Chapter 651: Moved by Prehaus

Luomashi,.

"Brother!" Seeing the red prancing horse, Xiaojie trot a long way to meet him.

"Well, Xiao Su." Qin Yu closed the door and pointed to Xiao Su who got down from the co-pilot.

"Sister Su, here, the table is already open." Xiaojie guided the two of them to walk in.

Prehos is 700 meters away from the central drum tower, covering an area of more than 6000 square meters, with a floor height of 20 meters.

There is no break-up, there are 128 decks in the audience.

This is like Hudu's TAXX.

The deck is divided into S card, A card, V card, and W card.

The S card is actually a loose platform, but it is made into a card socket.

The location is at the outermost periphery of the entrance. If everyone is compared to watching the lively crowd eating melons, the S card is the passerby standing at the outermost periphery.

Basically there is no sense of existence, it is all self-participation.

Only spend a minimum of 1,000 yuan on weekends, join in the fun and have fun.

It's enough to set a table in the S card. If the face is good, the lady of the A card might come over for a drink.

Behind, whether there is anything depends on whether your mouth is smooth and smooth.

As for the V card and W card, people are cheering in the innermost!

Basically never meet from beginning to end, just two worlds.

A card is a mid-range consumer, with a low consumption of 2,000 yuan on weekends. It is the first choice for professional bungee players and petty-bourgeois youths.

The A card is basically a sense of participation, and occasionally I look at the W card in the center of the dance floor in front of me. I am envious and give myself some motivation at the same time.

Next time, I have to take W card next time.

The V card is a VIP card. The layout of the position is half-packed on both sides of the dance floor. It is suitable for business banquets and is more concealed.

The wall surrounds the central area where the W card is located, and it is also the most competent green leaf, which sets off the height of the W card.

W card is also dance floor card. It belongs to, the best location, the most exciting atmosphere, and the closest to the DJ station.

The DJ stage is the best, the most central area belongs to the W card.

The basic spending on weekends varies from 6000 to 20000 depending on the location, which is nothing to the local tyrants.

But the average person is already a very high consumption. After all, no one can resist it once playing.

When you enjoy the W card once, and then let you sit back on the S card, the loss caused by the gap can drive people crazy.

After 12 o'clock, the venue became hot, and the younger brothers and younger sisters all squeezed into the W card, which was called a hot spot.

No matter which area you are sitting in, as long as it is a W card, then you are the most beautiful boy in this gai!

In order to ensure the safety of the disco players, the deck of the deck is specially reinforced, with a bearing capacity of 200KG.

I'm not an overweight player, it's fine even if you are in the deck.

So the show opened at 10:30, and the card table was immediately full of people.

Step on it, throw paper, and get up~

Pretty boy, good class!

"Brother Yu~Brother Yu~"

"Brother Yu is here."

"Brother Yu, sit here." As soon as Qin Yu arrived with Xiao Su, everyone on the deck stood up.

There are a lot of people today, not only Li Xiao, Xu Hao, Yang Chengjun, but also Tang He, Gao Bo, and Xu Meixin! ! !

Seeing everyone around Qin Yu, Xiaojie felt very proud: "Big brother is big brother, when can I get this one?"

"Heh, this is to...I go?" Qin Yu held Xiao Su's waist and turned around to leave.

"Stop talking, drink one first!" Yang Chengjun came most directly, carrying two glasses of wine into his and Xiao Su's hands.

"Brother ordered it, Thirteenth Chaos." Xu Hao pointed to the wine on the table.

Martell Supreme + Hennessy Richard + Louis XIII, 158.888 yuan.

Prehaus's most expensive set meal, Li Xiao arranged it as soon as he came.

In his words, you have to look at its top consumption first when you change the venue, and then you will know if it is the best after you taste it.

"Is it top?" Qin Yu raised his head and did it directly, then put down the cup and asked with a smile.

"Great, genuine!" Li Xiao responded with a smile.

Will the venue work? Regardless of how big it is or how luxurious the equipment is, there is one more important point.

Have you ever used consumers as fools? Wine is really untrue and worthless!

It's not 10 years ago, and consumers are not fools. Even if they come to play, they also have steelyards in their hearts, and they have their own judgments about their value.

Of course, this value is what the older brother thinks!

Like the Thirteen Dynasties in front of me, three bottles of top cognac.

Three bottles of wine are bought outside, and it costs seventy to eighty thousand.

The price doubles here, is it expensive?

It's really not expensive, if you don't sell it more expensive, elder brother still feels that there is no card.

So, face (three bottles of the world's top cognac), lizi (the wine is real, the price is not a fool).

You just say it's not the best!

"Shao Qin, this wine is so spicy."

Xiao Su took a sip of his wine, squeezed it together while holding the cup, sticking out his tongue, and kept fanning it with his hand.

"Haha, Xiaojie." Waved to Xiaojie not far away, "Give Xiao Su a set of dragons."

Today Xiaosu is so behaved that she can't give her a set of cards.

"Okay, Shao Qin, make arrangements right away." Xiaojie left happily.

Gold, pink, green, purple, white, gold 1.5L, the total price is 99.999 yuan.

This commission, it will not be available.

Xiaosu immediately hugged Qin Yu happily and exclaimed: "Shao Qin, you are great!"

Xu Meixin looked at this scene with a complicated expression, picked up the wine in front of her, her neck dried up.

Annoying, the inexplicable irritability made her just want to drink!

At this time, Xiao Su is immersed in self-movement...

Now she is very grateful for her persistence, and she has not given up because of temporary difficulties.

I just said something spicy, and my eldest brother ordered a set of 100,000 yuan Shenlong set for himself.

What is it like, surprise, happy, surprised, moved.....

In short, she is very happy at the moment!

And this happiness is built on a strong material foundation.

Thinking of a certain licking dog, he came to the bar to stand on the stand and drink the blended Chivas for 12 years.

Say something spicy, lick the dog and give yourself a soft drink or say "drink slowly, add some sprite" to the sad picture.

Looking around again, with those envious eyes, Xiao Su was firmer in his thoughts.

She wants to stand in the center of the stage, radiantly, and be the most shining protagonist.

Rather than shrinking in the corner, only the poor worm!

When everyone saw this scene, they couldn't help showing a knowing smile.

It seems that this young lady is going to eat a stick tonight...

Don't say anything, tacky!

Regardless of whether the ace of spades is good or not, I have to admit that it has become a symbol in nightclubs.

If you can order Shenlong, you are the eldest brother, but if you can't order it, you are the elder turtle.

When you watch the Shenlong put on, the naked eyes around you looking at the deck are full of envy and sparkling luster.

knows how real it is, "Little brother, do you want to play together? Our five sisters came together."

The girl in the white ultra-short nightclub outfit was very cool, lying on the back of the sofa, and asked the people with her probe.

The refined internet celebrity face immediately obtained a deck pass for her.

The dragon sets and light cards placed on the table are like a beacon under the night, and the little sisters who have lost their way in the sea approached it and landed safely!

"We are all calling to play together, we happen to be short of Miss Sister." Seeing that Qin Yu had no objection, Xu Hao immediately got up.

Every time he comes out, he is the manager of the big house, Xiaojie outside the deck is in charge, and inside the deck is his home court.

"Bun, come here!" Seeing Tang He sitting alone in the corner, Qin Yu called him to his side: "Xu Ya didn't come back with you?"

His goddess Xu Ya is also from the abandoned city, so it stands to reason that she should be back from the holiday.

"I'm back, her family is tightly guarded and can't get out at night." Tang He explained with a smile.

Gao Bo leaned over and said with a smile: "Is it impossible to get out, or you didn't want her to come."

"Go away, you think everyone is the same as you." Tang He said justice Ling Ran, but his eyes kept looking at the young lady who was walking outside the card.

The appearance, figure, makeup and dress are all excellent If you let Yu brother score by himself, these five girls are at least 85+

As for the inner...

is all coming out to play, so don't take it so seriously inside.

Freshness did not fall below 85, according to the standard, it must be at the level of Tiancai.

It seems that Tang He's Xiao Adventure tonight is going to be difficult.

"Find a place to sit by yourself." Xu Hao asked the young ladies to come in, and asked them to choose their own positions.

These five little sisters correspond exactly to the five of them.

As for Brother Yu, it's not enough at the moment. I didn't see the secretary's sister who keeps drinking at this moment, and it's already starting to warm up.

It might be a cup, and his head fell into Brother Yu's arms.

I'm afraid it's going to be pornographic for this tonight! ! !

Qin Yu also saw Xu Meixin's state, frowned, reached out and hooked her finger at her.

Xu Mei, who was about to continue, was stunned, holding the wine glass with a complicated expression, changed her position, and sat next to him.

Chapter 652: get high

"Not happy?" Qin Yu asked curiously, looking at her flushed cheeks.

"No." Xu Meixin took a deep breath and raised a smile: "I finally came out to relax, I want to drink a few more glasses!"

"If you want to get drunk, you have to take it slowly, the place is not hot yet!" Qin Yu joked.

"I don't." Xu Meixin suddenly wanted to be rebellious and wanted to fight him.

Why listen to him when you go to work, listen to him at work, listen to him on business, and listen to him even when you go out to play.

I'm going to be drunk today, I'm going to drink now...

Xu Meixin picked up the wine and delivered it to her mouth, looking at her rebellious expression of "I'm going to do it, I want it, I want it".

Qin Yu also didn't bother to care about her, waited until he got drunk and finished the hotel.

Anyway, I opened the room by myself tonight, it is not bad for her to have a bed.

"Hey, ladies, raise the cup, let's respect brother, Qin Shao a cup together." Xu Hao raised the cup and roared.

"Thank you, brother, Qin Shao." You don't need to figure out who is brother and who is Qin Shao, just follow along and shout, and the drink is over.

After two glasses of wine, the inescapable barrier is gone.

Several Tiancai each sits next to the selected target, using their own skills to inquire about the status of the big brothers.

Gao Bo is okay. Although he comes less often, he is at least rich in love experience.

A rookie like Gao He, let the girl figure it out without a word.

