Chapter 551: Twin sister flowers

They were sent back to their rooms separately, and Qin Yu came to his room.

"Who is it?" A timid woman's voice came from the room, and two heads poked out from the living room.

Looking at two identical faces, under a better figure, there are big long legs exposed to the air.

Qin Yu smiled slightly: "It's me."

Hearing the familiar voice, the eyes of the two brightened, and their expressions became a little more shy.

Zhang Jingyu, Zhang Jingxun, one of the twin sisters with the hottest notes.

The reason why the two of them appeared here is naturally to come to the top of the list.

If you can be seen by Brother Yu, you must be clean and self-conscious.

The elder sister Zhang Jingyu has a figure of 92 ↑, a face value of 95-, and a freshness of 89-.

The younger sister Zhang Jingxun has a figure of 93 ↑, a face value of 95 ↑ and a freshness of 93.

At the beginning of the gift reading, I added a letter and WeChat account, and the two of them were just ordinary fans.

But later found out that this is really not an ordinary fan.

The two had been very principled before, and they would never fry fans. This is the bottom line they set.

But then... the eldest brother gave too much.

One million, one million brushes, who can stand it?

The two sisters together, if this eldest brother let go, he would have to regret it for a lifetime.

No, I posted a short video about going to travel, and I will be airborne!

Although I was up and down in my heart, I was ready in my heart.

Just a wronged sister, she is still a rookie and has never been in the sea.

However, this big brother looks so handsome!

He is several times more handsome than the members of the popular Xiaosheng and Smecta top men's team.

Such a handsome guy has a lot of money and billions.

Zhang Jingyu, who had just felt sorry for her sister, was a little envious.

The most fond memory is that with such a handsome guy, she would be jealous.

"Are you tired on the road?" Qin Yu stepped onto the sofa like an uncle, kicking off his shoes.

Zhang Jingyu quickly put away the shoes, "Not tired, we have already slept."

Zhang Jingxun opened the slippers and squatted in front of Qin Yu.

The man was about to move back, his neck was hooked with his hand: "Look down, I will ask you to eat candy..."

...

...

Keng Keng, Keng Keng!

Brother Yu, who had just taken a shower, raised his head and looked at his watch. The hour hand was pointing to 22 o'clock. Who will be here now?

Opened the door and took a look, "Brother, why did you get up?"

Li Xiao shook his neck and said as he walked in, "I'm hungry, I'm ready to make a string, and I won't see you either."

Qin Yu had forgotten everything, but only when he heard him mention it: "Forget it, wait for me to change my clothes."

He closed the door and went to the living room. Li Xiao was standing on the side, looking at the clothes all over the floor: "What's the situation?"

"Two friends are here, resting inside!" Qin Yu grabbed his clothes and pointed to the suite, then smiled and opened the door and walked in.

From the corner of Li Xiao's eyes, he saw four white tender feet at the end of the bed.

I'm gonna!

When Qin Yu came out again, Li Xiao had closed himself up.

Because he just saw the work card on the coffee table, the note net celebrity, and two identical photos.

This is outrageous. Everyone came together and moved in together.

Why is your room connected to the portal?

With a scream, the twin sisters arrived by express delivery, please sign for it?

D!

At this moment, Li Xiao feels empathy for the blows Xu Hao has endured in the past. The twin sisters...

Too much bullying of the 'hitting' people.

"You don't want to get involved." Brother Yu raised a sentence and left the room with him.

"No, Brother Yu." The more Li Xiao thought about it, the more he envied him when he went out. He had to ask for advice: "Across the screen, how do you tell?"

It's not that Li Xiao has never had an appointment, but most of the people who came are technological monsters.

That delicate little face, in reality, looks like the surface of the moon, and it can scare people to death.

Either all kinds of special effects are full, and the individual is directly changed...

Li Xiao was full of hope again and again, and witnessed 'death' time and time again, or he didn't see him in online dating again.

That is the heart is dead, and the idea is completely gone!

"I don't have any skills, I rely on my own choice, and experience." Qin Yu pointed to his eyes and said.

The key words Li Xiao heard: experience!

This is the point, and it's the one to be tested...

On the way, Brother Yu taught him a wave of experience.

If you don't show your face, you will be treated as a demon.

If you see in the video, the score is lowered by 3 points, which is probably the reality.

Of course, when the special effects are really full, it is directly replaced...

No matter how you guard against it, it's useless, you can only gamble on luck.

"You were at Taxx last time, didn't you go chasing a girl?" Seeing Li Xiao nodded, Qin Yu then asked, "What happened?"

"Just contact, don't worry." Seeing the happy smile on the corner of his mouth, Qin Yu knew that there was another old dachshund.

After a while, everyone in Li Xiao's room arrived.

Besides Li Xiaoxiao, there is another new arrival, Cao Rui!

"I'm going to eat skewers. There is one near here, two streets away." Cao Rui, who claimed to be Hudutong, said that he would give it to him.

After walking two streets towards the southwest, there was a barbecue restaurant in front of everyone.

The shop was still crowded and there seemed to be no space.

Cao Rui started walking in, and found the manager directly. The two said a few words and found the position.

There is a private room facing the street upstairs, which happens to have a view of the river, the best location.

"This shop was opened by my relatives far away, and I always have the habit of leaving packages for distinguished guests. No, it just happened to be in time for Brother Yu."

When everyone was seated, Qin Yu said calmly: "Everyone is my own, don't be surprised."

Cao Rui smiled and said with joy: "Then I'm welcome, Brother Yu, what do you want to eat?"

"First, some kidneys, leeks, and then two dozen oysters." Qin Yu thought for a while and specifically said, "This is for me."

"..." Li Xiaoxiao would be a little bit stunned after hearing this, and said in amazement: "Brother Yu, are you going to fight at night?"

Although she was dressed up like a tomboy, she was still female after all.

Suddenly incarnate as an old driver, it makes people feel a little uncomfortable.

Before Qin Yu could answer, Li Xiao smiled bitterly and shook his head: "Why don't you have to wait till the night, you guys are drunk, but Brother Yu bombarded you all afternoon."

Qin Yu immediately became the target of everyone's ridicule, and one or two of them were asking him what's the situation?

When men get together, there is no shortage of women's topics at any time.

Li Xiaoxiao also did not refuse to come, and threw out the short paragraphs one by one, making the men dumbfounded.

While talking and laughing, Qin Yu found that Xu Hao hadn't said a word.

Turning his head to see, he was sitting quietly in the chair, with his head hanging down and behaved like a child who made mistakes.

"Why, the wine hasn't woken up yet?" Qin Yu touched him with his shoulder.

Xu Hao raised his head, grudgingly with a weird look: "I woke up, thinking about other things."

"Do you miss your cocoa?" Qin Yu said.

Xu Hao didn't answer, but instead glanced at Li Xiaoxiao first, then nodded without saying a word.

The weird performance made Yu brother thoughtful.

Looking at Li Xiaoxiao again, his face was red and radiant, a bit like a state after a certain exercise.

"No?" Thinking of the inner guess, Brother Yu didn't quite believe it.

It's not drunk, but it's over, and besides being in their respective rooms, there should be nothing wrong with them.

Looking at Li Xiao, the other person seemed to understand what he wanted to ask. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

His eyes nodded helplessly, with a trace of weird and teasing.

He really didn't expect this, but Xu Hao disappeared from the matter of talking.

Two hours after returning, he was weak and tired.

At a glance, it was squeezed out.

"What are you going to do?" Brother Yu looked at Xu Hao with a little sympathy.

It's true that drinking is a mistake.

Xu Hao did not deny that there is no need to hide this matter from his brother.

That is, he didn't know how to give Coco an explanation, and how to face Li Xiaoxiao?

Although after opening the door, the opponent rushed forward and pulled him into the room.

But he didn't forcefully stop it, refused...

On the contrary, it was a bit smooth, and I was embarrassed by the wine.

At that time, there was nothing to think about, but when I woke up this time, Xu Hao couldn't wait to stuff himself in a mouse hole.

In this way, there is no need to think about that much.

Now Xu Hao is embarrassed, how should he explain this to Xia Ke, and how should the relationship between him and Li Xiaoxiao be repositioned?

friend? Runners? Play?

Drinking too much, it happened in a silly way, think of a way to fool it?

Xu Hao felt unreliable, and the best way was to talk to Xia Keming.

Of course, there is a certain skill.

It's time to recognize it all, as long as she can leave without getting angry with herself.

Those who cannot be recognized will not be recognized even if they are killed or a word.

The two have known each other for more than a year, and Xu Hao believes he still understands her temper.

There is still a chance to confess this matter, but if you conceal it...

Chapter 552: Wrong and right

Drinking is indispensable for eating!

It's just that there's something wrong with the drinking atmosphere...

Xu Hao kept drinking boring wine, but Li Xiaoxiao talked and laughed, chatting very happily.

"Brother Yu, when will we act, can I go and see it?" Li Xiaoxiao explained: "I'll just wait outside to increase the sense of participation."

She is particularly sensitive to topics involving 'battle', although there is no gunpowder on Lixin's battlefield.

But every second counts, it's a * storm!

Behind those numbers, I don't know how many wives were scattered, their families were destroyed, and their relationships collapsed.

Li Xiaoxiao wanted to experience the excitement during operation.

"Isn't it okay to play with the jumping machine if I want to find excitement?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"..." Li Xiaoxiao had a weird expression and said in deep thought: "Brother Yu, skydiving is our daily training program."

"..." This time it was Qin Yu's turn to be speechless.

For someone who is afraid of heights, skydiving = life-threatening.

This guy, daily training...

He thought that Li Xiaoxiao was a technical soldier, but he didn't expect that he would still play actual combat.

Brother Yu suddenly thought of a question: Does she have bad feet?

"Go if you want, but during the operation, everyone has to cut off contact with the outside world and stay in the company."

Qin Yu is not afraid of being visited, and the identities of Jiang Luo and others are no secret.

Lixin has just over a dozen people.

I really want to know that if you squat at the door for a few days, you can recognize it all!

