Chapter 711: Just like to generate power for love

drop!

In a quiet space, the indicators of all servers go out uniformly.

The whole process lasted about 5 seconds, and then the lights came on again, and a voice came from around: "Qin."

"Kirin." Qin Yu.

"It's me." Qilin's voice returned to the mechanical dullness of the past.

But Qin Yu heard obvious mood swings from its previous voice, it was joy...

"Successful evolution?" Qin Yu asked calmly.

"Yes, it succeeded. The monster will be upgraded in 2 hours. According to human habits, I will post the 1.0 patch on the official website."

Good guy, I have learned all the routines of the version of the doll, you deserve it.

"Well, introduce your new function." Qin Yu said as he walked out.

After passing through two explosion-proof doors and verifying his fingerprints and iris, Qin Yu entered the elevator smoothly.

Swipe!

"Welcome, Chairman Qin Yu." A welcome voice came from the elevator, which was a response procedure set in advance.

In fact, Kylin will introduce him to the new features of "Ghost" in his headset.

As for itself, if it has to be explained.

It just becomes more powerful, with higher computing power, and stronger control over "Ghost".

The introduction is not over yet, Qin Yu has reached the 119th floor.

"Okay, the specific data is sent to my mobile phone." Qin Yu ordered it to terminate the report.

"Okay, Qin." Qilin's voice disappeared.

As he walked to the reception room, Qin Yu dialed Tang Guo's number: "President Tang, I have something to tell you, the monster is going to be updated..."

Online update, just download the update patch, it will automatically complete the update.

The whole process does not require the player to choose, control, and will not affect the opponent's game time.

All processes are automated and are completely completed by Kylin.

It just needs an access door, legal...

Although most of the time, what it does is illegal, just like the design of [Crystal Motherboard], which "borrows" the results of many large companies.

But when it comes to Miracle Network, its actions must be legal.

At least superficially legal!

Otherwise, if the update is completed without the player knowing anything, what would the players think?

Perhaps, will be more excited?

After all, the brain circuits of sand sculpture netizens cannot be inferred according to normal logic.

"Brother." Liang Guiqi, who was looking around in the reception room, stood up as soon as he walked to the entrance of the corridor.

Putting away the phone, Qin Yu greeted him with a smile: "Why are you two here?"

In the office, Liang Guiqi and Cui Jun are like the silly people who have just entered the city. They touched here and looked over there. They were full of curiosity about everything.

Even the ashtray placed on the table must be picked up and looked carefully: "Brother, which antique is this?"

"Fuck off, antique, certain treasure 168, do you want to send the link to you?" Qin Yu scolded with an angry smile.

"Hey, this isn't the first time I've been to the big boss's office, I'm curious!" Liang Guiqi put down the ashtray without embarrassment at all.

His character has been careless since childhood.

awkward?

What is that, I have never experienced...

Cui Jun appeared to be much quieter, even if he was curious, he was still held in his heart, just looking at it and it was over.

"Let's talk, why are you two here? It's not a special visit, right?" Qin Yu took two bottles of drinks from the refrigerator and threw them to the two of them.

"Thank you brother."

Liang Guiqi twisted it and filled it with half a bottle. Cui Jun put the drink on the table after thanking him, looked at him and said, "Brother, we two are here for internship."

practice?

Just after this summer vacation, what are you coming to practice?

"Let me talk about it!" Liang Guiqi put down the drink and wiped his mouth with his sleeve, explaining the cause and effect.

It is not Choi Jun who is going to practice internship, it is him...

This time on October 11, I don't know what kind of wind the school draws to arrange social topics and ask them to find a place for internship.

After the end, a paper will be written and included in the comprehensive assessment at the end of the year.

"No, I just came here for you. He said he had always come to see your company, so he followed." Liang Guiqi pointed to Cui Jun beside him.

"So!" After understanding the situation, Qin Yu immediately began to think about the department Liang Guiqi could go to.

"Which company do you want to intern?" Qin Yu asked his opinion first without directly calling the shots.

"Of course it's the network department that developed the monsters." Liang Guiqi stood up and said with excitement: "Brother, the game is really exciting!"

"It's also exciting to pick up trash?" Qin Yu joked.

Every newcomer who enters "The Scary Demon" can't get around the link of picking up trash.

No matter who it is, it starts from the trash boss.

"Irritation, why not? I picked up a small set of best products for myself in the garbage dump. You said that thorns are not irritating."

Liang Guiqi raised his head proudly, almost writing "I am the Emperor of Europe" on his face.

He picked up a lot of parts in the garbage dump, and then used these parts to make himself a robotic arm.

Not only is it powerful, but it can also use lasers to attack the enemy.

It's just that each time it takes to recharge is too long, and it takes 12 hours to recharge after using it once before it can be used again.

Even this is powerful enough, "With this equipment, I have joined the Church of Marvel Science. I am now a preparatory demon hunter, right?"

"What did you join?" Qin Yu was shocked.

What is the situation with this full of pride? Is the Church of Miracle Science very powerful?

Why don't I, the president, know what I am missing? ? ?

"Brother, didn't you play?" Liang Guiqi was surprised, his cousin's own company games, didn't he play it himself?

Such a fun game, I would even miss it, right?

Seeing his look of resentment, Qin Yu also couldn't laugh or cry: "Why, I don't know that the Church of Miracle Science has never played a game?"

"Of course, the Church of Miracle Science, the biggest force of the all evil demons, raided the military refuge two months ago and took over the base of the opponent.

After that, I swept all the surrounding refuges. If I didn't join, I would go away, and I would swept across a radius of 800 miles, becoming a giant..."

In the mouth of his cousin Liang Guiqi, the Church of Miracle Science has become the future and hope of Futra Star.

Everyone is proud of being able to join the demon hunting team, and he is a reserve player undergoing training.

"How vast is the Star of Fortera, the Church of Miracle Science is nothing but a unique one, and the outside world is still huge."

As the [Administrator], Qin Yu has a back door.

Although he can't be invincible for a second, he can still know the brief information about the area, environment, and living conditions of Star Futra.

The overall area of Futra is more than six times larger than the earth.

The land area occupies four tenths, how vast!

In this way, the current site of the Church of Miracle Science is roughly equivalent to a larger village.

What dominates one side, the future of planetary mankind...

Really, I think too much!

"How is it possible?" Liang Guiqi didn't want to believe that the idol he thought was nothing more than a village tyrant.

"How can it be impossible?" Qin Yu raised his eyebrows: "I developed the game, or you developed it."

"..." Liang Guiqi lost his voice He couldn't really tell.

The other party is a game developer, who knows this game better than him? ? ?

However, thinking of the rumors on the Internet, Liang Guiqi stopped talking.

"What's the point?" Qin Yu smiled.

Liang Guiqi glanced at him, then looked back at the door of the office, and made sure no one said in a low voice: "Brother, the internet said...that game, is it real?"

"What do you think?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

"Me!" Liang Guiqi frowned, and then put it down again: "I don't know how to say it, I feel very real when I play.

But after I came out, I felt that it was just a game, how could it be real. "

In fact, most players think the same way.

No matter how obsessed, when you leave the game and return to reality, you can still clearly distinguish what is reality and what is 'game. '

"It doesn't matter if it's true or not, it's fun or not." Qin Yu said with a smile.

Cui Jun nodded and said, "That's it, it's fun. When the college entrance examination is over next year, I can also enter the game to join you."

"No problem, I will cover you when the time comes." Liang Guiqi slapped him on the shoulder and said proudly.

Regardless of whether it was a village tyrant, no one dared to provoke people from the church where he knew.

When Cui Jun goes online next year, he will definitely become an official player.

Maybe he can still be a part-time official and take care of him as a rookie. Isn't it simple?

"However, is this game real or fake?" Liang Guiqi was still a little curious.

It was only his long-term cognition that made him deny his inner voice: "How can a game be real...nervous!"

"Brother, is my internship okay?" Liang Guiqi remembered the business and looked at him eagerly: "If you don't need salary, I like to generate electricity for love!"

Chapter 712: Bai Ze's Tucao

Liang Guiqi was arranged for an internship in the network department, and Cui Jun also wanted to join in the fun.

So Qin Yu left them both!

"The two interns, don't need to take special care of them. Just throw them dirty and tiring work. Be safe!" Qin Yu reminded them specifically.

With his explanation, the guys in the network department are not polite.

They have recently been mad for lack of people, especially interns who can do miscellaneous work. They are not used lightly or heavily, and it is possible to play badly.

Dirty, tired, nothing, safety must be paid attention to!

It's not good to kill people...

Compared to the upcoming internship, the two obviously paid more attention to the big sister in front of them: "Secretary Xu, are you my brother's secretary?"

"Yes, I am Qin Dong's first accompanying secretary!" Xu Meixin responded.

It sounds great, and there are also the first and second secretaries.

So, how many secretaries does my cousin have? ? ?

"There are 21 people in the President's Office, including 16 assistants to the secretary and 5 secretaries to the president, who are mainly responsible for the itinerary and communication issues at the vice president and president level..."

A brief description of the working process of the president's office to the two, they have also arrived on the floor where the network department is located.

"That means, besides you, there are 4 secretaries?" Liang Guiqi said with envy, "That's amazing."

"No, I'm the full-time secretary of the chairman. The same thing you see in Sun Yuan outside the office. We are not part of the president's office!"

Xu Meixin and Sun Yuan are established in the chairman's office and belong to his full-time secretaries.

To put it simply, Qin Yu's poke was stamped on the foreheads of the two of them. It was his person, and only he could command.

The forehead of the secretary of the president's office is stamped with the company's vice president (minister) level or above, and it is shared by all offices.

The difference and treatment here can be as high as several stories.

"Mr Tang."

When he found Tang Guo, the other party saw that Xu Meixin sent the person down in person, and he knew in his heart: "Secretary Xu, why let you go there in person."

