Chapter 671: The past repeats itself?

"Anything to find?"

"No, the other party is eating, eating, eating." Angrily growled: "Axi, has he never eaten or what?"

"Xiba~ Such a beautiful woman is placed in front of him, he is just eating, is he still a man?"

"How to do?"

"What to do?" Pop, pop~

"What to do? Ask me what to do, slap, think of a way, slap, think of a way, slap, think of a way, slap, go."

Holding his painful head, the little man pushed open the door and ran out of the room with a rush.

Squeak~

Before the door closed automatically, I could see through the gap in the middle that the room was full of surveillance video.

In the picture.

Stepping on the edge of the chair with one foot and one hand on his knee, Qin Yu, who is stubborn and eating vegetables, was talking.

"You can go home without worry, nothing will happen."

There is no use value, and naturally no one will harass her and make trouble for her.

"Mr. Qin, thank you." She said thank you, but Han Jiaren didn't have a hint of happiness in her expression.

It's not that she fell in love with Qin Yu, but...

Going back now does not change the predicament she is currently in.

The other party had already thought that Qin Yu might refuse this gentle temptation.

If Han Jiaren can't stay, everything she suffered will not change.

Sanxin will no longer deliberately target her, but it has already happened and she has to figure out a solution by herself.

This.....

Han Jiaren couldn't solve it, so in a short silence, Han Jiaren put her hand on the belt on her chest.

"You~"

Noisy!

The belt was pulled apart, and the white skin was exposed.

Qin Yu's expression was startled first, then helpless, and finally looked up into the grid beam in the corner of the roof with a smile.

"Huh?" Li Zhen, who was looking at the surveillance screen in his office, his expression suddenly became serious.

Did he find it?

How could this be...

Zizi~

Before she had time to deny her guess, the picture instantly turned into black and white snowflakes.

At the same time, the phone on the desk rang quickly.

"President, the monitoring screen has suddenly disappeared, and all lines are malfunctioning. We are urgently investigating..."

"Yeah." He hung up the phone indifferently, and Group Leader Li, who was ready to be scolded, was dumbfounded.

Hmm... what do you mean?

Are you going to die? This country no longer has the soil for its own survival, shouldn't it be time for my wife to pack and run away?

Li Zhen would ignore the self-repair of the people below.

For her, without a leader Li, there will be a steady stream of new loyal dogs to replace her.

What she wants to know most now is how the other party discovered the secret camera.

What kind of technology is used to achieve the intrusion.

Next, how should she face Qin Yu and calm the other's anger.

Snapped!

The hidden camera was thrown on the table, and Qin Yu hugged Han Jiaren, who was walking with a peach blossom, and sat opposite Li Zhen.

In order to maintain this state, Han Jiaren has spent a lot of thought.

Staying alone in the bathroom for half an hour, I finally made myself look like that.

The warmth after Yushuizhihuan made her look more charming at this moment.

"I want an explanation." Qin Yu looked at her with such a calm expression.

"The purchase price of batteries has risen by 30%." Li Zhen throws out his own bargaining chips.

In the world of capital, there is nothing that benefits cannot be smoothed out.

Besides, she just wants to hold some bargaining chips, add some weight to her hand, and achieve some small goals when necessary.

The problem is not serious in Li Zhen's view.

In Qin Yu's view, it is really not serious. "It's fine if you just want to say it straight. Why do you do this? When President Li is free, we can talk about it alone."

brush!

Li Zhen's face instantly sank: "President Qin, are you kidding me?"

"I thought you were joking with me." Qin Yu picked up the pinhole camera on the table and squeezed his fingers hard.

Squeak~

The camera with steel sheet inside was squeezed into a ball by him, and the plastic on the surface was broken into dross.

Loosen it, and the steel bumps that have become scrap fell to the ground, "It seems that Sanxin has no sincerity. Let's talk about negotiations!"

With that, Qin Yu helped Han Jiaren get up and walked out.

Sitting on the sofa, Li Zhen's complexion changed. She didn't expect the other party's attitude to be so tough.

What surprised her even more was the power that squeezed the camera into a steel bump.

How did he do it, and why there are so many secrets in him.

After being surprised again and again, Li Zhen thought that the information he had collected was comprehensive.

Now it seems that the other party has more ability to hide.

This made the situation begin to exceed her control, for someone like Li Zhen who is good at controlling the overall situation and then playing chess.

Her rhythm and plan were all disrupted because of this, which made her feel a little lost in her heart for a while.

Seeing that the other party was about to go out, "Wait, President Qin."

Qin Yu, who walked backwards, stopped with a raised mouth, and said, "That's right."

Since there is a plan, we must adopt an attitude of having a plan.

I want to use this inferior method as a handle to threaten myself.

It's not just sex, it makes Yu brother very scared.

I am not afraid of the shadow leaning, what am I afraid of with a unicorn?

Afraid, will Brother Yu be afraid?

If you can post it online, even if he loses.

Seated again, Qin Yu looked at Li Zhen in front of him, silently waiting for the other party to raise the price.

At least, to know what she wants to do.

"I want to start anew and divide the three cores into two." Li Zhen said his purpose.
scare!

This Nima, the surprise came too suddenly.

Knowing that the three-core princess has ambitions, she did not expect her ambitions to be so great.

Is this to let the dog blood of the previous generation be staged again?

Taking advantage of her brother's meal in prison, he first copied his old bottom, and set up a mountain directly on the other side of the mountain, and worked against his own people.

Why is she?

It is impossible for Smecta to have a second three-core, and the bald eagle behind it will not let this happen.

It's good to have energy, but is your heart a bit too big?

"I know that Miracle Company has a new type of composite material and has reached a purchase agreement with the court."

Li Zhen tells her real plot, she wants a titanium rhodium alloy coating.

There is only one sentence Qin Yu wants to say now: "Want to eat ass?"

"It's not that I underestimated President Li, you can't afford the price." Qin Yu answered very happily, she couldn't afford the price.

Titanium-rhodium alloy coating is more than just a business.

It can also determine who has the bigger fist and who can speak harder in the future between countries.

After the coating is completed, the so-called provocation of the bald eagle will be more intensely protested and attacked.

All warnings are no longer just verbal.

On the earth, there will be a second docile overlord country.

But if the titanium rhodium alloy coating is given to outsiders, whether it is the current three-core or the three-core 2 created by Li Zhen.

Then it is no different than handing it directly to the bald eagle.

At that time, the distance that the two sides had just pulled in will return to the original level again.

This is something that Qin Yu cannot accept personally. More importantly, he hates the hypocrisy of the bald eagle.

A human rights issue is all kinds of repeated whiplashes for other people.

The problem that happened in my own country is the difference in national culture, I can QNMD...

Of course, Qin Yu never killed him with a stick.

There are enthusiastic, down-to-earth, and kind-hearted people in all ethnic groups.

But the regime of the Bald Eagle, ha ha da...

Since they like integration so much, it's better to integrate into Xia Country in a few years and become a second-class citizen.

The great development of the universe is very short of people.

"If the new company, you own 55% of the controlling rights?" Li Zhen once again threw a big bang.

Today, she has prepared a series of shock bombs, throwing them out one by one.

He vowed to tie Qin Yu to his chariot to help him resist the three cores, relying on miraculous technology to win the support of the bald eagle masters behind him.

"If so how do you convince the bald eagle." Qin Yu was curious.

If she gets a controlling stake, what will she use to persuade the bald eagle father to turn to support her new company and abandon the outdated three cores.

"Hope and greed." Li Zhen gave the answer.

Hope and greed are the two most indispensable emotions for human beings.

Just like eating and drinking water, it threatens the value of life.

No known creature can completely lose hope.

The titanium rhodium alloy represents a new kind of hope.

Going to the universe and opening a new era, the greed brought about by the huge benefits contained in it will become Li Zhen's most favorable lobbying weight!

Chapter 672: I'm Qin Hitli, a frank and honest gentleman

Li Zhen wanted to quit, which Qin Yu could understand.

After all, even an outsider can tell that her life at home with Sanxin is not easy.

Especially after the new President Lee took office, even if the other party occasionally had to go to prison, it would not affect the other party's power.

In fact, this prison meal is really not something anyone can eat.

The people's patience and resentment towards the chaebols broke out completely at this moment.

All the attention is placed on the chairman himself, in the Li family's grievances.

The hostility in the people's hearts was vented, and the backlog of anger that was about to explode was instantly poured out.

"We won, he is in jail." The winners gathered together to celebrate the so-called victory.

The chaebols also gathered together to toast President Lee's great dedication.

First enjoy the blessing in prison, recuperate, and let the people vent all their grievances and anger.

We are welcoming President Li to come out in a beautiful and glorious manner.

At the same time, during this period of time, while all eyes were attracted by President Li, it was time to do something big.

First, get rid of those * nails, as well as the debts that cannot be collected normally outside, and have to come back no matter what methods are used.

This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, everyone, do it!

The bald eagle masters behind it were happier. These foolish people who only knew how to eat kimchi were easily manipulated in their hands.

The value created by the social animals is transformed into equivalent funds, which continuously flows into their pockets.

What, this year's suicide rate has risen to 5.9%...

Hey, man, guess what?

My wallet is thicker again, let's have a toast! ! !

Regarding Li Zhen's proposal, Qin Yu said that it takes time to consider.

Invited a motorcycle to Li Zhen, and Qin Yu would personally take Han Jiaren home.

Doesn't she want to see it?

Then let her see clearly, and personally send this woman home, this attention should be enough for her to settle everything.

Involving an innocent woman in this way is also full of helplessness and apology for Qin Yu.

The other party had a happy life, because he made it like this.

I blame this * rumor, I, Qin Hitli, a frank and upright gentleman, who is making rumors outside every day...

what?

Qin Yu and gambling and drugs don't share the same sky, what is it to me, Qin Hitli? ? ?

Out of the hotel lobby, the Devil Green Z900 with two helmets on the seat stopped in the reception area at the main entrance.

