

Pinnacle 751

Chapter 751: Back to the big tree to enjoy the cool

This is just one.

Second, the technology he obtained from ASML alone is not enough to complete the entire project.

Why ASML listens to the words of the bald eagle father so much, is not because it is apart from 10% of the core technology.

Most of the auxiliary procedures and precision parts are all dependent on imports.

Bald Eagle, Neon, Smecta, 90% of high-end and precision parts, all have to be imported from these countries.

And they have one thing in common, they are the faithful work of father bald eagle.

Without the support of the bald eagle, ASML with only core technology is simply unable to complete the proud product.

What's more terrible is that even with the power of the whole country, there is no corresponding industrial foundation to get rid of the dependence on the bald eagle.

This is the gap between national strength, which was doomed decades ago.

Get rid of this control and dependence?

From top to bottom, I don't have this idea. I don't have the ability to have an idea. The capable...

They were all killed.

So, my family had a good time.

The welfare is good, the treatment is good, the little life is beautiful...Lying down!

Xiaguo Semiconductor's ultra violet lithography machine also needs to rely on a strong and solid industrial foundation.

Relying solely on Miracle Company's own efforts, it wants to create a very purple lithography machine.

The subjects that need to be involved are: mathematics, optics, fluid mechanics, polymer physics and chemistry, surface physics and chemistry, precision instruments, machinery, automation, software, image recognition, etc.

The fields involved are: lenses, light sources, beam rectifiers, energy controllers, energy detectors, control systems, etc.

Only one Ultraviolet lithography machine contains more than 100,000 parts.

There are as many as hundreds of mid- and downstream industries involved.

What do you do? ? ?

The expenses required for this, even Fong's investment, which is dubbed by the industry as the "God of Speculation", cannot withstand it!

Backed by a big tree, we are a great socialist successor with a red heart to the sun.

Try my iron fist!

...

In mid-December, the weather in Shangdu will change whenever it changes.

The north wind whistling, finally there is a smell of winter.

"Summer is not summer, winter is not winter, this weather... is getting more and more unpredictable."

Qin Yu complained to Ye Jinlan in front of the small courtyard with two inputs and two outputs.

This is a yard of the Ye family in Shangdu, now it belongs to Ye Jinlan.

For this reason, the Ye family's big room and the second room are no less noisy.

Unfortunately, there is no use for eggs, Ye Lao said, Ye Jinlan is now an agent of the court again.

What's the problem with taking a house to live in?

"The climate problem is getting worse, and it's not a day or two."

Ye Jinlan tidied his neckline and responded with a smile.

"Maybe someday, it's really like a movie. Human beings will be forced to leave their homes and give the earth enough time to heal their wounds."

"Then you can't buy a ticket first and book a first class?" Qin Yu joked.

There really will be a day when the boat is provided by him.

"Okay, take a look." Ye Jinlan turned around and let him see the results in the mirror.

Qin Yu looked left and right, really didn't see any difference.

"It's pretty good." With a satisfied smile, Qin Yu sincerely praised: "Sure enough, it's better to have a woman at home."

"Come on! There is a mistress, what about the colorful flags outside you?" Ye Jinlan gave him a white look.

By this, he tried to speak quickly.

If someone really takes care of him at home every day, he will have to leave the next day...

His heart is wild!

Qin Yu smiled and didn't say anything, and they were all exposed.

This is going to be installed again, it's a bit shameless!

"Really don't want me to accompany you?" Ye Jinlan actually wanted to follow him when he thought of his entertainment today.

"No, Lao Bai is also an acquaintance and won't eat me." Qin Yu smiled calmly.

At the door, a dragon flag waited for a long time.

The driver was an old acquaintance, Captain Fan, "Mr. Qin."

"Well, let's go!" Qin Yu nodded.

As the car drove forward at a constant speed, Qin Yu's thoughts were already floating out of the sky.

Fortra Star, the Church of Miracle Science has occupied the entire eastern region and has become a dominant force.

In the south, the newly emerged iron eagle fierce, according to various clues, inferred that it should be a member of the court.

According to the information leaked by players on the forum, Iron Eagle has a special forging technique of great swords.

With mechanical transformation, a demon hunting profession named "Iron Eagle Swordsman" was born.

Slashing the devil is like cutting melons and vegetables, and the strongest record is to kill a high-level demon.

Their characteristics are obvious, each of them carries a big sword.

The length of the sword is at least 170cm, so there is a saying widely circulated in Iron Eagle: "A short man is not worthy to be a strong one."

There is no news in the north. The environment there is bad and there are not enough people to move. The demons seem to be reluctant to go.

The West is the worst, and it is still in a separatist situation.

Small organizations have joined forces to survive, but they have not yet formed a unified force.

However, when I entered the game last time, I heard from Adachi that there are new changes in the West.

The remaining noble powers of the former empire are showing signs of recovery in the west.

They hold a large number of advanced technologies left over from the former empire, and as long as they have enough time, they will inevitably rise again.

Being easily defeated by the monster army does not mean that the empire is weak.

They just went the wrong way, this time they have a clear direction, and the tragedy that happened before will not happen again.

The survivors of the Futra Star who had lost hope once again ignited new hope due to the arrival of the "fourth natural disaster".

The defeat of the higher monsters boosted the confidence of the survivors, chanting the slogan of "counterattack, counterattack".

However, if you want to really fight back, it still needs a long way to go.

Even Qin Yu, who possessed the "Material Transporter", did not dare to say that he could defeat the powerful Burning Legion.

The high-level monster that needs to be filled with life is nothing more than an inconspicuous little trash fish in the Burning Legion.

If you want to defeat such a terrible enemy, only rely on the three or two kittens you have now, what's the joke?

However, with the help of the material conveyor.

The Ascendant Project can speed up the progress. Although the liquid crystal is not as good as the core of the higher monster, it has various attribute effects.

But the victory is stable enough to produce enough fighters in batches.

Compared with the first generation [Ascended One], Anhe's death with a star core heart, the second generation is weaker.

If the strength is not enough, it can be considered as a solution if the quantity is collected.

If it weren't for this, the Church of Miracle Science would not be able to sweep the entire east so quickly and become the absolute hegemonic power in the east.

The advantage of becoming the overlord is that various previously scarce resources and technologies are continuously sent to the headquarters.

On the side of the church in the birthplace, Anxin opened up a "treasure house."

It is specially used to store various books, drawings, precious raw materials and mechanical debris.

Now, the church also has its own armed organization.

Adjudication office.

The chief verdict, the goddess of death.

Subordinates: Adjudicator.

Qin Yu has not yet understood the specific situation.

I only know that these people are all personally selected by "death", and the transformation plan selected by UU reading www.uukanshu.com is also a generation of extremely dangerous technology.

The cores with different monsters in the body are used as power cores, and the number of people is scarce.

Because of the existence of death, which is an explosion of combat power, the adjudication office has also become the strongest armed organization in the church.

Not only outside, but also inside the team.

As the forest grows, some messy people will naturally be mixed in.

Anyone who violates the dogma will be found by the verdict.

It will be a nightmare to greet them.

A death with lack of feelings and indifferent, but what is cruel and gentle is not understood!

As his thoughts turned, Qin Yu thought of the progress of Miracle Company's "Invisible Cloth" project.

With the material analyzer, the precise ratio formula of the "invisible cloth" has been mastered by Miracle Company.

Now, the cost of producing one square of "invisible cloth" has been reduced to 180,000.

The drop was more than 10 times, but the institute did not exaggerate.

Instead, he was held in his chest in one breath, and there was no way to vent!

Because the formula was provided by Qin Yu, they didn't make any contribution.

This made the geniuses of the Institute sighed in secret, vowing to make some achievements and contributions to show him.

If this development continues, the institute should be closed.

Let the boss do all the work, and what are you doing with idlers like them?

Therefore, the number of overtime work has been frequent recently.

Qin Yu suspected that these guys were paying for overtime work.

However, as long as you can get results, money is of secondary importance...

When did Brother Yu care about money, things outside of his body, and never touch it.

Chapter 752: Perfect recycling and the importance of humanity

Thinking of "invisible cloth," naturally thinks of the theme of this meeting.

Outer Space Recovery Program!

The number of "invisible cloths" is enough, and the next thing is to look at the fleet.

Can you hide from someone who is interested, Qin Yu is confident outside, inside the team...

First of all, "invisibility" does not mean disappearing. Falling into the sea will definitely make a lot of noise.

This imposes a rigid requirement on time. First of all, we must avoid satellites of various countries.

Secondly, the three parties of Wanwan, Neon and Smecta should also take cover.

The best way is to come to an actual combat exercise to cover the sea area with firepower while the cargo crashes into the sea.

In this way, the existence of "goods" can be concealed without attracting people's eyes.

The magical effect of the diamond star, if it is exposed, it must be wrangling.

The bald eagle's idea has always been that it doesn't matter whether it is useful or not, as long as others are useful, I am right to take precedence.

Even if it is left at home to grow hair, it is better than using it for others.

This kind of robber logic has been incorporated into their blood from the moment they landed on the American continent.

The Feather Chief, who used turkey to save Mayflower, must have regretted his intestines in the underground.

If I had known it earlier, I just took these things full of bad water and baked them directly.

"Sir, we are here." The captain said sternly.

Qin Yu raised his head, the green shade was lush, and the flowers on both sides of the trail were in full bloom, but there was not a single worm, song, or bird.

If Ruowu's gaze swept across the car, Qin Yu calmly pushed the car door: "Thanks for your hard work, I will go in by myself."

Close the door and walk all the way along the trail to the end, an ordinary red-brick building is brought into view.

There is no sign of being tall, and no name or house number.

Just such an ordinary two-story red brick building, Qin Yu pushed the door, and all the heroes stood inside.

Good guy, each chest is full, and one more can't fit.

"Qin Yu." Bai Ze, who stood in the corner, was in spirit. He stepped forward and patted him on the shoulder, and said with a smile: "Come on, I will introduce you to..."

Squeak!

The door was closed, and the big guys who stayed inside discussed the details of the plan with Qin Yu.

As for Bai Ze, Ah is just a translator, let's go...

At the same time, the "Xihe" in outer space started again, and two mechanical arms grabbed the circular crack on the diamond star's surface.

During the friction, a thick and strong 200-meter-long stick was pulled out.

It is crystal clear and exudes a faint diamond luster.

Pretty!

Keeping the stick still, Xihe's two robotic arms dexterously and accurately covered it.

The smooth "invisible cloth" covers the huge column, completely enveloping it.

When the pillar completely disappeared, Xihe's two mechanical arms opened diagonally and grabbed forward.

Just so prostration of "air," drove to the earth at full force.

"There are still 13 minutes, I will try my best to slow down!" In the small red building, Qin Yu nodded to the two big stars sitting beside him.

"The time must be accurate, otherwise, it will be easy to show your feet." A general star said calmly.

"Understand, ensure that the error does not exceed 1 second." Qin Yu responded with confidence.

His expression also became serious, and there was no room for error at this time.

The other party mobilized the entire fleet this time, just to cooperate with himself in this scene.

If this is messed up because of his own reasons, there is no need for others to say that Qin Yu has nowhere to put his face.

"In orbit...into the atmosphere...at a speed of 8.5 kilometers per second."

In the East China Sea, all routes are completely suspended.

Civil aviation bypassed the blocked airspace, and the fleet stopped in the sea at the predetermined coordinates in an encircled situation.

It is only 230 nautical miles from Neon, less than 200 nautical miles from Wanwan, and 265 nautical miles from Jeju Island.

The distance is very limited, and it is of far-reaching significance to conduct live ammunition military performances here.

The officers and soldiers of the fleet were not clear about the real mission. They only thought that the court finally couldn't help taking action against Wanwan.

It's acting now, and you can log in directly next time.

The best time is definitely New Year's Eve 29, night.

In this way, it can be fully occupied that night, soothed and announced on the morning of the New Year's Eve.