Besides, since Li Xiaoxiao is included in the core team.

This trust is still there.

"I'm familiar with this, we do it every time we train." Li Xiaoxiao is not too skilled.

It is common for them to disappear for a month when they zipper.

Airborne to an unfamiliar area, how to survive in the wild?

"Okay, let you know when the time comes, you go to the abandoned city by yourself, and I will let someone pick you up."

After receiving Qin Yu's affirmative answer, Li Xiaoxiao looked at Xu Hao: "Mouse, let's go together?"

Brush, cast his eyes on Xu Hao neatly.

Li Xiaoxiao is going to take the initiative to attack?

Worthy of being a woman in the army, this hot and spicy ordinary person may not be able to bear it!

"I'm not going... right?" Xu Hao's tone was originally tough, but Li Xiaoxiao could see a touch of sadness between her eyebrows.

The steel bars in his heart instantly turned into soft fingers, and his tone became stumbling, not so absolute.

It can be salty or sweet...good fellow.

Master, this is a master!

Qin Yu couldn't help but glanced at the data:

Li Xiaoxiao:

Age: 23.

Height: 171cm.

Weight: 51kg.

Specialty: Individual soldier, special combat skills, firearms proficiency (good at using all kinds of mainstream light and heavy weapons), driving proficiency (proficient in all kinds of mechanical driving), deep diving, turtle breath technique, survival master...

Face value: 87↑.

Body: 97↑.

Mood value: 81↑.

Favorability: 78-.

Freshness: 89↓.

[Analysis report: Female tyrannosaurus, pure appearance, wild heart.]

[Reminder: If the host chooses this target, please carefully compare the combat values of both parties to avoid risks]

Hiss~

Good guy, I'm just good guy.

The appearance is 87, the body is 97...

Tyrannosaurus female...

What kind of devil's evaluation, your partial discipline is a bit too serious, right?

After meeting several times, Li Xiaoxiao's clothes were very loose, if it weren't for the system, Qin Yu really didn't see her potential.

And her 'special skill,' Brother Yu was scared when he saw it.

Those who can be called a single soldier are the best players in the military.

Able to perform special tasks alone, such as beheading, assassination...

Special combat skills, the strongest "killing skills" in Xia , to describe it as combat skills, that is Xia Guo's consistent humble style.

In terms of sinister and viciousness, it is naturally inferior to Maga.

But it is the turn of the actual combat ability, the 'military combat technique' is not inferior to the Maga technique at all.

Proficient in firearms (good at using all kinds of mainstream light and heavy weapons), proficient in driving (proficient in all kinds of mechanical driving)...

Really, seeing these two specialties, Brother Yu didn't know what to say.

Sister, do you know that you are so leathery at home?

Deep diving, tortoise breath technique, survival expert, how long did this leave her alone on the uninhabited island?

There are a series of professional specialties in the back, including heavy thugs, walking violently on foot...

At this time, Qin Yu looked at Xu Hao with sympathy and comfort.

He has found a treasure...

Just like Li Xiaoxiao, what kind of man is not good enough?

Even if the feet are really smelly, it's not a problem.

...Maybe people's feet don't stink?

Brother Yu's thoughts are a bit off, and he doesn't know why he is always struggling with the problem of his feet.

Maybe it has something to do with the fancy manipulation of the twin sisters last night, young people nowadays, fancy... Fuck!

Even Brother Yu has experienced many battles, and is often surprised by it.

Too much fun.

After Qin Yu turned his attention back to reality, Xu Hao had agreed to go to the abandoned city with Li Xiaoxiao.

Brother Yu looked at Li Xiao with a tangled expression: "Brother, what happened?"

He was a little confused, Li Xiaoxiao shouldn't be this one!

Isn't the experience a bit too rich for a woman who has just entered the water?

Had it not been for the systematic and accurate data, Brother Yu would definitely treat her as a colleague, an old fisherman.

Li Xiao shook his head dumbfoundedly, and sighed, "Women chasing men, the other side of the mountain... The mouse is about to be planted."

Qin Yu whispered: "Then Xia Ke?"

"It's up to him, I can't put it outside to raise it!" Li Xiao responded casually.

After a while, he laughed at himself again: "I'm afraid that Xiaoxiao will really take him down, he doesn't have the guts."

In fact, Li Xiao is not optimistic about him and Xia Ke.

No matter the living environment, family background, thoughts and three views of the two people are very different.

They were completely people from two different worlds, Xu Hao was also hot at first, but it was soft and hard to give people sleep clothes.

But when it comes to talking about marriage, Xia Ke can't make it through at home.

The hostess of Xu Hao's family is not a good thing!

If you want to get into her eyes, you don't have much to look at, so you don't want to look at it.

Xia Ke...

A pretty good girl, good figure, good looks and good personality.

The other party is righteous, straightforward, high emotional intelligence, and emphasizing love and righteousness.

But this is for ordinary people, like them, the right one is the first.

What Prince Charming and Cinderella, the overbearing president fell in love with me, the story that I and the young master have to tell...

Watch less TV and novels, read more history and read newspapers, and you won't be daydreaming.

Li Xiaoxiao is pretty good, with Li Xiao's current status and authority.

I probably also know that Li Xiaoxiao is not just a female soldier in the army.

If the two families can really get married and get the support of the Li family, it will be a good thing for Xu Hao and the Xu family.

To be honest, the Li family may not even look at him Xu Hao.

Had it not been for Li Xiaoxiao's insistence, no one could do anything to her, Xu Hao would have been out long ago.

It takes Li Xiaoxiao to work so hard to make a game for him to sleep...

"Puff~cough cough cough..." Li Xiao couldn't help laughing when he thought of this, but it was difficult to explain, so he could only cover up his laughter with a cough.

Brother Yu listened in a daze for a while, played the game, and deliberately put him to sleep.

It seems that I still underestimated this girl's decision, so ruthless...

Put your innocence into it just to * Xu Hao back. Should this be true love or scheming?

Outsiders can't cut things about the two houses clearly, so they can't get things done.

Qin Yu didn't stop to follow along, and in the end he still had to see what Xu Hao said.

It's just that, according to Li Xiao's words, I'm afraid the Xu family will get news soon, and the pressure on Xu Hao can be imagined.

He wanted to continue to be like Xia Ke and live his own little life.

I'm afraid it will not work.

Frowning, Qin Yu felt a little unhappy.

Li Xiaoxiao's scheming was much deeper than he had seen, and the girl's face was pure and innocent.

But it's not simple at all...

"Brother Yu, I will toast you one more." Li Xiaoxiao raised his glass with a smile.

"Thank you." Qin Yu smiled nonchalantly.

Put down the wine glass, UU reading www.uukanshu.com Li Xiaoxiao said: "Brother told you."

Even though she has been playing around with Xu Hao and Little Fatty, she is watching Liulu and watching everyone present.

Li Xiaoxiao felt the subtle changes in Qin Yu's attitude as the two whispered to each other.

When asked this way, Qin Yu was stunned, and replied straightforwardly: "Yes."

"Brother Yu thinks I did something wrong?" Li Xiaoxiao asked with a smile.

Qin Yu was silent for a moment, and really couldn't tell what was wrong with her.

She used the snack machine, but neither made money nor killed herself, just wanted to pursue the happiness she wanted.

Or use your own body to make bets, what's wrong?

But to say that's right, Xu Hao was put in a dilemma now, all because of her.

Wrong and right, not everything can be so innocent.

Chapter 553: Super double, 3 rewards

After three rounds of wine, the big guy ate and drank well, and decided to leave.

Until the end, Qin Yu couldn't give her an answer, whether it was right or wrong!

But his attitude towards Li Xiaoxiao is obviously no longer prejudiced.

It is enough for Li Xiaoxiao to get such an effect: "Brother Yu, see you all."

"See you in the waste town." Watching Xu Hao and Li Xiaoxiao leave together, Qin Yu's heart is mixed.

This time, I really missed it.

He actually took the tiger as a bird, punched the eye, punched the eye...

"How are you going?" Li Xiao was left on the scene, and he was about to call the trolley home.

"I'll go back to the hotel, someone will see me off." Qin Yu pointed to the side of the road, and the big paa was coming in silently.

Even with so many cars, Qin Yu's favorite commuter car is still this Palamela.

Comfortable, quiet, luxurious, practical and restrained...

"The temptation of twins is big." Li Xiao teased and motioned him to go first.

"Don't say that I'm like a serious person, the boss doesn't talk about the second." Qin Yu punched him in the chest and walked away amidst Li Xiao's weird cry.

Not far from the car, the silent He Wu suddenly said: "Boss, we are being followed."

"Huh?" Qin Yu's mind was startled, and the whole person came to his senses: "Who?"

"I don't know, but Barrow Maozi, I have been observing for the past two days. They will follow you wherever you go. It is still unclear what the purpose is."

He Wu looked at the Sagitar behind him through the rear mirror: "As you can see from their walking movements, they are not weak, do you want me to solve it?"

Hearing the indifferent and strong self-confidence in his tone, Qin Yu couldn't help but glance again.

Then he smiled dumbly: "The Maozi you said should be his own."

Signaling him to pull over and stop, Qin Yu lowered the window and hooked his finger to the back.

The Sagitar, which stopped quietly, restarted, slowly stopping behind Palamela, and then the co-pilot's door opened.

Yuri got out of the car, "BOSS."

Although he was saying hello to Qin Yu, Yuli, who was bent over, turned his eyes to He Wu.

With a bit of hostility and respect in his eyes, he felt a powerful threat from the opponent.

That came from the instinctive experience between life and death. This seemingly quiet and ordinary Xia Guo man had blood from many people on his hands.

"Introduce, my driver, He Wu." Qin Yu pointed to the outside: "Yuri, famous, my... is a bodyguard."

Like Yuri, it would be privately armed after Xia Guo.

But in China, the concept of private armament certainly does not exist, it is a bodyguard to protect his safety.

Armed?

What kind of arms, there are no nail clippers all over the body, harmless to humans and animals, good people, big good people.

