

Pinnacle 801

Chapter 801: The person design that has been recessed for so long is finally used

"What's the matter with you on the Internet, now Qingqing is by my side, you have made it clear."

"..." Qin Yu was dumbfounded, really dumbfounded.

Under what circumstances, Master Mother called Lu Qing to call himself and let him confess his crime.

Is this half of the surrender, or is it lenient?

"Uh~ Mom, that..." Qin Yu's brain was a little blank.

"Don't talk to me, talk to Qingqing." Master Mother said in a cold voice.

Then, without waiting for Qin Yu to figure out how to answer, Master Mother started a one-man show.

"Did I tell you that you are outside alone, especially like you are now... It's especially easy to attract bees and butterflies.

So be careful, be careful, then be careful. Maybe you will be fooled by others...

What kind of society is it now? It's a network society, and traffic is money! "

"Qingqing, let me tell you, he is too stupid and honest, don't look at his small grades now, in fact, he is not a fart!

People don't know if they take advantage of it. People are fancying his photographic skills, and they obviously want to use him to make hype. "

Qin Yu didn't know what his mother said again. In short, he "turned off" his hearing and kept the microphone as far away as possible.

About five minutes later, Qin Yu picked up the phone again: "...Did you hear?"

"Well, I'm listening, mom." Qin Yu agreed.

"Okay, let's just say it. When the two of you graduate this year, the engagement will be done first." Liang Chuyu said with satisfaction.

"...???" Brother Yu was stupid.

What the hell, why did you suddenly want to get engaged, what I promised just now.

"That, mom..."

"Don't tell me, I have to go shopping with Qingqing. If you dare to mess around again, be careful of your dad's belt."

Liang Chuyu hung up the phone with a chic conclusion.

Turning to face Lu Qing, he said softly, "Qingqing, you can rest assured now!"

"Auntie~" Lu Qing lowered her head shyly.

She didn't expect that today's harvest would be so great. In fact, she hadn't figured out what Liang Chuyu was going to do before coming here.

right now...

Nothing matters anymore. Qin Yugang promised his aunt that he would be engaged to himself after graduation.

This made Lu Qing's heart jumped like a song, and the position of the princess was firmly seated.

However, Lu Qing decided to find time to call Qin Yu in person.

You have to hear it from his mouth and ears to count!

Before that, Lu Qing decided not to tell others, and only a few people in front of him knew enough.

"Let's go, it's just time today. Let's go and go around. It's not just men who know how to be chic."

Liang Chuyu picked up the handbag, pulled Lu Qing and walked out: "Just talk about what you see, auntie pays!"

The mother and the prince **** off at SKP, and Qin Yu rubbed his temples in the office.

got engaged!

It doesn't seem to be the first time for him.

Although the marriage contract with Ye Jinlan didn't hold any grand ceremony, it was also spread in the upper class circles.

Now, who doesn't know, he is the grandson-in-law appointed by Mr. Ye.

Let's have another Lu Qing... it seems that there is no problem!

Engagement is nothing more than proof.

My mother has always liked Lu Qing, if this can make her feel at ease, it would be a way.

For several years in college, she always talked about Lu Qing's goodness every time she went home.

This child is so filial. When Qin Yu is away, she often takes time to accompany her and buy her various gifts and skin care products.

Go with her for checkups, greedy, and walks, and they are just like sisters.

So she is now more favored than Qin Yu in her mother, and she is even more Qin than her daughters.

Furthermore, Qin Yu considered that sooner or later he would give Lu Qing an identity.

It is not only him and Lu Qing that are involved, but also the friendship between two families and two generations.

If he played casually, he would dump Lu Qing if he didn't have any qualifications in the end.

No matter how Lu Guohui's family will not give him a good face, the relationship between the two will definitely be severed.

It is even possible to turn your face into an enemy and stay out of touch with you!

Just being a fiancée can save you from so much trouble.

Keep the family happy, hello, my hello, everyone's good situation.

Why not!

Besides, Qin Yu really likes Lu Qing.

Although the brain weighs the pros and cons in an instant, it is just an instinctive reaction.

His thinking is too active, this is all caused by Nanoworms.

And that love from the heart is true...

It's just that Qin Yu was still a little surprised to be "informed" suddenly.

It's too abrupt!

I also blame him, because my mother was nagging endlessly, and she put the phone aside to be lazy.

Then he agreed without knowing anything.

I really have to blame it, I can only blame it myself...

More than two months before graduation, Qin Yu agreed to hold an engagement banquet.

But keep his consistent style, low-key!

Everyone knows that Brother Yu is a low-key person, and he doesn't like too high-key behavior.

This is his style all along!

Therefore, no one will raise any questions about such a request.

On the contrary, he would praise him for his down-to-earth, young age, not arrogant or impetuous, mature and stable, very good!

The person design that has been recessed for so long finally comes in handy.

Next, the only thing he needs to worry about is the diamond ring, and this is precisely the last thing he needs to worry about.

Diamond ring?

If it weren't for weight and proportion, Brother Yu would like to ask, "Have you seen a diamond ring with a big fist?"

What pigeon eggs are so weak.

However, you can prepare another crown. I believe that after wearing a crown composed of a matrix of six rhombus diamonds.

Lu Qing will surely beautify the sky and engrave this day in his mind forever.

"Kirin, I need a design drawing of the diamond ring and crown, which must be defensive..."

Qin Yu didn't forget the strongest effect of "liquid spar". It would be a waste of materials to make only a large and shiny ordinary diamond ring.

...

While Qin Yu solved his troubles, Shen Dong, who was far away in Huizhou, was also facing follow-up troubles.

No money!

Father Shen is still in a coma, and his daily medication and treatment costs are like a bottomless pit.

Not only the working capital in the store, but also the money Xuan Xuan saved before and her own deposit.

Filled it all in!

Facing the next payment, Shen Dong couldn't get a cent out.

"Or, I'll go to the second brother and ask."

Sitting on the steps at the entrance of the hospital, Shen Dong stared blankly at the payment slip in his hand.

Xuan Xuan didn't speak, and when Shen Dong turned to look at her, he took a deep breath and said, "Sell the car!"

"Yes~" Shen Dong's first reaction in his heart was reluctance.

But he instantly recovered his calm. The best choice now is to sell the car. Xuan Xuan was right.

"Okay, sell the car first."

The gradually mature Shen Dong said decisively: "If it doesn't work, sell the house at home and rent it first!"

The more and less the love is used, the family has not yet reached the end of poverty.

You don't have to talk to people, Xuanxuan understands this truth, and Shen Dong also understands it.

I was still a little bit reluctant before, but now that I say it, I feel at ease in my heart.

"If you can't ask for help, don't open your mouth."

Xuan Xuan held him in hand and said firmly: "Money, you can make more money in the future, let's get through this difficulty first... I will accompany you."

"Thank you." Shen Dong turned around and hugged her, kissing her forehead heavily.

There was another figure in his heart that made him dream, as if completely reduced to a bubble, disappearing without a trace.

Even her appearance has become blurred!

In order to raise money as soon as possible, Shen Dong sold the car to used car dealers at a price of 220,000.

Then he put his house on the intermediary, "As long as you sell it sincerely, the price will definitely not change, and don't do any tricks to increase the price!"

"Brother, you said so, and I'm telling the truth." Seeing that he is indeed anxious, the intermediary is also telling the truth.

If you don't add that much to his low price, there will be room for a discount when the time comes, and the buyer will always feel that they are losing money.

No matter if you are five thousand or ten thousand, you must be a little bit moist anyway.

Only by letting the client bargain can he really care about the house.

Like the kind of high-quality customers who are refreshed and quick to see the right price and direct transactions.

He is a minority after all, and he is not encountered every day.

"You can quote at this price, I know it!" Shen Dong insisted on his point of view.

Because he has his own considerations, he has already understood it before.

The average price of my old house is  $6500/\text{m}^2$ , which is the price on the market.

The price given by Shen Dong is  $6000/\text{m}^2$ , and the sincere transaction price can be reduced by another  $200/\text{m}^2$ .

So, he has room for himself here.

If the transaction is not completed in this way, it needs to be considered, which means that the other party is not sincere in buying a house.

For such customers, talk about it for nothing, don't waste everyone's time!

He has to run the hospital, remotely direct the operation of the Hudu store, and explain to the internship and the school.

Fortunately, relying on Qin Yu's relationship, he is very familiar with both the class and instructors.

In the past, I often drank together, like a buddy.

After explaining the situation to the two of them, Che Xuan responded to his question to the school.

The vacation was also smoothly approved, and special matters were handled so that he would take good care of the family first, and wait for people to wake up and feel relieved before discussing other things.

With Xuan Xuan's company and support, Shen Dong is also gradually recovering.

Become more energetic and energetic again, and at the same time more attentively manage the in-store business.

Although all the liquid funds were evacuated, the shop was still operating normally.

After all, it is mainly collected by express delivery, and there is basically no need for funds in this regard. The funds left before are also precautionary.

The plan to expand the store is definitely going to stop for a while.

Yan Er had called and said that he could advance part of the funds for expansion and development.

But in the end, Shen Dong refused.

He himself has a lot of work at the window. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com not only needs to practice internships, but also to be familiar with the operation and management of Taishan's online car-hailing.

To lay a good foundation for myself to work in the company, so busy!

So, even if you have money now, no one has time to take care of this stall.

Xuan Xuan was a good candidate, but she couldn't do it alone.

Moreover, the previous relationship may not recognize her, and she also meant that she wanted to stay here with Shen Dong.

After weighing it repeatedly, Shen Dong decided to wait for the matter to be over before considering business matters.

At the same time, Shen Dong also asked his mother to sort out all his father's things and look for useful clues.

Report to the Yamen to investigate the matter.

Regardless of whether there is a result, at least Shen Dong needs to know the ins and outs.

What happened during this period and how did Dad Shen become like this...

He should always have the right to know these.

Chapter 802: Are you doubting my charm?

"No, no, no matter what you say, there is only one answer, no!"

In front of the Lvheng Group, Qin Yu walked quickly to the hall, chasing after the mildew with a fisherman's hat and a toad mirror.

She has been pestering Qin Yu for two days, but she is still unwilling to give up on opening foreign ports.

"Qin, do some people say that you are like a stubborn old guy?" The mildew did not even feel angry.

After such a long time, she no longer knew how to be angry.

But for the game "Ghost", she loves and hates...

This **** game...

It's too hard to play!

Until now, she has only obtained a kinetic gun by virtue of her charm and pitiful tricks.

Be a lone woman in it, and taste the taste of death over and over again!

It's too boring, F-K...

drop!

Swiping the card to enter the gate, mold was blocked outside.

Looking at Qin Yu who was standing in the elevator, he shrugged his shoulders and looked surprised, "You just left me here?"

Shaking his head funny, Qin Yu greeted the security guard: "Let her in, she is my visitor!"

Taking her to the office together, Yan Xue seemed surprised by someone visiting.

"Boss, do I need anything to prepare?" Yan Xue curiously looked at the mold wrapped in Yanshi.

"Two cups of tea." Then he said, "Give her a glass of ice water!"

"What? I want tea, too." The mildew was in a bad mood.

Whether he understands or not, he is moldy, the queen of the country.

Top in the world, respected and loved by people...

Well, only music talent.

But this is not a simple achievement. Why is it like a naked lamb waiting to be slaughtered in front of him?

"Whatever you want, but there is no discussion about that matter." Qin Yu said decisively.

In fact, he also admired the other's perseverance and perseverance.

For two months, she just entangled herself here for two months.

Fly back when you have work, and fly back when you are over.

Qin Yu guessed that it would cost her hundreds of thousands of dollars just for the ticket money.

"I..." Mildew wanted to refute.

Qin Yu raised his finger and said, "No, No, No!"

"Milky, you have to know that I have opened the back door for you, so don't take it too far."

For the time being, Qin Yu will never let go of foreign ports, so there is no discussion on this point.

"What if so?"

Moyu suddenly stepped forward, lying on the desk with a charming expression, and opened the buttons on his chest with his fingers.

