Chapter 3871 Divine Bones

“Mr. Garrison, let me explain to you in detail.” Then, Sylvan proceeded to explain how Prime Association’s protection worked. As it turned out, Prime Association had an agency focusing on physical protection called Prime Company.

Prime Company had countless elite fighters, and even the lousiest ones there were as powerful as the elders in major sects. The stamp that Levi had could be used to hire the protection services of a Prime Company fighter.

The classification of Prime Association stamps was strict. The colors of the stamp lining—black, purple, gold, silver, bronze, and steel—dictated the class of the stamps, with black being the highest and steel being the lowest.

The golden linings of Levi’s stamp meant that he held a mid-class stamp. The higher the class of the stamp, the more power the stamp wielder had in Prime Association, and the more benefits they would receive.

If one had a black or purple stamp, they could receive the protection of dozens to hundreds of Prime Company’s fighters. It was an unimaginable number.

Anyone who was protected in that way would be able to lord over everyone in Kenfort.

At the same time, they would be prioritized in terms of getting the best resources. After all, they would be providing the best kind of deal as well.

Chapter 3872 The Valley

Sylvan immediately answered, “No problem. You should be able to find Divine Bones in Dragon’s Grave Valley. But you have to think through this carefully, Mr. Garrison! Dragon’s Grave Valley is far more dangerous than one can imagine. A slight mistake, and you’ll die!

Many fighters have gone to Dragon’s Grave Valley to look for Divine Bones and other kinds of magical herbs, but they never returned. Prime Association has lost many of its fighters in this way too. We’ve thought of storing Divine Bones for better trades, but the numerous people we sent to Dragon’s Grave Valley were all turned into ashes by Dragon’s Grave Valley’s Heavenly Thunder.”

“Why does Dragon’s Grave Valley have Heavenly Thunder?” Levi wondered out loud.

Sylvan explained, “Although Dragon’s Grave Valley is named a valley, there is a deep pool within it, and countless spirit beasts and krakens live there. Every few months, Heavenly Thunder would appear in abundance. The krakens will take the opportunity to use Heavenly Thunder for their metamorphosis to become true dragons.

However, the Heavenly Thunder in Dragon’s Grave Valley isn’t like the ones elsewhere. It’s almost as if it’s a punishment, and normal cultivators can’t withstand it at all. Even some of the top fighters dare not continue their way when the Heavenly Thunder strikes. The Divine Bones you talk about are crystals created by the bones of the krakens that failed to survive the Heavenly Thunder. Of course, the krakens aren’t the only ones.

Some high-level spirit beasts will also use Heavenly Thunder to metamorphose. Those that fail will be crystallized by the Heavenly Thunder into Divine Bones. In fact, the bones of some people—fighters—are Divine Bones as well.

That includes pure physical cultivators, of course. These kinds of Divine Bones are exceptionally tough and are the best materials for the forging of an ultimate weapon. To put it simply, they’re the best among the best.”

Chapter 3873 The Value Of A Top Class Blacksmith

A few of the high-ranking members of Prime Association expressed their doubts and displeasure. Sylvan's face instantly fell as he spoke in a glacial tone. "What do you guys know? He's no ordinary person."

The high-ranking members of Prime Association were at once dumbfounded, disbelief written all over their faces. They knew how high Sylvan's standards were, as not even the elite fighters from the other large sects were worthy of his attention.

Even when it came to the Paladins of popular sects, Sylvan would only label their capability as "average" at most.

Thus, his comment about Levi being "no ordinary person" was especially baffling and surprising. "What do you mean by that, Mr. Webber?"

Everyone focused their attention on Sylvan. Instead of answering their question directly, Sylvan responded with a rhetorical question, "Do you all still remember the fight for the dragon ley line that happened some time ago? And how the elites of Eclipse Sect and Eclipse Academy were murdered?"

"Of course we've heard about it. The members of Eclipse even came to ask us about their Princess of Divinity." "But what do these two incidents have to do with Levi?"

Chapter 3874 Evil Plan

In the context of that, the benefits of building a good relationship with a top blacksmith would be long-lasting. After all, the quality and standard of weapons were extremely important to every single sect in Kenfort.

In fact, some of the sects were only one ultimate weapon away from propelling their sect to greater heights. That was exactly the case with Void Sect. In terms of both the quality of their elite warriors and the dragon ley line resources they possessed, they were of the standard of a prominent sect.

The only thing they lacked was an ultimate weapon, which would be of great help to them. According to hearsay, they had recently gotten their hands on God Crusher, and they were about to rise in the ranks.

Though there was still quite a gap in terms of power between them and the other eminent sects, they had long surpassed the other average-ranked sects.

"Moreover, you won't necessarily be able to defeat Levi. He's obviously concealing his power, and not even I'm able to see through his efforts. Think about it. He is capable of massacring dozens of Eclipse's elites and even capturing Larissa alive. What makes you guys think you stand a chance against him? At the very least, even if we go all out and manage to take him down, we'd definitely suffer unimaginable casualties. It's not worth the effort," said Sylvan solemnly.

The high-ranking members of the association gasped in fear.

Numerous members of different sects were chatting happily in a relaxed manner while waiting in a forest somewhere.