"Hello." He Wu nodded and greeted him.

Although he could not understand what the other party was saying, Yuri could guess from his attitude and tone: "Hello."

The bull's head didn't communicate with Mazui, and Brother Yu couldn't help but laugh: "Okay, everyone will be their own in the future. If you have any needs, you can just greet them."

Yuri and his people are in charge of perimeter security. You are the shield spear by my side, understand?

"Understood, boss." He Wu responded.

"Okay, it's okay, let's go back!" With Yuri returning to the car, Palamela drove forward again.

This time I arrived at the hotel smoothly, and there was no more 'crisis' moment.

Li Jingyu and Li Jingxun...

No, it was Li Jingyu who was still sleeping, and Li Jingxun was already up.

The reason why the two sisters can be recognized so clearly is naturally due to the power of the system.

Otherwise, Qin Yu really couldn't tell which of them was the sister and who was the sister!

"Where is your sister?" Qin Yu asked Li Jingxun who was changing his shoes.

After moving her hand, Li Jing asked Rourou, "How do you know who I am?"

"Guess, your sister is more lively, you are more gentle." Qin Yu responded casually.

Li Jingxun was a little shy when she heard Qin Yu say that she was gentle, and she was not quite used to getting along like this.

I and my sister followed the same man...

Moreover, they didn't know each other before today, just a nickname on the Internet.

Now, he has given him the most precious and precious things.

"Sister is still sleeping, just now... She has suffered too much." Li Jingxun explained softly.

"What about you?" Qin Yu hooked her chin with her finger, raised her head and looked at each other.

Li Jingxun raised her head with reddish cheeks, her eyes rolled around, ashamed to look at him.

But I didn't dare to break free, so I could only close my eyes in the end...

Seeing Li Jingxun, whose eyebrows twinkled in front of her, her face flushed like a ripe peach, she could squeeze out the water with a pinch, how could Brother Yu couldn't bear to play with it.

"Hey~" After groaning shyly, everything went crazy.

...

...

Late at night, Jing Yu and Jing Xun fell asleep quietly.

The skin exposed to the air still has a rosy luster, and Jing Xun's eyes still have crystal tears.

Those are tears of joy...

Brother Yu put on a soft pillow and opened the "system panel."

'Ding!'

'Congratulations to the host for experiencing super double happiness and triggering random rewards!'

'Reward 1: Sunlight +1.'

'Reward 2: Bouncing bouncing, a big draw for the pachinko machine.'

'Reward 3: Super Double Card.'

[Reminder: Super double card, can super double the effect of the target event (character)]

The moment he saw this card, Brother Yu knew how to use it.

'Let's draw.'

The pachinko machine appeared in front of him, and Qin Yu waited for the halo to disappear.

The card freezes, and Qin Yu sees the HK-035 space mining machine again...

In the last lottery draw, Qin Yu won a brass prize. The prize was a 'Pluto-class industrial machine.'

This time, I don't know what he will get again. He is already a little distracted by those 'special materials'.

Smoke if you want? ? ? Grand prize, otherwise, the HK-035 space mining machine is also good.

There seems to be a diamond star in outer space, and a foreigner also declared sovereignty.

If you really get the HK-035 space mining machine, hehehe...

'begin. "At the moment when the order was given, Qin Yu muttered silently to the pinball machine, "Using the super double card." '

'Ding, the super double card is valid! '

Yes!

Brother Yu knew it was possible, and the Super Double Card was in effect.

'Effects are being evaluated...The evaluation is over, and the number of prizes in this draw is +2.' perfect!

That's it.....

One lottery becomes three times, and one prize becomes one. Nice!

The bead bullet in the pachinko machine is even more crazy. When it hits the card slot, the card that represents it lights up.

The number at the top of the pachinko machine has changed from 3 to 2, which means he has won a prize.

'Regenerated activated carbon precursor. '

What the hell? ? ?

What Brother Yu looked at was a fog of water, and he knew every word in it, but he didn't know a word together.

Before he could understand the meaning, the second reward appeared.

'HK-035 Space Mining Machine. '

Nice, super Nice!

The marble is still ejecting, and Qin Yu wants to keep up, but his vision can't track the position of the bead at all.

Until the resounding sound of "clang clang clang", the beads fall into the gold level mysterious prize? ? ?

"Fuck Qin Yu, who was lying down, sat up instantly.

The two sisters next to them turned around and went to sleep.

The two people who did their best are really tired.

At this moment, let alone Qin Yu's cleverness, even if the sound of gongs and drums outside is still asleep!

Looking at the glittering gold level? ? ?

Qin Yu couldn't sit still, got up and walked from the bedroom to the living room, sitting on the sofa and waiting for the final result.

Ding!

As the prompt sounded, Qin Yu instinctively raised his head.

The picture in the line of sight was then raised, and the last reward appeared in the field of vision.

"Almighty micro-nano bug..."

The shadow of the pachinko machine gradually dimmed and disappeared, leaving only the three prizes in Qin Yu's sight, reflecting each other.

Chapter 554: Omnipotent micronanoworm

"Draw rewards!" Qin Yu couldn't wait to say aloud.

His voice echoed in the quiet room, and the silence was restored again.

'Reward distribution...'

'Almighty micro-nano bugs have been distributed, location: hotel reception (Thank you for using Dongfeng Express, Almighty Universe, mission must be reached).'

'The HK-035 space mining machine has been released, location: coordinates XXX·XXX.'

'Recycled activated carbon matrix has been issued, location: Kuafu Research Institute. Character: Shi Cui.'

Shi Cui?

Qin Yu didn't know who he was, but as long as he knew he was himself in the Kuafu Research Institute.

He is the lucky one selected by the system again, and he will be the new favorite in Yu Ge's heart in the future.

"I'm Qin Yu, there is my courier at the front desk?" Qin Yu dialed the number at the front desk and received a confirmation message soon.

After a while, butler Yao delivered his package.

A square cardboard box about 20 cm high and 20 cm wide.

The LOGO with the words 'Dongfeng Express' printed on it is particularly obvious...

Fortunately, there is a systematic 'cognitive distortion.' Otherwise, someone really asks which courier Dongfeng Express is, but Brother Yu really doesn't know how to answer.

Tear it~

Tear open the carton outside, Qin Yu was stunned by what appeared inside.

A square "iron box" with no gaps at all, touched by hand, the surface is smooth and cold, a bit like frozen ice, but it won't dissolve under high temperature.

After reading all six sides of the 'Iron Box', Qin Yu couldn't find a way to open him.

'System, how to open this thing?' Qin Yu seeks help from the system.

You have to tell me how to use the rewards you give, right?

The almighty micronanoworm, such a tall name, sounds unclear.

The key is, how does it work?

Unfortunately, the system continues to play dead as usual.

Without the slightest intention of communicating with himself, Qin Yu held such a smooth and seamless, like a perfect square box that shouldn't exist in the world.

Look left and right, touch here, touch there, just use it for nothing!

"I'm Gan." Qin Yu stopped when he picked it up and threw it away.

Because there is an unusual voice in my mind, 'external signal detected, is it connected?'

It's 'Kirin,' which detected an external source of unfamiliar signals.

Qin Yu immediately thought that it came from the box in his hands.

"Kirin" has appeared for quite a while, in this era of full information.

There are countless signal sources where Qin Yu goes every day. If the 'kylin' would have reacted to them, it would have appeared long ago, and would not wait until today...

Therefore, Qin Yu thought without any hesitation, 'Agree to access.'

Drop~

The 'iron box' in Qin Yu's hand lights up dimly, and then...

Wow~

It broke down.

It was like suddenly turning into gravel, falling from between Qin Yu's fingers.

Many fell on his hands, rolling down and falling.

'The signal source has been activated, and the target is confirmed: the all-round micro-nanoworm.'

'Receive new order... Order confirmation...'

'Activate the Almighty Micro-Nano Worm, getting permission... to get the first-level permission.'

'Nanoworm has been activated, select target: host.'

Just like the dark black gravel dropped by the patter of light rain, it strangely stagnated in the air.

Then, under Qin Yu's horrified gaze, he rolled up and pressed it on his body.

This sudden change made him want to scream.

But I found that I lost control of my body, 1 second, 2 seconds, still a century.

The numbness and itching from the surface of the skin disappeared, followed by countless dark black gravels.

No, it should be said that it is micro and nano bugs.

Those are tens of billions of micro-nano insect-shaped robots, and they exist in Qin Yu's body right now.

Lifting his right hand, he turned it back and forth and looked again.

Qin Yu gathered five fingers, clenched his fists and slammed forward.

Boom.

A 5 cm deep hollow fist mark appeared on the wall, and then look at the back of his hand.

There is not even a trace of red scratches...

"Fuck... slot." Brother Yu really didn't know what to say about this.

He now has one thought: Brother is invincible!

The first gold class? ? ? The grand prize gave him such a big surprise.

At this time, Qin Yu couldn't help being curious, other gold ranks? ? ? What's in it?

Star destroyer, pulse cannon, particle cannon, or a two-way foil directly?

"Huh?" Qin Yu suddenly remembered that none of these were possible.

Because so far, there have not been any lethal weapons in the system rewards.

There is not even anything that can be linked to weapons, except for the nanoworm that has just entered its body.

Of course, it depends on how you understand it.

If you apply it to war, then it is a weapon.

But it is only used to ensure his safety and health. It should only be regarded as a 'medical device? '

At most, there is something beyond modern technology...

To solve the entanglement, Yu Ge began to test the function of 'Nanobug'.

Then, it was shocked again and again.

Nanoworms are activated by "Kirin", but the control authority belongs to Qin Yu.

Because only he has the first level of authority, the 'kylin' has to follow his instructions.

The core of nanoworms is defined as 'life, rebirth.'

It has a strong regenerative ability and has an extremely keen response to external stimuli.

Once the 'host' is injured, it will instantly repair the wound.

The wound does not exist.

Qin Yu boldly used a fruit knife to make a cut in his arm.