"Are you sure?" Qin Yu leaned back and looked at her teasingly.

Mildew is stupid!

"Well, I was wrong, I misunderstood you, I apologize!" Moyou sat on the desk sideways.

While shaking his head, he stretched out his long hair and said, "I thought you, like other men, would be better at using your lower body to consider problems!"

"That's correct, but I'm better at judging when to bet big and when to bet small."

"is it?"

Mildew smiled dumbly, and yanked towards the button on his chest the moment Yan Xue pushed the door in.

Bang bang~

The bullets on the chest flew out, wow!

"Now?" Mould twisted like a beautiful snake.

Qin Yu looked at her figure up and down with interest, with a beautiful waist, big long legs, and a confident control of everything on her face.

"Have you considered how you will leave later?" Qin Yu pointed out the door.

Don't forget, they are now in the headquarters of Luheng Group.

Not a hotel...

"Orechette!" Momo jumped off the table quickly and grabbed the open collar in front of her chest.

"Buttons, where are the **** buttons?" Moyu squatted on the ground to find the buttons.

Yan Xue was holding the tray, not knowing whether he should go in or retreat for a while.

"Come in!" Qin Yu nodded.

This woman's neuroticism is as outstanding as her music.

As long as you have some understanding, you will quickly adapt and get used to it.

Putting the tea on the table, Yan Xue stood beside Qin Yu, watching Moyu squatting on the ground and constantly searching for her buttons.

The frog mirror snapped off her face, allowing Yan Xue to see her face clearly.

"Taylor Si..."

Qin Yu held up his fingers and motioned for her to lower with a "hush".

Yan Xue said in a low voice, bending over in his ear, "How did you trick her?"

Brother Yu was full of question marks, what is meant by "deception."

Do you have a misunderstanding of my charm, the handsome man with a sunshine value of 92 is better than understanding.

Probably, if there is no system restriction.

It doesn't seem to be difficult to stare at anyone who is pregnant...

Whoever makes marriage cheaper, the so-called loyalty, from the beginning to the end, grow old together.

I don't know when it has become a kind of extravagant hope and ridicule.

It's like a joke, an ancient and absurd legend.

Helped Momo find the buttons, and asked Yan Xue to bring her spare professional uniform for Momo to wear.

"You let me wear this? Here?" Moyu said with a face full of consternation, holding the professional skirt.

"Otherwise, you can go out wearing the previous suit." Qin Yu pointed to her broken jacket.

"Okay, turn it around." Momo picked his finger at him.

Turning around, putting down the shutters, and covering the small window on the door, Momo doesn't want to be on the global headlines tomorrow.

Qin Yu pushed the table with his hand, and the chair turned around and faced the floor-to-ceiling windows of the building.

"Don't you worry about someone seeing it outside?" Although his back is facing the office, he can rely on a keen sense of hearing.

Qin Yu could still "see" the picture, first took off his jacket, and then threw his comfortable sweatpants onto the sofa.

Then he put on his shirt and turned around with the professional skirt with an expression of embarrassment.

Finally rolled his eyes, put on a "let me die" expression and put the skirt on her body.

"Okay." As soon as Moyu closed the zipper, he turned around and raised his hands in front of Qin Yu.

"How do you think it looks good?"

"Yes." Looking at the mildew in a professional suit, the height of 180cm gives her a pair of charming long legs.

A professional skirt alone cannot conceal her long legs that are nowhere to be placed.

Sexy, and a little cutie brought by a hint of incongruous distress.

This scene can not be seen on the big screen and on-site meeting.

"Qin, you..."

"Now, sit there quietly and wait, say one more word, your qualifications will be disqualified, and I promise you will never have the chance to enter the monster again."

"Damn..." Mo Yu sat on the sofa angrily, with Erlang's legs tilted, his hands wrapped around his chest.

Looking at Qin Yu who was seriously discussing work behind his desk, he kept cursing in his heart.

Damn dictator, he is the most evil guy in the world.

However, this guy looks serious, really handsome...

After being busy until 2 o'clock noon, Qin Yu raised his head and stretched out.

Shaking his stiff body around his neck, Qin Yu saw the boring mold lying on the sofa.

Her expression seemed to be really going to be moldy.

"What do you want to eat at noon?" Qin Yu stood up, facing the floor-to-ceiling windows to admire the scenery.

Every time he overlooks the city, he has a broad-minded sense of pleasure.

"Are you asking me?" asked Moyu, who was lying on the sofa playing with a mobile phone.

"Yes, if you don't mind, how about having a work meal together?" Qin Yu originally planned to go to the cafeteria for a meal.

But since she is there, it's better to stay in the office and solve it.

"No problem, I'm actually not hungry." Mildew said indifferently.

"Xue'er, the same way." Qin Yu said.

Yan Xue went to the restaurant to have a meal, while Qin Yu sat on the opposite side of the mold.

Seeing her long calf outside the sofa, Qin Yu put her hand on it.

Rubbing up and down, "Well, it feels good!"

Moyu just moved the phone away and watched his big hand rubbing up and down his calf.

"You know, I can sue you for harassment right now, right?" Momo said seriously.

"I think you have misunderstood. I just saw a bug on it and helped you drive it away." Qin Yu responded with a serious face.

"Are you serious?" Moldy looked absurd.

"Yes, more serious than the Sun God plan." Qin Yu nodded.

"..." Mildew.

His words hurt the mold...It should be said that it is the heart of every bald eagle.

The Helios, lifted off and disappeared in just two days.

A project costing tens of billions of dollars, piu~

It's gone, it's gone.

Anyone with normal thinking will feel heartache about this.

That's all taxpayer's money, although this money can't get into my own hands, and I haven't paid much tax.

But it does not prevent distress, this is the reason...

Ringling~

The office phone on the desk rang, and Qin Yu finally took away the hand that patted the insect and answered the phone.

"Hello~"

"Boss?" Xu Meixin's voice came.

"Well, what's the matter." Qin Yu asked.

"That's right, the brand of the business car is set, and the Lawrence Canopy!" Xu Meixin said.

This time I ordered a car for nearly a year and a half. I compared more than a dozen brands before and after, and made countless encounters and contacts.

In the end, it was Lawrence who was better and won the first kill.

Lawrence, together with AMG and BRABUS, is known as one of the three major refitting factories for Mercedes-Benz.

Focus on high-end brand transformation, pay attention to the upgrade of interior quality and the high-standard experience of customers.

It originated in Germany in 1930 and is known as the queen magician of Mercedes.

Modification is like magic.

On the basis of the original, let the product become more characteristic and advantage.

Unlike the other two major brands, Lawrence is not good at changing performance issues such as power.

What they are good at is the overall renovation of the interior, appearance and suspension, braking and safety.

Performance is not what Lawrence needs to worry about, there are other brands to worry about this aspect.

They only need to focus on their own field, and it is enough to be the best in one aspect.

Therefore, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com's high-quality business and motorhomes have become Lawrence's specialties.

The Lawrence Sky Screen, a new generation of commercial RVs, also known as the most classic generation, came into being.

Large space of seven seats, mid-row aviation seats, fully automatic voice control.

Suitable for business negotiation, high-end reception, daily home furnishing is no problem...

Whether it is the desired functional facilities, brand face, or comfort, they all meet the standards set by Qin Yu.

The price is not suitable, not too high, but too low.

The original land price was 1.62 million, and the miracle company ordered 50 units at a time, and the land price was changed to 1.6 million after negotiation.

Although the price has only been reduced by 20,000, there are eight more configurations.

Let the whole car become more comfortable, high-end atmosphere, worthy of the face and grade required by the miracle.

The LOGO projection lamp of Miracle Company that appeared on the ground when the door was opened is also the standard configuration of every car.

Chapter 803: The final contribution of the space station

After eating lunch, the mold is still unwilling to leave.

Staying entangled until the end of the evening work, Qin Yu plans to go home and rest.

She followed out of the Lvheng Group, so that all the employees who saw it curiously asked Yan Xue, "Your boss hired a big Yanmar again?"

"I'm going home to rest, do you want to follow?" Seeing the mold sitting next door following in the car.

Brother Yu is served!

"Yes, if you don't agree, I will follow you wherever you go." Seeing his helplessness, Moyu said triumphantly.

In her opinion, this war will soon usher in victory.

To this day, things are more than just about ports.

And to prove one's ability and charm...

This is the mold that cares more about, she has never eaten such a deflation on a man.

No matter what, Mildew must prove that he can handle a man.

No matter what she wants, she can...

"Listen, I'm asking you seriously, do you want to go home with me?" Qin Yu interrupted her proud thoughts.

Mildew nodded uncertainly, because she heard something different in Qin Yu's tone.

It means that I don't want to, or refuse and expect to happen!

"OK, this is your choice." Qin Yu snapped his fingers without hesitation.

He Wu got it!

At the Waldorf Astoria, butler Yao at the door has been waiting.

"Mr. He Wu... Qin Shao." Old Yao smiled and bowed to him.

They are all old acquaintances, and Brother Yu's requirements and habits are almost the same.

When Qin Yu arrived at the hotel, the room layout was warm and ambiguous...

Mild's expression became more and more ambiguous, "Little guy, are you still in high school?"

Looking at the layout of the room, Xiaomyxiao smiled and showed off, "Sorry, it's so funny...it reminds me of the naive and interesting high school prom."

"Really?" Qin Yu turned around and stretched out his hand and dragged it down.

"Have you seen this in high school?"

"Oh~ buy~ Karma, oh... it's so big..."

Covering his mouth with one hand, the mold walked towards it uncontrollably.

Finally, hold it gently with your hands.

Obviously it was cold, but it made her feel the heat.

Mildew can swear, she has never seen such a big diamond.

beautiful!

It is like the legacy of the world, the shining orb on the scepter of God.

"How was it cut out?" Mould was really shocked.

About four or five centimeters in diameter, it looks smooth, but in fact it is a round ball with edges and corners to the touch.

"It's not a diamond, right?" The mildew's reason reminded her that it couldn't be this big.

Cut such a perfect diamond, such a size and cut shape.

How big carat is the rough stone?

3000.....5000.....

How could there be such a large rough stone without any flaws inside.

The transparency is so clear, I wonder if it is an illusion!

The mold seems to see a transparent liquid flowing inside, which is incredible.

"What do you think?" Qin Yu admired her performance amused.

Women's enthusiasm and obsession to see gems is absolutely impossible to see in other ways.

"Oh, unbelievable, unbelievable." Judging from his expression, the answer was affirmative.

This is a diamond, no doubt!

God, where did he get it from, outer space?

Mildew didn't know that his own wild thinking was the closest to the truth.

But she knew that she had completely lost her mind at the moment and was confused and sentimental!

Ah~ it's really big!

...

When the mold woke up from the coma, it was already the next afternoon.

Supporting his exhausted body, he walked strange crab steps to the small bar, and he poured a glass of water for himself.

咚咚咚~

After drinking three cups in a row, Mo Mo felt that his hot throat finally went out.

"Damn F-K, dog...F-K..." Seeing the empty room, the mold smelled fragrant.

He actually left himself in the hotel alone, after she was in a coma.

Mildew can't help feeling sad for herself, and a bit ridiculous...

Last night, she thought it was love!

Sure enough, he was looking at the man, his eyesight was so bad.

That's why...

Click!

The door opened, and Qin Yu, who was pushing the small dining car, walked in: "You are awake."

"Uh~ yes."

Just now, I was a bit dizzy about complaining about the mildew of the scumbag, and my brain hasn't realized what happened.

"Your breakfast, I made it myself." Qin Yu lifted the lid of the car.

Smiley omelette, two slices of whole wheat bread, a cup of hot milk and a piece of jelly.

There is also a dessert cake, simple but with great care!

The mold was dumbfounded, and was pulled by Qin Yu to sit on the sofa, eating breakfast with a fork in a daze.

Tears couldn't stop streaming...

This is the first time she has felt such pure love.

