Chapter 611: Demon City

At night, there was a strong wind, lightning and thunder.

A sudden torrential rain broke the tranquility of the night. In the rooms of W Hotel, heat waves kept coming out from the cracks in the windows.

1 o'clock, 2 o'clock, 3 o'clock...

Standing up from the carpet, Qin Yu straightened the slumped dining table and raised the slanted sofa.

Others, after two glances, Qin Yu decided to give up.

Or leave it to the room service tomorrow!

Anyway, these things should also be changed, "Go wash first?"

"Hug me, my legs are numb." The consumption of physical strength by Jiu-Jitsu made Talisa unable to even get up.

Wash her up, send it to the room, and lie down on the bed.

Qin Yu found the gift he had brought in the living room that seemed to have been robbed.

A rectangular tube box measuring forty to fifty centimeters is tied with a blue ribbon.

"Remember to keep the gift to Old Qiao personally." Qin Yu solemnly handed it over to her.

"What's inside?" Talisa turned the tube box curiously.

"A surprise!" Qin Yu blinked mysteriously.

...

Handing the gift to Talisa, Qin Yu waited for a reply with peace of mind.

He Wu also commuted to and from get off work as usual, punctual, stable and reliable.

It's just that the older sister-in-law comes to the house more and more frequently recently, putting on a vow to never give up.

The purpose, of course, is for my brother-in-law who climbed up to Gao Zhier.

"Wu, it's not that I said you. People have the right to use it. Who knows how long that right can be held in his hand, if one day it is gone, it's a shame!"

"Sister, our man has said that, he can't help." Seeing her husband not speaking, the woman said for him: "He is just a driver."

"The driver also depends on whose driver it is, can he be an ordinary driver?" The sister-in-law was reluctant.

Make it clear that you don't stop if you don't achieve your goal. He has to help if he does it, or if he doesn't help.

Why, after climbing Gao Zhi'er, he forgot all the family members?

I am his wife's relatives, so let him arrange a job for his nephew. How big is it?

"I can't help it." He Wu still replied that sentence, he couldn't do it.

Don't say he can't open this mouth, even if he wants to open it, he won't do it for her. For this sister-in-law, being able to keep her for dinner is already a great patience.

"Old He?" Qin Yu yelled when he found He Wu was in a daze and didn't notice when he got into the car.

"Boss, I'm distracted." He Wu said skillfully in gear and started.

"I think you have something on your mind!" As the car drove forward, Qin Yu asked casually, "Is there something difficult?"

"No, it's all pretty good." He Wu replied affirmatively.

"Well, that's good." Since the other party didn't want to say it, it was a private matter, and Qin Yu didn't ask more.

Today, he is going out for a long trip.

Go to Yaodu and meet the low-key industry leader from Flash Express.

This time on business, there are still some personal matters to be busy!

Lazy cat happened to be performing in Yaodu. Because of the event party, there was a gap of two days. Brother Yu is blessed this time!

Taking advantage of the two-day holiday, Qin Yu just took a lazy cat to stroll around, and let her rest by the way.

If there is no one to accompany, this Nizi will have to continue to practice even if she is on vacation!

"Old Ho, you don't need to go this time. There will be someone to entertain you, so we will give you two days off."

He Sheng in the demon city had already arranged it, and naturally someone would receive Qin Yu.

Even if there is no one, the hotel will arrange the corresponding service, and it will be troublesome to bring the driver to the past.

"Boss, I'd better follow you." He Wu said.

"It's okay." Seeing that he still doesn't give up, Qin Yu smiled: "In this way, when I come back from this trip, let's practice."

"..." He Wu's eyes were suspicious.

Although his figure is quite good, it may be the perfect proportion that He Wu has ever seen.

But being in good shape doesn't mean you can fight!

Especially the figure trained in this kind of gym is completely empty in the eyes of people who can really fight.

He is a serious Grand Tournament champion, not a soldier.

"I said, it's better to come back." Qin Yu took Xu Meixin into the gate when he got off the bus at the airport.

As for He Wu, his head is full of doubts.

But since the boss insists, he who is a subordinate can only listen.

Besides, there are still those few bears following!

I don't know where the boss recruited the people, and nothing else, dedication is a tight-knit piece.

Whenever, He Wu could see their shadows following behind.

VIP service throughout the entire journey. After boarding, there are only Qin Yu and his secretary in the first class.

"What do you need to arrange yourself." Qin Yu put his blindfold on his head, and then tilted his head to rest.

In fact, people have already entered "The Scary Demon", and he is still thinking about the exoskeleton mecha promised by the old man!

"Welcome, beloved of heaven." Appeared again, the old man squinted his eyes and spoke proficiently, and then his expression suddenly changed: "It's you, here comes my brother."

"..." Looking at the image of the old man with a bit of ridicule and cunning in his words, Qin Yuxin said, 'how many people have this caused misfortune? '

Don't ask, the mantra of Gang must have been learned from a certain player.

What a good old man, he just gave up his studies!

"Mission." Qin Yu is not used to nonsense, making more mistakes, but the task is more realistic.

"Here you are." The old man threw out the task scroll recorded on the fur with one hand, and gave him a key with the other.

"This is the room key to store the reward. To complete the task, I will tell you the address." The old man was as refreshing as ever.

Only this time, he kept things elsewhere.

The main reason is that the thing is too big and too eye-catching. If it is brought out directly and targeted by someone, it will only cause trouble.

In this world where technology is almost cut off and morality collapsed.

Don't expect kindness, unless you are impatient...

Open the leather scroll and glance at the task.

Qin Yu turned and left the underground along the corridor.

Only this time, he is no longer the only one who wants to leave.

"Brother, how long have you been in?" A slightly wretched voice came from behind.

There is no need to look back, Qin Yu has already seen his looks.

Blond hair, a handsome face with sharp edges and corners, and a wretched smile that is extremely contradictory.

His big eyes, which should have been bright, forced him to squeeze into a small slit, treacherous and unkind shining in it.

Qin Yu turned and raised his hand, and the electromagnetic pulse gun pointed at the opponent's forehead.

Let the false smile on his face disappear instantly, "Brother, what does this mean?"

"I hate others stepping into my security field." Qin Yu said calmly.

A fierce stern flashed in the other person's eyes, and he smiled and said: "Okay, pay attention to privacy, understand."

After two steps back, the other party shrugged easily, indicating that he had already complied with.

A cold warning sounded in my ear again: "My safety distance is a bit far away..."

After exiting 500 meters, Wang Xuan looked at the leaving figure with a gloomy expression.

This person, he took it down!

All the way west, Qin Yu turned a blind eye to the little fleas following him behind him.

In the air around him, countless black-gray, indistinguishable 'dust' was observing everything up and down.

Nanoworms, Qin Yu didn't know how they got in with him.

But during the last mission, he discovered the existence of these little guys, and at the same time questioned his identity as a 'novice'.

If it's just a 'mental projection,' why do nanoworms appear.

And in those discussion posts on the Internet, some people have said that the game has big bugs.

Some people are powerful, some run fast, some know 'skills,' some know how to brush 666.

It seems that everyone is endowed with different characteristics when they are 'born.'

And this trait is closely related to their actual performance.

Think about it the other way around, can the gains in the game get feedback in reality?

This is an unsolved mystery, about the answer.

Miracle Networks has remained silent so far, and Qin Yu also received the following feedback, but he did not give any explanation.

One hour later, Qin Yu took off his blindfold.

The plane was about to land, and the safety warning light came on again.

Qin Yu picked up the drink from the cup holder and drank it methodically.

The little bug following him has been resolved by him.

Can easily use the real-world Maga and Jiu-Jitsu, coupled with Qin Yu's extreme control over the body (nanoworm) increase.

Take an electromagnetic pulse gun that is called a 'god' for newcomers. If you manage to fix a few fish, you will be tired and half dead.

Brother Yu also don't playgasoline!

But the task has not been completed yet, this time the task is a bit troublesome, he needs to go to another refuge, find something from it and give it to the old man.

At this time, Qin Yu's role was hiding among the ruins of the wilderness.

Like a corpse buried in thick garbage, waiting to start again.

"Here." Qin Yu and Xu Meixin walked out of the cabin door in the warm and elegant smile of the stewardess.

Outside, He Sheng drove his Land Rover, chatting with the young woman who had just hooked up.

Seeing the two of you coming and going, looking like they are in full swing, I am afraid that they will have to fight tonight!

"Brother Yu." Seeing Qin Yu, He Sheng said something to the young woman and greeted him quickly.

First gave him a big hug, then looked at Xu Meixin and said, "Beauty, hello, welcome to Yaodu."

Chapter 612: Taikoo Hui

"Brother Yu, you have to remember to visit your brothers often. This journey will last for a year, and you won't even be able to see you in person."

He Sheng jokingly complained while driving the car, but they really haven't seen each other for a long time.

"I also think, but time doesn't allow it." Qin Yu pointed to his side: "If you don't believe me, you can ask our time manager."

"..." Xu Meixin stroked her hair with her fingers, and smiled awkwardly and politely.

How did she answer this? The boss joked with her friends.

What else can I say besides a smile?

It was the young woman in the front co-pilot who frequently looked at the two people behind with the corner of her eye.

This young man looked much younger than He Sheng, so why did he even call him brother?

There is also that woman, who has a good temperament, and she has a very advanced feeling at first glance.

You can only watch from a distance, not play with it!

That's right, it's this kind of advanced sense, so angry!

When a beauty sees a beauty, her first reaction is never sympathy, but hostility and unfriendliness from the heart.

As for whether you will be a friend or an enemy in the future, as long as there is no interest involved, there is a high probability that you will be the "plastic sisters." '

"Let's go to dinner first?" It was lunch time, and He Sheng, as the host, naturally wanted to greet him with thoughtfulness.

"No hurry, Brother Che, pick up someone first." Tell the other person the address, and He Sheng drove the car to the hotel.

From a distance, Qin Yu saw the lazy cat looking at the roadside.

"Lazy cat." After lowering the window, Qin Yu pulled the car door and moved it inside.

"Qin Yu." Lan Yue ran over and saw so many people in the car, obviously a little surprised: "Hello everyone."

The gentle appearance gave everyone the first impression of her birth: an expensive doll that needs exquisite care.

Let Lan Yue get in the car first, and close the door while sitting next to her.

Qin Yu held her arms and introduced: "My girlfriend, Lan Yue."

"Miss Lan Yue, I'm He Sheng, Brother Yu's friend." He Sheng took the initiative to say hello.

"Hello." Lazy cat nodded politely and smiled.

"Hello, Miss Lan Yue, just tell me to drive." The young woman in the co-pilot was reluctant to reveal her real name.

