Chapter 611

The Davies family and the other family members were dumbfounded.

What kind of identity does he hold that can make Leslie so afraid?

What exactly is his background?

The Davies were all trembling with fear.

Leslie wasn't as afraid even when the two masked men pulled the earlier godlike tricks, but he got so scared after the man's identity is revealed.

Why is that?

Jacky must be someone very powerful!

At this moment, Leslie had no more doubt about Jacky's desire to take over South City.

He did not think there was any sort of exaggeration as Jacky could totally achieve it in his capacity!

Jacky smiled and said, "As long as you obey me and do what I ask, I promise that the Davies family will prosper. In the future, you can replace whoever you want in South City!"

"Thank you, Jacky! The Davies family will do anything you ask of come hell or high water!"

Leslie was overjoyed.

Despite the earlier fright, the Davies family could see a complete change in its fate and prosper by following Jacky.

Leslie immediately patted Derek on the shoulder, and said, "Make a dinner reservation for tonight at the best restaurant in South City to welcome Jacky!"

As soon as Jacky finished speaking, a bodyguard behind him suddenly rushed forward.
Crack!
He halved the plaque of Jagged Club with a single kick!
The sight sent fear coursing through the Davies.
How impudent!
No one in South City had ever dared to challenge Brock like this!
Jacky was seemingly set to create havoc in South City!
However, as someone in his capacity, he absolutely had the right to do so!
The loud noise from damaging the plaque of Jagged Club attracted a lot of attention.
Swish.
Hundreds of people rushed out of the underground boxing arena and surrounded Jacky and his party.
The man leading the group asked coldly, “Did you damage the plaque?”
“Yes, I did!” Jacky grinned.
“Insolent fool! How dare you! Do you know what this place is?”

The group lashed out at them.

They did not understand why someone actually had the nerve to cause a scene here.

Jacky suddenly stopped turning the prayer beads as he sneered, “You’re not worthy of knowing it!”

Such arrogance!

He’s pure arrogance!

Brock chuckled. “Young man, don’t be too arrogant. More than ten young people have died by my hands over the years!”

Jacky’s eyes suddenly turned bright with a gleam of menace. “You have two options now, Brock Green. The first one being you kneel before me and call me ‘Master’; the second, your death!”

Whoa!

Everyone gasped after listening to his words.

Isn’t he afraid of death by challenging Brock like this?

Brock laughed.

A man next to him immediately shouted in anger, “Who do you think you are? How dare you be so arrogant in front of Master?”

Right after he finished speaking, the masked master in white next to Jacky suddenly glared at him.

In an instant, he turned into a blur of motion and appeared in front of that man, raising and swinging his knife.

By the time he put away his knife, he had already returned to Jacky’s side.

His movement was too fast to be captured by the naked eye.

Everyone thought he had been standing at the same spot and never moved at all while merely glaring at the man.

Brock knew about Levi.
No matter what powerful background Jacky had, he would be doomed after crossing Levi!
Moreover, Jacky was targeting the territory in South City, which was a behavior that the God of War hated most.
They would definitely meet, and Jacky would die!
"Alright. Who's that man? Tell me, so that I can go to him!" Jacky asked with a smile.
He believed no one in South City could stop him.
"It's better you not know! Take my advice, leave South City now!" Brock urged again.
"Kill him!"

As a man of action, Jacky gave the order to his man, and the masked expert in white instantly turned into a blur of motion.

Swoosh!

With a flash of the blade, Brock slowly slumped to the ground.

“Understood, Master! I’ll definitely not let you down!”

Jacky was thrilled.

Meanwhile, Leslie and Derek lowered their heads as if they had done something wrong, feeling horrified deep down.

Someone else's coming, and it's even Jacky's master?

Considering that Jacky is so strong himself, his master must be really powerful!

News about what happened quickly spread the next day.

Russell deliberately went to the Black family and reminded them, "Recently, a group of mysterious force has come to South City. Even Brock Green and the Grandmaster have been killed. Be extra careful, everyone!"

While shocked, they made a mental note of what Russell had said.

Thinking of something, Meredith could not help but say, "I have to get Zoey a bodyguard! It's so dangerous recently! I must make sure nothing happens to her!"