As for Brother Yu, he only thinks that the 10,000 cheque just written to the chef is very worthwhile.

Seeing the mold choking on my lap, I felt it was more worthwhile!

After tasting the breakfast together, Qin Yu took a shower in vigor.

After experiencing great joy and great compassion, overworked mold and mildew have to go back to the room to sleep.

She is too tired, both mentally and physically, very tired!

Putting a post-it note with a smiling face on the bed, Qin Yu kissed her on the forehead and walked out of the room.

This wave is stable!

Turn on the tablet and watch the real-time news on it.

The bald eagle is still looking for a breakthrough and wants to find a scapegoat for itself.

At the same time, he frequently provokes at the sea border, testing the bottom line and hidden cards.

In this way, they once again cast their eyes from outer space to the east.

This is not what Yu brother wants, it seems that the previous lessons are not profound enough.

Perhaps after confirming that the "aliens" also used gunpowder weapons, it greatly increased the confidence of the bald eagle.

So, there should be a jerky hit last time.

A piece of news inadvertently made Qin Yu's eyes bright.

Switching the information back to the page that was slid over, Qin Yu looked at the report above: "The International Space Station will stop operating, and the last group of astronauts will be evacuated today and return to Earth..."

There is a live broadcast, which is very nice.

Open note-search-click.

The live broadcast showed that the astronauts had left the space station, and there was no one in the space station now.

But the picture is frozen on the space station, and the commentary inside is telling of its former glory and greatness.

"Kirin, I think we have something to do..."

In the live broadcast, the promotion of the International Space Station has reached its peak.

People's emotions have also reached their peak, and they are proud of the glory and achievements they have made.

I am totally immersed in it, remembering how and how it was!

In this glory, a blue light suddenly appeared above the sky.

Cut through the sky and hit the "abandoned" International Space Station...

1 second, 2 seconds, 3 seconds, boom~

The bright explosion illuminates the sky again, accompanied by some shattered space junk.

"It's been a disaster and troubled year." Seeing that the live broadcast picture turned into darkness in the blue light, Qin Yu felt sorry for it from the bottom of his heart.

It's a pity that I couldn't see the final picture.

I believe it will be very exciting!

The destroyed International Space Station in the sky reminds everyone that the crisis is not on this planet.

It's on the planet, above everyone's head, 384,000 kilometers away.

That is the crisis they should be most concerned about.

The bald eagle people, who were about to be diverted before, once again pointed the finger at the white house.

This is a warning, a sequelae of the reckless decision made by the White House.

But it also shows that they are not as dangerous as humans think.

Otherwise, they don't have to attack after the astronauts have left, waiting patiently for so long.

In fact, the moment the "Hellfire" was detonated, it was possible to retaliate against the International Space Station.

No one thinks this is normal. Anyone who wants to retaliate against the enemy will choose to do so.

But they don't...

Instead, they waited patiently after the last group of astronauts left the space station.

Only use weapons far beyond the earth's technology to destroy the space station in one blow.

Therefore, this is a naked demonstration and warning.

We are warning all human beings not to provoke their patience, let alone think arrogantly and blindly.

The technology they possess is as crude and backward as the Bald Eagle said.

Experts from various countries began to analyze the power and range of the laser that destroyed the International Space Station.

The answer is amazing.

Because they found that this kind of weapon can also pose a threat to the surface.

In other words, the space-based weapons that all powerful nations once wanted to achieve and work for.

At this moment, it exists in everyone's head.

Anytime, anywhere, it is possible to fall from the sky and destroy everything.

At the same time, Qin Yu, who had just arrived at Seaview One, received a call from Bai Ze as scheduled.

"You did it." Bai Ze's tone trembled.

Excitement, fear, and various complex emotions made him unable to remain calm.

Although he had done the 3-second calm rule before dialing this call, it was useless...

"What?" Qin Yu pretended to be stupid.

"Don't pretend, you built the ecosystem, which you personally acknowledged." Bai Ze said.

"Yes, but it's just for farming." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"I~" Bai Ze didn't know what to say.

How you should talk to a person who is pretending to be stupid is not clear at all.

Because the other party doesn't answer No matter how you ask, it's like acting a one-man show.

Stupid and silly, but helpless!

"Qin Yu, if you really did it, the support you will get will only be stronger. Our goal is the same."

"Purpose, I want to hear what do you think, what is my purpose?"

With a solemn expression on Bai Ze, he took a deep breath and said, "Let our country be rich and strong, no one can bully anymore, dare to bully!"

The phone was silent, and Bai Ze waited restlessly.

He believes that his judgment is correct, and the expert's analysis will not be wrong.

but.....

"You are right, our purpose is the same." Qin Yu's voice finally came.

The moment he spoke, Bai Ze knew that he hadn't read the wrong person.

The dark clouds gathering above the head were blown away by a gust of east wind.

Chapter 804: Vulcan

Reached an agreement and just hung up Bai Ze's phone.

Qin Yu received a call from Ya Lan, which was a bit unexpected.

"International Space Station, you did it." Although it was asking, his tone was quite certain.

Last time, Qin Yu personally showed her the fireworks.

Before it explodes and burns...

That shock still lingered in Ya Lan's heart, after all, it didn't last long.

Now, again...

Although there was no shock from the fireworks last time, the consequences were more serious than the last time.

Laser weapons, a sword is hanging from everyone's head.

Maybe, when I was sleeping at home, the house with the people was gone.

Evaporate and completely become dust!

I feel terrible just thinking about it...

"Is Tongtong okay?" Qin Yu turned the subject off.

There are some things that they don't need to know too much. Besides, big news will break out soon.

"Very well, just arguing to see you." Ya Lan's tone became helpless.

Now, the relationship between his son and Qin Yu is closer than with her.

So what on earth did I give birth to, and why was it abducted easily?

If it's a woman, it's fine, but it's still a man.

"I will take time to find him and tell him that I will give him a surprise at that time." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

After dealing with Yalan's problem, Qin Yu received a call from Xu Meixin: "Boss, the person you want is here."

"Who?" Qin Yu was surprised.

People, has he ever wanted anyone?

...

...

Abandoned City, T2, Qin Yu appeared on the new Lawrence Canopy.

He Wu succeeded Xu Meixin in the cab and shouldered his own work and responsibilities.

Xu Meixin came to the passenger area and reported the latest development to Qin Yu.

"The contract with Savannah has been signed." Xu Meixin handed the contract to Qin Yu, and then said: "But we still lack a candidate."

According to the previous plan, two goddesses will board the game cabin this time.

However, the image of the goddess of all equipment will be perfected, and the next time it will only be replaced, not filled.

However, so far they have only one candidate.

"The other is on the way, and should arrive in two hours. Remember to send someone to pick him up at that time, and I will send you the flight number."

"However, we do have one less person." Qin Yu wants to add another candidate for this shooting.

Mildew, I believe this will give all players a huge surprise.

At the same time, Beast will also collect her information and will appear in her image in the game.

Become an online elf for all players, and provide players with the consultation and search assistance they need.

"Can I ask the price?" Xu Mei asked curiously.

"It's free." Qin Yu smiled, this was requested by Momo.

She is very excited to be the intelligent AI image of "Ghost".

Before Qin Yu had time to mention the remuneration, she took the initiative to say that she could complete the work for free.

Therefore, hospitality is hard to resist.

Brother Yu can only agree...

However, Yu Ge also promised to give her an exclusive customized game pod.

Her personal portrait will be printed on the entire game deck, and the photo will be chosen by herself.

There will also be an autograph of Moyoo on it, and the color will be matched according to her requirements.

Unique, only belongs to her game pod.

This is worth a thousand dollars for an avid game fan.

Judging from the personal reaction of Mo Mo, it is more exciting for her than giving her money.

"Is Savannah already preparing? Did you tell her about the follow-up cooperation, including the promotion of some surrounding exhibits..."

Becoming a goddess of evil spirits is only the first step, and then there will be follow-up promotion and merchandise sales.

Including some CG short films, figures, pillows, posters and other peripheral products.

Miracle Company also needs to make money. They are not here to do good deeds and treat their careers as charity.

It's just publicity, not necessary at all.

Commercial value is the focus of this plan, how to realize the value of traffic and commodity expansion.

Brother Yu cared very much, because the money couldn't stand the burn anymore.

Leaving aside the investment in the City of Miracles, it is just the newly established "controllable nuclear fusion engine" project.

So far, 20 billion expenditures have been set aside, and the overall budget is as high as 100 billion!

That's 100 billion. How much will it cost to wait for the product to be put into production, I don't know...

Second, the research and development of the "liquid crystal" protective cover has entered a critical moment.

Money is like flowing water, continuously flowing into it, but no richer milk and honey are produced.

Fortunately, this situation will soon change, the big news Qin Yu mentioned earlier.

Mars base, the first immigrant plan in human history.

Two days after tomorrow, this five-year plan will officially meet with you.

Before that, Qin Yu needs to fix one thing.

First set up an aviation exploration company, and then become the sole contractor after the press release.

"Vulcan, that's the name."

Write the word Vulcan in the office, Xu Meixin took it and left quickly.

If you want to make a company from nothing in two days, even if it's just a shell, you need to hurry up.

Moreover, this time may be shortened to less than 24 hours.

"Boss, Miss Savannah is here." Sun Yuan knocked on the door and walked in.

"Please come in." Qin Yu said, turning the pen in his hand.

Savannah, who was so white and glowing, walked in lightly, "Hello, I'm Savannah."

The other party greeted Qin Yu in Xia Yu with his feet, and waved his hand cutely.

"Miss Savannah, welcome to the miracle." Qin Yu's standard Russian is amazing.

"Thank God, you speak Russian very well, Qin." Shavana said excitedly with folded hands.

Communication in the same language is more conducive to negotiation.

She thought that today was another day to rely on an interpreter to keep an awkward smile when the other party communicated in her native language.

"What do you want to drink?" Qin Yu walked to the bar.

His office is large, with a private bar, indoor golf, bookshelves and a door.

Inside the door is a rest room and a cloakroom, and the bed inside is big and soft.

There are velvet bedding...

Well, the topic is far off.

Savannah said that just drinking water, Qin Yu poured a glass of whiskey and gave her a glass of clear water.

"Thank you, Qin, your office is so big." Shafana pointed to the bookshelf curiously.

"Have you read all the books above?"

Qin Yu took a sip of wine and said calmly: "There is not a copy, it is just decoration!"

Savannah's expression was stunned, which was not the same as the plot she previewed in her heart.

At this time, the other party shouldn't show his own wise side, and modestly say that he has been superficially spent.

You can praise each other's knowledge in a surprised tone and let the topic progress happily.

Why can't you follow the script?

"Haha, you are the first person to tell the truth." Savannah adjusted her strategy.

Although the script was disrupted, the boss must be right.

If you are wrong, please refer to the previous article!

"Honesty is a quality that people should have, isn't it?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

"Of course, I like honest people." Savannah decided to show a little charm.

Seeing the arc of Qin Yu's mouth, Savannah continued to talk to him about the layout of the office.

"What's behind that door?" Savannah pointed to the corner.

"Oh, that's a place for me to rest, do you want to see it?" Qin Yu was about to get up.

Savannah said quickly: "No, I don't like prying into other people's privacy."

Qin Yu didn't force it, and re-settled and said, "Well then, can we talk about the details now?"

In fact, there is not much to talk about, just the specific image and the scope and direction of the subsequent commercial expansion value.

The image of the elves cannot be used, that is her most impressive role.

But because it was the role that the company previously advertised and customized, she has no right to use it again.

Therefore, the image needs to be changed.

Qin Yu thought of the most suitable role the moment he saw her.

Magic Warrior, a preview of the new expansion.

The wings formed by light and shadow, the white armor, and the image of dual-wielding rapiers will surprise her.

When asked the unicorn to present the image in front of her eyes, Savannah was shocked to speak.

"It...what is this?" Savannah was a little incoherent.

The projection in front of me is too real, as if it were real.

There is no flaw even with a smile.

Reaching out to touch her, the shock of the empty touch is even more intense.