After all, what she is doing now is not easy for outsiders to know.

"This is my accompanying secretary, Secretary Xu."

"Hello, Miss Lan Yue." Secretary Xu politely stretched out his right hand.

"Hello, Secretary Xu."

After greeting, He Sheng drove to the hotel, looking at Qin Yu sitting in the middle through the rearview mirror from time to time.

One left and one right, gentle and pure, without the whiteness of the dust of the world. Noble and dignified, more like the charm of a wealthy lady than a secretary.

Admired and admired, the same is human, why is the gap so big?

How can you not eat seafood when you arrive in Yaodu?

Although it was noon, the small street shop selected by He Sheng was still very busy.

Walking into the store, the table is full.

He Sheng asked for a small table and set it at the door, explaining to a few people: "Don't look at this store, but the taste is so delicious."

Several of them are not very particular people. It should be said that as long as Qin Yu doesn't mind, other people don't mind, He Sheng doesn't care.

Sitting and ordering, a few good-looking seafood were brought up after a short while.

Abalone, sea urchin, Shajing fresh oysters from South Australia, bright pigeon, black pepper cowboy bones, satay money belly...

There are also a few vegetarian dishes, mainly for ladies.

After all, not everyone likes seafood!

"In the evening, let's go to the barbecue street, the food stalls, sipping alcohol, and slurping skewers." He Sheng has already arranged the itinerary for a few days.

"Forget it, I have something to do tonight!" Qin Yu smiled and looked at the lazy cat next to him and said: "Wait the day after tomorrow, let's get together again."

Seeing that Qin Yu is going to accompany his girlfriend alone in the two-person world, He Sheng will naturally not bother him boringly.

"Okay, then I'll wait. By the way, see if other people have time. Let's have a small party inside the guild."

He Sheng wasn't just here to pick up people, there were business affairs waiting to be done.

"You arrange." Qin Yu agreed.

It has been more than two years since the establishment of the guild, and the gathering days...

Uh, not to mention it!

In short, if you don't arrange a Patty, your feelings will fade.

After eating, He Sheng left with his newly hooked young woman in the praise of everyone.

Only Qin Yu and his side were left at the scene.

"Secretary Xu, have you arranged the car and hotel?" Qin Yu said.

"It's all arranged, boss, I will send you the information." Secretary Xu forwarded the information to him.

"Well, you can freely arrange for these two days, and I will notify you if necessary.

Now we are going back to the hotel, how about you? "Hearing Qin Yu's question, look at the girl next to him.

Xu Meixin chose to stay in place, wander around, and appreciate the scenery of the demon capital.

"Be careful." Nodding to her, Qin Yu and Lazy Cat boarded the Maybach sent by the hotel.

Four Seasons Hotel, 28-story presidential suite, surrounded by atmosphere!

Qin Yu and Lazy Cat are lying on the massage bed, enjoying the hotel's supreme SPA service.

Today's services must always be crowned with a tall name.

It's obvious that it's so high, and it's actually the same, letting Yu tell the teacher who hasn't had a bathhouse to press comfortably.

With this strength, what about tickling?

Qin Yu is satisfied with the facilities of the presidential suite. The entire room is 475 square meters, including the master bedroom, guest room, and SPA steam room.

Gym, party bar, business room and small meeting room, etc.

All the living and business needs of the guests can be met, and the room rate of at least 58,000 per night is not in vain.

Perceiving the technician behind him once again gently skimming the edges and corners of the lower abdomen with his fingertips, Qin Yu opened his eyes: "Okay, let's stop here!"

MD, what a supreme SPA, I feel that I have been molested.

The technician with blurred eyes still didn't understand the state, until Qin Yu repeated the service again, she suddenly realized that she fell into a panic.

"Sir, I'm sorry, if you are not satisfied with the service, just ask!" The female technician was afraid that she would be complained by customers.

One complaint may cause her to lose her job here.

Seeing the other party's tearful expression, Qin Yu waved his hand clearly and boredly: "It's okay, let's get out!"

With a sense of anxiety, the female technician left with the basket.

Lan Yue opened her eyes and smiled mischievously: "Isn't that lady technician very good-looking?"

Qin Yu gave her a white look, and the warning under her eyes made the lazy cat obediently put away her thoughts, and put out her tongue cutely and turned her head to the other side.

He was left with a back of his head, but his heart was beating.

It's over, the big devil is angry.

Tonight, I am not going to die, am I?

...

...

It's impossible to die, how could Brother Yu be willing to die.

It is that the whole person has a tendency to be badly played, so that the lazy cat got up from the bed sour and limp after sleeping until noon the next day.

"I'm tired." Sitting on the sofa, shrinking himself into a ball, the lazy cat looked at the vigorous Qin Yu with a bitter expression, "Monster."

"What?" Qin Yu raised his brow.

"Good husband~" The lazy cat shivered and greeted him with a smile.

"Good." After rubbing her head, Qin Yu moved aside to let her rest her head on her lap.

Just basking in the warm sun and enjoying the leisure in the afternoon!

When the lunch was delivered, the lazy cat lay reclining on the sofa with Qin Yu's support, pouting naughty to feed.

"I want you to feed me, my body is aching now, and I don't have the strength to take a spoon." Lazy Cat said coquettishly.

"Okay." With a doting smile, Qin Yu stretched out her hand and rubbed her head in a customary manner, after Lan Yue showed an enjoyable smile.

Only then did she put the dinner plate on her lap and eat it for her a spoonful.

One bite for you, one bite for me...

A simple lunch was eaten for three hours, and the lazy cat has long forgotten what it tasted like in the end.

She only knew that her lips had the scorching heat of tobacco, which was the smell of happiness!

After staying in the room for two nights, Qin Yu finally dragged her out on the afternoon of the day that was about to be parted.

"Go and buy you something delicious, and then take a look at the new summer clothes." At this time, the new summer clothes of major brands have been out for nearly 2 months.

But Lazy Cat just took time out, anyway, she doesn't need to compare with anyone, and there is no need to worry about becoming a talker at a party.

In Yaodu, when it comes to the most luxurious, it must be Taikoo Hui.

Rumor has it that grandma, Hermes, LV, Dior and other big names will all be bought by the team.

The floor is as shiny as a mirror, any dead corners are spotless, even the toilet is fragrant...

A monthly salary of 100,000 is not enough in TaiKoo Hui.

Without the ability of financial freedom, I feel ashamed and guilty just to come in.

You know how high the standard of financial freedom of sand sculpture netizens is!

Although most of the meaning is ridicule, the reality does not seem to be much worse.

Sitting in the Maybach arranged by the hotel, there are really a lot of supercars everywhere at the door.

At a glance, it gives people the feeling of just two words: Hao.

Come in and glance at it. The price is just five or six figures.

I don't know if the toilet smells, and Brother Yu didn't plan to experience it.

But there are indeed people queuing at the door of LV, there are still many people...

Looking at the team, Lan Yue took his hand and said, "Or let's change one. Uniqlo at the door is just fine."

Qin Yu frowned, "Is that the place to buy clothes? I will go less later."

"Oh!" Without asking the reason, she cleverly nodded and agreed, she is just like this.

As for the question of queuing, this one doesn't work, we can't change to another one.

Bringing my own woman to TaiKoo Hui to visit Uniqlo This idea is really amazing!

Brother Yu can't afford it. Isn't it just price and clothes to choose big brands? No, the choice is mind and attention.

There are two kinds of men, those who are willing to spend money to spoil you, and those who are willing to spend time and energy with you.

Brother Yu takes all of the two, he is willing to spend money, but also willing to spend time and energy to accompany him.

Otherwise, how can a woman be willing to keep her duty, with a heart hanging on him.

Of course, strong combat effectiveness is also one aspect.

After all, the path to the soul has long been undefended against him.

That mind, you don't just want to come in, but you want to come out...

Turning to see Hermès, Qin Yu smiled and said: "This is not there, let's go, go to Hermès to see the bag first.

Don't you feel sore and weak? Package, cure all diseases! "

Chapter 613: Branding and design

It is definitely not just talking about it.

Like a lazy cat, this will have been lost in the various styles of Hermès bags on all four walls.

Good-looking, good-looking, all good-looking!

Next to him, two salesmen provided personal services throughout the whole process, and very patiently introduced her to the bags that each stared at for more than 2 seconds.

From the workmanship, design concept, style and audience level, the humor is humorous, and all the information is fully expressed.

This professionalism is commendable.

The enthusiasm of the two comes from Qin Yu's personal customer information.

Just the three Himalayan diamond buckles marked above are enough to make any store send the most sincere greetings and high-standard service specifications.

If it weren't for the store manager's absence, a sign of "Suspension of Business" had been hung up outside the club.

The two cabinet sisters are now thinking about how many goods the other party will get today, and how much money they will be able to match.

Over tens of millions, I don't even dare to think about it!

Even at Hermès, there are only a handful of customers who spend more than 10 million yuan at a time.

That represents the consumption of a house in Zhili City, not just a series of numbers.

However, there must be several millions.

Just when the two felt that they were going to be lucky today, Lazy Cat pointed to an underarm bag and said, "I want this."

"What else?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"It's all about this." Lazy Cat smiled sweetly.

"???" The cabinet sister looked at each other, and a big question mark appeared in her head.

What's the situation, today this is a cutscene.

But choose one, is it a bit too...

In short, I just feel that something is not right, or that I brought a real girlfriend today.

Otherwise, it didn't take long before you got it that you wanted to get caught up and show a positive image of being virtuous and not worshipping money?

The two people instantly made up countless possibilities in their minds. The only thing they didn't expect was that the girl in front of them didn't care about them at all.

Yes, Lazy Cat likes the bags here, but if you don't like it, you must have it.

The first consideration is whether it is practical and suitable for your needs, and whether it can be used.

Therefore, the lazy cat finally chose this underarm bag.

It is small and exquisite, and has enough space to hold personal belongings. It is very suitable to install a key, mobile phone, and lip glaze.

The mini water cup can also be placed inside, so it is enough for her to use.

It won't be heavy, it is troublesome to carry around, "So, it's her."

Lazy Cat took his arm, twisted his body and walked out.

Qin Yu didn't say a word, and accompanied her to the bar, seemingly to check out.

The expressions of the two cabinet sisters instantly changed to helplessness, and their words were dry, they turned out to be just selling a HPassant handbag.

Price: 31.000 yuan.

Although it is very valuable to ordinary people.

But because the two had overestimated Qin Yu's spending power before, now they only have a strong sense of loss.

'Don't worry, maybe the handsome guy will wrap it all up. '

'I think it's possible, look again. '

The two exchanged glances and waited silently.

