

Pinnacle 3941

Chapter 3941 What A Shame

Levi's words were nothing but a blatant provocation. Consequently, Gavin's expression grew solemn as he clearly recognized the challenge to his authority.

"How dare you!" Gavin snapped. "It looks like you have to suffer before you learn your lesson!" "Mr. Finnegan, why are you wasting time talking to him? Go ahead and kill him already."

"You b*stard! How dare you disrespect Cordierite Association? Do you think that I won't kill you just because you're a blacksmith?"

"Mr. Finnegan, just give the order. Once we eliminate these insects, the magical herbs and premium ultimate weapons will be ours!"

The members of Cordierite Association—overwhelmed with excitement—didn't see Levi as a threat at all.

It was then that Larissa whispered, "Master, these are the elites of Cordierite Association. We had better not aggravate them."

Playvolume00:00/00:00TruvidfullScreen

"That's right, Lord Garrison. Cordierite Association is way more powerful than Prime Association. They're not someone we can afford to offend."

Cheriette, too, was filled with anxiety, for Levi had already made plenty of enemies.

was Void Sect, followed by Association, too, wouldn't it threaten our lives in Kenfort going forward? After all, regardless of how strong Levi is, he's still they come in peace? Anyway, say no more. I and Larissa didn't dare remonstrate was made, there just was no going

you one

you to give me

and never

me a

his lips began to twitch, Gavin to a pulp but keep him alive. As for the girls, kill them. It will serve as a lesson to him," Gavin

Larissa to stagger back the blood of elite warriors. Even though you're not up to the standard I'm looking for; I'll have to make his hand to summon Dragon's Grave and Thunder Slaughterer. Obeying

you. I alone

the voice rang out than a

Chapter 3942 I Am After Your Lives

Clang! A slicing sound was heard before the Cordierite Association's fighter's sword broke into two.

Whoosh! The next moment, blood spurted in midair, and that fighter's head was separated from his body.

His body collapsed on the ground, stirring up a thick cloud of dust. The dust particles that were dancing about in the air seemed to be mocking the man for not knowing his place.

Gasp! The crowd gasped in shock when they saw that happening. Even though that elder wasn't the strongest fighter on his team, he was definitely not weak.

How is it possible for him to be killed that quickly? "Everyone, please don't panic. Elder Ragsdill was just too careless. His ultimate weapon and recklessness had put him at a disadvantage."

"That's right. That guy had only won because of his premium ultimate weapon."

"To make things easier, let's attack together! We don't want any unnecessary complications."

The fighters from Cordierite Association recovered from their shock quickly and attributed Levi's win to his premium ultimate weapon.

Gavin said in a deep voice, "Let's kill him if we can't capture him alive. Most importantly, stay safe."

Everyone was stunned when they heard that. After all, the man's forging technique was unparalleled. It would not be too exaggerated to compare him to Weapon God.

"Charge!" Gavin ordered.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Association drew out their swords simultaneously and charged toward Levi from to die, you glorious death to be killed by all feel honored that we are combining forces to kill

at that moment, Levi was no different man was still standing rooted to the spot, showing no signs of fear as his opponents closed in this all you got? Well, hand and waved the weapon in the air. A surge same time, the man drew out the domineering

Clang! Clang! Clang!

air as Thunder Slaughterer sliced the elites' blades into due to the heat and terrifying energy that was released

Creak!

sound of metal

out that the weapons belonging to the Cordierite Association's fighters were not able to withstand the Thunder

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

shot into the air as anguished cries rang elites collapsed and died wherever the

of them

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Chapter 3943 Wiped Out

Instantly, the surviving fighters of Cordierite Association lost their will to fight, and their hearts sank.

powers were beyond what they had ever seen, and they knew that there was no point in them carrying on the fight as they were completely not the man's match.

Refusing to accept reality, Gavin said, "Sir, please calm down. Let's talk things through peacefully. No matter what conditions you have, I will try my best to fulfill them."

The other elites of Cordierite Association looked toward Levi with a glimpse of hope in their eyes.

That was their only chance to live.

"If we switched positions, would you let me live?" Levi questioned back.

Gavin found himself at a loss for words. Deep down inside his heart, he knew that he would not do that.
He understood very well that the root of a problem had to be tackled to prevent the same problem from resurging.

"Mr. Finnegan, we might still stand a chance to survive if we give it our all."

"If we are going to die anyway, we might as well put up a good last fight."