The other party instantly lost interest in him, but he did not make Gao He feel indifferent.

Turning his face down and not acknowledging people, this kind of thing is impossible to do.

Even if you can't be a partner, you can at least be a friend. There are not many rich friends these days.

Maybe someday, a golden tortoise will appear in any circle of friends.

Don't install anymore, it's a showdown!

Going home and inheriting tens of billions of assets, it is no longer necessary to make a lot of money.

Multiple friends, multiple paths, as long as you know what proportion is, Tiancai doesn't mind having more friends around.

Except for Pu's self-confidence, in his circle, he feels that he is the sky.

Being friends with this kind of person, apart from being able to add obstacles to oneself, there is no positive help at all.

No, one thing...

When you want to lose weight and want to induce vomiting, you can talk to him for a few words.

Basically less than three sentences, vomit!

"How did you meet?" Now that Tang He has been positioned in the [Friends] rank, Tiancai naturally wants to lead the topic to other people.

Today, there must be hidden predators in this game.

I just don't know, which one is sitting in the middle...

"You said Qin Yu?" Seeing her nodded, Tang He said casually: "Let's also be considered as children. From childhood to adulthood, we only separate from college."

"Then what does Shao Qin do, are you all students?" Tiancai became curious.

Tang He looks a bit like a student, but other people look really different.

"Don't you know him?" Tang He pointed towards Qin Yu, and asked with a weird smile.

Amana shook her head in surprise, and said to her heart, "Is it a celebrity that doesn't look like it!"

"Handsome is really handsome, but she must have never seen this face, otherwise she will definitely have an impression."

I really don't know when I see Tiancai, Tang He smiled and said, "Miracle Company, have you heard of it?"

"You mean Godson Technology, that's the one that has a lithography machine." Tiancai immediately gained momentum.

I want to say that the most famous subsidiary of Miracle Company is not Miracle Pharmaceuticals, or Miracle Headquarters, nor is it the Miracle Internet Company that released "The Monster".

Instead, it owns a lithography machine, a Godson technology that breaks foreign monopolies and shapes [Xia Guoxin].

"Yes, that is the company of Miracle Company, he is." Tang He raised his chin to Qin Ang.

"What is it?" Tiancai's eyes brightened.

She heard Tang He's subtext, but she still wanted to hear him say it herself.

"What did you say!" Tang He smiled, "The company belongs to him."

For Tiancai's idea, Tang He can see clearly.

He also knew that Tiancai didn't like him.

But if she put the target on Yu Ge, her heart is a bit high.

Although they haven't been together in the past two years, they have learned about Qin Yu's situation online and in group chats.

Yu's vision is getting higher and higher. If nothing else, just look at the two sitting next to him.

A standard face value top, naughty and lively, young and active.

A noble and elegant, every move is full of the temperament and charm of a mature woman.

It's not that Tang He underestimated her, it was that her rank really didn't meet that standard.

Whether it's Xiaosu or Yu's little secret, she has nothing to compare with the two.

"Well, can I have a drink with Qin Shao?" Tiancai politely wanted Tang He to recommend it.

He did not refuse, and directly brought Tiancai to Qin Yu, "Brother Yu, Xiaolan would like to have a drink with you."

"Okay, Tang He is my brother, take care of him." Qin Yu readily picked up the cup, suffocating with a mouthful of wine.

Seeing this scene, Tang He's importance in Tiancai's heart instantly rose by dozens of layers.

was originally a two-story building, but now it has reached the stratosphere.

Big brother acts purposefully, how to drink a glass of wine.

Put it up and let it go, that's familiar.

Sip, general relationship.

Drink half of it, it's a good relationship.

Say a few scenes, if it's done, it's called face.

There are not many words, but it is refreshing and stuffy.

This is true friendship, there is no interest involved

This is a potential stock. Although he is ordinary, his circle is not ordinary.

What are circles and connections? That is potential and money...

What kind of achievements you will have in the future, your circle and contacts play a decisive and key role.

Although Tang He is quite ordinary now, he has good resources!

Tiancai's attitude immediately became a bit enthusiastic. After Jing Qin Yu returned to his position, he played and drank a cup of wine with Tang He.

Seeing Tang He's happy look, Qin Yu was a little worried for him.

There is no impermeable wall in this world. Brother Yu can hold it, but that doesn't mean he can hold it.

If Xu Ya knows this, the goddess who has been pursuing for many years is afraid to fly.

"Bun." Hooked at him and called to his side. Qin Yu reminded him to pay attention and don't play too much.

In other words, he also has a girlfriend. If he really broke up with Xu Ya, he would regret it.

"Know, Brother Yu, I have a sense of measure!" Tang He said with a smile.

Looking at his indifferent expression, Qin Yuxin said, "If you really know it, it will be fine."

Gao Bo is a lot of fun playing here, with big hands constantly touching the waist of Tiancai, and it's a lot of fun.

The two of them have already started to play the paper-passing game now, you pass me, I pass you...

啧啧~

This routine, you can...

Others are veterans of nightclubs, so I don't need Brother Yu to worry about it.

10:30, the opening ceremony is in place.

The drinks on the table were emptied, and Xiao Su was the first to stand on the card table.

Holding two stacks of paper in her hand, she waited expectantly for the countdown on the big screen.

When the screen flickered and the music drums sounded, Xiao Su bounced happily, and a pair of long legs of Bai Zhi dangling in front of Brother Yu.

The beauty can only be realized by personal experience...

The napkins flying all over the sky, like snowflakes, set off the atmosphere, the atmosphere group wearing denim skirts on stage, the rhythm of the scene of the leader who twisted his waist and shook his hips.

DJ even jumped onto the stage, holding the microphone constantly to set off the atmosphere.

The atmosphere on the scene has exploded. Everyone stood up and shook their heads following the drumbeat of the music.

Qin Yu is no exception, standing directly on the sofa, shaking his body to the rhythm, and stepping on the drums under his feet.

咚咚, 咚咚, 咚咚咚...

Until the end of the opening show, the hot atmosphere did not cool down a bit.

The atmosphere group began to move towards each area, driving the rhythm of the scene.

Two atmosphere young ladies walk along the block and stand on the block in the middle of the back row of the deck sofa of Qin Yu and others.

Bring your legs together and twist your whole body to the rhythm of the music.

"Beauty, do you want to come down for a drink?" Xu Hao took a fancy to an atmosphere group and wanted to invite him down for a drink.

The girl was not polite, she slid down the sofa and sat down, and chatted with Xu Hao, talking and laughing.

"The wine is gone." The three bottles of cognac on the table were left without a drop. Yang Chengjun shook the bottles and asked for another set meal.

One dozen snaps, that's 160,000.

This arrogance destroys the heavenly dishes around him, and the whole person will be squeezed in his arms.

廖廖 called "Brother Jun, Young Jun..."

The only person who seemed out of place in the audience was Xu Meixin, who was drinking sullenly.

However, she can really drink, drinking from start to finish, she is not even drunk.

If she weren't Yu Ge's secretary, she would really look like a wine tray who came to drink alcohol!

Chapter 653: Positive (I wish everyone a smooth college entrance examination, rush)

Drink like Xu Meixin, no matter how she can drink, she will get drunk!

No, before it reaches zero, Xu Meixin collapses on the sofa.

Slightly opened her mouth, her eyes blurred, her mouth spit out heat, and her whole body was soft like noodles, full of tender temptation.

"Look, I'm like this. Isn't it just what you want?"

The state of Xu Meixin at this time conveys such a signal.

Moved?

It's fake to say that it's not tempting. Brother Yu almost couldn't hold it back, so he started to hold her in his arms.

But he still held back.

The bottom line is the bottom line. If a person loses his or her bottom line.

Then, this person is basically not far from destruction.

Do not touch colleagues at work, this is Qin Yu's bottom line for himself.

Since it was established by itself, it must be obeyed!

So, this time it was hard work for Xiao Su, who was severely ravaged by Brother Yu in his arms.

You have to greet you with a smile when you are done. Who makes the big brother rich!

Yes, being rich is so great...

You are not convinced, hold back if you are not convinced!

Boss Ma came out and said that the fart is fragrant, and some people hold it, "Oh, that fart is fragrant, more fragrant than perfume!"

You went out today and said: "This box of leeks is delicious."

Gang Jing had to jump out, "Where is delicious, the stuffing is not full, and it looks like a scam."

This is the greatness of the rich, the thought is here.

Wealth=success=speaking and listening=everything is right.

No money=failure=all talking shit=deserved of you.

It's so simple, rude and straightforward!

"Brother Yu, do you have time tomorrow?" By 2 o'clock in the morning, it was about to end, Li Xiao approached him and asked.

"What?" Qin Yu asked back.

"Let's meet and talk about business!" Li Xiao said.

"We have dinner together at noon." Qin Yu said.

"Okay, that's it. I'll let the mouse fix the place and send the address to you."

Finished tomorrow's meeting, and the few people who had drunk each left with Tiancai.

Tanghe also staggered on Tiancai, and walked towards the hotel next door to Prehaus.

It looks like a home run tonight!

As for other people, either directly rest in the hotel next door, or find a driver to return to the hotel you have set.

Qin Yu did the same. He found a driver to get out of Rafa.

The person did not go up, but Xiaojie sat in the co-pilot: "Park the car in the parking lot of the W hotel, and leave the key at the front desk."

After finishing the order, Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and transferred 1,000 yuan to Xiaojie.

The hard work and tips are settled together.

And he himself took Xiao Su and Xu Meixin in a taxi.

Get in the car, and the talkative driver immediately spoke up: "Brother, are you here to travel in the abandoned city?"

"I will be a man in the abandoned city." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Oh, I really didn't see it!" the driver said.

"Why, doesn't it look like?" Qin Yu asked amusedly.

"It's not like, you look like a star, you are from a big city."

"The abandoned capital is not small."

"It is not small, but there is still a gap with the first-tier cities, but it has been getting better and better in the past two years, and maybe one day we will be able to evaluate a first-tier city."

"Not all saying waste will be criticized in Zhili City!"