You can return to China in the afternoon, and just go home for the New Year's Eve dinner in the evening.
comfortable!

"Listen to my instructions, coordinates..." Following the command of the captain, the entire fleet was in full operation.

Cang Dang!

The shells were put into the warehouse, and the answering sound of ready and ready sounded frequently.

With an order, the fleet issued a roar belonging to the navy, booming...

Thousands of arrows were fired, and the entire sea exploded like boiling.

The waves splashed one after another.

At the same time, the accompanying reporter recorded this scene.

It's just that when the camera is raised to the sky, there seems to be a shadow flashing in the line of sight.

When the reporter recovered and wanted to find it again, there was no trace.

Turn on the camera to replay, there is no shadow in the lens, "Is it dazzling?"

boom!

In vain, waves of more than ten meters high were thrown up on the sea, and the splashing water hit the deck of the ship hull, making all the officers and soldiers present in a sluggish manner.

A huge wave hit the fleet, the alarm sounded, and the soldiers on the deck immediately returned to the cabin to take refuge.

The fleet increased its horsepower and rushed towards the top of the wave.

Nothing can make the navy succumb, it is the glory cast by countless martyrs with their lives and blood, and the cry of the soul.

Chong Chong Chong~~

Wow!

The flagship with the bow tilted 45 degrees was the first to rush out of the wave, and the bow fell to face the next wave.

In the huge waves, no one noticed that the position of the flagship had deviated.

It was heading toward the unmarked sea area, and the temporarily installed salvage device had been quietly put down.

"The item was recovered successfully." In the small red building, after hearing the result went smoothly as expected, a relaxed smile appeared on everyone's face.

"Xiao Qin, the old men did not live up to your request?" The boss leaned back in the chair straight, causing Qin Yu to sit up straight without realizing it.

"No, thank you all leaders." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Thanks, you must be thankful, but you can't just take your mouth and say... the thing you used to deliver goods should also be displayed to open the eyes of the old men?"

The other party's attention was drawn to Xi He, which was definitely not a temporary intention.

Before Qin Yu came, I am afraid that there have been many discussions and disputes before he decided to test his attitude.

Qin Yu's attitude is that things can't be handed in for the time being, but they can be watched.

"It's okay to see, but it's just for nothing. This, I don't understand." Qin Yu's attitude is full of sincerity.

He was telling the truth, if it was so easy, how could he only have one Xihe now.

No matter how you have to build a dozen of them, it is fun to mine together.

Just an "antimatter engine" is a mountain that cannot be crossed.

As for taking it apart for reverse engineering...

Save it!

That's antimatter, maybe with a "shoo", the whole earth is gone.

Who dares to do experiments on the earth and take the entire responsibility and risk?

Even if someone dared, Qin Yu would not agree.

He still has family, lover, and friends on the earth, and everything will be lost if something happens.

Even if the person responsible was killed 10,000 times, it didn't work...

Therefore, I don't need to think about research for the time being, but I can't say that there is no inspiration and value that can be used.

Those two robot arms that are comparable to omnipotence are clear directions for future development.

The robotic arm "sent" to Bai Ze by Miracle Company uses a technology that combines the "kinetic energy robotic arm" and the "universal robotic arm."

Combining what can be understood and manufactured by the two, there is a suspended robotic arm suitable for [Xing Tian].

Also let it become in the true sense, UU Reading www. Uukanshu.com can be a big killer on the battlefield.

"Okay, let everyone see first. When will it be convenient for you?" After Qin Yu briefly explained that the technology contained in it was dangerous, the boss readily agreed not to watch it.

Qin Yu smiled indifferently, pointed out the door and said: "Now."

A breeze blew across the tree-lined clearing, and then the Xihe, which hovered four or five meters above the ground, appeared in front of everyone.

"Xihe multifunctional mining machine, in fact, it is used for mining in outer space, and it is not very offensive."

The sound of footsteps in the forest and the dangerous touch like needles caused Qin Yu's muscles to contract and tighten spontaneously.

Under the dome-shaped palm, the mini storm resembling iron sand is spinning frantically, ready to burst out at all times.

Qin Yu is not stupid and sweet, and will not place all hope and safety on the conscience of others.

The precautions that should have been there will still be there, and now he is no longer afraid of causing any trouble.

The reason for keeping a low profile is just a manifestation of otherness.

Dependence on the world has actually become a burden for him.

But for the general public, human beings living on the earth, it is undoubtedly a kind of kindness.

Because if you lose this humanity and a sense of collective integration into society.

What kind of situation the earth will become, no one wants to know...

Perhaps, the tragedy that happened on the Western Continent that year will be staged in the world again.

When humanity is lost and divinity is ignited, everything is meaningless to him!

Chapter 753: Ye Xiaogu

When things are completed successfully, it is time to see them in the world.

When they left, the big men looked tangled, and Qin Yu could see that someone wanted to keep himself.

But in the end, Bai Ze, who had been acting as the background wall, stood up, and Qin Yu sent him back to the car.

"Am I talking a little bit today?" Qin Yu asked jokingly at Bai Ze, who had a serious face.

"Qin Shao, don't worry, the opinions above are unified, and I have full trust in you!"

Bai Ze is spreading a message, as for who said it, you can guess by thinking about his background.

"Then I'll take a step first." Qin Yu shook hands with the other side to bid farewell, and Qin Yu got in the car and left.

Three steps one post, five steps one post.

Going out, you have to pass three times just by checking the post.

The situation will get better after leaving the compound.

After driving for about 5 minutes, the street resumed to lively, and the traffic flow was reassuring.

Qin Yu also dialed He Wu's number and asked him to be responsible for handing over with the fleet, taking advantage of the night to transport things into Lingang.

"How are the preparations over there?" Qin Yu asked.

"No problem!" He Wu answered concisely and then hung up the phone.

Qin Yu closed his eyes and slumbered, restoring tranquility in the carriage.

Ringling~

The harsh ringtone interrupted his contemplation. Qin Yu opened his eyes and saw that it was Ye Jinlan.

"Qin Yu, are you over there?" Ye Jinlan's voice came, sounding a little angry.

"Well, who made you angry?" Qin Yu asked amusedly.

Ye Jinlan immediately took a deep breath, trying to confide in his inner worries, but when he looked around, they were all subordinates, and he forcibly endured it again.

"I want to ask you a favor. Can you go to the Ye family old house and pick someone up for me." Ye Jinlan suppressed his inner anger.

It is said that breaking the bones is connected with the tendons, and the blood is unbreakable.

But what kind of beasts are in their house...

"Okay, send me the number." After understanding the situation, Qin Yu took the line and told Lieutenant Fan: "Go to the old house of the Ye family."

"Mr. Qin, what do you want?" Fanbing asked a little worried.

He was afraid that Qin Yu was going to the Ye family's old house to find trouble, so it would be difficult for him to do it.

Mr. Ye should also inform in advance.

Otherwise, it would be difficult for him as a driver and bodyguard to explain.

"Go and pick someone up, Ye Lao knows." Qin Yu said calmly, closing his eyes.

This is the difference between an outsider and his own. If He Wu is driving, Qin Yu only needs to say.

For no reason, he dared to go.

"It's still what I use." Qin Yu glanced at the "loyalty cards" in the mall, each worth 1,000 faith points.

MD~~

Without seeing the peace of mind, Brother Yu fell into autism.

I suspect that you are deliberately embarrassing my fat tiger...

The car drove toward the central area, quickly drove into a quiet alley, and stopped in front of a courtyard with four entrances and four exits.

"Mr. Qin, here we are." Fanbing looked sideways at the gate covered with bronzing nails.

"Wait for me here." Qin Yu got out of the car and stepped forward to call the door.

The two doors that opened inward quickly opened a slit.

The servant who probed inside clearly recognized Qin Yu, "What's the matter with you?"

"I'll pick up Ye Zhiqiu, Miss Ye." Qin Yu responded.

"Fu, who is outside?" A call came from the courtyard.

"Master, it's Qin... Uncle." As the Ye family servant, he knew Qin Yu's status was special.

Their attitudes towards him are also different, but with Mr. Ye, he has to call him "Auntie, whether he is happy or not."

"What uncle, I don't have an uncle in the Ye family."

Ye Hua snorted coldly, and said to the old servant: "Close the door, not everyone can enter the door of my Ye family."

The old servant looked at Qin Yu outside the door embarrassedly, but still made a gesture to close the door.

Although the prestige of the old man is high, it is Ye Hua who is the master here after all, and he is the master.

"Offended." Qin Yu said lightly, reaching out and pressing on the door.

The old servant felt a surge of force, and the man fell backwards directly led by the door, rolled on the ground and got up.

He touched his body, no injuries, but the people outside had already entered.

Rockery pavilions, halls and corridors staggered.

A plaque was hung above the door of the main hall directly opposite, and a letter was written: People give the family foot.

There are no thief in the mountains, and there are no thief in the mountains.

"I'm here to pick up sister-in-law." Qin Yu said confidently.

Ye Hua frowned and said sharply: "Get out."

"In other words, I'm a family. If it's a big trouble, I'm just a wild leg. Can you afford to lose this person in the Ye family?"

Ignoring the servants who came by, Qin Yu asked indifferently.

Ye Hua's face was even more gloomy, but Qin Yu's words had a point.

If you really want to make a joke, it will only be the Ye Family who will become a laughingstock.

This face, his Ye family can't afford to lose it!

"Go please, and then... all coax me away." Ye Hua snorted coldly, shaking his sleeves and leaving.

This Qin Yu, like a hedgehog, can't wait to see or touch.

Even regardless of the face of the old man, the Ye Family had to take care of his own face.

What's more, the upper side favored him a lot.

Even the Ye Family couldn't please even the Ye Family would not please.

Such a fact makes Ye Hua ruthless in his throat!

Damn, how could he let the Ye family get into this kind of thing.

"Dad, how could it be so rude to have friends coming from afar!" Wen Wenruyu walked out of the main hall.

"Qin Yu, my ears are full of cocoons when I hear your name, but it's the first time people have seen it.

There are good skins, no wonder so many women are fascinated by you. "

Qin Yu frowned and asked, "What is this little white face?"

The old servant next to him explained hurriedly: "This is the eldest son of the uncle Ye family, Ye Haotian."

"Qin Yu, please sit inside!" Ye Haotian ignored the ridicule and politely invited Qin Yu into the main hall as a guest.

"Young Master Ye is polite, I have something to do, so I will leave after picking up my sister." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

The two were very polite and friendly, like old friends who had known each other for many years.

It's not at all open, and it's extremely harmonious!

"Also, my sister-in-law has stayed at home for many days, so she should go for a walk.

Jinlan told you all the stupid things that my brother did, right? "

Seeing Qin Yu's expression in doubt, Ye Haotian knew that he didn't understand the inside story.

However, there is nothing to hide.

Even if he didn't say it, Ye Jinlan would say it later.

"The idiot of the second uncle's family broke into my sister-in-law's room after drinking too much and was beaten out, making a lot of jokes."

"Haotian." Ye Hua's eyebrows were locked tightly, how easy it is to say such a thing.

And that idiot from the second family dared to do such a wicked thing.

Although nothing happened, he was driven out by his servants, and he didn't even see Ye Zhiqiu's face.

Drinking alcohol again, drunk, but also unforgivable!

This time, Heavenly King Lao Tzu could not save him.

"It's okay, Qin Yu is also a member of my Ye family. Although it's not formal, it's still clear, with only one procedure left.

If this kind of thing is publicized, it is the Ye family's face that is lost. As a family member, he will definitely not publicize it. "

It's not at all like the Ye family's style to admit one's identity so simply.

This Ye Haotian is a bit evil!

"Don't worry, for the sake of old man and Jinlan, I won't talk nonsense."

Qin Yu pondered for a moment, and asked suspiciously, "I don't know the son of the second room?"

"I have been expelled from Xia Country, and I won't be able to come back in this life."