But until Qin Yu walked out of the store with the lazy cat carrying a small bag, he didn't wait for the phrase "wrap everything."

Qin Yu didn't care about this small amount of money, not to mention the lazy cat's liking.

But he respects Lazy Cat's choice, because he knows very well that even if he buys them all, Lazy Cat cannot walk around with these bags on his back.

Instead of throwing them all at Shangdu or Hudu's house, it is better to take her to the store to buy some latest models every time you see her.

It can not only satisfy her shopping desire, but also maintain enough freshness.

Turned around to Dior, turned around and found that there was nothing to buy.

When he went out to see Balenciaga, Qin Yu wanted to go in and have a look, but was stopped by Lazy Cat.

She never wears high heels, not to mention silk stockings, and she can only take them home when she buys them.

Ok!

Going around in the mall, the lazy cat saw Burberry's crescent bag again, "Wow, it's so cute."

"Go in and take a look." Qin Yu looked at her heartbeat, the shape of the bag is not very big, and decisively decided to start.

Burberry is a veteran luxury brand in the country, but many people may not be familiar with this name.

However, mention it by another name: Burberry.

I believe everyone will suddenly realize, oh, it turned out to be it.

Even if I can't say what it sells, what the brand is, and how influential it is, the name must have been vaguely heard.

Since having the Hollywood celebrity harvester; Tisci as the design director, Burberry has been a blessing in the past two years.

He graduated from the Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design in the fog city, known as the Whampoa of the fashion industry, and joined Givenchy as soon as he graduated.

In the following years, Givenchy's high-definition and explosive models all came from his hands.

High-definition brand not only represents millions of consumption, but also best demonstrates the strength and appearance of a brand.

Before Tisci joined Givenchy, there were only 4 haute couture customers in their family.

But when he left, the number of high-end customers had reached 32.

Is this number too much? many.

Globally active high-end users, all luxury goods together, there are only about 200 people.

;Tisci takes 16% of the customers by one person, don't you say too much?

To be even more exaggerated, Tisci left Givenchy and announced the day he joined Burberry.

Once the news was announced, Burberry's stock price rose by 7.1%.

Drive the stock price of an old luxury brand with one's own strength; Tisci's position in the fashion industry can be seen from this.

There is a saying used by insiders to describe him: Maybe you don't know his name, but he is the idol of your idol.

Like Rihanna, Kardashian, etc., they are all his proper fans.

Oh, right.

Anyone who understands will know very well that Kanye was the one who made his debut.

For a while, the two were intimate and inseparable.

Anything; Tisci produces any new products, you can see them in them.

In the past, big brands like to take the initiative to deliver new products to celebrities, let the other party choose and try them on.

If you really like it, you are lucky to wear it in front of reporters.

But this rule is; Tisci doesn't work well.

The celebrity took the initiative to come to buy, proud to be the first to get his new style, and rushed to present it in front of reporters and fans.

This is strength!

After coming to Burberry, the first thing Tisci did was to change the inherent brand LOGO.

Then boldly enabled the new TB logo, allowing the conspicuous TB logo to appear on its own series of brands.

Later, it returned to the traditional old flower material and used new design and craftsmanship to create the fashion sense required by young people.

Then, all kinds of new products with TBLOGO became popular in the season.

;Tisci has also proved his business level with his strength, and he is a steady leader among contemporary designers.

So, after Qin Yu walked into Burberry with a lazy cat, he soon found many treasures in it.

Ellenpia bag (crescent bag), cashmere trench coat, deer sketch printed T-shirt, printed jumpsuit...

Suddenly, the two seemed to be unable to get out.

In the end, all these fancy items were taken down as Lazy Cat's recent daily outfits.

"The temperature outside is over 30 degrees, what's the use of that trench coat?" Lazy Cat asked helplessly.

"It's useful when the weather changes." Qin Yu could not help but choose to pay.

These things look so good on her.

It's a pity to give up everything, it's better to buy them all.

A T-shirt ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ a bag of 20,000, a windbreaker of more than 20,000, a total of 68,000, Qin Yu came out with a few more bags in his hand.

That's it, it's not over yet, the two moved to Balmain, PRADA, FENDI, Armani...

They also passed through Versace's store, the business was booming, and the influence caused by the 'wrong design' of the year became a thing of the past.

Saying 'practical, simply buy a few,' and then I looked back and found that my hands were full of large and small bags.

The bill has also exceeded 400,000, and the summer and autumn clothes are all alive!

From the fingers to the shoulders, Qin Yu's two arms were so full that there was no gap.

Seeing Qin Yu's face like a silly goose, Lan Yue leaned forward and closed with a smile, squatting on the ground without the strength to stand up.

"Haha, you, you look so cute." Lan Yue smiled happily at Qin Yu, who was full of innocence.

Chapter 614: Really overweight

No matter how good the time is, there is a time to say goodbye.

Sending Lan Yue to the dance troupe's station, Qin Yu walked upstairs with her carrying a large bag and a small bag.

"Wow, Yueyue, you did it." Seeing Qin Yu, the girl from the dance troupe smiled and said, "Good-looking guy, do you have any older brothers or younger brothers?"

"This is true." Qin Yu nodded.

"Really?" The other party's eyes lit up: "Can you introduce us to it?"

"..." How did Qin Yu feel a bit familiar with the same conversation?

It seems that there was such a conversation when I came last time.

"Li Xuegang joined the dance troupe not long ago, before he was in the Hudu dance troupe." Lazy cat explained with a smile.

"In this way, then you should ask other people." Qin Yu said to Li Xue.

Seeing her surprised expression, the lazy cat whispered something in her ear.

After that, Li Xue's expression was stunned, and a blush flashed a little embarrassingly. He smiled and said, "Haha, I was joking."

With a 2-year-old child, she has no time to wait for 16 years.

Although medicine is well-developed nowadays, exquisite maintenance is not obvious even if it is forty or fifty.

"It's okay, Cher, you will still be young after 16 years." Lan Yue said.

"Whoever has to wait 16 years, his heart is old, how can he appreciate the beauty of love?" Li Xue retorted in an angry manner.

"The heart is old and the body is tender." Qin Yu was shocked by Lan Yue's smirk, and the little girl was still learning badly after all.

Qin Yu put things in her room while the two were laughing and joking.

Only then did I know that Li Xue happened to be a roommate living with Lan Yue. When the two went out to perform, they basically ate and lived together, and they had a good relationship.

"Then I will go first." When the dance troupe is about to assemble, the leader takes them to the next performance.

Qin Yu was here and was seen to have a bad influence on Lan Yue.

"Be careful on the road." Lan Yue waved and made a call gesture.

Qin Yu also turned back and waved, smiling and walking away.

When she couldn't see the shadow, Lan Yue was still standing at the window looking out. Suddenly someone hugged her behind her and grabbed her with both hands...

The future is under control!

"Ah, Xueer, don't make trouble." Lan Yue pushed her away with flushed cheeks.

"Hehe, the little girl has grown up, aren't you afraid of the team leader making trouble for you?" Li Xue said with a smile.

A good dancer must have an A, four or two on the chest. In many dance moves, it greatly affects the sense of balance and coordination of the individual.

Not only that, but it also obstructs the line of sight, the center of gravity is unbalanced, and it is easy to cause damage.

A few years ago, tennis player Simona Halep was ridiculed for having a large breast, and finally chose to have breast reduction surgery.

That was not just because of her ridicule, but more importantly for her career.

Just a little bit of breast meat seriously affected her performance.

The same goes for dancers. When have you seen top dancers who are not A?

Not only them, but in many sports, the chest is subject to all kinds of discrimination, malice and negative influences.

Li Xue knew that her dream was to become the lead dancer of the dance troupe.

If she hasn't forgotten it, she should pay attention to her development.

Of course, as long as it is not too large to cause a burden, it will not matter if it is a little longer.

After all, little girls also have to grow up.

After being teased by Li Xue, when she ran to take a bath, Lan Yue lay on the bed not knowing what she was thinking.

Afterwards, suddenly raised his head and looked towards his chest, stretched out his hand to hold the future...shaked, shook...

It seems to be overweight!

...

Returning to the hotel by car, Qin Yu called Secretary Xu to the office: "Is the meeting scheduled for tomorrow?"

In the past two days, Qin Yu has been with Lazy Cat wholeheartedly, and Xu Meixin will naturally be responsible for the specific arrangements for the meeting with the founder of Flash.

"Tomorrow at 9 o'clock, the other party will meet with you at the company." Xu Meixin said.

"Well, has He Sheng ever called?" Qin Yu said.

"Here, I said I want to invite you to get together tonight, and the other members have also arrived. I told him to reply before 5 o'clock." Xu Meixin said.

Raising his hand to look at the time, Qin Yu said, "Tell him it's okay! Is there anything wrong with the company?"

"There are no urgent matters, they are all routine reports." Xu Meixin took out her notebook and asked, "Do you want to listen?"

"Speak briefly." Qin Yu said.

The company's current top priority is still the newly released "Ghost", this epoch-making game, which has attracted more and more attention.

At the same time, some foreigners living in Xia Guo recorded their experience in the game in detail on Facebook and YouTube.

The newly opened function of "God's Perspective" in "Ghost" also presents this brand-new "virtual world" in front of mankind.

Those NPCs with a high degree of freedom and independent thinking ability have refreshed people's cognition of 'electronic life' time and time again.

Many people even called out "that must be an alien."

However, the higher the voice of such remarks, the less no one believes it.

Human beings have always been masters of self-deception, when they discover unbelievable truths and facts.

The brain will question it, and the simplest way is no.

It's fake, it can't be true, it's a lie, a joke.

Look, it's a funny guy again!

Nowadays, entertainment has no bottom line.

Everything points to the 'real' answer, which is false!

The silence of Miracle Company has fueled this kind of thinking. "If it is true, Miracle Company will become famous in one fell swoop, or even stay in history. How could they not respond?"

"If it were true, how could the country make this game available?"

"If this is true, I will live broadcast the handstand and eat shi!"

All kinds of strange speeches suppress the so-called 'conspiracy theories' and bury everything under impetuosity.

In fact, there are also different opinions and opinions within Miracle Company.

However, under Tang's suppression and Qin Yu's silence, everyone knew the truth.

You can only use your own judgment to figure out and guess!

Generally speaking, the development of Miracle Network is very smooth, and Kuafu Research Institute has successively delivered new production lines to the factory.

The advertisements for large-scale recruitment attract a large number of front-line workers to interviews.

High salary is the simplest and straightforward temptation!

Lingling~

Just as Xu Meixin was about to make the next report, Qin Yu's cell phone rang.

Taking a look, Qin Yu couldn't help frowning, then turned and walked to the French window: "Jin Lan..."