"The highest achievement of the miracle company, AI intelligence, Kirin." Qin Yu pointed upwards.

"It manages the normal operation of the entire Miracle Company and is also the only person in charge and engineer of the IT department."

After hearing this answer, Savannah didn't know what to say.

She has been completely shocked, this must be the future world...

3025, right?

"Okay, now let's take a look at the effect of the short film." Qin Yu snapped his fingers.

The image of Savannah did not disappear, and more images appeared beside her.

The green grass, the blue sky and white clouds, the singing of insects and birds, a peaceful atmosphere.

The elegant fairy stood under the tree, looking at the distant scenery.

She is so flawless, like a fairy walking out of the painting.

Soft and tender, distressing.

Just seeing her, I want to protect her, for fear that the turmoil of the world will pollute her innocence.

Then, a huge fireball fell from the sky.

Suddenly, countless monsters appeared on the ground, and the grass withered at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The fertile land turned into scorched earth until it was polluted by demonic energy into a dark zone.

The city was destroyed and occupied, and thousands of people fell.

The flames soared to the sky, and the world was on the verge of destruction.

The originally weak body also fell in the flames.

The picture turned around, the white operating room was covered with ashes, and the girl with blood on her abdomen was lying on the operating table.

She was pale, her eyes closed tightly, only a weak breath proved that she was still alive.

The screen switched again, and countless robotic arms and doctors wearing masks surrounded the operating table.

In the hurried conversation, a group of data and drawings flashed before my eyes.

Then, the operation officially began...

Blood splattered, after undergoing repeated transformations.

The weak fairy put on the white armor and held the hilt with his slender, boneless hands.

The gentle complexion became firm and brave, jumping from the light into the darkness...

kill!

In the battles, the white armor was covered with gunpowder and blood.

The slender and smooth hands became rough and more decisive and powerful.

The only thing that doesn't change is the eyes that turn toward the light in both directions.

Chapter 805: Madoka is angry

"This CG short film is great, but... I didn't participate in the filming at all, so what do you want me to do?"

Savannah admired the short film he and the company shot, but she just sat here from start to finish and did nothing.

"You don't need to do anything. In fact, all we need is an authorization to attend publicity and release activities with you."

"It sounds like a charity." Savannah's expression became a little more unhappy.

"Do not."

Qin Yu shook his finger and denied: "It's appreciation. Because of appreciation, we finished these tasks ahead of schedule."

"But how do you... capture my movement, am I right?"

Savannah is not sure if what she described is accurate, but her meaning is very clear.

"At the moment you sign the contract." Seeing her puzzled expression, Qin Yu hooked her finger and said: "Come with me."

Bringing Savannah to the network department to signal everyone to continue working, Qin Yu took her to start a tour.

"There are multiple motion sensing devices here, which can complete the required scanning and data summary in an instant.

When you sign the contract, your physical signs, manners, walking posture, used expressions and even micro movements have all been captured. "

Savannah said incredulously: "Are you sure we are not in the future world?"

"If you think it is the future, then it is the future." Qin Yu pointed to everything around him.

"This reminds me of Battlestar." Savannah exclaimed.

"Ho~" Qin Yu looked at her in surprise, which reminded her of the Space Fortress.

If she was shown the 110-118 floors, would she go crazy?

Of course, Qin Yu would not show such secrets to outsiders, and few people in the entire company have seen it in its true colors.

So let her treat this as the future.

"The shooting is in the afternoon. Secretary Xu will arrange everything you need. I'm going to be out of company first."

See you who should have met, and they had a good chat.

Next, Qin Yu should handle something serious, and who should be the CEO of Vulcan.

Qin Yu first thought of Ye Jinlan.

Vulcan has only two investors, Miracle Company holds 80% of the equity, and Bai Ze takes the remaining 20% as a representative.

Therefore, the most important thing to do as a CEO is to deal with the court.

Ye Jinlan is the most suitable candidate, but he will soon be engaged to Lu Qing.

The scene where the king sees the king is better.

Yang Chengjun, sounds good.

But what he is best at is being a prodigal son, persuading him to fall into trouble, and Laliang's family goes into the water.

Don't look at his stern face all day, he was actually a sorrowful show.

This is his daily life. Let him sit in the office to handle official affairs and be responsible for handing over communication with Bai Ze.

Putting the two reckless men in the same room, Qin Yu worried that the office would be refurbished every other time.

There are no suitable candidates for the existing high-level management.

A radish has a pit, now there are more pits and fewer radishes...

Digging people, looking for headhunters.

"Secretary Xu." Qin Yu pressed the inside line.

Kengkeng, Sun Yuan walked in, "Boss, Sister Xu is not here, is there anything I can do?"

"I need the top domestic headhunting materials, good at aerospace and military industry, preferably senior practitioners."

What management genius, Qin Yu doesn't need such a person.

What he wants is professionals who can understand what the company is doing and what they should do.

After half an hour, Qin Yu got the list he wanted.

Seeing the detailed annotations and small print annotations above, Qin Yu's impression of Sun Yuan has changed a lot.

It seems that during this time, she did not stop herself and made great progress.

"Thank you." Nodding his head, Qin Yu began to dial one by one.

During the communication between Qin Yu and the headhunter, Sun Yuan outside the door remained excited throughout the whole process.

The boss praised me, my work ability is recognized, Yes~

When Xu Meixin came back, Sun Yuan couldn't help but want to show off: "Ah, Sister Xu, the boss was looking for you just now, you were not there."

"What's the matter?" Xu Meixin asked.

"It's okay, I have solved it, and the boss is very satisfied." Sun Yuan said triumphantly, raising his chin.

Tsundere expressions of "come and praise me, I'm great" written all over his face.

Touching her head funny, Xu Meixin said, "Be confident, you can do it."

After speaking, she pushed open the door of the office and walked in like going home.

Sun Yuan, who was in excitement, recalled her previous actions, her expression suddenly stiffened.

Why did she praise her compassionately, making Sun Yuan think of her little Teddy.

Every time he performed well, Sun Yuan would rub his head with the same expression, and said, "Good dog..."

"Yes, I need someone with enough experience...Age, no hard requirements, experience is not a hard standard, I prefer genius..."

Seeing Xu Meixin coming in, Qin Yu, who was communicating with the headhunter, motioned her to sit first.

After hanging up the last call, Qin Yu asked, "What's the matter?"

"Ms. Savannah would like to invite you to dinner, thank you." Xu Meixin said.

"Is there time at night?" Qin Yu went to adjust the schedule again lazily.

"It's your personal time after 8 o'clock." Xu Meixin replied.

"It is scheduled at 8:30." Qin Yu said.

"Have you found the right target?" Xu Meixin came to the table and opened the materials that Sun Yuan had compiled.

"No, the headhunter said he would hurry up and look for it." Qin Yu shook his head.

"Boss, I also know a few headhunters, it's better to give it a try." Xu Meixin asked.

"Good." Qin Yu informed her of the request.

Xu Meixin started to contact him in front of him, and she actually found a suitable candidate.

Zhang Wei, PhD graduated from Xi'an University of Technology, specializing in aerospace.

After working in the institute for three years, I wanted to change jobs because I couldn't make any money and I had some personal experience.

It just so happened that Qin Yu asked the headhunter to ask the other party to meet again at the company tomorrow.

Can it be done? You can only know when you meet.

"Let's have lunch together." Qin Yu checked the time and was about to go to the cafeteria for a meal.

I haven't eaten in the cafeteria for a while, and I don't know how the food is going.

"Good." Xu Meixin nodded to follow.

Don't go to the management stove today, go to the cauldron stove.

The employees usually eat here, but there is nothing else. Brother Yu just wants to see the standard of food.

He doesn't stop at any time to make money.

But you have to earn what you should earn, and you can't take what you shouldn't earn.

If the food in the cafeteria is not good, the employees will have anger in their stomachs. If there is anger, they will definitely not be able to work well, which will affect the efficiency.

If the benefit is affected, the money made will definitely be less.

Therefore, it is definitely not enough to take your interests above mine.

"Hey, it's the boss."

"Hi boss."

"Boss, Secretary Xu."

Upon hearing the greetings, the employees all found Qin Yu and Xu Meixin.

"Sit down, sit down and eat."

Qin Yu raised his hand and said with a smile: "I'm here to squeeze rice, are you sure to push it out?"

The employees roared with laughter, and Qin Yu continued: "What should I do? I'll leave when I finish the meal. I won't disturb you, haha..."

As Qin Yu said, he and Xu Meixin took a dinner plate and came to the dining window.

Today is beef stew with potatoes, braised pork with soy sauce, three fresh vegetables, and seasonal vegetables.

The color, fragrance, and collocation are also very comprehensive. Both men and women have taken care of it.

There are two kinds of soup, the same is white fungus and lotus seed soup, the same is tomato, vegetable and egg drop soup.

One sweet and one salty, Qin Yu let Xu Meixin serve a bowl.

"Yes, I think I can come to the cafeteria more often in the future. It's better than what I eat on it." Qin Yu said jokingly.

The auntie who was cooking also responded with a smile: "Then we must be welcome, boss, you should come often."

After talking and laughing, Qin Yu and Xu Meixin left with the dinner plate.

Staying here is constrained by the employees, and they can't let go of anything, for fear that even the boss might not like it.

Qin Yu didn't want to be sneaked at, and had dozens of pairs of eyes growing on his body during a meal.

Carrying it around again, back to the management restaurant, and then sit down and dine together.

The dishes and soup are nothing to fault, the ingredients are solid, and the cooking is very solid.

The taste is homely, if you have to compare it with a five-star hotel, it is purely a matter of trouble.

"The contracting fee will be lowered again. We don't rely on the cafeteria to make money." Qin Yu confessed to Xu Meixin after eating.

When the boss came back from the purchase in the afternoon, she found Xu Meixin was waiting for herself.

With a "thump" in my heart, my heart said it was broken.

The boss came for dinner at noon and asked the secretary to come to him in the afternoon.

This is definitely not a good thing, but he feels that he has done nothing wrong.

Regardless of the materials and prices, I dare not say that it is the best, but at least it is something serious and worthy of my conscience.

There is absolutely no fraud, greed of ink, and the like.

Seeing Xu Meixin, the boss pleased and laughed: "Secretary Xu, what's the matter?"

"It's okay, don't worry, the boss is very satisfied with today's dishes and wants you to keep doing it."

Hearing what Xu Meixin said, the boss's heart was immediately relieved.

"In addition, the boss hopes that you can maintain the quality of the canteen."

"It is necessary. It is definitely necessary. Secretary Xu can rest assured that I will definitely not do anything to apologize to my conscience."

"Ok."

Xu Meixin came to the topic now, "The boss said that the price of raw materials is also rising, and it is not easy for you to work so hard.

So in terms of contracting fees, I will give you another drop. This is a new contract. Take a look. "

"Contract?" The boss's heart just let go of it came up again.

This is not just talking about price cuts and compassion, but actually wanting to get yourself out and take the contract to set it down?

When the boss opened the contract, he found that the terms in it were very simple.

That is, the new contract price is clarified, and other terms of UU Reading www.uukanshu.com will continue to be implemented in accordance with the old terms.

As long as you sign this contract, you can earn more than 50,000 or 60,000 a year if you talk less.

The son's tuition is available, and the family has money to build a new house.

This boss Xiao Qin is really nice!

After signing a new contract with the cafeteria boss, Xu Meixin returned to the office to learn that the boss had already left.

"Did the boss say where to go?" Xu Mei asked curiously.

Sun Yuan raised his brows with a cold face: "I don't know, how dare I inquire about the schedule of the boss, aren't you the boss's accompanying secretary?"

Listening to her bulging tone, Xu Mei squeezed her face in her heart.

In Sun Yuan's annoyed expression, he smiled and said, "Why, we Madoka is angry, be good, what should I tell my sister."

"...You are not allowed to use me as a dog, be careful when I bite you." Sun Yuan pouted, and her big round eyes stared at her fiercely.

