Chapter 841: Support education

Xitong released it earlier than Lixin.

Therefore, before leaving, Qin Yu needs to help Lu Qing clean up the bedroom.

Several girls hugged each other in the dormitory, crying and crying about the future...

After ten minutes, the mood finally calmed down.

Each family went up to pack their luggage, Qin Yu also took Lu Qing's packed suitcase, and took her away from the campus where there were four years of precious memories.

"I really can't bear it." Lu Qing said with dismay, looking at the campus gate.

"It's okay, you can come and see it more often in the future. It's a 20-minute drive." Qin Yu turned in the direction of big G and drove in the direction where he had come.

Lu Qing was also amused by him, and slapped him angrily, and said, "It's a sad thing at first, so you can tell it like a joke."

"What joke, isn't it true?" Qin Yu retorted.

"Also say, also say..."

On the way home, Qin Yu suddenly asked, "By the way, you have a guy named Beiyi in your school, do you know him?"

"Beiyi?" Lu Qing repeated the name, lost in thought.

Suddenly, his eyes lit up and said: "Ah, I remembered, it was the poor student."

"Extremely poor students?" Qin Yu asked.

"Yes, the girl is gentle and gentle, and she is very introverted. She doesn't talk to anyone. I heard that it is very difficult at home..."

Both my father and mother have passed away, and I have lived with my grandfather since childhood..."

My parents died young and I lived with my grandfather, and my grandmother was seriously ill and couldn't work.

Grandpa made some money alone, and it was all spent on medical treatment.

Fortunately, she won herself, and finally got the sponsorship from the village and applied for the special hardship subsidy so that she could come to school.

"However, she usually lives very hard. I heard that she has to do two jobs every day to help her grandfather reduce the burden."

"Why did you suddenly think of asking this??" Lu Qing looked at him curiously.

Qin Yu smiled and said, "I couldn't find the performing arts hall before, so I happened to run into her and asked for directions... She ran away like a bad guy."

"It seems that your charm is quite big."

Lu Qing smiled and said, "If it were someone else, she might have run away before speaking."

"In fact, the student association wanted to help her, and we also organized a small donation ceremony.

But classmate Beiyi refused, and instead asked for another job opportunity. Unfortunately, don't dismiss after a few days. "

Lu Qing said with some regret that she actually wanted to help this school girl.

But the other's self-esteem is very strong, he is unwilling to accept direct help from anyone, his personality is particularly introverted, and he is not lukewarm to anyone.

It always makes people feel like a hot face is stuck to a cold butt, and it makes people speechless!

Several classmates who wanted to help her finally retreated because of this situation.

"By the way, does Lixin want to expand its enrollment? It's better to let her work as a clerk in there part-time." Lu Qing suggested.

She had heard Jiang Luo say before that the company had to expand its enrollment.

Select a group of qualified civilian staff, all positions have vacancies.

I just don't know if part-time is possible, after all, she hasn't graduated yet, so full-time is definitely not acceptable.

"You have got in touch with Xiao Luo." Qin Yu said casually: "If you can help, please help."

"Yeah." Lu Qing nodded, her expression becoming heavy.

"What's wrong?" Seeing her look, it was obvious that something was on his mind.

"that."

Lu Qing looked at Qin Yu with some embarrassment, and said carefully: "Husband, I'll tell you something, don't be angry."

"How could I be angry with you?" Qin Yu stretched out her hand to poke away the broken hair of her bangs, and said softly.

"The school recruits support teachers, I signed up." Lu Qing said quickly, lowering his head.

Squeak~

In one direction, the big G stopped on the side of the road, causing passers-by to watch and take pictures.

Qin Yu didn't care at all, and said sternly, "Don't you think you should discuss this with me in advance?"

Lu Qing can think of going to the countryside to support education. This is a good thing, and there is no reason not to support it.

Can be seen from the point of view of boyfriends and prospective fiancées.

She decides the course of the next few years alone, is it a bit too selfish?

What should I do by myself, when I come back...

Well, it seems to be more generous.

But this is not the key, Qin Yu is afraid that she can't stand the suffering.

Supporting education is not a joke, the conditions are really hard, so many young people with gratitude and dreams.

Within a few months after I went down, I ran back crying. It was too bitter and too difficult.

Not only in terms of material conditions, the promotion of educational work in some places is simply difficult.

Young people who have just graduated are embarking on the most difficult education positions.

No salary, difficult environment!

Crying is nothing, and many people have been beaten to give up their dreams.

"I thought about it, I can do all of these."

"The difficulties in reality are more complicated than imagined. It's not just what you think alone. Every child, family...

The local environment and yamen's support, roads, traffic, safety... By the way, where did you apply? "

Qin Yu found out that she seemed to be led astray. It wasn't that she was going to teach her a good lesson, and she should not be able to make propositions in the future.

Suddenly, she was led to discuss how to start the work of supporting education in the countryside.

Seeing Lu Qing pleased to hold his arm, Qin Yu could only helplessly shook his head.

Forget it, who should be his own woman, who does not care for her?

"This time the list should not go out of the province. It depends on the school arrangements."

"Don't leave the province, what you said is so light!"

Brother Yu didn't bother to vomit anymore, and he didn't want to leave the province. There was a difference between what he said and didn't say.

"Have you really thought about it?" Qin Yu asked.

"Well, I really thought about it. I had this idea when I was a junior, and I have been thinking about it for two years." Lu Qing said with a deep breath.

She had been preparing for a long time, but when she was about to face this moment, she was still a little nervous.

She is not afraid of bad environment or hard work. She is afraid that people will not get along well, and no one will support and understand.

This is the worst situation for Lu Qing...

"Well, I will accompany you when I confirm the list." Qin Yu said, holding her hand.

She is an adult, now that she has made a decision.

Then we must insist on doing our best, instead of trying to retreat when encountering difficulties, and giving up halfway will never work.

"No." Lu Qing refused decisively.

Just thinking about it can guess, he must be dissatisfied with everything wherever he goes.

Then, with a big wave of donations.

It seems to be a good thing, but it is better to teach people how to fish than to teach people how to fish.

Why are there so many places where poverty alleviation has been done for so many years?

Corruption is one aspect, and another aspect is laziness and greed.

I am addicted to eating subsidies, and put on an attitude of "I am poor and I am reasonable, and I just wait for people to help me."

I helped it today, what about tomorrow? What about the day after tomorrow?

If you are poor, you have to think about changes. If you don't know how to work, you will be poor even if you don't know how to adapt.

She is going to help the children and change their future destiny.

Instead of raising a group of slackers, only knowing how to lie on others to **** blood, sit back and enjoy the results...

Niangniang's experience tells us that there is no difference between blindly giving and taking!

"I'm going to send you off to the head office?" Qin Yu asked.

"No, I asked my dad to borrow a car to send me off." Lu Qing shook his head.

She was not only worried that Qin Yu was too high-profile, but also worried that he saw that the environment was too harsh and directly opposed her staying.

That's why she is so resolutely opposed to...

"Let's talk at that time!" Qin Yu ended the topic directly, and it was better to talk to Lu Guohui than to talk to Lu Qing.

Otherwise, talk to He Hong, the expectant mother-in-law wants to stay with Lu Qing every day.

As long as Qin Yu mentioned it, the matter would not go away.

Lao Lu and Xiao Lu, both of them don't have the same last name.

It's so realistic!

"Go, take you to eat delicious food."

After taking Lu Qing to a big meal, Qin Yu took her to a movie.

The two played until dark, and then they sent her home.

At 11 o'clock in the night, the lights at home were already off.

Qin Yu turned off the flames far away, and walked to the door with Lv Qing's hands and feet with luggage.

"I can't accompany you for these two days, I have to take care of my work before I leave." At the gate, Qin Yu put the box down and said.

"Well, be careful yourself, remember to tell me when you leave." Lu Qing kissed her goodbye with her feet on her feet.

Neither of them noticed that the light in the living room turned on at some point.

Then, the door opened.

"Cough~" He Hong wanted to laugh but not funny looking at the two people who were forgotten.

Being an elder always has to be a little bit, not to laugh, and definitely not to laugh.

"mom!"

"Good evening, Auntie."

"Cough cough~" He Hong cleared his throat, and couldn't help but raise the corner of his mouth: "Why come back so late?"

"It's a bit late to watch a movie," Qin Yu explained.

"Well, that, don't run away next time, stay outside late and don't have to come back specially." He Hong still couldn't hold back what he said.

Hearing her mother say this, Lu Qing split instantly, "Mom, what are you talking about?"

Pulling her mother who was already showing her aunt's smile, Lu Qing said quickly: "Go, be careful on the road, bye bye!"

"No, don't worry, I have something to say to Xiaoyu, oops~ bang!" The door closed tightly.

"Mom, if you tell me this, you can talk nonsense in front of him."

"What does it matter, you are about to get engaged anyway..."

"Ah, don't I want face?"

"Take you, I'm going to sleep, don't call me..."

"Eh, you kid, I'm not doing this for your own good, don't leave, wait, mother has something to say..."

When a person woke up in the bedroom alone, Brother Yu looked around a bit unaccustomed to.

Well, at home, that's right!

I slept quite comfortably, but there was no smell around me.

It feels a bit worse.

After washing it well, Qin Yu went downstairs, and Little Pumpkin was eating breakfast.

Seeing his scared expression, he will run away, "eat obediently, or beat you!"

The twisted body is instantly honest, UU reading www.uukanshu.com sat down in a chair grievingly with his mouth suffocated.

While eating, he stared carefully at his brother, for fear that he would suddenly come over and punch his little ass.

My elder brother is not good at all, he always likes to slap my ass, bad elder brother~~

"Is there something going on in the morning?" Liang Chuyu woke up too, put on light makeup, quite formal.

"Nothing, what's the matter?" Qin Yu asked.

"Then you take the little pumpkin! During this time, your dad and I were very busy, so I didn't take him out much."

"Aren't there any aunts?" Qin Yu asked.

"Auntie can be the same as you?" Liang Chuyu retorted.

"All right, then he will go to work with me today." Qin Yu nodded.

From beginning to end, both of them ignored Pumpkin's resistance to shaking his head.

Seeing that things were set, Little Pumpkin shouted with tears in the corners of her eyes: "Why, I don't want to go... It's too difficult!"

Chapter 842: Made you apologize, didn't make you lie

Because he had to take a little pumpkin to go out, Qin Yu could only drive his father's big G with a baby seat on it.

"Sit down!" Qin Yu squeezed his face and drove to the company.

On the way, the little guy didn't say a word, sitting obediently and playing with his fingers.

When he arrived, he was put down by Qin Yu and walked to the company hand in hand.

A pair of **** eyes looked around curiously, sometimes shining, sometimes confused.

"Big sister, so many beautiful big sisters!" Little Pumpkin looked dazzled.

"boss."

"Hello Dong Qin."

"Qin Dong, is this?"

"My brother, Xiao Qin."

"Little Qin is good."

