Chapter 3881 Restricted Area

“What are bounty hunters?” Levi asked in confusion. Before Cherielette said it, Levi had already sensed their presence earlier on.

“Bounty hunters are a unique group of people in Kenfort. In other words, these people don’t belong to any sect, so they ended up coming together and doing whatever tasks that are available. They would do something as big as murder to something as trivial as cleaning up after others. They do these tasks in exchange for resources to cultivate,” Larissa explained.

“Bounty hunters specialize in taking on tricky and special missions and often wander around the edges of various forbidden areas and secret realms. All in all, they can’t compete for resources with the big sects, so they can only risk their lives for cultivation resources by accepting such extreme tasks. Of course, bounty hunters sometimes organize their activities spontaneously, and they will not hesitate to risk their lives by entering restricted areas,” Cherielette chimed in.

Levi nodded in response. Evidently, both the mundane world and Kenfort are societies where the strong prey on the weak. To be precise, Kenfort is worse. After all, fists do the talking here. If there’s any disagreement, there will be violent fights and even massacres. As a matter of fact, the mundane world also has organizations working as bounty hunters.

“The edge of a forbidden area like this one is the most popular place for bounty hunters. I think there are forty or fifty groups of bounty hunters wandering around the restricted areas every year. These bounty hunters are ruthless, and they live their lives fighting and killing without any fear. They’re always fighting amongst themselves. We might’ve even been targeted by a team of bounty hunters already,” Larissa said solemnly.

After taking a few steps forward, Levi suddenly stopped walking. "That's more like it! You still have time to turn back now!"

"Haha! He was just pretending just now!" "I actually thought he was someone incredible!" Levi slowly turned around and said to the bounty hunters, "By the way, please stay here and wait for me to come out."

"What do you mean?" one of the leaders of the bounty hunters asked in a deep voice.

With a smile, Levi explained, "When I come out from Dragon's Grave Valley later, I'll surely have a lot of magical herbs with me. It'll be hard for me to carry everything on my own. Since there are so many of you here, please act as my transportation team. Don't worry. I'll reward all of you after that."

Levi then left without turning back, disappearing from everyone's sight a few seconds later. It took the bounty hunters a long while to come back to their senses.

"What the f*ck? That guy is so pretentious! If one didn't know better, one would easily mistake him for one of Kenfort's mighty beings!"

"How dare he ask us to act as his transportation team? How shameless is he?"

Chapter 3883 Get Yourself Ready

Elites from more than a hundred sects rushed toward Dragon's Grave Valley, and Void Sect was one of those sects.

This time around, Void Sect was going all out. Primo was leading the troops, while Gloria and the other elders were there to assist him.

Void Sect's council members were determined to leave a good impression on Eclipse through the mission of killing the robber.

In truth, Void Sect was considered a mid-level sect, but with the God Crusher, it had slowly become a large sect.

"Darling, how do you think this battle will end?" Gloria asked excitedly.

Chapter 3884 The Same Feeling

Right then, Eclipse's vanguards had already arrived on the outskirts of Dragon's Grave Valley.

Coincidentally, the team of vanguards was on a mission in Lightspring. They needed the least time to travel to Dragon's Grave Valley.

They had thought they would bump into the robber there, and the robber could've prepared for battle.

After all, they knew how dangerous Dragon's Grave Valley was. They assumed that no matter how strong the robber was, he would never enter Dragon's Grave Valley. Even the top fighters from Eclipse and Prime Association wouldn't dare to set foot in Dragon's Grave Valley. Perhaps only the ancient families and immortal forces would take the risk of entering. Others would surely not make their way out of there.

However, the team of vanguards bumped into a few teams of bounty hunters. Upon some questioning, the vanguards found out that Levi, along with two ladies, had already entered Dragon's Grave Valley's core area.

"Are you sure they've gone inside?" the leader of Eclipse's vanguards asked. The leaders of the bounty hunters all said they had seen Levi and the others walking in. In fact, there were a lot of witnesses.

"Haha! In that case, the robber is surely going to die! We don't even have to do anything anymore."

"That's right. The core area in Dragon's Grave Valley is filled with Heavenly Thunder. Even top fighters will have no chance of coming out of there alive."

Chapter 3885 Source Of Energy

Meanwhile, Levi and the ladies managed to arrive inside Dragon's Grave Valley itself. The strength of Heavenly Thunder there was ten times more terrifying.

Although Levi's energy shield had already greatly reduced the impact of the Heavenly Thunder, Larissa and Chierette could still feel the immense pressure.

The pressure was practically enveloping them, and it had penetrated the energy shield. Thump! Thump! Thump!

Every time the ladies took a step forward, their feet would sink deeply into the ground. It was incredibly hard for them to walk. They were burning their energy at a rate like never before.

Chierette was panting when she said, "Lord Garrison, I can't take it anymore. I need to rest."

At that moment, Chierette was sweating profusely, and her shirt was almost drenched in sweat.

Judging by how heavily she was breathing, it seemed as though she had pushed her body to the limit.

