Chapter 3981 The Mysterious Sect Leader

Divine aura resembled nature itself in the city. Many cultivators were training and dancing in the air with their spirit beasts. The entire scene was like a painting that mirrored paradise.

The buildings in the ancient city, towering in height, were all shrouded in clouds because the city was already elevated thousands of meters above the surface. Underneath the illumination of the sun, they shone with a holy glow. Roar!

In the background, one could hear the cries of the flying spirit beasts, which sounded like a melody played by mother nature itself. It was so soothing that it could calm the frustrations of any cultivator.

The dragon and phoenix-shaped cloudships traversed in and out of the city, and many disciples from different sects were busy transporting high-grade magical herbs.

Once in a while, a miraculous phenomenon could be seen within the buildings, triggering a surge in the river waters that formed the perfect complementing response.

Every time such a phenomenon occurred, it was indicative of someone successfully forging a premium ultimate weapon, creating a ground-breaking elixir, or achieving great success in their cultivation training.

Roy was shocked, as its use was reserved only for emergencies. Prior to his departure, he had given Primo, Heptino, and Geraint one each.

He had made it clear that the devices were to only be used when the sect was facing an existential threat. “Did something untoward happen to Void Sect?”

Upon retrieving it, Roy was infuriated to see the message it contained: The sect has been destroyed, Lord Long. Please return immediately.

He was on the verge of losing his mind. Even though he had no idea as to what had happened, he knew Heptino wouldn’t joke on a topic like that.

Given Heptino’s serious demeanor, Roy was cognizant that reality was likely worse than he had imagined. “Damn it! Just when I’m so close to obtaining a premium ultimate weapon, the sect I have founded has been destroyed. This pisses me off!”

Despite his urge to grow wings and fly back to check, the ultimate weapon still needed one more month to be completed.

Levi was sitting in the middle of the conference hall of Astre Lune Sect, accompanied by the council members of the sect, who were all in high spirits.

The terrifying power displayed by Levi before had shocked everyone there to their cores. Everyone believed that, as long as they continued to follow Levi, they would no doubt be able to ascend to great heights.

That belief of theirs was further solidified when, a few days ago, members of the bounty hunter organization had ferried many ultimate weapons and magical herbs back to Astre Lune Sect. The operation was carried out under Cherie and Thunder Qilin’s watch.

What excited the council members even more so was the ten most powerful ultimate weapons and other ultimate weapons of exceedingly rare quality.

With the ultimate weapons in their arsenal, Astre Lune Sect could unleash ten times their previous combat prowess at the most conservative estimation.

Meanwhile, in the headquarters of Eclipse, ever since the members learned about the return of the robber, the council members, with Walden as their leader, had been preparing their defense against the robber's attack.

The Sect Protection Formation was on standby twenty-four hours every day, and many of the sect's mighty fighters had been summoned back.

The sect had also set up a mind-boggling amount of normal defensive formation all over the headquarters. Essentially, the entirety of Eclipse was armed to the teeth, ready to deal with any unexpected situation.

That day, the apprentices of Eclipse were reinforcing their sect's defense as usual under the blue, cloudless sky.

Out of nowhere, the Sect Protection Formation shook intensely. It was warning the people that a frightening attack was incoming.

"It's an enemy attack! Everyone, prepare for battle! Activate all defense formations! All disciples, enter your formation to defend against the enemy's assault! Everyone, don't panic! Chapter 3985 Investigation By The Cordierite Association

A group of people in long robes belonging to the Cordierite Association were marching toward the Prime Association branch in Lightspring.

Those people were a group of elites sent by the Cordierite Association, and they were given the responsibility of investigating the murder case in Dragon's Grave Valley.

While the true ruler of the land was the Prime Association, the Cordierite Association had its own information channel.

The investigation team soon found a suspicious lead, which was that the robber had visited Lightspring before heading to Dragon's Grave Valley.

Upon following the clues, the team noticed a connection between the robber and the Prime Association.

Sylvan wasn't surprised by the investigation team's visit. He knew well that the Cordierite Association had the ability.

Slowly, Sylvan rose to his feet and spat coldly, "The Prime Association will be protecting this man. How dare you act so insolent here! Do you all wish to die that desperately?"