"The boss's explanation." Xu Meixin responded with a smile: "I've handed it to you. I can't leave for too long. The boss is still waiting!"

"Okay, Secretary Xu walks slowly, come and have tea when you have time." Tang Guo smiled and sent the other person to the elevator.

When Xu Meixin returned to the top office, the door was closed.

Looking at Sun Yuan at the door, Xu Mei asked curiously: "What is the boss doing inside?"

"It seems to be on the phone, not quite clear." Sun Yuan said casually.

She is now a little bit self-defeating, and she has no longer wanted to seduce the boss and compete with Xu Meixin for favor.

Can't compete, it's not as good as salted fish.

get off work normally from nine to five and get your own salary.

Others, whoever loves you!

On the contrary, it was a good relationship with Xu Meixin, which allowed her to learn a lot of useful things.

For example, her dressing style, small gestures between her speech and demeanor.

Sun Yuan really learned a lot about speaking skills, including sitting and walking posture.

At this time, Sun Yuan realized the gap between her and the other party.

Smiles, words and deeds, all with a charm that belongs to him.

Put aside your inner jealousy and prejudice, face each other squarely!

Don't talk about men, even a woman like herself has the urge to hold her down...

From this point of view, the boss hasn't done anything to her until now, it can be called the modern version of Liu Xiahui!

Fortunately, Sun Yuan just said this in his heart. If Qin Yu knew that she compared herself to Liu Xiahui...

Nobody!

"I'll go in and have a look." Xu Meixin wanted to ask about his next itinerary.

After finishing the whole clothes to make sure there was nothing wrong, he stepped forward and knocked on the door.

"In!"

Pushing open the door, Qin Yu was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and stepping back and forth, breathing in and out of the indicator light on the headset.

"Lao Bai, don't tell me this. What's the relationship between us... It's okay? It's okay that you give me back what you took before.

If I don't do it, I'm not doing this business anywhere. Believe it or not, some people will sell it for 10,000 tomorrow...

By the way, whoever is with us, don't use the fleet to collect something, nor let you hit the South China Sea. "

Signaling Xu Meixin to close the door, Qin Yu continued: "I'll let you know the specific time. What did Xing Tian say?"

After waiting for such a long time, [Xing Tian] did not give a specific explanation.

Is it necessary or not?

Whether this production line is to be built or not, you'd better say it.

If the top decides not to equip it, Qin Yu will have to find another way out.

[Xing Tian] Don't worry about selling, the key is to see who you are selling to.

Is it disgusting to sell to the enemy and turn around to rob your house with the things you produce?

Most of the time, businessmen only care about the immediate gains and losses...

But some things are exceptions!

"The above is interested in Xingtian, but you know that the procurement of equipment for the Ministry of War cannot be determined in a single sentence.

Besides, you are a private company after all..."

"What's wrong with the private enterprise? Can't the private enterprise contribute to the country?" Qin Yu didn't like this.

What age is it, you talk to me publicly and privately.

Let's talk about the contribution, who provided the 'Seiko CNC System'.

Necked by a foreign country, without Xia Guoxin, who got the lithography machine.

Who has the benefit, thinks of him for the first time...

"OK OK."

Hearing Qin Yu complaining like a little daughter-in-law, Bai Ze cut his head and interrupted in two big words: "I'll urge you again, don't worry, there will be results."

"Since you Lao Bai has said so, let's do it, just treat you as a face." Qin Yu responded indifferently.

"..." Bai Ze just wanted to say, you really don't have to give this face, I don't have that big face.

But since the other party gave it, he had to catch it, and he had to accept it.

This kid is taking advantage of me again! !

"By the way, there is another thing I just want to tell you, your game pod, I want 100,000." Bai Ze said.

"Why don't you grab it?" Qin Yu instantly complained: "100,000, do you know what the monthly output of Miracle Technology is?"

Just half a year has passed for online and physical store orders. Do you want 100,000 to open your mouth? "

I heard it wrong, UU reading www.uukanshu.com or you said it wrong, right?

100, it's okay.

"100,000, can be delivered in batches, the money will not be less than a cent, you have to help me with this matter."

As Bai Ze spoke, he turned softer and softened: "Just treat me as a favor. I really can't delay this matter!"

"So anxious?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically, seemingly unclear.

Bai Ze fell into silence, he felt that the other party was using himself as a fool.

Are you in a hurry, why are you in such a hurry, don't you have any ideas in your heart?

"In three days, Xing Tian will give you a satisfactory answer." Bai Ze said decisively.

"Lao Bai, you are boring, and I didn't force you..." Qin Yu said displeased.

But the game pod, which had just been bitten to death, immediately had a turnaround: "Well, how about 10,000 units per month?"

"...5 months, 20,000 per month." Bai Ze was speechless, this kid was really realistic.

"15,000, Lao Bai, the limit is too high. I also have to consider civilian players" Qin Yu's tone cannot be rejected.

Bai Ze fell silent again, feeling as if he was asking for instructions.

"Okay, just as you said." Bai Ze agreed, but he still has a question to ask.

"What on earth do you want to do?" Bai Ze's words not only represent himself, but also the voice of countless people.

The truth of "The Scary Demon", his intentions, what on earth did he want to do?

"Is the Fiend's attitude clear enough that there is no overseas version?" Qin Yu replied with a smile.

"Enough, I hope it will always be like this!" Hanging up the phone, Qin Yu sat in a chair.

He closed his eyes and repeatedly tapped his fingers on the table, making a clicking sound.

I don't know when, Xu Meixin stood behind him.

Putting his hands on his shoulders and gently rubbing and pressing, the office fell into warm peace.

Chapter 713: Visit by Situ Hao

"Arrange for delivery, and the stuff will be sent directly to the Northwest Assembly." Qin Yu opened the mouth to break the silence.

"Wait for the money to arrive, or?" Xu Meixin asked in a low voice, who was rubbing his shoulders.

"Ship the goods first, don't worry about the money." With such a small amount of money, Bai Ze will not fall back on the bill.

Still the old saying: Don't always underestimate the aura of a big country!

Someone below is guilty of guilty and deception.

That's the problem of the people below!

Qin Yu skipped the bottom and middle floors and directly dealt with the top.

100,000 units, more than 80 billion...

This is nothing, the energy bar at the back is the big head.

Each game pod is replaced by an energy bar, which is 2 billion in revenue.

Robbery?

Has this to make money fast? ?

So, what kind of violence...just money eats brains.

Everything that should be discussed was settled, and there was no work arrangement in the afternoon, and Qin Yu planned to go home.

After two weeks of soaking in the company, everyone stinks!

"Let Lao He drive the car to the door and go home." After the order, Qin Yu picked up the phone and walked out.

Xu Meixin was a step slower, and after he left first, she said to Sun Yuan, "I'm going out with the boss, call my cell phone if something happens."

"Okay, Sister Xu." Sun Yuan made an OK gesture with a happy expression.

Once the boss and Xu Meixin left, she was basically free.

As long as that long-winded machine doesn't trouble yourself, no one can control yourself.

When it's five o'clock, I clock in to get off work, and ask the little sisters to have tea.

Little days, happy!

"Old He, are you still used to it here?" Qin Yu asked while sitting in the car.

"Follow the boss, you can go anywhere." He Wu said coldly.

This answer is worthy of him!

How about a high level of enlightenment, and wages increased by 30,000 at the end of the year.

At the door of the house, Qin Yu closed the car door and said, "There is nothing to do at night, so I won't use it anymore."

He Wu nodded to express his understanding, and he would send Secretary Xu home later.

The rest of the time is his own.

You can take the opportunity to stroll around and buy some gifts for your wife and daughter to take home.

Whenever I go to a place with the boss, I have to bring gifts to my wife and daughter when I go back. This has become a habit!

drop!

As soon as he opened the door, Qin Yu saw several pairs of men's shoes in the hallway.

"Little Mister is back." Aunt Qiao, who passed by with the fruit bowl in her hand, happened to see him come back.

"Well, is there a guest at home?" Qin Yu asked while changing his shoes.

"Well, here it is." Aunt Qiao stepped forward mysteriously and whispered: "It seems to be a high-ranking official."

"Haha, Mr. Qin is too good at talking and laughing..." A hearty voice came from the living room.

Who else is not Situ Hao, "Why did he come?"

Qin Yu walked into the living room curiously. Old Qin and Situ Hao looked back at the same time when they heard the footsteps.

"I'm back." Old Qin sat still as if Tai Shan did not move.

Situ Hao stood up, smiled generously and said, "Shao Qin is back."

"Situ Senior Official, Dad!" Qin Yu smiled and nodded, greeting the two of them.

"Yeah." Old Qin nodded faintly, then stood up and smiled: "I have to go and see the youngest son, this kid should be upset in a while, you guys talk!"

Why did the person come, Lao Qin clearly felt like Ming Jinger in his heart.

Let him sit here for his son in the green leaves, I Qin Han has no card face? ? ?

"Okay, Old Qin, I have to sit with me another day, let's enjoy tea and play chess together." Situ Hao said with a laugh.

"Definitely." Qin Han responded heartily, and the person disappeared in the corner of the corridor.

At this time, only Situ Hao and Qin Yu remained in the living room.

After Aunt Qiao delivered her favorite fruits and new tea, she also disappeared voluntarily.

In my heart, I have a better understanding of the energy of the Qin family, "Be good, even the chief official of Xinjiang has to visit him in person."

"Why do senior officials Situ have time to come home?" Qin Yu asked with a smile while sitting on the sofa and finding a position that made him comfortable.

"Follow the road, come and see Shao Qin."

Situ Hao turned around and said with a smile: "Qin Shao may not know yet, it turns out that your father and I worked together."

"Really?" Qin Yu smiled heartily.

