" Floyd managed through gritted teeth. At his reaction, the chieftains immediately tried to appease him, "Mr. Irving, it was a rumor that we heard. It might not be true."

"Yes, Mr. Irving, we heard it from somewhere. Please don't take it seriously." They could sense Floyd's fury despite not knowing about Floyd and Gloria's relationship.

"If it's just hearsay, how could you gossip about her? You deserve to die." With that said, Floyd threw a punch out. Before the chieftains realized what was happening, their brains exploded into pieces, and they died on the spot. "This isn't true!"

Floyd dashed out of Bluesky Sect as though he had gone mad. He decided to head outside to gather more information about the matter. After investigating the matter, Floyd could barely hide his shock. It turned out that the chieftains from Bluesky Sect were right.

It was a known fact that Primo of Void Sect would only take virgins to be his lover. Moreover, Primo had examined Gloria before and confirmed her hymen was still intact. Confusion, fury, resentment...

Their yells attracted everyone's attention. Shortly after, various elites from Void Sect swarmed around the area. Sensing various powerful auras approaching him, Floyd gasped in horror. I've screwed up big time.

At that point, he had no other option but to face the matter. "Who are you to kick up a fuss at the Void Sect? You injured our guards and deserve the death punishment!"

"Let me find out how capable you are!" The elders glared at Floyd.

"I want to see Gloria. Get her to come out now! Gloria, I know you're here. Come out now! I need to ask you about something!" Floyd demanded loudly.

"Who are you to see my lover as you wish?" Primo walked out of the crowd. At the same time, he began to exude a murderous aura. Floyd sneered, "I was her lover, so you're merely taking what I discarded."

After guessing Primo's identity, he wanted nothing more than to humiliate the former publicly for no reason. "Nonsense! You have a death wish!"

Primo formed an icy blade out of thin air that sent a chill down everyone's spine. Gloria was important to him, so he was furious as Floyd had humiliated them both in public.

"Darling, stop!" Despite his displeasure, Primo stopped short as he adored Gloria a lot. "Gloria, do you know this

Chapter 3774 Levi Will Be Here Soon

Arrogance crept up Gloria's face. She wanted to deal a blow to Floyd and also dispel Primo's doubts. "I'm going to marry Primo soon and be a core member of the Void Sect. We're worlds apart, so stop lusting after me. If you refuse to give up, you're welcome to ask Levi to avenge you. Our doors are open anytime."

Floyd's chest felt tight. It seemed that something was stuck in his throat, for he had trouble breathing. He wanted nothing more than to kill Gloria, but the gap between their strength was too huge to ignore.

"Gloria, just kill me. Why are you humiliating me?" Floyd wanted to die as he was too embarrassed. Right then, Primo appeared before Gloria in a flash and said, "Gloria, just kill this ungrateful piece of trash."

That was what he wanted. It was also a test for Gloria.

"Darling, we shouldn't lower our status to kill someone as useless as him. Besides, Floyd will suffer more if he were to live. We should ask him to deliver a message to Levi so that the latter knows how powerful the Void Sect is. I want them to experience utter despair," Gloria revealed with a grin.

Primo's doubts were dispelled instantly. His lips curved as he nodded. "You're right," he said.

Chapter 3775 Heptino Discovers A Dragon Ley Line

Primo and Gloria were busy planning their wedding. Lights were strewn along the walls in a festive and joyful manner. A red carpet was also spread out.

Heptino returned to the Void Sect and received a warm welcome. Heptino was the youngest among the Emphyreans, but he was the most talented of them all. With his power, he was among the top three strongest Emphyreans, and he had a bright future ahead of him.

Heptino's most important ability was that he could control spiritual ley lines. He could combine himself with spiritual ley lines in a fight to get more power.

As he was sensitive toward spiritual ley lines, he was also a walking spiritual ley line detector. The large spiritual ley lines that Void Sect discovered in the past ten years were all Heptino's discoveries.

Thus, Void Sect valued him for his talent and ability. Heptino didn't disappoint them this time, too, as he dropped a bombshell on them upon his return.

"I discovered a dragon ley line in the northeast of Void Sect," he announced. Heptino's news got everyone in the Void Sect revved up. "Oh, Heptino is really amazing. I can't believe he found a dragon ley line! Void Sect's strength will increase exponentially."

Gloria naturally understood that she could not act rashly. After all, the entire Void Sect valued that dragon ley line greatly. She later learned the exact location of the dragon ley line from Primo and planned to go there to check it out in secret.

"I'll go and check it out tonight." After making up her mind, Gloria rested during the day and only left Void Sect secretly at nightfall. Due to her relationship with Primo, even if there were fighters who sensed her leaving, they did not ask too many questions.