"You guys hold him back. I'll go take those two women as hostages," Gavin said telepathically to the others, who were encouraged at once.

confident that

"Let's attack!"

the other elites of Cordierite Association launched themselves

Gavin charged toward it seemed like a foolproof plan. Gavin was feeling positive that “What a puny trick!”
derisive snort before drawing out and lightning flashed continuously across in his body as he was held back by the pressure caused their combined attack was blocked by and were sucked into the whirlwind, instantly turning into two clouds degrees of injuries. casual attack had once again thrown in disbelief as he wiped the blood off five of should escape in five different directions!” Gavin instructed rest of the fighters activated their spiritual late to think of said that, a surge of sword energy shot out from Dragon’s Grave before of Cordierite Association who were running away were all might have been able to defend

Chapter 3944 He Is Here

In the face of crushing attacks, the opponents were helpless and unable to fight back. “Retreat!”
As Levi issued the command, Dragon’s Grave and Thunder Slaughterer flew back into his palms. “Not bad! Not bad at all!” Levi was delighted at the combat prowess of both the ultimate weapons.
In the earlier fight, Levi did not harness too much power while battling the elite fighters of Cordierite Association. Instead, he primarily relied on his ultimate weapons when he made his moves.
This would explain why the Kenfort sects are pursuing premium ultimate weapons. These weapons are able to enhance combat prowess when one’s own cultivation is lacking. Even as I’m fighting against others, I can conserve energy thanks to these weapons.
Levi deduced that if he had to take on so many fighters of Cordierite Association at once, he would have needed to spend twice the amount of energy, even if that was no big deal to him.
“You two! Stop daydreaming and check out the loot these guys have brought with them,” said Levi as he waved a hand at the two women.

Cheriette and Larissa could feel their bodies stir as if they'd been jolted out of a dreamlike state. powerful combat prowess had once again refreshed their memories.

After all, he had just taken on a group of seventeen people whose power could easily rival that of the sect leader of Eclipse.

they had perished in such a short amount of top of that, Levi had not even exerted that much gulped as they shared wide-eyed

see the awe

of them boarded the cloudship, they saw many walked around and pointed out each weapon he saw in the armory. "Solar Shield, Flaming Crossbow, Cloud Spear... This equipment is decent enough to be on par with ultimate weapons. Look, there are also a number of pills. It seems like they spent a lot of resources combing through took note of all the loot on board. In the past, she would have definitely considered these seeing forging technique and ultimate weapons made all

"Someone is approaching!"

brow. Immediately, Cheriette and Larissa were on high alert. They the southeast, and they saw a burly figure approaching them. He Rumble!

to fall, creating potholes

figure approached the cloudship that realized that

What's he doing here?

Chapter 3945 On Your Own

Floyd spared a cursory glance at the corpses that littered the surrounding area before noting that Levi was indeed fine. Immediately, Floyd's heart was filled with excitement and confusion.

It was difficult for Floyd to accept the news of death as proclaimed by the Eclipse sect leader.

However, as he saw the ominous clouds of Heavenly Thunder gathering at the core of the Dragon's Grave Valley, Floyd sensed that Levi was in danger.

Floyd was insistent on breaching the core area to find out the truth for himself, despite not expecting Levi to survive. "Come now. Were you hoping something would happen to me?" asked Levi in jest.

Levi had guessed why Floyd was here. He also deduced that Floyd showed up to see things for himself.

In fact, this was one of the sole reasons why Levi chose not to kill Floyd, even after what the latter had done was revealed.

loyalty toward his master ran deep. All of the treacherous things that happened were the result of Gloria's orchestrations. "O-Of course not!" stammered Floyd in denial. kindness toward Floyd made feelings of regret pool in his heart. The latter felt that he was unable to

Floyd quickly approached Levi. When avoiding the area

many corpses that lay haphazardly on the ground. Levi briefly recounted spoke, Floyd became even more shocked. He had not expected Levi to wrestle control of Heavenly Thunder of magical herbs littered Arctic Lake, where many premium ultimate weapons

vision from before was triggered by the premium

Kenfort, Floyd was more aware of the cruelty that happened here and why absolute power was

Floyd was genuinely concerned about the former's safety, but now of Cordierite Association, how could ordinary people stand few in Kenfort who would pose a threat to Levi. This made Floyd quite happy do you plan to do next, Floyd?" asked Levi in a resigned attitude toward Floyd,

Chapter 3946 Boots Of Hermes

Floyd fell silent after hearing that, knowing that Levi spoke the truth. Heavenly Thunder seemed to strike more frequently in the core area. Any injuries sustained there were going to be lethal.