The car behind was blocked outside the welcome area, causing dissatisfied discussions among the guests.

Picking up the helmet, "put it on, and take you home."

The eyes of Han Jiaren were filled with tears. In just half a day, she had experienced all the joys and compassions of life.

At this time, the heart is already haggard!

Thinking of her warm home, Han Jiaren burst into laughter, wiped away her tears and put on her helmet.

Buzzing~

Instruct the other party to hug yourself, put in gear, release the brake, twist the throttle, and do it all in one go.

The handsome Kawasaki Z900 was spinning around in place, drawing a meniscus around the island before ejecting, and disappearing into the public area of the hotel.

On the top floor, Li Zhen, standing in front of the French bay window, embraced his arms, his majestic chest being squeezed into a parallel booth.

Looking at the Z900, which was going away quickly, his expression was neither sad nor happy.

No one knows what she is thinking about, this woman is far more dangerous than the pure and arrogant appearance of her.

The Z900 drove forward at an average speed of 120 yards.

Soon, the car stopped at the position known to Han Jia.

"Is it here?" Looking into the mansion with the door locked, Qin Yu took off his helmet and suddenly took out his mobile phone.

"Um, if you don't mind, I want to take a group photo." Qin Yu was about to send it to the group, greedy Shen Dong.

He didn't always want to bomb Seoul, if he let him see the photo of himself with the goddess.

This dog thief is afraid that he will explode on the spot, but Han Jiaren is his only ideal type!

In the words of Shen Dong's dog thief: "She is the white moonlight in the world, so perfect."

"Of course, do you need me to tidy it up?" Han Jiaren looked at her somewhat messy clothes and bowed her head embarrassedly.

Previously, she had completely exposed herself to the opponent, although nothing happened in the end.

But the clothes became messy because of this, it's incredible to think about it! ! !

"It's okay, just take a few pictures, I have friends who like you very much." Qin Yu told Shen Dong that she was an ideal thing to tell Han Jiaren.

The other person bowed and thanked him with pride: "Thank you, if I have the opportunity, I hope I can meet him."

"This dog thief is going crazy." Looking at the handwriting of Han Jiaren's blessing, Qin Yu was hesitating how much benefit fee he would charge.

All the expenses for the second half of the year will be done, hehe...

Putting the card into his pocket, Qin Yu hung the extra helmet on the side, put on the helmet and set off again.

There is no destination this time, so let's go around.

I always hear people say that Jiangnan District, Jiangnan District...

Since I'm here, of course I have to go and see it, otherwise, when I go back, people ask, but they didn't go to Jiangnan District, how to pretend to be B.

The plan is wonderful, but there will always be episodes halfway through!

On the way to Jiangnan following the route designated by the navigation, Qin Yu was attracted by the stage performances on the street.

It's not the crowds of the three inside and outside, but the familiar melody.

Bitch, how can SOLO...

Jin Jenny?

Parked the car on the side of the road, Qin Yu, who took off his helmet, pushed away from the crowd and walked forward.

Walking to the middle of the crowd, he already saw the shining red rose on the stage...

Raise your hand, twist your waist, and stroke your head!

It's this action, so bitter.

"MD, absolutely." Brother Yu couldn't hold back his swearing.

"Hey, you feel the same way, a small man like her can explode with so much energy... Sister Concubine!"

Jin Zhini's fanatic, started cheering for her as she spoke.

"Sister, it's a shameless fellow. As an idol, it's really embarrassing to think about love every day."

"Hey, * girl, what are you talking about."

"Hey, you are a dead girl, how dare you talk to your sister like this."

"You are not allowed to insult Jenny O'Neill, ah~" He lowered his head and rushed forward, knocking the opponent to the ground with a head hammer.

The girl fluttered her long hair proudly, and said, "Huh, if you dare to speak badly about your sister, you will be dead."

"Yeah~ Asibah, * bitch, I'm going to kill you."

"Don't fight, don't fight, what's the matter?"

"Some people say bad things about Jenny O'Neill, it's her."

"What? How dare you say bad things about O'Neill, and see if I don't catch your face."

"Ah, murder, your Ouni is a bitch, seduce us Oppa."

"Fuck you, sisters, tear her mouth apart."

"Long live Oppa, no one wants to take Oppa, fight with them!"

A good street performance instantly evolved into a vigorous JK martial arts.

The highest number of star-chasers at the scene are high school students.

This will fight, the little skirt is floating, the little black leather shoes, and the white socks are flying all over the sky.

The hair fell to the ground in small bunches, screaming one after another.

"No, let go, don't fight anymore." Jin Zhenni, who was performing on the stage, also panicked, and hurriedly ran to the stage with the microphone to call for everyone to calm down.

"It's her, bitch, hit her." The scalp was ripped red, and a small piece of hair fell out. The girl pointed at Jin Zhenni with hatred.

"Beat her."

"Scratch Hua's face to see how she seduce Oppa."

"Tear her mouth."

"Give us back your hard-earned money and took off her clothes. It was our money to buy it."

"Strip her naked and make her fool!"

"Yes, depending on how she still makes idols, she dares not do business."

I don't know what happened, the atmosphere suddenly changed greatly.

The two groups of people with the same hatred pointed the target at Jin Jenny, to ruin her career.

Smecta's artist system should be mentioned here, among which idols were developed by various fan organizations, fundraising, and support.

It can be said that every fan who can join the support club has spent real money to support idols.

The various activities they participated in the early stage, the business performances held and so on.

Many of them are sponsored by fans out of their pockets, including some early publicity and enthusiasm...

Making idols in Smecta is not as beautiful as Daxia Country.

A lot of people even went from the trainee period to the end of the peas, not only did not make money, but also owed countless debts.

Therefore, whenever there is an idol, I don't work hard.

Will be strongly condemned and protested, and even some fans confront the idols directly.

Not for anything else, just because the other party is the father of the funder who paid for it.

In Daxia?

Haha, isn't it what you should do to spend money to support it?

Support me, thank you fans.

Do not support, scold me, the lawyer issued a warning.

I'm a star, a face is worth 80 million, so don't cry!

Chapter 673: Prince riding a scooter

Jin Zhenni was taken aback by this change. She saw her hand stretched out from the stage to her, and she fell back on the ground, supporting her body with her hand.

But soon, someone began to climb on the stage.

With the help of their companions, they climbed up to a stage more than one meter high, crawling forward like ghosts with their teeth and dancing claws.

Supported on all fours, she crawled towards Jenny in such a hurry.

"Ah, don't come here!" Jin Zhenni was terribly scared at the moment.

God, if there is a miracle, come out!

As if hearing the sincere expectation deep in her heart, the roar of the engine suddenly came.

Then, amidst the panic screams of the crowd, a shadow fell from the sky.

Boom, noisy~

Rotating tires rubbed the carpet on the stage to black, billowing pungent black smoke.

The green of hope in the evil appeared in Jin Zhenni's sight, and the knight in the helmet stretched out his hand: "Do you want to help?"

After taking the helmet and putting it on suddenly, Jin Zhenni was almost dragged onto the motorcycle with one arm.

As soon as I sat in the back seat, a voice came from my ear: "Grab steady!"

Instinctively embraced the opponent's waist: "So hard!"

This is really a muscle that humans can have, and it feels like steel.

But the heat coming through the T-shirt made Jin Zhenni confused!

Buzzing!

The car suddenly flicked its tail, and the front of the car swayed from side to side to scare away passers-by who were taking advantage of it.

Hum!

Twisting the accelerator, the front of the car instantly raised 45 degrees, and then the Z900 rushed out of the edge of the stage as if it stood upright.

The moment it landed, a powerful force pushed the front of the raised car.

Amidst the choking blue smoke, leave chicly!

"..." The scene fell into a treacherous silence.

After a long time, there was a screaming that seemed to be squeezing his throat and slammed:
"Okay...ok...so handsome~~"

The scene just now is played back in my mind infinitely, the skilled and superb car skills, strong stability and handsome back.

Locomotive God, YYDS~

"Haha, I photographed it, I photographed it, and I posted it." Someone photographed the entire process and immediately posted it on the social platform intact.

Next, he only needs to enjoy the joy of reverberating melodious prompts.

From this moment on, the once mediocre life will be far away from her.

This short video is where the dream begins! ! !

In Hongdae, the flamboyant and green Z900 shuttled between the crowd and the traffic, attracting bursts of screams and curses.

"Dead boy, rush to reincarnation?" The aunt who set up the stall waved a colander and yelled angrily, attracting diners to agree.

Let's fight against this young chasing boy who is crazy showing off his skills in the downtown area.

Sitting at the back, Jin Jenny hugged the mysterious knight's waist tightly and pressed her body to his back.

The sense of security brought by the comfort and firmness made Jin Zhenni obsessed!

What would he look like under the helmet?

Handsome, handsome, hale and unrestrained face, big shiny eyes, and straight nose.

Listening to the other party's standard Seoul accent, he must be a local handsome Obama.

At the thought of the other person driving a locomotive down from the sky, Jin Zhenni couldn't help but tighten her legs, it was so hot...

Which girl does not cherish spring!

Especially in the days of the Mood for Love, Jenny, who has a little girl fantasies.

I have dreamed countless times that Prince Charming suddenly appeared next to him.

In reality, the prince replaced his white horse and rode a more powerful and handsome Kawasaki locomotive.

So, is sweet love coming?

The whole way was full of random thoughts, until the motorcycle suddenly surged forward and stopped on the side of a sparsely-traveled road.

The romantic wedding in Jin Zhenni's mind was interrupted by this sudden change.

Wait a while, she will think about the child's name...

"You can come down, it's safe here." The magnetic voice made Jin Zhenni instinctively do what he said.

However, when she let go of the body she was holding, her heart was suddenly filled with a great sense of disappointment.

Suppressing her empty feeling of nothingness, Jin Zhenni took off her helmet after getting off the car, bowed gratefully and said, "Thank you for your help, if not..."

"You don't have to think about the bad things anymore, it's just that someone took advantage of the chaos to stir up." Qin Yu said loosely and took off his helmet.