After a short pause, she added, "Moreover, having a bodyguard can also keep Levi away from Zoey!"

Robert smiled. "That would be killing two birds with one stone!"

Hesitating, Meredith said, "We can't take this matter lightly. The bodyguard must be the best in all aspects, and preferably a woman. Jennie, Logan, since the two of you know a lot of people, can you look for a suitable candidate?"

Levi instantly understood what was going on.

This was a bodyguard that the Black family had hired to keep him from interacting with Zoey.

“Are you sure you can stop me?” He chuckled.

Sylas simply glared coldly. “I’m not even scared of fighting to the death on the battlefield, much less someone like you.”

She had already thought of 34 ways to get Levi under control.

To her, a commoner like him had no chance against her.

It was kind of a waste of her talent to send her after someone as plain as this.

Levi was taken aback for a second before grinning as he asked, “Oh, you served in the army before?”

“Yes.” Sylas nodded.

“In which warzone?”

He looked at Sylas a little more closely and noticed the soldier-like rage that seemed to surround her like an aura.

It was almost murderous.

She had definitely killed enemies on the battlefield before.

"Okay. You've brought this upon yourself," Sylas said coldly.
She wasn't going to hold back anymore.
Despite the small space they were in, Sylas suddenly raised her slender right leg swiftly.
At a speed like lightning and with the force of thunder, she aimed at Levi's face.
Everything Sylas had trained for in the army was to kill.
If she acted, then it was to kill.
With this one kick, Levi would probably suffer at least a broken nose, if not a completely ruined face.
He'd definitely have to lie in the hospital for a couple months.
"You're asking for it!" Levi roared.
He was angry too.

Right as the kick was about to land, Zoey's voice suddenly cried out, "No!"

Zoey had opened the door.

Sylas' foot stopped in midair, barely a centimeter away from the tip of Levi's nose.

Levi looked unruffled.

Azure Dragon automatically offered, "Should I go and protect Ms. Lopez?"

"There's no need to worry about her safety," Levi answered.

With Hades protecting her, she was as safe as she could be.

Even though L Nation was destroyed, Hades was still as powerful.

He wasn't someone to mess with.

"Who could it be? Wasn't what happened to the Caesar family bad enough? Who would dare to come after that?" Levi asked.

Azure Dragon shrugged. "I've already sent someone to investigate. They're unidentified as of now, but we know for sure that they're the strongest people that have ever challenged us. The fact that they could destroy South City's underground in one night is enough proof."

"I don't care who they are. As long as they're a threat to this city, I won't let them go," Levi announced coldly.

Since Levi was there, Tim and the others didn't care too much about this new group of threats.

They knew no one could cause any trouble with him around.

As expected, Jacky was already staring at him with icy eyes. "That's your problem! I want to see her tonight, that'll be my problem."

"Understood! I'm sorry, I promise I'll do exactly as you asked!" Leslie said, hurriedly pressing his forehead to the floor in a deep bow.

Jacky's meaning was clear enough. No matter how, he wanted to meet Zoey that very night.

"If you can't even get this done, then you'd better start thinking of your last words," Jacky said mildly.

The moment he left, Leslie wiped off his cold sweat with the back of his hand.

He nearly died in there.

He couldn't risk making that mistake again.

"You, get this done."

Leslie passed the baton to Derek.

To him, it was way too embarrassing for him to personally invite someone over.

"Of course! Don't worry, Father, I'll be sure to prove myself to Jacky." Derek smiled.

Zoey got off work right at 7 p.m..
She dragged her exhausted body out of the building.
She was supposed to work overtime, but the Black family was worried about her safety and demanded that she work at home.
Not far off, two of Derek’s subordinates were preparing to attack after spotting her walking out of the building.
“Slow down! It’s not a good idea to attack her here. We’ll wait until she’s almost home!” Derek said.
They had no idea that their every move was under someone else’s control right now.
Levi knew everything that was going on.
Despite that, he wasn’t the least bit worried.
Very soon, the chauffeur drove out.
Sylas followed Zoey into the car.
Derek instantly followed them.