Ye Haotian's eyes flashed with cold light: "Dare to come back, I will break his legs by myself."

"Xiao Qin?" Ye Zhiqiu appeared in front of the door of the Pian Ting, looking at the two in surprise.

Qin Yu's original serious expression suddenly smiled, and said softly: "Sister, Jinlan wants me to pick you up."

"Yeah." Ye Zhiqiu's eyes were overjoyed, and his expression calmly said, "I'll go with you."

"Then let's go now." Qin Yu didn't want to stay in Ye's house too much.

The Ye family he was familiar with was not the Ye family headed by Ye Hua.

As for Ye Haotian, he took note of this person.

Although it was the first time we met, there was a similar taste.

Under the seemingly kind surface, there is a cold and poisonous snake waiting for an opportunity to move.

"Qin Yu, come and sit often when you have time. It is time for the Ye family juniors to get together more." Before leaving the house, Ye Haotian suddenly proposed.

"The Ye Family has a high threshold, I'm afraid I'm going to get my waist." Qin Yu strode out while pulling the dazed Ye Zhiqiu.

In the car, Ye Zhiqiu tilted his head out of the window, thinking with a solemn expression.

"Sister?" Qin Yu whispered.

"Ah!" Ye Zhiqiu turned around, his expression slightly flustered.

She didn't know much about her niece, her boyfriend.

We met several times, although there was no ill-will, but there was no closeness either.

This time, I was trapped at home, and the other party personally came and took her away under pressure.

She must understand this affection.

However, Ye Zhiqiu had no idea how to repay.

"If you have any difficulties, please tell me directly, but it is incumbent on me to help me."

Qin Yu said freely, "You are Jinlan's sister-in-law, and I am her fiancée. After all, I am a family. Don't be polite."

Ye Zhiqiu stayed in a daze and sighed: "Hey, women of the family have been like this for thousands of years, so there is no difficulty in UU reading www.uukanshu.com."

"Marriage?" Looking at her expression, Qin Yu guessed that it must be related to this matter.

"Yes." Ye Zhiqiu sneered and said, "I thought I had already escaped, but I didn't expect to have to do it all over again."

"Cough!" Qin Yu coughed slightly, and said suspiciously: "Sister-in-law is still young, but there should not be many people who are right in the younger generation."

"It's not the young generation...continued!" Ye Zhiqiu had nothing to hide since he said it.

The news will soon spread among the aristocratic families, and Qin Yu has many eyes and ears in the aristocratic families, and he will definitely hear about it.

It's better to just talk about it to avoid embarrassment and misunderstanding.

Now, the father alone supports Ye Jinlan's precious granddaughter, and Qin Yu will be the pillar of this one in the future.

Any misunderstanding that causes unpleasantness is not worth the gain!

"Actually, this is Haotian's idea...Xiao Qin, you must be careful of him." Ye Zhiqiu reminded with a jealous face.

Be careful of Ye Haotian, don't be fooled by his appearance.

This nephew of her is definitely not an idle generation!

His mind is so gloomy, even if it is his father, it is not that much.

When he was young and frivolous, he even stirred up the situation in Shangdu, and he was hailed as the first son of Shangdu.

Only later, for some reason, suddenly disappeared and went abroad.

I have just returned recently. Judging from the importance of his eldest brother and his own abilities, he will definitely be in charge of the Ye Family in the future.

This is definitely not a blessing for those who do not rely on the Ye family's big room!

Especially Jinlan and Qin Yu.

There is still the old man holding on now, waiting until his old man a hundred years later...

Ye Zhiqiu didn't dare to think about how many things would happen to the Ye family.

Chapter 754: The ancient sages sincerely did not deceive me

"Jin Lan was the only one who lived there in the past, so you can live there with peace of mind. With you, Jin Lan must be very happy."

In front of the courtyard, Qin Yu opened the door and brought his sister-in-law to familiarize themselves with the environment.

"The place is definitely worse than the old house, but it's still enough." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Puff!" Ye Zhiqiu pursed his lips and chuckled, touching his lips with his fingers, and said with a slight forehead: "A yard with two entrances and two exits, is this still called Xiao?"

Everyone's graceful manners and mature and charming temperament made Qin Yu stunned on the spot.

Ye Zhiqiu looked up without hearing his answer.

I found that Qin Yu was looking at him stupidly in a daze, and two blushes rose in vain on his cheeks:

"Xiao Qin, where do I live?"

"Ah~" Qin Yu suddenly regained consciousness, and hurriedly led her to the inner courtyard.

The moment he turned around, the dullness in his expression turned into a pleasant chuckle.

Ye family's genes are really good!

On the good side, it was inherited by women.

Otherwise, how to give birth to those crooked melons and cracked dates, all of them are full of bad water, and there is no good thing.

"Sister, you live in this room. The next door is Jin Lan's room. For a word, it's easy to move around every day." Qin Yu took her to the east wing.

This is the best room besides the master room.

In ancient times, it was used to entertain the families of distinguished guests, and non-nobles could not enter this door.

Seeing that the modern facilities are all available inside, Ye Zhiqiu chuckled and nodded: "Well, it's all very good, thank you, Xiao Qin."

"It's too polite." Qin Yu responded with a smile: "Then you take a rest first, I will be next door if you have anything."

"Okay." Ye Zhiqiu closed the door, the smile on his face gradually reduced.

Sitting on the edge of the bed, lost in a long period of contemplation.

The scenes of the past, what happened in these two days, the pain of being imprisoned by my elder brother and nephew.

"Sister." The abrupt voice interrupted Ye Zhiqiu's grief.

I looked up and found that it was already dark.

"Come in." Ye Zhiqiu said to the door.

Ye Jinlan pushed the door and walked in, still wearing a capable office lady's outfit.

A black intellectual inner wear, a windbreaker on the outside, a pair of khaki trousers underneath, a pair of lacquered high heels.

Balenciaga is pretty good, it is always "sucking blood."

Therefore, she now only wears Balenciaga on the bed...

"Sister." Quickly stepped forward and pulled Ye Zhiqiu, Ye Jinlan's eyes were already with tears: "How can they treat you this way."

Ye Zhiqiu's inner grievances, fear and fear also broke out at this moment.

The two aunts and nephews hugged each other, and they choked softly, but Qin Yu was a little sitting at the door.

This.....

Is it too tight? It's all squeezed out of shape.

After more than 10 minutes, under Qin Yu's jokes, the two of them burst into laughter and went to the small courtyard together.

In the yard, there was a square table with low legs on which was placed a few delicate dishes, and two bottles of old wine in a sealed altar were placed on the ground.

There are three little horses, one for each person.

Ye Jinlan and Ye Zhiqiu sat opposite each other, Qin Yu could only sit in the middle.

Using a mallet to knock open the mud seal on it, Qin Yu buckled the opening paper, and the aroma immediately rushed into his nose.

"Well, it's a bit rushed." At first, he rushed out with a slightly sour breath.

Wait for a few seconds to evaporate, then pour it into a porcelain bowl.

The amber-like crystal liquid makes one's index finger move.

The sweet scent is even more appealing to the roundworms in the stomach...

"Come on, do one, and celebrate my sister-in-law's visit to the humble house." Qin Yu said boldly, holding up the bowl.

Ye Zhiqiu gave him an angry look and said with amorous feelings: "You have to say that again, I can go."

"Don't pay attention to him, it's just that this mouth always takes advantage of others." Ye Jinlan laughed jokingly.

"Okay, let's not talk about it, it's all in the wine." Qin Yu picked up the bowl and dried it with "gudongdong".

Putting down the bowl, his mouth was fragrant, and the feeling of endless aftertaste made him tap a few mouths uncontrollably.

At the same time, there seemed to be a fire burning in the lower abdomen.

"This wine has a lot of stamina." Qin Yu picked up the chopsticks and put it in his mouth.

Ye Jinlan, who had also done a bowl, pursed his mouth, and said suspiciously, "Nothing feels right?"

Ye Zhiqiu also nodded in cooperation, except that he felt a little burnt in his heart, really didn't feel energetic.

"It's better to drink slowly," Qin Yu said with dissuasion.

Ye Jinlan agreed to automate the script throughout the whole process tonight, if this is too much.

Brother Yu had to work hard and be a cow and a horse.

It's not always possible for the cattle to plow the land. As a mature fertile soil, occasionally they have to come to plow the land, right?

Persuasion was persuaded, but unfortunately no one listened.

After two bowls, Ye Jinlan and Ye Zhiqiu started to talk intimately.

The two were overwhelmed with bitterness, and when they talked about funny stories when they were young, Ye Zhiqiu, like an older sister, took Ye Jinlan to show joy everywhere.

"Then, Ye Hua and his son are not a thing... Sister, you have already sacrificed for the family.

How can I make you sacrifice again? They, they also have wives and daughters themselves, why, why don't they ask them to go. "

Ye Jinlan stood up swayingly, pointing to the direction of the old house and shouting loudly: "Yes, I have the ability to let your wife serve and serve..."

With a stride, Qin Yu covered her mouth and pressed it back to the seat.

Some words can be said in my own home, and all the yelling people know it, and it is still the face of the old man.

"That's right, why don't you let your family grow old, woo..." Qin Yu, who had just pressed Ye Jinlan back, turned and pressed Ye Zhiqiu back.

Seeing the two look indignant, Qin Yuxin said, "It is true that they grew up together, and their temperaments are exactly the same."

In the past, she looked gentle and gentle, like a pretty lady.

When I drank, I missed it all!

Sitting on the pony stab with his legs crossed, Ye Zhiqiu stared at him unhappily and said, "You, what are you stopping me for?"

"Anyway, your surname is Ye, and you yell that you don't look good when you go out." Qin Yu said with a dubious laugh.

I don't know if I drink too much, I can't listen to it.

He couldn't take care of it anymore.

Could it be that she has to find something to plug her up...

"I, I don't care about the Ye family or the Ye family, what's so great." Ye Jinlan waved his hand and shouted, "The surname is Ye, what is it?"

"The surname Ye is amazing?" Ye Zhiqiu shouted after him.

Looked around, got...

Brother Yu gave up, you two can toss it hard!

Tomorrow, explain to the old man himself, there is nothing wrong with him anyway.

He got up for morning transport, had breakfast, and went out to walk the birds.

Being a dude, small days are very comfortable...

"Aptune, Aptune!" The parrot hanging on the branch suddenly said, chattering endlessly.

Qin Yu went up and brought down the outside directly, pointing to the cage and said, "Call, call, and then call you to stew, believe it or not?"

"Stew it for you, stew it..." the parrot wailed.

MD, this dead bird has come and jumped since it was bought.

Sooner or later, I will still stew the soup in the pot!

After returning to the Sifang table to sit down, Qin Yu felt dizzy for a while.

"Poisoned?" For a moment, his mind improved to the extreme.

The nanoworms in the body were even more dispatched, and Qin Yu soon got the answer he wanted.

Not poisoning, but above.

Several old medicines are added to this old wine, which nourishes yin and nourishes yang, and also has the effect of fascination.

It was originally prepared by Ye Old Master for his granddaughter, and used it in the days of the bridal chamber.

Keep the two cups down, and the bridal night will be complete.

The love of men and women, the piano and the song!

At this moment, Qin Yu opened it directly and drank it as an old wine.

Looking down again, one of the two jars of wine was empty, and the other jar was about to bottom out.

Good guy~

No wonder I felt a fire burning in my lower abdomen when I started drinking a cup.

At this moment, my whole body is hot, sweating constantly!

This is how many big tonics are put in it, are you not afraid of directly replenishing the bleeding?

"It's hot~so hot~" Ye Jinlan said blushing, tearing his neckline.

The medicine is coming up, and it can't be stopped.

Qin Yu hurriedly pressed her hand, picked up Ye Jinlan and walked into the room.

As soon as she was put on the bed, there was a "clanging" noise outside.

Three steps and two steps out of the door, and after a closer look, there is no one on the table.