"I think it's not a good thing. Just a little bit, it must be regarded as Zhili City. Where the provincial capital is moved, it can't carry this banner in any surrounding city."

The driver's words are on the point. The obstruction of Fudu's evaluation of Zhili City is not only because the specifications are not up to standard, but also because of its own big reasons.

There is no one in the surrounding area that can carry the flag of the provincial capital. Here is the city of Zhili, and there is no one that can carry the flag.

Who will be the provincial capital, looking around, no one is qualified.

Chatting along the way, time passes unconsciously.

Wait until the hotel, the number displayed on the meter exceeds 100 yuan.

Detour!

The driver must have taken a detour, but Qin Yu did not feel any unhappy.

It's a good time to chat on the road.

This is the charm of language and personality. When you encounter such a driver, you don't care even if you know the other person detours.

Furthermore, 100 yuan is really not worth mentioning to Yu Ge.

Quickly pay the bill, Qin Yu hasn't got off the car, the driver has already got off the car and opened the door proactively, "Brother, do you need me to send it up for you."

Look, this person who will come, deserves to make money!

Sometimes an attitude, a sentence, is more important than what you really do.

"No need." Qin Yu refused with a smile, and walked into the hotel with one hand and one hand.

The driver was standing on the side of the road, looking at his eldest brother from left to right, he was envious in his heart.

This kind of high-quality beauty is just a daily state for the eldest brother, right?

Go directly upstairs, and the hotel staff will punch in and open the door.

Qin Yu thanked the other party, and the door was automatically pulled and closed.

Click!

The door was locked, and Qin Yu put Xu Meixin on the sofa and walked to the bathroom with Xiao Su in his arms.

.....

In the middle of the night, Xu Meixin was awakened by thirst.

Hot throat, like gunpowder in it, stinging!

"Hmph, cough!" Sitting up swayingly, Xu Meixin looked for water.

There was a strange choking sound in the bedroom, which made her * her ears.

Humbling and sobbing, Xu Meixin thought of something, and her body became more and more thirsty.

Find mineral water at the small bar, and twist the bottle cap in a panic, "Gudongdong....."

Filled most of the bottle in one breath, and Xu Meixin felt a sense of joy of coming back to life.

The sobbing sound in the ear becomes clearer and clearer...

At this moment, the door of the suite was slowly opened.

Xu Meixin was startled and ran back to the sofa to lie down and pretend to sleep.

After that, the sound of heavy and slow footsteps faintly came, as well as the friction and flapping sound of impact.

The voice became clearer and louder.

Xu Meixin quietly opened a small gap in her eyes and looked in the direction of the sound.

Before the wide and bright French bay window, a figure is holding the glass and sobbing in pain.

Behind , there is something indescribable...

In a trance, Xu Meixin didn't know how she fell asleep in the middle of the night.

She only knew that she had been struggling and groggy, and fell asleep.

But it seemed to be in a dreamy state of half asleep and half awake, and when she opened her eyes, the sky was already bright.

But the body seemed soft and sore, as if being hit by a hammer in turn.

"Hmm~" Sit up quietly Xu Meixin's brain is still in a state of unconsciousness.

Looking around, there was only oneself in the living room quietly.

The door of the suite was closed tightly. What happened last night was like a crazy dream.

Xu Meixin blinked, feeling a little uncomfortable.

Reached out his hand and wiped it down, his expression instantly fell into a shy embarrassment.

Tighten his legs and ran into the bathroom like a shy bunny.

Wow!

The stream of water sounded.

Half an hour later, Xu Meixin walked out of the bathroom again, wearing a brand-new bath towel on her body, and carefully looked at the suite door.

Seeing that the door was still closed, Xu Meixin breathed a sigh of relief: "It seems that they are not awake yet."

was thinking, there was a 'ticking' sound from the door of the room.

Woke up early in the morning to go to the swimming pool to exercise, Qin Yu walked in from the door covered with sweat, and bumped into Xu Meixin's face.

Chapter 654: God stick is online

Qin Yu who entered the door just glanced at her, nodded and walked towards the room.

Take off his watch, take off his shirt, Qin Yu walked into the bathroom and went to spare.

On the contrary, Xu Meixin, wrapped in a bath towel, stood in place, watching everything carefully from the corner of her eye.

"Secretary Xu, let the restaurant deliver breakfast." Qin Yu's voice came along with the sound of the water flowing in the bathroom.

Xu Meixin, who was standing in the living room, hurriedly sorted her clothes and called for room service.

When Qin Yu came out again, Xu Meixin had changed her clothes.

Even if the clothes are full of alcohol, they are still a bit wet and sticky, which is very uncomfortable.

She must also keep a professional smile.

"Morning, Secretary Xu." Xiao Su woke up too, with a lazy expression on Qin Yu's large letter T-shirt, and yawned and sat on the sofa.

So, when Qin Yu came out, he could only bare his spine: "Where are your clothes?"

Xiaosu spoiled softly: "My clothes are dirty, it's so uncomfortable!"

"Is the room service fake?" Qin Yu said helplessly and funny.

Xiaosu stuck out her tongue, "It's expensive."

Expensive, I didn't see you drink less when I ordered the Shenlong set last night. I know it is expensive now.

Dial the front desk number, Qin Yu asked to send two sets of women's clothing up: "Professional skirts need XXL, waist circumference 2 feet 2, and the other one needs L, waist circumference 2 feet."

Hearing Qin Yu's accurate count, Xiao Su was surprised, and then looked at Xu Meixin with a playful look.

"So you are such a secretary." Xiao Su's eyes were full of jokes.

If it weren't for having close contact with the boss, how could she be so clear about her size.

"Secretary Xu's figure is really good!" Xiao Su said with a light smile.

Xu Meixin kept smiling and nodded politely as a response.

In fact, I was completely confused.

How does he know his size and know so clearly?

I never told anyone that Xu Meixin knew better than anyone about the intimate contact Xiao Su thought about, that was nothing at all.

and so.....

Xu was aware of Xu Meixin's surprise. Qin Yu sat on the sofa and wiped her head and said, "When I helped you up last night, I touched your waist."

He just confessed it openly in front of Xiao Su.

More than that, Qin Yu suddenly stopped wiping her hair, threw the towel to her and said, "I'm tired, clean it for me."

Xu Meixin is in a state of perplexity, but she can't refuse.

What's more terrible is that there is a Xiao Su with a face full of envy beside him, as if it is an honor to be able to wipe his head.

"It seems, I am very happy." Xu Meixin carefully dried his hair.

Looking at Qin Yu's hairstyle unaffected by friction, the scattered broken hair carries a natural wildness and beauty.

made her envy for a while, the boss is so perfect!

Sometimes, perfect is not like a normal person.

Room service is here, breakfast and clothes are delivered together.

A set of light gray professional skirts, flesh-colored stockings, and a sporty one-shoulder shirt and jeans.

The two of them took their clothes and changed them inside. The three of them sat at the dining table and had breakfast together.

Xiaosu looked very happy, sitting in a chair, shaking his head while eating, his long legs rippling forward.

From time to time, he carried Qin Yu on the leg, and when he stared at himself angrily, he took it back with a smile.

But she didn't know, Xu Meixin, who seemed to be calm at this time, bowed her head to eat quietly.

The beautiful legs wrapped under the shredded pork are carrying Qin Yu's inner thighs and rubbing repeatedly.

Look at her dignified and virtuous performance, holding a spoon to eat quietly and elegantly...

No, it should be said that I was eating breakfast.

The kind of elegant lady temperament is in sharp contrast with her little movements under the table.

This... Brother Yu is too difficult.

Ring~

A ringing tones broke the solidified breath on the dining table, and Qin Yu quickly turned around and walked to the balcony with the phone.

"Bun..." Seeing him just leave like this, Xiao Su curled his lips bored, and seriously dealt with the breakfast in front of him.

Xu Meixin showed a gentle smile, looking straight at Xiao Su.

Until she looked at her a little hairy, she smiled at the other person to please.

But she was a little surprised in her heart: "What does that winner's smile mean?"

Tanghe will set up a table at noon. The three of them gather together with their families.

Qin Yu naturally had no comments, so he called Li Xiao backhand and arranged the meeting there in the afternoon.

"I'm going to sleep for a while, call me at 11:15." After confirming the time with Xu Meixin, Qin Yu stopped breakfast and went straight back to the room.

I have eaten this breakfast, and my legs are not safe.

If you continue to eat, I'm afraid there will be more than two...

Watching the boss disappear into the suite and the door closed gently, Xu Meixin looked at the closed door with some worry.

The boss never sleeps back into the cage before, and he is full of energy every day.

Today, why do you suddenly want to go to sleep?

Is it because of my own reasons, or is there something wrong with my body?

Too tired?

looked suspiciously at Xiao Su, just such a little girl, can toss the boss with special skills to exhaustion...

Xu Meixin didn't believe it, she had seen the boss's specialties with her own eyes.

After thinking about it, I still think it is possible, after all, there is more than one woman beside the boss.

Thinking of this, Xu Meixin put down the knife and fork, picked up the phone and called the front desk: "Please help me prepare some wolfberry and American ginseng. Want the best..."

Lying on the bed, Qin Yu's consciousness came to Futra Star again.

"Honorable son of miracle, thank you for coming again." The sight in front of me was still blurred, and the prayers were already coming from my ears.

Opening his eyes completely, Qin Yu saw An, who was crawling under his feet.

The weak body, the perfect curve hides the power waiting to explode, and a long black hair hangs on the ground.

Silk smooth, clean and bright!

She is Anda's daughter, Ann, who is in charge of serving the Son of Miracle.

At the same time, it is also called "saint woman" by other believers.

The first time I saw Ann, she looked like most survivors in embarrassment.

Wrapped in tattered linen, his body was covered with mud and dirt, and his black hair was greasy on his head, tied with a straw.

After receiving Qin Yu's approval, Ann's life has undergone a huge change.

First of all, the precious water source was actually used by her to cleanse her body.

A full three buckets of water, clean her completely.

