“D*mn it!” Cheriette cursed under her breath. She regretted inviting Levi to the sect. It’s fine if he’s of no help. It’s understandable since those from the mundane world are weaker. But Levi’s attitude now is just exasperating.

If it wasn’t because she was occupied with fending off the attacks, Cheriette would have charged at Levi and cut him down with her sword.

Naturally, Levi wasn’t oblivious to the hostility shown by the members of Astre Lune Sect, but he couldn’t care less about them. “Why should I help you when you have nothing to do with me at all?”

Levi looked on with a nonchalant expression. Given how strong the members of Eclipse Academy were, the battle ended up as a one-sided massacre.

Agonized screams filled the air. Due to the gulf in strength, members of the various sects were slaughtered without being able to put up a fight.

Even an Emphyrean like Cheriette could barely stand her ground against them. As for the other ordinary Paladins and elders, they were either dead or grievously wounded.

The warriors from Eclipse Academy dominated the battlefield.

With the passage of time, the tide of the battle grew increasingly dire for the various sects with many of their Emphyreans injured.

"Since you want it back so much, I'll happily give it back to you!" Levi answered cheekily. Before the attacker understood what Levi meant, the latter had waved his arm. "This power..."

In that instant, the attacker felt a sudden numbness in his arm as his sword slipped out of his grip. Following that, its tip turned around and shot itself into his chest.

"That's really fast!" Before the other members of Eclipse Academy could react, the sword had pierced through the man's body. Because of the overwhelming momentum, he was sent flying with blood spewing out of his chest.

Thump! He crashed to the ground, his legs twitching momentarily before he died on the spot with an indignant look in his eyes. With everything happening in a flash, the crowd was lost in a daze.

Those were the leader's last words before his head fell limp. "Kenfort fighters are no big deal," Levi mumbled to himself. The deathly silence that ensued made Levi feel as if he was the only person left in the world.

The members of all the other sects were dumbfounded by what they had seen. Subsequently, they fell into an uproar for five whole minutes.

"Which sect is this guy from? How is he so powerful?"

"My God, he defeated a warrior from Eclipse Academy!"

"Even the leader in the black robe was killed instantaneously. Such frightening power!"

"More importantly, he doesn't look as if he used his full power!"

The Septistar Order led by Jayceon arrived late, only to discover many wounded members of the various sects. They realized a gruesome battle had occurred for the dragon ley line.

As the remaining survivors were all drained, no one could stand in Jayceon's way of securing victory. "Empyrean Jayceon, Cherie is among them and she seems to be badly hurt," one of the Septistar Order Paladins reported.

When Jayceon turned to look, he saw the goddess-like Cherie sitting in meditation with her legs crossed. The weakness of her breath was a clear indication of the grievous injury she had suffered.

"Capture Cherie and kill the rest!" Jayceon ordered insidiously. All this while, he had been lusting over Cherie, and finally, he encountered the rare opportunity of securing her easily.

As for the remaining Paladins of Astre Lune Sect, they were a spent force and could be eliminated without much effort. "Empyrean Jayceon, the dragon ley line is undamaged. We have struck gold!"

"With a dragon ley line of such scale, cultivating with it will definitely elevate our strength to the next level."

"Life is certainly unpredictable. Although they discovered it first, all they've done is clear the way for us."

The members of the Septistar Order cheered jubilantly, as they were surprised by their stroke of luck despite arriving late.

Chapter 3815 Massacre Of The Septistar Order

Although Jayceon didn't know the reason for them laughing at the face of death, he could smell something fishy going on. When something doesn't make sense, there has to be a reason for it.

"Empyrean Jayceon, what should we do next?"

"Now that the elites of Eclipse Academy have been killed, neither the academy nor Eclipse will rest until this matter is resolved." "If they were to suspect that we did it, wouldn't it be a disaster for us?"

The elders of the Septistar Order were brimming with concern. Despite their desperation to get their hands on the dragon ley line, they had no intention of offending the powerful Eclipse.

Considering the gulf in power, they reckoned that a few members of Eclipse were all that was needed to wipe out the Septistar Order. Jayceon fell into deep thought, his face grim.

Upon coming to a decision, he declared in a solemn tone, "There's nothing to be afraid of, as we had nothing to do with the deaths of the men from Eclipse Academy. Even if someone suspects us, we will just blame this lot for what happened. As long as we shut them up permanently, no one will be the wiser. Even if Eclipse tries to hold us accountable, we will be able to distance ourselves safely from the matter."

The elders of the Septistar Order couldn't agree more with Jayceon's words. "Not only that, if we killed all these men, we might be able to get Eclipse to owe us a debt of gratitude," Jayceon continued. "What a brilliant idea!"

Everyone from the Septistar Order agreed with the plan. Not only can we blame someone else for what we've done, but we can also earn the gratitude of others. This scheme is perfect!