Chapter 806: dowry

Driving the car home, Qin Yu found that the garage was full and there was a Q7 parked at the door.

Well, it's the quasi-in-law's family here.

Backing the car back to park on the side of the road, Qin Yu walked home.

"Mom." As soon as he entered the door, a lively greeting came from the living room.

He Hong cared about Qin Yu more than his old mother, and greeted him beamingly, "Xiao Yu is back, we are talking about you!"

"Auntie." Smiling politely, Qin Yu teased: "Is my mother saying something bad about me again."

"I said bad things about you, but you still know how to come back." Master Mother sat peacefully in the living room.

I didn't see the shadow of Lao Qin and Lu Guohui, they must be drinking tea outside!

Lu Qing was sitting next to her mother, but people remembered it, but it was a pity that the master of the mother could only cast a helpless look at Qin Yu.

"Cauldron, cauldron, hug." Xiao Budian rushed over, pouting his **** to give him a hug.

"How old are you, you still have to hug and go." Give him a look and realize it by himself.

The little pumpkin jumped up super cleverly and hugged his leg.

Wherever Qin Yu went, he was hanging on his lap, which was kind of fun.

When Qin Yu sat down on the sofa, the little pumpkin sat on his feet, turned around and touched the watermelon slices on the coffee table, "Bhachpach" and ate it.

After eating, he wiped his hands covered with watermelon juice on Qin Yu's pants.

Um~

It's so convenient!

Qin Yu also tossed with him, took a look at the list on the table, and said, "Is this a matter of discussing the engagement?"

"No, it's been only two months, and the preparation time is a bit tight now." He Hong said with a smile.

"Master, you also worry about it, how do you arrange the hotel?" Master Mother kicked the ball in front of Qin Yu.

"Just the best, is W Hotel okay?" Qin Yu asked.

"W Hotel is ok. I have been there and the environment is very good." He Hong said.

"Since your Aunt He is satisfied, it's set."

Master Mother nodded, and then said, "Where's the ring! When will you take Qingqing to choose?"

"Mom, I have chosen everything." Qin Yu looked at the three women and said with a smile: "Don't worry, you will be satisfied by then."

Seeing his triumphant look, Master Mother rolled his eyes and said, "This is what you said, it won't work if you are small, you can't wrong us Qingqing."

Her mother-in-law is now firmly standing on the side of the prospective daughter-in-law.

It's not easy for anyone to come here, just my mother.

When the wife is satisfied, she can live a stable and stable life.

Only when the family is in harmony can we make money and move forward.

As the saying goes: home and everything flourish.

"I promise you are all satisfied, and there are surprises!" Qin Yu blinked at Lu Qing.

Lu Qing lowered his head and said nothing, but the joy in his eyes overflowed.

Everyone can see how excited she is.

"Others..." Master Mother said again.

Qin Yu hurriedly waved his hand to beg for mercy, and said, "Okay, my mother, you can spare me, can you arrange the rest with Aunt He?"

"Qingqing and I are still young and don't understand these things. They will not look good at that time, and everyone will not be able to make ends meet."

What Qin Yu said, Liang Chuyu is really not good at forcing him.

Look at the two old mothers getting together, what do you give, what do I deserve, they have noses and eyes.

Qin Yu hooked towards Lu Qinggou and ran upstairs quietly.

The only uncomfortable thing is that there is still a drag oil bottle hanging on his leg, and he is holding an apple "crunchy" Zhengxiang in his hand.

"My husband, my mother brought me here." Lu Qing explained first when he went upstairs.

She didn't want Qin Yu to feel that she couldn't wait to marry and was putting pressure on him.

"What do you think?"

Qin Yu rubbed her head and said amusedly: "It's time to make preparations for what was said to be a good thing.

I just heard from my mother that 8.88 million was given to the bride price, and the aunt said 13.14 million would be returned. I didn't think it was necessary. "

"Why is it unnecessary? My parents are just such a precious daughter of mine. Fortunately, you gave 8.88 million as a dowry. Unfortunately, I accompany my dowry!"

Lu Qing argued with reason, and she had decided to accompany the dowry.

Not only this, there are also two teaching funds run in her name, two shops, one luxury car, and four houses.

There is also a part of the shares allocated to her. At present, Lu Guohui is getting people to do it, and it will definitely be done before the engagement.

"Good guy, are you trying to let me eat soft rice?" Qin Yu was shocked.

Doing a random calculation in my mind, the dowry is over 100 million.

"Hmph, I'll let my sister raise you in the future, little milk dog." Lu Qing stretched out his finger arbitrarily and said arrogantly under Qin Yu's chin.

"Hey~"

Qin Yu was amused and nodded, "Okay, sister, it happened that the doctor said that I have a bad stomach, and it's good to eat something soft."

He pretended to be squeezing orchid fingers while speaking, with a bitter and charming expression...

"Hahaha..." Lu Qing was amused by his enchanting expression.

"Officials, you have to cherish others." Qin Yu pinched the orchid finger and stretched out his hand to touch Lu Qing.

From her shoulder to the willow waist, Lu Qing smiled even more madly.

Tears burst out...

Underground, the little pumpkin holding Qin Yu's calf looked blankly.

He only felt something strange in the air volatilizing, he felt cold all over, and he felt sick in his heart.

"Oh~" The sour apple was vomited all over the floor.

Qin Yu and Lu Qing, who were frolicking, froze in an instant.

"Why are you vomiting?" Liang Chuyu swept the vomit on the ground with the broom, and the aunt ran to get the mop and water to drag it.

The carpet was taken away, it must be unusable, it must be replaced with a new one.

As for the little pumpkin, this will be tangled in his arms by He Hong.

The little head is full of question marks!

Just now, what happened...

"Auntie, let me come!" Lu Qing stepped forward again to grab the broom from Liang Chuyu's hand.

"Don't move, it's dirty, the kids can't clean it up." Liang Chuyu smiled and pushed her away and cleaned it up.

"Okay." Handing the broom to the aunt, Liang Chuyu asked him to take the carpet in the storage room and put it on.

Spray some freshener again, and the smell in the air immediately becomes more comfortable.

"I took the child away. You two watch the time and remember to come down to eat." Liang Chuyu and He Hong left the room.

Before leaving, He Hong blinked at her daughter.

Lu Qing's expression turned red, and she glanced at her arrogantly, let her go quickly!

When is this, always thinking about letting oneself get fire.

Does that mean that you can get it when you take it?

However, Lu Qing was still a little puzzled, so many times, why his stomach never moved.

Is it because I have a problem, or...

"Husband."

"Ok?"

Lu Qing, who rested his head on Qin Yu's chest, asked sadly, "Well, we haven't used any measures, why don't we see any movement?"

"Why, do you want to be a mother?" Qin Yu asked in surprise.

"No..." Lu Qing rolled over and said, lying on his stomach facing him, "It just feels so strange."

It stands to reason that there is a reaction to this hundreds of times.

Normal reasoning must be like this, and there is no sign of any movement.

"Don't worry, we are still young, it may not be the time yet." Qin Yu comforted her by touching her hair.

Qin Yu naturally knew the reason.

It is not strange that Lu Qing has such doubts, because he has no system of his own.

Do not take any defensive measures, until now there is no movement, I must doubt it.

"But I'm a little scared, in case it's my problem." Lu Qing looked at him worried.

"will not."

Qin Yu said firmly: "There will be no problems, trust me."

Hearing the confidence in his tone, Lu Qing inexplicably left his worry behind.

She didn't know why this happened, maybe because of her trust in Qin Yu.

But she did find peace and tranquility.

In fact, this worry was not caused by her in the first place.

At the beginning, she was even immersed in happiness without considering this issue.

It was He Hong's reminder that made her realize that the two had never done anything.

According to common sense, there should be some results.

Ok!

Now let these all go to S, she just wanted to lie quietly in Qin Yu's arms, smelling his smell, and just lie down so quietly.

At dinner time, the two went downstairs together.

The table was already full of sumptuous dinners, and Lao Qin and Lu Guohui also appeared on the table.

After drinking an afternoon tea, both of them will be hungry.

"Have you discussed it?" Old Comrade Qin asked, holding his food.

"It's almost done. Hotel Xiaoyu is scheduled to be at W. I will leave it to him. He also said that he is ready for the ring, right?"

Liang Chuyu looked at her son, and saw that he nodded affirmatively before continuing: "The rest are invitations from relatives and friends. There are souvenirs that need attention in the ceremony..."

"Auntie, it doesn't need to be too complicated, it's just that the two families eat and eat together, and it's just a gathering for everyone."

Lu Qing said with a smile, she understood Qin Yu's thoughts very well.

Overly complicated rituals will make him feel impatient.

It is also inconsistent with his personality. If it is posted on the Internet, the private affairs of the two families will become the focus of public opinion.

Neither the Qin family nor the Lu family would be happy.

"That's also true. I still have to remind the guests when the time comes, filming can be done, or posting to Moments, but it is better to talk as little as possible.

On festive days, it's okay to take some short videos and post to Moments.

However, there is no need to disclose the information of my family and Lu's family. No one wants to make people slap their phones in the face when I go out in one day at UU reading www.uukanshu.com.

They are ordinary people and want to live a peaceful life as ordinary people.

Otherwise, Lao Qin and Liang Chuyu could retire long ago, so why bother to work every day.

Being rich doesn't mean that you have to change your current life. The two have become accustomed to the previous pace of life.

Calm, low-key, some quarrels and stumbling.

But it is more about laughter and happiness, and occasionally travel, sit together and chat, watch TV.

That's how life goes, it doesn't have to be a big change.

Of course, the overall details and quality must be improved.

Liang Chuyu is also very comfortable with this kind of improvement. No one will dislike their quality of life and move to a higher level.

Especially for a woman who has to take care of her family and her work.

The current life is exactly what she yearns for...

Chapter 807: The key point of the relationship

After dinner, Qin Yu was responsible for sending Lu Qing's family home.

Originally Liang Chuyu wanted him to take Lu Qing to the nightlife that belonged to young people, but Qin Yu said that there was still work to be done.

This proposal is over.

Lu Qing also said decisively that he would just go back with his parents in the car.

There is no need for Qin Yu to send her a special trip, which will make his meeting late.

This is a taboo in business!

If you can't even keep the time, what can you expect from this person?

Watching the Q7 on behalf of the driver, leaving with Lu Guohui's family.

Qin Yu talked to his parents and walked to the door to drive away.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he saw that his Rafa was full of people.

Two little internet celebrities are taking pictures in front of the car, and the people in the line behind are waiting half-boringly.

Sure enough, places with traffic will never lack their presence.

Putting on the mask, Qin Yu walked straight to Rafa.

Beep~

With the sound of the engine, Qin Yu opened the door of the cab and sat in.

The little internet celebrity in front also hurriedly avoided, looking at the cab with excitement.

Keng Keng~

"Little brother, can I add you a WeChat account?" The little net celebrity said gently with her hair.

"No." Lightly stepped on the accelerator, and Rafa drove away.

The little internet celebrity who was left hanging on the spot said embarrassingly: "What's so great, crazy!"

Arriving at the restaurant agreed with Savannah, it was only a minute before 8:30.

Stepping on the dot to enter the box, Savannah was just brushing her phone boredly by herself, "Qin, you are here."

"Sorry, there is a traffic jam on the road." Qin Yu pulled a chair and sat down, which was an excuse for unsuccessful attempts.

Because any big city now faces the dilemma of traffic jams.

Especially during the peak period, and the peak period at night is extra long...

"Have you ordered?" Qin Yu asked after taking off his mask, picking up the menu.

"No, I don't know your taste." Savannah said with a smile.

"I'm not picky eaters, as long as normal humans can eat, I can eat." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"So, can you recommend a few of your favorite dishes for me?" Savannah wanted to get closer to each other.

The business of Miracle Company is so wide that it was only after learning more about it that Savannah really realized what kind of behemoth she was working with.

It can be said that such a big company can allow her to eat for a lifetime and live well.

As long as we can maintain a good cooperative relationship...