This was unimaginable in the past. You must know that the entire refuge has only one water circulation system, and groundwater is extremely scarce.

Every drop of water is the most precious wealth for the survivors.

is more important than life...

But she wasted one month's share of drinking water in the entire shelter.

This tremendous change and shock made An into the most loyal believer of miracles in just a few days.

[Votee], only one step away from [Mad believer].

The combat experience and knowledge taught by Anda personally gave her enough power to guard the safety of the son of miracle.

"Get up, Ann." Qin Yu said calmly: "Tell me about what happened during this period."

"Yes, my master." An stood Qin Yu sideways to start, bowing his head respectfully, repeating to him all the recent events in the shelter.

First of all, Refuge No. 18 has become the base camp of Miracle Sect.

Anda led the scavenger team to kill the previous boss, and now he is the leader of the refuge to the outside world.

The resources of the entire refuge are gathered together, and all materials are gathered together and distributed uniformly.

The previous loose rules are broken. Everyone must obey the shelter arrangements and participate in the work.

Expand and reinforce the shelter, dig ore, find food, search the ruins, and explore the space below.

Or go to help craftsmen or apprentices, in short, the refuge does not support idlers.

But under this change, as long as you are willing to contribute a bit of strength, you can eat enough to support yourself and your family.

All children are forced to be sent to the classroom to learn basic knowledge, focusing on the cultivation of mechanical ability and force value.

In other respects, Adachi's people spread out to the surrounding shelters to investigate the strength and details of the nearby shelters.

"How difficult?" Qin Yu asked again.

"Our food is consumed too fast, and it is difficult to feed the entire refuge. It is very difficult for the current team to do so." An euphemistically expressed the current dilemma.

"Have you not found a crop suitable for growing underneath?"

Seeing An shook his head, Qin Yu couldn't help but frown, and asked again while thinking, "How is the exploration of the space below?"

Chapter 655: Flesh and flesh are bitter and weak, machinery soars

Underground space, under Vault 18, there is a cave leading to the depths of the earth.

It's dark and damp inside, and it's bottomless.

Because of the inability to unify opinions, but also limited by the dilemma of technology and situation.

There has been no effective exploration before, but occasionally some people try their luck in despair.

In the end, it never came up again. As time passed, people would respect it.

and give it a terrifying name: Demon's Eye.

After Adachi took control of the entire refuge, the exploration of [Devil's Eye] restarted again.

It's just that its name is defined as [Underground Corridor].

The name Devil's Eye is too evil, instinctively uncomfortable and frightening.

[Underground Corridor] is different, where there may be hope, a new habitat for survival.

is like asking you to go around [Devil's Eye] or [Underground Corridor], you must choose the latter.

"The two teams have not come back yet." Ann replied.

"Mecha collection, repair progress?" Qin Yu said.

"Two of them have been repaired, one is handed over to the scavengers, and the other is to follow the expedition underneath to the underground corridor."

The methodical dialogue allowed Qin Yu to understand the current situation of the entire shelter.

is not very good, but it is not completely hopeless.

has the highest authority, able to mobilize the beast to recover the lost technology and technology.

Let Qin Yu become the * in the eyes of the survivors of the refuge.

After he repaired the incomplete exoskeleton mecha, the hope ignited in his heart instantly turned into a fanatical belief.

Then, he became the incarnation of the so-called gods.

There are all kinds of names, but in the end, helpless Qin Yu took the initiative to admit that he is the embodiment of a miracle.

This is the existence of [Child of Miracles] and the Church of Miracles.

It's just that Qin Yu hopes they believe in science even more.

What kind of religion is not serious when you hear it.

Called the Church of Miracle Science, how nice it sounds...

When I turned around, the name was changed, and I didn't say anything strange.

We must believe in knowledge, in science, and in miracles!

Right!

"What about the scientist?" Qin Yu was talking about the former second-in-command of the scavenger team, the lucky guy with four wives.

However, his luck is more than just opportunism.

In this desperate world where technology collapses, civilization is completely destroyed, all high-end talents are slaughtered, and inheritance is cut off.

Scientists who have professional knowledge, strong hands-on ability, and can assemble a shoulder cannon from scrap parts can be called 'scientific masters.'

Although he was very modest, he was a loser who failed the assessment and was expelled from the company's engineering department.

But for him now, he is the chief scientist of Vault 18.

"At work, repairing the third mecha." Following Qin Yu, the two walked out of the largest cave in the refuge one after another.

This was originally an assembly hall, but after the structure of the entire shelter was changed.

Assembly hall becomes a sacred hall, the dormant place of [Son of Miracles], only [saint] An can enter without being summoned.

Anyone who enters the [Sanctuary] without permission will be regarded as disrespectful and mortal.

Furthermore, this rule is not publicly announced and asked to be compulsively followed.

Is that all people in the fanatical beliefs, spontaneously abide by and acquiesce.

It's probably similar to making eye contact with everyone, and that's it.

There is no need for meetings, announcements, warnings, and requirements to be complied with. It is a big guilt and a big thing for whoever has violated it.

This is the terrible part of religious belief, it will brainwash itself!

Qin Yu brought new hope to them, letting the [Seeds of Technology] fall on this land again.

What can be taught is technology and science.

These people turned their heads too far to give Qin Yu a god...

This is outrageous!

In fact, Qin Yu can roughly understand what the people who made this decision think.

They need the kind of cohesion of religion, the kind of illusory power that does not need to seek truth from facts, but based on facts.

The kind of sensational, fanatical, and illusory power can stimulate and mobilize all potential to the greatest extent.

The survivors now need hope, and they need beautiful and false hope.

Religion is undoubtedly the best choice!

But this is not what Qin Yu wanted. When he met the scientist in the studio, he found that Anda was also there.

Immediately put forward his own resolution: "The Church of Miracles will be renamed the Church of Miracles."

"Why change your name?" Anda's questioning caused An to raise his head.

A pair of clear eyes like white paper, with a touch of hostility, is he questioning?

Seeing this scene, Anda instantly fell into an ugly embarrassment.

She almost forgot that her daughter is a goddess [saint] and a devout believer.

Just, as one of the decision makers.

He at least has the right to understand the reason, so even if he faces his daughter's dissatisfaction, Anda still maintains an inquiring attitude.

"Because I don't like it!" This reason sounds a bit awkward.

can be placed in a religious organization such as the religion, it is normal.

[God] I don't like it, is there any more powerful reason than this?

At least in Ann's opinion, there is no such thing.

And even if Anda still has questions in his heart, he can only remain silent at this time.

"How is the mecha repaired?" Qin Yu skipped the previous topic and set the tone like this.

I don't like it, so I changed my name. It's as simple as that.

Go and do it, it's over.

At this time, he really likes religion.

Unfortunately, such an organization is like a castle in the sky.

In this world where gods and monsters coexist, science fiction and magic collide, it is not a good idea to be a * stick.

Furthermore, he is the successor of the iron fist of socialism.

How can we believe these weird and chaotic talks, we have to be practical and scientific.

"70% has been repaired, and only the last power part is left." The scientist responded.

"Speed up, turn this station back to the underground expedition." Although Qin Yu didn't put all his hopes in the underground space.

But compared to the surface space where crops can't survive, it's obviously more promising underground than it has been polluted.

As long as there is enough food and water, humans, such highly adaptable creatures, can multiply quickly.

In addition, the surrounding population of the refuge will be annexed, education will be strengthened, and science education will be re-universal.

One day, you can return to the surface again and clean up those ugly crawlers.

As for afterwards, when we really get to this point, we will consider how to deal with the monster army that has crossed another planet and continues to fight.

Seriously speaking, that tuba is another self.

But he always felt that the large size was a little weird, which made people confused and unsure.

This is why he rarely logs in [L]!

Looking at the pious An in front of her, she really didn't know how terrified and hopeless she would be when she discovered that the * she believed in was the devil who destroyed everything.

"I hope there will never be such a day." Qin Yu muttered in his heart, leading her to the depths of the refuge.

And Anda will call everyone together to announce the important decision to change the name.

Fortra Star, 6 years after Molin, the Church of Miracle Science was established.

Along the way, all those who saw Qin Yu would push aside, and bow their right hand on their chest to express their respect.

Qin Yu smiled and nodded in response, always shocking the other party.

"Son of Miracle, I want to join the Ascension Project." Ann said suddenly.

The pace of advance stopped, Qin Yu looked back at her and asked seriously: "Are you serious?"

"Yes, my master." An knelt on one knee bowed her head in response.

As if in this way, I can express my inner respect and admiration.

Looking at this girl who was completely in faith, Qin Yu really had a headache.

Ascension plan, that thing is used to fool ordinary believers.

This plan naturally comes from a ridicule: flesh and blood are bitter and weak, and machinery is soaring.

In fact, where did the soaring come from, but it is just the most basic mechanical transformation.

Not only is the process dangerous, the use of mechanical prostheses is also very unstable, and it is still in the experimental stage.

Since she proposed to join, she naturally did not want to simply install a peripheral device for herself.

"Wait a few days later, I will personally take charge of your transformation." Qin Yu planned to drag it first, and then think of a solution when I look back.

Find an excuse to refuse, or find a more stable and safe way to semi-mechanically modify it.

In other words, such a beautiful girl must change herself to be inhuman, so why bother!

That...for robots, will there be a lot of show operations?

Chapter 656: Germany, thick also visited the granary and asked about the amount of food.

Went around the school and the martial arts field again, showing a cordial, friendly, and down-to-earth side in front of the believers.

Let them gradually transform the concept of [God] into [Leader], and Qin Yu, who returned to the sanctuary, chose to go offline.

At the end of the picture, An is standing on one knee beside Qin Yu, like an immortal statue!

...

Opening her eyes, Xu Meixin stood by the bed, holding a thermos cup in her hand.

"Boss, I prepared tea for you!" Seeing him sit up, Xu Meixin brought the thermos to him.

"Thank you." Qin Yu didn't think much, opened it and was ready to drink.

It happened that he was a little thirsty, and said to his heart, "Secretary Xu is still caring..."