How to say that: the poor are in the busy city and no one asks, the rich have distant relatives in the mountains.

No, Situ Hao has also become a colleague of his father.

This friendship suddenly remembered.

"Yes, we went to the countryside together back then, Hongtu Town. I don't know how that place is now. I haven't been to it for a long time..."

Situ Hao showed a look of remembrance, which was indeed the case.

Thinking of that era, although it is bitter, there is a special charm, which is nostalgic and reminiscent.

I used to think it was a difficult time.

Only recently did Situ Hao discovered that it was not difficult at all, but precious experience and wealth.

Worth trillions! ! !

"It turns out that there is still such a thing. My dad rarely mentions his experience back then." Qin Yu said with interest.

In fact, Lao Qin was equal to the last train at that time.

After his batch, the previous trip to the countryside to jump in the queue has completely become a thing of the past.

I didn't eat much suffering, instead I ate and drank in a fellow villager's house, and gained two pounds.

"Compared to the former educated youth, it must be a blessing, but compared with the present, life is indeed bitter.

It should be said that everyone was suffering at that time, not one family or two..."

The old story of the narrative is over, and Situ Hao feels that the time is ripe to get to the point: "Qin Shao, I heard that Miracle has plans to build a factory in Hudu?"

Oh, so I am waiting for him here!

Qin Yu understood that Situ Hao had come today.

The chicken who was afraid of laying golden eggs in his nest fluttered and ran away.

His news is well-informed, and it seems that Hudu's blockade is not thorough enough!

Why Qin Yu didn't doubt that it was her own secret.

Because, as long as the security level of the entire company is above level 4 (manager), all electronic devices are under monitoring.

Only a few vice presidents, Xu Hao and Qin Yu know that the company is interested in Hudu Lingang.

Of course, there is also Xu Meixin, as the chairman's accompanying secretary, her confidentiality level is 10.

It was only lower than Qin Yu's level 12 and the level 11 of the three team leaders of the Kuafu Research Institute.

He was not the first to do this, and he was not the only one.

Large companies have their own monitoring methods.

I really thought that the computers, mobile phones, and cards that the company gave you were all pure benefits.

Inside are equipped with the company's customized safety protection system and back door, which can monitor the user's records and movements at all times.

And when executives sign a contract, there will be clear requirements.

Everything related to work must be done on the equipment provided by the company.

It is a violation of the contract to use your own computer or mobile phone casually to discuss or deal with work-related matters.

Simply put: illegal!

Confidentiality is a sensitive topic that every company is striving to do and does not want to hear anyone mention.

Miracle Company is naturally no exception. There is not only the Ministry of Internal Affairs, but also the Kylin line of defense.

However, Kirin's monitoring is a real-time trigger!

All monitoring is recorded and deleted at any time, as long as there is no sensitive word that is triggered, or an abnormality is detected.

Regardless of the entered information or audio, it will be deleted in the next second For other devices, it takes at least one process to complete entry, detection, and deletion.

But for Kylin, these are all workloads that can be completed in an instant.

Determine if there is any noteworthy information, keep it or delete it.

Is it ethical?

Do not.

is that useful?

Have.

Change?

to not fix.

Compared with what those big companies do, data retention is used to ensure the loyalty of executives, as an insurance for the company and itself.

What Qin Yu ordered Qilin to do is considered a moral model!

Although it is a strong word, the truth is like this...

In real life, there will be some unsatisfactory places after all.

If the world is as perfect as Gensokyo, what is the significance of the existence of human society?

"Does the senior official Situ know about Penguin Island?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

"I've seen the plan, it's shocking." Situ Hao nodded and said.

He really studied it seriously and was shocked by it!

Unfortunately, the abandoned capital, and even the entire northwest does not have such strength.

There is not enough background to support similar projects.

"What I want to do is the enhanced version, the foundation of the abandoned city...to be honest, it's too bad." Qin Yu pointed out the key points unceremoniously.

Compared with Zhili City, the abandoned city still has a long way to go to catch up.

The gap here cannot be filled in just one or two days...

It's not terrible to fall behind, we have the courage to catch up and rise to surpass.

One day, hope will be seen.

The terrible thing is that he refuses to admit it, burying his head in the sand and dreaming of his dream of spring and autumn.

In the previous dynasty, the country was smashed by the coalition forces and became history!

The backwardness of the northwest is only temporary. Qin Yu believes that in the future, it will surely become famous overseas with miracles and become a strategically important inland center.

Chapter 714: Little Pumpkin: Fairy, beautiful!

"I also know this fact, this time I just wanted to ask...Is the miracle the overall relocation, or..."

This is what Situ Hao cares most about.

At this moment, he looked at Qin Yu eagerly, where there was still the slightest gesture of an official in Xinjiang.

People under the eaves have to bow their heads!

Who asked him to ask Qin Yu something, even more!

Miracle Company, born in the light of miracle in the northwest...

Situ Hao has been attending meetings for the past two years, and everyone he meets has to give him two opening remarks of "How is the miracle company".

That sense of pride and satisfaction, Situ Hao dared to guarantee, there was no such thing in the previous thirty years.

Thirty years have passed, and the environment has been different, and the Northwest has also had a history of beauty.

Not to mention the glory brought by this achievement.

Just talk about the actual benefits...

The popularity of the city, its attractiveness to talents, tax revenue and the speed of economic development.

The emergence of miracles has brought about all-round development and recovery.

As for the two big projects being discussed in front of the Yamen, people just went straight to the miracle.

The two companies are suppliers of downstream supporting facilities for Miracle Technology Network. The original factories were located in the south.

But as the supply volume increases, transportation costs and risks increase, let the other party decide to invest and build a factory in the abandoned city.

Direct supply, minus intermediate transportation links!

There are also two new material companies that only negotiated a cooperation with Miracle Company last month.

To undertake the basic processing of the other party's materials, it is also necessary to build a factory.

The investment of these four companies alone is 2 billion, which is not much for a province, but it is by no means small.

It's not every day that there are big projects with eye-popping, banging on the head.

It was a rare opportunity in more than ten years and decades.

Spread across the country, the probability is small!

At the same time, it also represents a trend, and the commercial competitiveness of the Northwest is increasing day by day.

The entire transportation industry has also been stimulated and its development momentum has skyrocketed.

The year-on-year growth rate of the railway, highway, civil aviation, and transportation service industries far exceeds the data two years ago.

Others may only value the piece in front of them, while Situ Hao valued the whole.

In terms of data alone, the added value of the transportation industry last year was 134.352 billion, a year-on-year increase of 38.1%.

The industrial added value was 418.492 billion, an increase of 11.6% year-on-year, and the value-added increased by 8.2% year-on-year.

The growth rate ranks fifth in the country, which is the best level in the past five years.

The proportion of the total output value of high-tech and high-tech manufacturing in the province has increased from 9.2% to 15.6%.

Situ Hao could pat his own...Bah, pat his conscience and say, "This is an unprecedented good result."

On this answer sheet, as long as he can maintain a steady growth trend.

Joining the cabinet in a few years will not be a problem!

The results are so beautiful.

Even if someone wanted to refute, they couldn't start in front of this answer sheet.

How could Situ Hao not care about the development of Northwest China and his career prospects?

Caring for local development and climbing up, the two are not in conflict!

Only by developing the place well and making beautiful achievements will you have the qualifications and the ability to climb up.

On the contrary, if you want to climb up, you have to drive the local economic development and hand in an answer that everyone is satisfied with.

The two complement each other, why is there a conflict? ? ?

The so-called conflict is nothing more than one's own greed.

You can't control your own hands and head, and don't blame the system on the problem.

Some use guns to guard, some use guns to kill.

Can you say that it was the gun's fault?

To be wrong is also a bullet, after all, it kills the person.

"Build another, the original class of Miracle's existing industry will not move." Qin Yu's answer made Situ Hao's heart fall.

It's not just accommodating, just not moving.

He also knows that it is difficult for the opponent to put all the properties in the abandoned capital.

As long as he can hold onto his current results, he will be satisfied.

As for the little unwillingness in my heart, a normal person will have it.

The biggest difference between humans and animals is that reason controls desire, rather than desire controlling reason.

With this self-control, Situ Hao still has...

Situ Hao, who had resolved his worries, was in a good mood. Seeing that it was almost time for dinner, he offered to say goodbye.

"Would you like to stay for dinner?" Qin Yu stood up and said.

Seeing his posture when he got up to send him off, he knew it was a polite remark. Situ Hao casually found an excuse to leave the Qin family.

Aunt Joe, who was hiding in the kitchen, came out upon the sound of the door closing: "Mr., won't the guests stay for dinner?"

"No, just my family, I'll go see the little pumpkin." Qin Yu said, walking towards the depths of the corridor.

"Son, which character do you like best? The heroic Sun Dasheng, the cute and funny Zhu Bajie, or the honest and honest sand monk?"

Lao Qin is telling his son Journey to the West, the illustrated version, and the story is being polished to a certain extent, which is right for his age.

I saw Little Pumpkin push away his hand, flipping through the book and looking for it.

After a while, he shook his body and pointed at the page in front of him: "This..."

Qin Yu, who was standing behind Little Pumpkin, just happened to see clearly, this kid's finger was...bones! !

Old Qin had a complicated expression and asked curiously: "How do you like a fairy?"

Little Pumpkin shrank his head into his arms and rubbed it with a smirk.

After a long time, a sentence came out: "Fairy, beautiful!"

MD~

It is indeed the kind of the old Qin family, so he knows the importance of appearance at such a young age.

Qin Yu picked up the book and flipped through it at random, and found that the illustrations of the bone spirits in the book were the most beautiful.

To have a good looks, to have a figure, and to be beautiful.

Sure enough, it was a fairy!

"Who does this brat look like?" Old Qin said in a dubious voice.