Of course, there can be more personal training beyond this.

Although Ivana doesn't like this, reality is always crueler than dreams.

Changed her position to Qin Yu's side, Safana took the initiative to approach, put her head together and chose the dishes on the menu with him.

"Hot pot is a kind of magical food, and everything becomes delicious once it is rinsed in it.

If I have to say what I like to eat, then these are my favorites. "

Qin Yu swiped his finger on the menu, and Savannah immediately said that all dishes would be served.

"Okay." The waiter nodded and recorded, but his eyes kept drifting towards Qin Yu.

Such a handsome little brother was taken over by a foreign lady.

Not reconciled!

But this foreign lady is too good-looking, and she can't afford to be jealous.

"The person is beautiful like a fake, and I am so ugly, oh!" After recording all the requests, the waiter covered his mouth and left in pain.

For a long time to come, she will be melancholy because of today's shadow.

Life is too difficult!

"Qin, I have to say that your choice is great, these foods are so delicious."

The pot was scorching hot, and Savannah's nose was full of fine sweat.

But she still didn't want to stop, it was so delicious.

Since coming to Xia Country, her favorite is hot pot.

In fact, when many foreigners came to Xia, the first thing they accepted was hot pot.

It can be said that it is a magical dish.

Because no matter what you like to eat, you can turn decay into magic in the hot pot.

The existence of dipping material makes it full of endless changes.

It's hard for someone to dislike it, just like Savannah.

This is not the first time she has eaten hot pot, but she still loves...

Although there was a little exaggeration, it was also to narrow the distance with Qin Yu.

Whispering conversations about the differences between the two countries, Qin Yu mentioned his experience in Barrow.

"Have you lived in Barrow?" Savannah looked at him in surprise.

"It's just going on vacation. It's a short period of time, but it's beautiful." Qin Yu said with a smile.

He missed his time in Barrow very much. If he has time, he must go hunting and steaming in the sauna again.

Run to the ice lake like a madman, falling vertically like a cannonball.

"It's incredible, I think it's hard to meet someone who likes ice baths in Xia Guo." Savannah covered her mouth and laughed.

"No, no, there will never be a lack of brave people in Xia Guo." Qin Yu raised his arm and made a bodybuilding action.

"Feel it." Qin Yu tilted his head towards his bulging muscles.

Savannah placed her hand on it temptingly, hard, strong and powerful, full of hot temperature.

"So strong muscles." Savannah said with twinkling eyes.

"There is something stronger, do you want to touch it?" Qin Yu teased.

"Of course." Savannah picked up the beer and took a big gulp.

She was so thirsty, there seemed to be a fire burning in her heart.

This man exudes the charm that can poison women...

After experiencing Qin Yu's abdominal muscles and chest muscles, Savannah's face was already blushing.

Taking advantage of the drunkenness, Savannah said seriously: "Qin, can I ask you a question?"

"Of course." Qin Yu nodded leisurely.

"Which one do you think is more important for the communication between the body and the spirit in the relationship?"

"Of course it's the body, because only through the body can one touch the ethereal spiritual level."

"So, now we should talk about the most important key point in the relationship."

Savannah sat sideways, facing him, and pressed her two index fingers together.

Then in Qin Yu's sight, the distance between the index fingers gradually opened...

When she separated her two fingers, Qin Yu probably understood what she meant.

5cm.....10cm.....15cm.....20cm.....

When the distance between the two had reached 20cm, and Qin Yu still had nothing to say, Savannah's brows raised involuntarily.

In a worried tone, he said, "I am beginning to feel worried about the girl you associate with."

"You won't understand the taste." Qin Yu responded with amusement.

25cm, the speed of finger stretching becomes slow.

At about 28cm, Qin Yu raised his brows.

Savannah's fingers were also frozen in the air, her expression full of astonishment and surprise.

Really?

"Maybe you should try it yourself." Qin Yu threw an olive branch to her.

Seeing it is all imaginary, and the silver-rod wax gun tip is not news.

Only after personal experience can you understand what a real gun is...

Savannah is a little worried, can she withstand such a critical point?

To be honest, she was moved.

If you miss it, maybe you will never encounter it again in your life.

Besides, this man is really good!

People, always have some crazy memories when they are young, and regard this time as her willfulness and rebellion.

Enjoy the pain...or wonderful!

W Hotel, it was three o'clock in the afternoon when Brother Yu got up.

He got up late this time, mainly because the rhythm was a little crazy, which disrupted his original schedule.

It was supposed to go in the morning, but a phone call woke Savannah.

The dissatisfied little girl is about to come up...

How could Brother Yu be able to bear it? He pressed it directly for her, and was still not convinced after pressing, and then another two K-O rounds.

This made her convinced that she would be using sleep therapy to heal her injuries in bed!

Since it's been a while, Qin Yu is not in a hurry to leave.

By the way, find the hotel manager and talk to the other party about the engagement banquet.

"Qin Shao wants to hold an engagement banquet here. Naturally, it is a hundred welcome." Upon hearing the good news, the manager agreed on the spot.

People are the senior VIP customers of the hotel, and their influence is extraordinary.

If he is allowed to put the engagement banquet in the W Hotel, his popularity will immediately increase to a new level.

Celebrity effect is the fastest realization and the most influential.

Although Qin Yu said that this engagement banquet must be held low-key, but at least there should be something!

The welcome sign at the door, the big red banner that should be hung.

Well-informed guests, that must be indispensable...

The manager has also been in the hotel service industry for many years, and the rich all say low-key.

Really do it, are you keeping a low profile?

Even if you want to keep a low profile, you can't drive the guests on the pole.

Nowadays, business people have ears all over them.

The well-informed people are extremely well-informed, but if there is a little turmoil, it must be a brainstorm.

Anyway, low-key is definitely impossible.

People are indispensable, but Qin Shao ordered that the hotel must do what he said.

The layout of the venue, including this floral starry sky roof, is properly arranged.

There is no problem with lighting and technology. In other aspects, the hotel also has its own team. After making a plan, it will be sent to him as soon as possible.

Full of dissatisfaction, let's negotiate slowly!

The dishes, the highest standards, tobacco and alcohol are also all-inclusive in the hotel.

The profit here is not small, and Qin Shao also looks down upon it.

Don't be afraid of making money, Qin Shao directly pointed out that he wants you to make money, but there is one...

You have to get things done beautifully, but disclose them whenever they appear.

Money can't solve it Shao Qin, don't worry, all the focus of the entire hotel will be on this engagement banquet.

I assure you that there will be no problems. Even a small flaw is not allowed. "

The hotel manager patted his chest and assured Qin Yu that if he didn't even have this confidence, how could this hotel continue to work?

I really thought that if you just fool around with a star-rated hotel, it would be rated.

This was possible a few years ago, now...

To make customers dissatisfied is a chronic suicide.

Just wait for death!

"Okay, the prepayment is here. I believe W Hotel will not let me down."

After swiping the card and signing the contract, Qin Yu put things away, and after shaking hands with the manager, the other party personally sent him out of the hotel door.

At this time he has to rush back to the company, there are still people waiting for him to interview!

Chapter 808: I'm a good boy, my goodness!

Rafa was left in the hotel, and Qin Yu took He Wu's big handkerchief to the company.

He didn't speak all the way, because he was checking the reward.

"Congratulations to the host for conquering the faith of thousands of fans and letting her fall completely and receiving random rewards."

"Reward: Basic Theory of Nanobiology."

This is the reward obtained after the fight against the mildew.

Qin Yu hasn't figured out how to use it yet, because there are two ways to use the "Nanobiological Basic Theory".

One is similar to the previous empowerment, and the other is to become a book for the most self-learning.

In the long run, of course, the second one is more valuable.

But Qin Yu's worry is that no one can read this book, and it will become waste paper.

Sitting in Baoshan empty, no entry is allowed.

It must feel uncomfortable, so it's better to choose empowerment directly.

There is also a ready-made candidate, Jing Yuan, a fanatic.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to the host for possessing the chastity of high-quality human females and triggering random rewards!"

"Reward: Cosmic Energy Theory."

It was another book, Qin Yu was satisfied but also a little entangled.

Knowledge is the most precious of system rewards, as can be seen from the previous diary.

Titanium-magnesium alloy, its appearance has changed the development direction of the miracle company and the human science and technology tree.

Therefore, being able to obtain knowledge rewards is simply full of European spirit.

But what makes Yu brother entangled is that the starting point of these so-called "foundations" and "theories" is too high for them.

Just relying on their own ability to understand the knowledge in the book is a huge problem for them!

In the struggle, Qin Yu still made a decision.

"System, basic theory of nanobiology, use method one, target: fanatic Jing Yuan."

"Is the target locked, confirm to use?"

"confirm!"

Let Jingyuan understand this subject, and then reproduce it.

It doesn't seem to be a problem, and the great reforms and knowledge in it will make her famous.

The name of the miracle will follow her origins.

Three birds with one stone, why not do it!

"The reward has been issued, the coordinates are XXX.XXX."

The company headquarters, in the office.

Qin Yu found his "Cosmic Energy Theory" in the bookshelf. The cover is the vast universe.

It looks very deep, but the galaxy pattern above does not belong to any known kind.

If it were given to astronomers, a cover alone would be enough to cause a sensation.

"Boss, people are here." Xu Meixin knocked on the door suddenly.

"Let him in." Qin Yu put the book in the drawer and sat in her seat.

The frame is heavy, the hair is flat, and the smile is shy, with a bit of embarrassment.

He also carried an old-fashioned briefcase in his hand, the kind that his father had just started... bookworm?

Zhang Wei's first impression on him was not good.

Qin Yu doesn't hate nerds, but there is a premise that they must be taken care of by "moms" (captain).
There are many nerds in the Kuafu Institute, and Qin Yu occasionally finds them cute.
Occasionally, only occasionally...

But if you put the bookworm in a managerial position, it would be a terrible disaster.

Because of their weird brain circuits, they will mess up all the problems!

There is no doubt.

"Zhang Wei, please sit down." Qin Yu pointed to the opposite chair.

"Thank you, Qin Dong." Zhang Wei smiled shyly and sat on it.

"I think the headhunter has already told you the situation. Let me tell you what you think about the company first!" Qin Yu's tone was lazy.

Zhang Wei put the briefcase in his hand on his lap, opened it and took out a manuscript about two to three centimeters thick.

"Dong Qin, I wrote these, please take a look first." Zhang Wei handed the things to Qin Yu.

With curiosity, Qin Yu opened the manuscript.

The records inside are like work notes, most of which are very scribbled, and seem to be very anxious when recording.

It should be an idea that took time to record during work, or a flash of inspiration.

Halfway through seeing it, Qin Yu had already confirmed that this was the talent he was looking for.

Because the manuscript not only records a lot of practical data and inferences, but also some analysis on the development and prospects of the industry.

Including the unconstrained outlook, this is an active and thoughtful technical management compound talent.

"Anything else to say?" Putting down the manuscript, Qin Yu already had a decision in his heart.

But he still wants to hear whether Zhang Wei will give himself new surprises.

"I want to know whether the establishment of the company is related to the Martian immigration plan announced this morning?"

When the word "Mars" was mentioned, Zhang Wei's eyes were the same as searchlights with electricity.
Brush, bright and dazzling.

"You are hired." Qin Yu stood up and put his hand in front of Zhang Wei.

After a little hesitation, he held Qin Yu's hand, "Dong Qin, I still want to know..."

"You are right, Vulcan Aerospace Exploration Company will become the sole contractor for the Mars immigration plan." Qin Yu nodded.

In an instant, Zhang Wei held Qin Yu's fingers tightly.

It was a sign of excitement, and my dream came true in my lifetime.

For a person with dreams, death is enough!

"Zhang Wei, the outside world is laughing at our plan, saying that we are whimsical and want to run as soon as we can go.

Public opinion is under great pressure, so you have to prepare in advance. "

First take Zhang Wei to see his office, the 49th floor of the headquarters building.

Xu Hao, Watson, and the President's Office are on this floor, and now there is another Zhang Wei.