After 10 minutes, Qin Yu took up the line and sat back in the living room.

Ye Jinlan called to inform him that he wanted to order a batch of VR headsets, hoping to get them first.

The quantity is 20,000, and the price is not bad!

"Secretary Xu, inform President Tang and ask him to leave 20,000 helmets out. Someone will pick up the goods in a week!"

"Okay, boss, what's the other party's name?"

"When he sees people, he will know." Qin Yu responded calmly.

Under Xu Meixin's brief retelling, the report ended in 20 minutes.

The time was about the same. Qin Yu took a bath and changed his clothes, and the two went to the hotel for the appointment together.

On the way, Qin Yu called the doctor and asked him what he was doing?

Knowing that he was with his girlfriend, Qin Yu only said that he was in Yaodu and was planning to go to Window City the day after tomorrow.

Gao Bo is naturally surprised to say that when he arrives in the window market, he will arrange all the consumption.

"It's just that, the best bar in the window, arrangement!" Qin Yu didn't mean to be polite with him.

Who knows Gao Bo righteously said: "What kind of bar, whoever goes to that kind of place, is full of food stalls."

"...If you are about to be hijacked, you just cough." Qin Yu was surprised. Is this a * change?

"Ahem, Brother Yu, I won't tell you for now, I'll talk when we meet."

Before hanging up, Qin Yu heard Gao Bo's pleased explanation.

"My wife, listen to me, it's all a misunderstanding. I've never been to a bar. I can..."

Toot toot.

When the phone hung up, it turned out that the girlfriend was listening.

Another milk dog has fallen, and it seems that we need to pay attention to it in the future.

However, Yu Ge has always believed that his essence is a wolf dog.

Hit the eye...

Haizhu District, Dongxiaonan.

The whole street is full of various night markets. Tables are lined up at the door, and there are endless diners, and the atmosphere is no worse than during the day.

He Che's restaurant is an old restaurant he often eats, and his dishes are mainly local dishes.

Seafood is naturally indispensable, no matter what restaurant here, there will be a few seafood dishes.

"Shao Qin is here." Seeing Qin Yu coming in with the secretary, the older brothers who arrived early stood up to welcome them.

Today is different from the past, a young man who is only half his age.

Now, it is the most concerned dark horse and technology giant in the domestic business community.

With a worth of hundreds of billions and many innovative technology industries, the potential of the future is immeasurable.

Although those present here are seniors in the business world, I am really embarrassed to put the score in front of him.

Besides, everyone also has a desire to partner with each other.

With such a big cake in front of your eyes, who is not greedy?

Chapter 615: Fast money

Just be happy, Jin Miao.

Sage time, Wei Xian.

Garfield, Cao Fei.

Zhun Yin Tu, Chen Wei.

Brother Yi, Feng Yi.

In addition, He Zhu, the big brothers of Fengyulou when it was founded, a lot of them have arrived.

"Big brothers, don't be polite, sit down, and then I can turn around and leave."

Qin Yu said jokingly, and took a seat with the big brothers present.

"This is Qin Shao's secretary, whose surname is Xu." He Zhu introduced to everyone.

Xu Meixin nodded and smiled, "Hello bosses."

"Secretary Xu followed Qin Shao and learned a lot, right?" Jin Miao asked with a smile.

"Yes, following the boss, every day is a kind of learning and progress." Xu Meixin nodded and said.

"So, people still have to be with excellent people in order to make progress." Wei Xian laughed.

"Keep on boasting, I will get drunk if I don't drink it. Let's order food first?" Qin Yu interrupted with a smile.

It's not too late to talk about business talks when you drink, and order the dishes first, and the waiter will be waiting next to you!

"Brother Yu, see what you like to eat." He Zhu handed him the menu.

Qin Yu pushed back again: "The biggest advantage of me is that I am not picky.

You are a frequent visitor here, you can't decide what is delicious. "

He Che smiled and said, "Then I will order."

Shrimp paste macaroni, sizzling bamboo intestines, boiled beef scallops, claypot snail chicken, fried crabs, steamed scallops.

Stir-fried Niuhe must be ordered, and roasted goose is not less, Yaodu people have a kind of obsession with roasted goose.

There is roast goose for dinner, how can we not order it? ? ?

There are eighteen dishes casually, and He Zhu is satisfied that it is enough.

Feng Yi, who had gone out, came back with two jars of old wine in his hand, "I made it in my own home, it's been 22 years now."

It's really 20 years old, brewed from household food.

This must be tasted!

Qin Yu mentioned an altar and knocked open the mud shell on it with his hands to remove the hemp rope.

Then remove the greased paper seal on it, "Fragrant!"

The smell of wheat is tangy, and all the gluttons in the stomach are hooked up.

As soon as the aroma dissipated, the surrounding diners all looked up.

Some people also shouted the waiter: "Let's get a jar of wine!"

Knowing that it was brought by them, the other party had no choice but to give up, but still couldn't help taking two deep breaths.

Can't drink, I can smell the head office?

"Don't be polite today, just take this bowl and put it on the table." Jin Miao held a stack of bowls on the table.

Everyone worked together, and soon the bowl in front of him was filled.

The dishes were on the table one after another. He Zhu saw that Xu Meixin was empty in front of him and said, "Secretary Xu, would you like to have a drink too?"

Xu Meixin turned her head to look at Qin Yu, only to hear him say: "It depends on what you mean."

"Then I will drink less." Xu Meixin nodded.

The main reason is that the wine is too fragrant, and the people who go are itchy, Xu Meixin also wants to taste the difference between the homemade brews!

He Che poured her a small bowl, and Xu Meixin stopped when she said that she had enough.

"The dishes are almost done, let's do one first, and welcome Shao Qin." He Zhu stood up.

Seeing other people also stand up, Qin Yu hurriedly raised his hand and pressed downwards: "I'm free, sit down and say."

"Okay, listen to Brother Yu." He Shi took his seat again.

Everyone moved forward with their bowls, they were touched, and they raised their heads and shook their heads.

Qin Yu did the same, and put the bowl down after taking a sip.

The aroma between the mouth and teeth is overflowing, babble!

when!

The porcelain bowl collided with the table.

Xu Meixin held the bowl in embarrassment and whispered, "Sorry, my hand slipped."

Look into the bowl again, good guy, did it?

The small half bowl is at least two or three. Is this secretary such a drink?

"Secretary Xu can drink well, but this drink has a lot of stamina, so it's better to drink slowly."

He Shi said, and poured her a small bowl.

Xu Meixin didn't refuse, instead, she had a bit of expectation in her eyes.

It smells good, except for a little bit spicy when swallowed, nothing else at all.

Xu Mei feels that she can drink a few more bowls, which is exactly what she needs now.

It counts as time that so many things have happened, and I have been suppressed in my heart and I can't vent it.

Today, just take it as a good vent.

The joy from the heart made Xu Meixin choose to continue, but this time she followed He Zhu's advice.

It's just a small sip every time, but the frequency is a bit fast.

"Come here, everyone eat food."

"Brother Yu, taste this bamboo sausage, it's authentic!"

"Secretary Xu, try this roast duck. It's fat but not greasy. It's good for girls' skin."

Under the warm reception of everyone, Xu Meixin gradually let go. The numbness caused by alcohol made her forget her troubles.

There was also a smile from the heart on his stern face.

This is the first time she really feels happy recently.

Qin Yu feasted, putting down his chopsticks and the cups and shadows intertwined.

When the dishes are all ready, a jar of wine is about to bottom out!

Opening the second altar, everyone slowed down this time, and Jin Miao also suddenly mentioned the business of the past two years.

"Business now is really difficult to do, and the pressure is overwhelming."

Chen Wei squinted, and said little by little, "It's hard to do anything, but it's easiest to get the wrong way."

"Hey, some time ago, my old watch was engaged in live sales of goods, and ordered a batch of defective products, dozens of times the profit was sold out.

Earned more than 20 million in two months. Now that I have been titled, I have earned enough. "

Feng Yi shook his head enviously, looking complicated.

I have worked hard for several years, not as good as two months. Who can balance it?

The eldest brothers here are doing serious business, and sometimes I really want to go the wrong way, and I just want to make a fortune.

But when I think of the business for so many years, the career that I have done bit by bit, I accumulate fame and credibility.

It was ruined just like this, not reconciled!

In addition, conscience and face are also overwhelming.

You can definitely get the money, but it's inevitable to be poked in the back after you're done.

If you get to the point where you can't open the pot, no matter the three or seven twenty-one, you must first make a fortune.

Use shoddy goods, secretly exchange concepts, hungry marketing, and make some vomiting prices.

With their connections, resources, and channels, it's not enough to have a mouthful.

"It's a glorious thing for a while, but most of these people come in too quickly and don't understand moderation, so they quickly lose money.

And he is accustomed to quick money and often walks by the river. There is no one who doesn't wet his shoes... Take jujube pills! "

Qin Yu took a sip of the wine and sipped it with relish.

The big brothers also broke free from the jealousy of dissatisfaction, and laughed at themselves: "So, the desire is endless."

Thinking that they are also worthy and wealthy figures in their own three-acre land.

But seeing the money coming so fast, so simple as a no-brainer, I can't help but want to make a fortune!

The temptation for ordinary people can be imagined.

It's no wonder that so many people rush into it every day, knowing that the chances are slim, but still holding the "I am different" fluke mentality, wanting to try their luck.

"The union is not selling goods now, let alone you are not good."

Although Qin Yu didn't care much about the specific situation of the trade union, he still had fun occasionally.

In addition, the annual report of Douya and the occasional news mentioned by the small anchor.

It is still clear about the development and changes of Fengyulou, especially the anchors carrying goods.

It can also be regarded as the only cargo-carrying team in the transformation of the Douya platform.

Like Jin Miao's sporting goods, Chen Wei's supermarket chain, Wei Xian's transportation company, and He Zhu's foreign trade have all been well-received.

Live promotion has brought them a lot of new orders.

He Che's business is getting better, so Feng Yi's orders for him will naturally increase.

Now when it comes to Fengyulou, the elder brothers are beaming with joy and laugh heartily.

This business was invested in without any loss.

Although I didn't make any money from the business itself, but the profits brought by drainage in the past few years.

To this day, at least 30% of the profits have been made.

Otherwise, when the big brothers have so much money, they can't spend it everywhere, and they keep rewarding every day.

But as I said before, no one will have too many opportunities to earn more.

No, Wei Xian has already brought the topic to logistics, and strongly praises the fast, efficient and dedicated service of his own logistics.

"Brother Yu, you know if you watch the live broadcast, we dare not say anything about our logistics, but we are absolutely responsible..."