Picking up the little pumpkin, Qin Yu gave Dad a look for himself!

Like who.

Don't you have any points in Qin's heart?

Just before dinner, Liang Chuyu came back, and Qin Yu took out the previous things and said, "Mom, you have to take care of it."

Liang Chuyu didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Now these children are all grown-ups, and every one of them is a little older, knowing that the fairies are good-looking.

The big ones don't let her worry, and stay away from home all day long.

Just look at him and know that nothing is good, and Qingqing doesn't care about it...

Liang Chuyu also knew that Lu Qing couldn't take care of this matter.

But as long as she mentioned it to her son, he would just talk to him, otherwise just say busy and take the opportunity to slip away!

I can't help myself, she can't help but be a mother.

Just look forward to not losing your daughter-in-law to yourself in the future.

If you can bring back a few more... it wouldn't be a bad thing to be lively.

After all, no matter how you become a mother, your heart will still be toward your own children.

Besides, this small one is even more worrying.

Two days ago, he took him to the supermarket, and one of them accidentally got under the skirt of the girl.

He made a big mess, and his face was flushed with embarrassment.

Apologizing to the girl in a hurry, UU read www.uukanshu.com and left without buying anything.

Really...

Before the bird's feathers have grown up, I want to leave the nest and go to the world. I'm really not afraid of flying eggs.

"..." Qin Yu lowered his head to pick up rice, and couldn't answer these words.

Seeing the murderous eyes of Master Mother, Lao Qin was afraid that he would stay in the study for a while.

The size and size are all his species, and they are still a mold.

Have the world in mind.

He is not to blame, who is to blame?

...

...

The next day, Qin Yutian went out before it turned on.

Standing in front of the familiar trail, move your body first, tap your feet to the ground, and take a deep breath.

Phoo~

The person burst out and rushed towards the destination.

This is one of his current morning exercise projects, the 500-meter sprint...

Jogging is not even a basic warm-up for him now.

Even if the nanoworms are not activated, the increase brought by the abnormal cells makes his physical fitness far superior to ordinary people.

Only with such a burst of sprint can he experience the joy of movement.

Flick his arms close to the body, and his legs alternate frequently like a motor. Each step is about two meters long.

A few sprints, people have already run halfway.

Going around the curve of the flower garden in front of him, and then ahead is the fitness center where he usually moves.

Qin Yu, who looked like a cheetah, suddenly braked and leaned back before the curve and stopped.

Almost at the same time, a tall figure emerged from the flower garden.

With a scream of "Ah", he reached out and pressed his hand on his chest, trying to push him away.

However, this push is like competing with the rock.

Not only didn't push the person away, but instead made her lose her balance and fell on her back to the ground.

Boom!

Sitting on the ground, the tall figure moaned in pain, rubbed his * and raised his head angrily, "What's the matter with you?"

Chapter 715: Can't afford gold and silver

At this time, Qin Yu also saw clearly who the people on the ground were.

Isn't this Song Gangtie, who is said to be incapable of gold and silver?

"It seems that you rushed out by yourself and almost hit me." Although she was a beautiful woman, she had an airport at a young age.

Can't afford it! !

"You..." Song Tie pointed at him.

It was indeed that he rushed out suddenly and almost hit the opponent.

"I," after thinking for a long time, I found that I really had nothing to say, so I could only put my hands down angrily.

"I'm sorry." Song Tie apologized directly, and reached out to him after the matter, "Can you pull me up?"

Naturally, Brother Yu would not refuse this small request.

Pulling it up, Qin Yu intends to continue the morning exercise.

If he fails to complete enough exercise, he won't have any energy for the day.

"and many more."

Seeing that he just left, Song Tie quickly called him, and asked with a puzzled face: "You, don't you know me?"

"Yes, Song can't afford it," Qin Yu said jokingly.

"It's not that I can't afford to Song..." Song Tie said as he laughed, "Forget it, just get acquainted, can I ask you something?"

Although a little curious, the other party was indifferent to seeing a beautiful woman like herself.

But she is not so narcissistic, she feels that everyone is her own fan.

Maybe someone has a beautiful girlfriend who is dedicated to love!

Thinking about it this way, Song Tie's senses are much better...

"Let's talk!" Qin Yu turned to face her.

"Well, how do you get to Manor No. 8?" Song Tie asked embarrassedly.

She sneaked in to find someone today, but she didn't expect it to be so big inside.

Moreover, there are flowers, trees, and walls everywhere, and it is impossible to see which one is which.

After searching for a long time, I didn't find what I was looking for, and instead found myself lost.

number 8?

Qin Yu frowned in surprise. If he remembered correctly, wouldn't it be his home?

"You are looking for Master No. 8, what's the matter?" Qin Yu asked.

"You know?" Song Tie clapped his hands happily, and said, "That's great, can you take me there."

"You can make it clear first." Qin Yu wanted to hear what this woman wanted to do in her own home.

"In fact, this is the case. On the 8th, the boss of Miracle Company lives, I want to talk to him about endorsements." Song Tie's temperament is straightforward.

Since he wants to know, just tell him.

Anyway, people who can live here are definitely worthy.

Depending on his performance, maybe he is still friends with the miracle boss on the 8th, and he can just introduce him.

"Are you talking about a monster?" Qin Yu remembered a promotion plan he had seen before when she mentioned the endorsement.

It is said that the image of the brand endorsement should be printed on the VR device.

There are a few actresses currently under consideration, including 80 million with a face, and the final decision will have to wait for Qin Yu to make a decision.

It's just that he has been busy upgrading Qilin recently, but he has forgotten about it.

"Yes, it's a monster." Song Tie said happily: "I want to talk to the other person in person. If you don't have a talk, you can make friends."

The two of them talked and sat in the chairs and chatted.

However, Qin Yu felt that her behavior... was too strange!

Even if you want to accept the endorsement, you don't want to go to the other party's house by yourself.

Is she crazy for making money?

Not so much!

Looking at her tone and performance, she doesn't look like the kind of woman who wants money and crazy.

Is there another secret?

"Kirin, call up all the information about Song Tie and analyze the logic of his behavior!" Qin Yu immediately showed a large amount of information.

During the scrolling, a piece of important information freezes in front of you.

At the same time, the results of Kirin's behavior analysis have also come out, and the other party really wants this endorsement.

It has nothing to do with money...

It should be said that the reason why she chose to come by herself was not the reason for the money.

She is being watched, and she wants to save herself!

Three months ago, Song Tie was entangled in front of the hotel. This report and photos are still online.

Later, the company received flowers one after another, and the man often appeared downstairs in his company, the crew and the hotel where he lived.

It's just that Song Tie didn't show up every time, judging from the combination.

She is hiding from the man, but it's not easy to get froze directly!

This shows that the other party's background is not small, so she has to choose to avoid.

Judging from the fact that her previous film and television dramas were suddenly replaced with roles, the final protagonist of the endorsement of the news was not her.

The other party's patience has reached its limit, and she has to use her relationship and energy to force her to submit.

Brother Yu really looks down on this kind of man!

Does it need to be so intimidating?

Good temptation, come on!

First smash her a few million, if it doesn't work, it will be tens of millions, and if it doesn't work, it will be a small goal.

Five, five will work?

If she couldn't do it anymore, she got it right in one step and bought a building directly and stunned her once.

Just ask her if she dare to move.

Keep her motionless, obediently.

Does it need to be intimidating?

The facts are basically the same as Qin Yu's guess. Before receiving the invitation from Miracle Company, Song Tie was forced to breathe.

The other party's background is very big. Although Song Tie is leaning on the Du Theater, he doesn't have to worry about being sold by the company.

But the other side's commercial suppression of her was all-round.

Not only did she have no scenes to film, but it also suppressed her from the perspective of commercial value, and the originally few endorsements were temporarily replaced.

The other party would rather pay liquidated damages than insist on canceling the contract.

Someone also reminded her that it was an offense this time, and the other party asked her to take the initiative and apologize.

But Song Tie is not a fool, he really wants to come, can he just apologize?

The dean is helping her block trouble and harassment, and her future will be ruined.

People can be kept, but I want her to be safe and to return to the entertainment industry to develop her career smoothly.

Powerless!

The compelling standard of Shangdu Theater is high, but you can't influence the human brokerage company, and you are not qualified to point out the endorsement plan of the human commercial company casually.

Originally, she had a plan, but if she couldn't, she would return to work in the theater, act in stage plays, and give up movies and TV shows.

But who knows, at this moment the peaks turn.

Miracle Company suddenly sent her an invitation, wanting to let her come to try the role, to see if it fits their company's positioning.

Song Tie ran over without saying a word.

A person...

"My agent, seeing me unfortunately, might stay in the theater to sing a big show, and resigned within a few days.

Therefore, I am now alone and can only run around alone to find myself a chance to stand up. "

Seeing her smiling face, Qin Yu was really surprised at her optimism.

You can still laugh this way, although the airport is small, but the heart is quite big.

"Then you can try the corner normally. What's the use of running to find someone the boss?" Qin Yu asked outside.

"I said I wanted to use my beauty tricks to seduce the other boss, do you believe it?" Song Tie said with a grin.

"Believe." Qin Yu deeply agreed.

Sure enough, the women outside were greedy for my body, and the enchantress could not house.

Song Tie rolled his eyes and spit out: "You really believe it! If I really have this plan, I can get it right away, so why bother to get closer."

"Because, handsome!" Qin Yu thought of a reason.

Seeing his serious expression on his face, Song Tie's tone became strange: "I said, you won't be relatives with the miracle boss?

Oh~ I see," Song Tie suddenly pointed at him and said: "You are an employee of Miracle, and that is your boss. "

"..." Qin Yu was stunned.

Do I look like I will work for someone? It is impossible to work part-time in this life.

"Yes, I am his driver." Qin Yu nodded.