A few steps forward, Qin Yu saw Ye Zhiqiu lying on the ground, clutching his chest and saying uncomfortably: "It's so uncomfortable, it's going to burn."

"..." Lifting Ye Zhiqiu, the opponent's limbs hung on Qin Yu like an octopus.

With two legs between his waist, his head kept leaning against Qin Yu's neck, "Hot, so hot..."

Qin Yu hugged her and walked into the house, but within two steps she staggered under her feet and almost fell forward.

Good guy, this wine is powerful enough.

Brother Yu [Thousand Cups Not Drunk] actually felt a trance, and his whole body was extremely hot, as if he had been lit by someone.

Striding to send Ye Zhiqiu back to the room, the door was not closed, Qin Yu strode into the next door with a meteor.

Cang Dang!

The door was knocked open, and the person had disappeared in the house.

Squeak, squeak~

In the cold winter of the twelfth lunar month, there were cicadas screaming, one after another, endlessly.

The moon was in the sky, and the two diagonally opposite doors were open.

As soon as the cold wind blew, the room hummed.

In the east wing room, there was a clamor of clutter, accompanied by a few painful cries.

Then, a staggered figure stepped out of the door.

Blurred eyes rolled around and quickly locked on the open door at an oblique angle.

The figure swayed forward, and swayed into the house like this.

After that, the night is deeper...

For two days, Qin Yu stayed in the small courtyard and did not go out.

Ye Jinlan often goes in and out, but he doesn't stay for too long every time. Instead, he seems to be a visitor.

This situation lasted until the end of the month, when Qin Yu was about to set off on the night of returning home.

It's still the square table with a few exquisite side dishes.

In the bird cage hanging on the small tree, the dead bird that owed his mouth became quiet.

The three of them sat at the table as they did in the past, but the atmosphere was strangely heavy and silent.

After a long time, Ye Jinlan took the lead in holding the cup.

"No, I don't drink it!" Ye Zhiqiu waved his hands again and again as if stung by a bee, his expression full of taboo.

From now on, if you kill her, don't drink anymore.

The sages of the ancients sincerely did not deceive me~

Chapter 755: Sign, pay, 2 steps to the stomach

Seeing that Ye Jinlan didn't reply, Qin Yu held up the cup and said, "It's not wine, it's tea!"

"I won't drink the tea anymore." Ye Zhiqiu lowered his head, a little afraid to look at Ye Jinlan.

After all, things are too ridiculous.

She took the initiative to rush into the room, but it is really to blame, but also to blame the old wine.

"You'll take care of the house." Ye Jinlan didn't go to comfort sister-in-law, now she was the one who should be comforted.

"Good." Qin Yu nodded in response.

"Declared to the outside world...Cultivating Zen!" Ye Jinlan was speechless.

However, this can not only stop the family's thoughts, but also prevent Ye Zhiqiu from being entangled.

The only risk is that if anyone finds out that she is a joyful meditation practice.

Ye Zhiqiu's personal reputation is about to be completely ruined!

However, she is self-inflicted!

Looking at Ye Zhiqiu with his head down, Ye Jinlan was full of mixed feelings.

"Also, this matter is only known to those present." After Ye Jinlan finished speaking, she stood up with her hands on her knees.

"Jin Lan!" Seeing that she was about to leave, Ye Zhiqiu quickly got up and looked at her guiltily.

Ye Jinlan stood in place with a struggling expression, and turned around in vain after a while, "In the future, it is better for us to meet rarely."

Ye Zhiqiu's whole body's strength seemed to be pulled away in an instant, and his body fell backwards wobbly.

Qin Yu stretched out his arm to hug her, looked at the tearful Ye Zhiqiu with a calm expression, and said, "Give her some time, it happened too suddenly."

Ye Zhiqiu stood up straight, took a few steps forward to escape from his support, shook his head and said: "It's my fault... you go!"

"Evasion is not the solution." Qin Yu said earnestly: "Besides, there are still some things that have not been done."

Half an hour later, Ye Zhiqiu followed Qin Yu out of the courtyard with a breeze.

Looking back at the courtyard again, he got on the scheduled online taxi with a sad expression.

"There are only two places that can be found temporarily, Naga Upper Court and Xishan Longyin, choose by yourself." Qin Yu said while looking at the message on the phone.

It's not that you can buy a house. You have to buy a house all of a sudden. It would be nice if you can find a suitable project.

The upper courtyard of Naga is outside Dongzhimen. There are only 99 suites in the project, and the entrance hall is a courtyard house.

The minimum apartment size is 300 square meters, which has basic standard requirements for owners.

Must be a successful person who is willing to give good and has a sense of social responsibility.

In this regard, neither Brother Yu himself nor Ye Zhiqiu were qualified.

The Ye Family's signboard is still very useful.

Now, there are two opened up luxury houses with a total area of 660 square meters, with a total price of 160 million.

The interior are complete, and the decoration is modern, simple and fashionable.

It is suitable for the aesthetics of all ages, and comes with two parking spaces and two years of property fees.

The parking space and two-year property fee of a luxury house are also a lot of money...

The advantage of living here is the location advantage. It is adjacent to the 30,000 square meters Nanguan Park, which is the only one in the second ring road.

In addition, it is close to the root of the imperial city, Lama Temple, Guozijian, and Confucian Temple are all located here.

According to the older generation, it is imperial!

In addition, Naga's strict internal management and a private business club with great privacy and complete functions are also very exciting.

Business banquets are often needed, and it is correct for those who have extremely high requirements for privacy.

Let's talk about Xishan Longyin. Currently, only two sets of Louwang with more than 1,000 square meters are on sale.

The price is naturally high, starting at 200 million yuan.

The 1 million hand-carved courtyard gate is built according to the specifications of Prince Gong's Mansion.

The door is 4.2 meters high, and the two drum stones at the door are tailor-made by the royal gardener.

The courtyard door, cloisonné enamel craftsmanship, the two door handles alone are worth more than 500,000 yuan, anyway, it's expensive.

Entering the door, the large living room with full transparency on both sides is just two words: bright!

The old man's room is on the first floor, and the south side garden comes out from the side door. It's fine to drink tea, play chess, and bask in the sun.

Those who raise flowers and birds can't be more arbitrary.

The nanny room and maid's room are also on the first floor, which is convenient for taking care of the diet and daily life of the elderly.

The master art in the house also has everything, of course, they are all copied by contemporary masters.

Like the "Maolin Yuanxiu Picture", the nail copy picture is a beautiful scenery in the villa.

The bedside background pictures of each room also have their own merits.

The brand used in the cabinet is Ba Tuopu, known as the Rolls Royce in the kitchenware industry. The value of the entire cabinet is about five or six million.

From everyone's point of view, Qin Yu prefers Xishan Longyin, which is especially suitable for cultivation.

"Look at this first." But Ye Zhiqiu chose Naga for the upper house first.

The house was bought for her, so it is natural to listen to her opinion.

Go straight to Naga, and someone will receive him at the door, and Qin Yu contacted him in advance.

It was not him who contacted, it was Watson who contacted in the name of Miracle Company.

You are alone, and suddenly came up and said that you want to see the house, but Naga may not show it to you.

If you want to see it, you can pull it up. Naga is proud of privacy and confidentiality.

The appointment has been made, and here is the guest passage.

Avoiding areas that may have intersection with clubhouse guests, the property representative also directly stated: "If you want to visit the clubhouse, you can make an appointment in advance.

We will specifically set aside a space to take you around to better understand the upper court. In terms of privacy, we can say that we are the ultimate in terms of privacy. "

"Look at the house first." Ye Zhiqiu pushed his sunglasses and said indifferently.

"Okay, please here." Take the elevator straight to the room, step on the shoe covers at the door, and then walk in together.

The large flat-floor apartment is changed into a duplex, which has enough space.

The privacy is very good, and there is no noisy movement around, Qin Yu specifically wants to have children up and down.

"Our sound insulation far exceeds international standards. You can rest assured of this." The property representative responded with a smile.

Qin Yu looked at Ye Zhiqiu who was still visiting, and asked, "How do you like it?"

"It's okay." Ye Zhiqiu replied faintly, taking off his sunglasses: "Can the price be lower?"

"Well, if you really have the intention, first pay an intent payment, we can communicate with the landlord, and if you are satisfied, we will invite you to sit down and talk.

After all, everyone is very busy, and there is not so much time wasted on such trivial matters. What we have to do is to help the current owners and future owners to coordinate and communicate. "

"If you really like it, don't worry about the price." Qin Yu stepped forward and said to Ye Zhiqiu.

But the other party just shook his head, staggered and said to the property representative again: "If it's 140 million, I want it."

"This..." The property representative was a little embarrassed.

"If the other party agrees, I can trade now." Ye Zhiqiu patted his bag.

Qin Yu finally understood that she had to pay for it herself.

that...

The reason why I have to look at Naga's Upper House first is because the price is cheaper. 140 million is the highest price she can accept?

Thinking of this, Qin Yu grabbed Ye Zhiqiu's wrist and said to the property representative: "We have to think about it again, thank you."

"What are you doing, I think this house is pretty good." Being pulled into the car all the way, Ye Zhiqiu threw away his hand a little annoyed.

"It's pretty good, so I bought it." Qin Yu said to the a little confused driver: "Go to Xishan Longyin."

"You buy...you...I can buy it myself." Ye Zhiqiu hugged the bag angrily and threw his body on his back.

"After you buy it, what do you eat and drink?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

"I can go to work, and I have my own company, do you think I am a little girl who just left school?" Ye Zhiqiu retorted funny.

"How about meditation?" Qin Yu asked, making Ye Zhiqiu sluggish in an instant.

Well, she forgot about it.

Practice meditation!

Is she really going to practice meditation, staying in the room every day, eating fast and reciting the Buddha, and being a nun? ? ?

"I don't care about the rest. I will buy the house. Xishan Longyin is more suitable for your current situation.

Do whatever you want in it. After a few months, Jinlan laughed and the matter was over. "

Qin Yu pressed her hand and squeezed it lightly to show comfort.

Ye Zhiqiu wanted to struggle, but he broke free a few times and didn't run away. In the end, he was grasped by him as if confessing his fate, and looked out the window.

Ye Zhiqiu was full of helplessness, "How could things become like this?"

Xishan Longyin.

Go straight to Louwang, the sales department's salesman is already waiting at the door.

The appearance, 94↑, is a bit amazing!

Look at the freshness, 75↓...

Hastily!

Can be a pin crown, it really has a bit of depth.

Busy work during the day, busy working overtime at night, beating the workers diligently, good job.

"Mr. Qin." At this time, the pin crown didn't know, he had already missed the bottom, and was still annoyed that Qin Yu brought his "family".

However, she has not seen such a scene.

After the meeting is over, it is normal to leave a contact information for follow-up communication!

In the evening, go out for a drink, talk about discounts, UU reading www.uukanshu.com house prices...

As a dedicated salesperson, that's what it should be.

After all, a house worth hundreds of millions of dollars is not something that a real big man can buy.

Why don't you give him a taste of the sweetness?

What's more, the pin crown has already moved at this moment, "How can this handsome guy be so handsome?"

"Look at the room first." Qin Yu pointed to the villa, his tone a little cold.

"Okay, let me take you around first. We believe that you have heard of the reputation of Xishan Longyin. The gate alone is worth millions..."

Pin Guan walked in while observing the interaction between the two.

Finding that there was no close contact during the whole process, Pin Guan felt calm.

It seems that the two are not lovers!

This handsome guy, she is asleep.

For nothing else, I just want to experience the happiness of Sister Xiao.

"How is it?" Qin Yu looked at Ye Zhiqiu and asked for her opinion.

Guan Guan also turned his attention to Ye Zhiqiu, saying, "Is this the righteous one?"

You can see Qin Yu's outfit, the joint limited edition watch in his hand is worth ten million, not like it!

"You decide!" Ye Zhiqiu threw the ball back again.