As soon as it was opened, the blood was gone before it had time to flow out.

Looking intently at the wound, I didn't even leave a mark.

"Lang is the wave." Brother Yu took a trip to the sofa, whistling freely.

This ability alone is enough for him to make waves all over the world.

"That's right." Qin Yu suddenly sat up, with a three-point awkward smile, two-point shyness, and five-point curiosity in his smile.

Lower your head and untie the pajama strap...

The strange knowledge has grown again, and the world is really bad.

The next day.

Qin Yu, who hadn't slept all night, appeared in the hotel gym full of energy, shaking his iron.

I don't know if it is effective, but it has become a habit anyway.

If you don't have some exercise in the morning, you will feel uncomfortable throughout the day.

On the contrary, they are energetic and find it interesting to do everything!

However, the weight of the past can no longer satisfy it.

First come five 15kg dumbbells and fill them up.

吭哧吭哧...

I cited more than 20, but there was no response.

I looked at the dumbbells in my hand and really couldn't add any more.

change!

The maximum weight of the barbell is all added, and the total weight reaches an astonishing 320kg.

Qin Yu lay down and took a deep breath while holding the lever.

Huh~

He lifted the barbell easily.

Because of excessive force, Yu Ge almost flashed his arm.

"I'm gonna." This is a little scary.

Put down the barbell, and looked around to see who was okay.

Qin Yu got up and left, slipping away...

Such a high-profile thing does not conform to Yu Ge's style of doing things.

Just a few minutes after he left, a muscular man who was at least 186 in size came to the gym.

Seeing the relatively complete equipment, the strong man nodded in satisfaction.

He is one of the players who came to Shanghai from the Bald Eagle to participate in the 2025 IWF Fitness Ceremony.

The race is about to start in three days, and he needs to keep himself in the best condition at all times.

Early morning exercise is very important, and it is a good habit he has maintained for many years.

Even during the competition, there will be no exceptions to relax!

After doing a few warm-ups, the opponent directly came to the power zone.

The first is the bench press. He raised his head and looked forward: "Wodafak?"

The full barbell makes the brawny man confused After carefully calculating the weight, his eyes are like hell, shocked with sluggishness.

Is this someone deliberately making trouble and just hang it up?

I touched the mat with my hand, it was still warm...

So, someone really lay on it just now and lifted a weight of 300kg?

In the big head, there is a big question mark.

This is where the great * came out, is it going to run to crush this grand ceremony?

At this time, Qin Yu, who had already taken a bath and changed into clothes, was heading to the restaurant with the twins.

I don't know how strong a shock my one-time move brings to someone.

"I will leave first in a while. You can stay in the hotel for a longer period of time, and all the expenses will be charged to my account." I haven't been to school for several days, so I have to show up.

Brother Yu has always emphasized that his job is a student.

Chapter 555: Weight

On the way to the school, Qin Yu kept looking out the window.

In fact, what he was looking at was a bug on the car glass. '

With the help of the effect brought by the nanoworm, Qin Yu can clearly see the 'worm that should not be distinguished by the naked eye. '

It looks a bit like a praying mantis, with two half-folded claws on the front and split cirrus at the end.

The body has a long sleeve and a pointed head...

It's funny when you look closely, the streamlined body ends with its tail.

The flat tail looks inconspicuous, but there are many secrets hidden in it, including its "heart." '

That is, the engine that drives it can be self-sufficient by absorbing biological energy.

If the existence of this nanoworm is exposed, it will surely set off a revolutionary tsunami in the nano field.

However, Qin Yu did not intend to do this.

At least for now, he is not going to give Nanoworms to anyone, in the future?

That has to be left to the future Qin Yu to decide, he is only responsible for today...

Don't underestimate this little 'worm,' the future technology contained in it is enough to make earth-shaking changes in the entire world.

Such as nanocomputers, artificial intelligence, biological engines, driving, control, sensor feedback and materials are all at the forefront of the world...

The whole is far ahead of modern science, and it is not an exaggeration to describe it as black technology.

"Boss, we are here." He Wu stopped the car on the side of the road.

At the same time, the nanoworm parked on the window flew into Qin Yu's eye sockets' and returned to the nest.

Qin Yu at this time really looks like a nest to them...

Qin Yu shuddered at the thought that he was full of 'bugs' in his body.

These changes happened too quickly, too suddenly.

He still needs some time to adapt, both physically and psychologically.

"Classmates, how can I get to the large classroom of the Department of Finance?" Qin Yu saw the notice from the group that there are classes in the large classroom today.

Since everyone is here and can't go to class, who makes us a good student?

"Ah~" The girl jumped excitedly: "Are you Qin Yu senior?"

"Yes, can you tell me the direction of the big classroom?" Qin Yu smiled helplessly.

This is one of the reasons why he doesn't like coming to school...

Everyone who saw him was as strange as seeing him as a national treasure, so they almost made him happy with bamboo.

"Senior, can you please sign your name?" The girl took out the pen and notebook and pointed to the north: "The big classroom is there, just across the alley."

First made his own request, and then immediately answered his questions.

Qin Yu is really not good at rejecting the other party's request, picking up the pen and signing his name.

"Senior, your writing is so beautiful." The girl happily held the notebook and said, "You are so handsome!"

"Thank you." Nodding politely, Qin Yu walked quickly in the direction pointed by the other party.

Without looking at the several girls in front, they were staring at him with excitement and talking, as if they were discussing how to divide him to be satisfied.

Hunting-like aggressiveness is outrageous!

Walking through the alleys, Qin Yu saw a lawn and classmates who were reading on the lawn.

Going by is a small road, and finally a wall!

Where's the big classroom? ? ?

Looking back from the direction when she was going back and forth, the girl who was going to sign the autograph was rushing towards the campus gate in small steps.

...I believe in you as a ghost, young man, and don't speak martial ethics!

The deceived brother Yu felt the malice from the world and took out his cell phone and sent a message to Yan Er.

After a while, he found it according to the location.

"Brother Yu, my good brother Yu, you are really good." Taking him to the large classroom, Yan Er's mouth kept talking all the way.

These are sophomores, and Ma has risen to his junior year.

There are students who don't know where the big classroom is, you dare to believe it?

Yan Erxin, isn't this...

"Can we talk about something else?" Brother Yu was also a little embarrassed.

This should let people know, wouldn't it ruin his good student's personality?

When I came to the big classroom, it had already begun.

The two lowered their heads and sneaked in and stood in the last row of the classroom.

The previous class was the old professor of the school, who was talking about the subprime mortgage crisis.

This financial crisis has long become a classic case that universities must talk about.

In addition to the educational meaning, there are also vigilant meanings.

Greed will eventually pay the price...

Looking back at the past and present, anyone who is too greedy will not end well, and there will be no good end.

Qin Yu agrees with this, so he never eats alone.

When someone does not know how to share and chooses to eat alone, it is equivalent to pushing themselves to the opposite of everyone.

How to live against others?

The vivid and vivid words the old professor said, ancient and modern classics are easy to grasp.

Unknowingly, when the class was over, Qin Yu, like the classmates around him, had forgotten that he was standing.

There is nothing wrong with him, but a few of his bodies are weak, and he has already sat down with the back of his chair.

My feet are numb.

"Let's go, Brother Yu." Yan Er asked him to go back to the bedroom together.

There is only one class in the morning, nothing more.

Back in the bedroom, Shen Dong was not there, and Qin Yu asked about his last trip to the Demon City.

"We talked about the same, decided to cooperate together, I provide funds, he is responsible for talents and open the market, shares 73."

Yan Er took 70% and Chen Wei took 30%.

"How much did you vote?" Qin Yu said.

Yan Er thought about it, and said, "20 million in the early stage, and 40 million in subsequent investments, which should be enough for the initial expenditure."

Yan Er felt the pressure right from the beginning.

60 million yuan is only enough for one or two years.

If the scale of the company develops quickly, the time will be shorter.

The early stage is a process of burning money. There are no substantial benefits, preferential prices, what do you use to attract drivers and customers.

Let alone compete with platforms that are relatively mature, have a certain reputation and stable traffic.

"What did Viagra say?" It's nothing new to smash money to compete for the market.

The main thing is when it will be profitable, the progress of market development and how it can stand it. This is the key.

There is an old saying that goes well: It's easy to fight, but it's hard to keep it!

Turning losses into profits is a step forward.

If you step past, you can talk about a future, if you don't step past, you don't need to talk about anything.

Chen Wei is in charge of the market, so how to get this one must have a charter and plan for Yan Er.

"Viagra has a way and a channel in the demon. He plans to start this area first, like some corporate cars.

Let them next app, give internal discounts, first attract a certain number of customers, and then let word-of-mouth spread along with advertising.

In addition, as the main service, we provide high-quality services and have extremely high demands on the driver and the environment in the car.

The investment in the car should also be higher. Choose the area of two or three hundred thousand yuan..."

This information is in his head, and it is constantly being presented, and Yan Er just can't forget it even if he wants to.

Chen Wei has a series of plans, and it looks like it is progressing smoothly.

100 vehicles have been put on the market with the most favorable car purchase price, and the overall operation has a preliminary scale.

Because of the funding gap, the cars are all mortgaged.

The financial company is Chen Wei's relationship, and he gets the lowest interest. These are all his personal resources.

To be able to set up the company's shelf so quickly, find a driver, buy a car, deliver it, put it on the market, and officially operate the company.

These are all inseparable from Chen Wei, if he were not there, maybe the car hadn't been delivered yet!

"Is there any of your people in the company?" After hearing what he said, Qin Yu felt that everything in the company seemed to be handled by the other party.

Yan Er wouldn't even make arrangements for himself, so just leave it to him, right?

"Finance is my person and the family arranges it." Yan Er responded calmly.

"What about personnel?" Qin Yu said.

"Arranged one, new recruits, always leave some for the other party." Yan Er said clearly.

It seems that he knows what to do in his heart, and since this is the case, Qin Yu no longer asks: "I wish you an early capture of the market and come to Hudu."

