Chapter 3911 New Balance

Cheriette and Larissa were stunned by the sight of Levi suspended in mid-air like an ancient war god.

Still, their surprise paled in comparison to the admiration they harbored for Levi. "I can't believe Master survived such a high-level Heavenly Thunder attack."

"Lord Garrison's capabilities are too terrifying." "Even the two sect leaders couldn't hold out against a round of bombardment from that huge lightning orb, right?"

"I wonder what's Lord Garrison's cultivation level now." The two women subconsciously muttered. However, when they were about to approach him, lightning flashed and thunder boomed in the sky atop them.

Crack! Immediately afterward, a bulky bolt of Heavenly Thunder split the air and shot downward from the sky toward Cheriette and Larissa.

Colors drained from Larissa's face as she became momentarily stunned and lost the ability to think.

Cheriette hastily dragged Larissa along, intending to avoid the attack. Unfortunately, the binding force of earth ley line below their feet had returned without them realizing it.

The sudden recurrence of the motion-inhibiting force took the ladies by surprise, causing them to stagger and fall to the ground.

Chapter 3912 Go Back To His Roots

Rumble! In an instant, a deep pit was formed on the extremely solid ground. Gravel and stones were sent flying.

The shock waves of Heavenly Thunder spread out in all directions, so Floyd hastily activated an energy shield to protect himself.

Although it did not cause any substantial damage, he was still physiologically affected by it. "That was close!" With lingering fear deep down, Floyd wiped the cold sweat from his forehead.

If he had been struck by Heavenly Thunder earlier, he would have been killed almost immediately at his current cultivation level.

"Why did the Heavenly Thunder suddenly appear again?"

Floyd was puzzled. It had been calm, and his journey had been smooth before that. The weather was good, and the skies were bright and clear.

However, there were suddenly strong winds and thick dark clouds alongside the rumbling Heavenly Thunder. Could it be that there is some kind of problem in Dragon's Grave Valley?

After all, Floyd had previously heard that there was constant Heavenly Thunder in the range of the Dragon's Grave Valley.

He did not encounter any Heavenly Thunder when entering the non-core areas previously. It was probably a chain reaction caused by Levi's intrusion into the core area of Dragon's Grave Valley.

"Not only is the Heavenly Thunder avoiding us, but the binding force of the earth ley line is too. This is awesome."

"This makes our journey so much easier."

Cheriette and Larissa exclaimed excitedly.

They were already at the end of their strength, so if they encountered the previous level of earth ley line's binding force, they might be unable to move an inch.

Now that the force had disappeared, they took the opportunity to cultivate their recovery.

"If I'm not mistaken, the core of the earth ley line's energy should be at the bottom of the center of Arctic Lake. At that time, the giant Heavenly Thunder's lightning orb was formed at that location. The pulsating current rose while carrying the energy of earth ley line. Even now, you can see that Heavenly Thunders are still most concentrated in that location," Levi said in a deep voice.

After staying silent for a while, Levi replied, "It's fine to stay here for a few days as we're not in a hurry to leave Dragon's Grave Valley."

Confused, Larissa questioned, "Do you intend to continue using Heavenly Thunder to metamorphose and elevate your cultivation level, Master?"

Since Larissa had more knowledge and experience than Cheriette, she could feel that even if Heavenly Thunder struck Levi, it would only cause a minimal effect on the latter's advancement in cultivation level.

Hence, it would be pointless to continue to stay there to metamorphose.

"Metamorphosing through Heavenly Thunder only has little influence in increasing my power."

Levi paused briefly before he abruptly changed the subject. "Despite that, this place has Heavenly Thunder and earth ley line, which make it an excellent environment for forging ultimate weapons. Furthermore, there are various magical herbs around here. It's not easy to bring all of them away if we plan to do so. However, if we use them to produce ultimate weapons, we can utilize them to the max and avoid wasting them."

Larissa and Cheriette smiled bitterly at his response. He is trying to maximize the benefits of this trip to Dragon's Grave Valley!

As Levi said, they might need to make a few trips back and forth if they wanted to transport all the magical herbs, which would be a waste of time.

Following Geraint's question, the leaders of other sects focused their attention on the two sect leaders.
Although their goal for being there that day was to take down that insolent fool, it was unnecessary for them to continue waiting there if that person got struck by Heavenly Thunder and died.