"Oh, Xiao Qin is so cute!"

"President Xiao Qin, do you want my sister to hold him?"

"President Qin, Xiao Qin's eyes are too much like you."

After a while, the little pumpkin was surrounded by a group of fairies.

Those who pinch their faces, those who grasp their hands, and those who touch or kiss on their bodies...

When Qin Yu took the little pumpkin from the arms of the female fairies, the kid's smiling eyes disappeared.

His face was full of lipstick marks, and he laughed endlessly.

"Is it beautiful?" Qin Yu asked.

"Fairy, pretty fairy." Little Pumpkin clapped his hands and said.

He likes this place so much, what a good place it is, it must be noted down.

From now on, I will bring my dad together and find beautiful fairy sisters to play games.

"happy?"

Little Pumpkin nodded vigorously, and said: "Brother, look for sister to play, look for beautiful big sister."

"I'll find you a beautiful big sister in a while." Pulling him into the elevator, bid farewell to all the female fairies.

The little pumpkin who came to the top-level office with Qin Yu's eyes straightened when she saw Xu Meixin.

Beautiful, big sister, so beautiful!

"Sister, hug." Little Pumpkin asked for a hug on her own initiative.

Xu Mei was stunned, and turned around to put down the papers and hug him. It's not easy to refuse the children brought by the boss!

But when she looked back, the little pumpkin had been stuffed into the office door by Qin Yu's head.

"That's my brother, don't worry about him, let's talk about today's arrangements first..." Qin Yu said as usual.

Xu Meixin was taken aback again, and then she seemed to be trying to understand something.

He smiled at the boss, held the document in his arms again, and reported today's itinerary to him.

"Boss, you and Sister Xu have a job, why should I accompany Mr. Qin?" Sun Yuan stood up and said.

"Okay, just like that." Qin Yu nodded and said.

With the boss's approval, Madoka opened the door and saw the little pumpkin standing at the door anxiously thinking of it.

"Mr. Qin, this is Xiao Yuan, can you play with you?" Xiao Yuan crouched in front of him and said.

Little Pumpkin pointed her finger at the corner of her mouth, looked at her face seriously, then down, then down...

"No, I want a pretty big sister!" Little Pumpkin rushed out as he said.

Madoka: I @* ¥ &* @ ¥ *)

The boss is fine, how come a little manager Qin is the same.

What's wrong with me? I'm a little smaller, shorter, and shorter legs.

But compared to other women, she is also a big beauty!

Why are you going to experience this? Are you reasonable...

Blue thin!

Just when Madoka was about to cry without tears, Pumpkin suddenly pulled the edge of her clothes from behind.

"Um?"

Xiaoyuan looked at him in surprise, and said: "Mr. Qin, I figured it out, you still have vision, sister is very good, let's go, I will take you to eat delicious food."

"Auntie, Cauldron and beautiful sister are gone, can you take me to find them?" Little Pumpkin looked at Madoka with big innocent eyes.

Click~

Madoka split on the spot, what did she hear, "Ah, auntie?"

...

On the 108th floor, Qin Yu is checking the external "brain" of Kylin.

The upgrading of electronic products is fast, and Kirin is also constantly updating its external "brain."

Although the calculation speed of each increase is basically equivalent to nothing for it.

But using these external "brains" can handle some simple calculation problems.

Let it put more "brain power" on important things.

"One person" is responsible for more than a dozen scientific research projects, but also takes into account the management of the entire building headquarters, the progress of the Hudu project and the lunar base...

It is also very busy!

"Have those guys achieved any results?" Sitting in front of the server, Qin Yu muttered to himself while changing the hardware.

"Humans are really magical creatures. Is combative by nature?" Qilin suddenly became a lot of problems.

"Why do you ask?" Qin Yu responded.

"The result you want." Qilin.

The picture flickered in front of me, and then there was a huge drill bit, above it was a shrinking column, and the top end appeared like a flower bud.

Airborne warehouse, the first product of Lunar 2 base.

Its image reminded Qin Yu of the diamond pestle, the huge drill bit below it, which can break through the resistance and speed up when descending.

After landing, the drill bit can penetrate into the ground instantly to ensure the safety of internal personnel.

The upper narrow section long rod will separate the shell several times during the descent process to confuse the enemy and protect the airborne cabin.

At the same time, after the last separation before landing, an automatic machine gun around 360 degrees will be exposed inside.

The moment it hits the ground, there will be 20,000 bullets clearing all nearby obstacles.

If it were to land in the middle of the battlefield, the situation would be very dangerous.

Ordinary bullets can no longer solve the problem, so the bud at the top can be manipulated to open.

As the outer shell exploded, the ricochet inside would explode instantly, releasing powerful firepower, like a goddess scattered flowers sweeping the entire battlefield.

It is born for the most tragic battle.

No wonder Kylin has such emotions, nature!

"Perhaps!" Qin Yu responded with a smile, and then asked: "Can the ricochet be loaded with burst bombs?"

"...Yes." Kylin's answer hesitated for a few seconds.

It has become more and more intelligent, and Qin Yu felt that it was just thinking about whether to make this kind of war weapon even more terrifying.

If the ricochet is equipped with a split bomb, it can indeed sweep any battlefield.

As the strongest product of the Fosun Empire (former), nothing can stop this special bullet.

Qin Yu even doubted whether the titanium rhodium alloy could withstand the powerful split bombs.

"I should find a chance to try it." Qin Yu said to himself.

After all the hardware was replaced, it passed in the morning.

"Let's go!" Walking out of the explosion-proof door, the original transparent glass returned to cover up, and Qin Yu took Xu Meixin back to the top floor.

"Qin Dong, can I go back?" The first time she saw Qin Yu, Xiao Yuan said something strange.

"What?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"Well, I want to go back to work and change someone else to bring President Xiao Qin, okay?" Madoka said without tears.

She is really going crazy, why is it so difficult for children now.

All morning, Madoka survived in embarrassment under his complaints and blows.

What's even more annoying is that every time he says something cruel, he will look at himself with big innocent eyes.

With an innocent expression, he said heart-wrenching words.

Cracked!

Madoka has begun to doubt life, is she really worthless?

"I see, I have worked hard for you." Qin Yu nodded.

After speaking, I walked straight to the office, and after a while, there was a cry of "Wow" in the room.

Ah, so cool~

At this moment, Madoka's mood was extremely comfortable.

The wicked have their own grievances, and the only thing that scares the little devil is the big devil, the boss.

Qin Yu didn't know that he was the most ferocious big devil in Xiao Yuan's heart after he had just cleaned up the little pumpkin and asked him to sit down.

Click!

The door opened, and the little pumpkin with teardrops on his face came out.

Standing at the desk, he bowed to Madoka and said, "I'm sorry, ah... sister."

"No, it doesn't matter, there is no need to apologize, President Xiao Qin." Standing up, Xiao Yuan waved her hands in a panic.

"He should apologize, what else does UU read www.uukanshu.com have to say?" Qin Yu said with a black face.

"Suck, suck..."

While sobbing, Little Pumpkin said again: "I won't dare anymore, my sister is the most beautiful."

Xiaoyuan smiled awkwardly, standing still a little at a loss.

"Okay, let's go back!" Qin Yu hooked Little Pumpkin's head and led him back to the office.

The moment the door closed, Madoka who was pleased and happy heard the boss's voice.

"Who asked you to say the last sentence."

"Big brother, you made me apologize."

"I'm asking you to apologize, I didn't tell you to lie, you are not allowed to lie, you know?"

"Oh, then I'm going to tell my sister, isn't she pretty?"

"..." Ahhhhh

My mother wants to go in and fight them hard, I'm so bombed!

Chapter 843: Alarm bell

At noon, the cafeteria.

"Dong Qin, is our company engaged in working days with children?" The executives who saw Little Pumpkin joked.

"Yes, if you can't get a baby tomorrow, you just wait for the bonus to be deducted!" Qin Yu said blankly.

"Don't, Qin Dong, I was wrong, I was wrong." Wang Zhe folded his fists and begged for mercy.

"Who else wants to be a father, I will give him some motivation." Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"No, no, raising a child is such a troublesome thing, who wants to do it." Su Shu said casually.

"That's it, it's nice to be alone." Watson agreed.

"Eh, what are you talking about?" Xu Hao came, still holding a bottle of red wine in his hand.

"Mr. Xu, did you drink it during working hours?" Watson turned off the topic.

"Where is it! I'll bring it as a gift from someone else," Xu Hao said.

"Who gave it, why did no one give me something?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"..." Everyone looked at each other.

Brother, are you confused about your identity?

Do you think you are not fast enough to give you gifts?

"98 Margaux, Mr. Xu, this wine is good!" Wang Zhe picked up the wine and glanced at it and said.

"It's okay, I don't want everyone to taste it together!" Xu Hao smiled.

"Dong Qin, look!" Watson looked at Qin Yu.

"Then have a taste, say yes, don't drive this afternoon, let the driver arrange." Safety must be paid attention to.

How did the accident happen? Luckily it was a fluke!

"Okay, I'll drive."

Wang Zhe took the wine and smiled and said to Xu Hao, "Mr. Xu, I can drive."

"Open it, it's for everyone to drink, don't be polite." Xu Hao waved his hand and laughed.

Wave~

Opening the bottle, Wang Zhe found the goblet and poured it on everyone.

Suddenly, Qin Yu said: "Yes, guys have everything prepared, get together often?"

quiet!

"Haha, Brother Yu, don't scare them, this is not prepared for outsiders!

Let's talk about cooperation, we don't often do it in the company..."

Xu Hao reminded everyone that this was for entertaining partners.

They also get together occasionally and occasionally.

"Yes, Qin Dong, we never drink during working hours." Wang Zhe held the bottle, feeling extremely hot.

Why does he have to come out, he really owes his hands, he owes...

Wang Zhe wanted to slap himself twice so as to give himself a long memory.

Seeing that the atmosphere is still a bit nervous, Qin Yu smiled wildly and said: "Just kidding, haha, don't be nervous!"

Seeing the smile on his face, everyone laughed.

"Dong Qin, you scared me to death."

"That is, if you don't bring this, it will scare you out of heart disease sooner or later."

"I thought Qin Dong was very old-fashioned, and he also had a young side."

"Then you are underestimating Qin Dong, he is a veteran of Hua Cong..."

"Get out, drink and drink." Qin Yu raised his glass, and everyone touched it.

Ding!

The atmosphere became strong, and the little pumpkin also grabbed the things on the table and delivered it to his mouth.

Hmm, it's delicious, much better than mom's made...

I will come here to work in the future, and eat such delicious food every day.

There are also beautiful fairy sisters, who can play games with them and have **** with them.

Thinking about it, Little Pumpkin showed a happy smile on his face, clapped his hands and laughed "guckling".

After a few drinks, everyone left the venue after a full meal.

Only Xu Hao stayed and said: "You go first, I will talk to Qin Dong."

Several people said goodbye to Qin Yu, walked out of the box and closed the door by the way.

