Chapter 3831 Going After Void Sect

After taking care of Astre Lune Sect's matters, Levi headed out with Cheriette. Since they had found out about the extent of Void Sect's capabilities, it was time they went after them for revenge.

However, the headquarters of Void Sect was quite far away. The two would have to pass through Yannopolis in order to get there. Since it was a really long journey, Levi had time to do some thinking along the way.

Looking back, I think my journey in Kenfort has been rather smooth so far. Not only did I consume a large dragon ley line, but I also took over Astre Lune Sect. You'd better appreciate what little time you have left to live, Gloria. Santino, Primo, and the rest of Void Sect... You guys better not interfere, or I'll destroy Void Sect completely!

With Astre Lune Sect in his possession, Levi no longer had any use for Void Sect. "Mr. Garrison, the people here say this forest up ahead is a corrupt dead zone. Rogue cultivators often kill people and traffic illegal goods there. We should be more careful," Cheriette advised him politely.

I was not expecting Levi to take only me with him. Quirina ordered me to do whatever it takes to get on his good side. We may have gotten rid of the bodies of Yunus and his men, but it's only a matter of time before someone finds out about this. When that day comes, we'll face the wrath of both Eclipse and Eclipse Academy!

The higher-ups of Eclipse Academy had recently ordered a search for Yunus. Since Crimson Shadow Pavilion was nearby, they could rush over in time and cut Cheriette off.

"These men are very powerful, Mr. Garrison. I can't take them on all by myself. Will you please lend me a hand?" Cheriette whispered. "These small fries are no threat at all. Just sit back and enjoy the show," Levi replied with a smile.

The leader of Crimson Shadow Pavilion burst out laughing when he heard that. "Hahaha! You sure talk big for a reprobate from the mundane world!"

"You talk too much!" Levi snapped back at him before disappearing from sight. Before the members of Crimson Shadow Pavilion realized what was going on, Levi had already appeared next to them.

In just the blink of an eye, Levi had taken the lives of three Crimson Shadow Pavilion members. The leader of Crimson Shadow Pavilion gasped in shock.

What the... How is he so fast and powerful? He moved so quickly that I didn't even get to see how he killed them! "Everyone, get him!" he yelled furiously.

That prompted the rest of the members to charge at him all at once, but the difference in their power levels was simply too huge.

Chapter 3833 The Dark Demon Arrives

Suddenly, the sound of footsteps came from outside the restaurant. Upon turning around, Levi saw hundreds of soldiers running past the door. They were all armed to the teeth and had solemn looks on their faces.

Moments later, a lieutenant of the guard brigade entered the restaurant and announced, "Attention, all citizens! Please do not leave your houses unless absolutely necessary! There have been reports of a monster terrorizing the outskirts of this city lately! According to the information we have, this monster loves preying on powerful cultivators! We are doing everything we can to handle this situation as safely as possible!"

Everyone panicked when they heard the confirmation of the man-eating demon's existence.

Even the man who had talked about fleeing the city fell silent instantly. Nobody knew when or where the demon would strike.

It wasn't long before the city defense army made another announcement stating that the man-eating demon was on its way to Yannopolis. To make matters worse, the cultivators who had gone to investigate had all been killed in action.

In order to keep everyone calm in the face of danger, the city defense army sent lots of soldiers to protect the citizens and cultivators of small-sized sects.

Sect members, too, had their weapons drawn in preparation for the demon's arrival.

Cheriette was on edge after hearing all those rumors about the demon eating up entire sects, so she freaked out the moment she heard that.

“Wait here while I go see what’s going on. Don’t go anywhere,” Levi ordered solemnly and disappeared before she could even respond.

Cheriette had wanted to follow Levi, as she only felt safe with him around.

However, Levi was going so fast that Cheriette couldn’t keep up with him at all.

Eventually, she had no choice but to give up and hide somewhere secluded instead.

It wasn’t long before Levi arrived at the city gates of Yannopolis, where the demon was said to be sighted.

Of course, Levi was only there to satisfy his curiosity about the demon. He wouldn’t get himself involved unless it would benefit him in some way.

After all, the deaths of the people of Kenfort had nothing to do with him whatsoever.

Chapter 3835 Yannopolis Requesting For Help

Upon returning to the inn, Levi saw a ton of the city defense army soldiers inside Cheriette's room.

What's going on here? The city gate has been broken through! Why are these soldiers looking for Cheriette instead of defending the city?

"Empyrean Cheriette, Yannopolis is on the brink of destruction! You've got to help us! I'm close with Astre Lune Sect! Lord Morell would surely send backup over if she found out about this!" said a burly, middle-aged man.

He looked really majestic, with a golden suit of armor and a long spear in his hand.

That man was none other than Kazier Whitlock, the governor of Yannopolis.

Upon hearing that, Levi realized they were actually there to ask Cheriette for help.

The city defense army had sustained heavy casualties, and the guard brigade sent to back them up didn't fare any better.

“Bad news, Governor! The Dark Demon is approaching us!” At that moment, a panicked voice rang out.

Kazier’s face turned pale in shock. His subordinates had informed him that the Dark Demon was extremely skilled in combat, so he had no confidence in winning at all.

“Let’s attack together! We’ll kill him at any cost!” shouted Kazier, steeling himself for what was to come.