After a short moment of silence, Walden asserted, "The terrifying Heavenly Thunder has already dispersed, and other areas are back to normal. It indicates that Super Heavenly Thunder has finished. If those people survive the challenge, they should have come out within the past three days. However, we haven't seen any of them walk out of it until now. Hence, it proves that all of them have lost their lives to Super Heavenly Thunder."

The deputy sect leader chimed in, "You're right, Lord Slabey. What a pity about Larissa, though. She has such an excellent cultivation potential."

The two sect leaders came to a firm decision. Of course, it was indeed what they had in mind.

Gloria had long known what Primo was up to, so she naturally knew what he meant by those words.

As expected, Primo could barely hold back his smile when he heard her answer.

"What more could I ask for when I have a wife like you?" he said with a grin.

Heptino watched them from the side, secretly looking forward to the day Gloria became an Empyrean of Eclipse.

Not only would she be freed from Primo's control by then, but she would also be more justified to treat Heptino nicely as a fellow Empyrean.

After the fighters of Eclipse waited outside for two more days, the two sect leaders finally decided to evacuate in the meantime.

Although Eclipse was a large sect, they were surrounded by strong enemies.

After two days of continuously refining ordinary ultimate weapons, barely anything was left of the huge pile of Subdivine Bones.

With their jaws dropped in astonishment, Cherie and Larissa stared at the dozens of ultimate weapons that were just a bit inferior to the premium ones.

As someone who had seen the world, Larissa had to admit that even the skilled blacksmiths in Eclipse were no match for Levi.

"I feel like no one else in Kenfort can surpass you in terms of forging technique!" she exclaimed.

"Next up is the Arctic Lake," Levi voiced in anticipation.

With so many magical herbs even on the shore of the Arctic Lake, one could only imagine how much top-notch herbs they could find inside the lake.

"Follow me!"

Levi waved at the two ladies.

Larissa had the good fortune of seeing a small piece of Divine Bones, but its quality was nothing compared to the kraken skeleton before her. Some would even say that the two were two worlds apart.

Hence, Larissa was sure that she was looking at Divine Bones, which happened to be of high quality because they came from a kraken that had been through the Super Heavenly Thunder.

The perfectly preserved bones could outshine even the most precious diamond since they contained a terrifying amount of energy, including lightning and earth energy, and the frigidness found only in the Arctic Lake.

Besides the Divine Bones of a kraken, Arctic Lake was also littered with the Divine Bones of other mystical creatures that failed to ride out the Super Heavenly Thunder.

To put it simply, the number of Divine Bones there was unimaginable.

“How many premium ultimate weapons can we forge out of these many quality Divine Bones?”

Chapter 3919 Loads Of Magical Herbs

With Heavenly Thunder striking Arctic Lake, it was only natural that the lake was charged with the energy of Heavenly Thunder.

At the same time, the terrifying power of the earth ley line was also affecting the water in the lake.

On top of that, Arctic Lake itself was frigid. A unique condition was formed when the top of the lake was affected by Heavenly Thunder and its bottom by the earth ley line.

In addition, the years of interaction between Heavenly Thunder and the earth ley line had caused them to reach a sort of energy balance that directly enabled the two energies to co-exist.

"Could this be the Ghost Ember recorded in ancient manuals?" inquired Cheriette through telepathy as she swam over to a ball of blue and purple flame.

Larissa, too, approached the strange flame to confirm. "This is top-tier Ghost Ember. According to ancient manuals, it can only be found in extremely cold places. With its ability to burn anything, Ghost Ember is the first choice for forging."

Under normal circumstances, if they were in a stagnant body of water, there was a good chance its undercurrents would also be calm.

However, if the lake were connected to a bigger space or had a crack in the stream bed, there would undoubtedly be a strong surge of undercurrents.

Upon hearing Levi's words, the two women kept their guard up and continued to dive deeper. Fifteen minutes later, the trio finally reached the bottom of the lake.

Sure enough, Levi discovered a long, narrow crack and even saw flames dancing underneath.

Well, how odd. The water in Arctic Lake is icy cold, yet I can feel intense heat radiating from the crack.