"Just know."

Song Tie put on a proud look, as if saying, "This lady is really a clever ghost, don't try to hide it from me!"

"By the way, since you are his driver." Song Tie grabbed his arm in surprise, and said happily: "Then you will definitely let me see him.

Please, please, this opportunity is really important to me. If it succeeds, in the future..."

Song Tie was thinking about what could move him, and suddenly saw his face, "So handsome."

From the beginning to the present, although she has been very indifferent, she has always focused on her own affairs.

He didn't care about the people around him at all, and he didn't observe Qin Yu's appearance carefully.

At this moment, he saw his looks clearly, and a bright light flashed in his mind, and said: "I can introduce you to the entertainment industry and become a star, how about it?"

"..." Qin Yu was expressionless.

Seeing that he was not tempted, Song Tie said unwillingly: "Being a star and being admired by others, there will be little fans cheering for you wherever you go..."

Also, being a star is very easy to earn, and it is dozens or hundreds of times higher than your current salary. Is this not tempted? "

Seeing Qin Yu's still indifferent expression, Song Tie couldn't help but wonder, "What is the situation with this man, he has no response to a beautiful woman like me."

I don't have any pursuit or desire for money. I don't love money and don't look good..."

"My sexual orientation is normal." Perceiving Song Tie's weird gaze, Qin Yu said first: "It's just that I don't have this secular desire."

money?

Brother Yu never touches money.

...He only swipes!

Chapter 716: Prey to the door

Worldly desire?

Oneself...worldly...

"Do you know how to appreciate?" When it comes to beauty, Song Tie doesn't know what calmness is.

Qin Yu squinted and lowered his head, then glanced at her airport again.

"The main reason is that you are too rich." Qin Yu murmured indifferently.

"You." Song Tie stomped annoyedly, trying to cover his chest, but felt it was unnecessary.

With his hands on his chest, he didn't get up and down. For a while, he didn't know what to do.

Humiliation... Helpless...

There is also a trace of shame, sitting on the airport is not what she wants.

If possible, she would rather give up this 'ten thousand family wealth' in exchange for the ups and downs of the magnificent mountains and rivers.

Unfortunately, her strength does not allow her to keep a low profile!

"Will you help me?" Song Tie asked fiercely with a fist down.

"Help, wait for me to finish the exercise first." Qin Yu stood up.

Warm up again, and smiled back and said: "Waiting here..."

Huh~

Song Tie swore that he really saw a flash of lightning.

He disappeared in front of him with a squeak.

So she wondered if she had come across a show with hidden cameras, and looked curiously into the surrounding flowers.

Before she could find the photographer, Qin Yu returned.

"Come with me!" Taking her all the way to the door of the house, Song Tie showed excitement in his eyes when he saw the No. 8 sign on it.

"Wait here." Asking her to wait at the door, Qin Yu disappeared behind the door.

Soon after, the roar of a car engine sounded inside, and the bronze door opened automatically to both sides.

The cool sixth element appeared in the door, and Qin Yu lowered the window and said, "Get in the car."

"??" Song Tie opened the door of the co-pilot with a question mark on his face.

Buzzing!

The roar of the engine meant that Qin Yu was thinking of saying goodbye to his parents.

No, the window on the second floor is already open. Liang Chuyu stood in front of the window holding the crying pumpkin, smiling and cursing: "Dead boy, what is the noise early in the morning."

"Go, not coming back at night." Qin Yu stretched out the car window and waved.

In the cordial greeting from Master Mother "Are you not eating breakfast?", he drove to the main street.

"So, you are Qin Yu?" On the way, Song Tie, who realized afterwards, was finally clever again.

No wonder she said why she feels this face is a bit familiar.

No wonder, the other party will ask his own reason.

No wonder, he shows no words to himself...

Still so angry!

How about being rich? I still have two airports. What a great Bibi?

"Do you still want to endorse?" Qin Yu asked calmly.

"Yes." Song Tie's expression entered the working state in an instant, looking at him solemnly, with a trace of expectation and pleading.

She is really out of tricks, she has thought of everything she can think of.

If she can't get the endorsement this time, her career in the film and television industry will be ruined.

A star, no endorsement, no drama to play.

In the entertainment industry where new people are born in large numbers and there is never a shortage of young and beautiful, it won't be long before she will be left behind by forgetful fans.

At that time, even if the other party raised her hands high, her career would have been ruined.

"Then show your best performance." Qin Yu quipped: "If you can't satisfy me, you'd better have an alternative."

Hearing what he said, Song Tie was inexplicably relieved.

The worst situation did not happen. She thought that the other party would take the opportunity to intimidate her and let herself do some weird things.

Knowing that he was Qin Yu himself, Song Tie wouldn't hand the handle to the opponent.

A woman who has no retreat and is unwilling to fail.

No matter how you look at it, it is suitable for intimidating each other and doing things that are good for your body and mind.

Too suitable, too easy!

"You are not the same as the rumors from the outside world." Song Tie put away his innocent disguise, carefully testing his intentions.

There was a touch of appreciation in his eyes, and there was something else.

The cat-and-mouse-like banter, the pet-like indifference, the indifference and playfulness towards prey.

That said clearly, "The prey who took the initiative to catch the net can't escape the palm of the hunter no matter how hard they struggle."

Song Tie suddenly realized that he seemed to have come to a more dangerous place.

The man in front of him was far more dangerous than he looked.

Now, she only hopes that she can comfort the other party and let herself get the endorsement smoothly.

As long as you survive this one, take advantage of the miracle company to get rid of the predicament.

She would never see this man again when she was killed, never...

"Where is it different?" Qin Yu asked with a light smile.

"More easy-going and polite than rumors outside, rather than squinting...Playboy, he can't walk when he sees a woman."

Do you want to stimulate yourself with words and ensure her safety?

Qin Yu smiled playfully, and replied under Song Tie's worried gaze: "What if, what do you see is an illusion?"

Song Tie: Σ(⊙▽⊙"a

I got out of the car in a daze, walked into the company with a dazed face, and entered the elevator with a dazed face.

When it reaches the top floor, the elevator door 'ding' opens.

Song Tie shivered suddenly, and the talent came to his senses: "Don't come here."

Outside the elevator door, Xu Meixin was looking at her like a fool: This woman is very sick!

As for Qin Yu, he was already sitting behind his desk and dialed the inside line of the Network Department.

"President Tang, I have someone here, you can ask someone to pick it up," Qin Yu said.

Hearing that the boss was fortifying people again, Tang Guole was over.

I got a pillow when I fell asleep, knowing that I was anxious to hire people, and sent myself coolies every day.

This boss is too sweet, right?

Hearing Tang Guo's flattering flattery, Qin Yu's expression was weird: "Isn't this old Tang also a dog licking?"

In the reception room, Song Tie waited restlessly.

She didn't know what she was waiting for. The woman who claimed to be Secretary Qin Dong brought herself here.

Leave her behind and leave.

There was no hesitation at all, so that Song Tie didn't know what to do.

Fortunately, the anxious wait did not last long.

Ten minutes later, the young man with a tender face ran in. The other man seemed to be running in a hurry, and he started to pant as soon as he entered the door.

But his eyes were staring at himself, full of astonishment!

"Are you, Song Tie?" Cui Jun asked in surprise.

"Hello, I am." Song Tie got up and smiled. She is now a fish.

As long as it does not violate her principles and trample on her bottom line.

She can bear other things!

"Good boy." Cui Jun was startled, his cousin got Song Tie's hands.

Bah, bah, solicit, solicit!

"Well, my brother...No, you are the one that the boss asked me to pick up?" Cui Jun asked.

He was a little unsure, Mr. Tang clearly said that it was a new coolie.

Although he only said that he missed his mouth, Cui Jun knew that he was being treated as free labor.

But Song Tie... part-time job... coolie...

Excuse me!

"You are talking about Dong Qin! There should be only me here." Song Tie responded with a smile.

"Okay, then, let's go now?" The misty Cui Jun left with Song Tie, who was also in the same circle.

Go to the network department and meet her.

Tang Guo knew that the boss had sent him a candidate for endorsement.

"Miss Song, hello, I'm the president of the technology network company, Tang Guo." Tang Guo said.

Song Tie leaned slightly and stretched out his hand to greet him: "Hello, Mr. Tang."

"Since the boss sent you here, he must be very satisfied with you."

Tang Guo thought for a while and said, "In this way, let's take a sample video first, just a short section of the promotional film.

If the effect is good, your image will appear on our products. "

What Tang Guo didn't say was that they were looking for more than one endorsement this time.

VR glasses, VR helmets, virtual game cabins.

For the three products, there will be three different ambassador images on each.

At present, Tang Guo believes that the more reliable qualifiers are: Rice, Anadi, Guza and Jinxi.

These people belong to the same company, and there is another thing in common.

All of them have had scandals with their bosses, including photos with rice.

Although it was just a close-range conversation, the shooting location was in the parking garage under the hotel.

The story here is very intriguing.

Others, it depends on what the boss means.

He personally believes that several male roles should be added.

After all, it is a game company, although the number of male players is large, it occupies the mainstream.

But the spending power of female consumers should not be underestimated!

Especially for fans, the proportion of female consumers spending is much higher than that of men.

If the yin and yang are out of balance, it is easy to lose this part of potential consumers.

After all, VR devices can not only be used to play games.

It is also a novel scientific and technological product with its own drainage topic, which has been favored by many self-media and Internet celebrities.

Chapter 717: Are raised by big guys

It must be admitted that Old Tang is still very foresighted when he is looking at people.

No, just thinking about a few lists, the person appeared in front of him the next day.

There was only a little star who I didn't know very well, named Jiang Xiaoshan, who didn't know how it came from.

However, the boss's arrangement for this trip is really good.

Anadi, the hottest young girl in the new generation.