Then, he saw the red cutie floating above, and the American ginseng slices standing upright in the water.

"Goji berries, American ginseng, and maca, it is said to be very tonic!" Xu Meixin said sternly, looking ahead.

"..." Who said I need to make up, which one of your eyes sees me to make up.

Zip!

This tea is delicious...

Noon is a small gathering between the brothers. You can only bring family members, not Xiaosu.

So, Brother Yu transferred 100,000 yuan to her to let her cool down wherever she can play.

Yu himself took Secretary Xu and met with Lu Qing at the entrance of the hotel.

The family is naturally Lu Qing, otherwise, who else can?

Secretary Xu is the accompanying secretary. Naturally, where the boss goes, where does she follow.

At the place, Secretary Xu and He Wu waited in the car together.

Lunch, the dumpling restaurant next door to the restaurant is very good!

The place set by Tanghe is a Chinese restaurant. It is a good place for a small gathering and a couple of drinks.

12 packs. When Qin Yu and Lu Qing arrived, Tang He and the others were already chatting.

Xu Ya is sitting beside Tang He, Gao Bo is alone, plus Qin Yu and the two, a total of 5 people.

"Brother Yu, sister-in-law."

"Hello Sister-in-law~"

"Hello," Lu Qing responded with a smile.

said hello, everyone was seated again, Gao Bo turned the menu to the two of them: "You are the only one left, we have all ordered."

"What dishes did you order?" Qin Yu asked casually.

"Vegetarian, frozen meat, big knife ear slices, take a fried peanuts, hot dishes ordered dry fried beans, braised eggplant, a bucket of fragrant soup."

"Cold bitter chrysanthemum, not peanuts, hot dishes...Songhua fish, another lighter, stir-fried green vegetables."

A lady is here. Lu Qing pays attention to the intake of oil and salt when eating on weekdays.

Most girls with good figures, except for those who don't get fat no matter how they eat.

To maintain a slim figure, exercise and diet management are indispensable!

"What to drink?" Tang He asked.

"Sister-in-law, what do you drink?" Xu Ya, who was sitting next to Lu Qing, asked actively.

"Juice or water is fine." Lu Qing smiled and said, "Otherwise, happy water is also fine."

"What kind of wine, steamed buns, I don't want to drink too low grade." Gao Bo deliberately teased.

"Moutai, I bought it at a cost, more than 1,600, fidelity, okay?" Tang He lifted the bag at his feet, his face was painful.

This is the money he saves by eating frugally and doing odd jobs.

Two bottles of wine took a meal away, which was completely restored to his original shape.

I am happy in my heart, it doesn't matter if money is not!

"Yes, Baozi, I'll mix with you in the future." Gao Bo took a bottle, opened it and poured it on the big guy.

"Would you like a drink for the two ladies?" Qin Yu asked.

He knew that Lu Qing would drink a little occasionally, not too much, but he didn't know whether Xu Ya would drink or not.

"Where are you, sister-in-law?" Xu Ya looked at Lu Qing.

It seems that for today's meal, she is going to take Lu Qing as the mainstay.

"A cup, let's do one together." Lu Qing said freely.

With the participation of ladies, the atmosphere is obviously different from before.

The small wine cup was full, and Qin Yu picked up the cup and said, "Let's offer a cup of steamed buns first. As an organizer, it's hard work."

"Okay, just barely." Gao Bo said with a disgusting expression on his wine.

"I lost it, believe it or not to let you out." Baozi scolded with a smile.

"Hey, I'm ready to eat today..." Gao Bo said as he took the wine glass and threw his head up, and poured himself a glass: "Not only eat, I drink!"

Laughing and cursing, the dishes are served between the laughing and joking.

Qin Yu knocked on the table with his hand, "Hey, that's all right, serious, drink one first, I wish you a bright future!"

"The future is bright, this is good, we must do it." When it comes to the future, Gao Bo is excited.

He now realizes the fulfillment and satisfaction that his future brings. Although he is a little tired, his life has become hopeful and fulfilled.

The days of the past that were always abandoned for a day are gone forever.

Now, he has more than seventy cars under his hand, and he can be regarded as a leader.

"Doctor can do it." Putting down the wine glass, Tang He was really happy for him when he heard Gao Bo mention his current job.

I didn't feel much before, but since Qin Yu has become more successful.

They have also become anxious and realistic in their hearts. It is nothing more than that in the end of life.

Poetry and the distance, that is the ideal that rich people can talk about.

Ordinary people can support a family, depend on the elderly, provide for the young, and have a house, a car and a deposit, which is already above the ideal.

Gao He has a vague plan for his future, find a job he likes, and immerse himself in it for 3 years.

Have enough experience and technology, then consider whether to continue in the company.

At this time, he should also have a stable and objective salary. If he continues to stay, then he will consider buying a house and getting married.

If you plan to change jobs, salary and development must be better than before.

There is no reason to change jobs and go downhill, the more you jump, the lower the salary.

After all, he also wants to get a meal, buy a house, get married and get married...

"Your plan is far enough." Qin Yu asked jokingly: "Or, let me give you some advice?"

Qin Yu wanted him to come to work directly in Miracle, but considering the relationship between everyone, his mind became weak.

When a friend is transformed into a superior and inferior, a long-term relationship of interest is involved.

That pure feeling will no longer exist!

And, it will feel strange.

In the past, everyone could talk, laugh, joke, ridicule, and wait to become subordinates.

Qin Yu became their boss's boss's boss...

Can be the same as before?

Impossible, no matter how good the relationship is, it will change.

How many examples are there, and how many close friends end up making trouble.

Therefore, Qin Yu would rather entrust Gao Bo to go to Yan Er's company and invest in him in the future, and did not mention that he should come to work in a miracle.

The same goes for Tanghe. He can provide opportunities and ideas, and there is no problem with money.

As long as he sincerely wants to work, this is nothing to Yu brother.

Brothers, help each other, pull one when you need it, isn't it reflected at this time?

"That must be, you are now a successful person among our peers." Tang He laughed and joked.

Gao Bo retorted: "What successful person, that is a leader, a young leader, a bit of culture?"

"I'll go, as long as you are educated, you are a brash man." Gao He immediately complained.

"What's the matter with the stubborn man? Whoever stipulates that the rash man should not have a brain, I am a big wise man." Gao Bo said.

"Dazhi, you Jill, punch your fist without saying a word, you are quite stupid." Gao He replied.

The two quarreled vigorously, and Qin Yu smiled while holding peanuts, eating and watching the show.

I haven't seen this scene for several years, UU reading www.uukanshu.com sees it again with a lot of emotion.

Interesting~

"Brother Yu, do you think he is a reckless man?" Gao He panted heavily and directed the flames of war to Qin Yu.

"The doctor is called Yong, he is not good at physical persuasion." Qin Yu said.

"Have you heard, you are a PhD in Physics." Gao He looked at Gao Bo proudly.

Gao Bo nodded and said: "My name is to convince people with virtue, virtue, and thick, you know what a fart!"

"..." Gao He pointed at him, his face dull.

I've never seen such a shameless, virtuous, virtuous person, is that what you mean?

According to you, all virtuous people have to carry a brick?

"It's alright, hurry up and listen to the idea that Brother Yu gave you. You can coax Xu Ya with your mouth, and you can't even touch it for another person."

Gao Bo laughed and joked, and ended the topic directly.

Qin Yu also said: "You first talk about where you want to develop. If you don't have any ideas... how about being a game pioneer?"

Chapter 657: The reserve price is one million, and there is no cap on it!

"Fairy demon, you know!" Qin Yu mentioned this to him, but it was not a whim.

The current popularity of "The Monster" is completely beyond everyone's imagination.

The sales of VR glasses and helmets are even more shocking.

Just put it on the shelves every time, whether it is online or offline, in seconds!

Some people squatted in front of the store for 24 hours, brought a tent, opened the door in the morning, put the tent away, and sat against the wall.

The tent is unfolded at night, and it is placed first at the gate.

Nothing else, just wait for the [out of stock] sign to be removed someday, and get the game equipment as soon as possible.

As for various online trading platforms, offline real transactions are even more numerous.

A pair of inactive VR glasses, the price has been up to 20,000.

The price of a helmet is even more expensive than 200,000 yuan...

Even worse, no one sells it!

When the first "Silhouette" was first launched, there were a few who couldn't resist the temptation to shoot.

In the blink of an eye, you can see that "The Monster" is getting more and more popular, the inside information exposed inside, the majestic atmosphere of the game, the magnificent depths...

Especially after it came out that the country sent elites into the game, as if looking for something inside.

The intestines of these people are all regretful!

I want to buy the equipment at the original price.

Either, the premium is 10 times, not necessarily someone will sell it!

It's just two weeks before and after. You say irritating but not irritating?

"What's in the monster?" Tang He asked curiously: "I also played the game. I will go in without the helmet you mailed last time."

"Then what?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Then, pick up the trash!" Tang He shook his head as if he mocked himself, "Soaking in the trash every day, maybe you have to die and run again."

"Caigou!" Gao Bo raised his brows and said with disdain, "Do you know what I am doing now?"

"What are you doing? Eating garbage?" Tang He sneered coldly.

"Go away, you just eat trash." After cursing angrily, Gao Bo raised his head and said triumphantly: "I'm from the Demon Hunter now, the Demon Hunter."

"What the hell?" Tang He was a little confused, Demon Hunter, why hasn't he seen it?

"I was lucky. I was born in a large refuge. It is said that it used to be a military fortress with militarized control.

I was thrown into the Demon Hunting squad right after I was born, and I ran out with it every day..."

Thinking of that time, I went out with the Demon Hunter to die in various ways. I just came back from death and waited for the cooling time to come.

When was online, he was thrown into another demon hunting team and continued to die.

He died hundreds of times over and over again, and gained awareness of monsters, alertness to danger, and familiarity with the route.

The attack methods and cooperation that the Demon Hunter is good at have all been tempered in life and death.

Then, he became an official witcher.

Just...

When I thought that my team had been reorganized for the fourth time, the faces I had seen first would never come back!

