Chapter 3951 Emptyrean Selection

The elder of Eclipse promptly replied, "Of course. I don't think they'll have any objections to that." "I don't have any objections."

"Me too." "I hope this insolent woman doesn't regret later." All female Paladins there were the best from their own sects. Thus, it was only natural that they were prideful.

There was no way they could keep quiet when Gloria was looking down on them. "Since both parties agreed, let the match begin!" the elder announced the resumption of the selection.

Gloria leaped onto the stage and gestured at the contestants provokingly. "We must work together and give it our all to defeat her."

"That's right. If we hold back and fail, our reputation will be destroyed." "We must not allow Gloria to put up a haughty act despite having an advantage."

The female Paladins swiftly reached the same conclusion, which was to put aside their personal motives and defeat Gloria with all they got.

The female Paladins were instantly enraged because they were all star-studded figures in their respective sects. They had never been so humiliated before. "Take her down!" one of them yelled before the rest unleashed their techniques again.

If their combined attack earlier was meant to probe their enemy's strength, then what they were doing at that moment was launching a full-frontal assault to defeat their opponent.

In spite of the chief elder of Eclipse's statement that killing was forbidden, the female Paladins couldn't care less anymore.

Even if they couldn't kill Gloria, they wanted to cripple her at least. Their latest combined attack was multiple times stronger than the previous one.

Levi, who was still inside the core area of Dragon's Grave Valley, was focusing on forging the ultimate weapons and Boots of Hermes. Based on his progress, he was about halfway done.

In fact, he had created so much of that stuff that they were piling up into a mound. When Cheriette and Larissa saw that, they couldn't hide their excitement and glee.

They could almost imagine the mighty army that would be born once people were equipped with Levi's creations. Both of them thought in unison, Becoming his follower is indeed the best choice!

Just as they were imagining their fantastic future, a spot on the flat ground in the distance suddenly bumped up. That bumpy spot grew bigger as it changed direction, as though it was a small, rapidly moving hill.

“The energy shield won’t hold for long!” The women’s fear had reached its peak. Their instincts were telling them to escape, but they were so afraid that they were rooted to the ground. The flame attack soon destroyed two-thirds of the energy shield while maintaining the same speed.

“If this goes on, we’ll be turned into cinders!” The women once again turned to Levi, but they quickly realized he was still completely focused on forging more of his creations, as though he didn’t hear their cries for help.

“It seems like we’ll have to rescue ourselves. We’ll use the ultimate weapons to retaliate. Hopefully, that’ll work,” Larissa suggested.

Compared to Cheriette, Larissa had a stronger mental fortitude. Thus, she was the first to recover from her fear.

Cheriette nodded in agreement. Even though she could feel her hands violently shaking, she still tried to compose herself.

They soon came up with a strategy and unleashed their techniques.

Chapter 3955 The Strength Of Spirit Beast

Following the beast's thundering howl, Levi was directly consumed by the fire. The flame was so hot that the smell of something getting burned was swiftly spread in the air.

"Is this all you got?" When Levi spoke, the flame dissipated. "Awoo?" The spirit beast's voice rose slightly in a confused tone. A puzzled look even flashed past its eyes.

It would appear that the creature didn't understand how Levi survived its flame, which was hot enough to burn star metal. Levi suggested, "Since the fire's not working, how about giving the electric attack a try?"

A glint flashed across the spirit beast's eyes as it raised its right hoof to pat its head. Why didn't I think of that?

Soon, the regret in its eyes transformed into anger. Obviously, being reminded by its enemy to use another attack damaged its pride. It was a provocation the creature wouldn't forgive.

Following three of its deafening roars, the spirit beast's brawny body shook slightly before it vastly increased the amount of electricity on its scales.

Bright bolts of electricity jumped on the scales continuously, as if the spirit beast was a substation operating at rapid speed. Arcs of electricity were overflowing on its back, looking as though they could explode in an instant.

"Lord Garrison lost?" "Master is frozen into an ice statue." The women felt as though their hearts had sunk into the abyss. They couldn't believe Levi, who had never lost a battle, would be defeated. But, if the spirit beast does bathe inside Sea of Heavenly Thunder for years, then it makes sense why it's so terrifyingly powerful. After all, even the energy shield Levi gave us couldn't withstand the Qilin's fire breath attack.