Walking quietly towards the elevator, Wang Zhe suddenly said, "You said, is Gang Qin Dong joking?"

Watson stopped in front of the elevator and raised his mouth without looking back: "What do you think?"

Su Shu answered: "The research institute just finished its internal self-examination a few days ago."

When it comes to this, I can't understand it better.

The boss is dissatisfied with the increasingly impetuous people in the company. This is taking the opportunity to beat them!

Maybe even Xu Hao came to this scene with wine, it was arranged in advance.

So, it is natural to sing the play just now!

After eating this meal today, I have to conduct self-examination and self-examination when I return to the department.

Otherwise, the next time the Ministry of Internal Affairs finds it is not a scientific research institute.

Back in the office, Watson asked the secretary to convene a meeting of department personnel for the first time.

All group leaders and above must be present...

The same scene also happened in the other departments, and did not participate in the high-level staff meal at noon.

They also used their respective channels to find out what happened at noon, and immediately realized the seriousness of the problem.

The miracle smooth development process has made the company's mentality drift from top to bottom.

I was a little confused about where I was and started to become impetuous.

The same goes for the heads of various departments!

Today's meal is to wind them up again, to sound the alarm!

If anyone is wrong, he will leave next time.

...

In the dining room, Xu Hao, who was sitting on the chair with his hands on the back of the chair, his waist as his butt, and his legs swayed triumphantly.

"Brother Yu, how is my play?" He is asking for credit!

He has been practicing for several days in order to make this show today.

Expressions, actions, and lines are all rehearsed many times in advance.

Just for this bright moment, perfect!

"Exercise too hard." Qin Yu blew the tea leaves floating on the water and responded faintly.

"No, I think it's good, Ding Dong, Ding Dong~"

Xu Hao picked up the phone and took a look, and smiled triumphantly: "Look, this hasn't been convened for a meeting."

Qin Yu took a sip of tea, looked up at him, and said, "That's why I said you used too much force."

"Slap, it doesn't hurt or itchy, can you remember the lesson?"

"You have to give it a pain, kill the chicken and the monkey, so that they can remember it." Qin Yu originally planned to find a special case to "slaughter" it.

Then, other people will immediately think of the meaning of today's meal.

But who knows that his performance is too obvious, so that the people present can see the flaws.

No, it has already begun to rectify.

But how long this rectification can last, Qin Yu asked a question mark in his heart!

The bigger the company, the more complicated it is to manage.

Because the human mind is complicated and fickle...

Except for a limited number of people and members of the Three Qin Association, Qin Yu couldn't guarantee anything.

Even in the Sanqin Club, it was not a matter of corruption of the Mexican R&D fund.

This also made Qin Yu realize that loyalty does not mean that there will be no selfishness.

Greed for money and loyalty to the company can go hand in hand.

The complexity of people's hearts can be seen...

Although not as perfect as planned, it also sounded the alarm for everyone.

Don't think that you don't know anything when the boss is away, there are "countless pairs" of eyes staring at him.

Strengthen cooperation with Aixia and expand the scope of cooperation.

To build a basic mobile phone ecosystem and provide necessary technical support.

Signing this final document, Qin Yu ends the day's work.

Since the development of Aixia's Hongmeng ecology, it has begun to take shape.

But compared with international giants, there is still a huge gap.

It is not a technological gap, but the base, that is, the audience and the number of users.

No matter how powerful your system is, how can you attract developers with a low base number?

Without a developer, there will be no APP. Inconvenient use will cause more users to be lost. With fewer users, it is not worth the developer's time and effort.

Once such a vicious circle is fixed, the system is completely abolished.

Now, it is either to increase the user base, attract developers, and let them see profitability.

Otherwise, use high-quality platform content to attract more user bases.

Aixia asks for miracle, just want to take the second way!

Entertainment and leisure are the fastest and most effective way of drainage, and the success of "Ghost" makes Aixia want to take a gamble.

Of course, it would be better if it was a mobile terminal.

With the popularity of "Ghost", I still worry about the base and sales...

If it can only be tied to Aixia's Hongmeng system, foreigners will beg them to open up the platform.

Where is it like now, all good things are said, begging others, people still have to consider whether or not to come.

After all, you can understand, who will give too little?

No one is willing to be thankless and do nothing for nothing!

What Hongmeng needs is not the most basic APP, but pan-entertainment and deep-level expansion.

After all, large companies like Xinwei, Penguin, and certain treasure must be the first to set an example.

Whether you make money or not is secondary, but attitude is the key.

In the past few years, the two families have been beaten up. If there is no attitude, it will be numb...

Qin Yu intends to hand over this work to the Network Department, with Qilin assisting.

These guys have rested for so long, and it's time to move around.

The daily maintenance of "Golden Demon" actually has nothing to do. The so-called BUG is also a daily joke of Kylin.

However, technicians really learned a lot from BUG.

This is also a day when Qin Yu deliberately raises them and cultivates skills.

This time the Hongmeng crisis is a practice.

If he can't get any results, Qin Yu must consider whether he should expel some people to mobilize enthusiasm.

People stay in the comfort zone for a long time, and their minds will be fascinating.

"Secretary Xu, tell President Tang that this cooperation is very important, so he must take a good grasp of it.

In terms of drainage, you can find inspiration from the monsters and think of a way. Now that the application of VR is so hot, I think he can find a way. "

"Okay, boss, I will tell Mr. Tang." Xu Meixin followed his footsteps and asked, "Are you leaving now?"

"Yes, it's okay, I still have some personal affairs to do" Qin Yu said.

"Do you want me to follow?" Xu Meixin asked, her eyes full of hope.

"Yes, you are also ready to prepare, this time I will accept the City of Miracles in the past, and you are busy." Qin Yu said.

"Okay, boss, then I'll add a ticket." Xu Meixin went busy happily.

"Buy first class!" Qin Yu shook her head and smiled dumbly when she saw her happy look.

It was because she was subsidized for a business trip. The subsidy of 2,000 yuan per day is not a small amount for anyone.

The most important thing is that there is no need for reimbursement.

It is your freedom to spend it or not. To put it bluntly, it is no different from giving it directly.

Formal employees above M5 and P3 have similar treatment.

All day long, for a business trip subsidy of several hundred yuan, the employees are all devoted to finding invoices.

Where did the concentration and execution power come from, do the work beautifully!

Chapter 844: of equal importance

"Pretty sister, goodbye!"

Little Pumpkin waved to Xu Meixin, and Qin Yu jumped into the elevator with her little hand.

"Big brother, where is the other sister?"

"It should be something going out."

"Oh, I still want to tell her, tell her..."

"Shhh, don't talk, my sister will be angry."

"Why? Because it's not pretty..."

The elevator door was closed, and a strange sound of "jiji" came from Sun Yuan's empty table.

"Madooaka?"

Xu Meixin, who was packing her things, stepped back and looked under the table.

The shrunken shadow squatted under the table, and his shoulders trembled.

Sun Yuan, who was desperately covering his mouth with his hands, sobbed silently, an angry cry sounded from the bottom of his heart.

"Why, people are hiding, why do you treat me like this, ah... my heart hurts and I'm going to die."

...

...

"Brother, can you take me to play?" Sitting in the car, the little pumpkin swung his legs.

"Don't make a noise, take you home, eldest brother has something to do." Qin Yu responded.

"Big Brother, Xiao Ming is celebrating his birthday. It's good~~ Many people gave him gifts, as well as cars and Ultraman, Ultraman!"

With a long ending note, the little guy was obviously arranging with him.

"I know, I will remember your birthday." Qin Yu said.

"Thank you, big brother, big brother, can you go to the beach?" Little Pumpkin asked.

"Sanya, Sanya!"

He has not forgotten the beauty of Sanya.

Mom said that she was going to kindergarten.

There are a lot of kids, it sounds very interesting.

However, this way there is no way to go out to play, so...

"I see, the birthday in the solar calendar is celebrated in Sanya, I will tell my mother." Qin Yu agreed.

On July 5th, I also graduated by that time.

Just to go to Sanya for a holiday.

"Yeah~"

Little Pumpkin was happy Biye, her eyes were shining brightly.

Big sister~

Beautiful big sister~

In a bikini, the white and tender big sister...

Babble, babble!

Big sister, big sister, beautiful big sister...

"came back?"

Watching the boss lead her second child and walk in from the porch together, Liang Chuyu put on her sleeves and walked towards the kitchen.

"Well, we are back." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Well, we are back." Little Pumpkin learned something.

"Wait, dinner will start soon." Liang Chuyu swiftly managed the dinner with his aunt.

As long as there is time, Liang Chuyu will personally participate in it.

In this way, it is like a home!

Three meats and three vegetables, six dishes, plus a pigeon soup.

The food was put on the table, and Comrade Qin also returned.

"Hurry up and wash your hands to eat." Liang Chuyu put the soup away.

The little pumpkin hurriedly placed chopsticks, and Qin Yu placed the small bowls in their respective positions.

The whole family will work together and will soon be able to eat at the table.

"Okay, let's get started!" Comrade Qin gave orders after sitting down.

"Meat, fleshy, want fleshy meat." Little Pumpkin shook his head and shouted that he wanted to eat meat.

"Give you to you, all to you, like a meat general one day, do you lack meat to eat?"

Liang Chuyu added a bowl of meat to him with a look of disgust, and she became more and more accustomed to her son's appetite.

For a small bowl like this, two servings are his normal amount...

In the past, Liang Chuyu was worried about indigestion.

But since there was a weight reduction, he was hungry...

Liang Chuyu understands that the appetite of her second child is quite different from that of her peers.

"You can't just eat meat, give him some vegetables." Lao Qin said, pointing to the stir-fried vegetables.

Liang Chuyu used a small plate and gave him a piece of greens.

As soon as he placed it in front of Little Pumpkin, he pushed it away with his hands disgustingly, "Don't eat, don't eat."

As he was talking, Little Pumpkin felt a cold chill.

Looking for the source along the chill, he saw a cold face.

yes, Sir.

He looked at him blankly, with the words "Are you looking for death?"

Wow~

Pushing the small bowl full of meat aside, the little pumpkin pulled the plate in front of him at the fastest speed.

A chopstick was filled with greens and sent it to his mouth until the mouth couldn't fit, and he was still swallowing hard.

"Ahhhhhh~"

His mouth was stuffed with vegetables, half fell out of his lips, and the little pumpkin chewed happily and showed a flattering smile to Qin Yu.

Brother, there is food.

Love you~

...

...

"Are you leaving now?"

After spending a short and beautiful two days with his family at home, Qin Yu is about to set off for Hudu.

Early in the morning, Liang Chuyu got up to prepare breakfast, and the luggage was packed in advance.

It has always been easy for Qin Yu to go out. A card and a backpack are enough.

Just go to the place to buy what you need. It's a hassle to go back and forth.

"Well, yes, mom."

Qin Yu ate breakfast and said, "I promised Little Pumpkin to take him to Sanya for his birthday."