At this moment, she said that nothing was appropriate, so Qin Yu decided to take care of it.

The house is also hung in his name, and he is just staying temporarily!

As for what will happen in the future, wait until she has cleared up her clues.

"Let's go through the formalities!" Qin Yu looked back at Pin Guan, calmly grasping the handbag under his arm.

Buy a house!

Signing and payment are done in two steps, isn't it that simple?

As for the price, as long as you are happy to live, it is nothing.

Only more than 200 million yuan, which happens to be used for tax deduction.

What, tax exemption?

You seem to know a little bit!

Chapter 756: Groundbreaking

296 million, nearly 300 million luxury homes just buy it...

Is this the happiness of the boss?

It's another day of school abandonment...

Bringing the two to the magnificent sales department, Guan Guan asked them to sit down first: "Mr. Qin, Ms. Ye, what would you like to drink? We have..."

Qin Yu raised his hand and interrupted: "Go through the formalities directly, I'm in a hurry."

He was indeed in a hurry. The plane arrived at Hudu in the afternoon. He had to be there in person to fill the pit tonight.

"Okay, I'm going to prepare now." Pin Guan sprinted quickly, and the little skirt ran up.

Pulling down the skirt as he ran, he whispered: "Quickly, help me prepare the contract and sign it now!"

A five-year property fee was given, and the private club upgraded VIP service. The final transaction price was 288 million yuan.

"Sign." Qin Yu handed the card to Pin Guan, pointing to the contract and looking at Ye Zhiqiu.

The expression of the sales crown is like eating an expired product, constantly changing.

Okay, okay... the moat is inhumane!

This is a big thick leg, it is simply a golden thigh.

If you can bite this leg tightly, wouldn't it be worrying about eating and drinking in this life?

Just such a luxurious house is enough for ordinary families to work hard for more than ten generations...

Not necessarily affordable, it's so cruel!

When you see an opportunity, you must seize it.

"Mr. Qin, we can leave a contact information. If you have any needs or troubles in the follow-up, you can always find me, our side..."

"No, I think the property will take care of everything for me." Qin Yu squeezed out a smile formulaically, and said: "Besides, she is the owner here."

Seeing Ye Zhiqiu who was refreshing to sign, Qin Yu would also like to thank the seller.

Had it not been for her to be coquettish and self-righteous to seduce Qin Yu, Ye Zhiqiu would not have signed so readily.

After completing the formalities, the two left the sales department with a face like a dish but a polite smile at Ye Zhiqiu and a respectful farewell attitude.

"Such a vixen, must you be around a lot?" On the way to the villa, Ye Zhiqiu said sarcastically.

"Why, are you jealous?" Qin Yu said amusedly.

"Jealous, I..." Ye Zhiqiu's expression froze, and he murmured, "What qualifications do I have to be jealous."

Seeing her sinking into depression again, Qin Yu smiled and said nothing.

Time is the best medicine, not a deep hatred.

Don't just share happiness and let time heal, Ye Jinlan will eventually reconcile with her.

...

...

After sending Ye Zhiqiu back to the villa, he turned around and found that he had all the necessities of life, and Qin Yu did not stay long.

He has to hurry up to catch the plane.

"Hi, baby!" In front of the boarding cabin, Qin Yu greeted Xing Lu angrily.

The only response to him was a sweet smile, and the teasing in his eyes expressed joy.

Seeing this scene, the man who followed hurriedly brushed his hair with his hand, showing his most handsome smile: "Sea, baby!"

"Sir, please respect yourself!" Xing Lu's smile instantly turned into extreme indifference.

Then he warned seriously: "If you do this again, I will inform the airport guard."

"...I'm sorry, I just, I...I'm okay, I'm sorry." The man ran to his position in disarray.

Putting his backpack away, he found that the handsome guy was sitting next to him.

"Hi, Liao Hai, my name is Liao Hai...Can I ask you a question? Friend." Liao Hai reached out to Qin Yu and said.

"Of course." Qin Yu shook his opponent's hand and smiled.

"Well, how did you just do it?" Liao Hai pointed to the hatch and said, "That's it, why won't the stewardess be angry with you?"

Liao Hai couldn't figure out what went wrong.

Yes, he is very handsome.

But he is not bad, at least he feels like a little custard.

Even if you don't get an ambiguous response, like this buddy before, you shouldn't be warned...

Liao Hai is sad, really!

"You want to know this." Qin Yu nodded amusingly, and said: "It's actually very simple, as long as you grow up like this."

Pointing to his face and turning around, Qin Yu blinked at Xing Lu who closed the hatch and walked to the workbench.

A blush appeared on her face, and she silently said to Qin Yu: "After landing, I will squeeze you dry."

"I...% ¥ *#" Liao Hai was completely confused.

It shouldn't be like this. This is the first time he has gone out alone. Is the world treating rookies so badly?

Liao Hai's entanglement did not affect Qin Yu, at this time he had already fallen asleep.

Futra Star, the birthplace!

Compared to the past, the air of the entire planet is somewhat anti-historical.

The land is full of greenery, and the earth infested by demonic energy is regaining its proper vitality due to the disappearance of the demons.

The planet that should have died is now coming back to life!

"Run, run, **** idiot, is there **** in your mind?"

"This is the battlefield, do you understand the battlefield? After two months of short training, you are about to return to the frontline of the battlefield.

Our people are reorganizing the fleet, regaining air supremacy, and regaining everything that belongs to us.

We want to stop the monster army in outer space and guard the homeland behind us, where yours, yours, yours, yours...

All of our relatives and friends, your grandfather, grandma, ancestors, parents, relatives and friends, including you and your future children, will be buried in this land.

Therefore, this is our holy land and the last line of defense we stick to. The past history is no longer important.

Now, I want you to know that no one can back down here, either die on the battlefield or die here..."

The angrily instructor looked at everyone with cold eyes, one, one, one, one after another.

It wasn't until everyone looked at him without evasiveness that he shouted sharply, "I will break the deserter's neck with my own hands!"

While talking, someone was dragged by two soldiers equipped with robotic arms to the instructor, under the horrified expression of the other person.

The instructor stretched out his hand, click~

Pinch the other person's neck, "Like this, huh~"

The head with only the fear of death was hung twisted around his neck, and the neck was soft like noodles, so it was thrown away by the instructor.

...

...

When the plane was in Jiangluo at Hudu International Airport, Qin Yu's expression looked a little solemn.

The development and changes of "Ghost Demon" far exceeded Qin Yu's imagination.

They have actually begun to consider counterattacking, and the players are spreading across the entire continent like locusts. ;

Wherever there are monsters, they are there.

No fear of suffering, no fear of death, all kinds of whimsical sorrow operations, simply overturned the cognitive upper limit of the indigenous people.

When a high-level monster that was pierced in a forked barrel with a chrysanthemum was used as a trophy and hung in the square to show off the exhibition.

Anyone passing by will unconsciously lift their hips and tuck their abdomen, clamp their legs and walk away quickly.

As for the instructor, some people call him the "Apostle of Death."

The most ferocious and loyal dog under the command of the goddess of death.

A ghost who has experienced countless hardships and crises, and was saved after escaping from the dead.

However, these are not what Qin Yu is most interested in.

What interests him most is the data obtained by scanning the Falcon-class battleship with the old technology and the Kirin provided.

Combining space battleships to build, if Fortera Star can successfully create a finished product.

Then, on the earth, Qin Yu, who has all the technologies, can also build the same space battleship.

"Handsome man, have you waited for a long time?" A frivolous voice came from behind.

Looking back, Xing Lu, with her hair scattered behind her head, stood in place with her little suitcase smiling charmingly.

Reaching out his arm around her waist, Qin Yu said: "Why, I have already booked the room, and we will eat dinner in the room..."

"Is it you...or me..."

"What's the difference, I think you can't wait..."

Looking at the backs of the two of them going away, Liao Hai, who inadvertently broke in, was distraught.

Ah, mother, I want to go home!

This world is too unfriendly to newcomers! !

Night, half past zero.

Qin Yu, who had been tossing for seven or eight hours, opened the door and walked out of the room for the first time.

Xing Lu was already asleep, and it was absolutely impossible to wake up before dawn.

Tonight, she was so frustrated!

Therefore, Qin Yu can safely and boldly complete his work.

"Mr. Qin, your scheduled pick-up service is ready." When he arrived at the front desk, the lobby manager smiled and bowed.

"The driver doesn't need it, the deposit will be deducted from the room rate!" Qin Yu stretched out his hand and said.

Qin Yu paid a week's rent in advance, enough to offset the car rental expenses.

So, it's nothing Rory wrangles.

The lobby manager happily took Qin Yu to the door and asked for the car key from the driver: "Mr. Qin, please pay attention to safety, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, drive carefully, I wish you a happy!"

"Thank you." The Mercedes-Benz S feels smooth and comfortable, and it is not the first time Qin Yu has driven.

Skilled ignition start, put in gear and leave.

There are fewer vehicles on the road than during peak hours, but they are still frequent.

Until entering Lingang, the number of cars suddenly decreased.

When it arrived at the planned land purchased by Miracle Company, it became even more desolate.

In the central area of the city planning drawings, two high-power searchlights brighten the area.

Being within the range of light will give people the illusion that people will be driven away at night before they have time to show off, and the day will come again!

A fence appeared in the middle of the road ahead, and two night watch staff raised their hands to signal to stop.

After Qin Yu slowed down, he lowered the window: "It's me."

"Boss...It's the boss, let it go." The fence was lifted and moved aside, Mercedes-Benz continued to drive forward and stopped on the flat ground next to the pit.

"Boss." He Wu, who hadn't seen him for many days, appeared beside Qin Yu.

Looking at He Wu, who looked tired, but his eyes were gleaming, Qin Yu smiled and said, "Good job, are you in trouble?"

"No, everything is going well." He Wu pointed not far away and was transported by an ultra-long heavy truck with a giant tarp covered on it.

"Are you all ready?" Qin Yu asked again.

"Yes." He Wu nodded.

"Then let's start!" As he said, Qin Yu stepped back a few steps.

Next, he will be very busy. He doesn't want to stand here and be a hindrance.

And He Wu ran to the heavy truck and ordered the well-trained "workers" to start work.

They need to insert this 200-meter-long giant column straight into the dug hole before dawn.

Chapter 757: have a job? No, show you the future

Lingang, upon waking up, the residents found that there seemed to be something different.

When someone looked up and looked into the distance, they discovered that there was an extra gleaming cylinder in the sky.

The surface seems to have scales, bulging with a diamond-like luster.

The entire huge column is flat and smooth, with slight curvatures on the edges.

"When did this appear and what is it for?" The residents couldn't figure it out.

Those who want to see something good, drove towards the tower.

But when it reached the periphery, it was blocked by the non-existent barbed wire fence.

There is a clear sign hanging on it: no entry, violating the law to be held accountable!

Boy, what's the situation?

The residents living in Lingang are completely confused. Okay, since I won't let me take a short video and post it online, right?

After shooting against the tower at the shortest distance that can be reached.

Moments, WeChat groups, penguins, forums, music notes, Weibo, anyway you can post them all.

Let's talk to my friend a few more privately: "Guess what it is?"

"Heaven descending giant pillar, what exactly is it?"

"The giant column rose from the ground, why did it come?"

"Aliens landed on Hudu? The truth is shocking!"

"The UFO reappeared, and after the truth was found out, everyone was talking about it."

There is a lot of discussion on the Internet, and everyone is guessing what the huge pillar that suddenly appeared is.

Internet celebrities are even more flocking, looking for all possible ways to find out the truth.

Some people even cut the barbed wire and sneaked in in spite of warnings.

"My friends, I'm here now, and I'll tell you that there is no place where I can't go to Hudu...

This is actually my buddy's company. The front is a huge column of discussions on the Internet. Let's go and see what it is. "

The filming was paused, and the two of them rubbed hands and feet and moved forward.