"So miserable?" Tang He asked surprised.

"No way, the equipment is too poor, the inferior monsters are still good, at least they can be killed directly with weapons, the inferior monsters...

Especially those low-level monsters with strong defenses, they are piled up entirely by human lives.

However, we have now cleared a safe area, and the monsters have basically been cleaned up, except for a few medium-sized monsters that occasionally pass by. "

"Hey, any of you have seen high-level monsters?" Tang He asked curiously.

He is very curious now, what does that high-level monster look like?

According to Gao Bo's retelling of the remnants, medium monsters can destroy a city.

Various heavy weapons either hit the body without breaking the defense, or they couldn't hit at all.

There are also giant monsters that are several hundred meters high, huge in size, and slow in movement.

Reached out and grabbed the missile, and threw it back to the human camp, causing countless casualties.

Electromagnetic weapons and energy weapons can cause fatal damage, but...

The important fortresses equipped with these weapons were all destroyed in the first place. Meteors fell from the sky and the demon weaving flame burned the earth.

The whole city is fluidized in the flame, and gradually melts like a candle!

In fact, the war ended at the beginning.

The terrible attack from the sky directly destroyed the highest technological crystallization of Fortra Star.

All resistance is weak and ineffective, and human beings are beaten back to primitive society in an instant.

Although is exaggerated, it is similar.

Later flat push, there was almost no decent resistance.

The monster army is like a locust crossing the border, sweeping everything, leaving the dilapidated Futra star flying away.

Then, the miscellaneous fish that stayed behind became an irresistible fear and nightmare for the remnants of Futra Star.

"This is too miserable, you say, will reality have such a day?" Gao Bo suddenly brought himself in.

After so many lives and deaths, I learned about the history of Futra and the cruel incursion.

Involuntarily bring the world and civilization of oneself into it in his mind.

Monsters may not, but if there are naive aliens coming.

All the technological defenses and weapons of human beings are not worth mentioning in front of the other party, whether they will be like those remnants.

The inheritance of civilization is severed, and it is hidden in the underground to survive...

"What do you think? That's a game." Tang He said, looking at Qin Yu, and asked, "Right?"

Qin Yu smiled and said, "Yes, since I have played it all, then I will tell you directly about the concept of wastelander."

The pioneers are actually more like death squads!

The main task of is to go to various dangerous areas and find those valuable items by virtue of their [immortality] characteristics.

"Like the ruins of a large and medium-sized city occupied by monsters, a piece of equipment, accessories or scraps picked up inside may be invaluable.

The value I said is not only in the game, but also in reality, especially some drawings, techniques, and books! "

"Don't underestimate this kind of thing, as long as you can write it out completely, the minimum is 1 million, and the upper limit is not capped."

Listening to what Qin Yu said, let alone Tang He and Gao Bo, even the two girls were stunned.

The minimum is 1 million, and there is no cap on it!

Here, pie in the sky?

"Goo!" Tang He swallowed, looked around, and found that everyone had the same expressions as himself.

Then he asked with confidence: "Brother Yu, tell me the truth, the drawing won't be..."

"Just as you think, some of the technologies in it can be reproduced in reality." Qin Yu said the biggest secret of the monster.

In fact, this is no longer a secret. Many players have discovered this.

In some * forums on the Internet, there are still some drawings, knowledge, diaries, or unreadable text books that are produced in various games.

The reserve price is 100,000, and the maximum is 2 million.

The news of has spread in the small circle of top players.

As long as you make a bold assumption, carefully verify it, and combine it with the news that "The Monster" has been paid attention to by the Ministry of War.

It is not difficult to speculate that the knowledge in the game can replicate this conclusion in reality.

Shocking, yes, when this conclusion was first drawn.

It's hard for everyone to accept it, because it's so incredible, it's just an international joke.

It's like a dead house telling you one day that his second-generation wife is alive and is now at home waiting for him to go back to XXOO.

completely unreliable!

But as more and more people come to a unified conclusion, they have to believe that their judgment is correct.

"The Monster" is not just a simple game.

The so-called virtual reality, in fact, has long surpassed human cognition of technology.

Then think of the game's unimaginable realism, the intelligence of those NPC natives, and the ability to think and act independently.

is not restricted by any rules, and even guards the corpse!

Said it is just a game Who believes it?

What makes them more convinced that they are right is the weird silence of Miracle Company in questioning.

Including the imperial court and the local government, it seems like you can't see this question.

Ignore it completely, just make it clear that it's an attitude: "You can think about it, anyway, I won't speak... As for games, I love to play or not!"

If you don't play, who would do it?

For this reality, there are countless people waving banknotes in line and waiting for equipment.

The same is true within the company, where many employees are complaining.

Since "The Monster" was launched, I have been harassed by various relatives and friends every day, all wanting to ask him to buy equipment.

But who knows, the company also has to line up to buy.

Also, there are only two places per person. Whether it will increase in the future is also a matter of the future.

Now, if you want to buy the third one, then you have to refresh, line up, fight for speed and luck just like the outside consumers.

Chapter 658: Sophisticated

"If you want to do it, you must hurry up and get into the large ruins first.

Otherwise, waiting for the high players to react, it won't be so easy if you want to do it again. "

Before leaving, Qin Yu chatted with Tang He again.

It's difficult and difficult to say, simple and simple, as long as you have the patience to figure out the pattern.

Avoiding risks, there will always be gains.

Although after death, the equipment and backpack contents will be left in place.

But as long as you don't die, it's a huge profit!

It's just that a lot of time and energy must be invested in doing this.

As long as the thought of "I'll just mess around and try my luck", there is basically nothing to play.

Get in the car, let He Wu drive home, and my mother summoned him!

Looking at the Maybach going away, Tang He stood still.

"Still thinking about what Qin Yu said?" Xu Ya came to him.

"Hmm." Tang He nodded without denying: "This money sounds too easy to make.

Even if you find the same, sell it at the lowest price of 1 million, which is enough to pay a set of down payment, and you can buy a car for the rest. "

Is Xu Ya moving?

She is also heart-shaped, and she has to be heart-shaped to be any normal person.

But she also knows that there will be no pie in the sky!

There must be difficulties that they are not clear about, and it will definitely not be as simple as it sounds.

And...

"Invest a lot of time in it, if you get nothing, what will you do after graduation?"

Xu Ya is also worried that she is playing things and loses her will.

If Tang He is addicted to the game world, he will completely forget his job.

By the time of the graduation season, there is no good internship unit and proper arrangement.

I want to regret it at that time, it's too late!

"I think I can try it." Tang He took her hand and said, "I know you are right.

But this kind of opportunity does not happen every day, especially for ordinary people like me, there are several opportunities in a lifetime that can make millions at once.

Opportunities like this are too rare. If I just give up like this, I will definitely not be reconciled. "

Looking at his firm look, Xu Ya knew that he had a decision in his heart.

In that case, "Can you still get that device?"

"It should be no problem to ask Brother Yu for one!" Tang He smiled.

"I want one for me, how much is it for me to accompany you?" Xu Ya asked.

"No money, between us..." Xu Ya interrupted before she finished speaking.

"The relationship between your brothers is your business, and this is my purchase." Xu Ya said without refusal.

"Then, I'll buy it for you, don't worry about it."

Although Tang He felt nothing, since she insisted, just do as she said.

"No, I will buy it myself." Seeing what he had to say, Xu Ya resolutely said: "Can Qin Yu take your money?"

If you do this again, I will find someone else to buy it myself. "

"It's all right, just as you said." Tang He second counseled.

Tell her the price, Xu Ya's expression instantly collapsed: "So expensive?"

She thought that a helmet topped thousands of dollars to death.

The price of 19,999 yuan is indeed beyond her estimate and the thickness of her wallet.

"I'll give it to..." Seeing Xu Ya's expression changed, Tang He's mouth fell bald: "Lend it to you."

Hearing what he said, Xu Ya asked, "Where do you get so much money?"

"Hey, don't you know that my biggest hobby is saving money?"

"That kid's biggest hobby is saving money." In Maybach, Qin Yu held Lu Qing's hand and discussed Tang He.

When I was in junior high school, my classmates made an appointment to go out together and asked my family for a 50,100 yuan.

It's done, after spending the game, and after the game is over, everyone else has left.

Tang He Zhunbao can take out another 50,100 from his body.

Every time...

It's not that he asks more from his family, but the pocket money that the family usually gives, breakfast and the rest.

One piece today, two yuan tomorrow, so he can accumulate little and make more, let him save it all.

"Don't look at him crying poorly, just today's consumption will not drain his small vault."

As far as Qin Yu knew, Tanghe's small vault must have at least forty to fifty thousand.

In terms of saving money, he is definitely a professional player.

"Then he is pretty good, and he must be a master at home in the future." Lu Qing said.

"That's right, whoever will follow him in the future will keep and enjoy the blessing." Qin Yu replied affirmatively.

Not only can save, but also willing to spend.

This is the reason why he said so, you are going to meet the grandiose who only saves money.

He has a wealth of wealth, and he has nothing to do with it.

At the door of the house, Qin Yu asked He Wu and Xu Meixin to enter with him.

This is not the first time I have come, and occasionally let them send things home.

is nothing new to Liang Chuyu!

"Mom, I'm back." Qin Yu changed his shoes and said: "Qingqing is also coming to see you."

"Auntie." Lu Qing shouted toward the house.

"Hey, in the living room!" As soon as Liang Chuyu's voice fell, the little steps came.

Stepping on small leather shoes, a small pumpkin in a small suit ran out.

A pair of eyes looked straight at Qin Yu and rushed towards him.

Her body tightened halfway, and she was hugged up empty under her feet: "Little Pumpkin, do you miss me?"

Lu Qing hugged the little guy, rubbed his nose against the tip of his nose, making funny faces to make him happy.

"Cauldron, cauldron." The little guy struggled to look at Qin Yu, his face full of distress signals.

There are fairies, help the cauldron!

After making such a profit, Lu Qing felt a little bit unable to hold it.