"I can stand it." Zhang Wei nodded.

After finishing talking, he scratched his head shyly and said: "In fact, I can't see those public opinions. I rarely read things on the Internet. I only look at some professional ones."

"That's good." Qin Yu agreed with his approach.

The spray is just like a fly. Although it is not deadly, it is disgusting.

The best at engaging people mentality!

If you are uncomfortable, it will be happy, as long as it is happy, let you die!

Ignore it directly, when it doesn't exist.

It's a smart person's approach!

"Boss, can you take a look at the working environment?" Zhang Wei looked a little anxious, and wanted to see the company's strength first.

He has only heard that Miracle Company is very powerful, but he hasn't seen it with his own eyes.

However, the miracle company did create a lot of miracles.

It deserves its name...

"In a hurry?" Qin Yu joked, "Okay, I'll take you there first."

Vulcan has just been established, but the required personnel are not yet in place.

Even the boss, Zhang Wei, has just started...

The equipment is definitely invisible, so there is no need to run it.

Qin Yu took him around in a circle and came to the factory area facing the back of the company building. He stretched out his hand and said, "The future Vulcan R&D center will be there."

Looking at the 100-acre factory area, Zhang Wei frowned: "Then, where is the launch pad base?"

"Just behind." Qin Yu pointed back again.

Zhang Weimeifeng is tightly locked. How can such a large place be enough, how to ensure safety, how to distribute transportation, testing, and recycling.

Miracle Company won't be too famous, is it a layman?

Zhang Wei thought of the rumors from the outside world, saying that the miracle had a profound background, and it was made possible by all kinds of care.

This made him feel inexplicably irritable, if that was the case.

What's the point of his job-hopping, just to raise wages?

By the way, he doesn't seem to ask about the treatment!

Zhang Wei's heart is more irritable, so what is he doing!

With one word, let people fool themselves before and after running, as if they have already joined the job.

"Why, I think there is not enough space?" Qin Yu asked amusedly.

"...Qin Dong, to be honest, I feel that security and confidentiality cannot be guaranteed in this case."

Those who do technology seldom get used to it in a straightforward manner.

Zhang Wei is not an old fritters in the workplace, and he doesn't know how to slap a horse. It is his style to talk about things.

"Haha..." Qin Yu nodded with a smile and said, "According to your understanding, it is correct."

"My understanding?" Zhang Wei was a little confused.

What is my understanding, so what is wrong with my understanding?

"In this way, I will take you to see something."

Qin Yu raised his foot and walked out, and said as he walked, "Kirin, tell Lao He to prepare the car."

"Okay." A unicorn's voice came from the headset.

But from Zhang Wei's point of view, it was very strange, there was no one in this corridor, who was Qin Yu talking to.

"Kirin is the company's AI intelligent system. You can call it if necessary." As he saw the front desk, Qin Yu stopped and asked for a headset.

"Here you are." Passing the headset to Zhang Wei, let him try it on.

"Kirin?" Zhang Wei looked up and looked around.

The performance of that grandma Liu made the little girl at the front desk twitching upwards.

"I'm here." There was an echo in the headset.

Zhang Wei's eyes froze right away, fucking, fucking, fucking...

"Kirin, pour me a cup of coffee." Zhang Wei.

"Sorry, I can't do it." Qilin.

"Kirin, can you have some music." Zhang Wei.

"Okay." Qilin.

"Kirin, can you help me order takeaway? I want yellow braised chicken." Zhang Wei.

"Okay, we have placed an order for you when you are starving, and choose the merchant with the best comprehensive score." Qilin.

Qin Yu, who was walking in the front, looked helpless, and Qilin complained emotionally in his earphone: "Is this what human beings call the nasty criticism?"

"He is not a nasty critic, but he is too surprised." Qin Yu replied helplessly in his heart.

How can a good aerospace genius be a nasty critic?

"Kirin! If I don't bring paper in the toilet, can you send it for me?" Zhang Wei.

"..." Qilin.

Qin Yu staggered, agreeing with Qilin's point of view in his heart.

Outside of professionalism, this is a nasty criticism!

Co-author of the AI intelligence that has invested hundreds of billions of dollars in research and development is finally to give you toilet paper.

"Okay, the car is here, don't play anymore." Zhang Wei, who was still intent on interrupting, got in the car together and drove to Kuafu Company.

"Go to the warehouse." When he was about to arrive, Qin Yu asked He Wu to drive to the warehouse.

Enter the warehouse where the "liquid spar" is stored through the small door next to it.

Before Zhang Wei had time to marvel at the "diamonds" in the full warehouse, the ripples that appeared in the central open space attracted his attention.

Then, his eyes were completely dull, what did he see?

I'm a good boy, my goodness!

Chapter 809: Leverage is a good thing

"What is this? Boss, what is this?" Surrounded by Xihe, Zhang Wei wanted to touch it but didn't dare to touch it.

Like a child who sees the toy he dreams of, he is happy and at a loss!

"It's not true...no, it's true, it must be true." Zhang Wei was already stunned and became incoherent.

"This is true, do I need to say it again?" Qin Yu came to her and asked in a mocking tone.

"No, no, I know it's true, but this...this...should not..."

This is a miracle of space history.

So, is the birth of Miracle Company to create miracles?

It sounds interesting, like a tongue twister!

"So, now you should understand." Qin Yu said.

"Understand what?" Zhang Wei obsessively stroked the cold machine with his hand, before hearing the answer.

Then he suddenly sobered: "Yes, of course I understand that we don't need a launch pad at all... It's like a beautiful artwork."

Seeing Zhang Wei's silly look, Qin Yu embraced his arms and leaned against the wall to wait for him to wake up.

It took ten minutes for Zhang Wei to wake up.

"Boss, when will we start?" Zhang Wei doesn't care about anything, he only cares about when he can see this technology.

"Start work when the equipment arrives. In terms of salary..."

"It doesn't matter, you just watch it and you can eat enough."

Salary, what is that? Is there Xihe Haoxiang in front of me?

As long as you have it, you can skip meals!

Qin Yu rolled his eyes and said to himself: "With an annual salary of 8 million, the company will provide you with a house and a car if you need it."

In addition, your position is the CEO and chief engineer of Vulcan Aerospace Exploration Company. "

After speaking, Qin Yu left the warehouse, leaving Zhang Wei in it alone.

The safety of the warehouse is naturally guaranteed by the [creator], and he does not need to stare at it personally.

"Boss, have you waited for Mr. Zhang?" He Wu asked curiously when he saw him getting in the car.

"Don't wait, let him take a taxi and go home." Qin Yu said with a smile.

He didn't know how long he would stay in it yet, it was good enough for him to play.

Zhang Wei didn't feel the car when he came.

Jumping along the path to the main street, smiling like a fool.

Today is the happiest day of his life.

If it weren't for the sudden power failure in the warehouse, the horn came out with a reminder of "alarm on countdown".

Zhang Wei said that he would have to stay in there for two more days. Food and drink are here.

"No, I have to go back quickly and come here early tomorrow morning." Thinking of the robotic arm I saw before.

Zhang Wei's heart was that the little deer ransacked, wanting a wife and children.

Isn't this big iron box more fragrant than that stuff?

At the same time, Brother Yu was making up lessons at Teacher Song's house.

"Sure enough, high school knowledge is more practical." Wearing big pants, Qin Yu got off the bed.

Open the refrigerator, take out two spherical ice cubes from the ice cube box, and pour whiskey for them in a square buckle cup.

Two mint leaves and a lemon.

They were all prepared by Song Yuqiao.

Although Song Yuqiao didn't care about her hatred on the phone, she got off work two hours earlier.

I made a special trip to the supermarket to buy everything, and bought Qin Yu's favorite seafood and his favorite cream flavor.

Song Yuqiao, who was still panting, also lifted the sheets and got out of bed.

Wrapped the bedding into a ball, Song Yuqiao hugged it and threw it into the washing machine.

Add a lot of laundry soap and liquid laundry detergent, but also bring some fragrance beads...

In this way, the cream and messy taste on the top can be removed.

"How about having hot pot for dinner?" Song Yuqiao, who was rinsing in the bathroom with his hair tied, came out wearing an apron.

The smooth back was exposed in sight, and Qin Yu couldn't help but look down.

White, tender, moist...

"I want to eat you even more." Holding her from behind, Qin Yu exhaled softly in her ear.

"Don't make trouble!" Song Yuqiao hurriedly avoided, but his body warmed up unconsciously.

His words and deeds are full of strong hormonal aura.

For women, it's like a chun medicine for walking.

Can't resist!

If anyone can fight against his charm, her spiritual world must be as rich as an enemy.

Just as he was talking, Song Yuqiao reached out to take the things in the cupboard above, paddling his feet, the rear bridge was very upright.

Brother Yu, who was standing behind him, felt that she should provide her with some help.

As a result, he generously provided his own leverage.

...

The principle of leverage is really easy to use, but it is a bit physically demanding.

When she got the peanut butter smoothly, Song Yuqiao had no energy to cook.

The seafood is clean and tidy.

Brother Yu has a knife and a pair of scissors.

It was neatly finished in less than 20 minutes, and they were all put on the table.

Open the bottle of Moutai again, let's work together!

To eat seafood, you must go with rice wine or white wine...

There is no rice wine at home, but there are a few bottles of Moutai, which were bought when Teacher Song's father came last time.

"Buy another box tomorrow. Uncle will be convenient." Qin Yu pinched the tongs with his fingers.

The edges and corners of the large pliers split open and opened them.

The white and tender shrimp meat was exposed to sight, and Qin Yu took it out and placed it on Teacher Song's plate.

"I want you to feed me." Teacher Song pouted, and touched the toes of her feet together, closing her eyes and looking forward cutely.

Seeing her mouth open with expectation, Qin Yu picked up the shrimp with a grin and put it on the mustard.

"Ah~" Putting the shrimp into her mouth, Qin Yu turned around and ran away on the spot.

"Ah, cough cough~ Qin Yu, I'm going to kill you." Song Yuqiao's face was distorted, her teeth and claws flared, and she lifted up the stool in tears.

But before she turned around, she tripped under her feet.

Boom!

Qin Yu's back slammed into the square lampstand beside the sofa, and Song Yuqiao slammed into his arms.

Sitting on the ground, Song Yuqiao, who was in his arms, quickly wiped tears.

Although the expression is still unable to calm because of the stimulation of mustard.

But she couldn't control that much, she wanted to pull Qin Yu up. "How about you, I heard a loud noise, let me see, do you want to go to the hospital?"

Qin Yu shook her head, took her by the hand and stood up.

Patting the back, Qin Yu said with a smile: "It's okay, just hit it, it's not a big deal."

"Really? Let me see..." Song Yuqiao said as he went to lift his shirt.

Qin Yu did not stop, after Song Yuqiao opened his jacket.

What I saw was healthy and strong muscles. I felt it with my hand, and there was no redness, swelling, or bruising.

"Huh, fortunately it's okay." Song Yuqiao breathed a sigh of relief.

She was so worried just now.

The corners of the four-corner table are very sharp. Normally, there will be a lot of injuries if you hit it as hard as before.

Now, the inner shame has turned into sweetness.

At the moment when he found himself in danger, the man rushed forward desperately.

She didn't care about her own safety at all, and protected her well.

That instinct and decisiveness before danger is enough to prove how important he is in his heart.

Song Yuqiao, who had just experienced several battles, was full of power at this moment.

She, now desperately needs a battle to calm her turbulent emotions.

"Kiss me!" Stroking his strong back, Song Yuqiao was already confused.

Gululu~

The hot pot kept bubbling, but the diners who were supposed to be at the table disappeared.

...

...

Monster.

Dozens of motorcycles are speeding through the wilderness, and these people are wearing big swords and their faces are grim.

Kong Wu is powerful, his limbs are sturdy, and his body exudes an aura of danger!

The demon hunting team of the Ministry of Truth was blocked by a group of [mutants].

