Chapter 821: 5 kilometers seems to be unstoppable

At W Hotel, Ilibera pushed open the game cabin and let out a sigh of foul breath.

She was exhausted in spirit, and she was deeply afraid.

Because she just experienced a fierce battle in the game.

The medium-sized monster that suddenly appeared from the left side pressed her to the ground with lightning speed, and ravaged her to his heart's content!

Her body was in the opponent's hands, like a broken doll.

Torn, shattered...

Ilibera clearly remembered the feeling of her head being ripped off piece by piece.

She could even feel her brain exposed to the air.

Puff, puff...

The beating sound was introduced into the ear once and again, until the foul-smelling mouth with disgusting saliva hit his face.

"F-K~" Illibela hurried to the small bar, opening the cap of the whiskey bottle with trembling arms.

She wanted to find the cup, but she couldn't open the drawer.

Finally, he grabbed the bottle abruptly and poured it into his mouth.

"Gudongdong~pooh~" The wine in her mouth was sprayed everywhere, and Ilibera started coughing frantically.

Until she coughed and coughed, her nose and tears were flying everywhere, and she fell limply on the ground.

The crazy emotions in her eyes faded slightly, allowing her to find her former sanity again.

Although this saneness has always been accompanied by neuroticism that does not know when it will happen.

But it's better than fear...

"Now, I want to tell more people about this news as soon as possible." After resuming her resignation, Ilibera's first thought was to spread the news.

Tell them what happened, let more people walk in, and then take the "game" out.

Yes, there can be no exclusive advantage of the East.

In Ilibera's mind, 15 possible solutions appeared instantly, convincing miracles to make concessions.

Bring "The Scary Demon" to the Bald Eagle.

That's right, it's just a bald eagle...

She is not interested in making an appearance for outsiders, and she will not be so stupid as to actively attract outsiders to increase competition.

Dongfang is ahead of everyone, which is bad enough.

Now, the bald eagle has to go ahead of the others and widen the gap with the latecomers.

Even if you can't be the first echelon, at least you have to sit back and watch.

As for the others, they are not qualified to compare with the bald eagle...

Miracle headquarters.

"Qin, she has acted." Qilin's voice sounded in his mind.

"Really? What did she say?" Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"Same as you think..." Qilin.

"Really? It seems that the evil demon is about to become lively, and it's almost time." Qin Yu turned and looked out the window with a smile.

As far as his eyes can be, it seems to pass through the clouds, through time and space, and come to another vast expanse of galaxy.

There, a war is about to start.

The Church of Marvel Science and the Iron Eagle Alliance have taken an absolute advantage, and then they want to resolve the ever-increasing friction and conflict between the two.

It is necessary to find a new target and keep all eyes outward.

And this goal is the vast sea of stars.

As well as the devastation raging in this galaxy, the first King Kong-class cruiser will not be born on the earth.

Because the Ministry of Science has completed the first comprehensive inspection of the warship.

Star Wars is about to begin!

At the same time, a large number of talent gaps appeared.

Both the Church of Marvel Science and the Iron Eagle Alliance need more talents.

Not only internally, but also introduce from the outside to fill the gap!

However, the specific implementation plan requires further communication with Bai Ze.

Qin Yu's idea is very simple, with a great stick in one hand and sweet jujube in the other.

Whether they want big sticks or sweet dates, let them choose for themselves.

Regrettably, the bald eagle will definitely not be the first to get the qualification.

In fact, Qin Yu is more optimistic about Neon and Smecta.

These two countries are full of obedience, and it is time to worship their ancestors again.

In fact, there is a goal more suitable than them.

Barrow!

If you can really persuade Barrow to join, the power is not as simple as 1+1.

The pig sitting in the white house would be so terrified that he couldn't sleep at night!

Oh, forgot to say.

He also has an "alien base" on his head that may be troublesome at any time.

Qin Yu suddenly felt a little sympathetic, this little white pig who had been in trouble soon after taking office.

Gee, it's terrible!

"Kirin, help me pick up Bai Ze... Forget it, let Secretary Xu come in."

Qin Yu thought about it, but let Xu Meixin contact him, and it would be better to make an appointment to meet.

Talking on the phone is worse than being true face-to-face, and each other can really feel the sincerity of each other.

...

In Nanhu Manor, Qin Yu finally saw Lao Qin and his mother, who had been missing for a long time.

There are also small pumpkins that are driving a Mercedes-Benz small G and are over-excited.

"What's wrong with him?" Qin Yu looked at the living room, and the little pumpkin with little G was running around in the room.

The jingle clank rang endlessly, and he laughed happily.

"Eat too much candy," Liang Chuyu replied, lying on the sofa.

"Oh!" Qin Yu nodded.

Silently erected the "clang" sound of the collision between the front of the car and the wall, and waited for it to sound for the third time.

Qin Yu stood up on his knees with both hands, walked around the welcome door, and came to the staircase partition leading upstairs.

Qin Yu reached out and pinched the collar of Little Pumpkin, and lifted him out of the car.

"Let me go, drive, cart..."

Little Pumpkin opened his arms and kicked his feet to get back into the car.

Then there was a hot "pop" on the little ass, pop, pop...

"Wow, ah~~" The little pumpkin was placed on the ground, holding her * in her hands and crying wildly.

Then he ran to the living room, "Mom, hit me with a big pot, wow~~"

"Your brother's problem, solve it yourself." Liang Chuyu closed her eyes and calmed her mind. The arc of her mouth slightly raised means that she was in a good mood.

As for Lao Qin, before the younger son came in, he put the magazine on his face and pretended to sleep.

This kid has been too arrogant lately and has long wanted to clean him up.

But I just can't bear it...

Fortunately, my wife is smart, so he bought a bag of sugar for the little pumpkin at the airport.

I didn't care how to eat all the way, but I was waiting here...

Hey, have you been cleaned up?

Let your kid go crazy, Lao Tzu is not willing to smoke you, but some people are willing!

Finding that the backing was gone, Little Pumpkin cried even more aggrieved.

There are endless screams with big mouths, "Ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh".

Qin Yu sat down on the sofa, crossing his fingers and staring at him so quietly.

"Oh~" Quietly opened his eyes and looked around, but found that there was still no one to care about.

The eldest brother also looked at himself with threatening eyes, and the howling of Little Pumpkin was involuntarily reduced by a few decibels.

"Ahhh~" After crying a few more times, Little Pumpkin was completely desperate.

Seeing the eldest brother's crossed fingers loosen, he leaned forward as if he was about to stand up.

The kid rushed to the coffee table, grabbed a big pear, and rushed to Qin Yu again.

"Big brother, eat, sweet..." Holding the big pear in both hands, there were smiles on the little face with teardrops.

The little pink face and the big round eyes are moisturized.

To please the cute and innocent smile, you can't get angry even if you want to be angry.

Not to mention that Qin Yu is not angry at all...

After taking the big pear and breaking it, Qin Yu handed him half, holding the little pumpkin in one hand, opening his hands and laughing and giggling: "Big brother, hug!"

He picked him up and put it on his lap, and the two of them gnawed pears like this.

The little pumpkin is even more proud of the calf swinging, the beauty turned over!

For half a pear, the little pumpkin almost ate the core inside, and Qin Yu snatched it from him.

"Cauldron, want to eat, but also..." The little pumpkin rushed forward to grab the pear.

Put him on the table, ran over and took a pear and stuffed it into Qin Yu's hand.

"Let's do it alone?" Qin Yu motioned to him to get another pear. The pear was full of moisture and sweet, and it was really delicious.

"No, don't, divide, break it!" Little Pumpkin was upset.

As soon as he was about to shake his hands and stomping, Qin Yu's eyes lit up, and he became honest in an instant.

"Bo, muma, Bobo~" The little hand opened a series of kisses to Qin Yu, grinning shyly.

Yes, this kid will definitely be a scourge in the future.

Fortunately, I am not afraid of losing money, but his physique is more practiced.

If you don't drive at night every day in the future, how can your waist stand it!

"Mom, I have come back to live recently, and let Little Pumpkin run with me in the morning." As soon as Qin Yu's voice fell, Liang Chuyu sat up.

"Okay, this one is very good." Liang Chuyu said hello to auntie, and arranged according to Qin Yu's time in the morning.

Prepared breakfast for the two brothers, and then sent them to run for exercise.

What kind of sportswear, etc., are all in the room, and they will be cleaned up and replaced later.

"And those running shoes, from Hongxing Erke, are breathable and comfortable. They are very good. They are in the small shoe cabinet. Remember to wear them in the morning."

While talking about Liang Chuyu, he got up and patted Lao Qin who was still pretending to be asleep,

"Lao Qin, don't go to bed, go back to the house and wash and sleep again, so I am not afraid of catching a cold.

"Ah? Ah! Yes, yes, yes, go back to the house, go back to sleep." Old Qin covered his mouth and yawned.

Looking at Qin Yu, he said, "Then what, your mother and I are tired. Later you will watch him clean up and rest early."

Seeing the two people disappearing in the corridor with their front heels and back feet, Brother Yu was stupid.

Why do you need it in such a hurry?

"Cauldron, eat~" Little Pumpkin was still thinking about eating, and didn't even care about being dumped to his eldest brother.

Besides, there is nothing wrong with throwing it to the eldest brother.

"Sleep with eldest brother, sleep together!" Little Pumpkin giggled, leaning over Qin Yu's arms, so happy.

...

...

The next day, Qin Yu woke up with a pain in his face.

Opening his eyes, the tender white feet were stepping on his face, and the little feet kept kicking forward.

The person is not big, and the energy is pretty good.

Holding the ankle upside down, UU read www.uukanshu.com and slap twice on the butt.

When Little Pumpkin's blank eyes looked everywhere, Qin Yu was already standing in front of the window and stretching his arms: "Ah~ it's another beautiful day."

Wash your face, brush your teeth, clean up your clothes, and come to the restaurant hand in hand.

Auntie has prepared breakfast.

After breakfast, the two went to the door to wear shoes and leave.

Qin Yu opened the small shoe cabinet, "Good fellow, how many shoes did you buy?"

Big eyes swept 20 or 30 pairs, Hongxing Erke, Noble Bird, Nike, Adidas, Gucci...

There are any brands, and it's quite alive.

Think about it again when I wanted a pair of running shoes when I was a child, and I asked for a holiday, only to have such a pair during Chinese New Year.

Qin Yu looked at Little Pumpkin's eyes worse and worse.

Today, five kilometers seems to be unstoppable...

Chapter 822: Ritz-Carlton

"Get up!" Qin Yu lowered his head and drank coldly.

"Hmm~ no."

He held his calf in his left hand, Xiao Long Bao in his right hand, and the little pumpkin sitting on his feet just shook his head.

He doesn't want to get up, running is so tired!

It's still comfortable to eat buns on the elder brother's lap. When the eldest brother runs, he bumps up and down like he is sitting in a rocking cart.

What is the name of my father's father? What is the name of my father's father...

Boom!

The little pumpkin only felt his body for a while, soaring into the air and landing on the grass.

The little * becomes chilly...

Well, the thief is cool!

Watching him touch his * and continue to sit on the grass gnawing on the buns.

Qin Yu was so angry that he couldn't laugh or cry. Who did he look like this rascal?

Anyway, Brother Yu will definitely not admit that he has a little relationship with him.

How upright and promising young he is, who doesn't know?

After dragging his feet back home, he threw the little pumpkin that was eating the third bun on his lap in the living room, and Qin Yu turned around and left.

The child is out of help, let me go! !

"Hey, brother, why are you willing to call?" Qin Yu received a call from Yan Er while driving Rafa to the company.

"Brother Yu, guess where I am?" Yan Er responded with a smile.

"Demon City, where should you stop traveling? You won't be in the abandoned city, right?" Qin Yu responded.

"Hey, you're right, I'm still in the abandoned city, come to the airport to pick me up quickly." Yan Er shouted.

"Really?" Qin Yu was stunned.

"Can I lie to you? Xiaobai is also here. He is in a bigger car and has guests." Yan Er smiled mysteriously and hung up the phone.

Parked the car at the entrance of the company, Qin Yu threw the key to the security guard: "Let He prepare a commercial car and leave for the airport in 15 minutes."