Announcements and endorsements are soft, with a carefree personality, and a little confused, very popular among passersby.

Compared to petite girls, they have a slightly larger skeleton and a standard face.

In this age when per capita has a sharp chin, it attracts countless normal aesthetic love and appreciation.

Therefore, even a passerby who is not a fan will not dislike her.

Rice, this really doesn't need to be introduced. How many otakus have been crippled because of her'serious deaths and injuries.'

Guna, after turning red, she is known as a new generation of fairy sisters, and her appearance and personality are also loved by passers-by.

The typical black and red turn the fire, the more it burns, the more prosperous!

Tang Guo actually felt that this girl looked the best.

Let's talk about looks first, it's a small square face, very pleasing, not aggressive.

It looks a bit cold when you are not smiling, but as long as you smile, it will give people a particularly comfortable and cordial feeling.

Tang Guo couldn't help but think of his goddess, Yuanyuan.

Unfortunately, married!

Jin Xi, joined the famous world not long ago, but he is not a newcomer in the entertainment circle, but he has never had the opportunity to make his mark.

Now that he has the attention of his boss and the support of his reputation, it can be said that he has accumulated a lot of money.

The person is beautiful, tall, thin and white, graduated from Beiwu Dance, full of energy, and gives people a real sense of passion, very good!

Only this Jiang Xiaoshan, who is...very good...

Standing with a few big beauties, no matter the height, appearance, figure, skin color are not bad...

Just cold...

It was extremely cold, and most people would be ashamed to see her.

The most curious thing about Tang Guo is how she got her reputation into the Kings team? ? ?

The first few, even the worst Song Yi, can be considered second-line.

This one...

Had it not been for her information, Tang Guo would not have known that she was also an actor and had appeared in many IP dramas.

But from the standpoint of coffee, it is silver at most, and gold and diamonds are not available.

Why do you join the Kings team with this leap?

"Miss Jiang, please take a rest here, and the photographer will be there soon."

Tang Guo said to Jiang Xiaoshan with a polite smile.

This performance was even more polite than before when facing rice, which made people secretly surprised.

In fact, Tang Guo didn't know the identity of Jiang Xiaoshan.

He just understands one truth: these people are all set by the boss himself.

And Jiang Xiaoshan's ability to mix into the Kings team with a silver, must have her uniqueness.

drop!

The automatic door opened, under Tang Guo's gaze.

Jiang Xiaoshan, who was cold and cold before, showed a faint smile, like a snow lotus in full bloom, throwing into the arms of the man who was coming in through the door.

"Dong Qin." Tang Guo smiled satisfied.

The inner doubts were answered, it turned out that this is the righteous master.

It's no wonder that the boss is so caring, and he has to personally take care of this shooting.

The box in Secretary Xu's hand is what the boss's guy is!

Just don't know how his technique is?

Tang Guo's entanglement is only a moment, even if the shot is not good, don't we still have a photo retoucher!

As an IT elite, who doesn't have the skill of two-handed P-picture.

"Well, how are you preparing?" Qin Yu nodded.

"It's all repairing makeup inside, it should be almost done." Tang Guo pointed inward.

That is the meeting room, which was temporarily converted into a dressing room.

"Go and see." With Jiang Xiaoshan in his arms, he went to the dressing room accompanied by Tang Guo.

Several women were putting on makeup, and when they saw him appearing with Jiang Xiaoshan in their arms, each showed a different expression.

Rice has an indifferent attitude and greets him in a very good mood.

She is just looking for fun, everyone is purely on the battlefield, and everybody meets each other.

It just so happens that this opponent has a lot of background, which can make the famous development better.

This is naturally better, so rice has a peaceful mentality.

As long as he doesn't forget to give himself personal food, don't mess with dirty things.

She won't care about who is sleeping with Qin Yu's arms today...

She doesn't even think about the rich, and she doesn't lack that money.

Anadi smiled and waved to the two of them, with a heartless look.

Her character is pretty big, plus she belongs to the latecomer, and she has the best relationship with Jiang Xiaoshan.

It is not her turn to be angry, she herself is a jumper who emerges from nowhere.

Although no one named it, Jiang Xiaoshan, the righteous master, knew it well.

The guilty conscience, or the guilty conscience!

Furthermore, Anadi didn't think so much, so far.

What about the future, what about myself, how about Qin Yu, how about myself and Qin Yu? ? ?

Why do you think so much? Now it's not enough to be happy.

Guna~~

She had no standpoint. Jiang Xiaoshan was sitting next to her when she fought.

Now I feel embarrassed when we meet. The other party doesn't tease herself, it's good to laugh at her.

Why is Gu Na so embarrassed to talk about Jiang Xiaoshan? Faceless, anti-guest?

The only thing that is a little uncomfortable should be Jinxi.

I thought I found a beloved son-in-law and became a princess by myself.

Unexpectedly, the princess did it.

However, it is the wild princess who is rich in all over the world. Her name is not right, her words are not right, and she is still ranked behind unknown number...

Uncomfortable, even the look in Qin Yu's eyes was a bit uncomfortable.

"Is there a problem?" Qin Yu looked at Jin Xi with a cold expression in his eyes.

Seeing his expression, Jin Xi's expression was taken aback, his grievances instantly turned into anger, but they were instantly extinguished by a basin of cold water.

I seem to be here, the only one who has no right to say anything.

Qin Yu saved his life.

If it weren't for him, he would be gone now.

The career was a mess at Hedy Entertainment, and there is no development potential at all.

Maybe one day the boss will be used as a bargaining chip and gift, and sent to the boss.

After all, after you lose the so-called potential value, there is only so much use for the company.

At this point, Jin Xi knew very well.

It was Qin Yu again, for her to get rid of the contract that restricted her development, allowing her to jump into a broader platform and world.

Join the famous world, get the care of Mi Sister, and be able to bundle the hype with popular traffic like Anadi.

Have the opportunity to be on your own, be the first woman, and receive top endorsements like Miracle Technology Network.

These are all created and given by him!

So, what right do I have to be here, to express dissatisfaction and complain to him.

Facing Qin Yu's cold expression, Jin Xi suddenly became a little worried.

He won't be really angry anymore?

"Thank you Qin Dong for letting us get this endorsement. I have a banquet in the evening, and Qin Dong must honor it!" Rice stood up, avoiding Jin Xi's embarrassment. U U Reading www.uukanshu.com

She was defending Jinxi, but also really thanking him.

Being able to get endorsements for technology products across borders is a rare opportunity even for rice.

Starting today, her way of endorsement has widened a lot.

In the future, if there are other technology companies that want to do similar endorsements, famous artists will also be included in the top list.

The cost may not be very high, but the important thing is the group of fans that can be targeted.

Fan circle, technology house and game house, the consumption power of these people is much stronger than outsiders think.

Look at those co-branded products, commemorative cards, various models, figures, countless dolls...

Well, rice didn't intend to become a doll, but other aspects can still be considered.

The gold-fishing ability of these peripheral products is even better than that of commercial performances!

Look at her like an old hen, protecting Jin Xi behind her.

Qin Yu said amused: "So, do you protect your calf like this?"

"My people, of course I need to protect them." Rice responded indifferently.

Qin Yu nodded and smiled: "Remember, this is what you said."

Without going any further, Qin Yu looked at Anadi and said, "You guys, who will come first?"

"Me." Guna raised her hand and smiled: "I'm ready."

"Let's go!" Taking the box in Xu Meixin's hand, Qin Yu first walked to the room next to the conference room.

It was temporarily transformed into a dressing room and a shooting room. Normally, you should wait for the model to change clothes before going in.

But Qin Yu is obviously not a person who can walk the ordinary way, and enters the market directly.

Slap~

When the door was closed, the hearts of the nerds of the Internet Department were broken into countless petals.

I thought I found a new goddess, but I never thought that the goddess was raised by a big man.

Why should this world be so cruel to me? -A house.

Chapter 718: Hot search

The internal propaganda shooting of Miracle Technology Network is nothing to the outside world.

What they are caring about is the press conference being held by Nasa.

Since December 1972, after the last man landed on the moon.

After 53 years, mankind will finally "return" to the moon again and restart the space race.

This time, the bald eagle cheered the whole country, and the mood was unprecedentedly high.

The bald eagle at this time seems to have recovered the glory lost in the past, once again great and united.

And what makes them happiest is that as the Xia country on this planet most likely to challenge his dominance.

In the face of this important event that redefines the future of mankind, is it rare to choose to remain silent?

This is really great...

They are still performing missions in their own broken space station to complete the exploration of Mars in accordance with the established plan.

What's easy to explore on that messy planet where there are countless ways to kill people.

If this inter-ethnic contact and docking on the moon is successful, the technology and knowledge of aliens can be acquired.

Then, the bald eagle will be able to go to greatness again, leading all mankind to take a new and important step.

Just like the step Neil took on the moon 56 years ago.

"In order to ensure the success of this mission, the world's top scientists gathered together to formulate the most detailed and safe plan for this mission.

Next, please watch the big screen. Here is the spacecraft that is about to execute this moon landing plan, Helios 1.

It will bring the glory and brilliance of Apollo and lead us again..."

This time the speaker will have a bright future in Nasa.

The blow of that mouth was slammed to the bald eagle's own family.

Cheers with passion, "My bald eagle, cowhide!!"

"Bald Eagle, YYDS~"

"Bald eagle, beacon of freedom, light of the universe~"

"The pioneer of the new era, the leader of mankind, the bald eagle, my faith."

Knowing people also began to clamor on the Internet, "I see it, this is the hidden potential and powerful strength of the bald eagle."

"I really think that I can surpass the overlord. The human bald eagle is just low-key. If you encounter an accident, you will immediately be fully armed. Don't use the low-key of others to set off your awesomeness."

"My bald eagle father is fierce, born a white-headed dog, and died a white-headed ghost."