Using the cloudship as a form of protection, Floyd was previously able to enter the core area without any problems. With Floyd's cultivation level, he would have been blasted to smithereens ages ago.

"How about this? This cloudship bears a number of anti-thunder divine tools. Take some from the armory. It should aid you on your journey. You may also keep some of the magical herbs. If you constantly devour power, you will end up at the bottom of the pit."

Levi paused before continuing, "The magical herbs are also purer in consistency. You'll see less resistance from the body if you consume them."

As such, Floyd did not refuse kindness this time. "Well, Master, I'll be off now."

Floyd turned around to leave immediately after. As soon as he set foot outside of radius, he was swiftly bombarded by Heavenly Thunder.

He hastily used the anti-thunder divine tool to mitigate the constant strikes. Very soon, Floyd disappeared from Levi's line of sight.

Whoosh!

At lightning speed, Floyd moved to dodge the strikes of thunder. The destructive pressure and ringing in his ears from each strike sent chills down his spine.

not until he left the core area that the frequency of Heavenly

Heavenly Thunder in

then tossed aside the divine tools and herbs that Levi rely on my own strength to take revenge. However, I appreciate this, he was determined to use the cloudship to was up to one's skills to survive being pelted by Heavenly Thunder in the non-core area. If one was struck,

Rumble!

Heavenly Thunder filled the air. It was obvious that the

"I can't stay here!"

Floyd made a mad dash toward the outer core of Dragon's Grave

no surprise to Levi to see all, Floyd had always been

Gloria incident, Floyd had become even more paranoid. There be," murmured

trying to understand first laid eyes on it. This was a good opportunity for him to take

Chapter 3947 Cordierite Association Woes

At Cordierite Association, Albert and the other council members were waiting anxiously for news. Gavin had brought a garrison to Dragon's Grave Valley three days ago. If there were no complications, he should have returned by now.

Even if a hiccup had occurred, they should have heard from Gavin. After all, Gavin had a communication device on him.

As such, Albert took the initiative to ask for feedback on the situation. However, the receiver remained silent. Till now, nobody had heard back from Gavin.

The air in the conference hall was tense. With a grave expression, Albert looked at the other council members seated around him. "What do you all think?"

Many of the council members did not seem disheartened. In fact, they rattled out some relevant deductions.

"You needn't be too worried, Mr. Fitzgerald. Dragon's Grave Valley may be a remote place, but it's still a hidden realm. It's likely that Mr. Finnegan has not been able to reach us."

"He speaks sense. Given how the area is plagued by Heavenly Thunder, maybe it has caused an unstable magnetic field that jams their communication devices."

"Who knows? Mr. Finnegan may very well return tomorrow!" Albert nodded, but the responses did nothing to assuage his anxiety.

wait for news, then!" Since everyone felt this way, Albert thought that he could not let himself be seen like this. He was passed. Gavin had yet to send any word back. This made the council members anxious, in spite of their to be bad things afoot. Nobody could deny the wisdom in seventeen fighters, all of whom are top can escape unscathed. Logically speaking, they should Association, but even if the Lightspring branch sends out their

Even though they were anxious, they found it hard to believe that anything could pose a threat to a team led by Gavin mean that the threat originated from Dragon's heads. They were the council members of Cordierite Association, after all. Why would they pay the biggest threat in the valley is Heavenly Thunder, but Mr.

Thunder Cloudship has a strong anti-thunder shield. I don't think Heavenly Thunder will pose a threat to Finnegan has also stocked up on thunder-proof

don't we send in a signaling for everyone to Finnegan by tomorrow, I'll personally lead a team to investigate," declared Albert loudly. He had made the final

Chapter 3948 Stalling For Time

Larissa could clearly sense that the sender of the message was getting more and more anxious. "Who's Albert?" asked Cheriette with curiosity.

Most of Cheriette's time was spent cultivating within the sect. Any news of the outside world was given to her by the elders of the sect.

Thus, Cheriette knew about Cordierite Association but knew nothing of its leader.

"As far as I know, Albert Fitzgerald is the Chairman of Cordierite Association," replied Larissa gravely.

"The Willowbank branch is ranked second in the whole organization. This means that Albert Fitzgerald has immense power. A mere fart from this man is able to affect the decision-making process and turn things around.”

