Chapter 3781 The Day Of The Wedding

"You're right," Gloria replied solemnly. "Good things come to those who wait. We should steady ourselves and continue to focus on our growth and development." Xylas nodded. "Master, do you have any other plans for me?"

"I want you to continue building our forces and let your father venture outside to recruit rogue cultivators in the name of Void Sect. He can use the location of the divine ley line I told you about as a bargaining chip to lure them in," Gloria ordered. "I have only one goal: to gather all the forces we can find so I can build a dedicated team as soon as possible."

Since I can't change the fact that I'm marrying Primo, I may as well use this opportunity to maximize my benefits. Gaining control of Void Sect can no longer satisfy me. I want to go beyond!

In fact, Gloria's desire to expand her influence grew even stronger after she made progress in her relationship with Heptino. After all, cultivation resources were paramount to increasing one's power in Kenfort, and Heptino was the expert in sniffing out spiritual ley lines.

"Don't worry, Master. My father and I will do everything in our power to fulfill the task," Xylas assured. Having witnessed what Gloria was truly capable of, Wade and Grant had decided to pledge their undying devotion and eternal allegiance to her a while ago.

"The branch master of Eclipse is here! I can't believe he actually came here for Primo!" "The other organizations sent their vice heads or—at the very least—chief elders to congratulate the couple. He's just a branch master. Why are you overreacting?"

"You're just a newbie here in Kenfort. What do you know? Eclipse is a super sect. They established Eclipse Academy, which is utterly terrifying!" "What's so terrifying about it? Hurry up and tell me."

"Eclipse Academy selects talents from this area every five years. Anyone who graduates from there is meant to become an overlord. Even their branch masters have higher statuses than the chief elders of many mid-level sects. Do you get it now?"

Meanwhile, Primo approached Gloria in a hurry. "Darling, what happened? Why do you look so anxious?" Gloria asked curiously. She had never seen Primo lose his composure before, yet at that moment, traces of shock and excitement could be seen on his face.

"G-Gloria, don't you cry! You're making me feel terrible." When Heptino saw Gloria's red-rimmed eyes, he panicked and felt frustrated for some reason. "You foolish boy. These are tears of joy."

Gloria wiped away the tears from the corner of her eyes. She then straightened Heptino's robe and brushed away the dust on his shoulder, chiding, "You're all grown up, yet you still don't know how to take care of yourself. I can't help but worry about you! Now that I'm married, I won't be able to look after you like before. You should take good care of yourself. Don't drink without eating anything; it's bad for your stomach. Refrain from taking too many of those pills, too. They contain cinnabar, which isn't good for your body."

Tears rolled down Gloria's cheeks "uncontrollably" as she reminded Heptino about mundane things.

"You should hurry and find a woman who will treat and love you sincerely. Only then will I be able to stop worrying. Today is my big day. You should cheer up, okay? All right, I should greet my guests now. Take care!"

After choking those words out, she turned around and ran away. Heptino felt empty as he watched Gloria's leaving figure. It was as if he had just lost something.

Hansel and the others breathed a sigh of relief. Now that we’ve successfully infiltrated Void Sect’s wedding ceremony, all that’s left to do is keep Floyd from going crazy!

Little did they know, Wade’s men were aware of their presence the moment they entered the venue. However, Wade had orders from Gloria to let them in, which was exactly what he did. That was why they managed to get in so easily.

Even so, there were countless men keeping a close eye on Floyd the entire time. They were ready to subdue him if he dared try anything funny.

“Have our men on high alert. We are authorized to use lethal force if Floyd betrays us,” Wade ordered. Sensing something was amiss, Hansel whispered, “Hey, do you guys feel like we’re being watched?”

Thundera and the others shook their heads in response. Because they weren’t as powerful as Hansel, they didn’t feel anything out of the ordinary.

On top of that, there were a huge amount of people all around them, so they could just be looking at the other guests. “Don’t worry, Master Hansel! Mr. Xanadu’s disguise technique has never failed us!” Thundera reassured him.

Jasper’s disguise technique had worked even on the strongest of fighters, so they believed it would be effective here as well. Hansel felt slightly relieved after hearing that, but he was still incredibly concerned about Floyd.

As Floyd did not respond the way Gloria had expected him to, she wanted to continue observing his behavior.

Since she was having affairs with a lot of her subordinates, she didn't want to consummate her marriage with Primo just yet because it would affect the way they saw her.

After racking her brain for a bit, Gloria was able to come up with a solution.

"Be patient, Darling! We have all night to consummate our marriage. The guests are watching! Don't forget that the branch master of Eclipse is here too! We should show him some respect by having some decency!" she exclaimed coquettishly.

Primo paused in his tracks when he heard that. The flames of lust that were raging deep within his loins were extinguished in an instant.

"As expected of my woman! You're absolutely right!"

Instead of getting upset or angry, Primo complimented Gloria for her reminder.

Meanwhile, at the wedding ceremony, Heptino was feeling down in the dumps. The sight of Gloria marrying Primo stabbed at his heart like a knife. It felt as though someone had robbed him of his most prized possession.