Speaking of his career, Jin Miao appeared high-spirited and confident.

Money is a man's courage, and career is confidence and merit.

When it comes to the logistics park he built, Jin Miao's self-confidence is soaring, and he doesn't let it go more than when he was young!

Chapter 616: reply.....

"Understood, I want to discuss some business!" Qin Yu said with a smile.

Jin Miao did not hide his purpose, and nodded readily: "Yes, there are many people who want to do business with Brother Yu, now, haha..."

"In this way, I have tomorrow afternoon..." Qin Yu looked at Xu Meixin.

"Four hours, after the end, go to the window." Xu Meixin put down her chopsticks and replied with clear thinking.

Don't look at her hot cheeks, but her mind is still very clear.

It should be said, the more you drink, the clearer your brain!

"Enough, take a look at your logistics park, Brother Kaixin, how?" Qin Yu looked at Jin Miao.

"That's definitely okay, haha..." Jin Miao laughed, and when he picked up the bowl, he wanted to have a toast with Qin Yu.

哐!

Just a mouthful of stuffiness, which causes a coincidence.

Qin Yu's heart is a bit tired. As he goes higher and higher, there are really fewer and fewer friends around him who can speak two truthful words.

However, when he thinks of meeting Gao Bo tomorrow, Brother Yu smiles from the bottom of his heart.

Life is alive, two or three brothers.

I have exactly two, enough!

"Come, continue to drink." Holding up the bowl boldly, Qin Yu planned to get them all drunk today.

"Brother Yu, what is your helmet? If you sell it abroad, you must find me, brother, I will guarantee you, and promise to arrange it for you."

He Sheng put Qin Yu's shoulder drunkly, his tongue was not straight.

"Well, as long as you can take care of it, you will definitely take care of it!" Qin Yu responded with a smile.

The drunken talk after drunk is just an introduction, and He Sheng also wants to get a piece of the pie.

Besides, others also have their own ideas.

Take Cao Fei and Garfield as an example, he thinks that since Marvel Networks can create a game world.

Is it possible to create a 'virtual school,' where children can take lessons and experience the joy of making up lessons without leaving home.

"Put on the helmet and enter the campus directly after finishing the work. Not only can you learn knowledge, enhance interaction and communication, but also complete your homework in time!"

"Devil, you are a devil." Chen Wei squinted his eyes and pointed at him, and said with disgust.

"School is hard enough. Once you get home, come on, virtual school, fuck!"

Thinking of this possibility, Chen Wei was really afraid that one day he would be stabbed on the road.

This is too devil...

"Hey, Brother Yu, if you can take care of anything, don't forget me." Feng Yi smiled and touched him while holding the bowl.

"There is a chance." Qin Yu said.

In fact, he really has business to take care of Feng Yi, he is not engaged in offline supply, after-sales.

I don't know if I am interested in opening a VR after-sales service center. Qin Yu intends to outsource this part.

Only when the after-sales center cannot solve the problem, the engineer assigned by the company will come forward to solve it.

is not a cost issue, the most important thing is that Qin Yu does not have so many manpower under his hands.

Up to the present position, talents are still an important obstacle to the development of Miracle Company.

There are not enough people in the first place, and then they are scattered to various places for maintenance and after-sales.

will only make people feel more nervous, it is better to outsource it directly and formulate strict charging standards and service rules.

Send two or three people to be responsible for daily supervision and problem solving, which can greatly save personnel costs.

"This is great!" Feng Yi showed great interest when Qin Yu said something casually.

However, he has to go to the company to talk to the Ministry of Commerce in person.

Qin Yu doesn't care about these details, so he can only give him a general idea.

"No problem, I think about it. There will be results within this week." Feng Yi nodded.

According to Qin Yu's description, such an after-sales service center covering three nearby provinces must have a small investment.

He is a typical family business, and he can get all kinds of foreign trade products because of his own old watches everywhere.

If you want to change careers, you need to be considerate. Other aspects need to be managed.

You can't ask someone to help you when you do it yourself. If you don't do it, you can put the burden on the other side and let the other party hang out.

Who would dare to find him for business after that, if he really wants to change careers, Feng Yi will also arrange all the business at hand first.

However, he felt that he could take care of both.

After-sales service, just hire someone to take care of it. Anyway, all the standards are set by the headquarters. It should be no problem to find a few people to stare at!

Feng Yi fell into thinking, and Chen Wei had another idea here: "Virtual supermarkets, don't you do anything to stay home now?"

"If you can directly move the supermarket online, it will feel the same as shopping in real life, and you can enjoy the taste at will.

I have heard that the taste of food can be tasted in the monster, and I don't understand what nerves are directly fed back.

Anyway, it's quite advanced, and it will be delivered directly after the checkout. "

Pop, slap the table, Chen Wei shouted: "This idea is absolutely perfect."

Qin Yu looked at the expectant eyes of a few people funny, and shook his head: "The technology here is not that simple, it's not like just copying it."

He tactfully refused, Chen Wei and Cao Fei couldn't help feeling a little lost.

The two of them are still thinking about becoming a general agent or something, and directly take this completely blank market.

Compared with the "Magic Demon" launched by Miracle Network, those online live scenes are not enough to watch.

It should be said that these are two different things!

However, the two of them did not lose their attitude because of this.

With the current development of Miracle Company, it's impossible to say that it will be online any day.

Do business!

All roads lead to Rome, it is right to make money with peace.

Look at He Sheng, don't you just set up a thread for yourself and look to the future.

Will the miracle network break out of Asia and go to the international market, and if he can win a country's agent, he will be able to make a lot of money.

A meal until two in the morning, two jars of old wine drank, and another six cases of beer.

Finally, the people who drank one by one couldn't find North, and were helped to get into the car to be separated.

Seeing how many people got in the car, Qin Yu returned to the table: "Pay the bill."

"I bought it, Ah Sheng pressed the money in advance." The man who looked like the boss smiled and signaled that He Sheng had arranged it.

Holding on to Xu Meixin who is a little drunk, this woman is quite stubborn: "Boss, I can go."

Take a step with the feet of high heels, with the right foot, the body twists and turns like a twist, and the head bumps.

It's quite rhythmic...

"Okay, don't be aggressive." Qin Yu walked towards the side of the road in a big stride and picked her up.

The breathing in his arms became more and more rapid, Qin Yu just pretended not to hear, and said, 'Next time I come out, it's better to let her drink less.'

Called a car back to the hotel, Qin Yu asked the girl at the hotel reception to send Xu Meixin back to her room.

Walk to my room after I am done. Tonight, should I be sleepy?

Opening the teeth, Qin Yu tapped a few fingers on the screen, and a smirk appeared at the corner of his mouth: "Recently, this kidney is a little up!"

In the live broadcast room, Li Shuangmeng is ready to broadcast.

From 8 on-demand until now, she is also tired, and today there is no big brother to buy gifts, and there is no motivation at all.

"Baby, I'm going down, let's... welcome my hurt brother, eldest brother mumu~" Li Shuangmeng's expression instantly changed from disappointment to excitement.

"Fuck, the anchor is reality."

"This expression is bright."

"Is this the long-lost face change? I'm already."

"Guide, you are exposed."

"Guide the whole person to immediately stop being sleepy, and come to work tonight."

"Master Qingjie, Lao Tzu's youth, pop, it's gone."

Qin Yu is now looking at his backstage balance, which is more than 57 million.

Thinking of Li Shuangmeng's performance, Brother Yu swiped his finger and first charged 10 million to play.

Congratulations to Wind, Rain and Night Scorching, for renewing the Super Emperor in the live broadcast of Qingshen Wumeng. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

...

Congratulations on the renewal of the Super Emperor X10 in the live broadcast of the Love Wu Meng Live Room.

One time 1 million, renew 10 times, exactly 10 million.

"Fuck, fuck!" The barrage went crazy in an instant.

Damn, I admire it.

The life of the boss is really simple and unpretentious.

Look at Li Shuangmeng in front of the camera again, she is already soft like a beautiful snake.

The charming and coquettish in the eyes, can't wait to melt directly into the arms of the elder brother through the screen.

10 million turnover, although there is no practical benefit.

But the attention and heat it brings, the traffic it attracts is all money...

Furthermore, isn't the eldest brother here really coming?

500 super fire, 1 million rewards were thrown away, Qin Yu has received a reply from Li Shuangmeng: "White silk, black silk, little whip!"

Chapter 617: Human beings are going to be eliminated?

When it comes to details, Li Shuangmeng is always particularly sensitive.

She doesn't need the boss to take the initiative to mention it, she knows what she should prepare.

Today's theme: drag show!

At the end of the show, he almost folded his waist.

As a result, Xu Meixin was sober the next day and wanted to explain to her boss her gaffe last night.

When I came to the room, the first thing I saw was Li Shuangmeng lying on the sofa.

"Beauty, help me, help me turn over." Li Shuangmeng said lazily, "After the sun is finished, I have to sun the front."

"..." Xu Meixin was stupid.

This is also the profession that a secretary should have?

Regardless of those who are professional or unprofessional, Xu Meixin stepped forward and turned her over, 'the body is really good.'

Seeing the other's beautiful collarbone in perfect and well-proportioned proportions, Xu Meixin said to herself.

Click!

The door of the suite opened, with a bath towel wrapped around his waist, and Qin Yu, who was wiping his hair, came out.

"Boss, someone is looking for it." Li Shuangmeng babbled lazily.

This title made Xu Meixin misunderstood.

'Boss, what boss, is she the same as yourself? "No, right? What is the same? I am a serious secretary.

"Um, boss, time is running out." Xu Meixin immediately put his mind to work.

The thoughts that I wanted to explain earlier also faded immediately.

How could a perfect male * like his own boss lack women?

Unfortunately, she thought that she was being watched by her boss.

Now think about it, it's totally affectionate!

Feeling lost inexplicably, Xu Meixin said calmly: "I'm waiting for you outside."

"Yo yo yo, young lady is jealous."

Li Shuangmeng raised her head and looked at Qin Yu, winking her eyebrows and said, "Boss, it turns out that you have such a wide range of hobbies."

Don't look at her laughing and joking, there are indeed crises in her heart.

Good guy, it turns out that the boss likes young women, so should I gain weight appropriately, and be deeper and more elegant.

"Always eat food, you will get bored." Qin Yu said casually, throwing the towel on the sofa and changing into clean clothes.

"Let's go." Without looking back, Qin Yu closed the door smoothly.

Ding.

Hearing this familiar voice, Li Shuangmeng squinted and slowly fell asleep.

Don't rush to see the amount, the boss is very generous anyway...

With him, there is only surprise, not disappointment!