"Other than Cheriette, leave no one else alive!" After a brief hesitation, Jayceon pointed at Levi.

"Especially him. Don't ever let a scum like him appear in my sight again."

He was the one who killed the members of Eclipse Academy. No wonder Chierette and the others could still laugh calmly in the face of death. All of them were simply waiting for me to make a fool of myself.

His previous doubts had all been clarified. Despite the epiphany, it was already too late for him. “It’s your turn now.”

Levi’s cold voice rang out. Overwhelmed by fear, Jayceon felt the urge to flee into the woods. “If you dare lay a finger on Emphyrean Jayceon, the Septistar Order will never forgive you.”

At that crucial moment, a voice belonging to an elder came from the forest. Ecstatic to hear that voice, Jayceon cried out, “Jeremiah, save me!”

A moment later, a group of men emerged from the forest, and leading them was an old man with white hair. “No one can save you today!”

With that, Levi threw a punch at Jayceon. “B*stard, how dare you!”

The old man appeared between both of them in a flash before intercepting Levi’s punch with his palm. The instant they made contact, an explosive shockwave was released.

Chapter 3817 All Who Went Died

As Levi had absorbed ten dragon ley lines not long ago, he was rather quick to metamorphose with the dragon ley line.

At this rate, I'll use up the essence of the dragon ley line in a day at most, Levi estimated in his mind as a wave of delight washed over him.

When he thought about the combat prowess of Eclipse Academy, he became even more confident in his chances of winning against Void Sect.

The others said that Void Sect is afraid of Eclipse Academy, so I believe they won't be more powerful than Eclipse Academy. Anyway, let me use up the spiritual energy of this dragon ley line before I think of anything else. Gloria, Santino, I'll let you off to live for a few days more.

After pushing aside those thoughts, Levi quickly channeled the basic techniques.

The power of the dragon ley line surged into Levi's body in the blink of an eye and continuously improved his physique and internal system.

Meanwhile, the members of Void Sect had gloomily retreated to the outermost ring of the dragon ley line.

The sight of the magical herbs in the people's arms made Primo smile. "At least we're not returning from our trip to Tragora Mountain empty-handed," Primo commented.

The elders and Emphyreans of Void Sect verbally agreed with him. Even though they had failed to obtain the dragon ley line they desperately wanted, the magical herbs they had collected were rare.

Those herbs would be of great help in upgrading the consumer's power regardless of whether the consumer absorbed the spiritual energy directly or take pills created with the herbs.

Right then, soft sounds of footsteps came from the deeper parts of the forest. "Be careful," Primo warned in a low voice. The members of Void Sect immediately became on guard, instinctively assuming that members of other sects were coming to rob them of their magical herbs.

A moment later, a team of dozens of people appeared in their line of sight. They were all wearing black robes with an eclipse pattern embroidered on the front. The man leading them was a graying old man.

The eclipse patterns by their chests were all gold in color, but unlike them, the old man's eclipse had nine colors. "The vice-chancellor of Eclipse Academy, Yunus Lohse."

Primo recognized the old man right away, and he could barely conceal the shock and confusion he felt. "Mr. Lohse," Primo quickly greeted with a deep bow.

Chapter 3819 Depleting A Dragon Ley Line

Everyone at the scene was shocked to see a myriad of bodies across the ground and an exhausted dragon ley line. "What happened?"

None of them understood what was going on. After all, the people of Eclipse Academy were extremely powerful. Moreover, they had Eclipse, the strongest sect in Kenfort, as their backer. The crowd could not imagine anyone strong enough to be their match, let alone mess with such a terrifying sect.

Little did they know Levi had left with the survivors of Astre Lune Sect and the rest right after he used up the dragon ley line to metamorphose.

Furthermore, they left through the back of the dragon ley line. That was why they were not discovered by Void Sect's informer. "What's going on? Explain this!" Yunus interrogated coldly.

His voice made everyone shudder, their hearts thumping wildly.

Similarly, Gloria was also shocked by the amazing absorption ability. She thought she was the fastest among the crowd in devouring spiritual energy since she cultivated the extreme devouring technique.

In fact, there was absolutely no one in Void Sect who could fight against her—not even Geraint. Nonetheless, it would take her at least a month to devour all the energy from such a massive dragon ley line.

Even if she took the risk of reaching her limit, it would still take her twenty days to devour all of it.

Using up all that energy in just a day? That's crazy. Kenfort is truly populated with elites. The fact that there's still such a ridiculously powerful fighter out there is unbelievable. This person must be a top mighty being of Kenfort. His devouring rate is dozens of times faster than the extreme devouring technique.

Gloria sighed deeply as she realized she was still not powerful enough. Only a person who can reach such a terrifying cultivation level can be considered the best in Kenfort, right?

Gloria's eyes burned with desire, and she was beginning to look down on Void Sect.