The Judging House is fully attacking the headquarters of the Fosun Empire, and the Ascendant is intercepting the support from all sides and cooperating with the Judging House to fight together.

Under the leadership of Ann, the Templars raided the most important R&D and production base of the Fosun Empire.

Cut off the supply from the source, leaving the [mutants] in a dilemma.

The Church of Miracle Science, this time it does everything possible.

Except for the necessary defensive power and the high-level templar guarding the "Birthplace", the rest of the power was used up.

Therefore, it is now necessary for them to break the deadlock on the Western Front and further expand their war superiority.

Tie Ying Meng joined the war in the middle of the Western Expedition. From the very beginning, it joined forces with the Church of Marvel Science and caught the Fosun Empire by surprise.

The Iron Eagle Swordsman took advantage of the situation and drove from the south to the west, cutting roundly into the material reserve area in the southwest.

Before the Fosun Empire could react, it took down the defense force and huge supplies of the entire reserve area.

This batch of materials occupies two tenths of the Fosun Empire's total, which is an extremely terrifying amount.

Especially during the war, the Fosun Empire almost fell into disrepair.

There was even a split voice inside, but it was quickly suppressed.

According to the current situation known by the Church of Miracle Science, the rights squeezing within the Fosun Empire is very serious.

However, relying on the ruthless and cruel methods of the ruler, he just suppressed all the voices of opposition.

This shows that the opponent holds the power to suppress everyone.

Otherwise, the former aristocrats who were greedy for life and fear of death would have run away long ago.

How do you think they survived when the former empire was destroyed and the planet was attacked by monsters?

The hero has long since disappeared with the former empire.

Perhaps today's fertile land has their final contribution.

Have an iron-blooded ruler, UU reading www. uukanshu.com is not a good thing for the church and the Iron Eagle League.

Because this means that the other party will resist to the end, and they also need to spend more to end this Western Expedition.

The war has started, and now even if you want to retreat, there is no way out.

Once it retreats, give the Fosun Empire enough time to breathe.

Then what happens next time will not be the West Expedition.

It's an east march or a south expedition... or a two-lane battle...

The Fosun Empire has this potential!

Although I don't understand why when the monster army comes, they will lose so quickly.

But when fighting the civil war, the combat power it showed was amazing.

In particular, tanks equipped with split bombs are almost unfavorable on the battlefield.

As long as it is hit, whether it is the Templar, the Ascender, or the Adjudicator, it will turn into blood with a "boom".

Chapter 810: It's time to brighten up the muscles

Buzz, buzz~

Large trucks frequently enter and exit in front of the Miracle Company, the equipment required by the Vulcan Aerospace Exploration Company.

It is coming at an unimaginable speed, thanks to Bai Ze.

If it weren't for him, there would be a waiting period for these instruments from contact, pricing, placing an order, to the start of production.

Until the final delivery, it will take at least half a year.

In case of urgency!

Now, in less than a week, the required instruments have entered the venue one after another.

Zhang Wei was also liberated, so he didn't have to go to his small warehouse to guard him every day.

Although he was happy to do so, Qin Yu kindly reminded him.

If he is guarding Xihe like this, the blueprints of the battleship he has in his hand will be handed over to others.

Battleship, space battleship.

When Zhang Wei got the drawing, he said all the "graceful greetings" he wanted to say all his life in one go.

Then, the whole person plunged into it and couldn't escape again.

The King Kong-class cruiser is a new type of ship based on the fusion of Kirin's wreckage technology + Xihe + Falcon class battleship.

It is named King Kong because it is really hard.

Just like Qin Yu himself, even if it was a Falcon-class battleship from the front, it would be smashed into two pieces.

In terms of firepower, the King Kong-class cruisers have increased the number of near-anti-cannons and carried long-range "unknown model" missiles.

It lacks the most powerful attack method of the Eagle-class battleship, the energy weapon.

But it has eight robotic arms, which can easily cope with more complex situations.

In terms of power and mobility, the new cruiser has also been greatly improved and enhanced.

Today's King Kong-class cruiser is equivalent to an upgraded version of the Falcon (pseudo) planned to be built before.

It is more in line with its own positioning, rather than having a little bit of four different things.

Of course, because of the existence of the moon basket.

The mined helium 3 is put into use, and the controllable nuclear fusion engine provided by the lunar base is obviously safer.

Of course, these helium-3 were dug up by the way when growing vegetables.

As farmers, they will never forget that their duty is to turn the base into an ecological circle for human habitation.

Although progress is slow, at least it is not helpless.

Now in the ecosphere, peppers and potatoes are growing well, but...

They are a bit deformed.

With the potato skin and eggplant inside, the juicy potatoes must be a new experience to eat.

In fact, Brother Yu really wanted to try it.

It's just that he has been a little busy lately, and the eggplant and potatoes have not matured yet.

Their growth period is longer than originally planned, perhaps because of environmental problems.

No matter how it is simulated, the real is real, and the fake is fake.

To solve this problem from the root, unless the moon is transformed into the earth.

This, even for Brother Yu, belongs to the fantasy world!

The manufacturing drawings of the King Kong-class cruiser have been handed over to Zhang Wei, and then it depends on his performance.

According to Kirin's estimation, with sufficient personnel, a King Kong-class cruiser can be lifted off every six months.

But that is after a certain degree of experience and a mature production process.

Now, Qin Yu only hopes to see the first King Kong-class cruiser successfully lifted off within a year.

This is what he and Bai Ze have said, that they will use facts to slap the bald eagle in the face within a year.

Zhenghuan, the other party's recent jump, is mocking the newly announced "Martian Immigration" plan in China every day.

Bai Ze and the people behind him need Qin Yu to come up with something practical.

Smash the white teeth of the bald eagle, let the other party and blood swallow into the stomach.

However, there is a problem that needs to be solved before that.

Mars base!

While building the King Kong-class cruiser, Qin Yu also needs to make adequate preparations for building a Mars base in the future.

The moment when the first King Kong-class cruiser took off for a long voyage and reached Mars.

It is a good day for the official establishment of the Mars Ecosphere!

Before that, maybe it's time to brighten up the muscles and let the bald eagle know something powerful.

The [Xing Tian] that Bai Ze took away has completed its equipment. After arduous training, it is now able to form sufficient combat power.

It's also time for them to stand up and tell the world what the future looks like.

After Qin Yu and Bai Ze communicated their ideas, the other party said that they needed time to consider.

To put it bluntly, just ask for instructions!

Brother Yu expressed his understanding, anyway, he is a microphone, "The biggest deterrence of a single soldier is to let the other party really understand how powerful it is.

Hidden and tucked, the other party won't understand how powerful this iron knot is! "

"Don't you worry about what kind of trouble Xing Tian will bring to you after being exposed?" Bai Ze asked rhetorically.

"Do they have time to trouble me?" Qin Yu asked amusedly.

The crisis hanging over their heads is enough for them to keep busy.

It's nothing more than painless condemnation and protest, it doesn't matter, although it's good.

If the other party is so stupid that he wants to use "beauty tricks," Brother Yu doesn't mind having another dark side indulgence.

Last time I felt...very good, great.

"Boss, we seem to be in trouble." Watson's inside line brought some bad news.

In fact, it cannot be said to be bad news.

It's just not good news for her.

After reaching an agreement with BlackRock, let Li Zhen smoothly leave the three cores.

Watson has always played the role of related business contacts and coordinators.

But recently, Lee Fink personally intervened in this matter.

Watson's level is not enough to make the other person look at her differently. She can only get in touch with the assistant and she can't put her meaning on Lee Fink correctly.

As a result, the originally stable triangle began to show an unstable tremor trend.

This worries Watson a bit, and the subsequent volatility caused by it.

"I remember the previous person in charge, Ilibera Fink, did she make a request to meet?"

Qin Yu walked back and forth in the office and asked, if he remembers correctly, the last request should be in the new year.

"Yes, Ilibera has always wanted to see you, but was rejected three times by you." Watson said helplessly.

In fact, her phone call also wanted to remind Qin Yu of this.

No matter how you look at it, this sudden incident is like the father is trying to help his wayward daughter.

Since Qin Yu didn't want to see her, don't want to complete Watson's work smoothly.

It sounds ridiculous, but to a father who loves his daughter.

Nothing is impossible...

"Okay, I'll take care of this matter." Hanging up the inside line, Qin Yu asked Qilin to connect to Ilibera Fink's private number.

"Ho~Look at whose call I received, is this a miracle?" Ilibera answered the phone jokingly.

"Ilibela...Bella, can I call you that?" Qin Yu came up close.

Rejected a lady's request to meet again and again.

If the reason is the first, this will be a nice way to kill people.

"Only friends can call me that, so are we friends?" Ilibera asked rhetorically.

"Of course, BlackRock has always been one of Miracle Company's best friends." Qin Yu said haha.

"No, no, Qin, don't try to fool me, BlackRock is BlackRock, and you didn't answer my question!"

Qin Yu sighed when the other party said that: "Well, Bella, what do you want?"

"I want to meet you and talk about future cooperation." Ilibera said directly.

"It seems that you are not as priority as you said." A representative without power can determine BlackRock's future.

Nonsense!

"You are not as gentleman as you said." Ilibera shot back.

"Time, place." Qin Yu asked.

"In 20 minutes, W Hotel...If my investigation is correct, you have enough time to arrive."

Yilibela hung up, and Qin Yu also showed a playful smile.

It sounded that the other party came prepared this time.

Their patience is exhausted, and they are determined to win the "titanium rhodium alloy".

However, Qin Yu couldn't think of what the other party would use to impress himself.

Just relying on the shares given by Lee Jin...

To be honest, Qin Yu really cares about the upcoming cooperation between Sanxin Semiconductor and Loongson.

But it is limited to this, I want him to release the titanium rhodium alloy.

This temptation is not enough, it must show more sincerity to impress itself.

"Old He, drive my locomotive to the door." Qin Yu strode out.

Waiting for him to leave the company on a motorcycle, He Wu, who was standing at the door, asked curiously, "What's wrong?"

"The boss is going to see an important guest." Xu Meixin responded.

"It seems that this guest is not very friendly." He Wu saw Qin Yu's mood. It was not bad, but it was definitely not very happy.

"That's not what you and I should care about, Master He!" Xu Meixin nodded to him and turned back to the building.

He Wu also left in silence and returned to the driver's lounge.

Since the boss doesn't need him, he can take advantage of this opportunity to video with his daughter and talk about her recent experiences.

W Hotel, Qin Yu took off his helmet and put it on the car.

The waiter stepped forward to take over, and Qin Yu walked towards the hotel restaurant.

Ilibera was waiting for him in the restaurant, with all kinds of desserts in front of him.

And she herself sat cross-legged on the sofa, digging out desserts with a spoon and feasting on them.

Seeing Qin Yu, Ilibera with the cream on the corner of her mouth raised the dessert in her hand, "Would you like to eat it?"

"No, I don't like sweets." Qin Yu smiled and refused, and sat down opposite her.

"It's a pity, sweets are my destiny." Ilibera said, putting the last piece in her mouth.

With her sweet looks, it gives people a lovely sense of sight.

Seeing how delicious she eats, this sentence should be true.

Qin Yu will not be because of her sweet and harmless looks, UU reading www. uukanshu.com ignores the identity and background of the other party.

Swindle off the cream on your fingers, scrape off the cream on the corners of your mouth with your index finger, and put the fingers covered with cream into your mouth.

"Bo~"

After sucking cleanly, Ilibera showed a harmless smile: "Qin, we finally meet."

"Yes, I'm here." Qin Yu said, "So, what does BlackRock want?"

"Why do you ask, this is just an ordinary meeting." Ilibera looked at him suspiciously.

"Ordinary meeting?"

Qin Yu put his hand on the back of the sofa and cocked his legs and asked amusedly: "So, what are we going to talk about next, desserts?"

Ordinary meeting, as for making Ilibera Fink go all the way to the abandoned city, Watson, who was forced by Lee Fink to come forward, had to convey the message to himself.

Hehe, all of me are here, why do you take me as a nasty critic?