Walking non-stop to the Vulcan Space Exploration R&D Center, Qin Yu found Zhang Wei, who was disposing of the research engine of sleep and food.

"how is the progress?"

Standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows and looking at the main control cabin being assembled below, Qin Yu was fairly satisfied with his progress.

The entire King Kong-class cruiser is 213 meters long and is planned to be equipped with four controllable nuclear fusion engines.

Because of its positioning, there is a transport warehouse at the bottom, which can accommodate three special vehicles and main battle tanks.

Because the hull is too large, the whole ship is divided into three parts to complete separately.

Only when the assembly is finally completed can it be formed in a true sense!

This is also the method used in "The Scary Demon", and now Qin Yu is here, besides caring about its progress.

There is also an important factor to enhance its firepower weakness.

The scientific treasure house of the Fosun Empire, although at the last moment, the imperial power armed forces wanted to destroy this precious knowledge.

But under the [templar mecha warrior]'s life-threatening attack, the emperor's final order failed to complete.

This is also an important factor that will cause them to suffer serious losses and almost disappear!

Now, the feedback given to Qin Yu by these precious knowledge makes this effort and sacrifice not in vain.

The super-heavy railgun, after Kirin's analysis, relies on existing knowledge to make up for the missing parts.

Let this extremely lethal weapon see the light of day again!

"I need you to add a muzzle on the bow of the ship, directly connected to the power cabin, it will become the King Kong-class killer."

Qin Yu handed a manuscript to Zhang Wei. The precise data and drawings on it made him realize that this was not a problem that needed to be overcome.

Just follow the design on the drawing, and the King Kong class will make up for its final flaws.

"It's so beautiful... We can design the muzzle into the shape of a giant hammer and add some curvature to the front to enhance impact lethality and reduce losses..."

Fuck, it consumes too much energy, so we need to add at least two more engines.

No, it won't work... if you do, the hull will be too heavy..."

Seeing Zhang Wei nodded for a while, shook his head for a while, was happy for a while, cried and looked like a fool again.

Qin Yu turned and left the studio, leaving the rest to him.

With the cooperation of Qilin, it is more reliable than Qin Yu staying here!

International Airport, T2.

Qin Yu received a cup of milk tea per capita, Yan Er and Xia Bai who were waiting on the side of the road...

And Xu Xixi, who is hiding behind Xia Bai, dodges his eyes with a white baseball cap.

"Xixi, long time no see." Qin Yu greeted Xu Xixi generously.

Unexpectedly, as soon as the voice fell, the other party suddenly burst into tears.

It made Brother Yu looked like a guilty man, but fortunately Xia Bai was still there, pulling her into the car.

"What's the situation?" Qin Yu looked at Yan Er.

"What else?" Yan Er said in surprise: "Did you not read WeChat?"

"??" Qin Yu took out his phone and took a look, only to find that Yan Er had told himself Xu Xixi had come in advance.

It was Xia Bai who brought her here. As for what she was doing, of course she was looking for him, a guilty man, to settle accounts.

"...When did your Xiaobai become a heroine?" Qin Yu joked.

"Who made her be warmhearted, just like me!" Yan Er hammered Qin Yu in the chest jokingly.

"However, you are cruel enough, but the other girl has been waiting for you."

He didn't talk nonsense about this. After graduation, Xu Xixi went to Yaodu with Xia Bai.

I have never looked for a boyfriend over there, and I heard Xia Bai say that he has been thinking about Qin Yu.

This time the two were about to come, so I brought her on to see if we could create another chance for them.

As for what to say afterwards, of course it's a joke.

"Okay, don't cry, don't you always want to see him?" In the car, Xia Bai handed the tissue to Xu Xixi.

Looking at her with a hatred of iron and steel, he reminded: "Don't make yourself a bitter woman, be careful to scare people away."

Xu Xixi sobbed away from her tears, raised her head to look at Xia Bai and asked, "Xiao Bai, am I wearing makeup?"

Seeing that her little threat worked, Xia Bai smiled and wiped her tears away, and said, "No flowers, it's still so beautiful, making my sister want to sleep with you."

"Don't talk nonsense." Xu Xixi lowered his head embarrassedly.

"Who is talking nonsense, you said you have to hang on a tree." Xia Bai still couldn't help but want to complain.

You have to have a figure, have a look, and you have the ability to make money.

She has a good personality, kind, and considerate, which is not worthy of a better life for her.

Why is it loaded in the hands of a scumbag...

She only dared to say this in her heart, and Yan Erke had warned her before coming.

Let them deal with the matter of human feelings, one willing to fight, the other willing to endure, and don't try to get ahead in everything.

Xia Bai was originally not angry, but he really saw Qin Yu.

When I found myself facing him, I was a little inexplicably scared.

She didn't know why, it seemed that he had the breath of a superior person, which made people unconsciously timid.

Just like meeting the head teacher when I was a child, I made no mistakes, but I was terribly scared in my heart.

Cough~

A soft cough came from the front, Xia Bai and Xu Xixi looked up and saw Qin Yu and Yan Erzhen walking into the car.

Sitting in the third row, Qin Yu said to He Wu: "Old He, drive to the hotel."

"Okay, boss." The front and rear partitions were raised, and the car started slowly.

Without Qin Yu's order, He Wu knew that W Hotel was definitely not allowed.

There are already enough people over there, and another one will definitely be overwhelming.

If this hits, it must be another good show!

Although Lao He wanted to watch the excitement, if his wages and bonuses were deducted because of this, it might be worthwhile not to watch the excitement!

So he immediately contacted Xu Meixin and got the exact address two minutes later.

Ritz-Carlton, the gathering place for Internet celebrities.

The sky curtain stopped in front of the red carpet. When the car door opened, the hotel butler and waiter were already waiting.

"Thank you for choosing Ritz Hotel. May I ask who is Mr. Qin." The butler bowed his greetings.

"I am." Qin Yu said, who had just got out of the car.

"Hello, Mr. Qin, I am your personal butler, Irene."

"The presidential suite you reserved is ready, please go here with the VIPs." Irene smiled and guided everyone to the hall.

The waiter also took the luggage and served with a polite smile throughout the process.

"Trouble." Qin Yu smiled and nodded.

The large space of 1,500 square meters can meet the needs of eight people at the same time.

The layout of the room is full of a mix of modern and Chinese styles, but it gives a sense of harmony and harmony.

160 flat open air private garden, office and talk room with strong privacy.

The fitness room and SPA room are mainly black and gold, creating a mysterious and ambiguous atmosphere.

There is an artistic bathtub from Italy in the middle of the oversized bathroom, and I feel an urge to soak when I see it.

Overall, I am very satisfied...

Looking at the smiles of Xia Bai and Yan Er, we know that they are also very satisfied. As for Xu Xixi, she will still be in a state of distraction.

There was only a simple greeting in the car. After that, Qin Yu basically talked with Yan Er about what he saw in work and life.

And Xu Xixi didn't know how to speak.

At this time, she was thinking about how to create a topic between each other so that the strange sense of estrangement would disappear as soon as possible.

"Ah, the room is good, thank you, Irene." Xia Bai slammed Yan Er, and he quickly took out a tip.

Then Xia Bai asked again: "Where is the hotel's executive lounge, we want to have a drink first."

Seeing his girlfriend's eyes, Yan Er glanced at Qin Yu and Xu Xixi next to him again, nodded quickly and said: "Yes, I especially need a drink now."

"You two, please come with me." Irene smiled politely and took the two of them out of the room.

As for the other two in the room, UU read www.uukanshu.com, she already understood everything from the eyes of Xia Bai and Yan Er.

Drip, Zizi~

The door was locked, and the room instantly became quiet, only the excitement of the heartbeat rang.

"I~" Xu Xixi mustered up his courage, raising his head and just wanted to say something.

A gust of wind rushed toward her face, her broad mind and strong hormones poured into her nose, causing her brain to fall completely.

So, nothing is needed...

Just a kiss, Xu Xixi was completely confused.

Whatever he wants, maybe, this is the easiest and best way to break the barrier that she hopes.

And his arms are as strong and hard as ever.

Thinking of what would happen next, Xu Xixi's body softened into a ball, and her beautiful long legs could no longer support her delicate body.

Fall into Qin Yu's arms and let it be at his mercy!

Chapter 823: Dating

No barriers can withstand repeated provocations.

What's more, it was a strong and resolute impact, which shattered the strangeness and estrangement within two strokes.

Familiar feeling, eh, it's back again!

When Xu Xixi woke up in bed and looked at the sleeping man next to her, her heart would have lost her previous wandering grievances.

After going round and round, she came back again.

You know my depth, I know your length...

After all this familiarity, Xu Xixi was terribly shy after thinking about it.

With his head resting on his chest, Xu Xixi couldn't help but raise his head, and sneered back and forth with the tips of his hair in front of his nose.

"Yeah~"

Shaking his head, Qin Yu hugged her without opening his eyes.

In Xu Xixi's "Ah" scream, one turned over and pressed her under him.

"Little white rabbit, are you provoking me?"

"I don't have it, it's not me,ahaha..."

Being itchy all over Qin Yu, Xu Xixi whirled back and forth begging him for mercy.

Keng Keng!

"Are you two enough? Xixi, I'm almost starving to death." Xia Bai knocked on the door and asked.

Xu Xixi panted and pushed him away with flushed cheeks, trotting forward and opened the door.

"Xiao Bai, I... just resting."

"Oh!" Xia Bai nodded suddenly.

The probe looked into the room, and the smell of sea salt came over his face.

Xia Bai showed a playful weird smile: "This smell..."

"What are you talking about, hurry up and go, I want to change my clothes." Xu Xixi pushed her out in a hurry.

He closed the door and panted with his back, Xu Xixi touched his face, it was almost ready to cook the eggs.

Looking at Qin Yu on the bed jokingly, Xu Xixi covered his face and rushed up.

Reluctantly said: "You laugh at me too, let you laugh at me..."

Haha, I was wrong, wrong...ah, help..."

Hearing the call for help in the room, Xia Bai was walking from the corridor to the living room with a desperate expression.

Damn it, won't it be here again?

Can this meal be eaten? The dog food is full...

Seeing Xia Bai's return, Yan Er in the living room stood up and asked, "Are you okay?"

Xia Bai sat weakly on the sofa, putting on a look of hopeless despair.

"What's wrong?" Yan Er stood behind him amused and pinched her shoulders.

Shaking his head, Xia Ke suddenly turned around and said, "Go, go back to the room."

"Why??" Yan Er asked with a question mark on his face.

"Don't ask, hurry up... go."

Pulling him to the room, Xia Bai decided to toss it for two hours first.

Otherwise, three hours will do!

The physical strength of the second brother should be able to hold it, right?

When the two returned to the living room, they had already changed their clothes, their expressions were lazy, with a warm glow after passion.

Looking around, the living room is exactly the same as when I left.

Looking up at his watch, Xia Bai served: "Is he a bull?"

"Where do I know this, you should ask Xu Xixi."

Yan Er sent a message and successfully contacted Qin Yu.

Before long, he came out alone.

"Where is Xixi?" Xia Bai asked curiously.

"Tired, rest in the room." Qin Yu pointed backward.

...

...

After lunch and dinner, Xia Bai felt that he could eat a cow.

But I really started to eat, and I was full with two mouthfuls.

"That's it?"

Pointing to the table full of food, Yan Er asked amused: "Then you order so much?"

"Isn't there you?" Xia Bai replied straightforwardly.

Yan Er was stunned, feeling that it made sense!

"You two are enough. Tell me, this trip will not be just a trip, right?"

"I'm here with Xiaobai."

Xia Bai and Xu Xixi are here to participate in the auto show, and they are earning some extra money.

Yan Er is not like what he said, just to accompany his girlfriend, he also has a mission this time.

Investigate the market and prepare to develop online car-hailing in the Northwest.

"Then you can talk about it." As far as Qin Yu understands, the contradiction between taxis and online car-hailing has never stopped.

Even now, there are often conflicts.

If Taishan's online car-hailing is deployed on a large scale, incidents will certainly be indispensable.

"This is not the first place I ran. There is no conflict." Yan Er smiled calmly.