Xu Meixin, who was one step behind Qin Yu, happened to see the transfer prompt on his mobile phone, 1 million.

... Xu Meixin's just calm mood is chaotic again.

In this way, that girl made 1 million?

In terms of her current treatment, it would take six or seven years to earn without eating or drinking, and she just slept.

The strong imbalance made Xu Meixin struggle all the way.

It wasn't until the car stopped at the front of the headquarters that the driver honked the horn to let the other person open the door, and Xu Meixin woke up.

"Something in your mind?" Qin Yu asked curiously when she saw her trembling suddenly and raising her head in horror.

"No, it's okay." Xu Mei shook her head with a guilty conscience.

"Boss, that is the chairman of the flash, Wang Wei." Before getting off the car, Xu Meixin pointed out to Qin Yu first.

With a Chinese character face, a big back and a clean beard, he looks younger and more energetic.

Putting on the glasses, it looks so gentle...scholar.

"Dong Qin." Seeing Qin Yu get off the car, Wang Wei was stunned, but when the people around him reminded him, he stretched out his hands and walked forward quickly.

"Wang Dong." Qin Yu held the opponent's hand.

"Qin Dong is really...young, younger than I thought. He has a younger position. I can't accept it anymore."

Wang Wei shook his head full of emotion, as if instantly aware of the changes of the times, that they are no longer in their world.

The young people nowadays just really...

"Wang Dong is polite, and I still need to learn more from a doer like you, seniors." Qin Yu smiled modestly.

Businesses have to talk about each other, just listen to others.

It doesn't mean anything, you still seem to be ignorant and small-spirited, so you have to have contacts and exchanges to be lively.

"Haha, Qin Dong is modest!" You see, Wang Wei's attitude is not immediately enthusiastic.

"Go, let's talk to the office." Wang Wei invited him to the office.

Qin Yu shook his head and said, "I want to go to see the logistics center first, and visit?"

Wang Wei looked at the entourage beside him. After the other party nodded, he said with confidence: "Then let's go shopping first. Welcome Qin Dong to guide our work."

The instructor dared not talk, but after discussing with each other, Qin Yu was still able to do so.

The logistics center of Flashlight is located not far from the headquarters. It takes 15 minutes by sightseeing car to arrive at the busy warehouse address.

There is a lot of traffic in front of the door, the staff is well organized, but the number is not large.

Eighty-five percent of the work of the entire center is fully intelligent, and employees only need to be responsible for monitoring and observation.

Standing in the control room, the conveyor belt below, the sorting robot arm, the intelligent handling robot, until the goods enter the carriage accurately through the conveyor belt.

The courier classifies the goods according to size specifications, and the valuables and fragile items are all completed by manual operations.

The whole process looks particularly smooth, which can be said to be pleasing to the eye.

"Quick Flash is worthy of being the leader of domestic express delivery. Just such a fully intelligent center is incomparable."

Hearing Qin Yu's praise, although Wang Wei felt proud, he still humbled and said: "Excessive praise, too much praise.

Nowadays, science and technology are changing with each passing day, and new technologies are born every day. As long as you stop for a while, you will immediately be surpassed and left behind..."

"I am trembling every day, and I dare not stop for a moment, for fear that I will take a nap and let the market be eliminated."

Wang Wei said, thinking of the current dilemma, and his tone was full of helplessness for a while.

Even though he was diligent and diligent every day, Blink still encountered difficulties in stagnating development.

In this fast-paced era, weed out.

No one can stop, as he said before, the moment you stop, you have already lost.

"Wang Dong, let's go to the office to talk now?" Qin Yu said that he had read it and knew that it was time to talk about business.

He came this time not just for a visit.

Wang Wei also knew very well in his heart that he could let this low-key tech giant like himself come in person.

It must be a conspiracy for the flash, cooperation? Annex?

It is still unknown, but for the current miracle company, it is not difficult to swallow the flash.

Only what Wang Wei knew was that Lixin Investment's abnormal cash flow made him daunting, who is also an entrepreneur.

What is the concept of a hundred billion cash flow?

It is really comparable to the cash reserves of the four major domestic banking giants and the head office.

Take Yaodu as an example, the head office may not be able to mobilize hundreds of billions of cash at a time.

You just have to talk about transfers, and there is no problem adding two zeros at the end!

But is that a concept?

Boss Ma claims to be worth 500 billion. You can ask how much cash he can mobilize.

However, if he really had this idea, Wang Wei really couldn't agree.

Qin Yu was not the first to swallow his flash, and it would not be the last.

But he will not hand over the company, at least not now.

The flash hasn't faded yet, and it's not to the point where it needs to sell himself. Wang Wei is confident to reverse the situation and bring the flash to a new peak again.

"I believe in Wang Dong's strength, so this time I am here for the icing on the cake." Knowing Wang Wei's attitude, Qin Yu gave a different answer.

The executives present, look at me, and I look at you, including Wang Wei, are all dumbfounded.

What do you mean, he is going to buy shares in the flash?

"Don't worry, Dong Wang will take a look at this plan first." Xu Meixin uploaded the PPT and turned on the projector after being signaled by the boss.

Scenes, scenes of what can be called a dream, slowly unfold in front of everyone.

Fully intelligent enclosed storage, one piece classification, automatic and efficient detection, security alarm internal identification, online virtual operation observation.

"Like the logistics warehouse we just visited, it only needs 6 staff to complete all the work, and it is 24 hours a day.

When it's easy, as long as there is one person staring at the system, if Dong Wang agrees to this plan, we will start a new cooperation with Wei Lan.

Intelligent driving technology, first using Yaodu as a pilot, automatic distribution throughout the region, will greatly reduce the cost of personnel in the blink of an eye. "

The picture Qin Yu described immediately formed a deep impression in everyone's mind.

If, the plan in the picture is real and effective, and immediately feasible.

Then this will be a subversion of the global express delivery industry, no, not only the express delivery industry.

All industries will enter a new era of intelligence, "Humanity, are we going to be eliminated?"

Chapter 618: Cooperation and suggestions

Whether humans will be eliminated because of this is not a question that Wang Wei should be concerned about.

He is only concerned about two points now, one is the truthfulness of the plan in the PPT.

One is if that is true, how many employees will be laid off?

From the bottom of his heart, Wang Wei is a nostalgic and affectionate person.

If it is really like the demonstration in the PPT, then a large number of front-line workers will be laid off.

Behind it represents tens of thousands of families...

"The problem of unemployment is unavoidable.

In the future, with the advancement of technology, the ban on labor is irreversible.

In this regard, the flash needs to be different, and find a way in other areas. "

The problem of unemployment is inevitable and evaded, and Qin Yu has no good solutions for the time being.

Fortunately, it will take time for the agreement to be reached and for the transformation of the factory to be officially put into operation.

This process takes about 1 to 2 years, and there is enough time for the flash to think about new countermeasures.

In some respects, human qualities cannot be banned.

Art, thoughts, emotions, these are things that electronic life cannot imitate and replace.

Even if it is Kirin, the AI intelligence far beyond modern technology, the imitation of emotions can still be seen through.

Like immature children lying in front of adults, there are many loopholes!

"We can't get an art department out." Some executives laughed at themselves and shook their heads.

They just want to do it, but they don't have the ability. Besides, what profit can they do for charity?

"These are all things to follow. Now what we are going to talk about is whether Flash will join, and how sincere is it?"

Wang Wei smiled bitterly and spread his hands: "Can I refuse?"

Yes, can he refuse?

Rejection is equivalent to jumping off the carriage of the times and becoming a loser who has been eliminated and abandoned.

Wang Wei didn't think that he would be the only choice for the other party.

At this time, he should be thankful that he is the opponent's first choice.

Otherwise, it is not just stagnant development waiting for the flash!

Qin Yu embraced his arms, leaned back and looked at Wang Wei with a smile: Come on, show it, your offer!

A full set of intelligent management, one-key operation, the accuracy rate can reach 99.999%...

That 0.00001 percent is Qin Yu's modesty!

With Qilin's management, unless Qin Yu died, he would never go wrong.

This is Qilin's most positive response to his doubts.

The so-called 'all-intelligent one-piece storage and sorting control system' actually means that Kylin controls everything behind the scenes.

After the calculation of Kylin, an intelligent one-stop storage center will be established in the important global transit cities analyzed and marked.

For unified supervision and management, the required computing rate.

Occupying less than one percent of it will not have any effect on it or its host Qin Yu.

Therefore, such a control system that completely releases brainpower and labor is of great value. Now it depends on Wang Wei's sincerity.

Twenty minutes later, Qin Yu and Wang Wei walked out of the meeting room door at the same time.

Both of them had satisfied smiles on their faces. Before they parted, Wang Wei was even more excited and said, "Happy cooperation!"

Although the formal contract has not been signed, the two bigwigs have reached an agreement, and they will only wait for someone to finalize the specific details of the cooperation.

For a fully intelligent one-piece storage and sorting control system, Wang Wei's quotation is 15% of the shares.

Converted into market value, it is a price of 15 billion.

At the same time, he has two votes on the board of directors, which requires him to persuade the board of directors.

For other things, Wang Wei couldn't do it even if he wanted to promise.

Although he is the major shareholder, actual controller and founder of the company, he must also consider the opinions of investors and shareholders.

In a word, it has long been a thing of the past.

"If you put this away, it depends on whether you can convince the board of directors." Looking at the back of Qin Yu's departure, Wang Wei handed the U disk to the secretary.

"Boss." After getting in the car, Xu Meixin expressed some concern: "Doing this will cause opposition to the rookie alliance?"

The rookie alliance is not terrible, the terrible thing is the horse boss behind the opponent.

Man has retired, but Yu Wei is still there, and no one dares to underestimate the old horse's ability and wisdom.

"Why is there an opposition?" Qin Yu opened his eyes and smiled: "He does his job, and I do mine, what does it matter!"

What is opposite and not opposite, in the final analysis, is not interest.

As for the opposition, there is no such thing.

With Qin Yu's participation, the flash will quickly widen the gap with the peers, and in the shock of the other party, Yiqi Juechen.

With instant service quality and solid foundation, good reputation and customer trust.

When it can suppress the cost to a minimum, and the fee reaches the industry average or slightly higher.

The entire industry will usher in a massacre, and no one is spared!

...

...

Ending the meeting with Shun Shan ahead of time, Qin Yu took Xu Meixin to find a store and simply ate lunch.

After returning to the hotel to rest for half an hour, we dialed Wei Xian's phone number: "Brother Xian, send me the address, I'll be there now."

"Okay, I'm here to wait for Qin Shao for your coming, haha..." Wei Xian catered politely.

