Chapter 3791 The Strength Of The Holy Guardians

The burly man, whose name was Rukas, threatened Levi, "Since you're asking for it, I'll gladly send you to your death."

Then, to the elite subordinates under his command, he ordered, "Kill him!"

"Yes, Sir!"

Their arrogance was palpable. They clearly did not believe Levi was their match.

One of them shouted, "Let me show you what divine power looks like, you reprobate!"

As he spoke, the men unleashed their attacks.

Though Levi did not notice anything amiss at the start, he soon realized something was off.

The ground beneath his feet seemed as if it had a life of its own. Some invisible energy pulled his legs firmly toward the ground to restrict his movement.

Seeing that, Rukas roared, "That's our chance. Charge!"

His fighters quickly attacked Levi from all sides.

One of them was muttering as he approached Levi. Suddenly, droplets of water materialized out of thin air and fused into the shape of an incredibly sharp sword.

“H-How could this be?” Rukas stammered in shock. He simply could not believe his eyes. Levi had killed five elite fighters in one fell swoop and heavily injured another five.

The surviving elites gasped in surprise. Their comrades who had perished were hardly weaker fighters than them. In fact, some were even stronger warriors.

They could not understand how their combined attack had crumbled so quickly against Levi’s counterattack. Levi sneered, “It’s a pity the gods are being protected by losers like you.”

His scornful comment infuriated Rukas, who bellowed, “You despicable Bayview reprobate! You’re asking for it! Anyone foolish enough to offend the Holy Guardians will suffer the wrath of the twelve Holy Temples!”

Levi shrugged and drawled nonchalantly, “Well, I’ll just have to kill all of you then.”

“F*ck you! I’ll burn you to ashes myself!”

Rukas used his technique and quickly summoned two rings of fire around his palms.

Flames filled the space and concentrated around the rings, boosting their size and might.

Crackle!

The fire rings expanded rapidly, and Levi heard the sound of something burning.

Taking out the Holy Guardian's men was akin to child's play for Levi. Blood-curdling cries rang out as he darted through the crowd of enemies.

Seconds later, Rukas had lost at least ten men to death or severe injuries. Rukas swallowed nervously and muttered, "This Bayview reprobate is too formidable!"

The thought of surrendering surfaced in his mind as he watched Levi felling his army at an alarming rate. Many of his men had lost the will to fight. Levi was dealing fatal blows left and right, and there was little his opponents could do about it.

We need to find a good chance to retreat! Rukas made up his mind and concentrated his fire elemental power. While Levi was preoccupied with other enemies, he channeled the energy into a sea of arrows as thick as his arm.

Then, he aimed the arrows at Levi's vital organs. Swoosh! The fiery arrows flew across the sky, advancing menacingly on Levi. The air heated up to a boiling point, causing any nearby plants to wilt instantly and burn to a crisp.

Bam! Bam! Bam! Levi's punches sent another five men flying. "A sneak attack?" he mumbled and smirked upon noticing Rukas' arrows. Then, he reached out and caught the fiery arrows bare-handed.

As Rukas opened his eyes slowly, fiery flames seemed to flicker in his gaze.

After cultivating for a long time, more than half of the internal injuries he suffered were finally healed.

"F*ck! Who on earth was that Bayview reprobate?" he demanded angrily.

He had led a team of fifty men into battle, but only eight survived.

Thirty-five men had been killed on the spot, while another seven had been seriously wounded. To make things worse, the conditions of the injured did not look promising.

"Rukas, should we send word to the other Guardians to join forces and take that guy down?" someone asked.

"I agree. How can we continue calling ourselves men of the Holy Guardians if we don't get revenge?"

"If the Orunthians are reborn in the future and they find out about this, we'll certainly get punished."

Chapter 3795 The Last Thrashing Was Not Enough

Over at the Void Sect in Kenfort, their cultivation level had improved after acquiring the many cultivation resources provided by Heptino.

Having never enjoyed such an abundance of cultivation resources, Xylas, Wade, and the other trusted aides also benefited greatly from it.

Hence, everyone felt even more determined to be loyal to Gloria.

"Even without the Void Sect's support, I no longer have to fear retaliation from Levi and the rest," she declared.

Gloria brimmed with confidence, especially since she had yet to finish devouring the dragon ley lines from Heptino. She knew she would ascend to a new level after doing so.

Chapter 3796 Killing Holy Guardians

Levi was fearless despite being besieged by the Holy Guardians and more than a hundred other men. In fact, his voice dripped with sarcasm when he spoke.

Confidence ran high among the Guardians who had not witnessed Levi's capabilities, and they shouted provoking remarks. "The five of us will surely crush you and turn you into ash today!"

"That's right. With the presence of the Holy Guardians in Aadrune, you've no business strutting around here."

"That's enough chit-chat. Prepare to die!"

Although Rukas had reminded them to be cautious, they were arrogant and thought the former had lost merely because he was not powerful enough.