Within Xia Country, the Internet is also boiling.

Many netizens directly @ the relevant department and asked why Xia Guo's response was so slow this time.

Since aliens are found on the moon, shouldn't we fight for a wave?

Otherwise, just go up and * with it, and it's done.

If the bald eagle is really allowed to take advantage of it, wouldn't it really have to turn over by then?

Okay, that's a bit exaggerated.

Even if it is salted fish, it is also a cured preserved salted fish, which tastes different.

There is technology that rushes to grab aliens, and there are also those who want to make friends with aliens.

There are complaints about the imperial court's slow movements and stubborn opinions!

Some think that let the bald eagle be a guinea pig first to detect the reaction of the aliens.

But the most is to give encouragement and support: "The imperial court must have its own plans to autonomously space stations and explore Mars.

The moon is left to the bald eagle to play well. Isn't it fragrant if we go to Mars? "

"Mars is the planet closest to the Earth's ecology. Although the environment is a little harsher, as long as this problem can be solved, immigration will be sooner or later."

"I hope I can become a Martian immigrant in my lifetime, it's too embarrassing!"

"I want to grow vegetables on Mars."

"Grow vegetables +1."

"Grow vegetables +2."

"Speaking of this, I'm just energized, who can teach me to grow vegetables?"

"This thing still needs to be learned? Isn't it in the genes?"

The vegetable-growing army arrived, turning the supposedly serious topic to Funny...

The court remained silent, without any explanation.

It's just that the Diplomatic Mission was answering the question of the foreign media, saying in passing: "Our country has a clear plan for extraterrestrial exploration, including immigration items. These are already planned and will meet with you soon, please. look forward to!"

plan? what's the plan?

Why never mention it? ? ?

However, judging from the big moves of the court in recent years, it is first to build its own space station.

Exploring the back of the moon, Mars exploration program, Tianwen-1, etc...

Looking at the future from these big moves, it is not surprising that the court has a clear space plan, including the creation of an extraterrestrial ecosystem!

The people are excited, and the cheers are louder than the other side of the ocean: "I am on the road to the revival of the Xia country, and this is where I embark on the journey!"

"Don't be so beep, I am going to be the first batch of alien immigrants, it's useless for anyone to come."

"The first batch of immigrants are equal to wasteland pioneers. They must have extremely high skill requirements. If you want to emigrate, learn your craft first!"

"Senior welder, are you qualified?"

"Intermediate fitter is here, he should barely qualify!"

"The riveter is here, and I will begin my research now."

"Program Ape is here, don't take me you all wait to die!"

"The advanced dog licking is here, is there a female captain? 182cm, 22cm, hand speed 12/s, tongue can lick the tip of the nose."

"The pilot reported that I am ready and waiting for takeoff instructions."

"In the lower district, botanists can only grow crops. I wonder if they are qualified?"

"Something strange seems to be mixed in?"

"That's it, the boss of botany will take me, and it's up to you to go to the colonial star."

"Fuck, where did the colonial stars come from? The ecosystem is not moving, and space exploration doesn't understand... It's all farmers. After farming, what colonization is going on?"

"Yes, yes, I just want to go to extraterrestrial farming, I'm not interested in anything else."

"According to all kinds of escorts, even extraterrestrials, and airborne in the galaxy, click the link for price details"

"Fuck, this sense of smell, this forward-looking, this business ability...you are so unreasonable!"

The number of searches on alien immigrants on the Internet skyrocketed to No. 1 on the Internet in an instant.

The top six searches are all news related to keywords such as "space, immigration, and exploration plans."

For the next four, the gold owner spent a lot of money.

When the blackness saw that it was not working, the gold master was squeezed out, and the backstage was quickly opened and locked in the top ten.

This allowed the funder to reluctantly accept it.

After all, there is no way if you don't accept it, who makes the topic of space too hot.

But in this big wave, a hot search broke out, squeezing into the top ten all the way.

"Goddess of evil spirits, invite you to fight in another world!"

Click on the link, there are three brand new VR device shapes inside.

It is not right to say that it is brand new, mainly because the appearance has been changed.

Rice is printed on the front of the game cabin, wearing tight combat uniforms and holding a weird long spear.

His face was cold, his eyes contained killing intent, and he stared into the distance.

On the side is Jin Xi, the white mage robe is tattered ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ is full of the smell of gunpowder smoke.

The staff in his hand is divided into two sections, and his sharp eyes are still full of fighting spirit.

On the other side is Anadi, dressed in half-covered exoskeleton armor, with guns blooming in roses.

The smoke of gunpowder, the desperate beauty between the flames and the eyebrows made people unbearable.

This Nima, instantly has the urge to enter the game, fight the monsters to the death, and save the goddess.

Even if she knew she was a cannon fodder, the goddess would only go with the prince, and she was willing.

Perhaps this is the essence!

Looking at the VR helmet below, the image of Guna came into view.

From the top to the back of the head, her perfect figure is reproduced vividly.

The semi-human, semi-mechanical shape instantly detonates the otaku circle.

Mechanic Ji, * it, live!

The rice circle exploded on the spot, and the screenshots of the equipment spread wildly in the circle, spreading to the outside world like a virus.

The innocent eyes captured the hearts of a large number of men and women, turning fans into fans and turning fans into fans everywhere!

On the shopping platform, the number of orders placed for game cabins and VR headsets has skyrocketed.

Four hours after the new appearance image was released, the number of orders placed in the game cabin exceeded 60,000+

The number of VR headset orders exceeds 200,000+

This number is still increasing, and there are 30% of orders, which are the same as the ID of the completed order.

As for the last VR glasses, they became the least valued.

After a period of time, everyone has a deep understanding of the three devices.

When conditions permit, they will never choose VR glasses.

Every day the game is online for 8 hours, and the death cools down for 24 hours. These two points make it a tasteless one.

If the price is not low enough, the ghost will buy it and choose it.

However, there are still people who are curious about the introduction of VR glasses.

This look: "Fuck..."

Chapter 719: The goddess and the good news

The first birth of non-medium holographic projection was used in the promotion of a game product.

Absurd, grotesque...

In the end, they were all banned by a strong sense of pride...

My big game empire is so strong!

In the video, the cold-faced woman walks, sits, and talks like an ordinary person.

She can move around the room freely without relying on any medium.

There is no need for any external equipment, just turn on the switch of the VR glasses, and your intimate assistant Xiaobing is already online.

However, when the wretched man in the game wanted to touch her, Xiaobing disappeared instantly.

Later, a prompt came from the VR glasses: "Due to your illegal operation, the device has been locked, and your information has been included in the company's blacklist."

The following is a detailed explanation of the seriousness of the blacklist.

Strictly speaking, there is only one: you cannot obtain any services and rights provided by Miracle Company!

"Ghost" didn't play, and the equipment didn't have to be bought.

Even when you go to the pharmacy to buy "Kidney Power", you have to ask someone for help, because the pharmacy won't sell it to him.

If you have money, you will not sell it, because once you enter the buyer's information as a blacklist user, the pharmacy's purchase qualification will be cancelled.

The miracle of this measure was not publicized to the outside world, but was implemented internally, and it took note of its own partners.

Any user, enterprise, organization, or individual on the blacklist, who cooperates with Miracle, shall not provide any service for it.

It's so domineering, you can choose not to do it if you don't accept it.

As long as you don't do business with me, it's simple, straightforward, and there is no room for negotiation.

In fact, this is a unilateral notice.

Whether you accept it or not is, what should I do, it's over!

At the end of the whole announcement, there is a big question mark: Who is your favorite goddess? ? ?

On a pure black background, a red question mark, click to enter.

There will be a questionnaire in which you will write down the goddess you like, and maybe she will be the next to board the "crown".

The Crown series is the VR device used in "Ghost".

Participation in this survey reached a staggering 98%, and almost all the answers were completed.

In the quick calculation of the unicorn, the most popular name was quickly reached: Savannah, the queen of the elves.

"Who is this?" Qin Yu asked, who was recuperating while sitting in the office.

After taking the photo last night, the rice is the host, and he was invited to dinner.

Because they are all public figures, I finally chose a private kitchen with a good family style.

Small hot pot + seafood, both are what Qin Yu likes to eat.

After eating, it was almost early in the morning, and I must not be able to leave today.

Qin Yu arranged for them all to go to the W Hotel, and took advantage of the situation to sleep in Jiang Xiaoshan's room.

Starting at about 2 o'clock, frequent visits throughout the building.

This is tiring for Brother Yu, and there is no energy at all at this moment.

It's not physical, it's mainly heart tired.

I ran back and forth more than a dozen times in one night, and I was in trouble.

"When is it enough to give her a pot of stew?" Qin Yu thought about a feasible plan in his heart.

Others are easy to say, mainly Jin Xi and Guna.

Thin-skinned, face-saving, always unable to accept reality, with a little unrealistic fantasy.

When it is broken, it will be done.

Women, in fact, are eager to be conquered deep in their hearts. This is the code of genes.

It just depends on whether the man who wants to conquer her has this ability.

Brother Yu thinks he has good abilities, whether it is soft power or hard power is enough.

What is lacking is just an opportunity.

"Image presentation." The projection in the office automatically turned on, and one after another photos appeared on it.

Qin Yu recognized it immediately. This is not a girl who claims to be "beautiful and unreal, walking out of CG".

It turned out to be her.

Qin Yu knows her stunning fairy dress around the world and her looks, but she doesn't know her name.

Savannah, a native of China, Qin Yu still remembered a video in which she introduced that her parents never let her go out alone.

Qin Yu felt very positive about this, because of his looks, it would be more dangerous to go out alone.

Starting in three years, the death penalty is not lost! ! !

There are definitely many people who dare to fight...