If you want to steal money from other people's bowls, conflicts must be indispensable.

As long as it can be controlled within a certain range, don't cause big troubles.

The problem can be solved after all. The two places he ran in front of him were very positive.

The taxi service is really far from satisfactory.

In recent years, online car-hailing has broken the monopoly, not only making travel more convenient.

It also makes the once confident taxi aware of the sense of crisis.

There is competition to make progress, which is a good thing...

"Would you like me to contact you?" Qin Yu asked casually.

"Okay, I can't touch the door!" Yan Er agreed.

As long as you can touch the right door and see the true god.

How to talk about it later is his own business, and he is afraid that someone will fool around inside.

If you can't see the face of the Lord, it's no use saying anything!

"I'll make a call first." Qin Yu's first thought was Li Yuan.

This is a doer who doesn't talk to anyone!

But as long as what you do is beneficial, he must fully support it and be more active than you.

"Hey, Li Shi, this is Qin Yu... hello, hello, that's right, I have a friend..."

As soon as Qin Yu talked about the situation, Li Yuan said he wanted to meet Yan Er.

The specific situation will be discussed in detail after they meet.

After receiving the phone, Qin Yu said: "Parents, officials, are honest and honest.

The place is about at the reception, don't bring expensive things, preferably local products. "

It's obviously inappropriate to open the door empty-handed, but if you bring some valuables, don't even want to enter the door.

Therefore, it is more appropriate to bring some souvenirs that can express your heart and are at a normal price.

Now it's easy to buy anything, and the specialty products are not only available locally, you can buy them anywhere.

However, there are very few such as "Texas Braised Chicken".

Even if they are available, they are also stale, and the taste is a lot worse.

"Hey, I bought more than a dozen bags from the Internet and left for my own food, and this time I took it with me.

Two bags of grilled chicken... How about some Da Li from Guan County? "

"Yes..." Qin Yu praised.

"Hey, what should I do?"

Xia Bai said with a disappointed expression: "I still want to go to the movies together!"

"You can go with Xixi," Qin Yu said.

"Why, are you leaving again?"

Xia Bai looked at him unacceptably, this guy wouldn't leave after putting on his pants again.

If Qin Yuzhen did this, she wouldn't care about her status.

unacceptable!

"What? I mean you can join us, how about watching a movie?" Qin Yu asked self-consciously.

"Ah, good!"

Xia Bai knew that she had misunderstood, and quickly lowered her head to cover up the embarrassment in her expression.

It seemed that Xiaoxi was about to succeed this time.

However, Xia Bai was skeptical about how long this happy shelf life could last.

"Don't say anything, I'll go now." Yan Er has already begun to think about the content of the conversation after meeting Li Yuan.

"You can eat more!" Xia Bai said towards his back.

"Stop eating, I will come back as soon as possible." Yan Er waved away.

There were only two of them left in the restaurant, and Qin Yu said, "I'll call Xixi first, and we will gather in the room later."

"it is good."

Xia Bai nodded and said jokingly, "Don't go in and get out."

"If someone can't get out, she's right!" Brother Yu patted his waist proudly, the meaning is self-evident.

After half an hour, the three set off for the theater together.

Qin Yu has booked the hall in advance, so he should go directly.

Came to the theater and reported on the phone.

Without a ticket, the staff will lead the admission directly.

What general hall, laser hall, manx hall...

Turn right at the end and come to a relatively hidden corridor with a few doors on one side and the words "Private VIP Cinema."

Push the door open, and inside is a small room with a total of eight fully automatic massage seats.

The screen is much smaller than the outside, about one-fifth of the appearance.

But the privacy is very good, and there is no need to worry about having children or disturbing others.

Anyway, how do you want to see...

In addition, you can also call the service, "First, let's have a glass of Coke, add ice, three popcorn, and then some snacks..."

Xiaobai, Xixi, what do you two drink? "

"I want Coke." Xia Bai.

"Me too." Xu Xixi.

"Three Coke, a big one!" The waiter confirmed and went out.

Then the lights in the room dimmed and the screen turned on.

"Can I choose the film myself?" Xu Xixi asked after leaning the seat into a comfortable angle.

"It's okay to go online," Qin Yu responded.

"How much does it cost?"

Xia Bai asked curiously, if it's not expensive, she decided to come to such a private cinema after going out on a date.

"Two to three thousand per game is not expensive." Qin Yu said.

"That's okay." Xia Bai responded calmly, but her tongue was secretly in her heart.

The price is enough for her to watch ten games in the VIP hall. Although there will be outsiders, there are only a dozen seats in total.

That ticket is more than one hundred and less than two hundred, which is much more cost-effective than this...

Let Xu Xixi and Xia Bai select the film, and Qin Yu uses his mobile phone to check the time of the auto show.

If you don't know, forget it. Now that you know, you must go to the fun.

"Does the auto show understand?" Qin Yu was surprised and asked, "Don't you two need to prepare anything?"

"What preparations do I need to make a car model? Just get up and put on makeup." Xia Bai said as expected.

"Yes!" Xu Xixi nodded in agreement.

Then I thought of something frowning and said: "Xiao Bai, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, don't forget to bring a stool and slippers."

"Ah, I want to bring it again!" Xia Bai said helplessly: "It's so troublesome to move around."

"Didn't your second brother say he will accompany you?" Xu Xixi asked.

"What about your family?" Xia Bai raised an eyebrow to Qin Yu.

Xu Xixi also looked at Qin Yu with curious eyes, hoping to hear the excited answer he wanted.

"Okay, I will send a car to pick you up during the auto show." Qin Yu responded calmly.

"Okay!" The two raised their hands excitedly at the same time, but Xia Bai was obviously more sincere.

The little regret in Xu Xixi's expression did not escape Qin Yu's eyes, "If I have time, I will go there myself."

"Yeah, I love you so much." Xu Xixi was really excited to scream this time.

Happily rushed over and hugged him, unwilling to let go, leaving a series of hickeys on Qin Yu's face.

Chapter 824: New world and ambition

"Second brother!" When meeting in the living room, Qin Yu raised his head and let Xu Xixi organize his collar.

Although he is wearing a T-shirt and jeans.

There was nothing to sort out, but he couldn't refuse Xu Xixi's kindness.

"Yeah." Yan Er shook his head and walked top-heavy to the bar.

He needs to drink some water first to make himself sober.

"Xixi, Brother Yu, morning." Xia Bai also got up, passing the restaurant and waving to the two of them.

Then trot to the bar, grabbed Yan Er's cup and drank a whole glass of water.

"Ah~" He sighed comfortably, Xia Bai's eyes were clearly energetic.

"That's my water." Yan Er said helplessly.

"Pour one more cup, Boo~" Sending a sweet kiss, Xia Bai ran towards the direction he came, "Xixi, remember to wait for me, and a small stool and slippers..."

"Isn't that your business?" Xu Xixi shouted in the direction of her back.

"No, it's yours..." Xia Bai's voice went away.

Seeing Xu Xixi gently sorting out the folds in Qin Yu's clothes, he squatted down to tie his shoelaces.

Even the shoe uppers have to be wiped spotlessly, and Yan Er's eyes are full of envy.

When will their Xiaobai have this consciousness?

Thinking back carefully, the second brother was even more desperate.

There is no show in this life, and in the next life...

It should be easier to realize this dream by changing him to be a woman.

"let's go."

At the entrance of the hotel, Yan Er said to the two ladies: "Let's go to the meeting place first, and Brother Yu will come and meet us!"

Qin Yu took the car key from the waiter and walked towards Rafa parked behind the sky.

He has to go back to the company first, and in 20 minutes, Bai Ze's helicopter should land at the company's door.

...

...

Seeing Bai Ze, he was still wearing a camouflage uniform without any epaulettes.

"Old White."

"Qin Dong, what can I take care of?"

Seeing his sarcasm, Qin Yu squeezed his hand amusedly and said: "Old Bai, don't show a sense of resistance, we are in the same trench."

"If you are a soldier in my trenches, I must detain the coach who let you pass." Bai Ze said blankly.

He is serious, this kid has a slippery temper, but he doesn't have much appetite for himself.

"Come on, you have to learn to be friendly, Lao Bai!" Qin Yu said and patted him on the shoulder.

Bai Ze staggered under his feet, and almost fell forward.

"Your kid wants to commit murder." Bai Ze looked at him in amazement, stronger than the last time we met.

This physical quality is a good seed for the soldier.

"It's because you are too weak. To be honest, have you been patronizing and saving women who missed your feet recently and forgot to train?"

"...roll."

When he came to the office and took a seat face to face, Bai Ze asked straightforwardly: "What's the matter, I can say now."

"I plan to let go of the evil demon port to the outside world."

"No." Before Qin Yu's words fell, Bai Ze stood up with a serious face.

His tone was full of resistance, with a bit of suspicion in his eyes, as if he wanted to see what Qin Yu was thinking.

It was he who first decided not to open to the outside world, but now he has gone against him again.

"Sit, sit first." Qin Yu smiled and motioned for him to sit down.

When Bai Ze re-seats, Qin Yu calmly said: "You don't count this matter, I say it. Don't worry, I just tell the truth."

"In addition, I can give you the reasons you want. The next development requires more talents."

"What kind of talent is needed, and how much is needed, I will solve it!" Bai Ze said in a big deal.

"You can't solve it. Even if the population of the entire planet is added up, it is far from enough for the next development needs.

Lao Bai, human beings are too small for the universe. Don't just focus on your own one-third of an acre of land. "

"I understand what you mean, but is it too early?" Bai Ze also suppressed the exclusivity from biological instinct.

Of course he understands this truth, but he understands it, and whether he can do it is two different things.

It's as if there are some things, and they know more about the principles than anyone else.

But when things come, I can't even let out a fart...

"It's getting late. If the evil demon hasn't intervened from outside pressure, then there will be endless civil wars. I believe you should see it clearly."

Bai Ze didn't say anything, in fact, he was one of the commanders in this Western Expedition.

Although he did not participate in front-line operations, he was involved in the implementation of the entire plan and the combat plan, including negotiations.

He had also heard of the friction and collision between the Iron Eagle League and the Church of Marvel Science!

Without the intervention of external forces, look for new directions to release internal frictions and contradictions.

So the civil war will happen sooner or later...

This is not conducive to the cooperation between the two parties, nor is it in line with the development pace set by Bai Ze.

Peaceful rise is an unchanging policy.

Even if war is really to be developed, civil war can be avoided or avoided.

The appearance of "Ghost Monster" means that human beings in the universe are not alone.

Compared with the civil war, they hope to bring all the forces to the outside world, so that the footprints of mankind can be found in every corner of the universe.

This goal is far away, but it is no longer just an unattainable ambition.

Now, there is an opportunity for humans to achieve this goal, maybe they should be more generous.

Demonstrate the style of a great country and lead mankind to the era of the universe!

"Yes, the word leadership is very good, so I'm considering whether to talk to Neon and Smecta first." Qin Yu threw out his thoughts.

On Smecta's side, he can ask Li Zhen to come forward.

Relying on the dual identities of Li's parents and daughters and rebellious independence, Li Zhen's influence in Smecta today is not the same.

Rebelled against the three cores, split it and survived.

She is definitely the first person in the country...

With this courage and courage, she was enough to be jealous and respected by many people.

With Li Zhen as the representative, at least from the very beginning, it can attract high-level attention, and at the same time, it can directly enter the attention of the leadership.

Let them realize that this is not a joke or gossip, and they should seriously consider this proposal.

It must be difficult to integrate directly into Xia Guo.

At least Western countries such as the Bald Eagle will jump out and protest immediately.

Small actions in private will not be cut off, and local wars may even be launched directly.

All of these are extremely possible, because no one can accept it suddenly, and his own role is directly changed to a father.

But if the spring weather turns to rain, take it slowly step by step.

First, he put his position on the right side, and tended to figure out where he should stand.

Step by step cannibalize, influence, and assimilate, and then let the other party see the practical benefits.

So even if it was a bald eagle, it could only stare beyond its reach.

"What are the benefits you said?" Bai Ze looked at Qin Yu, wanting to hear his answer.

"Vast land and rich resources, nothing is more tempting than these two!"