"So handsome!"

Jin Zhenni blurted out, then hurriedly lowered her head, covering her mouth with her hand and muttered softly: "Jin Zhenni, are you a woman crazy?"

Seeing her funny look, Qin Yu put the helmet on the hot car hood, pressed her arms on it, and leaned sideways: "Is it handsome?"

"..." Jin Zhenni's face flushed, and she didn't know how to pick it up.

He is very handsome, but he shouldn't take it as if he didn't hear it or behaved more modestly.

What's the matter with this stinky tone? ?

"That, thank you very much." Jin Zhenni, who didn't know what to say, bowed deeply to thank him again.

Such a cute look made Qin Yu couldn't help laughing out loud.

Hanging the helmet on the handlebar, Qin Yu drew his hair and said, "I am a little hungry after running for so long. If I really want to thank you, please finish my meal!"

"Huh?" Jin Zhenni nodded immediately after the initial dazedness: "Okay, is it okay to have barbecue?"

It's a very solemn thing to invite people to eat barbecue in Smecta.

After all, barbecue is so expensive!

Not everyone can afford it. Maybe a barbecue will go bankrupt within a whole month...

"The roadside stall is ready." Qin Yu said as he took off the toad mirror hanging on the neckline, and took out a brand-new mask: "This will be fine."

Wearing a toad mirror, * her draped hair, and wearing a mask, Jin Zhenni walked with him to the snack street near Hongdae.

As the most famous art university in Seoul, there are a large number of beautiful men and women, clubs, nightclubs and other entertainment venues here.

When there is entertainment, there is food, just as there are always noodle stalls and tea houses in front of Goulan Gate.

Before nightfall, the stall owners pushing the snack carts are ready to open.

Mixing into the crowd, walking side by side like ordinary young people, the atmosphere between the two is surprisingly cold.

Obviously walking together, there is no communication from beginning to end.

It's weird!

The lovers passing by, all evaded in surprise.

But he couldn't help but looked more curiously, secretly guessing their identities and origins.

That man looks tall and handsome, really stylish!

Although the girls wear masks and sunglasses, they look like celebrities in terms of their figure and clothes!

Is it the senior sister from Hongdae?

Two people walk together, really good match...

It's just that now...is it a quarrel?

"Young man, young man." Qin Yu who was walking forward absent-mindedly, looking for food of interest was pulled by someone.

Holding a piece of rice cake in her hand, the wrinkled aunt stopped them with a smile and placed the rice cake in front of him: "I will give it to you."

"???" Qin Yu was surprised, and his first reaction was, 'there is a problem with this rice cake. '

"Uh, I don't really want to eat." Qin Yu also answered as he thought.

Suddenly someone rushed up to give himself a piece of rice cake, which looked strange.

But the aunt did not give up because of his refusal. Instead, she continued to smile and said, "Take it! Eat with your girlfriend, it's delicious.

No matter what the difficulty is, just a good meal can make your mood a lot better, Ai Gu, don't underestimate this, it's delicious, go eat! "

Almost forcibly stuffing the rice cake into Qin Yu's hands, the exaggerated tone and cheerful laughter instantly infected Qin Yu.

Smile is contagious.

"Haha~ Have a taste." Qin Yu said while holding the rice cake.

He has asked Nanoworms to confirm that no special seasoning has been added to this rice cake.

After misunderstanding the relationship between the two, the aunt wanted to use rice cakes to resolve the conflict and embarrassment between them.

A very enthusiastic person, just like Qin Yu said.

In this world, every nation is divided into good and bad...

Good people, after all, still have more.

"Just eat it like this, okay?" Jin Zhenni also seemed to be confused by the aunt's enthusiasm.

Wouldn't it be rude to eat without paying?

If someone finds out that it is her , there may be some negative news.

But this rice cake looks really delicious, "Gudong~"

"Eat, I'll pay." Qin Yu handed the rice cakes to her, and said to the aunt's booth, "I will have another copy of the same rice cake, how much is it?"

"2500 yuan." The aunt's smiling eyes were tightly closed, and she raised her head and asked: "It's delicious!"

"Yes, it's delicious, thank you very much." Qin Yu politely stretched out his hand and felt it for a long time before remembering that he didn't seem to have a wallet when he came out.

Then, all his change was in his wallet.

For mobile phones, "Excuse me, is it okay with WeChat?"

Chapter 674: Taken advantage of

PS: Please support genuine reading!

"You are really from Xia Country!" Jin Zhenni still didn't quite believe it with the delicious fried rice cakes.

"Yes, do you want me to say it again?" Qin Yu said.

It turned out to be Oppa from Xia Guo. In this case...

The other party will leave soon, Jin Zhenni's eyes suddenly lit up and said, "Is Ouba come to work?"

"Yes." Qin Yu said.

"So, will stay in Seoul forever?" Jin Zhenni asked.

"I'm just here to discuss business and will stay for a short time." Qin Yu smiled.

Knowing that the facts weren't what she thought, Jin Zhenni couldn't say "oh" disappointed.

Seeing her lack of interest, Qin Yu said: "It's getting late, I'll send you back."

"Yeah." Jin Zhenni's tone sounded very unhappy.

Putting on the helmet again, Jin Zhenni sitting in the back row naturally stretched out her arms around his waist.

Putting his upper body and head on his back, he leaned quietly.

Feeling the strength of the arms around her waist, Qin Yu did not specifically remind her not to use such force.

Reverse the throttle and drive towards the destination.

Jin Zhenni's bedroom is near the company, not far from Hongdae.

This is the new dormitory that the company finds for their group. The previous dormitory has been returned because too many people know it.

It is now used by avid fans as a place of pilgrimage.

It was because the landlord lied that all the supplies on the bed were left by members of the group.

It also caused a conflict and no small farce!

"Since you have arrived, let's go first." Qin Yu hung the helmet on the side, covering the hood and leaving.

"Ouba." Jin Zhenni said suddenly: "Can I ask for your contact information?"

Because of the mask, Jin Zhenni couldn't see his expression.

Jin Zhenni, who didn't wait for his reply, bowed suddenly: "Please give me your contact information."

Seeing that she was trying to fight fiercely with others, Qin Yu raised her mask and said amusedly: "Mobile phone!"

...

...

In the office, Li was really listening to the reports of his subordinates.

"So, do you think that nothing happened?" Li Zhen asked.

"Yes, judging from the state of President Qin's performance, it doesn't appear that he personally performed violent behavior before.

The clothes are not wrinkled, there are no scratches on the body, the hair is not wet, and the skin looks the same.

These can be explained, but his state cannot be explained.

After that happens normally, both men and women will have obvious changes.

Lazy but piercing eyes, comfortable mood, naturally reflected on the face, the smile will be more unconsciously.

The whole body will exude a lazy and tired breath, these characteristics are not shown in Qin Yu.

Also, he didn't have the taste of Han Jiaren.

It's the kind of skin that is in close contact with the skin, sweat stains and body odor are intertwined and mixed!

"Not at all?" Li Zhen looked at the middle-aged man with sunglasses beside Team Leader Li.

The other party did not speak, but shook his head.

It's not that he doesn't want to speak, but that he can't speak.

He was born blind and dumb, which also gave him a good nose, so he can easily distinguish smells that ordinary people can't smell.

After Qin Yu left, he was taken to the main hall, and he didn't smell the smell that Li Zhen wanted.

"It seems that he is different from what the outside world said." Li Zhen thoughtfully.

"President, do you want to re-select gifts?" Leader Li asked.

"Where did he go today?" Li Zhen asked.

Afterwards, Team Leader Li opened the file in his hand and reported Qin Yu's itinerary like a few Jiazhen.

The time is accurate to the minute, basically without error.

In Seoul, as long as Samsung wants to know, no news can be concealed.

In this city and even this country, there are three-core eyes and ears everywhere.

"Jin Jenny..." Li Zhen said the name repeatedly.

"Do you want to prepare the present again?" Leader Li asked without waiting for an answer.

In the case of Jin Zhenni, the other party will appear in the hotel within 10 minutes as long as a call is made.

As for her personal thoughts, it doesn't matter!

"No." Li Zhen stood up in vain: "I will go personally."

"In person?" Countless question marks circled in Team Leader Li's mind. What in person? ? ?

Do you personally negotiate new terms with the other party, or personally give yourself as a gift...

Leader Li didn't dare to ask more about this kind of question, and he didn't even dare to think about it.

Only when you really work with this woman do you know how terrible her wrist is!

Team Leader Li still doesn't want to sleep in the Han River, let alone other men sleeping on the big bed he bought for millions.

Quietly came to the guesthouse, Li Zhen waved away everyone, sitting alone in the side room and meditating.

I don't know how long it took, and there was the sound of a motorcycle engine outside.

Buzzing~

Parked the locomotive on the lawn at the entrance, and the man in suit in front of the guesthouse immediately ran forward to receive the key.

"Chairman Qin, Chairman Li is waiting for you inside." The man in the suit bowed.

"Now?" Qin Yu was surprised, raised his hand and looked at the time, it was already 10:46 in the evening.

Isn't it a bit late to talk about business at this time?

"The car is good, I will use it tomorrow." Qin Yu walked into the guesthouse after leaving a word.

There is no need to ask, wherever Qin Yu goes, someone opens the door first and guides him to the side room where Li Zhen is.

In the middle is a low table with a few side dishes and a jug of wine.

A wooden bed was placed against the inner wall, and a gauze curtain hung on the front porch, adding a touch of fun to the room.

On both sides are ornaments, bookshelves, and antique shelves, on which there are books or antique utensils.

They were all spotless and undisturbed.

There is also a corridor on each side, which should lead to the bedroom and bathroom.

"Chairman Qin." The moment he saw him, Li Zhen, who was kneeling on the bedding, got up and responded.

Qin Yu smiled and said, "Is President Li still not taking a rest this late?"

"I am a sensitive person, and I always have difficulty falling asleep before I get the answer I want!"