"Listen to him, you remember to be optimistic about him, the little guy is just when he can run." Liang Chuyu explained.

"Don't worry, you must be optimistic." Qin Yu nodded.

The older generation like to celebrate birthdays on the lunar calendar, so this trip to Sanya, they will not follow.

I just used annual leave before, so it's not good to ask for leave again.

Besides, I just took advantage of this opportunity to spend two days of leisure.

Although my son is very obedient and sensible...

But sometimes it's quite annoying to watch, and there is no personal space and time.

The two got off, just enough to let them rest for a few days.

Liang Chuyu thought it over, and waited for her son to come back to pick up her second child.

She has to take a bath in the bathhouse, get a full-body spa, pinch her feet or something.

When you are done, ask a few friends to sing and sing, relax and relax...

"Okay, let's go." Qin Yu took the last bite and walked out with the bag on his shoulder.

"Slow down on the road, remember to give me a message when you get there."

"knew."

At the door, the sky curtain was already waiting on the side of the road.

He Wu and Xu Meixin were both in the car, and Jia Jingsi, who went to pick him up in advance, was the master of the driver's class.

Put them at the airport and the master drove back to the company.

"Let's go!" Raising his arms and letting the little girl hold her arms, the group went straight to the VIP lounge.

Because the time is good, there is basically no delay.

Boarding the plane smoothly all the way, Qin Yu just wanted to wear a blindfold to sleep, so Jia Jingsi stopped.

"Uncle, chat with me for a while!" Jia Jingsi said.

"Okay, let's talk!" Qin Yu asked, sitting upright: "Tell me what plans you have for your future."

"Now I'm going to school. During the period, I want to find some part-time job. I will start a business after my junior year, graduate, and the company will be on the right track. Then I will be able to make money to support you."

The stewardess next to me is so confused, do rich people play like this now?

What about finding a part-time job in my company.

After graduating 5 million to start a company, I saved 10,000, and my dad sponsored 4.99 million!

Just ask you if you can leave a way for ordinary people to survive...

I just go to work, do I have to hurt so badly?

After listening to Jia Jingsi's business plan, the little stewardess was completely desperate.

I misunderstood it.

It turned out that it was not sponsored by the father, but sponsored by the "uncle", and Zhangkou was a small project of 100 million yuan.

Brother~

Please, be yourself!

"It's here, ah~ I'm finally back." As soon as he left the airport, Jia Jingsi happily jumped around in circles.

"So happy?" Qin Yu drew her hair and smiled.

"Of course, uncle, I love Hudu super~~" Jia Jingsi took his hand and laughed happily.

"Okay, leave here first." Qin Yu said he was about to take a taxi.

The Hudu team hasn't been set up yet, so when the City of Miracles is put into use, it won't have to be so troublesome.

"Qin Yu." Suddenly, someone next to him called his name.

Looking towards the place where the sound came from, the slim figure with a fisherman hat and a toad mirror stood beside Cayenne on the side of the road.

Just by looking at her figure, Qin Yu can determine who it is.

Shanshan, why is she here?

"Why are you here?" Qin Yu let go of Jia Jingsi and stepped forward and hugged Xia Jiang Xiaoshan.

At this moment, Jia Jingsi seemed to hear her own heartbreaking voice.

Pop~

The heart fell into countless petals on the ground, it hurts terribly!

Who is that woman and what is the relationship between her and the uncle...

So, did you misunderstand it?

"Sour and sour." Tears poured into his eyes, but he saw Qin Yu turning his head and beckoning to himself.

With a hint of luck and expectation, Jia Jingsi stepped forward and looked at this tightly wrapped woman.

"Sister Shanshan." Qin Yu said.

"Sister Shanshan." Jia Jingsi nodded obediently, and the curiosity in her eyes made Jiang Xiaoshan smile.

"Hello, get in the car!" Jiang Xiaoshan walked around the cab.

"Uncle, who is she?" Jia Jingsi quickly grabbed Qin Yu and asked.

"You heard it, it's your sister, get in the car!" Qin Yu rubbed her head, pulled the co-pilot away and sat in.

The grievance that was just suppressed, instantly rushed to my heart, "What is it!"

"Boss, Master He and I have taken a taxi to go. See you at the construction site tomorrow." Xu Meixin knocked on the car window and said.

"Okay, pay attention to safety." Qin Yu nodded and raised his hand to Lao He not far away; "Lao He, take care of Secretary Xu."

"Boss rest assured." He Wu replied blankly.

Jiang Xiaoshan, who got in the car, took off the fisherman's hat and glasses, and took a deep look at Xu Meixin outside the window.

It's "Mr."s dish!

The car started slowly, Jiang Xiaoshan turned around and merged into the traffic, chuckling softly: "Are you surprised to see me?"

"It's a pleasant surprise, how do you know the flight time?" Qin Yu was really curious.

"Sister Wanxing informed me, Xiaoxue told her." Jiang Xiaoshan's answer solved Qin Yu's doubts.

Therefore, it was Yan Xue who learned of the flight schedule and told Li Wanxing.

Li Wanxing told Jiang Xiaoshan again to let her pick herself up...

Yan Xue has made it clear that he has joined the group?

"Sister, what is the relationship between you and uncle?" Jia Jingsi, who was puzzled, couldn't help but wonder in his heart.

"What do you think?" Jiang Xiaoshan tilted her head to look at her with the corner of her eye.

Jia Jingsi was a little angry, but the other party's cold and elegant temperament made her wonder how to respond.

What should I do if I can't repay my mouth when I'm so angry?

"Don't make trouble, you are equally important in my heart." Qin Yu said with a serious face.

Looking at his expression, Jia Jingsi opened her mouth and looked at him with an incredible face.

How did he say such words.

And can use such a "righteous and sincere" tone.

Jia Jingsi suddenly felt...society is so complicated!

Chapter 845: ?people

"Stop, I want to get off." Walking halfway, Jia Jingsi suddenly clamored to get off.

"Little sister, calm down, I think you should have thought of..."

"I don't listen, I don't listen!" Before Shanshan finished speaking, Jia Jingsi covered her ears with her hands.

"Stop." Qin Yu said suddenly.

Seeing his cold face, Jiang Xiaoshan could only park the car on the side of the road.

Jia Jingsi pulled the car door and jumped down.

Then, Cayenne drove into the distance in front of her, really leaving like this.

"Wow, woo~" Jia Jingsi squatted and cried, feeling wronged.

In addition, there are more fears and worries.

Is it true that the uncle really doesn't want himself, why can't he coax others?

It was so sweet before, how could it be like this...

"Scumbag, smelly man, bad man, woooo!" Jia Jingsi yelled and cursed sobbing.

"Beauty, what's the matter with you?" A man's voice came from his ear.

"Get out of the way, whatever your business." Jia Jingsi pear raised her head with rain and roared.

The irritable little temper gave a shock to the hitman who wanted to take advantage of the weakness.

This kind of little ancestor, forget it, it's better not to provoke him.

Chasing away the overweight toad, Jia Jingsi put his head in his arms again, and sobbed on his lap.

I don't know how long it took, a pair of feet appeared in her field of vision.

Jia Jingsi raised his head curiously, fisherman hat, toad mirror.

It's Jiang Xiaoshan.

Passing the tissue in her hand, Jiang Xiaoshan asked calmly: "Would you like to get in the car?"

Jia Jingsi looked behind her, Qin Yu was no longer in the Cayenne car.

"I don't want to get in the car." Jia Jingsi turned her head aside, maintaining her final stubbornness.

"Get in the car, we need to have a good talk." Jiang Xiaoshan's tone became tough.

Jia Jingsi turned his head and said nothing, wanting to hold on for a while.

The sound of footsteps away from her ears made her hurriedly raised her head and looked at her.

Seeing Jiang Xiaoshan pass by the front of the car, she opened the car door and sat in the cab.

Cayenne ignition starts...

"Wait for me..."

Jia Jingsi hurriedly opened the door and jumped into the co-pilot. While wearing the seat belt, he stubbornly said, "I, my luggage is still in the car."

Seeing the guilty conscience on the little girl's face, Jiang Xiaoshan smiled and took off her sunglasses and drove to the house.

...

Keng Keng~

The door opened and I saw Qin Yu standing outside.

Yalan was surprised at first, then hugged him with a brazen laugh, "I won't say a word when I come back, so I can pick you up."

"I want to surprise you!"

Qin Yu smiled on the surface and said to his heart, "Fortunately you didn't go, otherwise today will be even more lively."

Seeing the room quietly, Qin Yu asked curiously, "Where's Tongtong, I'm not here with you."

"At my dad's place, I usually don't come over to work." As soon as Ya Lan's voice fell, she was already hugged.

"What are you waiting for, Mr. Lan, take a day off today!" With a grin, Qin Yu rushed to the bedroom holding Yalan who was swaying with a smile.

Creak~

The spring on this bed should also be changed.

After staying in the room for a day, all food and drink depended on takeaway. Afterwards, Brother Yu suddenly wanted to smoke one, and asked the takeaway boy to bring a piece of Huazi.

However, after Yu Ge sent him 1,000 yuan, the problem was solved satisfactorily.

It's kind of intoxicating, hey...

"After graduating, will I often stay in the abandoned city from now on, but is it here?"

Ya Lan drew circles around his chest with her fingers like a little girl.

"Why, are you trying to draw a circle and curse me?"

Qin Yu said amusedly, taking a deep breath of the flue: "No, it's better to run back and forth between the two places.

As you know, I want to move all the company's most important cutting-edge projects to the new company in Lingang, which should be delivered before the end of the month. "

Robots work reliably, tirelessly, and never complain.

Whatever headaches and brain fever, bumps and bumps won't happen, just bury your head and do it.

The speed naturally increased, and the city of miracles was completed earlier than expected.

Today, ten of the surface engineering has been completed.

There is only one final finishing touch and internal whitewashing, and there should be no problem before the end of the month.

Yan Xue asked Li Wanxing to pick him up because she was busy purchasing office supplies and couldn't get away.

Fortunately, Shanshan came last.

Otherwise, a martial arts tour will be staged at the airport gate.

With Qin Yu's assurance, Yalan felt relieved and stood up and said, "Are you hungry? I'll make you some food."

"Don't go, there is nothing left." Qin Yu pointed to the takeaway on the table.

He wanted to hold Yalan and lay down without doing anything.

Actually, Brother Yu wanted to do something more.

The main reason is that she can't stand her body, which has been tossing for a day.

It's time to go to the hospital...

"I

^0^Remember in one second 【】

There are surprises for you, don't make trouble. "Removing the big hands he was touching, Yalan left with a smile.

After a while, the sound of cutting vegetables came.

Qin Yu was a little curious, she didn't say there was a surprise, and there was no movement.

Followed to the kitchen and looked in.

Brother Yu laughed~

Hey, this little apron, why is it leaking everywhere, it's still a backless style.

The bottom skirt just reaches the base of the thigh, not long or short.