Qin Yu gave out his own answer. There is nothing that bothers these two countries more than the vast and resource-rich land.

The more you lack, the more you like to show off.

Just like Big Neon and Big Smecta, why do you have to bring a "big" word before the country.

It is from the strong needs brought by inner desire and low self-esteem.

As if doing so, the fact that only a small place can change reality is the same.

In fact, nothing can be changed.

Instead, repeated emphasis every time makes the feeling of inferiority worse.

That kind of inferiority deep into the bone marrow creates a strong sense of vanity expansion, just like an inflated balloon.

Once someone pierces the fragile shell on the surface, they will find that there is just a bubble of air inside, nothing!

The bald eagle did just that, so that in Smecta, they were like first-class people.

You can humiliate, expel, beat and scold local citizens at will and treat them as rubbish.

When it comes to a certain status, everyone except the chaebol must deal with it cautiously.

Even if they have a certain amount of power, they will try their best not to provoke them.

Foreigners have priority. Smecta is well known and the default rule is normal.

If a foreigner has a conflict with Smecta, no matter what the reason, as long as there is no dead person.

The arrested must be Smecta, even the dead Smecta has no right to trial.

The person will be returned directly to the bald eagle, as for the follow-up...

No one will pay attention, and even those in power will subconsciously choose to forget.

Foreigners, can't afford it!

At first glance, you might think that this is something that only happened in the 20th century, right?

But in fact, it is found in the moment.

Just as the blacks taught their children that they were stopped by the police, they should put their hands on the steering wheel as soon as possible.

Don't talk back, don't take any action that will misunderstand the other party.

Smecta will also teach his children to not provoke them: foreigners, chaebols, and prosecutors.

"You don't need me to teach you a sweet jujube with a stick?" Qin Yu looked at Bai Ze with a smile.

"The land you are talking about refers to the game." Bai Ze wanted to understand more thoroughly.

Yes, although he has confirmed the authenticity of the game world.

But how to make Smecta and Neon believe, and how to make them live in a "virtual."

Could it be that each house has a game pod with a considerable population, allowing them to immerse themselves in it at night, and completely abandon everything in reality.

This is impossible, at least not in the short term...

"No need." Qin Yu snapped his fingers, and a light curtain fell from above.

Stretched into a 3D image, it is a monster game cabin.

But it is different from the previous one, because its "butt" is bigger, like a big tumor on the back of its head.

"You noticed." Qin Yu said.

"Such a large peripheral, it is difficult not to be noticed." Bai Ze responded.

"The nutrition cabin can maintain the nutrients needed by the human body for six months at a time, and the electromagnetic coil in the cabin can effectively maintain muscle activity.

Every time the player dies, the player will fall into a deep sleep. uukanshu.com will be resurrected in 4 hours. If you own it, you can continue to be online.

One time is equivalent to 3 years of the game, as long as they are guided properly, they will not refuse this temptation. "

Let the consciousness live in another world and the body stay in this world.

So, how to maintain the actual productivity and system, maintain the integrity and normal operation of society?

"Class, only the upper class can enter, and ordinary people continue to live according to the original rhythm.

However, in reality, the resources will become more extensive, more positions, better treatment, land, energy, transportation, pollution and other issues will be resolved.

You only need to leave a small number of elites in charge of management, and then allow the temptation, and those who perform well can enter the new world. "

"This..." Bai Ze confirmed right away that this is feasible.

However, his plan is only for Smecta, Neon, or all countries and organizations.

Is this ambition too big?

Chapter 825: Auto show first kill

If all the upper classes and elites all enter the evil spirits.

So, doesn't it mean that their future is in the hands of Miracle Company, and it may even be life.

When the whole world is completely dependent on miracles to survive, it will be crowned king!

There is no need for any armed resistance, nor will there be wars and conflicts, and everything will come naturally.

Bai Ze's body suddenly felt a little cold, if it really reached this point.

Who else can stop him, and what does he want to do?

"Don't look at me with evil eyes, as if I am a big boss behind the scenes, I just provide a plan."

Qin Yu smiled dumbly and waved his hand: "If you don't agree, you can think of other plans."

What Qin Yu said now was only a possibility.

The so-called new generation of game cabins has not yet achieved mass production.

Because the perfect nutrient solution Qin Yu hopes to appear is only in the experimental stage so far.

What he just described is only a possibility for the future.

If you want to change the possibility, you have to rely on Bai Ze to figure out a solution.

After all, he was backed by a real behemoth, and the resources he could mobilize were much more powerful than miracles.

Put some pressure on him, maybe the problem can be solved perfectly!

You can't just take advantage of work and not work, this is a bit unreasonable.

Brother Yu felt that the recent Lao Bai was a little fatter, and he must have lived too well and had too little to do to provide for.

Just to find something to do for him, he is really a good person.

Fortunately, Bai Ze doesn't know how to read minds, or he would have to thank Brother Yu for his kindness.

"Don't tell me, you only have such a goal." Bai Ze came this time, trying to wipe out all the thoughts in Qin Yu's stomach.

Or do you always squeeze toothpaste like this, once, once.

There is always some accidents, no one can stand it!

"Barrow, what do you think?" Qin Yu asked his opinion.

"Barrow...?" Bai Ze's tone became hesitant, but his eyes lit up.

This goal seems to be much simpler than the previous one.

Moreover, it is not necessary to adopt the "deep sleep" plan that Qin Yu said, to divide the entire society.

Although Bai Ze is not a sociologist, he knows nothing about these things.

But he still has simple discrimination and cognitive abilities, if he really does what Qin Yu said before.

In the end, the miracle will not only become the uncrowned king of the earth.

The entire society will be cut into a gap that is so huge that it cannot be filled, which will cause more problems and conflicts.

Forget it, it's better to leave these to the expert team to get a headache.

He is a foolish man thinking about this here, what use is there other than a headache.

First squeeze out the goods of this kid in front of you, and then throw it to the expert group, let them slowly get their headaches!

...

...

By the time Qin Yu arrived at the Nanqu Convention and Exhibition Center, it was already lunch time.

Under the wall on the side of the exhibition hall, Qin Yu found Xu Xixi and Xia Bai who were wearing slippers and sitting on small stools eating box lunch.

"What about the second brother?" Qin Yu squatted halfway in front of the two of them and glanced at the box lunch: "What are you eating?"

"Second brother is going to have a meal, three vegetarians and one meat, the taste is not bad!" Xu Xixi pursed his mouth and whispered.

With food in your mouth, pay attention when you speak.

If the rice spews out, is there any death on the spot?

"What time do you want to stand in the afternoon?" Watching Xu Xixi beat her calf with a small fist while eating, Qin Yu hugged her leg in his arms.

Xu Xixi struggled a little embarrassedly, and Qin Yu had already started to pinch her up.

In an instant, she wouldn't move.

With a reddish cheek, he looked around, buried his head in the lunch box, and pulled up.

"Oh, my god, I'm so sore." Xia Bai drank and spit out disgust after swallowing the meal.

"Wife, my wife, I'm here." Yan Er trot back with two bags.

"Brother Yu, have you eaten it?" Put the bag on the ground and take out the small bowl from it. After Yan Er opened it, it was a bowl of hot soup.

"I have eaten it, it's quite complete." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"That's... my wife, come on, the soup is a bit hot, be careful." Yan Er held the bowl flatly and blew the soup on the spoon.

I tried the temperature with my lips, and it was not hot, and then it was delivered to Xia Bai's mouth.

The sourness in the air instantly became stronger, and Xia Bai smiled like a blooming flower, and happily drank the hot soup that Yan Er hand delivered to her mouth.

The passersby and resting models around, turned and left with contempt one by one.

However, the deep jealousy and envy can not be erased.

MD, this * sour smell, it hurts.

After eating the lunch, Xu Xixi took her leg out of Qin Yu's arms, "I don't hurt anymore...Thank you."

"thanks?"

Qin Yu raised her head in surprise and said, "What are you talking about, I'm your boyfriend, and it's my duty to care about you!"

"Oh! Don't rush to talk about love, can you wait for me to go further?" Xia Bai waved his hands jokingly, as if to fan the sourness away.

"I have to go far too, lest I be injured innocent." Yan Er grinned and sneered.

"You better solve your own problems first!" Qin Yu raised his eyebrows and raised his eyebrows.

Yan Er looked down, and Xia Bai and Xu Xixi also looked towards the place where they were pointing.

"Second brother~" Xu Xixi turned her head quickly.

"Yan Er, what have you done?" Xia Bai stretched out his hand and hammered him, smashing him with two fists.

It's so loud with real energy!

Yan Er covered his crotch innocently with a face full of innocence, and curled his * back to defend himself: "I didn't do anything... The heat expanded and contracted, it was too hot."

"This explanation is fresh and refined!" Qin Yu gave a thumbs up silently.

For this excuse, I must give Yan Er a compliment, Niubi!

Who knew this opening, the war led to him.

Yan Eryi stretched out his hand and said, "He is not the same. You don't think he has a mobile phone in his trouser pocket, do you?"

"Ah, you men, get out." Xia Bai exploded.

The same goes for Xu Xixi, this picture is really embarrassing.

Fortunately, the time is up, they now need to enter the platform for business, and no longer need to face the scene in front of them.

As for whether Qin Yu had a mobile phone in his pocket, Xia Bai didn't care at all.

As for Xu Xixi, I believe she already knows it well and has experienced how powerful it is.

At the blue station platform, Qin Yu first went to cheer for his "girlfriend".

Then, he saw the non-sale items behind the booth, EPX...

It is a new generation of electric supercar specially customized for investors, and it is also the successor of the previous generation EP9.

The overall performance data is not much different from the previous CP9, but in appearance, it is full of future science fiction.

The variable transparent car cover adopts a new generation of light sensing mode inside the entire car body space.

With a variety of changes, electronic components account for a large proportion of the entire vehicle.

Combat steering wheel, full-function control, 2.8 seconds per 100 kilometers, top speed 280.

Carbon ceramic composite brake discs and six-piston calipers represent Chinese people's pursuit of higher performance.

And the courage and progress to challenge foreign top monopoly technology...

"Brother Yu, this EPX is too handsome." Yan Er was also dazzled by this car fan.

"I want it." Qin Yu was more direct.

He wants this car.

Before the voice was over, Qin Yu had found out Li Yi's phone number.

"This is Qin Yu, is President Li here?"

"Dong Qin, haha, rare guest, why do you think of calling me."

"I'm at the auto show, here is an EPX..."

No need to go further, Li Yi already understood what he meant: "Qin Dong is interested, so I can just drive away...whatever is not money, it's too polite."

"Okay, okay, then do what Qin Dong said, haha...Yes, let's have tea at some time, okay, okay..."

When the line was taken up, this car became Qin Yu's personal belongings.

It's just that it will stay on the booth for a few days to let Azure show the limelight.

When the show is over, it will belong to Qin Yu.

Although Li Yi wanted to give him the price, Qin Yu still insisted on how much it should be.

Things that can be solved with money, don't involve favors!

Money has a price, human love is priceless!

A car wants to be personal, UU reading www.uukanshu.com is too cheap.

There are many brands from this auto show, including top brands such as Lamborghini and Porsche that Volkswagen is familiar with.

But Qin Yu's first move to stop was McLaren, which he had never owned.

"Fuck, P1GTR, fuck, fuck..." As soon as they arrived at the booth, Yan two were shocked.

What did he see? There are only 3 supercars in the world.

McLaren P1GTR.

Rear-mounted engine, 986 horsepower, 2.6 seconds to break a hundred super * of war.

Fuck, being able to see this car has almost fulfilled a big dream in life.

Yan Er quickly handed the contents to Qin Yu, standing in front of the fence with his back facing the bright yellow P1GTR Scissorhands.

If you don't take a group photo, I'm so sorry to come to this auto show.

Chapter 826: Men also want to buy, buy, buy

McLaren P1GTR, standing alone on the booth.

There is no need for a model to set off, because it is so proud in itself.

Even if no one appreciates it, it will not affect its charm.

"Brother Yu, here's one, here's one." Yan Er took more than a dozen shots in a row, and Qin Yu also took a few shots.

"No, I have to find the staff first." Qin Yu said and walked backstage.