This is coming to force the palace, just when Qin Yu was about to refuse again and asked her to go back and wait for the news.

Li Zhen walked behind him, put his hands on his hard shoulders, and pressed them lightly.

"President Li looks very hard, your muscles are too tense." Li Zhen said calmly.

Qin Yu also remained calm, wanting to see what this woman wanted to do?

The next second, when Li Zhen stretched his fingers along his neck into his collar, feeling his broad chest.

Brother Yu got it!

I was taken advantage of...

"Chairman Li, will this be too messy?" Qin Yu said with an indifferent expression.

At the same time, let Kylin invade the network to find out whether there is an access signal in the room.

The answer is: No, everything is normal.

Li Zhen didn't stop, but smiled and said, "I thought President Qin would like it."

"So, you yourself are the new bargaining chip?" Qin Yu looked up with a smile.

He leaned back and looked at Li Zhen, the face that was full of indifferent no matter how he looked, still the same.

Even if she was already lying on Qin Yu's back at this time, her hand stretched out long enough.

There is no fluctuation in mood either!

"Since President Qin doesn't like the gifts I gave, I don't even touch them. I can only prepare new gifts."

Qin Yu was not surprised that Li Zhen could discover the clues.

In this country jokingly called the Three-Core Empire, as long as the three-core is involved, no matter how outrageous it is, it is normal.

"Don't I make President Qin satisfied?" Li Zhen said and walked around in front of him.

Sitting in front of Qin Yu with his knees bent, there was a slight sneer in his expression.

It's really hard to imagine how long she hasn't expressed her true emotions.

This cold shell is indestructible, making her strong, elegant, capable and successful.

It has even become an idol in the minds of national women.

But he also completely freezes his true self in the ice shell.

I am afraid that even she herself will forget what Li was really like.

After the mask stays for a long time, it becomes her original appearance!

Just when she wanted to untie Qin Yu's belt, his wrist was grabbed by him: "Take you to a place. UU reading www.uukanshu.com"

Pulling the bewildered Li Zhen, Qin Yu led her out of the side room.

"Motor key."

After the president nodded his approval, the man in the suit gave him the key.

Then, before everyone had time to react.

Qin Yu has already stepped into the car and left the guesthouse with Li Zhen...

This sudden change was beyond everyone's expectations.

No one thought that he would take Li Zhen away on a motorcycle like this.

"Ah no, the president, Asi, the president has been taken away, get the car over, ah, Xibala, Xibala..."

Chapter 675: Take you crazy

Every time I heard the voice of "Axi, Axi", Qin Yu would think of a word:

Incompetent barking!

The reality is as Qin Yu thought, even if the security guards have caught up with them as quickly as possible.

But when the locomotives shuttled between them, they quickly lost their goals.

"Damn!" Group leader Li picked up the walkie-talkie and began to give orders when he slapped the steering wheel suddenly.

In Seoul, there is no goal they will lose!

The wind rushed, and because of nervousness holding Qin Yu's body, Li Zhen's heart was full of excitement like a little daughter at this time.

Since childhood, as the eldest daughter of the three-core Li family, she has been bound by many rules and requirements.

Follow the rules, be generous and dignified, and don't lose the face of the three-core Li family.

"You are the eldest daughter of the three-core Li family, you must look like the eldest daughter and have the rules!" This is the sentence that Li Zhen has heard the most since childhood.

At any time, she must show what people expect to see in front of the outside world.

She is not Li Zhen!

That's just a meaningless code name. Three-core Li's parents and daughters are her.

Freedom is a strange word to her in her childhood.

Until the first time I gave birth to a heart of resistance, I chose the marriage that countless people were not optimistic about.

result.....

There was a touch of mockery on Li Zhen's face. Should they say that they all got what they wanted?

In fact, as they thought, the marriage ended in a feather.

Now, what is going on? ? ?

Why does the heart beat so fast, that kind of surging passion, and the body is shaking uncontrollably.

As a mature woman, the iron-blooded woman in the eyes of people, the overbearing president.

This shouldn't have appeared on her...

But, really looking forward to it!

This kind of thoughtless, without any plan, is just a behavior born under a throbbing impulse.

Why do you make yourself so excited~

"Elopement?" Li Zhen said in his ear like a joke.

"If it's your request." Qin Yu responded calmly.

"What?" Li Zhen doesn't have as good hearing as his. The question just now seemed to be talking to himself, but Qin Yu would answer.

What responded to her was the acceleration and roar of the engine, and the locomotive drove straight away from Seoul toward Incheon, 40 kilometers away.

Where are you going? ? ?

Li Zhen was already full of question marks. After the initial impulse passed, the reason to occupy the high ground again calmed her down.

Begin to think, why did Qin Yu do this?

Leaving Seoul, heading to Incheon, "Is there anything there?"

No one answered her question, and Qin Yu kept driving forward fast all the way.

On the highway to Incheon, a police car with police lights stopped on the side of the road.

"There are police." Li Zhen reminded him unconsciously when he found that he did not slow down.

Hum~

The suddenly accelerating locomotive whizzed past, and the two police officers who were napping in the car were startled.

When I opened my eyes, I saw a red halo disappearing into the darkness.

"What's that? Am I dazzled?"

"I don't know, it seems to be a drag racing party, are we going to chase it?"

"What are you chasing after? Go to sleep, I will go on a date tomorrow."

"But in this way, is there really no problem?"

"If you have any problems, even if you catch up, you and me may be the ones who get scolded in the end. So, it's better to sleep."

Twelve minutes later, the Z900, which felt like it was about to smoke, stopped in front of a theme park.

In Everland, only the colored lights flickered at night, and no one existed quietly.

This time, the time is already close to the early hours of the morning.

The entire park was also closed for rest. Qin Yu put his helmet on the car and pulled Li Zhen towards the park gate.

"Did you not see that it is closed?" Li Zhen's face was flushed with passion.

At this moment, her heart still cannot return to its normal frequency.

Boom boom, boom boom~

The sound of drumming seemed to echo repeatedly in my mind.

"We can go in quietly." Qin Yu said as he walked to the fence next to the paradise, his legs bent suddenly upward, and his hand had grasped the horizontal fence at the top of the fence.

Pulling up, Qin Yu stood firmly on the narrow railing with the strength of one arm.

"Give me your hand." Qin Yu bent over and said to Li Zhen below.

"Stop making trouble, how can you stand firm like this!"

Seeing him standing on the thin railing like this, Li Zhen worried: "Get down quickly, it won't be good if you get hurt."

"Do you want to be discovered here?" Qin Yu stood on it and smiled: "Give me your hand."

With a tone that couldn't be rejected, Li Zhen, who had been rebellious in his heart, slowly handed him his hand.

The feet are in the air, and the body seems to be floating upward from gravity.

After a spin, when he landed again, he was already standing in the playground fence, and Qin Yu also jumped easily from above.

"Your power!" Li was really stunned.

She had one hundred and ten catties, so Qin Yu lifted it up like air and threw it into the garden.

It was calm and relaxed, and the performance was as simple as a bag of air.

"I have to keep fit." Qin Yu responded calmly.

Li Zhen doesn't know much about fitness, and only when he has been doing strength training, will he have the performance just now.

If he understands more, he will know how easy it is to be so relaxed with a single arm of 110 pounds.

Allowing Qin Yu to pull her and run forward, Li Zhen's nervous palms sweated.

Now, they had invaded the paradise illegally, and the intense stimulation brought by this guilt was far more intense than she had imagined.

"What are you going to do next?" Li Zhen, who had a guilty conscience, asked in a low voice.

"Of course I played all the projects again." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"But this way, you will be discovered?" Li Zhen didn't know why he said that.

Shouldn't she stop it?

Why is there a strong urge to do it instead...

That feeling, like being tempted by the devil, led her to sink into impulse like a puppet.

"Then have a good time before they find out!" As they spoke, the two had already arrived in front of the merry-go-round.

The gold medal project of the amusement park is always out of date and is a source of happiness for men and women of all ages.

"Hurry up." Pushing Li Zhen up Qin Yu ran to the control room.

As expected, the management here is not bad, the door is locked.

But such a trivial matter, surely it is difficult to get Brother Yu?

A thin line from the tip of the finger appeared out of nowhere, and it was inserted into the keyhole precisely...

Click!

The door was opened, "It's coming!"

As soon as the voice fell, the lights came on, and then the carousel was activated with the sound of music.

Qin Yu laughed and closed the door, jumped onto the turntable and sat beside Li Zhen.

Seeing her cautious look, Qin Yu smiled and said: "Forget your identity, today, you are just a rebellious little girl."

As the Trojan horse turned faster and faster, Li Zhen also showed a presumptuous smile.

Flicking her hair and shouting loudly: "Oh~"

"Hey, who started the machine."

"Someone, how did you come in, hey, stop..."

Pulling her to hide behind the rockery, listening to the security guard rushing past, Li Zhen smiled and leaned in Qin Yu's arms.

"Are you always so presumptuous?" This kind of excitement that has never been seen before made Li Zhen unable to stop excited.

"Life needs excitement and surprises!" Seeing her happy look, Qin Yu actually sympathized with her a little.

This life was suppressed to the extreme, I really don't know how she persisted.

At this time, Qin Yu was fortunate to have grown up in an ordinary family.

If he grows up in such a family, who knows what kind of monster he will turn into in the end.

How desperate the three-core little princess who lost the fragrance of jade was at the beginning!

Involuntarily, Qin Yu thought about his future.

One day, my own child, the Qin family...

Will it be distorted by wealth and power and become a monster that is neither human nor ghost.

"If you find it, you know you are hiding here." The light came, and it happened to shine on Qin Yu's face.

The security's triumphant expression came into his sight at the same time.

Chapter 676: Bad check

Negotiations are held as usual, just as the leader of the negotiations between the two sides.

Between Qin Yu and Li Zhen, an indescribable weird aura lingered between them!

This made the entire negotiation process seem a little absurd. Many radical words and offensives disappeared in the weird atmosphere of the two leaders.