Good guy, there is white lace on the side of the apron hanging in front, direct good guy...

"Xiaoyu, what do you want to eat, A... Auntie will make it for you."

Ya Lan, with her back to Qin Yu, was not only her voice, but her arms were trembling.

This picture is too far beyond the limit.

In order to keep Qin Yu's heart, Ya Lan also took great pains.

It's just that, she's not sure whether the little boys like this or not, they should all be "Yeah~"

His thoughts were interrupted by the weight that came up, the chopping board was pushed aside in an instant, and the kitchen knife in his hand fell into the sink.

What kind of supper to eat, what kind of bike do you want!

No, it's ready.

...

The next day, Yalan drove Qin Yu to the construction site early in the morning.

Seeing the fence erected around, Ya Lan curiously asked: "Why don't you use an engineering wall?"

"The project is in time, so let's make a living first." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"Should I send you in?" Yalan asked.

"No, there will be traffic jams later, slow down the road." Qin Yu waved.

"Well, then I'm leaving."

Yalan nodded, and then asked: "Well, do you come back for dinner at night?"

"No, I just came back, the entertainment is full." Qin Yu responded.

"Understood, remember to come back when you are done, Tongtong misses you too." Yalan said, raising the window, turning around and driving towards the way she came.

When the car went far away, Qin Yu opened the fence door behind him and walked to the depths.

The small high-rises not far away become clearer, with flower beds, green plants, artistic statues and leisure gardens, and entertainment areas paved with cobblestones.

The whole city has everything that should be except no one.

The most eye-catching thing is the shining energy tower in the middle of the city...

In the sun, it exudes a delicate luster like fish scales.

Walking along the brand-new street, all the buildings do not exceed 11 floors. This is the regional regulation.

However, there is a building here that looks very mysterious.

The entire surface is fully enclosed, except for the four huge vents on the side, without a single window.

Only dark-grey reinforced concrete can be seen on the surface, and there is only one opening in the center of the entrance hall.

Open the door and go in. At the end of the corridor is an elevator.

There are two "robot-shaped ornaments" on the side doors of the elevator, and there is nothing else.

Take the elevator to enter the building, here will be the information processing center of the entire city.

But only those with sufficient authority know that if you use the work card to swipe the card three times in a row, a new panel will pop up in the elevator.

It's just that the button above is not up, but down.

This elevator is the regular entrance to the underground base...

In addition, there are underwater entrances, vehicle (cargo) entrances and exits, and emergency exits.

Cunning Rabbit also understands the truth of the Three Caves, let alone people!

In the corridor of the building, Qin Yu saw He Wu and Xu Meixin, who happened to be curiously spinning around the "robot sculpture".

"Boss, are they real or fake?" Xu Mei asked curiously.

She had clearly seen these machines move, and she was still here now, but she couldn't see "alive" at all.

"What do you mean?" As soon as the voice fell, the electronic eyes of the two stations lit up red.

Xu Meixin, who was close to her, was taken aback and fell down in a panic.

An arm hooked her waist and brought her who was about to fall to the ground into his arms.

Close to Qin Yu's body and smelling his strong masculine aura, Xu Meixin's eyes fell into silence in a blur.

"Let's go." Let go, and the elevator door opens.

He Wu made a quiet background wall throughout the whole process, indifferent and indifferent.

Here, he is a puppet!

It's not easy for anyone to come...

Drop, drop, drop!

Swipe the card three times, and the smooth panel on the side of the elevator bounces up.

A brand new button appeared in front of you, with only an arrow pointing ↓.

Qin Yu reached out and pressed the ↓ arrow, and the elevator started silently.

There is no feeling of weightlessness, and the entire elevator seems to have never moved.

But when the door opened again, the scenery that was supposed to be the corridor changed to another look.

"In the future, this is the core of the entire company. Most cutting-edge confidential projects will be carried out here.

Secretary Xu, Miracle Pharmaceutical is ready to relocate. Remember to pack and seal those instruments, they are all treasures. "

Logistics is naturally a flash, after all, it is a major shareholder who has taken a share, and it must be more attentive to do things than outside. UU reading www. uukanshu.com

Those medical precision instruments cost a lot of money, and some are only obtained through favor.

They are all treasures, and they can't be touched.

If one is broken, Qin Yu feels that those who study medicine can give him 69 dollars, and then suture him...

Hey, just for fun!

^0^Remember in one second 【】

"Okay." Xu Meixin nodded while looking at the house numbers on both sides.

Cultivation room, sterile room, dissection room, cold storage room, biochemical room...

There is also the dangerous area represented by the big skull at the end, this place looks a little crippled.

There are many associations in Xu Meixin's mind, "Boss, don't you want to do biochemical research?"

Chapter 846: Civilized man

"Don't always bring yourself into film and television works. This is reality, not making movies." Qin Yu said funny.

"Boss, you haven't answered my question yet!"

Xu Meixin grasped the key point, he was evading the importance.

"All for the development of medicine!" Qin Yuyi said righteously.

"For science?"

"For science!"

Xu Meixin rolled her eyes, didn't he hear that she was mocking?

Arriving at the central dispatching station, getting on the fully automatic rail car, Qin Yu selects the destination on the panel.

As the car drove along the track to the depths of the base, Xu Mei asked curiously: "Boss, this won't be troublesome. What should I do during peak periods?"

Qin Yu turned around and said in surprise: "Do you think there will be a peak here?"

There are at most a hundred people on each floor, where are the peaks.

Besides, the entire base is supervised and dispatched by Kirin, and the microsecond gap can be used by it. Peak?

nonexistent.....

"The two of you will stay here these two days and take charge of the handover work here."

Qin Yu pointed to the stationary robot around.

"Things are shipped directly to the storage area, and the rest are made by them."

"Boss, since the outside world already knows that Xingtian is produced by our company, why should we hide it?"

Xu Meixin didn't understand a bit, and [Xing Tian] had already been exposed.

Why do you have to cover up the existence of [creator]? It's important to be known.

Qin Yu smiled and said: "One needs to change the pattern with violence, and the other needs to change the world with creation.

The value of the creator is much higher than Xing Tian in the eyes of those with a heart. "

There is nothing wrong with this. Bai Ze has already proposed several times that he wants to order a group of creators.

Qin Yu's answer is also very simple, as long as he doesn't mind that all operations are based on the AI intelligence of Miracle Group.

This thing needs as much as...

It's a bit exaggerated, but it can definitely meet Bai Ze's needs.

Of course, there is another way, as he did before.

Relying on VR equipment to achieve remote control, it is impossible to be completely intelligent.

Qin Yu couldn't make another "unicorn".

Bai Ze has no problem in this regard, but ask the price, MMP~

500 million units, why are you stealing money?

In this regard, Brother Yu is still the old saying...

"Can you be a bit more accountable? They are all civilized people, and I can earn more money from robbery?"

After all, apart from the treasury, even the head office does not have much cash reserves.

Where can I earn money from selling goods?

Bai Ze let his shameless defeat once again, and then there was no more...

500 million units, the price is too high for the above.

It's okay to have money, but you need money in all aspects, don't look at the trillions or trillions.

Sometimes I can't wait for a penny to be broken in half, it's not easy to be the master!

In one day, I walked halfway around the base.

The main reason is that Qin Yu looked carefully enough to understand everything everywhere.

From design, to function, to security and privacy, and various emergency measures, etc.

No matter the details, as thorough as you can understand...

At noon, I also tasted the craftsmanship of the robot chef below. The taste is hard to say!

It seems that the "Central Information Processing Center" has to set up a canteen, or the people below have to starve to death.

"I won't watch the rest, Secretary Xu, you can make a record and report back to me."

"Old He, you are responsible for the handover, and Secretary Xu will record the detailed expenditures and data, and that's it."

After explaining what they had to do in the next few days, Qin Yu left them alone at the base.

In the morning, Yalan put down his fence, and a Cayenne stopped alone.

As soon as he approached, Jiang Xiaoshan in the driver's seat opened the door.

Leaning on one end of the car, embracing his arms, staring at him with a smile.

"Have you waited for a long time?"

Hugging Jiang Xiaoshan and kissing her on the lips, Qin Yu cast his eyes to the back row of Cayenne.

"It didn't take long."

Jiang Xiaoshan responded with a smile, and then pushed Qin Yu to urge: "Hurry up."

Opening the back door, Qin Yu sat in, and put his arm around Jia Jingsi on the side.

The little girl still wanted to struggle, and when she hooked her arm, she sat directly on Qin Yu's lap.

"Why, still angry?" Qin Yu rubbed her head with a smile.

Hearing what he said, Jia Jingsi's heart was sour, tears welled up in her eyes.

"You, you just left people behind, badass, woooo..."

Who is not a girl of heaven yet, a beloved little public servant.

Wherever you go, there are people pampering them, accustomed to...

Isn't it nice to see who met?

It's not an exaggeration to say, what you want with your mouth open, a lot of men are vying to spend money on her.

But here Qin Yu, the alluring charm has failed.

He really cruelly left himself alone on the side of the road, "Bad guy, big bad guy, I'll kill you~~"

Huh, little fist punches your chest.

In fact, she didn't feel much anger in her heart, Jiang Xiaoshan's enlightenment played a big role.

As she said, no one knows what the future holds.

Why give up the happiness and happiness in front of you because of the future.

Being with the uncle is really super happy.

Jia Jingsi has never felt the same way, the happiness is so pure, just seeing him is enough.

But why did your first love become like this?

Jia Jingsi is still unwilling.

If possible, she hopes she didn't get in the wrong car when she was at the airport that day.

That way, you won't know him...

But when he thought of this, Jia Jingsi started to panic inexplicably.

If you have never met an uncle, what would you be like now?

What kind of people will you be with, and what will happen in the future?

unknown.....

Jia Jingsi was inexplicably panicked, thinking of losing her uncle, she would rather accept the current changes.

After Jia Jingsi finished venting, Qin Yu put her arms around her and said softly: "I don't like women who play petty temperaments.

You know, happiness is the source of life...

There are so many things to be busy every day. If I have to make my girlfriend happy when I get home, I would rather stay alone. "

"Uh-huh."

Obviously he should be angry, but Jia Jingsi nodded obediently.

After thinking about it, I couldn't help but ask: "Then how many women do you have?"

"When you are by your side, you are the only one." Qin Yu responded.

Jia Jingsi glanced toward the cab, and Jiang Xiaoshan smiled when he found it through the rearview mirror.

"Today I am the driver. When I don't exist, it will be fine."

As long as her husband is happy, Jiang Xiaoshan is happy.

For her, Qin Yu is the focus of attention, everything...

She doesn't care what others think or think, she only cares about his words and deeds, happiness and disappointment!

What do people who are irrelevant do to me?

Carrying the two to the hotel, Jiang Xiaoshan followed upstairs.

Jia Jingsi's expression was surprised, not that he was the driver today, so he followed.

She wants to monopolize the uncle, so she doesn't want to share it with others.

At least, at least when I was dating myself, the uncle belonged to him alone.