"Awoo!" The spirit beast leaped delightfully in circles and with closed eyes after it saw Levi was sealed inside the ice. At that moment, the creature appeared as if it was a child who was very excited after obtaining its favorite toy.

Then it pridefully trotted around Levi's body a few times. It even used its tail to caress the "ice statue," as though it was an artist admiring its own work.

"Awoo! Awoo! Awoo!" Rhythmically, the spirit beast howled as though it was smugly saying, "Now you see who's more powerful! It's your own fault that you lost!"

Just as it was prepared to circle Levi one more time, it realized the "ice statue" was rapidly cracking apart.

"Why are you crying? You're only getting beaten up." Levi knocked on the spirit beast's head. The spirit beast swiftly halted its cry before staring aggrievedly and obediently at him.

"That's more like it. There's a saying among us humans that men don't cry easily. You're a male, so why are you crying that easily?" he lectured.

The spirit beast sincerely listened to his teachings with full attention as it was afraid of enraging Levi and getting beaten up by him again.

The beatings the human gave it earlier truly frightened it. In fact, it was pretty certain Levi wasn't even using his full power when he was taming it earlier. If this guy had used his strength earlier, I would've been dead! Levi continued, "Do you submit?"

The spirit beast nodded. "From now on, you'll be my subordinate, got it?"

In response, the spirit beast contemplated its decision for a few moments. However, when it sensed the look in Levi's eyes turning frigid, it quickly nodded.

After settling Thunder Qilin down, Levi resumed forging the ultimate weapons and Boots of Hermes. Of course, he also had an additional task of creating a quality battle suit for Thunder Qilin.

As more premium ultimate weapons were forged, the more intense the phenomena in Dragon's Grave Valley became.

Prime Association's informants who were stationed outside of Dragon's Grave Valley also noticed the oddity within the area. However, they didn't go into the valley to investigate because they were afraid of Heavenly Thunder.

Soon after, fighters of Prime Association learned from bounty hunters that Cordierite Association's cloudship had entered Dragon's Grave Valley.

Prime Association spies promptly returned to Lightspring with the news. Sylvan was currently sitting in the middle of Prime Association's conference hall.

"What do you all think?" he asked after announcing the news that the spies had brought him. "This means it was the Cordierite Association's cloudship that disappeared in Dragon's Grave Valley. It would explain why none of the spies discovered it."

"Additionally, the core area of Dragon's Grave Valley had frequent odd phenomena. Clearly, there are incredible magical herbs in that location."

"That's right. It's the only possible reason why Cordierite Association was interested in that place. Otherwise, it wouldn't make sense for them to approach our territory. "

As time passed, the high-rank officials in Cordierite Association were also looking forward to good news. They were waiting in anticipation for their elders to return with their hands full.

However, many days passed, and their elders still hadn't returned. That made them quite nervous. Even Albert was getting an ominous premonition regarding that. Fortunately, he was still receiving daily updates from his communication device, which eased his worry a little.

Meanwhile, Gloria had secured a solid spot in Eclipse in a month's time. After she handily won the Emyrean selection, she was highly valued by high-rank officials of Eclipse.

Furthermore, her diplomatic finesse and ability to establish sturdy connections gained her favors from Walden. Because of that, Gloria obtained many cultivation resources from Eclipse.

In order to turn her into his trusted aide, Walden even granted her a small-sized dragon ley line so she could devour it to increase her strength.

Many elites from Eclipse also taught her various techniques. She was clearly treated as the future heiress of the sect and was nurtured as such, which allowed her influence to expand rapidly.

Chapter 3960 Bearer Of Ill Luck

The reason Gloria was able to uncover solid leads on the robber that quickly was because of the immense expansion of her influence back then.

The primary faction helping her was Fatalis Warriors, led by Xylas and Wade. They successfully traced the robber's track back to Prime Association in Lightspring, which was the last location the robber was spotted.

While high-rank officials in Prime Association kept a tight lip on and the others' identities, no information in the world was absolutely secure.

Furthermore, there were plenty of fighters from other sects who witnessed the battle that nearly broke out between Levi and Prime Association's fighters back then.

It wasn't difficult to get insider information from those fighters, especially when benefits were involved.

Therefore, Xylas was able to identify Cheriette as one of the robber's accomplices in a short amount of time.