"There is such a day, Brother Yu, you have to help me on the platform." Yan Er said with a smile: "The venture capitalists will not beg me to collect money at that time."

What Yan Er said is a bit exaggerated but it's not all joking.

If his company logs on to Hudu and there is a Qin Yu platform, it is tantamount to endorsing his company.

Even if VCs didn't come to the door to beg him to accept it, they would have to step on the threshold of his office.

Today, Qin Yu's endorsement definitely has this weight.

"Don't wait for them to come, I will invest a sum first." Qin Yu looked at him and said: "When will I decide to raise funds, I must be in the first place."

Yan Er glanced at him gratefully, and deliberately joked: "The face of your capitalist is becoming more and more obvious."

"Maybe because I was born suitable for this, so I am good at throwing money and doing other backaches." Brother Yu laughed.

Yan Er choked his throat and shook his thumbs up.

What this said...

As expected of Brother Yu, Lao Fanjian.

Chapter 556: Okay, really okay

Qin Yu is more and more aware of the benefits of a woman's career.

Just like now, if the women around him are busy, how could he have time to spend time with the twins in the hotel.

The two girls were addicted to play, and followed their eldest brother to eat and drink.

The little face is round...

"Hudu is so beautiful, Jingxun and I are going to spend a few more days here." Zhang Jingyu turned her back to the balcony, behind which was Jiang Jing.

The neon is shining, and the Hudu at night looks even more tempting.

Stroking the hair with your hand, turning your body while flicking.

She showed her good looks, accepting the kneeling and licking praise in the live broadcast room.

At this time, on the other end of the screen, the second largest brother was touching the screen frantically with his fingers.

One by one hot air balloons appeared in the live broadcast room, and Zhang Jingyu happily said, "Thank you for the gift of the second largest brother..."

A hot air balloon is 52 yuan, and there are 12 of them.

More than 600 yuan, can't thank you?

Hearing the voice of the goddess, the second eldest brother rolled around on the bed happily.

The finger has not forgotten to continue tapping the screen, hot air balloon, hot air balloon, hot air balloon...

As long as you brush enough, one day you will be touched by the goddess.

Maybe it will come out?

The more I thought about it, the more I got excited, the fingers that almost cramped became more flexible.

Just as he brushed vigorously, when Zhang Jingyu turned around, the camera accidentally swept the glass door of the balcony.

... The smile gradually distorted and stiffened.

The reflection in the glass door, although blurry, the outline can be seen.

The * man is sitting on the bed, looking down and swiping his phone...

Naked...man...bed...

Reminiscent of the goddess just saying: "I just took a shower, and now it's my sister who is washing..."

The second eldest brother is crying "Wow", my goddess, Bizhi _____ too difficult!

Zhang Jingyu didn't care when he found that the second eldest brother had stopped brushing.

Since Qin Yu's elder brother, this little money has been ignored by the two of them.

Following my eldest brother in the past two days, my horizons have also broadened.

The eldest brother said that he will take them to live at sea tonight.

Luxury yachts are very awkward...

"Okay, I'm leaving." Zhang Jingyu chose to ignore the "exposed," flashing in the barrage.

There is no explanation for this kind of thing. Besides, is there any explanation necessary?

Isn't this a rule of thumb to be below the top line?

No way?

Doesn't anyone really think that making noodles with your eldest brother is just eating and drinking tea?

Sitting in the Rolls arranged by the hotel, Zhang Jingyu deliberately paid attention to the angle of the camera.

The eldest brother said on the first day that he did not like being exposed.

Fortunately, the reflection in the glass door is very vague, otherwise the eldest brother will see it, and he will be severely taught.

After rubbing her * with her hands in fear, Zhang Jingyu was really scared.

Rolls-Royce stopped in front of the dock, and Qin Yu led Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxue to the berthing point of the "Super Silver".

The lights on the boat were already on. Seeing the sisters from a distance, they screamed in excitement: "It's so beautiful, ah~"

Everything that should be prepared on board is already in place, and these are naturally the responsibility of the yacht hosting club.

When you need to go to sea, you only need a phone call and the other party will get everything ready.

Is it convenient?

The annual membership fee of 14 million yuan (berth ownership fee), you can do it if you have the money.

This money only means that you own the berth. If you want to stop the ship, you will have to pay the berthing fee. There are various maintenance fees every year, and the crew's salary is more than 10 million.

Qin Yu roughly calculated the accounts, and the annual maintenance cost of the "Super Silver" was about 26 million.

Otherwise, I can afford it, but I can't afford it!

So, don't worry about being a catcher, you can't afford it even if you catch it.

Sooner or later...

Coming to the top cockpit, Qin Yu picked up the intercom and smiled lightly: "Go."

The super silver with its brilliant light wall slowly left the pier and headed to the sea along the waterways on both sides of the bank.

The passersby and tourists all took out their mobile phones after the meal and chased the Super Silver number driving in the river to take pictures.

Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun on the top deck were not idle either.

Standing up to take a 360-degree shot of the yacht's first perspective, the envious gazes and comments from the shore made the two feel a sense of superiority.

Look down again at the light, like a super silver number reflecting the light, and the two of them can't wait to live on it forever.

Driving out, the vast expanse of the sea was completely dark.

As the light on the shore goes away, the world seems to be heading for darkness...

The two sisters shrank their necks in fear, and sat on the sofa to interact with the water friends.

Fortunately, there is Qin Yu by his side, so they won't really panic.

"It's okay, it's okay, it's driven by a professional crew. How could it be possible for such a large ship to be operated by one person."

After hearing Zhang Jingyu's explanation, everyone knew that there were also professional cockpits and electronic cabins below.

'I haven't seen it, want to see it! '

'I also want to see.....'

'Upstairs, I suspect you are driving. '

'Upstairs: I don't, I'm not, don't talk nonsense. '

'What's the noise? No matter what she looks at, I'll watch it first and then talk about {color}'

The two raised their heads to look at Qin Yu, and when he agreed, they said to the camera: "Well, today, Jingyu and Jingxun (Zhang Jingxun said) will show you a super-luxury yacht worth more than 200 million yuan."

"This yacht seems to have been built by Italy..." Zhang Jingyu heard Qin Yu say a few words before, what was it called?

"Boxing, it seems to be the one who made a lot of noise some time ago." Zhang Jingxun said suddenly.

"I remember, it's the Pershing star, now let a private person buy it, who is it?" Zhang Jing looked at his sister questioningly: "Do you remember Jingxun?"

"I don't remember." Zhang Jingxun shook her head, her eyes also filled with doubts.

'Fuck, I vomited, I've never seen such a Versailles, you both got on the boat, don't you know? ? ? '

'It's okay, it's really okay. '

'What else can I say besides 666? '

'What's the situation, come out and explain. '

'Hurry up, I'll charge hundreds of millions in a second, and chat with you here? '

'Secretary Cao, 30 seconds, I want all the information. '

'This boat belongs to Pershing's owner, Super Silver, a luxury super fast yacht worth 280 million yuan...'

'Go on, I want to hear, I hope you don't know how to praise! '

'The encyclopedia is there, shit, really? ? ? '

'Can not remember? You two are outrageous! '

Seeing that all the two sisters of diss were on the barrage, Li Jing was stupid.

What did I say to me, I really don't remember...

Wait, Bossing boss.

So, the older brother is the boss of Boxing, Qin Yu? ?

Glancing at her sister, Li Jing opened the encyclopedia eagerly. Keyword: Qin Yu.

Huh~

The screen full of news is all news related to him.

Click on the top encyclopedia character.

There is only one side view, and the information is concise and clear.

Founder, CEO, pioneer of cutting-edge technology scientist, businessman, student...

See the shining names, and then look at the last 'student. '

Li Jingxun always felt that it was like some kind of nonsensical chaos... It was strange!

Flicking up her finger and quickly swiping the consultation brief, Li Jing found that her inner surprise became more and more intense.

Soon, the consultation was over.

Looking at the back page sign below, Li Jing curiously clicked on the "Last Page." ' 68 pages...

A whole number of hundreds of consultations were all related to him or used his name to drain traffic.

The two of them thought they had found the eldest brother...

It now appears that where is the big brother, it is basically a walking'money printing machine. '

Hundreds of thousands of understanding in a second, I really want to stay in the world of the big boss, or just do odd jobs.

Chapter 557: Damn it, play off

I don't know the true face of Mount Lu, only because I am in this mountain.

pulled it out, Zhang Jingyu, Zhang Jing found out how lucky she was after looking for her sisters.

At this time...anyone will feel lucky!

No wonder the eldest brother one million, one million smashed, is not taken seriously.

Look at the speculation on the Internet, the big guy is worth at least tens of billions.

What's worse is cash...

Although they don't understand the stakes very well, the two of them have heard the phrase "cash is king".

tens of billions...

One million is not the same as one's own ten or twenty yuan to a big guy?

Ordinary people desperately live their lives, earning less than what they can leak through the fingers of the other party.

What a...fuck!

Zhang Jingyu is about to explode, this will see Qin Yu again, there is a strange feeling of scalp numb, and the whole body is hot.

He looks more handsome...

If you accidentally have it, will you have to worry about food and clothing in this life?

Li Jingyu was startled by the ambition that popped out of her heart, but she immediately became excited and cautious again.

looked up at Qin Yu, Li Jingyu quietly placed the cushion under her waist.

Why can others but not myself?

Since ancient times, it's not that mothers and sons are expensive to talk about, if they can really marry into a wealthy family.

What if it is pointed and pointed?

Thinking of those who are full of controversy, but do not affect the happy life at all, bring famous watches and drive luxury cars.

There are drivers and bodyguards coming in and out, and they waved their hands at the mall: "All inclusive" seniors.

Li Jingyu feels that she can also fight for it...

The opportunity is right in front of you. If you don't dare to fight like this, what is the difference from salted fish?

Qin Yu, who was resting on the pillow, clearly 'sees' Zhang Jingyu's small movements...

At this time, in the air beside him, tens of thousands of nanoworms were fanning their mechanical wings, quietly observing the world.