This is her last persistence and stubbornness. Isn't she even deprived of this point?

"Don't get me wrong, I just went up to rest, what do you guys do and do."

Entering the room, Jiang Xiaoshan directly opened the bedroom door.

Then close the door, click~

Locked!

Only her and Qin Yu are left in the outside world, just as Jiang Xiaoshan said.

But even so, Jia Jingsi still felt strange in her heart.

I was thinking about "Will she peek through the door..."

Was she eavesdropping next to the door behind the door, why didn't she open a room by herself..."

The mess of thoughts made her unable to stop for a minute.

"Uncle, let Sister Shanshan come out with us!" Jia Jingsi gave up.

It's better to let her come out so that everyone stays together comfortably.

If this continues, Jia Jingsi suspects that he will think of a woman all night.

Things got even stranger! !

"Shan Shan."

"Hey, here it is."

Da, the door opened and Jiang Xiaoshan walked forward gracefully with her feet on the catwalk.

Coming to the single sofa, Jiang Xiaoshan sat cross-legged on the sofa, curiously asked: "What are you looking at?"

"Extreme sport."

Qin Yu glanced at the TV casually, he just didn't pay attention to what was acting in it.

At this look, I found it a bit interesting.

The scene broadcast is a scene of a foreigner rock climbing, Leo, the first person to reach the top of the Huashan Xifeng rock face.

Set the feat of conquering Langya Peak in Antarctica, "With the support of the Corruption Sports brand and the professional equipment of Bayhouse, the Bayhouse team created..."

This advertisement was too difficult to prevent, and Qin Yu reacted when he saw screenshots of various equipment appearing on the screen.

This is a wave of soft advertising...yes.

Then the screen switched to an old man with loose blonde hair and top unarmed rock climbing master, Spider-Man Alan Robert.

Zhong Qixin, Chris Shama...

"Why do they risk their lives to do these sports?"

Jia Jingsi, half of his body curled up in Qin Yu's arms, looked puzzled.

Is it good to be alive? Why do you have to die.

"It's difficult for you, but for them, this kind of exercise has become part of their daily lives."

Seeing the dynamic point of Chris Sharma flying over the cliffs of Mallorca's Arch, he let out an excited cheer.

Qin Yu was also excited in his heart, and wanted to stand up and shout and cheer together.

"Should I find time and practice... to overcome my fear of heights."

Thinking of "ascension to heaven" several times, I closed my eyes tightly.

After having "nanoworms", he used "electronic eyes" to ban his eyes and observe the surroundings every time.

Don't even look at his eyes open, but what he sees are hundreds of "compound eyes transmitted by nanoworms".

Commonly known as: Blind!

Although I found a shortcut to resist the fear, the root problem was still not solved.

To overcome this fear, Qin Yu believes that he still needs to be really prepared to face the fear itself.

When the rock climbing ends, the show jumps to commercials.

The enthusiasm retreated, and Yu Ge's thoughts had a new change.

"Is it uncomfortable to lie down and watch girls? Why do you have to toss yourself, idle!"

Lie back, let Jia Jingsi lie on her side, Qin Yu measured her chest with his hands...

Well, it seems a lot bigger.

"Shanshan, come to a Coke." Qin Yu said.

"Okay, what do you want?" Jiang Xiaoshan asked Jia Jingsi.

"...Is there any juice?" Jia Jingsi asked.

"This is a hotel, as long as you are willing to spend money, you have everything you want."

Jiang Xiaoshan helplessly stretched her hands and picked up the landline on the round table.

Chapter 847: Hard dish

Before the night came, the atmosphere between the three seemed very relaxed.

Jia Jingsi even got close to Jiang Xiaoshan at one time and talked with her arm in arm about the program being broadcast.

"Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue", this should be the fourth round of rebroadcast.

Because the show has all the food, drink and fun, and it has a generalization of human geography.

What was introduced was the local characteristics of the farm, which was quickly defined as a "tourism book."

Whenever you go out and don't want to step on the pit, but also want to experience the purest local customs and delicacies.

See the most honest and friendly side of the local area.

It's not wrong to go to the place introduced by the little anchor.

If it comes to watching the show...

Lie flat, arrange!

In the morning, someone will deliver melons, fruits and vegetables. At noon, a large group of people invite you to eat authentic folk delicacies at home.

In the evening, I was invited to participate in local special activities, and I was embarrassed in the end.

These people have been favored by small anchors, and agricultural products that were not sold in the past have been advertised.

Directly sold to out of stock, with traffic and attention, other products in the village also have a market.

There are also people who come to talk about cooperation, help promotion, publicity, live broadcast and so on.

Most of them don't understand very well, they are young people who are doing it.

Mobile phones can't be played, let alone live broadcast.

But the actual benefits and changes can be truly experienced by individuals.

The income has increased, the popularity has increased, and the yamen also strongly support them.

Every family's purse has also become a little bit brighter!

These real benefits are only available after the show is broadcast...

It is like a mirror in the hearts of the masses to remember who is good.

Can't be wrong!

"The silent drizzle is really powerful, if only I could be like her." Jia Jingsi said enviously.

Jiang Xiaoshan didn't say anything, just smiled and glanced at Qin Yu.

She may be the only one who knows the relationship between her husband and the little anchor.

She was so careful that she engraved Qin Yu's figure firmly in her mind.

The short video of the cooperation between the anchor and Qin Yu showed that Jiang Xiaoshan recognized his identity at the moment his body was exposed.

However, she had never mentioned this secret to anyone.

Ringling~

Jiang Xiaoshan's phone rang suddenly, she picked up her phone and looked at her, her smile dimmed.

"I'll answer the phone." Jiang Xiaoshan took the phone and walked to the cubicle, "Mom~~"

Originally Qin Yu didn't care, but after a while, he heard Ruoyoruowu sobbing.

"...You can't see me, okay? It's my business if she goes to find you."

"He can't be back, please cheer up!!"

"Mom, I'm your daughter...Pattern~"

With a cracking sound, the conversation came suddenly, and the depressed crying was clearly audible.

Qin Yu handed the remote control to Jia Jingsi and said, "I'll go see it."

Pushing the door open, Jiang Xiaoshan was sobbing on the bed.

Xu Ye heard the door opening, hurriedly wiped his eyes with the quilt, and raised his red and swollen eyes.

The tears were wiped away, but the grievances, bitterness, and pain in the eyes could not be wiped off.

Without saying much, Qin Yu went up to hug her and patted her back gently with his hands.

"Woo~" Jiang Xiaoshan lay on his shoulder and burst into tears.

When the emotions were almost vented, Qin Yu asked what happened.

"My mother...knowing that I'm going to celebrate my little mother's birthday, she..." Jiang Xiaoshan stumbling, finally clarified the matter.

After all, it is that the original partner can't look down on the incumbent, and the girl also has contacts with the negative guy and the mistress.

Thinking that she was abandoned, she asked Jiang Xiaoshan to vent.

"I also want to accompany her more, but every day she only knows to drink alcohol, smash things when drunk, or scold me and beat me..."

Every time I call, I'm either scolding me or asking for money. I've never asked if I'm doing well, whether I've eaten or not, woooo..."

"Every month I don't just have to support myself, but I also have to buy her wine. A bottle is a few thousand yuan.

If it weren't for my mom's money, I would have starved to death...After all, that's my dad, why do I have to be an enemy. "

Jiang Xiaoshan cried like a tearful person, she couldn't stop her tears.

"Okay, okay, with me here, we won't be sad anymore." Qin Yu comforted like a baby.

Then he said: "Is there anything I can do, or I will give you a card, and you will give it to the aunt for expenses."

"No." Jiang Xiaoshan shook her head and refused without hesitation.

If she knew her current situation, she would only be more jealous...

She might even come to destroy her relationship with her husband. Jiang Xiaoshan felt terrified after thinking about it.

My mother's thinking has gone to extremes over the years, and there is nothing she can't do.

Let her know that she had done three minors and the consequences would be disastrous!

What's more, Jiang Xiaoshan is also worried that one day she will die by drinking so much money for her.

Ringling~

As soon as the phone rang, Jiang Xiaoshan couldn't help but shiver.

When I saw that the caller ID was "Little Mom," Jiang Xiaoshan was obviously relieved: "Hello~"

There is no title, only an indifferent greeting.

"Shanshan, did your mother call you." Just listening to the voice gave a gentle impression.

"Yeah~"

"Don't be afraid, she just vents, so what, I will transfer you 20,000 yuan, don't give her all.

Buying some clothes, cosmetics, etc., is also a big girl. Image is very important.

Also, eat well, manage your figure, and keep up with nutrition. "

"...The last time I gave it to me has not been spent, I have..."

"If you save yourself, girls spend a lot of money, so you should save more. If you have money, you won't be able to beat you when you go out."

"that....."

"Okay, I'm going to catch a plane with your dad. You remember to make time to go home next month. Your dad said he wants to go to Sanya for a few days. Let's go together."

She basically didn't give her a chance to speak, the woman arranged for herself and hung up the phone with a smile.

Qin Yu heard these two calls clearly. As an "outsider," he felt that this was his mother.

After hanging up the phone, Jiang Xiaoshan's mood gradually stabilized.

"It's okay, this kind of thing will happen once in a while, I'm used to it."

Although smiling, the smile is full of bitterness...

How can this kind of pain get used to it, but it's just self-deception.

"How about I buy her a house in the suburbs?"

"She lived well, Daping..." Seeing Qin Yu worrying about herself, Jiang Xiaoshan was moved and held her hand.

"She is heart disease, and has nothing to do with material and life."

Jiang Xiaoshan also thought of many ways to get her mother out.

But she only wanted to hide herself in the room.

Spend the whole day with wine, do not go out, do not communicate...

Yes, Jiang Xiaoshan can understand that she is really sad.

But why do you have to live yourself as the heroine of a miserable drama, and also have these ambitions on yourself.

How many times did she want to say to her mother: "Mom, it's not my fault, why should I take care of everything?"

But at the last moment, she swallowed it all back.

Perhaps, being able to maintain the current situation is the best outcome.

Seeing her sad and helpless look, Qin Yu was also speechless.

Just hugging her like this, before she knew it, Jiang Xiaoshan actually fell asleep...

Seeing her calm expression after falling asleep, Qin Yu kissed her forehead and walked out of the room rubbing hands and feet.

After closing the door, Qin Yu strode towards the sofa, still saying: "Sour, hungry..."

On the sofa, a figure tilted his head, lying sideways on the sofa.

The small mouth is slightly long, and he is sleeping soundly!

Good guy, the two girls next to me have a vegan dinner...

It's cracked!

But seeing how cute she was sleeping soundly, Qin Yu couldn't bear to wake up.

Yes, you should do good today.

Hug her back to the room, put it beside Jiang Xiaoshan, and Brother Yu returned to the living room.

Take a trip to the big sofa, pick up the phone, and turn on the notes.

How to relieve worries, only look at girls!