Levi crooked a finger, beckoning to the Holy Guardians tauntingly.

"You asked for it!"

Peneleo was the first to attack. As he prepared to strike, light encircled his hands and formed two balls of lightning in the blink of an eye.

The terrifying sound of electricity crackling rang out in the air. Then, with one swift jerk of his hands, the lightning orbs hurtled toward Levi like cannonballs.

However, Levi did not attempt to dodge the attack and stretched out his hands to catch the lightning orbs. "All of you should come at me together so that you don't waste my time."

Snickering coldly, Peneleo replied, "You think too highly of your capabilities. Since you dared to catch them with your bare hands, prepare to be reduced to ashes!"

Chapter 3797 Talent Of Forlevia Demonstrated Once More

Having experienced the terrifying power of the dragon ley line firsthand, Levi immediately decided to bring Forlevia over and let her use the dragon ley line to cultivate directly.

Forlevia was also quite shocked when she arrived at the secret zone, for she did not expect that there would be so many powerful spiritual ley lines there.

In particular, the purity of the spiritual energy there was more than ten times stronger than that of holy ley lines, and she could not help but channel her self-created technique.

"Huh?"

Forlevia suddenly felt a little strange. It was as though an invisible force was luring her.

"What's wrong, Evie?" Levi asked, looking puzzled.

Forlevia answered with a serious expression, "Daddy, the moment I channeled my technique just now, I seem to have somehow established a connection with the extremely strong power of several spiritual ley lines."

"Oh? Then can you try to state their general directions?" Levi said in a deep voice.

Chapter 3798 Levi Heads To Kenfort

Meanwhile, after attending Gloria and Primo's wedding, Floyd also began cultivating maniacally. Having completely let go of his feelings, the emptiness in his heart was taken over by hatred.

This allowed him to reach a state where he had no other distractions, and he frantically plundered the cultivation resources of the five sects. "Floyd, Bluesky Sect's inventory is empty. Do you want to check out the other sects?"

The bitterness in Hansel's voice was palpable. Floyd has been furiously scouring cultivation resources since returning from the wedding, and he has already consumed practically all of the higher-grade magical herbs in Bluesky Sect's inventory.

If this continues, the disciples of the sect won't have any resources for further cultivation to support them, and the sect's demise is all but guaranteed.

Floyd responded with displeasure, "If the inventory has nothing left, go out and find some for me. Kenfort has countless magical herbs. It is you all who are ultimately not committed to your job."

Cultivating the extreme devouring technique might have made him more violent as he frequently punished others and, in severe cases, outright ended their lives.

He had already claimed more than ten people's lives on the spot for carrying out his orders poorly. "All right. I'll send someone to look for them right away!"

Hansel could only bite the bullet and agree to it. In actuality, someone had suggested teaming up to get rid of Floyd, but they were ultimately worried about Levi, who was backing him.

Chapter 3799 First Time In Kenfort

The power of the ten dragon ley lines had yet to be completely drained, so Forlevia could still use it.

Levi then checked Wynona's and the others' cultivation levels, and they had improved after metamorphosing through the holy ley line.

The other members of the base had also improved with the divine ley line, and they were much more powerful than before.

Levi became at ease at that.

As long as Kenfort's ultimate sects were not the ones attacking them, the members of the base would be safe.

Even if they were up against the Holy Guardians, Forlevia and Wynona were around, so they needed not to fear anything.

After settling everything else, Levi rushed to Kenfort alone.

He was already familiar with the location of Celestial Gate, and this time, he forced his way through the bronze gate.

The journey was smooth, but he did not enter Kenfort through the route Zerach and the others had provided him.

Of course, that was a decision Levi had made, as he would rather be safe than sorry. After all, he was not familiar with the matters of Kenfort.

It was highly likely that Void Sect would plant informants on the normal routes.

All Levi did was wave his hand to assert dominance, and the beasts who had been eyeing Levi and waiting for the chance to take his life instantly scurried away.

“The survival of the fittest is really the concept here,” Levi lamented. Still, he was glad that the ten dragon ley lines had done wonders. After surveying his surroundings, he noticed a plant with nine colors on its petals behind the beast.

“The Nine-colored Glacio Herb?” It was an otherworldly herb recorded in Bluesky Sect’s ancient manual, and it was rarely found anywhere, including Kenfort.

The more dangerous the restricted area is, the better the things I will find. I might as well take the chance to scavenge for some magical herbs. They’ll be useful regardless of whether I’ll be using them for myself or for my close friends.

Once Levi made up his mind, he began collecting magical herbs as he went on his way. Once he passed the Silential Restricted Zone, he would be able to reach the place where the prominent sects of Kenfort were at.

While he searched for the magical herbs in the restricted area, he encountered plenty of beasts. Alas, Levi was too powerful, and he basically wiped them all out.

If I was any weaker, I might not be able to leave the Silential Restricted Zone alive. He could guess that cultivators around Zerach’s level would have to pay a terrible price to get past the Silential Restricted Zone.