The assistant who was following asked worriedly, "Brother, will we be arrested?"

"Looking at you, how can you catch it? If not, you will be fined. You can squat for two days at most. What's the big deal...

Let me tell you that if you seize this wave of heat, your brother will be hot, and if you want anything at that time, the last time that girl, brother will find you 10 at a time. "

"Really, brother?" The assistant's expression brightened.

"That's necessary, when did Brother cheat you? Follow." The two patted the assistant's shoulder proudly, and the two accelerated their pace.

Seeing the giant pillar getting closer, the internet celebrity picked up the device and pointed it forward, "Hey, family members, we are here, let's take a look first, this thing is really big..."

"I just called my buddy. Someone said something was going on and he couldn't come for the time being. Let me watch it by myself. Let's go up and understand it carefully..."

Speaking of the Internet celebrity suddenly stopped, the screen that appeared on the device made him feel a little bit wrong.

How come a group of heavily armed soldiers with live ammunition guards around the pillar.

What's the situation, the two of them broke into places where they shouldn't?

"What did you do?" Suddenly questioned, the hearts of the Internet celebrities jumped out of their heads.

Looking back, two security guards in uniforms appeared at the end of the road, running madly.

"Fuck it, run!" As soon as he grabbed the assistant, the internet celebrity ran away.

The words are nice, and I really caught them now, and I still feel guilty.

The first reaction was to run away.

What squat for two days, fine, the previous lofty ambitions have long been thrown out of the sky.

This will be just one idea, just two more feet.

Encircled and intercepted, the two let four security guards block the road, and they ran away completely.

People were surrounded, and the Internet celebrity immediately turned on the device, "Eh, I told you, I'm live broadcasting, what are you doing?"

Before he finished speaking, the equipment in his hand had been robbed directly.

Then "pop," jumped handsomely on the ground a few times.

The screen is completely ruined.

It was not over yet, and the security guard stepped on a dozen or so feet with his foot on the phone.

After the whole fuselage was scattered and scrapped, all the scrapped parts were collected and installed, and he walked with him to the office area.

...

...

The news of someone breaking in quickly reached Qin Yu's ears.

When he heard the news, he was eating brunch with Xing Lu in his room.

Putting two pieces of fried eggs into his mouth, Qin Yu walked to the balcony with earphones: "Kill the chicken and the monkey, close it for a few days, by the way, announce the news to the outside world.

Then, the people inside can withdraw, and my people will take over the follow-up work... Yes, there is no need to stay alone.

Don't worry, I have already arranged...no problem, we will drink together after the end. "

After closing the thread, Qin Yu returned to the living room. Xing Lu bit her golden steamed bun and asked curiously, "What's the trouble with work?"

"An internet celebrity broke into the company's confidential area, and now for the sake of celebrity, nothing really goes offline."

"How bold a person is, there will be more yields. Haven't you heard of this poisonous chicken soup?" Xing Lu said with a smile.

"When you send yourself in, you will know how productive you are. A bed, iron windows, and shouting to the window, my mother!"

Qin Yu tapped the porcelain plate with his chopsticks, shaking his head and singing.

Seeing him like this, he knew that there was nothing wrong, and Xing Lu stopped asking for details and discussed today's itinerary.

Brother Yu is going to make preparations before the handover today, and the schedule is arranged.

However, he would not directly say "How about going to work with me?"

"I have arranged it, and I will take you to see the future world." Qin Yu responded calmly.

"The future? What kind of science fiction experience hall is it?" Xing Lu asked with interest.

"You'll find out later." Qin Yu smiled mysteriously and turned around to wash and prepare to set off.

65 minutes later, after passing a checkpoint, Mercedes-Benz appeared in the desolate planning area.

After getting out of the car, Xing Lu looked at the no-man's land full of wasteland, and asked somewhat puzzledly: "What is this going to do?"

"Well, haven't you been asking what I am?" Qin Yu raised his hand and pointed to the giant pillar in front of him.

"Yes, what the **** is it, tell me!" Xing Lu grabbed his arm and shook it.

"That is the future." Qin Yu said meaningfully.

Taking her to the office area, Xu Meixin, who should have been in the abandoned city at this time, appeared in the command office.

"Boss." After many days of absence, the moment Xu Meixin saw Qin Yu, there was uncontrollable happiness in her eyes.

Even if Xing Lu was following him, it couldn't affect the joy of joy from the heart.

"Well, Secretary Xu, take Miss Xing around for a tour, don't forget the holographic image hall." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Okay." Xu Meixin nodded in response, came to Xing Lu and said politely: "Miss Xing, I will show you around."

After looking at Qin Yu, Xing Lu followed the compelling Xu Meixin with the gesture in his eyes.

Kneeling behind the opponent, Xing Lu's eyes moved downward involuntarily.

When the opponent walked around, the straight rear axle twisted back and forth, but it looked elegant and plain, without any feeling of seductiveness.

Waist, standard beauty snake, full of plump!

Steady footwork, not fast or slow, elegant and generous.

The legs wrapped under the shredded pork are straight and slender, and the right hand is tightened toward the chest, and the document is clamped in the arm.

Capable, shrewd, gentle and steady, even Xing Lu finds a woman so attractive.

Such a woman, with Qin Yu's side as the accompanying secretary...

"Then the rear bridge was developed by himself, right?" Xing Lu couldn't help but think of this.

It's not that she has gone bad, it's completely affected by Qin Yu.

And he has enough understanding of his nature, how can a beauty like this stay by her side and not eat.

Compared with pure appearance, Qin Yu's taste is gradually improving.

The more active the inner temperament of a woman, the perfection from the inside to the outside can meet his current aesthetic standards!

The woman in front of him was the woman he called "Secretary Xu".

At first glance, it seems that even Xing Lu wants to occupy the workplace!

"Secretary Xu, how long have you been with Qin Yu?" Xing Lu stepped forward and asked, standing side by side with her.

"Up to now 7 months and 18 days." Xu Meixin replied accurately.

"Secretary Xu's memory is really good." Xing Lu smiled pointedly.

Xu Meixin responded calmly: "As a qualified secretary, good memory is the most basic requirement."

Perceiving Xing Lu's hostility, Xu Meixin thought it was funny, but she deliberately explained: "Miss Xing, I have nothing to do with the boss.

No one in the company believes the rumors about the boss from the outside world, because he never targets people around him, at least at work. "

These words can no longer be blunt, and they were exposed in publicXing Lu made a big red face.

He turned his head and coughed a few times before turning off the topic in vain. He pointed to the giant pillar in front and asked: "Secretary Xu, Qin Yu said that is the future, what does it mean?

"Get to the front, you will know after reading the introduction." Xu Meixin pointed to the diagonally opposite room.

There is exactly what Qin Yu said: Holographic Image Hall!

In the temporary office, Qin Yu is connecting with Kylin to mobilize the [creator] in the headquarters.

They will leave the production and snow storage area after the building is closed tonight.

Xihe will frequently go back and forth between the two places, sending the required 1,000 [Creators] to the designated location.

On the construction site, before the shutdown today, a shed will be pulled up above the planned No. 1 construction area.

Then, it was the performance moment when the [creator] construction team showed off.

Qin Yu's reason for having such a shed to block it is that "in order to ensure the secrecy of the building, some of the layouts involved are confidential."

The real situation is naturally to conceal the existence of [the creator].

Of course, there are underground buildings.

The whole project is divided into 4 phases, each phase takes 2 months, and a total of 8 months is completed.

At that time, here will become a future city full of modern high-tech.

In fact, the ground plan can be completed in only 3 months.

But it will take longer underground. In Qin Yu's plan, there will be a dark harbor at the deepest point.

Can enter the ocean directly through the waterway without disturbing anyone.

It would be time consuming even for [the creator] to complete this transformation without attracting attention.

Naturally, the progress of the project has to be deduced backwards, and the time has changed from the original 6 months to the current 8 months.

Chapter 758: Teacher Shen, the monsters are very fun

When Xing Lu came back from the holographic image hall, the whole person was as if he was beaten with blood.

Pounce directly into Brother Yu's arms, yelling to bite him.

Xu Meixin stood at the door with a serious face, and quietly closed the door of the room with a gap.

This secretary is getting more and more sensible!

When Qin Yu finishes his work, it will be long before lunch, and it will be dark when he sees it.

"Is the shed set up?" Qin Yu asked.

"It's all right, do you want to check it out?" Xu Meixin asked.

"Forget it, there should be nothing wrong with the old Ho staring at him, so I'll see it at night." Qin Yu has to come again at night.

To ensure that the first batch of [creators] arrive smoothly, there will naturally be no problems in the follow-up.

"Then next?" Xu Meixin asked.

"Go to eat first, order a takeaway for the big guy, don't be in the house, and starve to death when the meal comes."

While confessing, people have already arrived by the car.

The sky is big, you have to fill your stomach first...

Night market stalls.

With chopsticks in one hand, Wen Yaxuan held the fried noodles in her mouth, and took a few bites of chicken drumsticks in her hand. It was a joy to eat.

Today, the company's order has just been completed, and Wen Yaxuan, who has worked overtime until now, can finally eat the fried thin noodles she has been thinking of.

Add a chicken leg, it's so happy to take off...

"Xuan Xuan?" The sudden call made Wen Ya Xuan look up curiously.

Click!

The image of biting half of a chicken leg with a piece of noodles between chopsticks and holding the chicken leg in one hand was perfectly recorded by Qin Yu with his mobile phone.

"You deleted it." Five minutes later, Wen Yaxuan sat on the small bench with enthusiasm, pestering Qin Yu to make him delete the photo.

"Okay, I deleted it, look." Qin Yu took out his phone, clicked Delete, and installed the phone and said, "Is this deleted?"

Wen Yaxuan nodded in satisfaction, and happily grabbed the uneaten chicken legs and immersed herself in it.

The teacher and mother taught her since she was a child that it is shameful to waste food!

"Huh?" Wen Yaxuan who was biting the chicken leg suddenly stopped, raised her head and looked at Qin Yu curiously: "Why are you here?"

"???" Qin Yu was dumbfounded.

Girl, is your reflex arc down?

"For work, I'll go back in two days." Qin Yu explained tiredly.

"Oh, oh!" Wen Yaxuan nodded, looked down at the chicken leg in her hand, and smiled happily.

Qiafan, Qiafan, what to do with so much.

It's still the most important thing, um, delicious...

"Boss, let's have another braised chicken drumstick."

Seeing that she gnawed the meat cleanly on the bones, and the teeth marks were almost engraved on the bones, Qin Yu said to the boss.

Hearing "drumsticks," Wen Yaxuan's eyes lit up, and she immediately raised her head to look at the lo-me shop owner.

Wen Yaxuan couldn't help swallowing when the other party came with the hot, fragrant chicken legs.

Although she is already full, but if it's chicken thighs.

"Here you are." Qin Yu put the drumstick in front of her.

Wen Yaxuan's cheeks flushed, and she whispered, "Aren't you going to eat it?"

"I just ate it, and be vegetarian tonight!" Qin Yu responded.

Ate? ?

Wen Yaxuan was a little puzzled. He was just sitting here, with only a portion of fried noodles and a bottle of drink in front of him.

While thinking, the aroma of chicken legs drifted into the nose.

Whoosh~

After smelling it hard, Wen Yaxuan decided to give up thinking, and deal with this nasty chicken leg first.

Blame it, always tempting yourself, **** it! !

"Look at how I can destroy you." Picking up the drumstick, Wen Yaxuan bit at it.

Well, it smells so good!

Wen Yaxuan who eats is happy, and that joy is full of contagion.

Therefore, Xu Meixin and Xing Lu also became appetites.

The only thing that makes Xing Lu curious is who is she?

Looking at the natural conversation between the two, Xing Lu couldn't get it wrong.

So, this cute foodie with big eyes is the real enemy?

It's just that she looks so cute, and the harmless look of humans and animals really wants to hold her in her arms and torment her!