"Eh, this is not bad~~" The first one that popped up made Brother Yu praised.

Anyway, big data understands the man's heart best.

Take a closer look, good fellow...

Private message exploded!

When I opened it and glanced at it, Brother Yu deleted everything.

Since I picked up the gift and exposed my eldest brother's identity, private messaging 99+ is a common occurrence.

At first, Brother Yu would jump and watch a few times, but then he was numb.

These one by one, the monsters and ghosts, where are the courageous private messages...

What is a five-star hotel, the price is negotiable, and the airdrop is available.

Where to fly? P city?

After deleting the private message, Brother Yu moved his body and found a comfortable posture.

Solve your worries~~

Nan Yi, who thought he had found the wealth code and waited for N days, was dreaming.

A series of hints and clarifications made by himself, and finally all the demons and ghosts were swept into the trash can.

She was still wondering, why so many days have passed, the eldest brother hasn't issued the room number yet? ? ?

Waldorf, at 3 in the morning, Qin Yu suddenly appeared at the hotel.

"Shao Qin, good evening." Butler Yao jumped out.

Regardless of when he came, Qin Yu never saw him absent.

Even if someone showed up in the hall, he could appear in front of him for the first time.

"Lao Yao, you haven't slept yet?" The whole body was neatly packed, and it didn't look like a hurried rush.

"The magpie screamed this morning, I'm just waiting for the distinguished guests to come!" Yao steward said jokingly.

"It's not here yet this morning! It's past zero." Qin Yu tapped the watch in his hand, jokingly.

"Mistaken words, mistakes...what do you need here, I will prepare first."

Before the hotel received a call from Qin Yu, he had already begun preparations.

The guest has arrived, in the room.

He came to see if Qin Shao had any special requirements. Had it not been for this buffer time, he would not have appeared so quickly.

"Jelly, seafood!" Qin Yu asked.

"There is jelly, I will send it to you now. The seafood will have to wait 2 hours and arrive at the store around 5 o'clock. The freshest..."

"Okay, someone will be delivered directly at that time."

Qin Yu patted butler Yao on the arm, "Thank you."

"Where, this is what I should do, please, please." When he got downstairs, butler Yao stopped.

Watching Qin Yu step up the steps and disappear into the corridor.

After finishing all this, he quickened his pace and hurried back to the kitchen without losing his grace.

Let me explain to the person on duty first, I will inform myself as soon as the seafood arrives and then go back to the room, hang up the suit meticulously, lie down on the bed and fall asleep.

Fast sleep is a basic technique, and he can sleep for an hour and a half.

This time is enough for him to have enough energy and a new look to welcome a new day.

Sleep and work are equal, if you are listless all day long.

Yawning in front of the guests, wandering beyond the sky, what did it look like?

At the same time, Qin Yu had already seen supper in the guest bedroom.

Xiao Su, Li Shuangmeng, Zhang Jingyu and Zhang Jingxun...

They are here to participate in a two-dimensional event, just in time for Brother Yu to scan the promotional video.

Sure enough, how could Big Brother be a vegetarian!

All removed~

Today, we will prepare these four hard dishes, Wuhu, take off...

Chapter 848: Be alone

Why is it a hard dish!

Naturally, it takes a bit of chewing to be called hard.

A plate of jelly is placed on the table, and then the talent show session.

Li Shuangmeng deserves the title of "Kidney Retirement Machine"...

Professionalism, quality, skills and continuity are hard enough.

The Zhang sisters and Xiao Su next to them were all stared at them, "Oh? It can be like this~"

"That's OK?"

"Wow~ Does she have no bones?"

"Fuck, this is fine too?"

"...Take it, outrageous!"

In the exclamation of Xiao Mimei, Li Shuangmeng completed her own set of combos.

Perfect curtain call!

There were only three girls who were so shocked that their jaws were about to fall.

Looking at the sweat-stained horizontal and parallel bars, steel pipes...

Touching these props with suspicion of life, I want to see if there is any mechanism on it.

There are only two words in my mind now: absolutely.

Xiao Su recalled what had happened before, and reached out to grab the pipe and wanted to perform.

But as soon as he went up, he almost fell off.

The typical brain will be gone, the hands are gone!

"This sister is a waste of being an anchor."

They are all in the same circle, and they all know each other without dealing with them.

In the past, I only knew that Li Shuangmeng felt the ultimate in dancing, coupled with the coldness between his eyebrows.

Femme beauty, absolutely fatal temptation!

Now I know that in front of my big brother, this temptation can become so hot and wild.

However, think again about your performance.

I feel calm!

There are more than two adult faces, and there is no contrast between them.

One set before the person, one set after the person.

In front of Brother, you can choose which one you want...

But the big brother always likes to be reckless, and generally doesn't want it.

Seeing Li Shuangmeng retired from the palace~

Xiao Su blinked and had an idea in his mind.

The quality is not enough, the quantity comes together!

What's more, there are still twins, who can't be any worse than her.

But she never thought, she hadn't had time to win Zhang Jingxun, Zhang Jingyu...

The two sisters have united the front, holding the eldest brother one left and the other right!

The alone Xiao Su sat alone and watched the two relay performers.

I wondered how to make up for the loss in quality and quantity.

This may be related to future sexual well-being and rice bowls.

It was messed up, and the happy life was going away again, she just tasted the taste of sugar.

I haven't had enough of this sweetness yet!

...

The women suffocated their energy, fighting openly and secretly.

In the end, it was all cheaper, Yu brother...

Fortunately, Brother Yu has a good appetite, or else four hard dishes have to be eaten.

Opening his eyes, the dining car was full of empty oyster shells.

There was a mess on the floor, with two long legs of Bai Zhi.

Qin Yu pushed his legs away and found the mobile phone from under a pile of stockings, "Old Yao, arrange a car to take me."

Looking at the four women who are still asleep and unconscious.

Qin Yu switched clones and first transferred 1 million to Li Shuangmeng, and 500,000 for each of her three women.

After a while, he raised his mouth in the mirror: "So handsome!"

When he arrived in the lobby, butler Yao had arranged the car and driver.

"Shao Qin, do you want to make arrangements at night?" Old Yao asked.

"Need not!"

Qin Yu came to the front desk and drew out the card and said, "After 11 days, the extra day is yours, Lao Yao."

"Thank Shao Qin for your care." Butler Yao bowed and thanked him.

Qin Yu patted him on the shoulder.

"You are welcome, your service is worth the price. If you check out early, the rest will be yours."

He waved the Mercedes-Benz S and asked the driver to send him back to Seaview One.

The little anchor is not there. Recently, I am cooperating with a sister of the live broadcast, busy making patterns, selecting materials, designing, and broadcasting live.

Day by day, I'm even busier than Brother Yu.

Sometimes I really want to call her back, and educate her at home.

Are you innocent to take your body seriously?

Can the body be able to hold it in such a day and night?

Besides, Brother Yu earns so much, you don't need to have a sense of accomplishment.

Is there a baby?

Thinking about it, Qin Yu didn't know that because of a little emotion, Cheng Xiyu's career and dreams were ruined.

So it's too selfish to do it!

Unlike salted fish, having a dream and then being taken away is equivalent to murder...

You will never see the light in her eyes again.

When he went to the house, he opened the key drawer, and Qin Yu was picking and choosing it.

There are too many cars, I don't know what to drive today.

Finally, Qin Yu picked up the car key with the golden bull logo, "I will drive you today."

Lamborghini yellow, the hidden flip-up headlights that stunning an era.

A limited edition of 42 ultra-rare varieties!

Driving a ghost out of the street, the turnaround rate is 2000%.

Amazing at first sight, weird!

Looking at only the stunning mechanical beauty, the specific beauty can't be said.

But the more I think about it, the more I like it, maybe this is the so-called classic charm.

Watermelon, grapes, durian and mangosteen are all favorites of Teacher Shen and Wen Yaxuan.

"Ms. Shen, I'm here..." Qin Yu entered the password proficiently, opened the door and walked in.

"Is Xuan Xuan here?" Qin Yu's voice was a little louder, seeing no one in the room.

"Stop shouting."

Shen Bing's response came from the top of the stairs: "Xuan Xuan hasn't got off work yet."

Chu Chu went downstairs and saw the fruits on the table.

Shen Bing mentioned walking to the kitchen, and Qin Yu hurriedly followed: "Mr. Shen, I'll help."

Shen Bing paused, really wanting to hit the durian directly on his forehead.

After thinking about it, he finally entered the kitchen helplessly.

It's all here, can you still rush out?

After all the fruits are picked up neatly, put the plates and seal the boxes, and put them in the refrigerator if they can't finish them.

Two and a half hours is gone, so it's time to cook lunch.

"I'll help!" Qin Yu threw a grape into his mouth, and he stood up.

Shen Bing took out the majesty of the teacher and said harshly: "Sit down."

Huh!

It was clear in her heart that she was bracing, but she sat down obediently.

"I don't need your help." Shen Bing secretly breathed a sigh of relief when he looked up and sat straight with his hands on his knees.

help? I can finish the meal if I help...

In 20 minutes, Shen Bing prepared two side dishes and fried two hot dishes for dinner.

He served him a large bowl of rice and burned a tomato and vegetable soup.

Finally, take out a can of cold beer from the refrigerator and put it on the table, "Eat!"

Qin Yu was not polite, picked up his chopsticks, and ate feastingly.

The beer was opened, and half a bottle was filled first!

"good to eat."

After devouring a large bowl of rice, Shen Bing couldn't help but smile.

It's really good to see how he eats.

People can eat one more bowl without knowing it, it's hard to get fat...

Fortunately, he doesn't come often, otherwise his body will be out of shape.

Thinking wildly in his mind, but the surface has been cold, he cleaned up the dishes and sent them to the sink.

When she returned to the living room after she was busy, Qin Yu opened up a beer again, drinking and watching TV while lying on the sofa.

"Mr. Shen, take a break!" Qin Yu sat up, curled his legs to give up half of the position.

Shen Bing wanted to sit on the solo sofa, but he opened his mouth.

He lost control of his body inexplicably and sat on the empty seat at his feet.

"Now TV shows are getting more and more boring." Qin Yu complained while changing channels.

"Yeah." Shen Bing responded with a cold snort.

"Yes, it's better to see the animal world."

Seeing the rhino appearing in the screen, Qin Yu put the remote control on the coffee table.

Stretching his waist, Qin Yu's expression became a little tired.

Not physically, purely spiritual.

Although every day is very happy, happiness occasionally needs rest.

Brother Yu hasn't experienced it for a long time, that kind of decadence of lying down and drying fish without needing to do anything.

"Recently busy?" Shen Bing asked suddenly.

"Huh?" Qin Yu was taken aback, because this was the first time Shen Bing asked about his situation.

After the reaction came, he nodded and said, "Yes, it's very busy. There are a lot of things in the company, including business talks and research...

Money, people, communication, entertainment, everything must be taken care of..."

As Brother Yu was talking, he almost believed it.

Busy, but too busy!