Isn't it?

Yan Er's heart trembled. Is this the rhythm he wants to buy?

What a fuck, what a fuck, what a fuck...

Yan Er was shocked by his own speculation and was speechless.

When I saw the McLaren P1GTR, the first thing that came to my mind was to take pictures.

When he saw McLaren P1GTR, the first thing he thought of was to buy it.

The same people, should the gap be so big?

Yan Er vomited.

But he still followed, trying to see if Qin Yu really wanted to take it.

He already has a Ferrari Rafa, if he wins the McLaren P1GTR...

Then there is only one 918, and the three sacred cars are gathered.

Although it has passed the peak period of the three sacred cars, it is still for 99% of the people in this world.

They are still unreachable dreams...

"I want to see your person in charge... Yes, about the P1GTR outside."

Qin Yu pointed to the car outside, and the answer was "not for sale."

"Where is your manager, I want to talk to him personally." Qin Yu insisted.

"Well, please come with me." The other party led Qin Yu to the outside.

Next to the side door of Exhibition Hall 1, a temporary site was crowded with people.

There was a roar of motorbikes inside, and the other party bypassed the crowd and got in, and then came out again.

"Our manager is there." The other party pointed to the field through the crowd, the man riding the ZX10RR.

Bend and swing your tail, exhaust violently, and your movements are chic and capable!

The little girls around screamed again and again, and the boys couldn't help but cheer and applaud...

As a straight man, who can refuse the charm of locomotives!

What, not a straight man?

What about your girlfriend, there is still time to watch the locomotive show here? ?

Buzzing~

After a few beautiful flicks, the other party pulled the car over, opened the mask and smiled: "Qin, you want that P1GTR."

"Yes, let's make a price!" Qin Yu said.

"It's not for sale, I think my people should tell you." The other party responded.

"Anything is valuable. If it's like what you said, why do you stop?" Qin Yu smiled.

"...Well, do you know how to play motorcycles?" The other party patted the body.

"A little bit." Qin Yu said modestly.

Putting down the pedals, the opponent got out of the car, took off his helmet and said, "Come on, let me see what you can do."

The subtext is "Let me see your technology and talk about P1GTR."

Looking at Yan Er, the other party's expression was tangled, as if asking, "Brother Yu, can't you?"

With a dumb smile, Qin Yu stepped over the barrier and got on the locomotive.

Put on your helmet and press the red button.

Release the brake, grasp the clutch tightly, shift the gear and turn the throttle...

The tires frantically rubbed against the ground, smoke billowed, and the body suddenly raised its head as soon as the clutch was released.

"Homu, it seems to be over." As soon as the voice fell, the front of the car suddenly fell to the ground unreasonably.

In the expression of surprise and surprise on the other side, the strong power led Qin Yu to speed through the field.

In an instant, countless screams and brakes rang.

"Damn, is he crazy?" As for a basketball court-sized field, it can't stand the ravages of a violent beast.

But Qin Yu played a heavy machine beast in this small cage.

Look up, swing your tail, it's nothing...

Anyone who can operate a locomotive proficiently can do it, and it is not as difficult as it seems.

It's just the rookie behavior of some rookies that makes it look much harder.

But then, Qin Yu shuttled at high speed in the limited field, passing obstacles composed of people and locomotives.

The extreme control shown is astonishing to lose the voice!

The speed is as fast as lightning, which makes the audience's vision appear confused.

In the end, they could only see a green shadow, 咻咻咻...

Shuttle constantly in the line of sight, like a brainwashing replay.

Put a small picture in front of you, once, once, and play it again and again.

Until a dashing dragon flicked its tail, the locomotive stopped in its previous position.

Qin Yu took off his helmet and looked at each other, and asked, "What do you think?"

Frank smiled and stretched out his hand: "Frank...now we can talk about that car."

If you want to buy this P1GTR, there is a prerequisite, that is, you must be the owner of the McLaren P1.

This is a hard indicator. You must purchase P1 before you can qualify for P1GTR.

Of course, if Qin Yu has enough money, Frank can get him two cars at once.

In Yaodu's 4S shop, there is a ready-made McLaren P1.

The three great cars, Rafa has the highest price and appearance, and the 918 had the fastest lap time in New York at that time.

Only McLaren P1, this smiley killer is jokingly called the Widowmaker.

It can also be seen from this point how suffocating its power is!

When IPAS is turned on, the P1 with all 900 horsepower released will make the co-pilot's young lady rush to take off.

Let's look at its futuristic hollow rear wing, handsome...

Butterfly door with skylight, cool...

At this moment, any minor problems can be ignored.

Besides, the purchase price is really not expensive now.

At its peak, P1 was fired to 18 million, and now only a fraction, more than 8 million can be won.

With this volcanic yellow track version, P1GTR, it will look like 35 million.

"Very cheap!"

He could only say this in his heart, always trying to save Frank some face.

In the process of Qin Yu and Frank going through the formalities, the news that someone on the exhibition site bought the McLaren P1GTR arbitrarily.

There are many people at the exhibition, which is McLaren's most eye-catching product this time.

Suddenly being marked with a sold brand by the staff naturally attracted the attention of countless people.

The Internet celebrities who make cars are all showing their magical powers to inquire about buyers' information.

Qin Yu has only paid the money here, and has not officially handed over it.

There are various "big brothers" on the Internet. "My brother bought the car..."

"A friend of mine took a fancy and decided directly."

"My boss bought it, I can only say that the boss is beefy!"

"Do you know the McLaren P1 track version? I bought it from an old watch, and I was there when I paid."

"I watched it before the car show. His family is a big family on the side of Yaodu, with hundreds of people and huge wealth."

For Balabala, Yan Erxiao's stomach hurts.

"Brother Yu, why don't I come here too, have a friend?" Yan Er said with his mobile phone.

"As long as I don't show my face, it's up to you!" Qin Yu stuffed the contract into the bag.

After the car is over, you have to wait for the exhibition hall to close before it can be transferred and sent to his home.

You have to wait two more days for the Yaodu P1, and it takes time to get it on the road.

Yan Er took a few new photos here, and it really made a note.

My friend just bought a new car and just finished paying. I don't understand the rich world, it looks good!

Coupled with a few car photos taken on the spot, it looks no different from other Internet celebrities.

Seriously speaking, he is not as good as other Internet celebrities.

After all, they also have a fan base...

After Yan Er finished posting the video, Qin Yu was contacting Xu Meixin.

I won three cars in one afternoon, and the garage at home couldn't stop.

He had to ask Xu Meixin how was the clearance and refitting of Hengjie Motors.

That place is the modified garage he prepared for himself, specifically for playing with cars.

I learned that the venue has been improved, but there is still some residual smell from the decoration.

Qin Yu immediately changed the delivery address to the dealership, and the three cars were sent there together.

In addition, he decided to order two more rescue vehicles at the auto show.

These two cars are definitely going to be overhauled, and Qin Yu has two goals in his heart.

A wrangler, a bird of prey.

"Wherder or Raptor, which one do you choose?" Qin Yu took a picture of Yan Er, wanting some reference.

"That must be the Wrangler, man's romance." Yan Er replied decisively.

Qin Yu nodded in agreement, and said in vain: "Okay, let's choose the Raptor."

"??"

Brother, how are you going to play?

The romance of a man is enough for Qin Yu.

He doesn't need this little romance, practicality is more important, how fragrant the big cart is!

In fact, there is another reason, the driving experience.

The suspension of the Wrangler is too hard, even if it is modified, the interior of the car is a mess.

You said you want to use it to play tough guy off-road, no problem!

But for people like Qin Yu who run in the city most of the time, he might want to go out in the year of the monkey.

The Raptor's seat is more comfortable and more functional, and the interior is more in line with his personal standards.

There is also the big car body at the back, adding a cover, pulling things and moving goods, it is too practical.

There is no problem with putting a locomotive inside, and driving the Raptor to pull the locomotive to flush the sand.

Take a motorboat and surfboard to the beach, or pull on the grill to go out for a picnic.

This kind of picture, just thinking about it, feels fascinating!

That's it, Ford Raptor.

Go to the Ford booth and find the sales instructions to buy the Raptor.

The other party said that the car can be picked up in advance if it is delivered on the spot.

It used to have to wait for half a year, but now you only need to pay a deposit of 50,000 and you can get the car three months in advance.

In other words, you need to wait at least three months to get the Raptor.

Qin Yu frowned and said, "Is there no car?"

"That's it Mr. Because all the cars have to be shipped from abroad.

In the past two years, more and more domestic car owners have bought it, so there must be no way in the short term. "

After saying this, the other party paused, as if to give him a chance to think.

Then he said: "If you are really in a hurry, you can only increase the price and jump in the queue."

"How much is the price increase?" Qin Yu asked.

580,000 becomes 870,000, with an increase of 290,000, and now you can choose a car.

"Yes, two sets, go to prepare the contract." Qin Yu agreed on the spot, swiping the card to go through the formalities!

Does he care about the price increase?

Don't care, what he cares about is an attitude.

If Alpha's salesman had this attitude and didn't flatter, they would treat customers as they should be.

The fan of Lazy Cat, Rolls, should be replaced by a pink customized Alpha.

Chapter 827: Your circle is messy!

The price increase is actually everywhere.

It's like you go shopping. There are less coriander in the market today, and there are more people buying them recently.

Usually it sells for 2 yuan, but today it has to sell for 4 yuan.

Some people are willing to buy, some are not.

It all depends on personal choice, there is nothing to blame.

Someone has to say, are those 2 yuan the same as 200,000 yuan?

But for Brother Yu, 200,000 is really no different from 2 yuan.

It's not enough for a meal inside and out, and maybe it's not enough...

"Bought it?" Yan Er asked.

"Well, I bought it." Qin Yu shook the contract in his hand and put it into the bag.

The bag was so swollen that he could hardly fit it.

Okay, Yan two are already numb!

EPX, a total of eight cars worldwide, bought.

McLaren P1, limited to 375 units worldwide, was bought.

McLaren P1 Advanced Track Edition, P1GTR limited to 35 units in the world...

Buy buy buy...

At this moment, I learned that he had increased the price and ordered two Raptors, which was less than two million.

Yan Er had a sense of absurdity of "so cheap, but so" in his heart.

35 million was spent, and there is an EPX that doesn't know how much, but at least starts at 10 million.

2 million...

It's not enough, is this a problem?

With the bulging bag between his arms, Qin Yu was going to continue shopping in humor.

Yan Er grabbed him, "Brother, my dear brother, people are about to get off work."

Raised his wrist and looked at the time, 6:52.

It's really going to be off work, no wonder there are so few people.

"Okay, I'll go shopping another day." Qin Yu said with excitement.

Turning to the blue booth, Xu Xixi and Xia Bai are planning to call it a day.

The staff was also cleaning the booth. Seeing Qin Yu coming, someone greeted him immediately: "Mr. Qin, we have arranged the car. When the exhibition hall is closed, we will load it and send it to you. Someone will take it over there, right? !"

"Correct..."

Qin Yu thought for a while and said, "Please write down this number, and you will contact you later, 183..."

Tell the other party Xu Meixin's number, Qin Yu pulled Xia Bai and said, "Can they leave?"

"Okay, Miss Xu slow down." The staff member said gently.

"Did you buy a car?" Xu Xixi took Qin Yu's arm and asked a little curiously.

"More than just buying it." Yan Er on the side finally had the opportunity to complain.

"He rounded up the supercars in the stadium, the blue EPX, the McLaren P1GTR, and a P1 from Yaodu.

P1900 horsepower, P1GTR has 980 horsepower, it only takes 2.6 seconds to break a hundred, you know..."

Yan Er spoke in a passionate tone, but didn't hear any response he wanted.

Tilting their heads and looking to the sides, Xu Xixi and Xia Bai looked blank and clearly said, "What is that? It sounds amazing..."

Yan Er opened his mouth, and the spirit he had just mentioned collapsed in an instant.

Hasty, hasty!

How could he think of explaining the car to a woman? Isn't that right?

"Two McLarens cost 35 million." Yan Er said weakly.

"Wow~" a uniform exclamation.

Sure enough, price and appearance are what women care about.

power?