Xing Lu was full of entanglements and suspected that she was ill.

Wen Yaxuan gnawed at the chicken thighs carelessly, until they had eaten them all, and then put down the bones contentedly.

Put your fingers in your mouth and clean them one by one.

"Bo, Bo, Bo~~" All five fingers clicked once, then wiped it with a tissue, and raised his head contentedly.

"Good food!" She laughed happily, and Wen Yaxuan naturally put her head on Qin Yu's shoulder.

Ok?

So hard, but still very happy, Wen Yaxuan hugged his arm and squinted as if she wanted to just fall asleep.

Qin Yu didn't dare to move, every cell in his body kept repeating: "Danger, danger, danger..."

Xing Lu next door, like two knives, kept spinning back and forth on Qin Yu's neck, heart, and waist.

A large-scale killing scene is about to be born.

Xu Meixin stood up suddenly and said, "Miss Xing, the snacks over there look good, let's go take a look."

Without waiting for Xing Lu to reply, she took her arm and walked forward.

Xing Lu half pushed, but in the end she didn't insist on staying.

If she really asked her to do something, Xing Lu didn't know what to do, she might as well turn around and leave, out of sight and upset.

If you cheat, cheat!

In life, there is no time for self-deception.

Rarely confused, four words tell the truth of a lifetime!

When Xing Lu's eyes moved away, Qin Yu's tense muscles regained slack, and Wen Yaxuan, who was holding his shoulders, nudged, she fell asleep like that.

During this period of time, she was too tired. Today, when she saw Qin Yu and ate delicious food, she was satisfied both physically and spiritually.

Before I knew it, sleepiness had the upper hand, and he fell asleep like this.

Reluctantly shook his head, Qin Yu stopped eating and asked the boss to pay the bill.

He picked up Wen Yaxuan and went to the car, opened the door and put her in the back row, and got into the cab by herself.

"Secretary Xu, I will take Miss Xing back to the hotel after I have finished eating. I have something to go out." Qin Yu said without denying Xu Meixin's number.

Opposite, Xu Meixin just responded with "Uh, uh", expressing understanding.

Just looking at Xing Lu's gaze, with a bit of helplessness.

The boss threw the trouble to her, but he ran away.

She is an accompanying secretary, and when will she be part-time life housekeeper and emotional expert.

If she continues to develop like this, won't she have to become a woman with many talents.

Driving at the same speed all the way to the western-style building, Qin Yu parked the car at the door and looked back to see that Wen Yaxuan was still asleep.

Opened the door and got out of the car, picked her up again, Wen Yaxuan arched her head in his arms and smelled it again.

A relieved smile appeared on his face again, and he reached out and grabbed the clothes on his chest.

Amusedly kissed the girl's face, and Qin Yu rang the doorbell of the western-style building.

Zizi~

A harsh bell rang in the room, and after a while, footsteps came: "Xiao Yu, what's wrong with Xuan Xuan?"

Shen Bing ran out in a hurry, wearing slippers on his feet and light pajamas.

She was ready to go to bed after washing, Qin Yu suddenly came back holding Wen Yaxuan, it was still so late...

Shen Bing thought, what happened!

"It's okay, I met her at the night market stall and fell asleep after eating." Qin Yu whispered and walked into the house holding Wen Yaxuan.

Shen Bing breathed a sigh of relief when he heard him say this.

Just be fine, peace is blessing!

Putting Wen Yaxuan on the bed in the bedroom, Qin Yu pointed out the door to Shen Bing, and the two of them rubbed their hands and feet and went out.

Bring the door to the room, and then resume the rhythm of normal breathing.

There were only two people left, and the air suddenly became anxious!

Shen Bing was anxious, and quickly said, "Didn't you go back to the northwest?"

Whatever you say, just break the current deadlock first.

"There is something at work, so I will come back for a few days temporarily." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

Sensing that the scorching deadlock in the air disappeared, the ruddy-faced Shen Bing secretly rejoiced.

Turning to the living room, Shen Bing picked up the coat on the sofa and put it on him and said, "Since it is a work matter, I will not keep you. Be careful on the way."

Qin Yu smiled faintly: "Okay, Teacher Shen will also take a rest early, and I will see you again the next day."

After speaking, Qin Yu walked outside the door.

Seeing him so free and decisive, with a resolute profile and a tall back, Shen Bing suddenly felt a little bit reluctant for some reason.

But this wonderful emotion was immediately suppressed by her.

Some things are gaps that cannot be crossed, and solutions cannot be found just by thinking.

At this moment, Qin Yu who walked to the door suddenly turned back and smiled lightly: "Mr. Shen, have you ever heard of this game of monsters?"

"Well, I've heard of it." Shen Bing nodded absently.

"It's very fun. I will send someone to send two game pods tomorrow. If I have time to go in and have a look, it will surprise you." Qin Yu said meaningfully.

Chapter 759: Never-ending footsteps

I made a call and learned that the two were still there.

Qin Yu drove back the same way, and met Xu Meixin and Xing Lu on the side of the road.

As soon as I got into the car, my face was full of unhappy expressions.

"Why, who made our little baby angry?" Qin Yu smiled and touched her face.

Xing Lu opened his hand and said sullenly: "You are you."

"How is it possible for me?" Qin Yu exaggerated: "It's too late for the pain!"

"I think you have a lot of people to hurt, right?" Xing Lu said with a sneer.

"I really can't blame me. The bee does not just stare at a flower when collecting nectar." Qin Yu said confidently.

"..."

Xing Lu smiled angrily, "I got it, so I won't pretend it, and the showdown?"

"I didn't pretend it in the beginning. There are some things that everyone knows. It's better to be happy together."

Since I ran into it today, Qin Yu also planned to say something.

Although it hurts a bit (head), there will be such a day after all.

As he said, Xing Lu should be psychologically prepared from the beginning.

How could Qin Yu be the only one, did she believe this?

Therefore, the complaints and anger at this time are just momentary anger in the face of the truth.

When she wants to understand, calm down.

Business as usual, Yu Ge is very confident about this.

He just has a great dream and is kind and generous. What's wrong?

"You, shameless!" Xing Lu was speechless.

Qin Yu responded with a smile: "Shamelessness is the endorsement of success, can I assume that you are complimenting me?"

Xing Lu, who couldn't say it, raised her small fist angrily and patted his shoulder a few times.

It doesn't hurt or itchy, and it's even a bit comfortable.

Qin Yi said with enjoyment: "A few more times, it's very comfortable."

Xing Lu lost her temper completely, leaning on the back of the chair with her arms around her, looking out the window bulgingly.

Qin Yu stretched out her hand to hold her palm, Xing Lu struggled, but her strength was useless.

"Don't make trouble, as long as every day we are together is full of laughter, nothing else matters."

Qin Yu's gentle voice came into her ears, and Xing Lu had an urge to nod to agree.

This made her doubt again that her head must be broken.

In the past, what she hated the most was the scumbag who stepped on two boats like this.

But like Qin Yu, the scumbag is plain and open, so why can't it suddenly become disgusting.

Even, I think he looks so handsome at the moment...

"Xing Lu, Xing Lu, your brain is broken!" Xing Lu shook her head vigorously, trying to clear the chaotic thoughts.

But the more I thought about it, the more it seemed to be a mess, I couldn't find any clues at all.

She has already fallen.

At this time, it was too late to want to withdraw and leave.

That being the case, why not happily enjoy every day.

"I want to buy a bag." Xing Lu turned her head in vain, looked at him and said.

"Buy, buy as much as you want." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

Just buy a bag and the flower is over.

It can cure all diseases, as long as the person is comfortable after the purchase, the money is worth it.

"Secretary Xu, you stay in the hotel tonight, and tomorrow you will accompany Miss Xing to stroll around."

Qin Yu glanced through the rear mirror, and the briefcase beside Xu Meixin was also worn out.

And the uniform on her body, it doesn't look like it is always so.

Let outsiders know, and thought that his boss was stingy and wouldn't even buy extra uniforms.

"By the way, I will also buy you some outfits, and what clothes to wear on what occasions to attend. If you don't understand, please consult a shopping guide!

Seeing that he still cares about Secretary Xu, Xing Lu is a little depressed and at the same time inexplicably calm.

One is stepping, and the two are also stepping.

One more Xu Meixin is not much, and one less Xu Meixin is a lot. What's the difference?

Thinking of this, Xing Lu's mind suddenly flashed.

The enemy's enemy is a friend, and she and Xu Meixin get along quite happily.

As the accompanying secretary, I am afraid that no one has stayed together longer than Xu Meixin and Qin Yu.

If you can pull her to unite with yourself, can you get more pampering?

How amazing a woman's brain circuit is, a man can never imagine.

Just like Xing Lu, who was still angry a moment ago, she was already considering pulling Xu Meixin into the group.

Unite the front, and fight against others with oneself.

After piercing the tacit understanding of the camouflage, Xing Lu completely accepted the reality.

It is also clear that Wen Yaxuan will not be the only exception.

By his side, there were many Yingying and Yanyan surrounding him.

I have to fly everywhere again, and I haven't seen him a few times a month, if he is occupied by other vixen again.

Xing Lu must be furious!

"Secretary Xu, then I beg you." The complicated thoughts flashed in her mind, and Xing Lu said kindly to her.

Xu Meixin smiled back and said, "For the blessing of Miss Xing, this is the first time I have experienced such experience as paid shopping."

"Then have a good experience. Anyway, someone pays the bill. After the purchase, we will have a big meal to celebrate."

Xing Lu looked up at Qin Yu proudly, clearly showing off to him.

Qin Yu's smile remained the same, but in his heart he disapproved.

Can she just be able to emptied the mall?

It's really emptied, just take out a "diamond" from the warehouse.

However, Qin Yu would not really sell it as a diamond. Titanium-rhodium alloy is much more expensive than that.

Sending them to the hotel downstairs, Xu Meixin asked through the window, "Is it really unnecessary for me to follow? Boss."

"No, contact tomorrow!" Qin Yu smiled at her and drove to Lingang again.

At this time, Lot 1 has been covered by tarpaulin.

The whole clearing is quiet, not even a rabbit can be seen...

However, it seems that rabbits are hard to see in the city now.

Except for those little Bonnies who are drunk and hopping around in the feasting and feasting.

"Kirin, start to release." As the order was given, a breeze suddenly appeared.

Then, the first batch of [creators] walked out of the air.

The Xihe remained invisible and returned frequently, and soon sent batches of [creators] to the construction site.

To be a qualified and diligent striker, you first start by digging a hole and "burying" yourself.

The foundation, continue downward, strengthen, downward, strengthen, downward.

The drawings are imprinted in the brain of every [creator]. They are tireless, tireless, painless and hunger.

There will be no mistakes, and every action is extremely precise.

A simple excavation work, unexpectedly gives people a kind of beauty of performance art.

It's a pity that only Qin Yu can see this beauty.

Now, he also needs to find a place to rest.

As for the rest of the work, it will be completed under the supervision of Kylin.

Oh, yes, there is also a question of vigilance!

The [creator] who puts on the "invisible cloth" will be the best guard.

A strange legend is not a hindrance to Qin Yu!

This is a city of the future that is completely autonomous, not a tourist attraction that is open to attract tourists.

Although in the planning, there are reserved "visitor passages."

The future city of miracles will inevitably attract countless pilgrims.

It is impossible to completely eliminate it, but at least it can be done without affecting the work progress of the employees of Miracle.

"Guys, I need a comfortable bed, come on, let me see your abilities."

Qin Yu took out four chips and threw them into his mouth, moistening his throat.

The body tilted back naturally, and countless "iron sand"-like debris quickly gathered into a soft bed that was transparent and soft with super elasticity.

Just floating at a distance of 5cm from the ground made Qin Yu fall into a sweet dream.

When he opened his eyes again, it was already bright outside!

The body naturally rises upright, steps on the ground with both feet, and the soft bed behind it turns into silk threads and disappears.