Chapter 3886 Can Levi Really Do It

After pondering for a while, Levi said, "This should be due to the difference in our cultivation techniques." "What do you mean?" Larissa could not help but ask.

Levi explained, "It's simple. Regardless of what techniques an average cultivator cultivates, they need to absorb a lot of spiritual energy from the earth and air to reach the cultivation level of Heavenly Harmony. They'll instinctively adapt to and even rely on this area, so they'll be more affected by the repressive energy under this land. However, I am a pure physical cultivator. I am a standalone body of energy and can exist as that in any space. Although I didn't notice the energy under the land restraining us, I don't seem to be affected by it."

The two women didn't fully comprehend his words, but they knew it was impossible to understand Levi's cultivation technique.

Nevertheless, they didn't know that Levi still had many words that he didn't say.

The earth ley line I'm stepping on is definitely extraordinary. This energy feels familiar. What kind of energy is it? When did I contact it before?

Levi searched in his mind for related information endlessly, but even after a long time, he reached no definite conclusion.

Chapter 3887 Dangerous Areas

Seeing that the two were reluctant to move forward, Levi could guess what they were thinking of. "You may live a while longer if you stay here, but you will definitely not walk out of here alive.

But if you follow me, perhaps there's hope. Dragon's Grave Valley must have lots of top-grade magical herbs. Risks and profits go together. You should know this," he said with a smile. Cheriette and Larissa both sighed. Naturally, they knew that as well.

Now, the only treasure known to exist in Dragon's Grave Valley was Divine Bones. Still, such a dangerous place transformed by hundreds of years of bombardment by Heavenly Thunder could definitely create even more terrifying magical herbs.

However, even elite fighters couldn't walk out of here alive. The most elite fighters in other regions might be able to leave safely, but the regions they were in also had similar dangerous areas, so they had no need to leave the region they were in and go to the core area further away.

No one knew the actual level of danger in the core area of Dragon's Grave Valley, and usually, people were most fearful of the unknown.

"Let's go!" Cheriette gritted her teeth and followed Levi. Larissa smiled bitterly and followed Levi resignedly as well.

This time, Levi immediately released his energy and cast a shield to separate themselves from the ground.

The instant he finished speaking, another purple lightning struck. "Lord Garrison, be careful!" Chierette yelled anxiously.

Larissa also gasped. If Levi got struck by lightning and died, she would probably die too. The two women gazed at him in shock as he let the purple Heavenly Thunder strike him.

At that moment, there was a burst of purple light. The two dared not look on and closed their eyes instinctively.

A while later, the force of the Heavenly Thunder disappeared, and they opened their eyes. However, the scene they were expecting did not appear.

Levi stood at the same spot like a God of War and even let out a satisfied groan. "H-How is this possible?"

"Not only did he let the Heavenly Thunder strike him, but he was also unharmed?" The two women stared at Levi, their eyes wide and jaws open, unable to believe what they had seen.

As the three continued moving, the rate of Heavenly Thunder falling also increased. Larissa and Cheriette had been panicking, but gradually, they started to only feel nervous. Now, they had gotten used to it and were already numb to it.

But what they were most shocked about was how terrifying Levi's abilities were as they realized he did not dodge any Heavenly Thunder when nearing the core area of Dragon's Grave Valley.

Instead, he let himself be hit by Heavenly Thunder and even released energy whirlpools, sweeping away a bout of lightning aimed at the two girls. It was as if he was enjoying the process of being struck by lightning.

"At first, I thought it was impossible for that horrible creature you mentioned was recorded in the ancient manual to exist. Now, it seems highly likely to exist. Perhaps it's a descendant of ancient spirit beasts mentioned in the Scriptures of Mountains and Seas," Cheriette said.

Larissa smiled a little. She had the same feeling, as even Levi could remain unharmed after being struck by Heavenly Thunder.

The two ladies did not know that the reason Levi let the Heavenly Thunder purposely strike him was that he realized that using Heavenly Thunder was better than using a dragon ley line to metamorphose.

Chapter 3890 The Sea Of Heavenly Thunder

Hearing that the rumbling of the Heavenly Thunder had gotten louder, Larissa and Cherieette shuddered with fear.

Even though Levi had been protecting them earlier, they were too exhausted to deal with the aftermath of the Heavenly Thunder.

Occasionally, they would feel numb from the crackles of electricity running through their bodies. Although it wasn't a harmful side effect, it still left them with lingering dread.

It was fair to assume the Heavenly Thunder in the core area would be more intense and powerful than the ones in the non-core area.

It would be difficult to say whether Levi could even protect himself by then.

Larissa and Cherieette figured they would be burned to a crisp in less than fifteen minutes if they didn't have Levi's energy shield protecting them and be subjected to the full strength of the Heavenly Thunder.

Naturally, they could think from the positive side of things and imagine they could continue to have the protection of an energy shield.

However, the powerful and frequent shock waves from the aftermath of the Heavenly Thunder would most probably deal them life-threatening damage.

Regardless of how they viewed things, it all led to a dead end.