Hurrying down with a wry smile: "OK, go find your brother."

The little pumpkin turned from worries to joy, ran to the side, opened his hands, hugged!

The whole body was hung on Qin Yu's thigh, and he was taken into the house.

giggling endlessly!

Every time I see this scene, Lu Qing finds it cute and funny.

Xu Meixin sighed more: "This child not only has a good birth, but also has a smart brain!

I know how to hold big thick legs tightly at a young age. Can I grow up later? "

"It's all here, come sit down, you're welcome..." Liang Chuyu followed out, and when she saw so many people, she immediately asked Aunt Qiao to pour tea.

"Mom, what's going to tell me to come back?" The few people were still polite to each other, Qin Yu was already lying on the sofa eating grapes.

The grapes that Lao Qin bought for her mother, the skins are peeled off as soon as they are torn off, and the inside is like crystals. They are so delicious!

"Smelly boy, I don't know to let Qingqing eat first." Liang Chuyu cursed in an angry tone.

Picked up the fruit plate on the table and stuffed it directly into Lu Qing's arms: "You eat Qingqing, this grape is sweet!"

Lu Qing pursed his lips and smirked, nodding to cater to: "Okay, Auntie, let me try... well, it's really sweet."

He raised his chin proudly towards Qin Yu as he said, clearly saying, "Look! Auntie is still the best to me."

Yes, yes, you two are the mother and daughter.

gave her a look in her eyes, and Qin Yu asked again, "Mom, what the * is going on, I still have a meeting this evening."

"Meeting, socializing, your dad's daily socializing is enough for me, and now I'm giving you more."

Liang Chuyu took the little pumpkin into her arms, looked down and said, "Fortunately, there are our pumpkins, right?"

Little Pumpkin nodded frequently, as if in agreement.

At the same time, give Qin Yu an innocent little expression, "Cauldron, I didn't say anything."

Complained and complained, Liang Chuyu asked him to come back to let him take the little pumpkin to take a swimming class.

"I suddenly have an account to be settled, and the boss specifically called me to help, and I can't shirk it."

Listening to her, Qin Yu said directly: "If you don't go, it will be over."

As soon as the voice fell, the pillow flew over.

Qin Yu hugged him and said with a smile, "Go, I'll go, go now."

"Hurry up, everything is packed and left at the door, Qingqing will stay here to accompany me, and come back to pick her up later."

Before Qin Yu could speak, Lu Qing said first: "Auntie, I will stay here to accompany you to finish the meal, OK?"

Liang Chuyu is naturally happy that someone can accompany her her husband is busy socializing recently, and her son never goes home all day long.

It's great that someone can accompany her to dinner and chat, but isn't there a party at night?

"They have a group of big men drinking, I don't have fun to go." Lu Qing said.

"Well, you will stay here to eat at night, Aunt Qiao, add a few more dishes at night!" Liang Chuyu said to the kitchen happily.

"Okay, madam." Aunt Qiao responded with a smile.

Seeing a happy family, Yu picked up the little pumpkin and walked out, and went to the door to pick up the packed luggage...

Leave, there really is no place for me in this home!

Going to the door and getting on the car again, Qin Yu hugged the little pumpkin and said, "Wait for the place, you will send Secretary Xu back to the company, so you don't have to follow it at night.

"Boss, I can wait in the car." Xu Meixin said.

"There is no work arrangement today. If you have nothing to do at the company, you can leave work early and give yourself a holiday. Only by combining work and rest can you work better."

Chapter 659: Let's be vegetarian!

Swimming pool, Qin Yu changed Little Pumpkin's trousers and led him out of the locker room.

In the eye, wow!

It's all lovely moms... well, kids.

One by one, she was shrinking in her mother's arms, chatting non-stop.

The coach in the swimming pool, with a bright smile, said clearly, "It doesn't matter if you don't have money for this job."

However, what is the situation with 298 in the corner of the pool and the coach's crying face?

When Qin Yu brought the little pumpkin down, the scene caused a small sensation.

"Handsome guy, I haven't seen you before." The bold woman had begun to accost.

"I'm here for the first time today." Qin Yu picked up the little pumpkin and said with a smile on his face, "This is my brother!"

"Qin Yu~" A voice came, and Qin Yu looked back: "Sister Yaqing."

Xu Yaqing was there, too, who was not Wang Keming in her arms.

"Xiao Ming."

Qin Yu stretched out his hand and squeezed Mingming's face, the little guy giggled, and reached out to grab the little pumpkin.

The two haven't seen each other for a long time, Xiao Ming is still thinking about playing with him!

It was a little pumpkin, with a disgusted face, and turned his head to the side to be too lazy to take care of him.

Is this a petty temper?

"Why ignore Xiaoming?" Qin Yu asked, lowering his head.

"He always cries, it's not fun."

Little Pumpkin now speaks, and it has logic.

2 years and 1 month, I know a lot.

In the future, I have to tell my mother to let him look at the phone less.

"Your little pumpkin is too smart." Xu Yaqing said with a smile.

At the same time, children who are about the same age, their children speak clearly and logically.

My own children are still clamoring about breastfeeding in their arms. This is an obvious gap, which mother does not envy.

"Children, open your mouth early and late." Qin Yu counted the sum and put the little pumpkin in the toddler pool.

The little guy stood up with his * poked, stepping on the water with his feet jumping and laughing, 'chuckling'.

Xiao Ming was also put in the pool by Xu Yaqing, but his courage was obviously smaller.

Holding her mother's arms, Xu Yaqing had to bend over and let him try to see if there was a big shark in the water.

Seeing Xu Yaqing, who was bent over, was being pulled forward by Xiao Ming, the graceful figure of her back bloomed in front of him.

Look at that scorpion, it is round and smooth!

"Cough!" Brother Yu chose to sit down, closing his expertise a bit.

NND, it will always be embarrassing at this time.

Next time he comes to the swimming pool, he has to wrap a bath towel around his waist twice.

I thought it would be boring to bring a small pumpkin to class, but now Qin Yu feels that he can come to this kind of class often.

No other meaning, mainly because the scenery is good and the mood is happy!

Little Pumpkin will no longer be arrogant, and is talking to Xiao Ming.

Listen attentively, "My cauldron is the best."

"Mom, mom~" Xiao Ming said that his father is the best.

"Cauldron."

"Mom."

The two little guys talked more and more fiercely, and it seemed that they had to fight for a victory.

Xu Yaqing took advantage of this emptiness and pulled away and sat beside Qin Yu, "It's hot."

Fanning the wind with her hand, Xu Yaqing's eyes swept down inadvertently.

"The two children are arguing about you or me, what do you think?" Qin Yu asked amused.

"Of course you are amazing." Xu Yaqing didn't know what to think of, her face was red and hot.

"Find a time, come out and have coffee together." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Okay, how about tonight?" Xu Yaqing looked a little impatient.

The previous picture, like a spark, ignited her inner needs.

Alone, although with children.

But how can a blooming flower be without bee picking?

She is just an ordinary woman, at the age of a wolf and a tiger. Isn't it normal to have a need?

"How's the business in the store?" After making an appointment to have coffee together, Qin Yu asked about the situation in the store.

Chang'an Night Banquet, I haven't been there for a while.

It should be said that since the last time he came back, he has been busy with work.

Except for gathering with people like Li Xiao and Tang He, they rarely run out.

Although people are in the abandoned city, there are also 3 women to take care of...

No, there are only four.

Lu Qing, Song Yuqiao, Talitha, and Xu Yaqing in front of them.

"Very good, nowadays people talk about making money with harmony, not so hostile..." Xu Yaqing said with a smile.

"There are snakes in my cauldron~"

"Mom eats snakes."

"There is a big snake in my cauldron, your mother dare not eat it."

"Eat, eat~"

"I dare to eat anything in the cauldron."

The dispute between the two little guys came again, Qin Yu listened to the rhythm of something wrong.

Wait a moment, something flying is about to emerge.

stepped forward and picked up the little pumpkin, Qin Yu said with a smile: "Go, big pot... Big brother will take you to the adult pool to play."

"Sister Yaqing, do you want to come together?" Qin Yu looked at Xu Yaqing.

"Okay, I am not very good at swimming, you teach me." Xu Yaqing hugged Xiao Ming to follow.

The coach in the distance watched this scene with embarrassment on his face. Finally, a beautiful young woman came and the job was robbed.

Looking at Qin Yu's figure, considering the difference in the magnitude of the two sides...

Forget it, let's continue teaching the 298 in front of me!

I don't know how young a rich woman is, and mistakenly take a girl as a treasure, "Good rich woman, good rich woman!"

The coach fell into the brainwashing session for himself for a while.

It's just, why did the tears flow down when I was disappointed...

After swimming for an hour, the two left the swimming pool with their front and back feet.

Qin Yu has to send the little pumpkin back to the banquet!

Only then did he realize that the young girls in the swimming pool were not what he thought.

Before, Brother Yu was still wondering how the mothers now are so young and beautiful, with hot bodies and good looks.

It's like carved from a factory...

It turned out to be a 1V1 personal education, full service to ensure the baby's all-round physical and mental health.

Recalls the scene of the little guy being held in his arms and squeezed hard.

In this situation, Brother Yu wanted to ask: "Why didn't I have this treatment when I was a child, Lao Qin, you are not good!"

...

...

Changan Night Banquet.

Although this trip was for Li Xiaoyue, Xu Haoding did it.

Qin Yu didn't expect that he would fix the place here...

"Yes, Mouse, you are now a waste city." In the box, Qin Yu jokingly said that he was also half a Northwester.

"That is, I will meet our family Cocoa first, or I must be the Northwest son-in-law." Xu Hao smiled.

"Brother Yu, quite a mouse said, are you familiar with this boss?" Li Xiao asked with winking eyebrows.

"Well, I know." Qin Yu nodded, just about to say something, the door opened from the outside.

A group of girls lined up and walked in, but Qin Yu focused on Xu Yaqing at the end.

A dark red big flower cheongsam, the split ends are not high or low, just to show his graceful figure to the fullest.

