Chapter 641

All of them stared at Zoey intently as suspense filled the air.

Just when Meredith was about to comment, Fred cut her off. "Let her speak for herself."

When she saw that everyone's attention was focused on her, Zoey took a deep breath and exclaimed, "No! I'm unwilling to do so."

Turning to Landyn, Zoey apologized. "Landyn, I'm sorry to have disappointed you. But Levi is the one I love."

"If you were unwilling, why did you come?" someone yelled.

"The Black family forced Ms. Lopez to do so," Syllas explained.

Boom!

Meredith and Robert closed their eyes in despair.

Levi smiled. "What's the hurry? I haven't even finished."

"You're slandering me! I have been celibate for many years," Landyn retorted angrily.

However, everyone stared at Landyn suspiciously.

The more agitated he was, the more guilty he made himself out to be.

Even his men hesitated as to whether they should take action.

Despite being filled with rage as he glared angrily at Levi, Landyn was at a loss as to what to do.

Just then, Fred stepped forward and pushed Landyn aside. He shouted at Levi, "Who do you think you are? Since when does my son's personal life need to be scrutinized by you?"

He continued, "Based on the Gates family rules, you have committed four crimes and will be punished accordingly."

"Firstly, you've trespassed on and disrupted my son's engagement banquet. Secondly, you claimed my son's fiancée as your wife. Thirdly, you slandered my son. And lastly, you disrespected the Gates family!"

"The punishment for breaking the four rules is to have your four limbs broken on the spot."

The moment Fred passed the sentence, the elite warriors of the Gates family guarded the exits to prevent Levi from fleeing.

Fred then looked towards the Lopez and Black families. "The Gates family is not one to be messed with. Anyone from South City that challenged us will also be punished."

Chapter 643

"You... what are you laughing about?" Fred demanded coldly.

The way everyone saw it, Levi's laughter was extremely annoying.

"I'm laughing because the Gates family is about to be destroyed. No matter how powerful a person or family is, they cannot override the sovereignty of the country." Levi smiled.

How dare they claim to be the law in front of the God of War.

Are they not afraid of death? As that is the equivalent of challenging Erudia's sovereignty.

Without a doubt, they need to be taken down.

"Hahaha, the Gates family is finished? What a joke! Who can touch us? Who even dares to touch us? You?" Fred broke into a haughty laugh, followed by the rest of the Gates family.

With our family's influence, we are untouchable, let alone within South City itself where we are second to none.

"That's right, me!" Levi grinned.

"I don't want to see him still standing. He needs to kneel, now!" Landyn's mother bellowed.

In response, Fred glowered. "Men, punish him for the four crimes now. Break his limbs so that he can feel the wrath of the Gates family."

Upon his orders, four elite warriors emerged and headed towards Levi.

Therefore, he couldn't Landyn must marry Zoey.

Chapter 644

Fred grew desperate too. If they let Levi go, the reputation of the Gates family would be in tatters. Their family would no longer be able to face the world and they would also lose all authority. Therefore, Levi must not be allowed to leave. At that moment, a group of elite warriors of the Gates family approached Levi and Zoey to seize them. "How dare you leave after all the trouble you have caused?" Fred ordered, "I want him dead! And she must marry my son!" The Gates family's desperation and intimidation caused the Black and Lopez families' hearts to sink. Levi would die today while Zoey would be forced into marriage. In fact, the whole matter had doomed both the Lopez and Black families as well. As everyone trembled in fear, no one dared to say a word. In the face of the elite warriors, Levi sneered, "Are you sure you want to challenge me?" "Why? Do you think I don't dare to touch you?" Fred laughed deviously.

“Why don’t you take a look outside first?” Levi laughed in response.

At that moment, the elite warriors of the Gates family were stunned.

No matter how strong they were, they were still no match for three thousand men.

What are we going to do?

Fear flashed across Fred and Landyn’s eyes as there were simply too many men outside.