The eyes of each Nanoworm are equal to Qin Yu's eyes.

He can see everything he wants to see through the lens in the "pupil" of these nanoworms.

Even Qin Yu thought, he could easily control the Nanoworms to enter the target body.

is silent and will not be noticed by anyone.

So, let alone Zhang Jingyu, he didn't have the qualifications to give birth to a 'son of miracle'.

It is true. If Brother Yu thinks, he can control tens of thousands of nanoworms to enter her body and solve the problem directly from the root cause.

On the issue of creating humans, anyone can overturn the car, but it is impossible for Brother Yu.

The double anti-theft of 'System' and 'Nano Bug' brings double happiness!

To learn from the Western Heavens, one has to go through nine, nine and eighty-one difficulties.

Brother Yu has only a dilemma here, but it's harder than climbing...

As for the child's problem, he has never seriously considered it.

I'm still a child, is this question too far for him?

"Brother Yu, can I go into the water now?" Li Jing sought to be gentle but courageous at all.

In the middle of the night, I couldn't see my fingers, thinking about going into the water.

"It's too dark, wait until it's light before going." Brother Yu didn't want to have another thrill.

However, she evokes the nature of Brother Yu.

With his water nature, he is not afraid of any danger in the water.

Besides...

"I'll swim two laps below, and you two will take it obediently." As he didn't see Li Jingyu's little movement of cushioning his pillow, Qin Yu walked to the diving deck as he spoke.

Zhang Jing looked for small steps to keep up, and muttered: "It's too late again."

"Your water performance is better than mine?" Standing on the edge of the deck, moving his joints, Qin Yu said amusedly: "Wait for me to go into the water, if you feel you can keep up, come."

After the words, a jump, the body draws a standard semicircular arc and plunges into the water.

Small splashes of water splashed on the surface of the water, and then calmed down.

Looking at the water again, the continuous waves made waves, crashing, crashing on the wall and deck of the ship.

The searchlight on the top of the ship looked at the sea near the stern, but there was no trace of Qin Yu.

"Sister, why hasn't he come up yet?" About 1 minute passed, Zhang Jing looked anxious.

Zhang Jingyu was lying on the bed, still counting the time, thinking about her own little tricks.

Hearing what my sister said, he said casually: "Brother Yu didn't say everything, he is good at water."

"Oh~" softly replied, Zhang Jing sat on the edge of the deck and put her two tender white feet into the water.

"Hiss~" instantly retracted the soles of the feet, and the sea water below was cold and seeped into the bone.

"This water is too cold, will something happen to Brother Yu?" I don't know if it was too impatient, Zhang Jingxun felt that a long time had passed.

But he still didn't show up, Zhang Jingyu also felt something was wrong, and raised her upper body to look around, "Would you like to let the crew come and see?"

"I'll call someone." Zhang Jingxun said and ran into the cabin.

"Hey, hey, this girl, don't wait for me to finish." Zhang Jingyu hurriedly searched for something to cover her.

When the time was pulled back to 5 minutes ago, Qin Yu jumped into the water, as if he was at home.

dive for five or six meters and make sure that no one can see anything above.

Qin Yu opened his mouth, grunting~

A bubble floated out, and countless small black threads appeared in Qin Yu's throat.

The densely packed silk threads interlaced a net, and within three to five seconds, a 'breathing plug' grows on the tip of his throat.

"Ha~" The muddy air was exhaled, and the grunting bubbles rose.

The chest was lifted, Brother Yu took a deep breath, and the sea water poured into his mouth, but it did not bring the suffocation as imagined.

The cold and clear air poured into the lungs through the filter of the 'breath plug', making Qin Yu smile with joy.

"It really works." Qin Yu secretly said in his heart, and then issued a second instruction.

Black and white pupils, following Qin Yu's instructions, the white part of his eyes seemed to be stained with ink diluted with water, and a faint black mark appeared from the inside to the outside.

In an instant, the black mark suddenly invaded the entire white of the eye.

blink...

Opening his eyes, Qin Yu's pupils were pitch black.

The entire white of his eyes disappeared, leaving only the black that was deeper than the sea.

In consciousness, the blocked vision suddenly opened up.

The mysterious underwater world, like a white girl who can't resist, lies quietly there, letting Qin Yu explore it...

So, Brother Yu was overjoyed and almost forgot the time.

dived all the way to the bottom of the sea, Qin Yu raised his head and looked up, there were faint traces of starlight.

But it is already very thin, and there are abundant seafood beside it.

steamed, braised, boiled, sashimi...

What are you waiting for?

Get started...

With both hands open, Qin Yu's palm "melted" strangely, and the "debris" that had escaped slowly rotated.

As the number of 'debris' increases, the speed is getting faster and faster.

Until the entire 'debris belt' forms a rotating tornado, like a spring piercing forward.

A few crabs were crawling on the seabed, looking for a suitable 'burrow' before they had time to react. The sky was dim, and they were kidnapped by a strange monster.

Sea crab: Who am I, where am I, what happened?

But soon, it doesn't need to worry about this problem anymore.

Because soon more victims will come to accompany it, 'Well, no one can run anymore, now it's balanced.'

Therefore, the family has to be neat and tidy.

caught three sea crabs, two lobsters, and a large yellow croaker hanging on his waist.

Qin Yu's body is upright, his feet are treading on the water back and forth, and his body shoots toward the water like arrows.

Wow~

"It's...Big Brother, Brother Yu, are you okay?" A cry of joy came, and Qin Yu tilted his head to look.

The two crew members have put on diving suits ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ carrying oxygen cylinders and ready to launch.

Looking at Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun, who are crying anxiously next to them, Qin Yu has realized...

It seemed that he had acted again accidentally.

Next time, it is better to find an opportunity to go out to sea alone to try the function of 'Nanoworm'.

As for how to sail a boat alone, this is not difficult for Qin Yu at all.

With the 'nanoworm in his body,' Qin Yu was able to control the entire ship's electronic equipment and control systems in a single thought.

Not to mention sailing out to sea, it's not a problem to give it a 'explosive change' on the spot.

"Next." Throw the seafood onto the deck.

The sisters screamed and backed away, suddenly a few black shadows came up in darkness, and everyone was scared.

After seeing what it was, the two immediately chased the seafood they wanted to escape with excitement.

The two crew members reached out to Qin Yu and pulled him onto the deck.

"Huh?" Qin Yu's eyes shook as soon as the sole of his foot stepped on the deck.

Top-heavy tiredness came to my heart, shook his head, the line of sight in front of him turned into a thin seam.

In the final scene, Zhang Jingxun stretched out her hand and ran towards herself with tears overflowing from her panicked eyes.

‘Fuck, I’m playing off!’

Chapter 558: Almost an adult fucked

Super Silver, the master cabin.

After an inspection, it was confirmed that Qin Yu had just gone to sleep.

Zhang Jingyu, Zhang Jingxun, and the other crew members were relieved.

If something happens to the boss, all of them will be implicated.

I can’t keep my job, and it’s already a thank good thing if I don’t have a lawsuit.

Fortunately, the boss Ji Ren has his own vision and nothing has happened!

He must have been holding his breath for too long in the water, causing hypoxia.

The load is too large after the sudden oxygen supply, causing the body to activate the protective mechanism and repair it during sleep.

This is an instinctive emergency mechanism that is not uncommon, and it's not a big deal.

However, after discussion, it was decided to drive the Super Silver to return.

Hypoxia can not only cause damage to the body, but the brain is the key...

The boss is asleep now, who is sure he has nothing to do.

It's better to go ashore as soon as possible, and treat any problems in time!

In this way, Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun's long-awaited sea trip ended in a hurry, but they didn't care anymore.

One heart is completely attached to Qin Yu: 'Boss, don't have anything to do with you! '

The good days of the two sisters have just begun. They don't want to miss this wealth, and they don't want this powerful man who brutally broke into their hearts to disappear.

In fact, all worries are unnecessary.

The reason why Qin Yu went into a coma was entirely due to exhaustion.

One thing they said was right, this is the instinctive emergency mechanism of the body, allowing him to recover during sleep.

In Qin Yu's body, tens of billions of nanoworms are dormant!

The biological engine stalled, waiting for the host to wake up...

In the cell wall and blood, more nanoworms are on standby, waiting for activation instructions.

After experiencing a brief activation, recognize the Lord.

After entered Qin Yu's body, they turned on the standby state again.

Like the cells and molecules that exist in Qin Yu's body, with the changes in the bio-magnetic field, they 'float with the waves in his body.'

If you have to describe it, they are floating in Qin Yu's body, floating, waiting for the day to fulfill his mission.

As for why is this happening? ? ?

Because, as a 'battery', Qin Yu cannot provide the energy for all nanoworms to move.

If all the nanoworms in his body are activated, the result will be...

Make a mummy instantly, fresh and warm...

And the reason why he is exhausted now is because of his performance under the water.'

Manipulate Nanoworms to leave the body, and the energy consumption will increase exponentially due to distance.

Like Qin Yu, he uses nanoworms as a 'whip spear' to catch seafood...

I am afraid that he is the first person since ancient times.

This is because he is too excited and has not studied the instructions carefully.

Otherwise, there will be no such misunderstandings and jokes.

When the ship docked at the pier, the sky was already dark.

Looking at the boss who is still sleeping on the bed, no one can pay attention to what to do.

Sent to the hospital?

Will it cause unnecessary misunderstanding? If the media is brought in, it will definitely cause him trouble.

Also, who asks how to explain?

"Don't wait any longer, I don't think he seems to have something."

After everyone talked and talked about it, it was Li Jing who made up her mind in the end.

When not watching live events, Li Jingyu is always in the front, and she is more active when interacting.

But if something big is really going to happen, it's the younger sister Li Jingxun who is more decisive.

This class is most of the day, three poles in the sun.

The sun shone through the glass, and Qin Yu's consciousness gradually woke up from the darkness.

'So tired. 'I want to open my eyes, but find that I can't do it.

There was a voice in my ear, and I concentrated on listening. It was Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun who were talking.