The embroidered round fan in her hand swayed gently, adding a bit of seductiveness to her.

"Sister Yaqing, the owner of this shop, please take care of everyone in the future." When Qin Yu said this, he had already held Xu Yaqing in his arms.

Sitting on Qin Yu's lap, Xu Yaqing's cheeks were reddish, and everyone watching was dumbfounded by the charming and not vulgar shyness.

How to get there, Brother Yu's girls are all standing in the atmosphere.

I can only pick out some crooked melons and split dates. They are also human beings. Can you stop discriminating?

Looking at the girls present, in all fairness, the quality is at least top-notch.

There may be jewels in front, and the first class has also become the inferior class, which is dull for a time!

The little girl is very nice, young, pretty, fair-skinned and beautiful. UU reading www. uukanshu.com

But Xu Yaqing's elegance, clear charm, and the charm and mature temptation of a mature woman exuded all over her body.

Crush, crit!

"Thank you bosses for taking care of my business, I will toast everyone first!" Xu Yaqing held the cup and stood up to toast everyone.

A few people followed and stood up, drinking a glass of wine, and Xu Hao started here: "Brother Yu, next time we're better off."

"I think it can." Li Xiao nodded in agreement.

"You are not allowed to bring your own." Yang Chengjun was more direct, and he was quite cheerful.

allows him to take out like this again and again, and all his interests are lost, so it's better to be a vegetarian!

"You are jealous." Qin Yu laughed and vomited.

"Yes, it's just jealousy, you are right." Li Xiao said readily: "Miss Xu, you don't know, we people follow Brother Yu, it's bitter!"

Throwing out the short paragraph, Xu Yaqing immediately merged into the topic, no longer appearing cautious and embarrassed.

Talking and laughing with everyone like a fish in water, setting off the atmosphere at the dinner table.

Chapter 660: Boat arrived

ㄟdang~

"Ah~" There were chattering and laughing voices in the box, and Qin Yu frowned and looked out.

"Ah~Don't fight, I was wrong~" I heard it right, something really happened outside.

"Sister, it seems to be Amy." A girl whispered to Xu Yaqing.

"I'm sorry, something happened outside, I'll go see it." Xu Yaqing stood up with an ugly expression.

Qin Yu followed and got up, "I'll be with you."

"Together, let me see who dares to make trouble here." Xu Hao shouted grinningly.

In the corridor outside the door, two young men were punching and kicking a girl.

Look at that look, it's a dead hand!

Xu Yaqing immediately said: "Security, please separate people first."

"Let me see who dares to move." The young man who beaten shouted angrily.

MD, today is the king of heaven, Lao Tzu, and this woman is also dead.

I spent a lot of money, and I can say anything.

Kiss you, you dodge me, why, my mouth is poisonous?

The more I think about it, the more angry I get, and there are two big mouths going up.

The girl was screamed~

Looking at the situation a bit out of control, the security guard stopped moving, hesitating, obviously recognizing the origin of the other party.

Qin Yu reached out and grabbed the opponent's wrist, pulling and pushing into his arms.

The 'huh-huh-huh' of the person fell on the ground, and when he looked up, he shouted: "I'm * you... Mr. Xu!"

Xu Hao: "???"

I'm a lying gun? ? ?

"Mr. Xu, oops, it's really you, I'm Xiao Hua, Hua Zi." Shen Hua got up with a smile, and clung to Xu Hao's side.

Xi Han asked Nuan, that flattering look, who didn't know he thought it was a gay.

"Hua Zi, I attended a reception with my dad last time and greeted that kid." After Shen Hua repeatedly reminded him, Xu Hao finally remembered.

The son of this downstream supplier, Huazi!

"Who am I supposed to be, what's your situation?" Xu Hao frowned, "My sister opened it, don't you know?"

"I, I really don't know, Mr. Xu." Shen Hua was clever, and his body trembled.

I'll go, how come it's so inch.

Sister Xu's place, don't care whether this sister is serious, anyway, this face is to be cleaned up by yourself.

If Mr. Xu is unhappy, cancel his order.

Going back to the old man, can't he still kill himself alive?

Because of his good performance last time, Mr. Xu made two compliments "young and promising."

The old man was happy when he went home and bought him a BMW 6.

Turning round and round, if I don't do things well today.

BMW 6, looking back is the big mouth 666...

Snapped!

A simple slap on his face, Shen Hua said nothing, raising his hands to open the bow from left to right.

Papa Papa~

licked a dozen of his own mouths, and then he nodded and said to Xu Hao, "Mr. Xu, I really don't know, you adults don't remember the villain, I'm drinking too much."

"Tell me what's going on first." Qin Yu interrupted.

Shen Hua looked at Xu Hao, his eyes clearly asked, "Who is this?"

"Here, my boss, I see." Xu Hao embraced his arms and joked with a smile, "My sister and the boss are old acquaintances."

"Oh, I saw the true Buddha." Shen Dong's name is an exquisite face, this kid is born to do business.

went up for another round of flattery, but Qin Yu said: "I believe in it, I don't believe in Buddha!"

"Yes, Taoist priests are our native beliefs. I will go up the mountain to donate money to Taoist temples in order to find out. Thank you Sanqing Patriarch for taking care of me."

Turning the front of the conversation, the kid rounded up the words again, not at all embarrassing.

Wait for Qin Yu to ask again, then he talked about what happened.

He spent 200,000 o'clock today. I said in advance, he can play whatever he wants.

Shen Hua is not a pervert, no special habit!

I just thought about the addiction to dating. This does not happen to have a girl's standard pure school face, and immediately hooked his addiction.

Originally well, eating and drinking, the little girl pretended to be defensive.

Shen Hua also cooperated, coaxing, getting used to it, looking for the feeling he wanted.

But when he wanted to kiss the other party, the other party flashed left and right, so he didn't like it.

If you don't like it, don't worry, there is still an expression of disgust in your eyes.

God wants to kiss you, you don't want to, and he rolled his eyes at him...

"I didn't control my temper either. I drank too much. I really drank too much." Shen Hua said and walked towards Xu Yaqing.

Amy, who was being supported by her, quickly hid behind, which was obviously scared.

This will make your cheeks red and purple, and the injury is serious!

"Sister, I was wrong today. Look at how I should compensate and how to compensate, and I am here to apologize to you, I'm sorry!"

Clean and neat, there is no muddy water, and the face is more convincing, without any grievances.

"Brother Yu, this kid is a talent." Li Xiao whispered.

Like this kind of person who can bend and stretch, know when to lose face, and when to put up face.

He entered the society, it is difficult to think of success or not!

"Why, I want to take care of it." Qin Yu asked.

"In the final analysis, it's the girl's fault. If you take the money, you have to be dedicated, 200,000 yuan, which is a lot."

Qin Yu glanced at the beaten girl, and felt that there was nothing wrong with what Li Xiao said.

Since you answered, there is still some professional ethics.

What people spend big money for is a customized version of 'in love,' you say you're dressed in a costume, just don't give it to your relatives.

Why do you still dislike it? When you took the money, it was not too hot!

"Send people to the hospital first, Huazi, right!" Qin Yu looked at Shen Hua.

"Yes, you call me Huazi, Xiao Hua will do." Shen Hua lowered his head and slightly bent over to cater.

"Come in and talk!" The group returned to the box.

Xu Yaqing arranged for someone to clean up the corridor and looked back at Amy: "Go to the hospital first, other things... I'll talk about it later."

Xu Yaqing is a little tired, and it hasn't been a day or two for this girl to cause trouble to her.

said she was pitiful, indeed pitiful.

Poor people must be hateful, you say you have to pretend to be noble, and you want to make the most.

This is not purely trying to find things for yourself. As long as you accompany you to drink, drink and chat, you don't think you have enough money.

There is a lot of money, just like this!

and others helped Amy to leave, Xu Yaqing said to the foreman: "When she comes back, I will go through the formalities."

People, Xu Yaqing doesn't plan to stay anymore.

Not every time it can be so coincidental, big things become small and small things become nothing.

Qin Yu is not a troublesome elder brother, as his woman, he naturally has to know how to constrain.

A woman like this is obviously troublesome, of course she can't keep it anymore.

"I really want to drive her away." The foreman seemed a little unbearable.

Xu Yaqing's face was stern, and she said coldly: "If you feel distressed, you can go with her."

"It's not... Qing sister, I see." The foreman disappeared instantly.

Waiting for Xu Yaqing to return to the box, Shen Hua, who had left and right, had already entered the small group.

"Brother Yu, in this land boundary, nothing else is good. When it comes to playing, you can just order, and you can arrange whatever you want to play."

Once a person is a looper, he can eat it wherever he goes.

Like Shen Hua at this time, the brothers all felt that this was a talent and was worth contacting.

As for what happened before, everyone has been silently left behind.

"Huazi, let alone other things, let's arrange a peasant dinner first, my mouth is gluttonous!" When it comes to eating, Li Xiao is interested.

Others have no objection, eating, drinking and having fun, but eating comes first.

As long as there is something delicious, who can refuse?

"No problem, tomorrow, tomorrow I will make arrangements for us, keep it for everyone..."

Ring Ling Ling~

Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and took a look. It was Pershing who called: "BossYour ship is here."

Hang up the phone, and seeing Qin Yu's little excitement looking forward to it, Yang Chengjun curiously asked, "A good thing?"

"Well, the boat is here." Qin Yu smiled and said: "Tomorrow you meet by yourself, I have to go back to Shanghai for a trip."

After waiting so long, his [Futuristic] has finally arrived.

Not only that, after the end of the payment, Yuge's system level can finally rise to LV9.

It reminded him of the number of 125 billion again...

Don't want to think about it, if you want to upgrade, you should be happy.

The more hinted, the more tangled Qin Yu's expression became, and the mask of pain gradually appeared.

125 billion, when will he rise to LV10?

It seems that I have to spend more time in "The Scary Demon". Those believers are all walking experience points.

A fanatic is 100 million, 100 is 10 billion, and 1,000 believers are...

Believe it or not, I'm turning the table up! ! !