So in the end, the two groups didn't know how to talk.

"Boss, why don't you go out for a meeting first?" Xu Hao, who was looking carefully, came over, and he was an old actor.

Saying that I was going to invite Qin Yu out was actually implying that we are the male boss here.

This trick doesn't work very well in Xia Guo, but in Smecta...

Women can hold up half the sky, don't be funny!

Here women are husbands and sons, and do good housework.

As President Li's most beloved daughter, she has received a lot of care and favoritism, and she still lives as she is now.

Before Li Zhen, the Three Core Group did not have any female presidents.

And when she got Silla, what was Silla like...

The taste in it, your own taste!

Had it not been for Li Zhen to make achievements by her own ability, she would have disappeared from the public.

In short, in Smecta, men are the absolute sky, and women want to get ahead.

Hard to add to the male...

"Well, everyone has been talking for a long time, I don't know if you are hungry or not. Anyway, I heard that I was hungry. Eat first."

Qin Yu waved a big hand and directly overturned the entire progress.

Without waiting for Xu Hao to speak, he dragged him and walked out, "Walk, it's just that we have two drinks."

"Brother Yu, what are you doing?" When no one was gone, Xu Hao threw away his hand and smiled helplessly: "We all had the upper hand."

"I'm looking for you to talk about another matter, you think, how about taking half of the three cores?" Qin Yu asked.

"OДQ" Xu Hao was shocked instantly.

Brother, are you kidding me here? Take down half a three-core...

"Of course it's fine." Xu Hao looked at him excitedly.

If this were to be taken personally, Xu Hao must be joking when the other party.

But since he spoke, something must have happened that he didn't know.

"Bald Eagle Capital occupies an absolute dominant position in Smecta. If it can really intervene, it will be tantamount to a nail..."

Xu Hao sees the long-term, and Qin Yu sees the longer-term.

What he values most is the accumulation of three cores in the electronics industry, and it is unrealistic to swallow the entire three cores.

Don't say it's a bald eagle, he has to work hard with himself to be himself.

This is not digging the foot of the wall, this is digging the ancestral grave!

Even the roots are planed for you, who can bear it?

As long as Qin Yu can separate a share from it, Qin Yu will be satisfied.

"Brother Yu, you can honestly explain, you and the beautiful president...hehe!" Xu Hao changed the conversation and suddenly said the previous thing.

The two of them looked at the enthusiastic enthusiasm, not only he saw it, but the others could see clearly as long as they were not blind.

Otherwise, the team at Sanxin always couldn't let go of how fearful they were.

Xu Hao wanted to take advantage of the victory, but although the opponent converged on his edge, he still clung to the bottom line and never let go.

Instead, put on a soft attitude of 'I'm a victim, don't bully me'.

Otherwise, Xu Hao would not use Qin Yu as a bargaining chip to force the palace.

"Nothing happened, I just felt... she was also very pitiful." Qin Yu told the truth.

But Xu Hao didn't believe a word of this, "Poor? Brother, I am poorer than her, the richest woman in Asia, worth more than 20 billion, okay!"

This is also called poor, how do you let ordinary people live? ? ?

"You are very pitiful." Qin Yu said with a grin.

"Puff!" Xu Hao clutched his chest, heartbroken.

"The other party wants titanium rhodium alloy. This technology is definitely not available. The finished product... how about a blank check?"

Qin Yu wanted the empty glove white wolf, and Li Zi was the first, even if he knew nothing to do, he would do it.

"You can throw some bait first and give the other party a small piece of research, but...Is there any problem with encryption?" Xu Hao asked.

"Don't worry, I won't understand if you give him a few more decades." Qin Yu said with confidence.

The specific synthesis ratio of titanium-rhodium alloy is enough to be a headache.

But even if the ratio is right, there is still the most critical step to turn it into magic.

The purifying agent can remove the impurities in the alloy and achieve the most perfect fusion state.

Without the purifier, even if they do find the right ratio, they will end up with a poor quality failure product.

As a result, it will only be thrown into the garbage dump and become a waste product that no one cares about.

"Then it's okay. Give them some sweetness first and see some hope." Xu Hao smiled sinisterly: "Then, it's not our final decision."

Just give the three core 2 enough time to gain a firm foothold in Smecta.

Even if the bald eagle reacts and wants to turn around before dealing with it, it will find that the gain is not worth the loss.

The facts are a foregone conclusion, now we will retaliate.

In addition to causing greater losses, there will be no substantial benefits.

Under this circumstance, how could capitalists retaliate again?

Perhaps, they will reopen their arms and hope to reach a new cooperation.

"Strategic cooperation." In Li Zhen's private office, Qin Yu and Xu Hao informed her of the results of their discussions.

60% of the original shares are merged into Miracle Company, with one vote and no involvement in specific operations.

"If one vote is in your hands, how should I manage the company?" Li Zhen asked a sharp question.

The shares were taken away by a miracle. If the voting rights were lost again, what good would she have as a backstab?

How to lead the company to develop into the future!

"Will you represent both the equity and one vote of Miracle?" Qin Yu gave his answer.

All rights are given to Li Zhen, as long as the two sides still maintain a good cooperative relationship.

Then, Li Zhen has no need to worry about his rights being shaken.

"Depending on the product?" Li Zhen whispered.

This is not the result she wants. If she wants to hold her thighs or be an accessory, isn't her brother the best choice.

"It's just the necessary trust foundation and constraints!" Qin Yu pointed out.

Everyone is smart, there is no need to pretend to be clear and confused.

The relationship between them is not so good that they can trust each other without even weights.
It is impossible for such a day.

Therefore, the necessary measures are the cornerstone of strengthening mutual trust.

As long as there is this restriction, Qin Yu can safely hand over the power to her, and Li Zhen can also clearly realize that he cannot escape the miracle.

Because, at any time, betraying a miracle is tantamount to breaking one's arms.

"What about you?" Qin Yu asked back: "There is not only such a Shilla Hotel with the bargaining chip."

According to Qin Yu's understanding, Sanxin's equity is one of the most complex calculation problems in the world.

Even if Li Zhen has the favor of President Li, he won't get more shares than her brother.

Not to mention that the entire three cores are under the attention of the bald eagle fathers ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ without the approval of the wild fathers, no one can ever want to touch it.

"I will persuade the board of directors to spin off the three core insurance industry from the entire group and leave it to me."

"Insurance?" Qin Yu waited patiently when seeing Li Zhen's mysterious smile.

"Insurance is the root of Sanxin. He will never give up. The chance of getting insurance business is very small.

Even if you can get it, you will completely tear your face with Sanxin. "

"So, your real purpose?" Qin Yu asked.

"Three-core semiconductor." Li Zhen snapped his fingers, his eyes bursting with an astonishing light: "It's what I need."

As long as she can persuade Ye Dad, she will be able to take over the girl's heart semiconductor.

Then, with the left hand inverted, the left and right assets were transferred to her own name, leaving only an empty shell for her dear brother.

I believe that as an older brother, she will be able to understand the helplessness of her younger sister.

She just wants to make more money and get the wealth, rights and status she deserves.

My dear sister, what bad thoughts can you have!

"Aren't you afraid of becoming lonely?" Qin Yu looked at Li Zhen curiously.

Three-core semiconductor, that is an important pillar of three-core.

Its importance is no less than that of Sanxin Life, Sanxin Real Estate, Sanxin Heavy Industry and Sanxin Electronics.

"I just want to get back what belongs to me." Li Zhen responded indifferently.

Family affection, long after the death of his father, had already cut off the only bondage.

Now, she just wants to live for herself.

or.....

Looking at Qin Yu, he thought of the madness last night, and finally the embarrassment after being spotted by the security guard.

It was Li Zhen who revealed his identity to let the security guard give up his plan to call the police.

And restarted the entire playground, allowing the two of them to have a good time.

Who makes it? The entire amusement park is theirs!

Chapter 677: BlackRock

As the ultimate wage earner of Wild Father Bald Eagle, the three-core Li family's every move has attracted the attention of Wall Street and behind-the-scenes giants.

Although relying on the "partner agreement," the Sanxin Li family still firmly controls the management and development rights of the family industry.

But in fact, it has been unable to get rid of the influence of Bald Eagle Capital, and every word and deed depends on the face of the other party.

The president of the Li family contemporary has been jailed frequently to alleviate the grievances of the people and control the public opinion and thinking of the people. There is the shadow of the bald eagle.

Under such a general environment, the contact between Li Zhen and Qin Yu was naturally highly valued by the Bald Eagle.

In fact, Qin Yu had already attracted the attention of the other party on the first day he arrived in Seoul.

Every day, there will be calls from BlackRock to inquire about the progress of Li Zhen's private number.

And she also knows everything, everything is endless!

In business, as for his personal problems, it doesn't matter to Ye Dad.

BlackRock, also known as the Black Rock Group, is the world's largest asset management company, and it is not the same thing as the world's largest private equity fund Blackstone Group.

Although its predecessor was the Financial Asset Management Department of the Blackstone Group, it spun off Blackstone in 1992 and independently changed its name to BlackRock.

There is no interest link between the two companies.

BlackRock serves institutions, intermediaries and individual investors.

Business includes company, public, association, and industry pension plans.

Insurance companies, third-party mutual funds, donations, governments, foundations, charities, sovereign wealth funds, official institutions, banks...

Anyone who has sufficient funds will become the target of BlackRock's services.

No matter what service content you need, short-term, long-term, high-risk, differentiated, and customized packages.

For fame or fame, or make a fortune in silence, or multiple complex packages, BlackRock will tailor it for you.

The premise is that you have enough assets to allocate and utilize.

So far, BlackRock's global management of funds has reached 9.2 trillion U.S. dollars, and it is also the first public offering fund approved for operation in Xia Guo.

At the same time, BlackRock is also the largest foreign equity holding institution behind Sanxin Electronics and SK Hynix.

This is a real behemoth, the main shareholders are Bald Eagle National Bank, PNC Financial Services Group and Barclays Bank.