“That Garrison guy and his group will surely pass by this forest. If they’re wise enough to not fight back, we’ll show some mercy and at least allow their corpses to be intact.”

“Let me deal with those two women. It’s a great chance for me to test the ‘cultivation methods’ that I’ve recently mastered. Haha!”

“Let us all work together. They have a lot of raw materials with them, and it’s enough to be divided among us.”

“You’re right. Let’s give our all and get things over with as soon as possible.”

Although they didn’t think of Levi and his gang as threats, the last thing they wanted was to get into a pointless internal fight that would result in others taking advantage of the situation.

To them, Levi was a vulnerable prey that had shown up on their doorstep, waiting to be slaughtered.

The minutes slowly ticked by while they lay in wait, and soon after, the informants that were keeping watch outside sent them a message telling them that Levi and his group had entered the forest.

Sure enough, Levi and company emerged after around half an hour, and at the sight of that, the elites of multiple sects were instantly excited.

Chapter 3876 Reverse Robbery

Gasps and murmurs filled the forest when the leader of an average sect was instantly killed right in front of everyone’s eyes. The sudden outburst of such a horrifying power shocked them to the core.

“I can’t believe he’s that strong!” “No wonder he has the guts to talk big in front of Prime Association’s members. He has some skills up his sleeve!”

“Why are you guys so afraid? Mr. Kemp was taken down because he got careless and underestimated his opponent, not to mention Garrison’s surprise attack.” “Yeah! Why should we be afraid of him when there are so many of us?”

“Let’s do this together and send him straight to hell!” These people were, after all, the core elites of average and above sects who had experienced countless turbulences and undergone ferocious battles.

Thus, they were able to swiftly regain their composure after a brief moment of panicking and immediately unleash a murderous aura.

“What a bunch of stubborn insolents!”

Levi scoffed before he disappeared from their line of sight yet again.

“Watch out behind you!”

"Mr. Garrison, I'm willing to forgo all the magical herbs I have on hand. Please show some mercy and spare my life!" "I'm willing to hand over everything I have as well so that I can live and be at your beck and call, Mr. Garrison!"

"Same here!" Plop! Several surviving fighters dropped to their knees, begging for mercy. Levi scoffed and spoke. "You guys should've started with this. What's the point of sacrificing so many lives?"

He then turned to the guide and Cheriette, ordering them, "The lot of you, go ahead and take the magical herbs from them. Take every single one and make sure not to leave anything for them."

Not daring to defy Levi's order, the guide from Prime Association and Cheriette promptly snatched the goods away from the surrendered fighters.

Levi beamed, pleasantly surprised to find out that the fighters had plenty of goods in their possession. They owned various types of precious medicinal herbs, top-quality raw materials, as well as tens of thousands of dragon ley line spiritual energy crystals.

What a rewarding trip to Lightspring! "I'm a kind and magnanimous person, so I'll let you all live since you've turned in all your goods," said Levi with a deep voice.

D*mn it! The survivors of the attack almost couldn't suppress their urge to curse out loud.

With Levi protecting them, Larissa and Cheriette suddenly felt relieved. At the same time, they stopped feeling as though something was suppressing the energy in their bodies.

Cheriette glanced at shoppingmode Levi's slightly thin figure and felt an unprecedented peace of mind.

As the three of them continued moving forward, Levi noticed something extremely strange about the forest. Not a single beast or insect could be found here. In fact, the forest was dead silent. It was a feeling that could make a person feel anxious.

Levi tried to release a wave of energy to see if there were any living things in the vicinity, yet he found nothing.

"It's as if this place forbids the existence of life," Cheriette suddenly commented. Larissa felt the same way too, and she was starting to panic.

She got even more scared when she recalled all the weird things about Dragon's Grave Valley that her two sect leaders had told her about.

Chapter 3880 Consequences For Your Arrogance

This fellow has balls of steel, doesn't he? Cheriette commented inwardly. If we can feel how terrifying Heavenly Thunder is from so far away, I can't imagine what it's going to feel like once we get closer. Although he's strong, does he need to take such a huge risk?

Larissa's jaw almost dropped in shock blue-sky thinking rendered her speechless.

Compared to Cheriette, Larissa was even more aware of the danger Dragon's Grave Valley posed. Even the council members of Eclipse wouldn't dare to come here. If my memory serves me right, a few of the elite fighters from Eclipse had gone to Dragon's Grave Valley to look for Divine Bones as well. They had even chosen to enter the area during the period when Heavenly Thunder wasn't as active. In the end, they were still killed. They suffered such horrible deaths that they were reduced to ashes. Is Levi brave, or is he just foolish?

An inexplicably complex range of emotions glinted in Larissa's eyes as he stared at Levi from behind. Even though Levi is a pure physical cultivator, Heavenly Thunder in Dragon's Grave Valley is still going to disintegrate him. Despite what's going to happen to him, that's actually a chance for me to escape!

At that moment, Larissa began looking forward to arriving in Dragon's Grave Valley. Judging by personality, I think he's someone who's willing to risk it all even when he's not entirely sure of something. There will be consequences for your arrogance, Levi. You'll surely pay dearly for your actions.

Levi continued forging ahead at full tilt without knowing what those two ladies were thinking about.