Manipulate? ?

Cost-effective? ? ?

"You spent 35 million in one afternoon?" Xu Xixi blinked, feeling vague about the concept of money.

How do you feel that he spends more than 30 million yuan, just as casual as he spends 3 yuan.

"Uh, maybe a little bit more, the blue EPX hasn't checked out yet, and I will settle the account back to the public."

Seeing her mouth closed in surprise, Qin Yu scratched her nose and said with a smile: "Do you have any car you like?"

"Yes, Audi RS7." Xia Bai raised his hand and shouted.

This allows Yan Ergao to take a look at her, and he knows that the lamp is the new top brand.

It's okay, Xiao Bai!

"Do you like the car in the lamp field?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"What lamp field?" Xia Bai was surprised.

"It's Audi, netizens jokingly claim that their lights are finally bright." Yan Er interrupted to explain.

"Yes, yes, it's really good-looking, RS7 is the best-looking." Xia Bai nodded.

Qin Yu looked down at Xu Xixi next to him and asked, "What about you? Haven't said what you like?"

Before Xu Xixi could speak, Xia Bai jumped and pointed at her, "It's her, I'm talking about her, RS7, Xixi likes."

"You don't like it the same." Xu Xixi looked up and smiled, tacitly agreeing that Xia Bai said.

Audi RS7, the new top brand of the light field is really good.

The twin-turbo V8 direct-injection engine breaks a hundred 3.9/s, which can kill AMG and M5 of the same level.

This result has been quite good, after all, its price and positioning are there.

If you compare it with the P1GTR that Brother Yu just bought, it's like an adult strong man is bullying the baby.

The only in its class with adaptive air suspension, super handsome blade wheels are also a bright spot.

Sports envelopment and AK exhaust are indispensable. It is the most handsome "suit mob in the street."

When several people talk about the performance of RS7, how much and how good it looks.

Qin Yu already knew all the details in his mind, and said, "Just buy it."

"Huh?" Xu Xixi was obviously taken aback.

But he quickly came back to his senses. He spent more than 30 million and bought himself a car worth more than 1 million, which was nothing to him.

However, the inner touch is still brewing and fermenting.

Qin Yu can think of buying a car for himself, which shows that he cares about himself.

Anyone who doesn't care can let you spend money. Will passers-by on the street buy her an RS7?

Certainly not.

So, this time I really stayed.

"By the way, do you still want to return to the demon?" Qin Yu asked suddenly.

"I can stay here." Xu Xixi said hurriedly.

However, after hesitating, Xu Xixi said again: "In fact, wherever we can live, we will fly wherever we are. Everyone is the same."

Xu Xixi opened the mobile phone Wechat and found that the dozen groups above were all working groups.

Everyone picks up in the group, and there will be brokers who will release various recruitment information.

Feel the right private chat, get the salary and then give the broker a referral fee.

"Xiao Bai, let me go in and have a look too!" Yan Er approached Xia Bai with a treacherous smile.

So many young ladies, what happened to him going in to join in the fun?

Yin and Yang harmony is the truth, understand?

"Don't think about it, if you are allowed to join the group, we will both get kicked together." Xia Bai gave him an angry look.

She was tired of listening to this kind of request.

I'll be angry at first and feel funny.

Now, except for a roll of eyes, there will be no fluctuations in his heart.

"So strict?" Qin Yu said jokingly, "I heard that your circle is quite chaotic."

"Which circle is not messy!"

Xia Bai responded calmly: "If you like chaos, you must add chaos. The opposite is also true..."

This is true. Isn't there any chaos in the financial and workplace circles?

Crows in the world are generally black.

If you have to squeeze among the crows, don't be confused.

On the contrary, standing outside is not messy at all, it's just that people prefer to generalize and discuss aspects.

People don't pay attention to the good side...

There is nothing to hype about not being chaotic. Naturally, the more chaotic the better, in order to attract topics and traffic.

Now, it's all Mane~~

Xu Xixi put his phone in front of him, flipped through the chat records and said, "Other groups will have some messy news. We only have work."

She seemed to be explaining something to Qin Yu, for fear that he might misunderstand herself because of the bad impression.

Qin Yu said amusedly: "It's not necessary, Xixi, I believe you."

His system is much more reliable than any other group.

It is worth noting that Qin Yu knows better than anyone...

"Take my car." In the parking lot, Qin Yu led Xu Xixi to Rafa.

Internet celebrities taking photos have become the norm. Qin Yu skillfully pulled out his mouth and put on the hood. Xu Xixi also lowered his head, letting his hair cover his face and boarded the car.

"Come here, it's the owner of the car." The surrounding internet celebrities talked a lot.

"Quickly, quickly, did you get it?" Several internet celebrities clicked the shutter.

Originally it was nothing, Yu brother was used to this normality.

But when someone rushed over and took a selfie with him.

When the reclining body was about to press on his shoulders, Brother Yu couldn't help it.

"Get out of the way." With a strong push, he pushed the person aside.

Qin Yu pulled the door and got into the car, "What are you doing, why is this person like this?"

"Fuck, is it so arrogant?"

"What kind of crazy, don't you have two bad money!"

The righteous condemnation seemed as if Qin Yu had committed an unforgivable crime.

It's just that they know it in their hearts.

They can't do anything but slap them.

For small internet celebrities like them, just post some jokes and engage in copywriting and hype.

Even if this kind of thing is posted, no one will pay attention.

It is also possible to be stepped on by a big Internet celebrity and find the complete video to hit the face.

Therefore, the idea of taking the opportunity to hype only stays in my mind for a few seconds before being thrown out of the sky.

Even the Internet celebrity who was pushed aside earlier turned off his phone and prepared to leave.

"Wait." Someone stopped him suddenly.

Thinning hair, wrinkles on the face, white hair on the temples is obvious.

"Is there a problem?"

"I want the video in your hand, give it to me, this is yours." A wad of cash appeared in the other's hand.

With a big eye, there are at least a few thousand. The man's expression brightened and he nodded and said, "Okay, it's yours."

At the same time, there are other people who blocked the two Internet celebrities with the best angles before.

Spend money to buy the video just now from the other party and ask the other party to delete the original video.

After the transaction was over, the three quickly disappeared from the crowd.

Qin Yu didn't understand what happened after he left. At this moment, he was driving towards the city center with the traffic.

Xu Xixi, the co-pilot, was talking to Xia Bai, and UU read www.uukanshu.com to discuss where to eat.

Today they wanted to eat something light, and the last two decided to eat sushi...

In the South Street of the city center, a new Tong Sushi was opened.

After choosing a good place, two cars arrived downstairs back and forth.

The greeter in front of the elevator looked like Rafa, he hesitated and stepped forward and asked, "Sir, may I have dinner at Tong Sushi?"

"Yes, is there a place to park?" Qin Yu just walked in and looked around, as if the surrounding area was full.

"Please come with me and stop at the door." The opponent directly removed the banned suspension at the door, which is not surprising to Brother Yu.

Just talking to the other party, the canopy behind was also the same, so he parked the car diagonally at the door.

Make sure not to hinder the guests in and out, Qin Yu turned off and got out of the car.

It doesn't matter what car you drive, whether you have money or not.

Being convenient with others and with yourself is the most basic quality of being a person!

Chapter 828: Disappointment from Tong Sushi

The sky curtain stopped next to Rafa, and the four went upstairs together.

I took the elevator to the 3rd floor. As soon as the elevator opened, I heard a warm "Welcome..."

Entering the door is a small welcome area, and further into it is an artificial lake with bright and lively koi.

There is a stone bridge over it for guests to go to the internal dining area.

The compartment partitions and the decoration of tables and chairs are full of artistic sense.

Sitting cross-legged on the bench, several people began to discuss what to eat...

"How about a sukiyaki set meal and ordering some sushi and sashimi?" Qin Yu asked after reading the menu.

"Okay, you can arrange it, Brother Yu!" Yan Er had no comments.

Men, just eat some.

Xu Xixi nodded, already watching sushi and sashimi.

Natsushiro ordered the "charcoal grilled eel," as well as foie gras and wagyu sushi. Tuna is also essential.

Qin Yu ordered the sea urchin, which was the best variety in the store that day.

Black caviar can't be less, it's the main ingredient in flavor.

Whether it is sashimi or sushi, it can be paired with black caviar to increase the richness of the taste.

Qin Yu ordered one for one person, and only found out when he came up.

He seems to think too much, the so-called one is a pocket mini version, just a box the size of the inner circle of the palm.

With a thin layer, you can dig ten times without saving a bit.

Like Yu Ge, if he took a full spoonful, it would have bottomed out in about four or five spoonfuls.

"One person, one more." Qin Yu asked the waiter to increase the amount.

"Is it so arrogant?"

Xia Bai said with a smile, "It seems that I am going to let go of my belly and have a big meal today."

"Although let go of eating...Second brother pays!" Qin Yu pointed to Yan Eryi blankly.

"Waiter, I don't want all the orders I just ordered. Here are four glasses of water..."

"Xiao Bai, I really have you..." Xu Xixi smiled and patted the table.

The waiter naturally wouldn't take her words seriously, and the dishes were brought to the table during the jokes.

It's just that there are less important protagonists, drinks!

"Today, there is the sacred pure rice Daiginjo in the store. The taste is very light, only 18 degrees. It is very suitable for women to drink, and it will not be served."

Sake is divided into Daiginjo, Ginjo, Junmai and Honjo.

Daiginjo is the highest grade, best quality, and most expensive.

The main difference is the material used and the craftsmanship. For example, Daiginjo uses the more famous rice.

For example, sacred Daiginjo uses Yamada cotton, which is a kind of rice specially brewed.

Before brewing, 65% of the surface is ground off, and only the remaining 35% of the rice core is used for brewing.

This is called "daiginjo."

"this one."

"You see if you want a whole bottle or a pot, the price of a pot is 399 yuan, and the price of the whole bottle is 1,555 yuan."

"The four of us, the whole bottle is ready."

For a full bottle, the waiter offered two separate flasks.

Pour the wine, everyone toasted together: "Cheers!"

After a cup, the atmosphere immediately rises.

Sea urchin crystal jelly, anglerfish liver, oyster cider vinegar jelly, red sea bream, golden eye sea bream...

How do you say the taste of each dish at the entrance.

The quality of the ingredients doesn't say, but it doesn't make people's mouth amazing.

Like Hokkaido blue flag tuna, tuna belly, wagyu roe, etc...

It is mainly reflected in the high-end ingredients, and the dishes and utensils are also very nice.

Only the taste can't reach the standard of full expectation, I am a little disappointed!

If it's just ingredients, there are too many choices at this price...

However, seeing Xu Xixi and Xia Bai talking and laughing busy taking pictures, posing, and eating very satisfied.

Qin Yu also put half a box of caviar on the wagyu and swallowed it in one mouthful.

"Brother Yu, your way of eating is too bold." Yan Er learned his way and poured half a box onto the Wagyu slices.

"Enjoyed!" Qin Yu motioned for him to try.

Hold it underneath with your hand, and put the wagyu filled with caviar into your mouth.

Yan Er took a bite sharply, "Papa Papa~"

The roe was squeezed and exploded by the teeth, tongue and upper jaw, and Yan Er's eyes lit up instantly, "Uh, uh~"

Nodding satisfied, Qin Yu was already ordering the second wagyu roe.

"This feels so healing, especially the moment when the roe is squeezed, it's so refreshing." Yan Er picked up the cup and drank it and said happily.

"Yes, it's the best time to wrap it with your tongue, use your upper jaw, and don't use your teeth to bite." Qin Yu nodded in agreement.

Not to say how good it tastes, but the feeling of squeezing the roes, great!

One bite is more than 400 yuan, and the price is very good...

One bite for you, one bite for me, just six boxes of black caviar, plus four boxes at the beginning, a total of ten boxes will be eaten for this meal.

After eating the last sukiyaki, Qin Yu asked someone to bring the bill.

The four people spent a total of 3,7680 yuan, 9,000+ per capita

Even for high-end ingredients, the price is not cheap at all.

Although it is very happy to eat, I will choose it next time.

Qin Yu will definitely not come again, because he has not found a reason to come!