Sitting in the hotel's welcome car, we drove all the way to the industrial park, and finally found the logistics center belonging to Wei Xian in the outskirts of the factory.

As soon as he got out of the car, Qin Yu frowned.

Along the way, he was not very satisfied with the traffic on the road.

There are too many carts, the road surface is in disrepair for a long time, and the road is pitted, which greatly affects the transportation efficiency and time.

There is basically no management along the way, which also causes chaos on the road, and the potential for accidents is very high.

"Brother Yu, come here very quickly." Wei Xian, who was waiting at the door, had a thump in his heart, pulling him and walking inside.

Looking at Qin Yu's expression, there seemed to be something unsatisfactory.

Wei Xian immediately thought of the traffic problem, and he knew best what was going on.

However, this is not a two-day problem, nor can Wei Xian solve it.

Therefore, he can only hope that the logistics center will satisfy Qin Yu and change the other party's first impression.

'I knew it, I should send a car to pick it up. Wei Xian was a little upset.

Walking inside, hundreds of divided warehouses are busy, sorting and stacking the parcels at the door into hills.

Someone nearby makes a record and issues an order. If there is a weighing order, the driver will be able to load the car into the compartment.

Mess!

But the normal human logistics center is just like that, noisy and messy, just like the food stalls last night.

What you want is this atmosphere. If you are silent and silent, people think your house is closed down!

"Brother Yu, how about it?" Standing upstairs in the office, he was able to overlook the bustling scene of half of the park.

Wei Xian was very proud to show Qin Yu his career map, and he was short of a sentence: This is my country!

"Yes, the business is big enough." Qin Yu smiled and nodded.

"Haha, you can't compare with Shao Qin, small business, small business." Wei Xian shook his hand modestly, but his expression was uncomfortable.

Being able to be the other party said 'big business,' Wei Xian was full of pride in his heart.

This feels like the excitement when I was taken a high look by a logistics boss when I first entered the industry.

"Let's go down and take a look?" Seeing Qin Yu's delay in expressing his position, Wei Xian wanted to take him down a few times.

Qin Yu smiled and shook his head, and said, "Shall we talk directly, and find a quieter place?"

"Come to my office, go." Wei Xian walked out with him, yelling his secretary to make tea.

Cheongsam, Guzheng, the fragrance of the sea of tea...

This style can be considered to be learned again today.

"We are not like you, Qin Shao. We are not well-known. We still have to support the platform, otherwise people will feel shabby and business will be bad."

Picking up the tea cup that the secretary placed in front of him, Wei Xian toasted: "Try it, this year's new tea."

Qin Yu took the tea and took a sip, put it down and cut to the topic: "I'm here this time, actually for logistics..."

Tell Wei Xian about the cooperation between himself and Shun Shan, and after the other party digests Qin Yu, Qin Yu continued: "This control system is no problem selling you!

But I have a better proposal and incorporate it into the flash, what do you think? "

"Brother Yu, this is not a joke." Wei Xian looked at him with a little surprise Flash has the largest logistics storage warehouse in the country, and he still needs such a small logistics center?

Speaking of small, Wei Xian is completely humble.

This logistics center of him is not small at all. It does not say that the demon occupies half of the world, at least four parts of the world.

Really speaking, it is no worse than the flash.

It's just that they have big business, scale, operation more efficiently, and they seem to be even bigger.

On my own side, I just combine small workshops together. The trouble is a bit troublesome, but the profits are not a lot of money at all.

Or, where did those two buildings come from?

Don't look at Wei Xian's very low-key performance in front of him. When he walks out, who doesn't call out "beautiful boy?" ' "

Chapter 619: Virtual and reality

"Jianzi, what do you think?" Qin Yu teased and joked.

Qin Yu can help him fight for the opportunity, but it is his own business whether to seize it.

With the 'fully intelligent one-piece storage and sorting control system', the express delivery industry will suffer a brutal cleaning.

This reshuffle basically confirms the future pattern and status.

If Wei Xian didn't get into the car, he would become a tragic soul under the wheel.

"I have to think about it, Brother Yu, you have to give me time and think about it seriously." This was so sudden that Wei Xian was suddenly unprepared.

He wanted to take a ride, but he didn't think it was a black car.

Xu is not allowed to go down, and Xu is not allowed to go out.

As long as you get in the car, that door will be welded to you...

This is difficult!

"Okay, time is enough, you think about it slowly." Preparations before and after, reconstruction also takes time.

The transformation of one by one, the flash also needs a logistics center to share its pressure.

It is best to have Wei Xian, if not, then you have to consider other families.

Furthermore, the volume of foreign trade will increase in the future, and the inventory pressure on Yaodu's side will increase.

This is also one of the reasons why Qin Yu suggested that Wei Xian merge into the flash.

Just to take care of each other, this reason is not sufficient...

Throwing the problem to Wei Xian again, Qin Yu was ready to leave.

The other party insisted on keeping him for dinner, and finally Xu Meixin interrupted: "Boss, stay in Yaodu today, I'm afraid tomorrow's business meeting will be late."

Hearing that there was a business matter, Wei Xian couldn't hold back anymore, so he could only watch him get into the car and go away.

As for the questions Qin Yu left behind, he had to think about it.

It seems that the little lover's place tonight is amazing!

"A good excuse." In the car, Qin Yu glanced at Xu Meixin and said.

"The boss is very good." Xu Meixin answered casually.

The driver glanced at the two of them through the rearview mirror, and said, 'what kind of words are this tiger and wolf.'

Training, how to adjust the method, is it day or night?

Otherwise, old drivers are everywhere!

When they arrived at the hotel, they simply packed up, and the two got on the intercity train to Window City.

People here did not get in the car, and Qin Yu had already called Gao Bo: "Tonight, food stalls!"

"Brother Yu, which train is yours, I will pick you up." Gao Bo said.

"Farewell, isn't it fragrant for me to do online car-hailing directly? What are you running back and forth?" Qin Yu refused.

The doctor has no car again, making him bother before and after running.

"You can get it with which train you say." Gao Bo insisted.

Nothing, Qin Yu could only tell him the number of the train.

But I still exhorted: "Online car-hailing is very convenient, so don't worry about it."

"Hey, what is the trouble between our brothers!" The dog thief's laugh was a bit wrong.

However, Brother Yu didn't think about it, maybe he would be nearby!

After getting in the car, Qin Yu skillfully took out the blindfold.

"Boss, you won't go everywhere like this." Xu Meixin pointed to the blindfold in his hand.

"If there is nothing to do, it is better to let the brain rest."

Qin Yu put on the blindfold and leaned back, 'Fell asleep.'

At this time, people have already arrived in the world of "Golden Devil" and are digging themselves out of the trash.

It's not easy to figure it out when you walk too deep.

"Open the world public frequency." Qin Yu said.

Above the line of sight, a line of chat boxes appeared, and there was a hot chat inside.

Hiring people, teaming up, doing tasks together, and talking about the status quo of monsters, doing scientific research, and playing soy sauce for leisure.

In short, it is diverse and colorful.

There are also popular science bosses pretending to be forced on the public channel, bluffing the newcomers who have just launched, and screaming, 'Big guys!'

"A few advices for newcomers: Do not use the so-called game routines here."

"When you see a monster, just run."

"Lost in the wilderness = death."

"It's okay, don't show IQ with the indigenous people (the scalp of a buddy show is numb, and it has been guarded by the NPC until now, and it is abandoned)."

"PS: It is said that some people have learned something in the game, and the reality can also be used. Get it yourself!"

The sudden appearance of the newcomer prompts the public channel into a dead silence.

Then, the public frequency exploded!

"Fuck, real or fake, can things in the game world bring back to reality?"

"I'm afraid it's not a fool upstairs. I didn't see what the big guy said was that I learned something, it should be some kind of knowledge."

"I was shocked directly, it's impossible!"

"I'm a soldier, the kind that I can't say. I heard him say that the court would send them into monsters."

"It's true, the more I talk about it, the more outrageous it gets. Why didn't I see anything?"

"The scavenger team, you know everything, don't thank me."

"Fuck, the SB upstairs talks nonsense about Jill, I just joined the team."

"Someone is robbing business again, want porn!"

"??? Who can talk about the situation, the scavenger team invited me, I did not go."

"Niubi, brother, how many mines are there?"

Seeing that the content of the chat below was crooked and thorough, Qin Yu shut down the public channel.

He took out the map, took a look, put it back in his backpack, and took out an energy bar from it.

Take apart while walking, biting on the road.

The cat's waist moved forward, and a few kilometers away, the flaming bullhead monster drifted away.

After another hill, we will reach the destination.

"Didi!" The alarm sounded, indicating that someone outside was touching his body.

Consciousness returned, Qin Yu took off his blindfold, and they arrived.

When I got out of the station and didn't see the doctor, Qin Yu was about to call him when Martha on the side of the road honked his horn.

The window lowered, revealing Gao Bo's smiling face: "Brother Yu, get in the car."

The new version of the president, white, and the co-pilot sat a white and rich.

Look at Gao Bo, beaming, with a little expression moisturized by love.

Qin Yu understood in a second, and gave him a look by the way: young man, there is a future.

"Brother Yu, this is my girlfriend, Ai Rui." Gao Bo then looked at his girlfriend: "My iron buddies, Qin Yu, Brother Yu."

"Brother Yu is good." Bai Fumei Ai Rui smiled and nodded.

Nuonuo's sheep sound, pure and well-behaved looks, she is a good girl from a wealthy family.

I don't know how the doctor who is upright, likes to persuade people with morals, and gives people a kind of reckless look hooks up.

"Hello." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

Xu Meixin introduced herself: "I am Xu Meixin, Qin Dong's accompanying secretary!"

After greeted him, Gao Bo teased: "Yes, Brother Yu, the secretary is all matched."

"Several too!" Qin Yu raised his head with an extremely arrogant attitude.

"..." Gao Bo clasped his fists and nodded, he was disrespectful and disrespectful in Xia Menglang.

"Gao Bo, do you want to go to the hotel first?" Ai Rui drove away from the temporary parking area.

"Brother Yu, is the hotel set?" Gao Bo asked back.

"It's set, Raffles." Qin Yu was about to send her position, and Ai Rui had already set the route.

"Occasionally I have afternoon tea with my friends."

Ai Rui smiled and said: "There are fewer Internet celebrities going to now, and the quality and service have improved a lot."

When it opened six years ago, Raffles became a must-see for Internet celebrities.

But because of this, he was pushed down.

Not only was it complained by many trusted brand customers, but it also made frequent mistakes in the hotel's core services.

Raffles rolled his eyes, but he was very hot in the past two years.

Later, a large number of management and service personnel were replaced, coupled with the cold treatment of Internet celebrities, which preserved the reputation of the century-old brand.