The moment he said that, the fighters of the Prime Association exuded murderous intent. The elder in a black robe glared at Sylvan. "Is that your personal stance or the Prime Association's, Sylvan?"

Sylvan met his eyes and answered, "The Prime Association will protect this man. I suggest you leave our premises before I change my mind. Otherwise, don't blame me for what happens next."

"Very well! I hope you don't regret the decision you made today." The elder made to leave, but when he arrived at the entrance, he turned around abruptly. "The headquarters of the Cordierite Association has ordered us to kill anyone who gets in our way."

While many thoughts crossed Gloria's mind, she was absolutely sure about one thing: to remove all the adverse consequences of her actions.

If people found out she had framed the robber for the attack on Void Sect, the sect leader and the powerful sect backing him up would kill her first.

"Many elites from the Cordierite Association are currently searching for the robber's whereabouts, Gloria. Why don't we use this situation to our advantage?" Heptino proposed abruptly.

Gloria nodded. "It seems that we're of the same mind. In that case, I shall depart for Lightspring immediately. If anything happens here, tell me about it as soon as possible."

"Don't worry, Gloria! With me around, Void Sect will be fine. However, you must be careful on your journey!" Heptino said worriedly.

Waving her hand, Gloria assured, "Not to worry, Heptino. I may not be the strongest fighter in existence, but I'm still capable of protecting myself."

After bidding Heptino goodbye, Gloria rushed toward Lightspring without stopping.

When the news reached Willowbank, Albert was enraged. He immediately sent numerous fighters to kill the robber and eliminate Astre Lune Sect.

The many factions in Willowbank started taking action, too, especially the affiliated sects of the Cordierite Association.

They, too, had learned of the premium ultimate weapons in the robber's possession, and that they could obtain them if they killed him.

Also, should they succeed, they would receive the rewards the Cordierite Association was offering. They would be killing two birds with one stone.

An army of hundreds of top-tier fighters was sent out, with Blithe Lord, Sea of Stars Guild, and Arcadia as the leaders.

Arcadia had many complicated techniques as well as a bunch of stuff related to cultivation, such as cultivation tools and pills. Everything related to cultivation, they got it.

Chapter 3989 Retreat

Sylvan was still feeling worried after he told Levi the news that the Prime Association had intercepted. Although he had only interacted with Levi a couple of times, he had a strong feeling Levi was the type of person who would rarely, if ever, change his mind.

In fact, he was confident that Levi would further insist on facing the opposition head-on the more people told him to avoid the incoming danger or powerful enemies.

Without hesitation, Sylvan led the top-tier experts of the Prime Association Lightspring branch toward Astre Lune Sect in cloudships.

When they arrived at Astre Lune Sect, they saw Levi casually drinking coffee while crossing his legs. He didn't look concerned about the upcoming battle at all.

“Why are you so calm right now, Mr. Garrison? The Cordierite Association army is on its way here. They’ll probably arrive today! Pardon my words, but you’ll die if you’re not prepared! Why aren’t you doing anything?” Sylvan panicked.

“You worry too much, Mr. Webber. There’s nothing the Cordierite Association can do even if I continue to stay here.” Levi grinned. I won’t leave Astre Lune Sect this easily. This is my best opportunity to bewilder the various factions in Kenfort after all! When I succeed, no one will dare to touch Astre Lune Sect again, and it’ll also speed up my process of gaining a foothold here. ”Besides, this is an outstanding opportunity to test out the many ultimate weapons I’ve forged. I’m not going to be intimidated by these small fries. They’re no different from trash.”

“Well...” Sylvan was suddenly at a loss. I have no idea how to persuade him. Honestly, I think he’s acting way too arrogant.

The other council members of the Prime Association also shook their heads, as they were of the same opinion as Sylvan.

Levi may be strong, but there’s no way he can win against the united forces the Cordierite Association has assembled.

Levi’s really not going to give up until it’s too late, huh?

When the Cordierite Association army arrives, he’ll regret his decision.

Playvolume00:00/00:00TruvidfullScreen

Levi is overestimating himself. The team of fighters who entered Dragon’s Grave Valley back then is only a hundredth of the total force marching toward us right now.