Maybe it's not bad for girls to take pictures and show happiness.

Amazing sense of ingredients=0

"I'm here to call the driver." Xia Bai called the driver first, and after a short rest and went downstairs, the driver had arrived.

"Brother, I can't drive this car." Seeing Rafa, the driver directly persuaded.

What a joke, just touch off some paint and it's all in vain for half a lifetime.

"Uh~"

Several people looked embarrassed, but Qin Yu nodded in understanding: "Okay, it's okay, I'll call someone to drive."

I called He Wu, and several people sat in the car chatting.

After He Wu took the key and drove the car away, the sky curtain set off to the destination without hurries.

When he arrived at the hotel, He Wu had already parked the car and left, leaving the key at the front desk.

Next is a one-line confrontation, each fighting each other, and a silent time contest.

Unfortunately, the game was over before it even started.

Infinitely more than 0, a win!

When Xu Xixi woke up the next day, Qin Yu had disappeared.

He is sitting in his office, dealing with the follow-up matters of the "Martian Immigration Project" and the "Familiar Open Source Project".

"Mr. Bai Ze wants to open a training camp near the Vulcan Company, with the participation of scientists, so that the landing personnel can be fully prepared."

"It's not a problem, but do we still have a place?" If Qin Yu remembers correctly, there should be no place for him to do a training camp later.

"Mr. Bai Ze said that they will solve it." Xu Meixin answered calmly.

"Then there is no problem, let him directly connect with Vulcan." Qin Yu affirmed this plan.

With various data indicators, log-in personnel can also understand the complex situations and harsh environments they are facing.

The first immigrants will inevitably face various crises.

Therefore, no amount of preparation is too much!

"The monsters are talking to Barrow about the issue of opening the port. The other party should be investigating the authenticity of the news through their own channels."

"Send them the news we intercepted." Qin Yu intends to help Bai Ze.

The voice record of Ilibera Fink's intelligence to BlackRock is backed up by Kylin.

Just find a suitable opportunity for Barrow to "find" these records.

They naturally have a way to get the documents and submit them to higher levels.

"Remember to add some difficulty to the process. Only the hard work can make it more real." Qin Yu snapped his fingers and smiled.

"Understand." Xu Meixin nodded.

"Any other arrangements?" Qin Yu asked.

"You have a family dinner at noon, you will attend the project progress summary meeting of the Kuafu Research Institute at 2 pm, and you will listen to the Vulcan progress report at 4:30...

After the discussion meeting at 10 o'clock, there are no other arrangements. "

"Okay, let's go down!" Qin Yu rubbed his head, the time line was full.

Everyone will be there for the family dinner at noon.

It was the aunt's family who was about to take the college entrance examination. Cheer up for the cousin in advance, and let the children relax by the way.

During this period of time, he was almost learning crazy. After class, he either stayed in the room to do the questions, or soaked in the library day and night.

If this goes on, I'm really afraid that his tense nerve will be broken...

Cheer for Cui Jun, so that Qin Yu is always upset. The college entrance examination is an important hurdle in life.

After Qin Yu finished the work on hand, he looked up at his watch.

11 o'clock, counting the traffic jam, the time is just right.

My aunt's restaurant is not far from the door, Pingchuan Private Kitchen.

"Hey, Choi Jun, where is it?"

"Brother, you are here, the second floor..."

Asked about the place, Qin Yu went up to the second floor box, and when he walked in, no one had arrived yet. He was not late.

"Brother." Cui Jun was very happy to see Qin Yu.

He has always admired this cousin since he was a child. He felt that he could eat well, he had many friends, and he was very stable and mature in everything he did. He looked good...

Now he is more successful in his career and can be regarded as a celebrity in the business world.

This sense of worship is even stronger.

"Sister, little uncle."

After greeted the two elders first, Qin Yu sat down next to his cousin and said, "How are you preparing?"

"I think there should be no problem!" Cui Jun said without humility.

Speaking of other things, he may have a guilty conscience, but he is not afraid of learning this.

"That's good, don't be nervous, play normally, you will be fine with your grades." Qin Yu said relaxedly.

As the exam is approaching, there is no need to put pressure on him at this time.

In terms of learning, Cui Jun is the most conscious and best learner of all the juniors in the family.

As long as he is not nervous and performs normally, his performance will never be worse.

"It's necessary, I'm still waiting for the test to be completed and driving the sports car to install X!" Cui Jun said with a smile.

"Take the driver's license test first." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

Cui Jun's expression of excitement collapsed, UU read www.uukanshu.com murmured: "I almost forgot, and I need a driver's license."

Qin Yu looked at him dumbfounded, "Don't worry about this, don't just use sports cars, I'm afraid you will get tired of driving in the future."

"Then I am not tired now!" Cui Jun whispered.

"What kind of sports car do you want, you are still in school! What does it look like to go to school in a sports car, don't want it."

"Xiaoyu, you can't buy it for him, I heard you don't." The aunt suddenly interrupted, interrupting Cui Jun's little expectation.

"Mom, my brother promised me, why are you doing this?" Cui Jun retorted unhappily.

"What you promised will not work. You are a student now, and you must put your studies first." The aunt resolutely objected.

"When you get to work, I don't care what car you want to drive. Going to school will definitely not work."

Hearing his mother's resolute tone, Cui Jun's hope was completely wiped out.

In an instant, all the excitement and hope before were gone.

Chapter 829: Who is not to vote

"Why, disappointed?" Qin Yu asked jokingly as Cui Jun lowered his head.

"Why is my mother like this, can't I drive it occasionally?" Cui Jun thought of the sports car promised by his cousin.

Seeing that he was about to get it, he was suddenly cut in the waist by his mother!

Who can bear this grievance?

"Okay, don't be uncomfortable, I'll give you an idea." Qin Yu whispered in his ear.

Since the aunt did not agree to buy a car directly, Qin Yu told him what she thought last time.

"I will give you a full budget of 4 million, and you will spend arbitrarily on graduation from college. Whether you use it to buy a car, buy a house, or start a business, it all depends on you.

"Really?" Cui Jun lost his heart and was blown away by excitement in an instant.

The ups and downs of life are really exciting for my wife.

"Brother can lie to you?" Qin Yu said.

Hearing Cui Jun's excitement yelling, the aunt asked curiously: "What's the truth, what are you talking about with your brother?"

"My brother said he wants to save 4 million for me, and after graduation, let me allocate it at will, and he will buy me a car." Cui Jun said happily.

"No way, no way." The aunt was anxious and waved her hand quickly: "Xiaoyu, you..."

Her words were interrupted by the sudden opening of the door. The uncle's family arrived, and Liang Guiqi sat directly beside Qin Yu and Cui Jun: "Brother, Xiaojun."

"Brother Guiqi." Cui Junxing replied with a lack of response.

He will be emotionally complicated, because his aunt Liang Chujia just didn't finish her words.

"Don't worry, I will tell my auntie when I turn around, don't worry!" Qin Yu touched Cui Jun and signaled him not to worry.

Then the topic ended, everyone talked about Cui Jun's willingness to apply for the exam this time.

The teacher's aunt has the most say, and she fully affirms Cui Jun's grades: "Cui Jun is definitely fine."

Then my mother, the eldest son, and Lao Qin also arrived, followed by the aunt and cousin Zhang Yue.

My cousin Zhang Fang is in Central Plains and she has been very busy with work recently, so she couldn't be there this time.

"Everyone is here, order a la carte, sister, see what you want to eat." The aunt handed the menu to the aunt.

Qin Yu also got a menu here, and choose the dishes he likes with his brothers.

One for mushrooms, one for roast chicken, and one for osmanthus fish.

"Sweet and sour pork loin, cola chicken wings." Liang Guiqi is indispensable for these two, he is a standard carnivore.

"Xiaojun, how about you?"

"Come an ant on the tree, there is a bucket of incense, can eat vegetables and drink soup, the taste is very good." Cui Jun said.

Order a good meal, and the family sits and talks.

After talking a few words, the topic turned to Qin Yu again.

This is about to become a normal state. Although Qin Yu is a little helpless, he is no stranger to it.

"Xiaoyu, your company is getting bigger and bigger now." Aunt Liang Chuhong said suddenly.

"It's okay, the pressure is quite high." Qin Yu responded.

"One person manages such a big company, the pressure must be great."

Liang Chuhong said: "In fact, the auntie wanted to tell you last time that if you don't let your brother go to your company to help, your brothers can also help."

"Sister, I didn't tell you that Xiaoyu's company has no suitable position." Liang Chuyu did not expect that she would mention this again.

The last time I went home, my eldest sister mentioned to her that Zhang Yue would be allowed to work in Qin Yu's company, and she refused.

Who knows that she mentioned it again today, still in front of so many people.

Liang Chuyu looked at Qin Yu, a little worried about what he said.

"I just remembered it again, and asked Xiaoyu, let him do whatever he wanted." Liang Chuhong looked at Qin Yu and waited for his answer.

"Brother, what are you doing now?" Qin Yu didn't actually pay attention to what his cousin's job was.

"At the high-speed toll station, just drink tea and read the newspaper." Zhang Yue smiled and said, "Mom, I'm also doing a good job."

Before he had the opportunity to speak, Zhang Yue wanted to express his position first, it was not his idea.

He is actually quite satisfied with his current job, his salary is stable, he is not busy, and his benefits are pretty good.

Although it is a bit far away, work is not convenient.

But when he finishes learning his driver's license and buys a car, it will be much easier to drive back and forth.

"What a good thing, I earn those two dollars in one month, enough to feed someone?" Liang Chuhong choked.

"Xiaoyu, auntie just feels that her brother is more trustworthy, like finances, etc., you have to use your own talents."

"Auntie, I really don't have a good job right now. I want to be a front-line worker. The salary is not low. It is no problem to make ten or twenty thousand a month!"

"Worker, he can't do that. How could he have done that." Liang Chuhong's face changed, obviously a little dissatisfied.

"Eldest sister, Zhang Yue's job is just fine, I don't know what you have to toss about." The aunt interjected.

"I'm not thinking about him in the future. Just those two moneys, even if they are married, they can't support their wives and children, so I can't count on me."

"What do people expect from you? Why don't the couple earn more than 10,000 yuan a month, it's not enough to live." The uncle said with a grin.

"His name is decent, far worse than Xiaoyu." Liang Chuhong's voice increased.

"Sister, what you said, don't talk about peers, just find someone who can be compared to Xiaoyu, you can't compare it like that."

The aunt felt that the eldest sister was a little bit unsatisfied, and the second sister had not given her less subsidy in the past two years.

Everyone has always made a profit from the money invested in Lixin, and the last time they invested, they made a lot of money.

Time to be content!

"Look at what you said, it seems I have some bad intentions..."

Liang Chuhong wasn't happy anymore, she didn't think that her nephew was developed, she would give her brother a hand, it was nothing...

"Brother, what do you want to do?" The adults said theirs, and Qin Yu chatted with Zhang Yue about his dreams.

"When I was in college, I thought about opening an internet cafe, haha..."

Zhang Yue smiled and scratched his head, "I don't really have any ideas now, just work and do it!"

He studied programming, and when he first graduated, he worked in an Internet cafe for a while.

He has done things like laying network cables, assembling machines, installing software, and messy management systems.

"Internet cafe!"

Qin Yu nodded, thought for a moment and said, "Why don't you make a plan and let me see?"

"Don't you, my mother just wants to come out every time, don't listen to her." Zhang Yue quickly refused.

He really wanted to do it, but that wouldn't allow Qin Yu to pay for it.

Now I don't want to talk about anything else, I can still get a few millions, and I can do it myself.

Zhang Yueke couldn't help this face, and asked Qin Yu to open an Internet cafe for himself.

In fact, Gang's mother said she would let herself work in Miracle Company, and made clear that she wanted Qin Yu to give herself a job for nothing.

He was embarrassed to death in his heart, but he had never given him a chance to speak before.

"Brother, I also do investment. You have a good idea, who shouldn't invest in it?"

Qin Yu began to define this matter as a commercial act, rather than a care for his family.

He doesn't need to be sympathetic, and he doesn't need to make people mistakenly think that he is taking money to make trouble.