Stretching a comfortable waist, Qin Yu found that the hunger was not strong.

This shows that the overnight stay did not consume too much energy, and it seems that the "liquid wafer" has worked.

It is gradually changing Qin Yu's body and the way the nanoworms obtain energy, taking in the required energy materials from the free air, the sun, and the universe.

Like the last time I almost played off and caused myself to faint on exhaustion, it shouldn't happen again.

"Kirin, report on progress." Qin Yu came to the construction site, the huge pothole was already bottomless.

Nanoworms flooded into his eyes, and Qin Yu's vision became deep.

They have dug to the bottom sixty meters, and the speed is still accelerating.

[Creator] Has a certain learning ability and can form a memory experience like human beings.

This will make them more professional and efficient by adjusting and optimizing the working methods of the ethnic group countless times with their rich experience!

At the same time, Qin Yu also put the holographic image of the part of the underground construction into his brain.

Currently, what is being built is the main load-bearing column of the underground honeycomb.

In the future, there will be eight high-speed arc sightseeing elevators around the main body, which can directly lead to the central branch square.

The internal transportation is completed by automation, and Miracle Company has placed a new order with Azure Company.

They need 200 dual-seat battery cars but only the frame.

The main core control, electronic technology and battery technology are all independently completed by Miracle Company.

The future underground honeycomb is completely controlled by the "subsystem" of Kylin.

Kylin is ready for this and can isolate suitable subsystems at any time to fill the AI intelligence required by the honeycomb.

At the same time, it also manages the city of miracles above the surface.

As for what this subsystem should be called, Qin Yu hadn't thought yet.

It is not too late to make a decision when all the ground and underground buildings are completed and the work is finished!

Confirming that the project is progressing smoothly, Qin Yu took new snacks from a [creator] and filled his snack box.

Holding the handbag, he drove away contentedly.

In the follow-up, he doesn't need to worry about it here, just wait for the results to be checked and accepted in eight months.

When Qin Yu left Lingang and did not return to the hotel, Xing Lu was still a little emotional, and it was enough for Xu Meixin to accompany her to buy and buy.

He took advantage of this opportunity to see Sha Man who had just returned.

She spent half of this year in Vienna.

First, there is a cooperation with there, to participate in industry exchange conferences, exhibitions, and business talks.

Second, go out and relax, find inspiration, and add new elements to your creation.

As an artist, she won't stop here.

For her, Hudu's home is nothing more than a safe haven for her short stay.

When I met Qin Yu, it happened that Yu Shaman went out to collect the style, and needed a quiet place to complete the creation and transform his inspiration into a work.

Now she has set sail again.

I just don't know what I've gained this time, and how long can I stay at home?

Chapter 760: Art is not for pretending to be X

"Yes, it's there, hard, um~ahh~um~"

Sha Man lay on the sofa, enjoying Qin Yu's massage nonsense.

It feels so comfortable!

His technique is neither light nor heavy, and every touch is just right, as if he can see through Shaman's mind.

Know what he knows, think what he thinks.

So, this feeling is really enjoyable, Sha Man is very sure that she has been fascinated by this kind of pleasure.

"Is it comfortable?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Well, it's so comfortable." Sha Man squinted her eyes and responded with enjoyment on her face.

"You should do more SPA." Qin Yu suggested.

"Yeah." Sha Man had no energy to answer again, just groaning quietly.

Lasted for 45 minutes, the one-minute massage ended.

Qin Yu jokingly stretched out his hand and said, "Boss, thanks to your consideration, 800 yuan."

Sha Man opened her eyes, propped her head with her hands and said to Qin Yu, "What should I do if people don't bring money?"

Fingers moved the shoulder straps, and Shaman said charmingly, "Well, can you pay for it?"

Qin Yu looked at her up and down and joked: "Then it depends on your performance, little lady."

"My technique is unparalleled!" Sha Man told her self-righteous facts in a firm tone.

...

Shaman's skills are truly unparalleled, and she is not lying about this.

Especially in the game, incorporating her unique artistic cell will make the process extremely interesting.

Every time I am with her, I will be full of surprises and freshness!

The new body art is born again...

The previous giant screen was taken off, and the new giant screen was hung on the wall of the living room, which is even more magnificent than the last one!

Standing in the living room looking at the painting, Sha Man smiled satisfied.

"How do you feel?" Sha Man asked Qin Yu beside her.

Looking at the arcs, round or flat symbols, Qin Yu nodded and said, "Very vivid and realistic!"

"Vivid, realistic... Do you have to be so blunt?" Sha Man blanked his eyes speechlessly.

How can such a great work of art become vulgar when it comes out of his mouth?

"Isn't art just pretending to be X?" Qin Yu said innocently, "I have pretended to be X since I was a child, and it's numb."

"..." Sha Man was dumb, she suddenly didn't know what to say.

Is art pretending to be X?

Although I don't want to admit it, it seems to point to the essence!

If art is not for X, what is the point...

Sha Man closed up!

Why did you suddenly find that what you worked hard for seemed worthless.

This is not the life and result she wants, so she has been walking on the road of pretending to be X for the first half of her life?

"What's the matter?" Qin Yu asked in surprise, seeing her tangled expression.

"It's just a bit at a loss suddenly." Sha Man said with a dizzy look.

"Pretend to be X?" Qin Yu said clearly: "There is nothing wrong with it. Life is a one-way ticket. As long as you can find happiness, it is worthwhile."

"As for the process, sometimes it really doesn't matter." Qin Yu said with a curled mouth.

"Really?" Sha Man's distracted eyes returned to focus.

"Of course, I never tell lies!" Qin Yu said frankly.

"Well, just assume you are right." Sha Man no longer struggled with it.

Whether it is art or X, in short, this is her pursuit and life.

"Don't judge my life and pursuits at random!" Sha Man gave him a ruthless look. She didn't like being judged on her life.

"Of course, this is your life, your freedom." Qin Yu said with a shrug.

"Now, can you start the second round?" The magic grab appeared strangely on the balance ball.

With Sha Man's exclamation, the second world-class battle kicked off!

War war war...

After numerous encounters, contact wars, in-depth battles, counterattacks, and encirclement and suppression campaigns.

Qin Jun won a big victory! !

At the same time, Xu Meixin is accompanying Xing Lu to buy and buy at the National Financial Center.

After half an hour of scanning the goods, there were two trolleys behind them, pushed by the staff of the mall.

The car is filled with all kinds of beautifully packaged gift bags, such as Granny, Prada, LV, Gucci, Hermes, Balenciaga, Balmain...

All the top brands were swept by the two.

If you can't buy it, you will ignore everything that needs to be distributed. In short, you have to pack and pay directly, and the basic money is the basic money.

Sweeping all the basic models is also happy! !

When the sweeping was over, the two trolleys could no longer be stacked.

Look at the truck driver, from head to toe, arms and necks are covered with bags.

His expression is full of envy and helplessness...

Depending on their age, these two girls are not as old as their own children, but their consumption in one afternoon is worth their lifetime income.

A strong sense of drop, although I experience it every day, but...

Every time you experience this powerful sense of gap, it will be full of frustration. The distribution of everything in this world will always be so unfair!

People are always emphasizing fairness, which is really a big issue in the world.

"Thank you." After thanking the two employees with mixed feelings, Xu Meixin and Xing Lu got into the car.

Full of depression and unhappiness, filled with luxury goods piled up in the back of the car seat.

Sure enough, shopping can make people feel happy, this sentence is true!

"Now, we are going to have a good meal." Xing Lu raised her fingers, and the black card between her fingertips filled her with confidence.

The charm of this card, she has really experienced when shopping.

Next, let this happiness continue to magnify and last longer.

...

...

Crazy time always flies quickly, whether it is for Xing Lu or Qin Yu.

At the end of parting, Qin Yu has to rush home in time as the new year is approaching, and Xing Lu has to continue her air journey.

She will spend this year standing in the sky, and she has been scheduled for her.

Airlines will not go out of business because of the new year's closure, just like other companies that also won't negotiate.

The miracle is the same this year, with three shifts at the end of the year.

However, Qin Yu gave generous and generous overtime pay...

Five times the salary!

This is a tempting value, no one can refuse it.

In fact, under the stimulus of five times the labor cost.

There are more people applying for overtime on their own than needed, and the company has to appease those who are not eligible.

No one will dislike earning enough, only people complain that they are not earning enough.

In this era when everything is in line with capital, people have also become reality.

As long as the family, wives, and children can get a better life, better resources, and better everything.

So, what if you give everything?

What can I do if I change my life? ? ?

However, Miracle Company does not need them to pay the price of their lives. With a little hard work, they can get everything they want.

This is also an important factor for it to become one of the most eye-catching companies in the Northwest.

A company that can live the life you want with hard work without having to fight your life.

For ordinary people, it is the greatest conscience!

Because of this, Miracle Company attracts countless people every time it recruits foreign workers, just for a chance to stand up.

You know, such an opportunity will only appear briefly a few times in a lifetime.

Not everyone has the opportunity to have...

It is not only the employees who have the opportunity to be grateful for this.

There are also local government offices, employment-related departments, and so on.

Therefore, before and after the New Year's Eve, the Qin family became extremely busy, with guests from all walks of life coming in an endless stream!

Qin Yu, who had just arrived home, had to fall into frequent social gatherings.

When you reach out your hand and don't hit the smiley person, they take the initiative to come.

Those with big bags and small bags in their hands come with blessings, so it's not easy to drive them out directly.

No matter what, there must be entertainment and entertainment.

After sending away a wave of district government representatives again, after Qin Yu closed the door, his smile instantly turned tired.

"Can't this kind of thing be left to others to deal with?" Qin Yu returned to the living room and said to Old Qin.

"Who is it?" Lao Qin raised his eyelids and said disdainfully: "Your mother or me? We two don't have time to deal with these big people."

"..."

Picking up the little pumpkin on the sofa, Qin Yu whispered: "Look, these are our unreliable parents."

"What are you talking about?" Master Mother suddenly appeared, holding clean and cut fruits in his hands.

"It's okay." Qin Yu hurriedly denied.

He also dared to say a few words in front of Lao Qin, really wanting the mother to hear it.

Give him a valuable education lesson every minute, let him know what is meant by "the trouble I caused myself, UU reading www.uukanshu.com solve it by myself!"

"Why didn't Qingqing come these few days?" Putting the fruit plate on the table, Liang Chuyu sat cross-legged on the sofa and clapped her hands at the little pumpkin.

The little guy pouted his butt, and grabbed Qin Yu's thigh and slipped from the sofa to the ground.

Chuchu ran to the opposite side, grabbed my mother's hand and was held in her arms, "chuckle~~~"

Joyful laughter makes this home full of joy.

Since there was a little pumpkin, the laughter at home has indeed been much more than before.

Children's innocence and happiness are far more contagious than adults'!

"She is busy walking with relatives, you know, as soon as the Chinese New Year comes, all of the seven aunts and eight aunts will appear." Qin Yu responded with a laugh.

During the Chinese New Year, there is no such thing as a livelihood.

Qin Yu thought for a while and suggested: "Shall we go outside next year?"

Find a small island, rent it for a month, and spend a quiet, undisturbed year.

Just think about it!

"This is a good idea." Old Qin nodded in agreement.

Only Liang Chuyu hesitated a little. In previous years, she had spent time at home, but suddenly she had spent time outside.

Will people gossiping if there is less walking between sisters?

"It's not that we won't come back anymore. Besides, everyone is walking back and forth. We are troublesome and people are troublesome. It's better to come back and have a reunion dinner."

Qin Yu felt that this was more straightforward, and the mutual walks would not be reduced just because of a Chinese New Year.

If there is, it is definitely not because of this.

Moreover, this kind of day when someone knocks on the door every day, he really is enough.

Ding Dong!

While talking, the doorbell rang again.

Qin Yu pointed helplessly in the direction of the door, clearly saying: "Look, is there any more this year?"