The two sisters are discussing their impressions of him, the senses that happened these days, etc...

Hearing this, Qin Yu was not in a hurry to open his eyes.

"You said, do you really want to follow him?"

"It's the same as anyone, why not find a good one?"

"Men, there is no such thing as a flower or not, just to see if there is capital..."

"Instead of using the best time and youth as a bet, and expecting him to succeed step by step, he will not abandon his yellow-faced woman, it is better to make the best choice from the beginning!"

This was like Zhang Jingyu said, and Qin Yu felt helpless when he noticed that his physical strength had not recovered.

If his physical strength recovers, he can use the "Nanoworm" to see who is talking.

"...Then, just follow him like this?"

"Of course not, be realistic... When the two of us are old, there will always be a day of being abandoned."

"It's also possible that I got bored first..."

"It's not impossible, so before I get tired, should I make more money?"

"What then? Buy a house, buy gold, invest in financial management?"

"Will you? Of course, investing in yourself is the best choice. As long as we maintain a beautiful face and a perfect body, we sisters are afraid of being rejected if we join hands?"

The topic of the conversation became more and more biased, and it became more explicit, and in the end it had begun to discuss the private focus.

"Hmm~" Qin Yu's eyelids began to flash with a hum in his nose.

The two sisters sitting by the bed immediately jumped up, and said with surprise on their faces: "Wake up, wake up, wake up."

Before the words fell, Qin Yu had already opened his eyes.

It's just that his weak performance of being hollowed out by alcohol makes Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jing look down frequently.

Her shoulders moved up and down from time to time, and her mouth made a strange chuckle of chuckle.

"Laugh when you want to laugh. When you wait at night, you don't have much time to laugh, you just cry." Although Qin Yu's tone was weak, the meaning and 'threat' in the words were not at all empty.

Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun were even more frightened, and they waved their hands quickly and said, "No, I didn't laugh."

"It's an older sister (a younger sister)."

"It's you x2 obviously."

"I don't have x2."

"Don't talk like me x2."

"..." Brother Yu laughed on the spot, are you two acting double with me?

"Okay, help me up." Asking them to lift themselves up, Qin Yu saw the dock outside.

This is back...

is also good, just because he was hungry: "Jing Yu, come and help me order a takeaway."

Hearing his call, Zhang Jingyu stopped arguing with her sister. She took her mobile phone and sat beside Qin Yu, and turned on "I'm starving to death" to order.

Recent food, highest score, recommendation index, comments from netizens...

Qin Yu chose the hot pot he wants to eat the most: "All the dishes are the same, with two servings each for the yellow throat and upper brain."

"So much, have you finished eating?" Li Jingyu said so, without stopping her fingers.

I checked all the dishes, and ordered the upper brain and yellow throat by the way.

"It's enough for me to eat by myself." Qin Yu was not afraid that they were surprised, because there was more to eat in reality.

In the northwest, it's not uncommon to eat noodles and bowls and soak buns and cabbies!

The northern guy is just like that, eats a lot, and enjoys it...

slap a big bowl over, feed the cat?

After ordering the meal, she found that there was blood on his face. Zhang Jing asked with curiosity and worry: "Brother Yu, are you okay?"

"Yeah! Why did you faint suddenly?" Zhang Jingyu said. It's okay, she held her breath for too long. "The excuses they can think of, Brother Yu can naturally also think of it.

This is the best explanation. I will call everyone over and warn me later.

Give everyone a red envelope again, and that's it.

No one will take this little thing to heart, including Qin Yu...

It's just that the lesson this time made him improve his memory.

He has always believed that his body has reached a level far beyond ordinary people.

This time, because I was always interested, I was almost sucked up by Nanoworms!

Therefore, if one cannot be arrogant (arrogant), one sheet will be frustrated (being beaten).

After waiting for 40 minutes, Qin Yu asked the crew to grill the seafood he caught last night, and the hot pot was finally delivered.

The guy even put it aside, and put water on the pot rack.

Gululu~

It was steaming hot, and the bottom of the butter pot inside gradually melted, and the aroma was floating everywhere.

Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun sat next to him one by one, and served him with meat and vegetables...

Brother Yu has to open his mouth and wait to eat.

This little day...whatever!

Chapter 559: Lightly cooked

Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun, who had a hot pot meal, were frightened and exclaimed.

Two people fed Qin Yu together, but they couldn't keep up with his eating speed.

Take a bite here, take a bite over there, hahaha...

What does it mean to eat, that's it.

The food ingested is quickly broken down into energy and absorbed by the body with the assistance of Nanoworms.

is then transformed into the biological energy required by the nanoworm, and then enters its body, cyclically.

"Kirin, why don't you remind me?" His physical strength gradually recovered, and Qin Yu also had time to sort out the whole story.

The hidden danger of nanoworms, Qilin didn't take the initiative to remind himself?

This made Qin Yu dissatisfied, and began to doubt whether its intelligence level was lower than expected?

"The energy consumed will not endanger your life, the cordon has not been triggered, and the active analysis and identification warning has not been activated. Is it authorized?"

After communicating with the 'kylin', Qin Yu realized that he did not authorize him.

Without authorization, 'Kirin' shall not interfere with Qin Yu's decision.

Unless it involves life threats and reaches a critical point.

And what happened last night will only make him tired and weak, and will not cause life threats.

No, he replied as soon as he woke up and had something to eat.

"Authorize, turn on the intelligent assist warning, all instructions need to be confirmed by me, unless I am in a coma, which involves life safety, and after being awake and out of danger, I will take over again..."

A series of brand-new commands are entered into the agreement, and Kylin will independently optimize the content of the agreement to achieve the best results.

The best here refers to 'Qin Yu.'

What's good for him is the best choice...

"Protocol correction...through..." Kylin's tone fluctuates.

has become more humane and humane.

Various small frames and signs that only he saw appeared on the edge of Qin Yu's line of sight.

He seems to be driving a body, starting and observing from the perspective of a third party.

looked up at Zhang Jingyu, and a prompt box popped up.

Whether to search for target information, confirm/cancel.

Qin Yu clicks 'Confirm.'

brush~

The personal information like waterfall slides in front of him, and Qin Yu sees everything related to her.

Even the hidden information, as long as it is on the Internet...

All the trajectories from her birth to the present, all appeared in front of her eyes.

Qin Yu can get useful information from it like swiping the screen, just ignore/delete the useless ones.

In addition, detailed data such as temperature, environment, oxygen content and physical signs are displayed.

so much so that in front of him is a dazzling variety of strange frames...

Qin Yu tried to close all useless frames such as temperature, weather, and environment, and the result went well!

‘Kirin’ has become more humane and more intimate.

Brother Yu was still eating feasting, the operation in his mind did not delay his mouth.

When the last piece of bamboo shoot was swallowed, only the thickened soup base boiled in the butter soup pot.

"Comfortable!" Qin Yu showed a new-born smile and walked out with his arms wide open.

At this moment, his physical strength has been fully recovered, and he no longer needs to sit sluggishly and wait for others to wait for him, and be a ‘kidney-deficiency young man with no hands or feet. ’

You can see without guessing what other people think.

‘Look, just say that you have to be temperate, and you will lose money sooner or later. ’

You can turn your gaze to Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun who are waiting next to you: "I'm happy to lose my life by 10 years!"

How about it, the face slapped quickly and ruthlessly?

.....

.....

No matter how good the plan is, it cannot withstand sudden changes.

The two sisters of the Zhang family had just left, Qin Yu was thinking of stopping for two days, Cui Geng called and asked him to go back.

said that someone in the house made a mistake and made an amazing achievement!

As Qin Yu guessed, it is 'regenerated activated carbon. '

How can Qin Yu, the boss, have to go back for such a big thing?

It's weird that the boss is indifferent to the big money business.

After I went back, I had to cooperate with him to show the feeling of 'shocked', 'comfort', and 'joy'.

This is not difficult for Yu brother, old actor, Men Qing!

Besides, he should also go back.

Hk-035 is still parked in the warehouse. Although there is an order from "Qin Yu", no one will enter.

But if you stop for a long time, someone will inevitably wonder what is inside?

"Kirin, are you sure you can achieve real-time control?" Qin Yu still couldn't help asking.

Remotely control the mining machine to mine in space. Qin Yu has no doubt that Qilin can do this.

But it said 'real-time' feedback, which is a bit exaggerated.

Is it possible that the command can still be received and transmitted in an instant with a span of 100,000 or a million light-years?

"Yes, I'm pretty sure!" Qilin.

got its affirmative answer again, and Qin Yu no longer doubted it.

After taking over the system of hk-035, send it to the space for a circle, and it will naturally get the answer.

Yu brother is curious, will it encounter aliens by chance? ? ?

In other words, whether there are aliens in the universe, Qin Yu is full of curiosity and desire to explore.

He is a person who is good at studying and exploring.

Boarding the Shanghai Airlines plane, the flight attendant smiled and said hello to Qin Yu: "Mr. Qin, you are welcome to take Hainan Airlines again."

He is now a familiar face, the flight attendants on the lines of Feiyudu, Shangdu, and Hudu.

There is hardly anyone who doesn't know Qin Yu, not to mention that the flight attendant on this flight is still Xing Lu's friend.

"Yeah." Qin Yu smiled and nodded, noticing the sadness between her eyebrows.

Although the flight attendant was hiding well, Qin Yu's observation power was too strong.

is not only external, but also directly deep inside.....

Mood value: 65↓.

Isn't that clear enough?

"After taking off, give me a glass of water." Qin Yu said to the flight attendant.

"Okay, I'll take it to you myself." The flight attendant said and glanced at the newcomer next to him, and the other party's tricks were about to press on Qin Yu.

As a good sister of Xing Lu, she can't do her best to watch her man for her sister.

In other words, her man seems to be handsome again?

Such a gentle, handsome, tough, and courteous son is too attractive.

Don't say it's an outsider, even she occasionally has some * thoughts!

'Eh, it's a pity that I got married early. If the flight attendant is not married now, he will have to argue with Xing Lu about anything.