In fact, every single one of them looked like a formidable fighter, and they were definitely not a bunch of rabbles.

Despite that, the Gates family's honor was at stake.

If Levi stepped out of the door, their reputation would be destroyed.

Therefore, they had to defend their honor to the death.

"Stop them!" Fred insisted.

On his cue, more than ten elite warriors charged at Levi to kill him.

However, Levi and Zoey walked on and ignored everything around them, as if nothing happened.

Their enemies suddenly appeared behind them.

At the same moment, Hades made his move and his figure turned into a blur. In the blink of an eye, he appeared in front of Levi and Zoey.

Even after they left, Zoey couldn't shake the feeling that it was all a dream.

What had just unfolded was simply too shocking.

She did not expect that Levi would be able to rescue her from the clutches of the Gates family.

"By the way, Darling, did they say they were acting on the orders of Morris Group boss just now?" Zoey asked in curiosity.

"Yep, that's right. Other than him, I don't think anyone else can mobilize so many people," Levi replied.

"Both of us are considered members of the Morris Group. For him to rescue us does make sense. I wonder what's the boss like?" Zoey was very curious.

"He's probably like me!" Levi laughed.

"Stop blowing your own trumpet."

"What?"

Zoey's eyes suddenly sparkled as she always wanted to clear Levi's name.

As expected, it was picked up by someone else.

Meredith and Robert looked at Russell in disbelief as they didn't expect him to expose the truth.

"Russell, what are you babbling about? What's this about Zeek taking the check?"

Logan desperately winked at Russell for him to keep quiet.

"I have proof! Zeek even spent tens of thousands from the check." Russell ignored all the signals the members of the Black family gave him.

"I don't believe it. All of the Black family's servants are of the highest integrity," Bailey insisted.

"If you don't believe it, you can get Zeek here to ask him yourself," Russell suggested.

Pamela and the others protested, but Meredith agreed. "Alright, bring Zeek in for questioning."

Previously, they wanted to marry Zoey off to improve the family's future prospects.

But now, it was simply to placate the Gates family.

Since Kurt needed Zoey to fulfill the fortune teller's prophecy, they hoped the Gates family would not seek revenge on them.

Therefore, after some discussions within the family, Meredith decided to marry Zoey off to the Gates to mollify their anger.

Levi wants to marry Zoey?

No f*ing way!

Besides, he will be a dead man soon enough for offending the Gates family.

"It's not up to you. As long as Zoey is willing, I will marry her!" Levi exclaimed.

"Haha, you plan to marry Zoey? You will be better off worrying about how to protect yourself. The Gates family's army will soon be here to kill you," Logan burst into demented laughter.

"If the Gates does come, I will destroy them." Levi's eyes gleamed with menace.

This family has long acted with impunity and challenged the sovereignty of the nation. There's no way I'm letting them off easy.

"You're being ridiculous. I hope when the Gates are here, your words can still be as sharp!" Everyone sneered at Levi.

All of us will defend the symbol of the army with our lives.

"Who dares to come for the Chief? Are they nuts? I, Macfay, will be the first to strike them down!"

"I, Macdonald, will never allow it!"

“I, Mackenzie, forbid it!”

One by one, the captains of the reconnaissance troops roared angrily with a ferocious look on their faces.

“Very well, we will stay. I want to see with my own eyes who dares to challenge the Chief’s authority.”

“That’s right. Don’t worry, Chief. Let us deal with this for you.”

“Damn it, it’s time to teach this bunch of rabble a lesson.”

One by one, the men got out of the cars.

In a blink of an eye, the five hundred Dragon Guards and one hundred warriors assembled.

“Surround the place and don’t let anyone escape!” Landyn barked.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

The six hundred men spread out and sealed off all escape routes from the mansion.

The encirclement was six man thick. Even a bird couldn’t escape, let alone a man.

The Dragon Guards alone were stronger than the force of five thousand men combined.

After that, Fred and Kurt got out of the car.

“Let’s enter from the front,” Fred ordered.