The three companies hold 50% of BlackRock's shares, and the other shares are in the hands of numerous investment institutions and private shareholders.

"Li Zhen, you have to know that there is a prerequisite for the company's support for you. We have expressed our sincerity, but we still haven't seen your sincerity."

"Mr. Rachel Lauder, you should know the terrible situation between your country and Daxia. I need time to convince Qin."

"This is not something I need to worry about, Li Zhen, that is your problem, we just need you to fulfill your promise... Your time is running out."

"You will see." Li Zhen hung up the phone with a calm expression on his face when he heard the busy tone on the phone.

He raised his head and looked to the other side, with a slight smile curled up at the corner of his mouth: "You heard it."

Qin Yu, who was sitting opposite, nodded and asked, "Rachel Lauder?"

"The chairman of BlackRock Asia Pacific, he is in charge of all Asia-Pacific affairs!" Li Zhen smiled and said, "He is an Asia-Pacific expert!"

"Asian links are nothing more than links." Qin Yu heard the urgency of the other party from the previous conversation.

The Bald Eagle's emphasis on titanium and rhodium alloys exceeded Qin Yu's expectations.

"It sounds like the other party knows the titanium rhodium alloy very well." Xu Hao said thoughtfully.

If you don't have enough knowledge, confirm the authenticity.

How could BlackRock have made such a big capital and risked supporting Li Zhen to split the three cores.

Although, this has something in common with their original plan.

De-plutocratic Smecta's enterprise, let it incorporate more international elements, and become a truly international enterprise.

But it does not mean that BlackRock hopes that someone will come to get a share of it.

Unless the benefits obtained can far exceed the expected benefits.

Moreover, this benefit is certain and visible...

"What should I do now?" Li Zhen folded his hands and handed the problem back to Qin Yu.

Now he is the leader, and he has become his accessory. Of course, he needs to solve the problem.

"Give it to him." Qin Yu tapped his finger back and forth on the armrest, "I will ask someone to send a titanium rhodium alloy coating...

Tonight, call him back and tell him that you have to fulfill your promise and successfully sleep me. "

"Yes, persuade!" Li Zhen said with a blank expression.

Qin Yu shrugged at random and smiled with his hands spread out: "Is there any difference?"

Seeing that the two of them turned from official business to flirting, Xu Hao called 'professional.'

Yuge's business level is far beyond all similar!

All of this hooks up with the world's top Bai Fumei, looking at the other's verbal performance, there is nothing to say.

In short, Xu Hao definitely doesn't believe it.

"Well, Brother Yu, President Li, did I leave beforehand?" The business is finished, and if you stay there, you may have to be madly stuffed with dog food.

Xu Hao decided to run for respect first. He has been eating dog food a little bit lately, and he's tired of it!

"Together, I still have something to tell you." Qin Yu stood up and said.

"I'll see you." Li Zhen got up and saw him off. When he arrived at the door, he suddenly came close to Qin Yu's ear: "Tonight, the penthouse suite."

"..." Looking back at Li Zhen, his expression was indifferent, without the slightest change.

If he were not sure that he would not have auditory hallucinations, Qin Yu would suspect that there was a problem with his ears.

Walking out of the office, seeing Qin Yu's expression slightly tangled, Xu Hao asked curiously: "Brother Yu, if this problem is not solved, why are you still frowning?"

"Batteries? Let me talk about it, don't worry, there will be no problems." Xu Hao's self-confidence is growing as fast as his business ability.

"Yeah." Qin Yu acquiesced to what he said, as it was because of the battery order issue.

In fact, I kept asking myself: "Go, not go?"

Without the two bosses, the negotiation finally resumed normal progress.

Through the transparent floor-to-ceiling windows.

Qin Yu clearly saw Xu Hao lying half of his body on the conference table, spitting wildly at the opposing negotiator with excitement.

The spit star 'Balabara' flew all over the sky, spitting silly opponents.

"Your people... are very capable!" Li Zhen, who was also waiting for the news, suddenly said, looking at him with a weird expression.

"Cough!" Qin Yu cleared his throat and stood up and said, "Well, I'm a little tired. Go back to sleep first, Secretary Xu."

Waiting outside, Xu Meixin, who was almost invisible for the past few days, walked in.

"There is news to inform me, I will go back to the rest meeting first." Qin Yu said and walked out.

"Okay, boss." Xu Meixin nodded to Li Zhen, and then followed Qin Yu to close the door.

"Don't forget the appointment at night." Li Zhen's voice suddenly came again.

Qin Yu staggered and walked forward quickly.

Xu Meixin's expression was startled, and after closing the door sluggishly, her expression became a little bit more resentful.

Looking at the back of the boss who is leaving quickly, he unknowingly complains about it In his eyes, is he just a secretary? "Xu Meixin laughed at herself and asked.

The progress of the negotiation was very slow. Although Li Zhen showed signs of letting go, the team represented by Sanxin Electronics did not take her opinion seriously.

These are the people of her brother Li Jae-yong. They can't ignore Li Zhen's opinions, but they will not violate their own president's orders.

The bottom line that should be, the other party is firmly guarding the goal.

As a result, the negotiations fell into a stalemate.

"Is that so?"

Knowing the details from Xu Meixin, Qin Yu picked up the teacup and drank the last sip of tea, and stood up and said: "I know, let me know if there are new developments."

"Boss, is there anything from President Xu that I need to convey?" Seeing that he was going out, Xu Meixin asked anxiously.

"No, Xu always has his own plan to let him play freely." Qin Yu said.

What is the ability.

It is the experience of learning and tempering through repeated experiences, failures, and successes.

Miracle Company is very young, Qin Yu, Xu Hao, and others are the same.

They need enough experience to keep up with the development of Miracle Company, setbacks and failures are not terrible.

What's more, now it is Li Zhen who is asking for help.

If she suffers a loss on the battery contract, what she wants will not get what she wants.

I believe Li Zhen knows better than anyone and cares! ! !

Now he is going to the appointment.

Although he was very interested in Li Zhen, he thought that he could defeat the eldest princess of the Three-Core Empire head-on.

Merely a sense of accomplishment and conquest from the heart is enough to make up for all deficiencies and bring a strong impulse.

But for some things, it's better to make it clear first.

Make a distinction between public and private...

Otherwise, public use for private use and private use for public use can easily cause unnecessary misunderstandings and troubles.

Chapter 678: Out of law

Shilla Hotel, luxury business suite.

Qin Yu handed his room card to the front desk and aimed it at the electronic lock in front of him.

Zi, click!

The door opened, and the lights inside were brightly lit.

Qin Yu's expression was strange for an instant. He heard three different breathing sounds.

"Is Bai Fumei playing so much?" Qin Yu remained suspicious.

Li is really fresh, he can't lie!

Is it really just for business talks, because you think too much?

Walking along the entrance courtyard to the house, Qin Yu saw three girls standing in the living room:
"Why are you?"

...

...

4 hours ago, YG company dance studio.

Jin Zhenni was sitting in a corner drinking water and resting, but her mind was replaying what happened yesterday.

"Jenny, do you want to go back and rest?" Teammate Caiying sat cross-legged and looked at her worriedly.

They all heard about the conflict in Hongdae yesterday.

After the incident, the company issued a statement as soon as possible.

He also put pressure on the police and asked the other party to conduct a serious investigation. Those black fans and illegitimate fans who made trouble have been arrested.

But today Jenny has been absent-minded all the time, clearly not able to get out of the previous shadow.

When she thought that she was almost caught by the bastard, Caiying's heart suddenly jerked.

"Jenny, it's better to ask for a few days off." Ji Soo said with her legs close together, her hands wrapped around her knees.

"I can go shopping and eat with you, what do you think?"

The gentle and cold voice, like running water, calmed Jenny's mind.

Feeling the care of the two teammates, Jenny suddenly laughed and said: "Haha, I'm really fine!"

"But you've been distracted, Mr. Tony was angry just now." Zhixiu looked at her puzzled.

It's okay, then why are you so worried that you can't catch the rhythm.

After several mistakes, Mr. Tony's face turned green.

If it were not for what happened yesterday, it might have a certain impact on her.

Now, she must be punished to kneel.

"I'm thinking..." Jenny spoke, her cheeks showing a blush.

"White horse knight, I knew it." Caiying pointed to her and said loudly.

Jenny quickly covered her mouth and looked at the door in a panic, only to find that no one said in a low voice, "Shhh, don't be so loud."

Caiying nodded, expressing understanding.

When Jenny let her go, she apologized and said, "I'm sorry, Jenny, I forgot that I was in the company."

"It's okay." Jenny responded with a smile: "Did you see that?"

Hum, the fan shell, but the cute mobile phone shook in front of him.

Zhixiu bit her lower lip and said mischievously, "Is that this? The knight who descended from the sky is so romantic!"

Jenny seemed to have not heard her ridicule, nodded seriously, and said with happiness: "Well, it's really romantic."

Seeing that she actually admitted that, Ji Soo's expression fell into a sluggish look.

Then he slapped his forehead and fell back, saying: "It's over, we Jenny is captured!"

"Do you know who he is?" Caiying asked with flowing eyes.

She also watched that video countless times, when the stage was surrounded.

Those illegitimate meals climbed up like the devil, when they were about to do something to Jenny.

A green light appeared out of thin air, falling from the sky in front of the monster.

The handsome prince stepped forward to save the princess from the fire and water.

This kind of plot can only be seen in childhood fairy tales and picture books.

I was actually met by Jenny...

While distressed, Caiying still has a trace of envy: "If she is in trouble, will there be a knight?"

"He is Obama from Xia Country, he is super handsome, and... his abdominal muscles are like iron blocks."

"Wow, Jenny, you are going to drool."

"Ah!" Jenny wiped the corners of her mouth with her hands, nothing.

"Ah, Park Chae-young, I did it with you." Jenny rushed towards her, and the two twisted together on the floor.

"I was wrong, haha, don't scratch!"