Invigorated again, the elites of the guard brigade charged at the Dark Demon.

From afar, one could see the city defense army and the guard brigade occupying the entire street, with some even perching on the roofs of the houses at the side.

The Dark Demon launched himself toward them while absorbing the powers of others as if he had just arisen from the depths of hell.

This created a strange, vicious cycle where the Dark Demon became even more powerful the more he fought while the city defense army and guard brigade lost confidence as the fight continued.

The strongest fighters dwindled in numbers as they almost got killed by the devourer.

the Dark Demon caught a glimpse of Levi, who was standing at the back of the crowd. He froze for a moment before whirling around and

Chapter 3837 The Dark Demon Is Floyd

Cheriette soon noticed a similar look of confusion in Levi's eyes and realized that perhaps he also could not figure out why the Dark Demon suddenly fled. Did he manage to detect the actual level of my cultivation?

Levi dismissed that thought instantly. Not only was the Dark Demon far weaker than him, but he also did not detect any energy released from the opponent to investigate him. Could he be someone I know?

That suspicion caused a grim look to flash across Levi's eyes. There was barely anyone who could enter Kenfort from the mundane world, much less those who practiced the extreme devouring technique.

Gloria, Xylas, and Floyd were the only suspects thus far. Naturally, he must not exclude the possibility that Gloria had taught others the extreme devouring technique.

However, judging from the Dark Demon's powers, Levi supposed he had been training the technique for a long time.

Hence, he could eliminate the possibility that Gloria had taught other cultivators the technique.

Judging from his physique, I think the Dark Demon is probably a man. This leaves Gloria out of the equation. Floyd and Xylas are the likeliest suspects. Plus, they know me very well.

In fact, he might look completely different. Precisely so, people who practice the extreme devouring technique must find a spiritual ley line first. However, this presents another problem—the body's capacity to endure it. Just by his appearance alone, it's hard to tell what his true identity

Chapter 3838 He Will Not Dare To Act Rashly

Of course, there had also been times Floyd had to admit defeat. He had encountered several powerful fighters previously, and his attempts at devouring them had only caused him to get injured.

Nonetheless, through maniacally devouring and hunting down fighters, he had boosted his strength at a much faster rate than anyone could have imagined.

He only had one thought in his head the entire time—devour without restraint to grow his powers and exact revenge on Gloria.

As time passed, the power and resources from ordinary small sects became less and less effective in enhancing his strength.

However, he dared not provoke the major sects rashly, well aware that he was still no match for the fighters from those sects.

Hence, he focused his sights on Yannopolis.

The city boasted a large population, and its strongest force was its guard brigade. Even so, the fighters from the area could not rival Floyd.

Not only can I leverage the number of people within the city to enhance my powers, but I can also ensure my safety at the same time. Those are the perfect conditions for extreme devouring.

What Floyd never expected, however, was that he would meet Levi after his killing spree in Yannopolis.

Chapter 3839 I Can Exterminate Them At Any Time

The woods extended across a mountain range, which already made it difficult for one to traverse.

Combined with the fact that Levi was unfamiliar with the surroundings, even someone of his caliber could barely keep up the pursuit. Nonetheless, he still fell behind by a considerable distance.

Crack! As Levi tried to propel himself forward like an arrow shot from a bow, the trees underneath his feet cracked and splintered from the impact of his stride.

At the same time, he still had to use his punches to smash the trees in front of him and clear a path for himself, which hindered his speed even more.

Meanwhile, Floyd was running desperately. He had hidden in the primeval forest before, so he could make his way to many areas within the area even if he had his eyes closed.

He used vines to leap over long distances and cross streams that the uneven ground seemed like flat plains to him.

"Master is unbelievable fast!" Floyd muttered as he continued dashing forward. As far as he could remember, a stone forest lay in the depths of the woods, and its surroundings were even more challenging.

Many caves, which appear to be manmade, are dotted along the face of the mountain. The caves extend in all directions, with some connecting to a secret underground chamber. That's where I'm going to hide.

As Floyd ran, he sent a massive rock hurtling toward Levi, who was behind him.

Chapter 3840 Cream Of The Crop

Besides, Gloria's position within Void Sect has slowly risen, and she has gotten into Primo's good graces. It wouldn't make sense for her to go around recklessly devouring the powers of others because that's unnecessary. Rumor has it that Heptino has the ability to examine spiritual ley lines and provide the best spiritual ley lines as cultivation resources.

There's no need for him to reject what is near at hand to seek something that is far away. The same logic applies to Xylas and the few elite fighters from the Glorian Order. With Gloria's support, they don't have to devour other cultivators' powers to boost their cultivation level.

"As you wish, Lord Garrison. I'll lead the way," said Cheriette, not daring to probe further. The pair set off immediately, making their way swiftly toward the headquarters of Bluesky Sect.

At the same time, the area was abuzz as two pieces of news circulated among the various sects. The first was that the Dark Demon had appeared in Yannopolis, committed a widespread massacre, and nearly wiped out the entire city.

The second was that no one had heard from Eclipse Academy's vice-chancellor and dozens of its elites for some time. The rumor was that they were dead at the hands of a powerful fighter.

On top of that, the powerful forces who had tried searching for the missing people had been slaughtered, including those from the notorious Crimson Shadow Pavilion.