In front of a man like , what a 'good sister' is no longer important.

"It's a pity..." I sighed in my heart, and the plane took off smoothly.

Waiting for the prompt to sound, the flight attendant unfastened the seat belt and began to provide services to the passengers.

The service scope of the flight attendant is naturally first class and business class.

Actually, there are not many people There are four positions in total, two people and two empty.

A senior flight attendant is in charge of business class today. She only needs to be responsible for two first-class guests.

A short flight makes work easier.

came to him with clear water, the flight attendant deliberately joked: "Boss, your water, do you want me to feed you?"

"Sit down for a chat?" Qin Yu looked at the seat beside him.

The guest next door looked at the two in surprise, and said, 'When did the stewardess be so enthusiastic? '

Carefully think about turning, and my heart said that when I wait for the meeting, do I have to come for a water feeding service?

Can you take it one step further...it's very interesting to think about it!

"It's not compliant..." The flight attendant thought about it, and squatted down in front of him: "That's it."

Noble and elegant makeup and manners, the right leg is bent forward, the left leg is slightly tilted on the right leg, and the hands are folded in front of the knee.

The flight attendant at this moment has fully displayed the woman's elegant and charming posture.

Tell Qin Yu with a simple action, what is the ultimate temptation of a light mature woman...

Men only like being 18 years old forever?

Hehe, that's the seductiveness and elegance of your sister that you have never seen before.

Green peaches or ripe peaches, which one is delicious, do I need to ask?

Chapter 560: Be cautious

Active analysis is turned on:

Heartbeat 121, shortness of breath, increased hormone secretion, active brain nerves, target is in estrus...

'Wait, wait, who told you to come out? Qin Yu interrupted the voice in his head.

Kylin: It's you, the active analysis and recognition warning has been turned on!

"..." Brother Yu was stupid.

I turned on the authorization, is it for you to do this?

'In the future, unless I ask about it, don't come out on my own. Qin Yu amended the new instructions with a headache.

'The command has been received. 'Kirin.

"Passenger? Passenger? Qin Yu..." Perceiving the strange look behind him, the flight attendant couldn't help but push him.

has a little pride in his heart, it seems that his charm is still the same as before.

Who said that only little girls are the most beautiful?

showed a hint of pride, and the flight attendant waited for him to speak.

"Seeing you have something on your mind, you can talk a few words if you want to say!" If it weren't for Xing Lu's affection, Qin Yu would not talk too much about her personal affairs.

He has never been a talkative, he has always been like this...

"..." The flight attendant looked complicated, and his thousand words turned into a sigh: "Eh, it's all for the children."

"Do you do everything in the house?" Qin Yu remembered that the other party mentioned it during the last meal.

"Yes." The flight attendant said: "The child is about to enter elementary school, but he hasn't gotten a place for admission yet. It's too difficult to go to school now."

This is not just a sentiment, but a fact.

The education reform has changed from 'elitism' to 'popularization', but at the same time it has also widened the gap between the educated.

The era of overwhelming college students will be gone forever.

In the future, only schools like 985/211 can be called a real college student. '

All other things were banned and transformed into 'higher technical colleges. ' is the so-called 'higher' educated talents who will enter the society with a more professional, specialized, and younger look.

It may not be a few years before the era of Guangzong Yaozu when a college student can be born in a family is coming again.

"Which school do you want to go to?" Qin Yu asked casually.

"I am in elementary school, and I and the guy in my family are busy, and I don't have time to take care of the children.

Parents are old, and they are unable to help with homework and take care of the transportation. It is better to send him to a boarding school. Although his grades are not as good as the second elementary school in the experiment, and the first elementary school in Zhongguan, the difference is not too much.

can also cultivate children's self-care and self-control abilities. I heard that the children inside know how to manage themselves at a young age, and they don't need adults to worry about it. "

Speaking of the selected elementary school, the flight attendant was eloquent with a proud smile on his face.

But waiting for her to think about her situation, it instantly looked like a deflated balloon, becoming sluggish.

"Everything is good at this school, but we are ordinary families. We have no money but no power." The flight attendant shook his head and sighed again: "Eh~"

"What's the child's name?" Qin Yu asked.

"What?" The flight attendant didn't figure it out, who was she asking?

"I said, what is your child's name?" Qin Yu glanced at her information and said calmly, "Mu Qing."

Bai Muqing is the name of the flight attendant.

When he called so, Bai Muqing reacted: "Li Haoran, my name is Li Haoran."

The other party asked, what can be done?

Thinking of the few words Xing Lu accidentally mentioned, Bai Muqing's heart raised a glimmer of hope.

Maybe the other party has a way to help himself solve this problem.

If this is the case, she must thank each other well, this is her great benefactor!

No one knows how much Bai Muqing has spent the past six months for the children to go to school.

is looking for someone again, and it's also for a relationship.

In the end, no one can give her a quasi-letter. Her husband, friends, friends, patted their chests in the past to ensure that this kind of trivial matter is on her.

The results of it?

When it's time to hire people, I can't even see a shadow.

Qing means flying in the north and south of the sky, the eastern hemisphere in the morning, the western hemisphere in the afternoon...

When you make your own rocket?

So capable, why don't you go to heaven?

Thinking of these things, Bai Muqing was furious.

"Don't worry, I'll call and ask when I land, it shouldn't be a big problem." This kind of trivial matter is a greeting to Ye Jinlan, right?

However, before getting a definite answer, Qin Yu would not say anything to death.

"Okay." Bai Muqing nodded, then looked at him moved: "Thank you, Qin Yu, thank you so much. I will invite you to dinner when I land."

Qin Yu shook his head with a light smile, and said: "I won't be too late when I'm done. I can't guarantee it!"

"It will be great if you are willing to help. Another day, I will call Xing Lu another day, let's be together." Bai Muqing also noticed that she was a little too proactive, for fear that the other party might have misunderstood.

feels inexplicably disappointed inside, and sincerely feels gratified for the good luck of the good sisters.

There is still a trace of envy, and she pretends to be nothing at the bottom of her heart!

"Little brother." The passenger sitting next door smiled and said hello: "My name is Liang, that...I just heard you say that I can help my child go to elementary school?"

"You heard me wrong." Qin Yu smiled politely, and then said to Bai Muqing: "I will go to bed first, and call me when I arrive."

"Okay, Mr. Qin." Bai Muqing suppressed the excitement in her heart and resumed her graceful demeanor again.

This love is in my heart, she will repay it sooner or later.

Now that there are outsiders, it's better to say a few words less.

After all, sometimes this kind of topic is very sensitive, and she doesn't want to cause unnecessary trouble for him because of the other party's help.

Seeing Qin Yu just leaned back wearing the blindfold, he obviously didn't want to talk to himself anymore.

The passenger surnamed Liang sat back in embarrassment, saying, 'at a young age, arrogance is not small... Seeing his guilty conscience, he must be bragging.'

As for why, just look at the young lady flight attendant.

There is a knife on the head of the color word, so why don't young people learn something better.

It depends on your cowhide exploding, how should you round it?

...

...

After sleeping until the plane landed, Qin Yu stretched out comfortably.

got up and walked out, "Mr. Qin, if you are not in a hurry, can you wait for me?"

When was about to leave the cabin door, Bai Muqing whispered in his ear: "I want to get news as soon as possible... If it is not convenient, then forget it."

The other party was really upset about this, and now he finally has new hope.

just wondered if she could get the news at the first time, whether it was okay or not, so that she would have a bottom line.

Otherwise, when she comes home, she has to eat or sleep.

"Someone will come to pick me up... Then, let's add a WeChat account, and I will get you a message later." Qin Yu said and found the QR code.

Add a good WeChat account, and Qin Yu walked out of the airport alone.

At the door, a car with a special license plate was waiting for him. Ye Jinlan came in Yelao's car.

Seeing Ye Jinlan who got down from the co-pilot, Qin Yu frowned and asked, "How to drive this car?"

"It's not my attention, just tell it yourself!" Ye Jinlan pointed to the back row, and Qin Yu looked down.

Good fellow, Ye Lao is here in person.

"Little Friend Qin, my old man personally invites you to a banquet, you must give this face, hahaha..." Ye Lao laughed like an old naughty boy.

Qin Yu was embarrassed, the old man had come in person, no matter how he could say no.

Besides, my granddaughter is standing beside me staring at me.

Looking at her like that, there was a big disagreement and a showdown posture: It's a showdown, Qin Yu put me to sleep!

In this situation, can Brother Yu succumb?

"I'm going to see you this time, let's get in the car and say?" Qin Yu said and got into the car.

As a responsible and responsible youth, the traditional virtues of respecting the old and loving the young should not be lost.

At this time, behind the pillars in the airport, Mr. Liang's eyes were about to fall out.

As soon as he got out of the gate, he happened to see Qin Yu on the roadside.

Out of curiosity, UU read www.uukanshu.com to see what kind of old man the other party was, and then he saw the car with the special license plate.

and Ye Jinlan standing beside the other party...

Ye Lao didn't know him, he didn't have enough level, even if he wanted to know him, he didn't have the qualification.

As a businessman who has been in trouble for more than ten years, Ye Jinlan has met several times from afar.

Some are at banquets, and a few times at bars!

is just a few glances from a distance, not enough to come forward to talk, let alone introduce myself.

Now, Mr. Liang finally remembered.

Why do I feel that Qin Yu is a bit familiar? Isn't he the young man playing in the bar with Miss Ye?

Thinking of thinking that he was bragging before, Mr. Liang couldn't help sweating.

Fortunately, he has had a good habit of being cautious in his words and deeds for many years. If he just made a sarcasm and offended the other party...

Decades of hard work, I'm afraid it will be turned into ashes in one day...

"Be cautious in words and deeds, be careful in words and deeds." Muttering this policy of being in the world, Mr. Liang wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and walked out quickly.

He has to find a place to drink two glasses to relieve the pressure in his heart.

Today is really exciting, but with this kind of stimulation, Mr. Liang doesn't want to come again in his life.