This kind of small investment in exchange for other people's brother Yu naturally looks down on it, but if his family wants to do some business.

If there is any good idea, he doesn't mind investing money for a share.

Just like Qin Yu said, whoever voted is not a vote...

He can help his classmates, as long as his family is not too demanding, he will certainly not refuse if he can help.

"so!!"

Zhang Yue was a little moved, and nodded in thought, "Okay, then I will go back and make a plan for you to see."

"Well, you can send me directly when you are done, and we will call when the time comes." Qin Yu smiled, and the topic was over.

Over there, the auntie also left Dao speechless, just as the waiter came to serve the food, so she stopped mentioning it.

After dinner, Qin Yu left first, "The company has a meeting in the afternoon, which is very important. I have to be there before 2 o'clock."

"Go ahead, let's go shopping again." Liang Chuyu urged him to leave quickly.

Qin Yu bid farewell to everyone, went downstairs and got in the car and left.

Looking down from the box, watching the big red Rafa roar toward the main road, leaving in the eyes of everyone.

Who would dare to say that there is not the slightest envy in his heart!

...

...

Kuafu Research Institute is undergoing three intelligent inspections.

After a manpower test, Qin Yu finally entered the main body of the institute.

On the central radio station, the voice of Kylin was playing: "All personnel above level P6, please go to the central meeting room. Repeat, please..."

With the development of the company, the level has a more detailed classification.

The confidentiality level of the headquarters is M1~M8, and it is possible to reach the peak through hard work.

But the above M9~M12 do not only require hard work.

The confidentiality level of scientific research institutions is divided into P1~P6, the single project leader is P7, and the multi-project leader is P8.

The chief person in charge of the project is P9, and there is no precedent for the above!

P6 belongs to the backbone of the project, and is the key person who really determines the details of the project and the speed of progress.

Therefore, this meeting requires all personnel above the P6 level to be present.

Every six months, there will be a summary meeting like this.

Detailed descriptions of the plans, progress, budgets and prospects of the respective projects, including real data obtained from experiments, etc.

At this time, it also often determines whether a project has the hope and necessity to continue.

In the Kuafu Institute, things like starting and closing projects are happening almost every day.

Even some projects start up, shut down, and start again.

No one knows what will happen in the next second, maybe one project had no hope, but other projects have made new progress.

Then I discovered that the road ahead was another golden road.

The road is open again!

As a result, the project restarted, new plans, new plans, new budgets...

Here, Kuafu allows people to make mistakes!

This is also one of the reasons why technicians love to work overtime. They like the working environment and atmosphere here.

everyone.....

Any technical person can boldly imagine and try bravely here.

As long as he has enough ideas and data, he can convince the "Project Approval and Verification Committee."

It is composed of all members above the P6 level. Any project review, approval and approval must be approved by more than half of the members.

Chapter 830: Meeting and verification

"Helium nuclear fusion is progressing smoothly and the temperature problem has been improved. It is only a matter of time before helium 3 is put into use.

At that time, the King Kong-class cruisers will be equipped with new engines to completely solve the hidden dangers of radiation..."

"The development of VR equipment is progressing slowly, and we have reached cooperation intentions with major pharmaceutical groups.

Only the existing nutrient solution, the maximum effect can only maintain the most basic human consumption.

Long-term use will cause various potential dangers and complications..."

"Where is the energy bar?" Qin Yu asked.

"Energy bars are mainly used to replace mental wastage and avoid neurasthenia and brain death.

How to apply its energy to human energy is a difficult problem we are studying and trying to solve! "

"Re-engraving project of industrial master machine." Qin Yu changed the subject.

"It's going well!" Jing Yuan responded.

"Loongson reverse engineering?" Qin Yu.

"It has been fully conquered, and with the results of the harvest, Godson will be ahead of everyone."

"The progress of the graphene project..."

Ask each project one by one, and wait for all the progress and details.

The large conference room began to be cleared, and those above P7 stayed behind, and the rest can go back to work.

At this point, the topic began to be more thorough and in-depth.

For example, two third-generation industrial master machines (reissue version) have been sent to the material conveyor.

There are also detailed data and practical application data of helium 3.

The research and development plan of the new generation of Godson is aimed at the direction and obstacles.

With the wide application of natural graphene and positive feedback, the demand for orders far exceeds the current output.

The amazing performance of titanium and rhodium alloy, "I recommend that it be designated as a strategic material."

"The new generation of suspended robotic arms is what really needs to be paid attention to."

"During the development of Kuafu battery packs, we solved key difficulties to increase battery life by 30%.

In addition, the team members and I agreed that lithium batteries are the future, and the cylindrical isolation structure is the most stable and effective. "

The most confidential data files and development directions of each experiment were mentioned in this high-level meeting.

In the end, there are only two words: ask for money.

Who can get more resources and support, whose project can produce results faster.

The team's performance and bonuses also get the most.

There are also technicians who regard it as the honor of Second Life, and the satisfaction it brings is unmatched by money.

"Okay." Qin Yu raised his eyebrows and shouted.

The noisy and unshakable scene instantly returned to dead silence.

A technical expert who is inexhaustible to the outside world is like a pupil waiting for class at this time.

Stand tall, put your hands on the table obediently, waiting for the teacher to speak.

This respect cannot be exchanged for just money, but also the technology, drawings and follow-up support provided by Qin Yu.

So far, in all the implementation projects, there are more or less problems that he is responsible for solving.

Especially those unsolvable puzzles that make people feel helpless, so that countless technicians can't figure out the clues even if they scratch their heads.

This achievement alone is enough to make people admire and look up at this great * humbly.

Two years ago, Yu might still have a guilty conscience.

Now!

Hehe, who is not an actor anymore.

Isn't it just a play? The performance is over...

"The R&D funds for the second half of the year will not change. Who can come up with the results first, and then come to me to talk."

Hearing what he said, everyone didn't know whether they were happy or sad.

I am glad that the budget has not been cut, at least this year's R&D funds have been stable.

What's uncomfortable is that I thought that with these good news, the boss would allocate another sum of money to them.

It seems that I am thinking too much.

It's right to think about it. The funds approved this year are as high as 160 billion Xia Yuan.

Looking at the world, including large-scale R&D institutions at the international level, there are a few companies that can get such ample funding.

Getting a fraction is enough for the people in charge to laugh out loud in their dreams.

"You one by one, don't fail to know how to be satisfied. You are happy enough to get the current funds.

Boss, I want to talk about the issue of invisible cloth..."

Jing Yuan teased her colleagues and led the topic to another technology.

"Is there anything wrong with the invisible cloth?"

"cost."

"Even if it is reduced by 10 times, its production and R&D costs are still too high. This item alone stands at 12% of the entire R&D funds..."

"Do you want me to suspend the project?"

"No, I think we should increase investment to fundamentally solve the cost problem!" Jing Yuan's proposal is exactly the opposite of his guess.

She believes that investment in manpower and materials should be increased.

Directly solve the problem of high cost of invisible cloth, and give it a one-time price.

"how long it takes?"

"About 4-9 months, it should be possible."

This answer does not satisfy Qin Yu, if according to Jing Yuan's statement.

Other projects will be delayed or even suspended because of it, seriously delaying the progress of the entire project.

"Team Leader Jing, you are not so authentic, what about our project?" Someone immediately put forward a rebuttal.

"I know that this will delay everyone's progress, and it can solve the problem at once, which is good for everyone."

"That may be the case, what if you encounter any difficulties?"

"That's right, let's talk about it. In terms of percentage, the several projects you support have achieved fruitful results, but the proportion of funds has not dropped at all."

"Yes, Team Leader Jing, why your project investment is so large, should we conduct a fund review!"

This is not aimed at Jing Yuan, no one will think she is greedy for research and development funds.

It's just that the entire project is a huge project, subdivided into dozens or hundreds of small working groups.

Some working groups even have only one person in charge. Whether there is something tricky in it, you have to check carefully to know.

"The people under me won't have any problems, and I carefully check the funds every time." Jing Yuan said decisively.

Even if it is necessary to investigate, it is not raised by others, although they are not malicious.

But this is obviously challenging her authority and control over the entire team, Jing Yuan will not let go.

"Otherwise, let's conduct a full inspection." Shi Cui suggested.

"That's not bad, for so long, it should be refreshing for everyone." Shi Cui nodded in approval.

Everyone turned their attention to Qin Yu, this time Jing Yuan did not object.

If all project teams are within the scope of verification, then she has no need to object.

Doing so will only make her feel guilty...

"Okay, just as Cui Geng said." Qin Yu set his pace.

...

...

"Eh, have you heard? The research institute needs to conduct a comprehensive inspection, and all projects and capital expenditures are within the scope of the inspection."

"Which year are you in the old calendar? Do you know our new project? It's nano engineering, and it's really lively right now.

As soon as the funding approval was obtained, the inspections were carried out at the top. Many people said that it was because of the tricky things in it..."

"Nano-engineering, this is not easy to investigate!"

"Let me say, you should worry about your own business, and be careful that the previous substitute is discovered."

"When you find it, you will find it. The work that should be done is done, it is nothing more than a violation of the regulations."

"Hehe, it's easy to say, don't forget that you are Team Leader Jing."

"Fuck~ Will the devil's head just open me? It's over, this time I hit the iron plate."

"Deserve it, who made you think about picking up girls every day!"

"Big Brother, I'm running four and I want to find a woman to start a family. What's wrong?"

"Your blind date is at a bar, nightclub, bath center?"

"Then I'm not trying to resolve loneliness, by the way, I find a woman from the wind and dust that is worth saving, and pull her ashore to start again."

"Oh hello, your awakening, you regard yourself as a saint!"

"Fuck you, hurry up..."

"Eh eh eh, don't talk about it, people from the Ministry of Internal Affairs are here."

"Shh~"

Nan Zhonghao led people by and was very satisfied with the fearful expressions of the technicians.

As the head of the internal affairs department, what he wants is the effect of this kind of fear and disgust

The former can allow the Ministry of Internal Affairs to maintain internal deterrence, while the latter can allow the boss to delegate power with confidence.

If the internal affairs department mingle with the employees, they are harmonious and loving, just like brothers.

Which boss can rest assured, what good is it for you?

"Head, here." In front of the air pressure door, someone reminded Nan Zhonghao who was distracted.

"In the notice, call people out." Nan Zhonghao said calmly: "Just say that the team leader is looking for her. You all let go."

Everyone spread out to the sides and waited quietly against the wall.

One person stepped forward and pressed the call button: "Hello, please find Dr. Bonan Sun."

"Hello, this is Sun Bonan, who?"

"Hello, Team Leader Jing is looking for you for something, please go to the office."

"now?"

"Yes, it seems that there is an error in some data, please go over immediately."

"okay, I get it."

After the conversation, the other party stood in front of the airlock and waited with a smile.

A figure appeared in the upper window, took off his protective clothing, cleaned and disinfected, and the airlock door opened.

"Dr. Sun."

"I'm."

"We are the Ministry of Internal Affairs, please come with us."

"..."

On the 119th floor of the headquarters, Qin Yu took the latest personnel file from Xu Meixin, "How many is this?"

Greed for 2.1 million ink, this woman looked gentle, but she was more courageous than a man.

With an annual salary of 680,000, plus performance and previous bonuses, her annual income reached 920,000 before tax.

In this way, it is not enough to make her feel satisfied.

"The third." Xu Meixin responded.

"Secretary Xu, am I too confident?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"The boss gave them full trust, because they failed the boss's trust. UU read www.uukanshu.com" Xu Meixin said.

"What do you think the company should do?" Qin Yu seemed to be asking her, but actually it was more like asking herself.

"Severely punished without loan!" Xu Meixin said coldly.

Severe punishment without loan coincides with Qin Yu's idea.

These guys have failed themselves and the company's expectations, no matter what the responsibility is, they should bear it.

If they are not severely punished, how can they be worthy of other people who work hard.

"Give it to the police and file a lawsuit against him, and I want to get all the losses back." Qin Yu handed the document back to Xu Meixin.

Not only the losses they have caused, including the previous work income, but also all the rest.

Maybe the former miracle company gave people too good impression.

Now, let them see the other side of cruelty.

High salary, high treatment, rights and status, everything has a price!