F*ck! I'm not even sure who I should be mad at! Should I hate Primo for stealing the woman I love or hate myself for being too cowardly to compete for her? Argh! I don't know! This wedding is so noisy that it's driving me insane!

Heptino chugged some liquor in frustration, only to choke on it and enter a coughing fit. Gloria broke into a smug grin when she noticed his behavior.

Looks like Heptino has fallen for my charms as well! As the wedding ceremony continued, Primo kept his word and declared Gloria as his wife in front of everyone.

Hehe... Now, I have truly gained a foothold in Void Sect. With this new status, I'll be entitled to all sorts of benefits. For example, I'll be provided with a larger supply of cultivation resources and have access to Void Sect's repository and many other restricted areas. I hear the repository holds tons of technique books for top-level combat techniques. Getting my hands on those is sure to boost my strength even further. The restricted areas are also rich with all sorts of magical herbs, which I believe will be of great use to me.

Gloria smiled gleefully as she thought about the benefits of marrying Primo. As the wedding ceremony continued into the night, it was customary for the guests to escort the newlyweds into the bridal chamber.

The huge boost in power came as a pleasant surprise for Gloria as it exceeded her expectations. As Primo went back to sleep, Gloria went looking for Heptino.

Judging from his unusual behavior last night, I bet he must be dying to see me right now! With that in mind, Gloria packed some stew and a couple of side dishes into a lunchbox and brought it over to Heptino’s room.

The room door was left ajar, and she could hear him snoring from outside. Gloria deliberately raised her voice a little as she exclaimed, “What? It’s almost noon, for goodness’ sake! Why is he still asleep?”

Sure enough, the snoring stopped instantly. Heptino then opened the room door and stepped out seconds later. “Gloria?”

Gloria was excited to hear what he had in mind, but she made sure not to show it. "Stop joking, Heptino. I know you're just saying that to make me feel better," she said with a wry smile. "I'm not joking, Gloria. No one will be able to bully you once you become powerful enough," Heptino replied solemnly.

Gloria let out a sigh. "What kind of idea is this? Improving one's cultivation takes a lot of time and hard work. There are no shortcuts that'll allow me to become really strong overnight!"

"It's indeed impossible to become really strong overnight, but you have the devouring technique and spiritual bone. You'll be able to boost your strength significantly in a short amount of time if you use the right spiritual ley line," Heptino replied.

"It's not that simple. Given my current level, even a holy ley line wouldn't be of much help. As for dragon ley lines... Those are extremely rare, and the one you guys discovered is being used on God Crusher, so I can't use it anyway. Honestly, I'm just an outsider here in Void Sect!" Gloria said with a helpless expression.

"I'll let you in on a little secret, Gloria. I discovered another dragon ley line slightly bigger than the one used for God Crusher. If I let you have it, you'll be able to get stronger in no time!" Heptino exclaimed excitedly.

I was hoping to have Heptino get me a couple more holy ley lines, but he's giving me a dragon ley line instead! This is truly a pleasant surprise!

Chapter 3789 The Legendary Dragon Ley Line

Levi was still concerned about his findings in Zarain. The holy ley line isn't doing much to help with my metamorphosis process anymore. I'll have to find a higher-level spiritual ley line if I want to get stronger.

According to Zerach, the spiritual ley line that is a level above the holy ley line is known as the dragon ley line. I'm guessing that's the power source Digital God was talking about before. I have to get there no matter what!

He was snapped out of his train of thought when Digital God sent him a message: Mr. Garrison, I have carried out a search using the most advanced equipment. There are no signs of life in that area whatsoever. Judging by the energy that keeps seeping out of that area, I believe it won't be long before others start flocking over.

That sounds rather serious. It looks like the actual situation is far worse than I had imagined.

With that in mind, Levi immediately rushed toward the secret location marked on the map.

Since there were no signs of life in the area, Levi knew there were no powerful fighters there at the moment.

As Void Sect was still keeping an eye on him, it wouldn't be smart to draw any unwanted attention from other forces.

Upon meeting Levi in person, Digital God got straight to the point and asked, "How do you plan on entering the secret zone, Mr. Garrison?"

Digital God had tried conducting some reconnaissance in the secret zone using all sorts of high-tech equipment, but his efforts all ended in failure.

The purity of the spiritual energy within this spiritual ley line was a few times higher than that of a holy ley line. Levi was able to detect the presence of multiple similar dragon ley lines nearby.

There were also tons of holy ley lines in the surrounding area. “Looks like we’ve struck gold!” Levi could barely contain the joy and excitement in his heart.

Right as he was about to celebrate, a stern voice called out to him from afar, “You ignorant reprobate! I suggest you leave now before I kill you!”

A few seconds later, Levi saw a group of men rapidly closing in on his position. The look in his eyes grew cold as he realized he was up against dozens of fairly powerful individuals.

The few leading the group were exuding energy levels that surpassed that of Zerach and the heads of the five sects.

However, the men looked like they were from Adrune with their blonde hair, blue eyes, and arrogant expressions.

“Where did you pieces of trash come from? How dare you interfere with my affairs?” Levi asked with a sneer.