Gloria ran all the way there, and it took her around half an hour to reach her destination. Although she had not seen the actual dragon ley line, she could already sense the dense spiritual energy and terrifying pressure in that area.

Even with her current cultivation level, she still found the pressure overwhelming. "It should be underground. I'll enter from the other end to avoid being discovered by Pentino and the others!"

Gloria went around to the other end, and at the same time, she activated her aura-concealing technique. It was taught to her by Primo and could turn her aura invisible.

As long as the other party's cultivation level was not higher than the technique user's, no one would be able to discover the latter's whereabouts.

She followed the excavated stone cave into the underground and met with the sight of a spiritual ley line.

Chapter 3777 Gloria Gets All The Spiritual Ley Lines

It was only after Heptino disappeared from sight that Gloria returned to her senses. "What's wrong, Gloria?" Primo asked in confusion.

Gloria's voice sounded a little raspy when she spoke. "This is the first time I heard of someone giving spiritual ley lines as wedding gifts. Isn't it too much?"

Hearing that, Primo threw his head back and laughed heartily before he remarked, "This is just how Heptino rolls. He doesn't have anything else to offer if you tell him to change the gift anyway!"

"But that's four divine ley lines and a holy ley line!" Gloria was overwhelmed by emotions. Even the entire Void Sect only has a few holy ley lines. The fact that Heptino just gave us one like that is way too generous of him!

"This is probably a drop in the bucket compared to the resources Heptino has. He's truly exceptional. Void Sect will need his full support to get to the next level in the future."

Primo also felt a little moved but immediately changed the subject, "Don't be emotional. I'll give all these spiritual ley lines to you. Gloria, since you have the devourer spiritual bone, you can take this opportunity to grow stronger."

Chapter 3778 Beyond His Expectations

Declan was perplexed for a moment, but it didn't take long before he caught on to Gloria's hint. Having come from the mundane world, Gloria had no support or anyone to fall back on. If she wanted to stand out from the bevy of beauties surrounding Primo, she'd have to do something spectacular to prove her mettle.

Her plan of roping Heptino into her camp was a desperate move on her part, yet it was also unsurprising. After all, Heptino had the ability to find spiritual ley lines.

Even if Primo became the leader of Void Sect in the future, he'd still need to rely heavily on Heptino to provide him with cultivation resources.

Of course, many women around Primo had also approached Declan before for help, except none of them could convince him enough to cough up any information about Heptino. "I understand your plight, Lord Gloria, but—"

"Elder Chadwick, this is the copy I've made for the devouring technique," Gloria interrupted, knowing full well that she'd be able to tempt him with the weaker version of the technique. "Take a look and tell me if it'd be worth your while."

Declan's eyes instantly lit up as he accepted the gift and skimmed through the content. Oh, what an utter joy! This is indeed a treasure!

Chapter 3779 Tricking Heptino

Meanwhile, Gloria had zeroed in on Heptino. "Heptino, I noticed yesterday that your sleeves were getting tattered, so I made a new shirt for you. Try it on and see if it fits," she said gently.

Heptino was slightly taken aback as he glanced at his shirt, only to realize that Gloria was right. Oh, my, there's a hole in my right sleeve! I can't believe I missed it!

"Thank you, Ms. Gaston!" he said sincerely while accepting the new black robe. Gloria, however, frowned at him in mock annoyance. "Haven't I told you several times not to address me so formally?"

"Ah... T-Thank you, Gloria!" Heptino replied sheepishly, his words putting a smile back on Gloria's face.

"That's more like it! Well, go ahead and try it on! Let me know if you like the pattern on it too. By the way, I don't have the best sewing skills, so I hope you don't mind the mediocre quality."

"W-Why would I mind?" Heptino said as he quickly put on the robe, showing off the majestic flying dragon pattern that soared from the back to the shoulders.

Gloria, who had walked away, curled her lips into a half smile. The improvement in her cultivation level had given her hearing ability a significant boost, so it was no surprise that she heard Heptino's heart-warming self-dialogue clear as day.

"Ha! Heptino may be exceptionally talented, but he's also naive and innocent. It sure was easy to manipulate him!" Gloria said smugly. As it turned out, it was Declan who had told her about Heptino's strong desire for familial love, and she had decided to go with that approach after gathering all the information she could on him. Thankfully, the outcome was exactly as she had predicted, with Heptino quickly regarding her as family.

One's behavior might be deceptive, but the eyes would never lie. Besides, how could a master manipulator like Gloria not be able to tell if someone was being genuine or fake?

"Not to toot my own horn, but this was a brilliant personalized attack!" Gloria remarked, looking utterly proud of her ability to control people.

She had never once resorted to dirty tricks while attempting to get close to Heptino, choosing instead to present herself as the loving sister figure.

Of course, Gloria knew that approach would work best with Heptino. After all, he had never had such a caring woman in his life before.