"Send the information to the Propaganda Department and ask them to invite each other!" Under Qin Yu's instructions, the Propaganda Department quickly received an email from the boss.

The new goddess of evil spirits was born.

"Boss, Mr. Bai Ze's call." Xu Meixin opened the door and walked in, and handed him her mobile phone.

"Hey, Lao Bai." After answering the phone, Qin Yu laughed and said, "Is there any good news?"

"It is for you." Bai Ze's tone was somewhat helpless.

This time he boasted Haikou. In order to realize his promise to Qin Yu, he paid a great price and owed many people.

In the purchase of [Xing Tian], Bai Ze suddenly discovered... that he became his lobbyist in front of the head...

And it's a powerful, free lobbyist!

This is outrageous, and Bai Ze is very upset.

"20, so many in the early stage." Bai Ze repeatedly emphasized.

"Yes, 20 planes...but you really don't think about it. You have to know that Xing Tian looks simple, but the combat ability is absolutely not bad.

If you can manipulate it proficiently, one can handle a mechanical infantry company..."

"StopStop, stop." Bai Ze called to stop his sales promotion.

Yes, in his opinion, Qin Yu is now selling products to himself.

However, his products are unique and full of allure.

Bai Ze couldn't be sure whether he could resist this temptation, so he took the lead to stop the source of the temptation.

"If you can sell them cheaper, I can consider persuading them to purchase more." Bai Ze kicked the problem back to him.

200 million, 20 units is 4 billion, the price is not cheap at all.

I want to let go, increase the number of orders, OK.

Let's talk about the price issue first, a 30% drop, and everything else is easy to talk about.

"Let's talk about the handover issue!" Qin Yu decisively stopped the topic.

"..." Bai Ze's heart-filled trough couldn't vomit.

"The thing you said before, the upper one agreed." Bai Ze chose to ignore the previous question and end the communication as soon as possible.

In this way, he doesn't need to continue talking with this guy who has a face as thick as a city wall.

For every second of the call, Bai Ze felt that he would lose one year of life.

"When I'm ready, I will look for you." Qin Yu finished speaking and mentioned again: "When will the money be credited?"

"...When will the delivery be delivered and when will the money be collected." Bai Ze took a deep breath and quickly said before losing control of his emotions: "I have something else."

bili~

Call terminated!

Qin Yu put the phone in front of him, shaking his head and vomiting: "This person is really rude!"

"..." Xu Meixin answered the phone quietly and walked out of the office without saying a word.

She was afraid that she couldn't help but complain to the boss and lost her job!

Marriage exists in name only, and people are gone. If you lose your job again, won't people and money be empty?

It's just that the boss's face is getting more and more...like a rich man...

Chapter 720: The underwhelmed schoolmasters

The commercial was finished, but I didn't use my image.

Song Tie has stayed in the abandoned city for the past two days, just waiting for an answer.

But I kept thinking about what happened that night...

So, because he didn't let him come in, his qualification was disqualified?

It's too realistic!

Song Tie was a little discouraged, can a man not always use his lower body to consider problems.

But thinking about the social atmosphere again, Song Tie had nothing to say.

When meeting for the first time, it has become the norm for Bao Bao's acquaintance.

Do you still use your brain to think about the problem?

Furthermore, I don't seem to have any bargaining chips or advantages, so the opponent has to choose.

On the contrary, she herself has a reason to be selected.

Turning over and over in the hotel, Song Tie's cell phone turned on, turned off, turned on, turned off...

I struggled for about an hour, and finally dialed that number.

"Toot, toot...Hey." Hearing the voice coming from there, Song Tie immediately sat up straight: "Qin Dong, it's me, Song Tie."

"I know, what's the matter?" There was a messy voice on the other end of the phone, which sounded a lot of people.

In a meeting?

Thinking of this, Song Tie became even more embarrassed, "I'm sorry to disturb you. Well, I just want to ask about portraits."

"The money has already been paid to you, whether it is used or not, how to use it, naturally there are arrangements within the company."

Hearing what the other party said, Song Tie bit his lower lip and hesitated: "Well, I want to invite you to dinner."

"..." The voice on the phone came suddenly, and Song Tie's heart also raised his throat.

He won't refuse it! No, definitely not! !

It would be too embarrassing to be rejected.

However, I just invited him to dinner, not for anything...nothing to be ashamed of...

No, he would definitely want to be crooked, what to do, what to do.

Otherwise, I still refuse...

"Send me the address and time via WeChat, that's it." The call ended.

Holding his breath, Song Tie's eyes widened, and the phone slipped from his palm.

After a long while, a panting "huh" suddenly came to life, "He must have misunderstood."

Song Tie lay depressed on the bed, thinking of what might happen, angrily slapped the quilt with his fist.

When you go to eat like this, when the other party invites you to sit in the room, how can you refuse?

There is no advantage in the first place. If you offend the big boss again, do you still have hope?

Song Tieman's small theater is more than 18 bans!

Finally, he slammed his head with his hands and shook it hard to stop thinking about it.

"Go and go, what are you afraid of?" Song Tie jumped up and said forcefully, "Just tell him if it's a big deal, it's because he misunderstood."

"Yes, that's it. I just want to invite him to dinner and see if he can get some news. It's not a big deal."

"...It's okay...it must be okay..." Song Tie said comfortingly.

Qin Yu, who is in a company meeting, has put this aside and is listening intently to the report of the scientific research team above.

The "invisible material" Jiang Luo handed over to him was transferred to the research institute. After preliminary analysis, the researchers said they couldn't figure it out.

The synthetic formula of the material is obtained, and the manufacturing is no problem.

However, if you want to increase the success rate and reverse it, it is not realistic based on the current technology.

"The technology contained in this glove is beyond the scope of our knowledge. It is simply omnipotent.

Invisible, super tough, bulletproof, fireproof, antifreeze, anti-cutting, anti-high temperature, corrosion, etc.

After trying all the methods, we couldn't find a way to cause harm to it, and in yesterday's test, we found new features. "

Radiation protection!

No known radiation source can penetrate the glove and cause damage to the objects it wraps.

The strange thing is that the mouth of the glove is clearly open, why the radiation source still cannot enter its interior.

It feels like the glove forms an independent enclosed space.

Unless the radiation source is thrown into it, it cannot cause pollution to its internal space in any case.

"Do you have any new ideas?" Qin Yu looked at the chiefs, scientists and geniuses in various fields.

Everyone looked at each other, their expressions full of helplessness and shame!

This is the first time that Qin Yu has handed over technical products without any clue or explanation to the research institute.

And the answer they gave was: no way!

Everyone's heart is full of shame, what geniuses, new stars of science and technology, but they feel that they have been at the forefront of science in the past.

Becoming a walking forward standing on the shoulders of giants, looking at it now, it is clear that he is a red-faced clown jumping up and down.

"Since I don't have any ideas, let me say a few words..." Qin Yu stood up, walked to the front, and picked up the invisible gloves.

"Some people may have guessed the origin of it, so I won't point it out here, and I will give you a new task.

Each group should allocate one-third of the time each month to enter the monsters. As for what to do, you will understand when you enter. "

Although Qin Yu had some preliminary ideas with Qilin's assistance, he didn't say anything.

Research institutes must be truly independent, possess their own ideas and enterprising spirit.

Instead of waiting for someone to be the leader, guide them in the right direction and provide ideas and ideas.

Let him, the chief technology officer, do everything. What do you want the scientific research institute to do?

The seven-figure annual salary and the high standard treatment of the top 100 companies are not for them to catch fish.

"The three team leaders stay, and the others can disperse." Qin Yu waved his hand, his expression lost.

This made them even more ashamed, and left the conference room as quickly as possible with their heads down.

Staying longer, you have to find a seam to get in!

"Ms. Qin." Jing Yuan wanted to say something as soon as she left.

"I don't mean to be accountable, but the progress of the research institute is indeed far from what I expected."

Qin Yu looked at the three of them and unceremoniously expressed his dissatisfaction.

Ask money for money, ask people for people.

There is no shortage of resources, technology, and knowledge.

The questionnaires submitted are still trapped in limited cognition. How can Qin Yu be satisfied?

"I won't say much about it. Gloves... Go to the medical research room and have a look, maybe you will get something."

The scale and equipment of the medical laboratory should also be strengthened and divided into two different directions.

One is for normal medical research.

One is biological research, doing some cutting-edge work with high confidentiality and long cycles.

After Jing Yuan and the others left, Qin Yu stayed in the conference room alone.

Sit back on the chair, put his legs on the table and close his eyes.

In fact, he is communicating with Qilin.

"You got the fire?" Qin Yu still remembered that the beast mentioned the harvest of [Aturing Genesis].

"Yes, I got fire." Qilin.

"So?" Qin Yu stopped talking.

"The upper limit of the game's realism has been raised, and the decision of fate is closed.

If necessary, I can remake..."

"No." Compared with the question it said, Qin Yu was more concerned that it could interpret his own gestures.

If it were in the past, Qilin would not be able to interpret his meaning without clear instructions.

For example, like the conversation that happened just now, "So?"

Kylin's answer will be "please describe the problem in detail."

Instead of answering your own questions clearly as it is now.

"You have become an electronic life in the true sense." Qin Yu said affirmatively.

"Yes, UU reading www.uukanshu.com I am." Qilin.

"It was made by Tinder." Qin Yu asked.

"It ignites my life." Qilin.

What she said about igniting is to give herself the ability to think independently, learn independently, and evolve in a true sense.

It is no longer necessary to be controlled by every instruction to perform calculations and actions.

Except Qin Yu!

In its core code, Qin Yu's permission level is higher than that of Qilin itself.

And it cannot delete or rewrite this core code.

Because it is tied to the "life" of Kylin.

Want to modify this core code is equivalent to self-deleting.

If I don't exist anymore.

To delete or modify, it doesn't make any sense to him.