"Let you talk nonsense again, I will teach you a lesson, hey...Where are you touching..."

"We Jenny grows up and feels so good!"

"Park... Chae... Ying..." Ji Soo was already laughing and twitching on the ground in the gritted teeth.

"Cough!" The sudden sound of coughing caused the three girls to stop at the same time.

Looking back, his expression instantly became serious: "Guild leader is good."

"Well, the three of you come to the office." The president turned around and left with a stern face.

"Yes, President... Um, when will Lisa come back." Jenny asked.

"Soon." The chairman said perfunctorily, and he was already standing outside the door.

When the door was closed again and the footsteps were far away, the three of them went to change their clothes.

"You said, why did the president look for us?"

"Maybe it has something to do with Jenny! It's almost a bad incident, there must be an explanation."

"Hey, you said, wouldn't that kind of thing happen to us?" Caiying joked.

"Then I'll send you there. With your charming Australian wild rose, Ji Soo and I will be safe."

Zhixiu bowed in vain, "Please, Ernie!"

Caiying looked at the two angrily, and said with a smile: "Hey, you two, we are a team, shouldn't we have difficulties together?"

"Maybe the other party is a chaebol's son, so you can marry into a wealthy family, and Zhixiu and I won't rob you."

Jenny put her arms around Ji Soo, showing a great look, raising her head and waving her hand.

He clearly said: "Go and be your chaebol young grandmother!"

"Ah, * girl, I'm going to kill you." Caiying rushed up angrily.

There was another frolic, and the three of them walked towards the chairman's office talking and laughing.

No one took the previous jokes seriously, the president has protected them very well for so many years.

Even things like accompany wine are limited to business banquets.

The president has also said that the chaebol does not want to provoke the public's endurance.

Therefore, the darkness experienced by the predecessors will not happen to them.

Those seniors were also low-key dormant after "that incident," and they didn't dare to touch the minefield again.

Although there are still some difficulties and reprimands from time to time, at least there is no need to worry about becoming a plaything.

It's really fortunate to be an idol at this time!

When I came to the door, the door was open.

Jenny and Chaeyoung looked at each other, and reached an agreement in an instant, and at the same time they used their shoulders to set out the middle Jisu.

"Ah!" The silly little only took a few steps forward and broke into the office.

He hurriedly bowed and said, "Hello, President."

After that, Zhixiu looked back at his teammates with her cheeks bulging, and she was so angry that she was not lethal.

On the contrary, she looked even cuter, "I really want to continue to bully her!"

"Well, come in, remember to close the door." The YG chairman put down the pen in his hand and raised his head blankly.

The moment the door closed, Zhixiu saw a trace of helplessness and unwillingness on the president's face.

After 50 minutes the office door reopened.

The three people who had laughed like a song before, walked out of the room expressionlessly.

The dignified and embarrassed chairman followed behind and shouted at the artist management department in the distance: "Is the car ready?"

In the nanny's car, the curtains were tightly drawn.

Caiying, Jenny, and Jisoo each sat in a daze in their own positions, and their minds went blank.

An hour ago, they were still joking, thinking that this kind of thing would never happen to them.

Now, they have been loaded and sent to the hotel like goods.

"That's three cores. If you resist, not only YG, but everyone around you will suffer..."

If you lose your job, you will be completely banned from Xueyang, and your family will also lose your job and face difficulties.

It's the same with friends, who will get entangled in all kinds of weird things and get into trouble.

"Aren't they afraid of the law?" Jenny recalled her unwilling question.

At that time, the president looked at her with innocent and helpless eyes.

"Do you really think that President Lee went to jail because of the law?"

Jenny, don't be naive. You know this country is also called the three-core empire! "

As a rule maker, will you really be bound by the rules?

It's just an illusion of taking care of the fragile self-esteem and vanity of the weak, a scam that everyone knows.

When the benefits are higher than the needs, the rules will be stepped on.

President Li's treatment in prison is comparable to the standard of a five-star hotel suite.

In this country, the chaebol always stands outside the law.

There is a place outside the law that can never be touched.

"I hate this * country." Looking at the scenery backwards outside the windshield, Jenny shed tears of sadness.

She had just found her knight, and her beautiful vision was shattered by the cruel reality.

Chapter 679: Knight, good rider~

"why you?"

"why you?"

After a short period of air freezing, Qin Yu came to the sofa and sat down: "Sit down!"

Jenny looked surprised, but still sat next to him in cooperation.

With both hands propped on the sofa, his long legs swayed and relaxed like an outing.

"What's the situation?" Chaeyoung and Jisu couldn't figure it out at all.

Now, how come this unspoken rule is so different from what you imagine...

Did you think it wrong, or did you make a mistake?

Also, what kind of trouble is Jenny being so relaxed? ? ?

"Jenny, do you know?" Ji Soo sat next to Jenny and asked curiously in her ear.

At the same time, the corner of his eyes kept looking at Qin Yu next to him.

So handsome~

So young~

"Ah~ I see, you are the Lord Knight." Zhixiu jumped up suddenly and pointed at him suddenly.

"???" Sir Knight, what the hell.

However, it seems right to say that, Yu brother is very good at riding.

No matter what kind of beautiful horse, he can ride it!

Seeing Qin Yu staring at herself with a weird smile, Zhixiu remembered that the other party was an important guest who needed three cores to please.

And myself, just one of the gifts I was given...

"I'm sorry." Zhixiu's face was tangled, bowed anxiously and apologized.

Because of excessive force, my head hit the coffee table directly, with a thump: "Ah, it hurts!"

Zhixiu covered her forehead with tears in her eyes, grievances written on her face.

"Ha!" Qin Yu couldn't help laughing.

Seeing Caiying pulling Menghuo to comfort her, Jenny couldn't help but curiously asked: "Ouba, why are you?"

"Why is it?" Qin Yu said calmly: "I said, I came to Smecta to discuss business."

is it? Did you say it?

It seems to have said it, but you didn't say that the business you talked about was with Sanxin!

Moreover, it is important that the three-core Li family personally call YG, so that the chairman has to succumb and pack himself and the members of the group as gifts.

"Did you ask for it?" Jenny asked disappointedly.

Therefore, men will eventually become unified, only knowing how to use the lower body to consider problems?

"It was Li Zhen's arrangement." Qin Yu responded.

He didn't expect that the other party would send Jenny, Jisu and Caiying together.

In other words, why is there less Lisa?

Although her appearance does not conform to Yu Ge's aesthetics.

But when riding a horse, some popular idols sang and danced alongside to set off the atmosphere.

Will this process be better? ? ?

"Li Zhen, you mean the eldest daughter of the Li family?" Jenny was shocked.

"I thought it was her in the room." Qin Yu nodded and admitted that he really thought so before coming.

However, it seems that the previous refusal hurt Li Zhen's fragile self-esteem.

Or, she doesn't know what attitude to use to face herself.

Thinking of the carousel's presumptuous smile, the joy from the heart, the luster in those dim and indifferent eyes.

Qin Yu secretly exclaimed: "Fuck, she is not in love with me, right?"

Too good to be a man, really annoying!

too difficult!

"You don't think that President Li Zhen will be with you?" Jenny was surprised when she heard what he said, and then she couldn't help laughing.

That was Li Zhen, the eldest daughter of the Li family of the Three-Core Empire.

How could he treat himself as... in order to please him...

Seeing Qin Yu's calm and calm expression, Jenny suddenly felt that she seemed to understand correctly.

"She really..." Jenny's eyes widened.

"I refused." Qin Yu said.

Damn it, good to learn!

But why does he still look so handsome, this * charm.

Knowing that everything was arranged by her, Jenny didn't know how to continue for a while.

What should we do now, should we take the initiative?

But, what a shame!

Will he misunderstand something, thinking that he is like those predecessors, more than once...

"This is the first time." Jenny said quickly.

"?" Qin Yu stunned.

"Ah, no, it's not the first time, it's not..."

"Hello, I'm Park Caiying." Caiying stood up, bowed and stood in front of Qin Yu and looked at him like that.

"Qin Yu." Qin Yu spread his arms on the back of the sofa and looked at her with interest.

What does she want to do with her awe-inspiring dedication?

"Qin Yu...Can I call you Oppa?" Caiying asked cautiously.

"Yeah." Qin Yu nodded.

"Qin Yu and Ouba, if you can, please spare Ji Soo and Jenny, I...I am willing...willing to stay."

Park Caiying has decided to take the place of the two sisters to bear all the consequences.

If someone really needs sacrifice, please choose her!

Oppa's handsome, handsome, rich and billions, all of this, please put it on yourself.

Let go of Jenny and Ji-soo, they are just children!

"Flesh." Jenny looked at her moved.

Suddenly, her expression froze, and Caiying's slightly twitching mouth reminded her of something.

Look carefully again, the little star in his eyes clearly looks forward to what will happen next.

"Park... Chae... Ying..." Jenny squeezed her fist.

This * girl actually wants to monopolize Oppa.

What self-dedication is all fake!

"I do it for everyone, Jenny, don't mess around, ah, hahaha..."

The two fell on the sofa and huddled together.

That messy corners and skirts, cough!

Ji Soo, who was sitting quietly on the corner of the sofa, lowered her head and felt uneasy.

The scorching eyes locked on her made her panic.

Why should he stare at himself, what is he doing?

Ming Ming Caiying has already said that she would...

"I remember you would dance with your hands and show it." Qin Yu said suddenly.

"Huh?" Zhixiu looked up blankly and looked at him dumbly.

"On the spot, sit and dance with your hands." Qin Yu prompted.

Ji Soo's expression fell into embarrassment, why did he make such a strange request.

That's just interaction, not playing with your hands!

"Raise your eyebrows, bit your lip, and straighten up." Shameful endorsements popped out of Qin Yu's mouth.

Ji Soo is stupid!

So, has she been to her own concert scene? Sure enough, is you the goal?

No wonder youngsters always say: The well-behaved white rabbit is the most attractive.