Cheriette turned pale with shock. Albert Fitzgerald is not someone to be trifled with!

big problem. As things stood, there was going to be no room for negotiations. “Lord Garrison, how “Tell them that everyone’s dead,” said Levi indifferently. “So was true that Levi had the skills to combat them, Cordierite match for them, especially when it came to sheer strength. In the early stages of its development, they had the expansion of Cordierite Association, they then turned in the early stages that many of the most vicious and snowballing. They have thus become a very important

Its garrison ranked among the best within the major branches of so far only managed to kill off a third of response from Levi was therefore cannot be disturbed. Why don’t I try stalling them first? When you’re done forging what you need, we can tell them the truth. What briefly fell silent before finally approving Larissa’s

for your approval,

Chapter 3949 Major Discovery Of Heptino

In the forest at the outermost area of Dragon’s Grave Valley, a couple of figures were whizzing across the air at lightning speed.

They turned out to be Gloria and Heptino. In the end, both of them came to a halt before the hills.

“Gloria, this place is where the latest dragon ley line is discovered. I’ll keep an eye out for trouble outside so that you can devour the energy of the dragon ley line without any worries,” said Heptino, seemingly fishing for compliments.

After listening to his words, Gloria put on a sympathetic visage. “Thanks for all that you do to help bring my cultivation to a higher level, Heptino.”

“Why would you say that, Gloria? I’ll always do your bidding without any hesitation, even if it means going through hell and high water.” What Heptino had said was from the depths of his heart.

silly boy! You know I couldn’t bear to see you putting yourself of unprecedented kindness and love for him, which only served to

“Hmm?”

blue, Gloria sensed an overwhelming surge of aura coming from the source, only to find that the core area of Dragon’s Grave Valley was once Heavenly Thunder rumbling and electric deafening clap of thunder reverberated through the air. It was like the sky rainbow rays knew it. My hunch was right all along,” murmured equally shocked by the miraculous phenomenon before her eyes. Simultaneously, she also caught on to the hidden meaning couldn’t help but ask, “What do you mean, slightest intention to hide it from her. “Actually, Gloria, the last time I was here, I somehow sensed spiritual ley line, always been the ultimate spiritual ley line. She couldn’t

Crack!

Even so, the energy discharged by Heavenly Thunder at the core area of Dragon’s Grave Valley is way too lethal. Even robbers who were equipped with great cultivation had lost their lives there. There’s no way I can ever get close to

Chapter 3950 Come At Me All At Once

It took Gloria about half a month to finish absorbing the dragon ley line. As she gained a boost in her cultivation, it bolstered her confidence in triumphing over the impending battle for the title of Empyrean.

Time passed, and in the blink of an eye, Eclipse’s Empyrean selection trial had commenced. During the qualifying rounds, there were thirty outstanding females from various sects who had managed to stand out.

Standing on the stage was one of the elders of Eclipse. He was announcing the rules of the competition.

“Now, the competition is about to begin. Contestants will compete in a single elimination bracket, and matchups will be determined by drawing lots. Winners will advance to the next round. At the end of the competition, the last woman standing will be crowned our brand-new Empyrean. While sparring, contestants are reminded to observe proprieties and are strictly prohibited from endangering the life of their opponents. Contestants who fail to comply with the said rules will be disqualified from the competition. The number tags can be found in the wooden box below the arena. You may start drawing lots.”

Following the end of the announcement, all thirty candidates began to draw lots. Gloria, for one, was so calm and collected. That would make sense, for she had just devoured a dragon ley line, hence further increasing her power. Naturally, she would think nothing of her competitors.

“To the contestants with tag number one, kindly proceed to the area and begin preparation.” Thus began the first round of the Empyrean selection trial.

As the candidates ascended the arena one after another, every one of them put their ultimate techniques into practice. The battles were intense.

for the first round was out. As expected, Gloria was able to secure a victory without even breaking a sweat. To top that off, before they could move on to the second round, the second lot won without exerting much stamina. It’s unfair to people like us who too much of a part in that that it becomes no

even got themselves a bye for the next match.

one, the candidates lodged a protest. Almost all to compete in the second round, so there had to be one contestant who would earn a bye into the third round. As chance would have it, Gloria was the lucky one to be

she also had an easy win in the first round, the others felt a smile. “Gloria, would you like to throw in your two cents on before giving her response. “Elder, what they said

What do you plan to was quite surprised, for he thought that Gloria would use the rules as an excuse to demand the continuance of the competition. After all, only contestants were just as taken aback by the turn of events as well. They were merely attempting to appeal for a longer break time so that they could recuperate better and unleash their most were afraid of being the nail that stuck out and leaving a bad impression on the council that, they directed their hostility toward Gloria unanimously. From their perspective, not only was

of Empyrean,

unfair, I don’t mind introducing a handicap on myself.