Upon arriving at the hotel, Qin Yu and Xu Meixin went to check in, and Gao Bo would also follow. Naturally, it was not good for Ai Rui to stay alone.

So the four came to the hotel lobby on the 34th floor.

Raffles is located in the super-famous Shenwan One, with an average price of more than 300,000 yuan per square meter, which can easily cost hundreds of millions of dollars.

It is said that all those who can live here are big bosses, and it is unclear whether Brother Yu is not the owner of the situation.

On the contrary, the environment and scenery of the hotel are really good, you can directly overlook the deep bay landscape.

Xu Meixin's set of presidential sets is to enjoy the 360-degree view without blind spots.

The price!

A bit expensive, 168,000 per night.

"Fuck, Brother Yu, do you want to be so extravagant?" I was shocked when I heard the high price.

"Official expense, low-key!" Qin Yu pressed her palm down.

This is vomiting to Gao Bo, public expense?

Let's not make it seem like it takes the company so muchThe company is not yours yet.

Get the room card, first go to the room and put the backpack away, Gao Bo will follow along for a tour by the way.

The little girlfriend around her is also looking curiously, she has never lived in the 168,000 presidential suite.

At the same time, I also realized what kind of concept the boyfriend Gao Bo said was unusual.

Not to mention ordinary people, the price is too expensive for her.

"Why don't you have dinner here?" After the intermission, people didn't want to move.

"Don't, I can't afford to ask for it here." Gao Bo will not be fooled.

If he eats here, he will definitely let the meal cost be included in the room rate.

Once you have agreed to invite it yourself, it will definitely not change your mind.

Chapter 620: brothers

Zhongji snacks in Futian Village.

Although the food stalls hiding in the village in the city look inconspicuous, there are really many people who come here admiringly.

There are also a lot of cars parked at the door, but there are special parking spaces in this store, so don't worry about having no place to park.

Put the car well, and you will see the ingredients at the door when you get off the car.

A dozen tables are half full inside, and business has not yet reached its peak.

Around twelve o'clock in the night is the peak of the evening!

"This restaurant specializes in Chaoshan cuisine. The lo-mei is so delicious. Brother Yu, you have to eat more today."

Gao Bo said and waved to the boss, "Beauty, come to patronize you again."

"Come here." Liangzi greeted people hurriedly.

"Yes, Doctor, these are all mature guests. Will they become the son-in-law of Chaoshan in a few years?" Qin Yu looked at the two with a smile.

Ai Rui smiled shyly with a reddish cheek, leaned against Gao Bo, and put on a pair of 'this is the head of the family, he has the final say. '

Brother Yu was eye-opening about this, and he really saw it this time.

This girl seems to be a particularly introverted temperament, no wonder she likes a brash man like Gao Bo.

I'm afraid, a sense of security is a very important point.

I want to understand, Qin Yu is really happy for his brother.

"Fried crab, boiled shrimp, brine platter, put more duck gizzards, and a duck pot.

One portion of fried tofu, one portion of razor clams, and one portion of clams. They should be garlic fragrant, not spicy! "

After Gao Bo finished speaking, he looked at Qin Yu and explained with a smile: "Airui can't eat spicy food."

"It's okay, I can eat a little bit." Ai Rui pulled his arm and whispered.

"Garlic is fine, I can't stand it all day long." Qin Yu rubbed his abdomen with a smile, and the taste was fixed.

"Drink?" Gao Bo feared that he would have plans for the evening.

"Must, beer, white?" Qin Yu may have been drunk too much recently, and Qin Yu is pretty good at Moutai.

Drink this wine, and it will get used to it.

"Don't worry, I brought it." Gao Bo took the car key from his girlfriend, ran to the car and took two bottles of Wuliangye.

"I just bought it this afternoon, just to entertain you, isn't it interesting?" Gao Bo smiled and put the wine on the table.

Full of sincerity!

What else are you talking about, start drinking!

Open a bottle, fill up two cups with tons and tons of small-mouth cups, lift them up and touch them.

"Tsk tut~" This mouth is one third, less than one or two.

The taste is not much worse than Moutai, and the aftertaste is softer.

Comfortable!

"Secretary Xu...should I call Sister Xu? It's weird." Gao Bo looked at Xu Meixin and smiled, "Sister Xu, would you like a drink?"

"She doesn't drink." Qin Yu responded first.

Xu Meixin quickly glanced at the boss, and said sternly: "Yes, I don't know how to drink!"

"Then tonight, Brother Yu will give you help back to the hotel." Gao Bo was very arrogant and ranting.

This meant to give Qin Yu a drink and turn it over here.

"Doctor, good drinker?"

"That is, don't take three days, when you look at it with admiration, sprinkle a pound of water!"

Well, it's awesome, it's still a familiar formula and a familiar taste.

Don't talk about it, it's all done!

Clang, sip a cup.

Qin Yu didn't change his face, which was normal for him.

But Gao Bo was not blushing, his heart was not beating, and he was talking and laughing like a okay person.

"Eat food, eat food." The food is on the table, it looks good, and the taste is amazing.

Especially for the braised boiled platter, Qin Yu didn't stop his chopsticks.

Tasty, with wine, it will chew more fragrantly!

Gao Bo specially makes fried tofu with a serving, which is an excellent dish to go with alcohol.

There are also fried crabs with garlic, fresh, fragrant, fatty and tender, with good meat quality.

This place is not wrong!

The two women ate quietly, while Qin Yu and Gao Bo talked loudly, talking nonsense.

Men are together, and a few more glasses of wine, what they want is this arbitrariness.

"Tell me, what's the situation with you?" When he came last time, he still kissed me with the prince.

It only took a long time to change to Bai Fumei.

Is it Chen Shimei? ? ?

"Don't mention it." Gao Bo laughed at himself and shook his head.

"At the beginning, I already knew Ai Rui when I was getting along with the prince." Mentioning the acquaintance of the two, Gao Bo smiled triumphantly.

"The hero saves the beauty, although it's a bit old-fashioned, it works!" The reason why the story is a story is naturally because of the embellishment and exaggeration in it.

No, in Gao Bo's description, the story is that the moon is black and the wind is high, and Ai Rui is blocked in the dark alley.

At the moment of desperation, the doctor fell from the sky and knocked the seven or eight drunks with three punches and kicks.

After the job, the girl has a good impression of him, and has always wanted to chase him.

It's just that Gao Bo didn't take it seriously at the time, and put all his thoughts on Wang Ziran.

"Unexpectedly, I didn't have this thought, people have..." The mockery on his face was even stronger: "I ran away with the rich second generation, and there is nothing to say."

"Who made us not a rich second-generation, and would not drive a Ferrari with one hand!"

After listening to Gao Bo, Qin Yu was full of joy and anger, but he felt annoyed.

TMD, my brother is also something you can ridicule.

"Do you want to come back and make her regret it?" Qin Yu stretched out his hand and pressed his shoulder.

Gao Bo held his hand backhand and said with a smile: "What else, I should thank her,

If it weren't for her, how would I know there was a good girl waiting beside me. "

The eyes were facing each other, and Qin Yu was startled by the affection in his eyes, and Gao Bo's smile was frozen on his face.

Realizing that they were holding Qin Yu's hand again, the two shivered at the same time, and instantly let go of each other, 'fuck! '

I vomit, I am not a rabbit!

"Cough, drink and drink." Qin Yu picked up the cup and drank it in one bite.

Gao Bo has a lot of learning, but his head is full of Qin Yu's previous gaze, affectionate, vomit...

He shook his head vigorously and drove the picture away from his mind. Gao Bo grabbed his girlfriend's waist and said coquettishly: "I want to eat!"

"Ah~" Gao Bo opened her mouth, and Ai Ruixiu blushed and put the crab legs on the chopsticks into his mouth.

"Smash it, smash it, Xiang!" sneered.

"..." Brother Yu was stupid on the spot, saying that he would persuade people with morality and be a straight man of steel.

Why did you suddenly change?

Ai Rui:

...

...

Freshness: 93.

She is indeed a good girl, and it's worth it to become a licking dog.

Seeing the performance of the two people, Qin Yu stretched out his hand and took off his limited edition Overlord Bone King.

"There's nothing to give, this watch is for you, I will make up the gift for my younger siblings next time, I wish you all grow old.

For another person, Qin Yu is really reluctant, this bone king is his favorite in all appearances.

Cool, handsome, fashionable, in line with the young positioning.

The key is also waterproof, you don't need to pick it up for a swim or something.

But Gao Bo is different, and it is today.

Qin Yu felt that besides Yan Er, there were only two good brothers, Gao Bo and Tang He, who had been playing since childhood.

It is Shen Dong who has gradually become a little alienated deliberately...

There are some things that cannot be said clearly, but everyone is as clear as a mirror in their hearts.

Feelings are often more real than what you hear and see.

Looking at the watch in front of him, and then at Qin Yu's serious expression, Gao Bo laughed blankly: "Brother Yu, don't make trouble!"

"My mind got it, you can't ask for the watch." Gao Bo pushed the watch back: "You know what you mean."

Gao Bo really understands that the brothers want to stand up for himself, fearing that he will fall behind in this relationship and be looked down upon.

But their relationship does not need these things to advertise.

"Really interested, wait for the two of us to get the certificate someday, remember to follow the gift." Gao Bo laughed and patted him on the shoulder.

The previous embarrassment disappeared, and when I saw Ai Rui's gaze looking at Gao Bo, there was a deep infatuation in the worship.

Eh~

I am afraid I am afraid, but my family disagrees!

"Okay, I won't be hypocritical. I will put it away and tell you something. Are you interested in finding a part-time job?"

Gao Bo is at the window, and Yan Er's business is also developing here.

If he agrees, Qin Yu can introduce him to the other party's company. I believe that Yan Er will not refuse.

"Taishan online car hire? You did it?" Gao Bo had seen their car on the road. The name has been very popular in the demon for the past two months.

Many cars on the street are marked with the word 'Taishan' The safety responsibility is more important than Mount Tai.

This slogan has been recognized by many people, choosing to travel in their car. It is said that the service is particularly good and the price is not expensive.

"No, my friend, if you agree, you will have a dozen cars in there for you. If you do a good job, the number of cars in your hand will gradually increase, and your salary will also increase.

If you accumulate some experience in the future, you can also come out and do it yourself..."

Qin Yu's idea is to wait for Gao Bo to become familiar with the procedures and routines inside, and when Yan Er expands his business elsewhere.

Invest by yourself, give him a portion of the shares, and let Gaobo become a partner to do it together.

However, he would not say this now.

It depends on whether he is interested first, and what he did in the end, before we can talk about it.