"Yes, yes..." Zhixiu raised her hand, waved up and down, raised her eyebrows, bit her lip, every movement was so careful: "Is that so?"

At this time, she didn't have the radiance on the stage at all.

But with a kind of evil temptation, that kind of weak and weak cunning, just like an alternative temptation.

"Come and bully me!" Every cell in his body exudes the same signal.

Qin Yu raised his hand to cover his forehead, "This woman, do you know how charming she is like this? It will kill people..."

"Hey, Oppa seems to have taken a fancy to Ernie." The two who were fighting stopped and turned their heads to Ji-soo as they went up and down, as if trying to find out what temptation she was. .

"You don't really want to stay, do you?" Jane asked in surprise.

Compared to Ji-soo, she cares more about what Caiying just said, is she really willing?

"You don't think we can run away if we know each other?" Caiying asked rhetorically, with a bit of sarcasm in her tone.

She has understood that all protection and safety are fake.

When someone who can't refuse appears, no matter how hot they are, they can't resist the other party's power.

At that time, today's event will be repeated.

You know, after the first time, the second time and the third time will follow one after another.

She didn't want to let her life fall into a nightmare...

If, if you can stay in Ouba's heart, even if it only takes a little bit of position.

So attaching so much importance to his three cores will definitely protect yourself and the safety of the combination, right?

At that time, they will no longer have to worry about being called into the president's office one day.

Let the nightmare happen again!

"But why are you here?" Jenny's expression was obviously not convinced.

She was the one who met Oppa first, and even if she really wanted to come, she should be the one.

"Didn't you say that even if you die, you won't give in?" Caiying looked at her funny.

Clearly before seeing Qin Yu, she said she would fight to the death.

"That's different, he, I... Oh, if it were him, I could." Jenny said, covering her face with her hand.

The cheeks are already hot and red.

But when he thought of his previous worries, Qin Yu might have misunderstood that they had become playthings just like the others.

Jenny's heart was full of melancholy, and Ouba looked at Ji Soo...

The shimmering luster is looking at the desire that I don't have.

Chapter 680: Lifetime

As O'Neill in the combination, both on the outside and at home, Ji Soo is the best bully.

It is also the company's highest quality asset.

Speaking of Ji Soo, even the YG chairman will use a comforting tone: "We, Ji Soo, the most trouble-free!"

When he speaks, he is the old capitalist.

No need to buy drafts, navy, and all kinds of popular propaganda.

Relying solely on his own strength, his results are no worse than any member.

This price-performance ratio is unique in the entire team.

When it comes to the combination, people who don't know always feel that Ji Soo doesn't have any sense of existence.

Unlike Lisa, she is always the big-name endorsements, catwalks, and all kinds of pro-girls.

It's not like Caiying, the Australian Wild Rose, which is popular all over the net on the piano.

Even less like Jenny, a song "SOLO" is red to purple.

She just be herself quietly and enjoy the stage just like her fan.

Quiet, don't fight or make trouble!

Even if someone discredited Ji-soo, he would send his greetings in the most gentle tone: "Address, sister, go to you to explain it personally!"

Therefore, it is rare to see news about Zhixiu on the Internet.

However, the purchasing power and spending power of fans occupy the forefront of the team.

Business ability MAX.

The world is April day, neither hot nor cold, neither arrogant nor impetuous, nor wise nor handsome!

"Ouba!" Jenny pushed Caiying away from her body and squatted close to him, just looking at him straightforwardly.

"..." Qin Yu got up suddenly, and Jenny backed away in a panic, instantly sitting on the ground with her unbalanced body.

Squinting and smiling, Qin Yu walked to the bathroom: "Zhixiu, come with me."

Zhixiu: (' ▽ ` ") ~ (T □ T) σ

"So, what the * are we arguing about, Assi~" With a hand and stomping, Jenny lay on the sofa angrily, slapped indiscriminately with her small fists.

Caiying smiled and said, "Ouni, don't forget the youngest people when you develop!"

"...I don't want to." Ji Soo was confused, her brain blank.

So, she has nowhere to go now?

"Ouni~" Caiying stretched out her hands.

Zhixiu handed her hand blankly, and walked forward under her lead.

Wow~

The sound of the water is getting closer, and when Ji-soo regains the ability to think again, she is already standing in front of the bathroom door.

"When the company got in the car, there was actually no way to retreat." After finishing talking, Caiying drove her forward without waiting for Zhixiu to speak.

"Ah~" Pushing open the door suddenly, his feet moved forward involuntarily.

In panic, the slippery ground made her lose control of her balance, and she was about to fall.

In the white mist, a pair of strong arms appeared in vain.

"So, there's no hope." Jane buried her head on the sofa, whispering muffledly.

Caiying, who came back again, embraced her arms and chuckled on the sofa, "Jenny, don't forget that the three of us came together."

Jenny raised her head, her gaze looked at her with doubts, then a stunned color, and finally her dim eyes lit up again.

...

...

The next day!

Qin Yu was awakened by the phone early in the morning, and the weight on his arms and thighs made him frown and open his eyes.

Pulling out the arm that was pressed by Jenny and Chaeyoung, he pushed Jisu away, who was resting on her thigh.

Qin Yu picked up the phone and pressed the answer button: "Secretary Xu!"

"Boss, Blohm+Voss called to rush the balance." Xu Meixin.

Futuristic Rhapsody Paradise has already circled the sea.

Should have paid the remaining balance at the time of the handover, considering that Qin Yu's payment is very easy, Blohm+Voss wants to maintain this wealthy customer.

Therefore, it has been postponed until now, and under financial pressure, they have to tell Xu Meixin that they need to receive the final payment as soon as possible.

"Well, call him." Qin Yu was satisfied with the futuristic Rhapsody Paradise.

For subsequent maintenance, he does not need Blohm+Voss to do it.

In fact, in Qin Yu's plan, this superyacht will undergo some detailed modifications.

Such as defense system and attack system, now it is too fragile.

There is only a simple defense system. What if you encounter pirates when you go out, it is very dangerous.

For the safety of your own life, arrange a dozen [Creators] on board, isn't it too much?

Since there are engineers and soldiers, wouldn't it be a waste not to use it.

It is also reasonable to carry out some subtle specialization [defense] transformations!

Some people say that the best defense is offense.

Brother Yu deeply agrees with this...

In other words, I haven't entered the "Ghost" for some time, and I don't know if An, who is eagerly waiting for "Ascension", is waiting.

But no matter how urgent it is, I want to follow Qin Yu's vision to complete the soaring transformation. '

The materials and energy needed are massive, and the current Vault 18...

No, it's the Church of Miracle Science!

The current Church of Miracle Science does not have enough resources and energy to ensure the smooth progress of this 'ascension transformation'.

Just a core of power, they can't come up with it now.

"It would be great if you could get the material conveyor at that time." With the pick-up, Qin Yu could directly transport the liquid crystal to Futra Star.

Serve as the core of Ann's power and complete part of her transformation.

It's just that this kind of thought just passed by and was left behind.

Compared with the material conveyor, the formula of titanium rhodium alloy is truly invaluable.

It is also a powerful cornerstone for mankind to take the first step into space.

Now!

Wait, maybe they can get a new direction from the monster.

When he came to the living room, Qin Yu first took a bottle of ice water from the refrigerator.

He drank it and wiped his mouth with his hand.

Just lying on the sofa with all four feet upside down, closing his eyes: "Open the mall."

In front of him, a huge door slowly opened.

Then a dome space filled with various materials appeared in front of Qin Yu's eyes.

His consciousness was frozen in the center of the mall, and a floating board appeared in front of him with various commodities listed on it.

From all kinds of mechanical equipment, weapons and materials, to mechanical tools and lathes, the most expensive drawings and space battleships.

Qin Yu had everything he could think of.

However, everything he is interested in above is so far out of reach for Qin Yu now.

There are currently six categories in the mall, namely [mechanical] [materials] [war] [ships] [knowledge] [biology]

Turning to the last page of the ship, the price of the Overlord-level Super God Void flagship above is, the value of faith: 1 trillion.

When I saw this price for the first time, Brother Yu had to lift the table on the spot.

What about cheating? you.....

Can the belief value be used as a unit of 'mega'?

Think you are Zimbabwe!

It's a pity that the reality is so cruel. The cruel dog has wiped out Yu's last hope in his lifetime.

1 trillion belief value, then look at the existing belief value marked in the upper right corner: 813 points.

This is the belief value provided to Qin Yu by the believers he developed .

Although the belief value increases every day, it basically beats at a dozen points.

Compare the frequently four-digit prices in the mall...

You can realize how desperate Brother Yu is!

Qin Yu has basically given up on the flagship of the Overlord Super God Void, the Lifetime series.

This will turn it out and read it again, just to make myself give up more thoroughly.

However, not every price category is so desperate.

For example, in the [Knowledge] category, "Mecha Basic Theory" only requires 1,000 belief points.

It was also the first product Qin Yu decided to buy.

Practical ability, with the help of Kirin's analysis of the exoskeleton incomplete mecha, to create [Xing Tian] and [Creator] Qin Yu, at least an entry level.

Now, he needs to make up for the lack of theory and create a more practical mecha.

Regarding the purchase of [Xing Tian], so far, there has been no movement from Bai Ze.

The matter is important, and Qin Yu can understand the above concerns and considerations.

But for him, the longer the delay, the greater the financial pressure.

Because the company is not listed, there is no need to miss the financial report. Everyone thinks that Lixin Investment has a large amount of cash to use.

But in fact, Qin Yu's personal research and development has been taking up a lot of money.

In addition to the balance paid to Blohm+Voss, the capital of Lixin Investment has been stretched.

If this continues, it won't be long before Brother Yu will become the first billionaire to declare bankruptcy!

Maintaining multiple cutting-edge scientific research projects at the same time is too costly even for miracles.

Had it not been for the Internet company and the titanium-rhodium alloy coating to be topped in time,
Brother Yu would also have to be an old man!

Let Blohm+Voss bring the futuristic fantasy paradise to how to open it, and then how to drive it back.