"No, I have to attend the graduation ceremony. The school wants me to speak on stage. What am I thinking about?"

Hearing what he said, Shen Bing hesitated to speak.

Then, suddenly put his leg on his own, and knead it with both hands.

I lost, Teacher Shen is giving me a massage?

Brother Yu was excited on the spot and wanted to somersault on the spot, and then opened a bottle of champagne to celebrate.

Happiness came too suddenly...

But in fact, he did nothing.

Continue to watch the rhinoceros in estrus on the TV, and stand up his huge body, pressing it behind the female rhino.

All things breed, spring warms the earth, and it's a good day for mating again!

The trouser legs were suddenly turned up. Looking outside, Shen Bing took off his socks and pressed the soles of his feet with his fingers.

Woo~

Comfortable, it feels...

Alas!

Brother Yu was a little puzzled before, why the eldest brother likes to wash his feet!

Now, he understands a little bit.

It's so comfortable!

The feeling of being pressed **** the soles of the feet is the same as the shin bones of the whole body are being pressed and pulled.

Transparent, comfortable...

Because he had misunderstood the big brothers before, he was all about that.

Sloppy, sloppy.

Sensing that Qin Yu's gaze had been staring at him, Shen Bing's cheeks were slightly red, and he forcibly resisted the throbbing in his heart.

Try to keep your tone calm and say: "This will make you feel more comfortable. If you want to sleep, you can sleep."

Qin Yu was really sleepy, leaning sideways on the armrest of the sofa.

Just as he was thinking of something in his head, he had already fallen asleep.

It feels like a coma...

About half an hour, UU reading www. uukanshu.com Qin Yu woke up.

He was refreshed, and suddenly felt that the whole person had become different.

Looking at her feet again, Shen Bing is pressing her head with her hand, tilting her head to watch TV...

It is still the animal world, but the protagonist changes from a rhino to a cheetah.

The plot is very hot~~

"cough."

Hearing Qin Yu's cough, Shen Bing suddenly broke free from the plot.

He glanced at him strangely, got up and said: "There is no more food at home, I have to go to the supermarket to buy some food."

"I'll help." Brother Yu certainly couldn't let her go alone.

He is the best at helping others and he likes it the most.

After waiting at the door for more than ten minutes, Mr. Shen stepped down a canvas bag and said, "You don't need to drive, the intersection is not far."

Chapter 849: news

When he arrived at the supermarket, Shen Bing started the purchasing mode.

Qin Yu was responsible for pushing a car to follow behind, being a ruthless tool man.

He said he was buying vegetables, but he went straight to the seafood area when he entered the supermarket.

Pick 10 crabs, lobsters, Chinese sturgeons (cultured), abalones, and oysters.

Let's have some sea prawns and salmon.

This pile of seafood alone is at least several thousand yuan.

One wave of dragons cost more than 300, and Shen Bing picked three at a time!

After finishing the dishes, I chose two green dishes, and bought a lot of frozen goods, yogurt and so on...

Pushing the car to check out, the cashier asked: "Do you want a bag?"

"No." Shen Bing refused righteously.

Reaching out, he took out two cloth bags from the canvas bag and started filling them.

But she obviously underestimated her purchasing power.

Two bags are full, and there are still a few things with nowhere to put them.

"Take a bag." Qin Yu smiled.

"do not want."

Shen Bing refused again, grabbing those few items and loading them into the canvas bag he was carrying.

"A bag of 5 hairs, so expensive."

Shen Bing said as he took out a shopping card from his bag, "Swipe the card!"

The total is 2653.43, and my eyelids didn't blink when I swiped the card.

But she just said clearly that a shopping bag of 5 cents is so expensive!

This made Qin Yu seriously suspect that she had a dual personality on the way back.

But if you think about it carefully, this is the first time that Shen Bing has seen this.

It looks quite interesting...

Seeing that she was stuffing the canvas bag she was carrying, her shoulders were all pressed down.

Qin Yu couldn't help but said, "Give me that too!"

"No, I..."

Before she finished speaking, Qin Yu snatched the bag.

With two cloth bags in one hand and canvas bag in the other, he walked home easily.

When he got home, Shen Bing started processing seafood.

Soak everything with salt and baking soda and water, and then scrub them one by one with a toothbrush.

Pliers, legs, stomach, head, shell...

After the same brushing, the water is already black.

The abalone also opens the shell by itself, cleans out the internal organs underneath, and then cuts off one end of the mouth, and both sides must be scrubbed clean.

Raw oysters are prepared in the same way, and the prawns are inserted into the third section with a toothpick, the back one-third of the position.

After picking it up and pinching it with your hands, the shrimp thread will be taken out and cleaned up!

Qin Yu basically had nothing to do except to change the water and pack the cleaned shellfish into shells.

"Mom, I'm back...Is Qin Yu here?" Wen Yaxuan's voice came from the room.

The two people realized afterwards that the sky outside had begun to darken.

"Xuan Xuan!" Qin Yu wiped his hands and finally withdrew from the kitchen and left.

"When I see the shoes, I know it's you... I miss you so much." Wen Yaxuan said coquettishly.

"Me too, let me see if I have gained weight recently." Qin Yu said.

"Yes, I have gained 5 jin, and I am about to have a small belly." Wen Yaxuan said in a worried tone.

"I just like the fleshy little belly, it feels comfortable to the touch!"

"disgusting..."

Shen Bing wanted to keep these voices out, but it seemed like a kind of magic.

Every tone of voice was clearly conveyed to her brain.

There is a strange sorrow in my heart...

"Cough, Xuan Xuan, come and help." Shen Bing said to interrupt the two people's gloomy crookedness.

Wen Yaxuan, who was acting coquettishly in Qin Yu's arms, smiled helplessly, let go of her hand holding Qin Yu, rolled up her sleeves and walked into the kitchen.

Now, there is nothing wrong with Brother Yu.

After touching a beer from the refrigerator, Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and called Li Xiao.

He will live here tonight, it makes no difference to drink a few bottles.

I called Li Xiao to arrange a venue for tomorrow.

Come back, the woman wants to feed!

The brothers can't get together less, and Li Xiao promised to make arrangements without hearing him.

"Where shall we go?"

"It's okay to find a food stall. Everyone has a few drinks and chats casually."

"Okay, leave it to me, Brother Yu..." Li Xiao then added: "The single is yours."

"Mine." After hanging up the phone, Qin Yu waited to eat while drinking beer in the living room.

"Qin Yu, stop drinking beer."

Wen Yaxuan, who came out to get the ingredients, grabbed the beer in his hand and blamed: "Mom prepared so many seafood, do you want a gout set meal?"

It is difficult for Brother Yu to explain that it is impossible for his body to get gout at all.

But thinking that she was still a mortal womb, I was relieved again!

"Okay, stop drinking." Qin Yu said.

Only then did Wen Yaxuan put down the beer with satisfaction, picked up the ingredients and walked to the kitchen, looking back, "I'll give you warm wine later!"

Eat seafood, how can you lose rice wine!

The cup is cleaned, and hot water is added to the outer layer, then the inner tank is put down, and the warm rice wine is poured into it.

When drinking in this way, the hot water keeps heating up, and the wine will not cool down.

"Go!" Shen Bing put the crab-eating kit in a place that Qin Yu could easily hold.

Then, I saw Yu Ge pinching the crab claws with bare hands.

Clamp the thumb and index finger, and crush the shell like iron tongs.

Break one side, red film and white meat, a whole perfect crab meat falls into the Wen Yaxuan bowl.

Following the same procedure, the other one was given to Shen Bing.

After doing this, Qin Yu began to concoct Bolong again.

Grab your head and turn, pliers, and press with two fingers.

Click~

Seeing his proficient movements, he showed no pain at all when pinching the spikes with his fingers.

Shen Bing couldn't help asking: "Does that sting?"

"This is my experience, this little thorn is not in the way."

Tear open the shell, Qin Yu used scissors to divide the shrimp into three sections: "Mr. Shen, this part is the best."

Shen Bing nodded, but kept looking at the spikes on the crab claws.

Finally, tentatively tapped on it with a finger.

Hiss~

This thorn is so sharp, it doesn't hurt anymore.

Shen Bing quietly retracted his hand.

It would be too embarrassing to let Qin Yu see her such a childish side!

Shen Bing's appetite, half of Polong and Crab was full.

But there is another glass of rice wine.

Eat seafood with rice wine, the more you drink, the more comfortable.

The body is just like its temperature, and it is not too warm.

He squinted his eyes warmly, and people became lazy and relaxed.

The rest is the home performance of Qin Yu and Wen Yaxuan. You fight for the two, just like fighting.

"Eat slower, slower, slower..." Seeing the speeding hands of the two, Shen Bing decided to give up weakly.

Forget it, let them grab it.

Eat like this...

Why does she seem to be a little hungry again? ? ?

Inexplicably...

Shen Bing once again joined the grabbing.

When she came back to her senses, she had already eaten half of a crab and two abalones unknowingly.

The freshly mixed salad is being delivered to the mouth by a fork.

(◕_◕)?

Without touching it with his hands, Shen Bing could also detect a strong feeling of fullness.

My lower abdomen must be swollen now.

"Ah, it seems it's going to rain soon, I'm going to collect my clothes."

Shen Bing hurriedly left the table.

Those who are near the ink are red!

Staying with two foodies, how could it be possible to control it.

Escaped~

When there were only empty shells on the plates on the table, the residue piled up like a hill in front of them.

Qin Yu and Wen Yaxuan stopped their hands and lay back on their chairs.

His eyes were facing each other, and he let out a silly laugh.

"Don't make me laugh, ha... I'm so supportive."

Wen Yaxuan forced herself to calm down.

But when she saw Qin Yu, she couldn't help but smile inside.

It's like being pressed the "happy" switch, Qin Yu is the key to trigger the switch.

Qin Yu spread his hands innocently and said, "I didn't do anything."

"What are the stars doing lately?"

After a short break, Qin Yu and Wen Yaxuan cleaned the table together.

"Still helping home."

Wen Yaxuan paused and said, "It seems that Sister Wanxing has no choice but to inherit Wanguan family wealth."

"How do you listen to you, it seems to be aggrieved?" Qin Yu said amused.

"Of course, Sister Wanxing has always wanted to start a business by her own ability, and now she is taken home to take over the business, she must be unhappy."

"Don't talk nonsense about what you said outside, be careful of being beaten." Qin Yu said.

I'll give you two big-necked slips when you go up. What an extraordinary thing!

At night, after cleaning up the kitchen, the three of them sat in the living room and watched the evening news together.

In fact, it was mainly Qin Yu who was watching, and today's news is particularly meaningful.

First, the Bald Eagle reached a tens of billions-level purchase order with an unknown materials company.

Then came a new space program, "Apollo 2" approved by Capitol Hill.

It is expected to land on the moon again within 12 months to find the missing "Apollo 1" spacecraft and crew members.

Of course, when the news was announced, the bald eagle was the old trick again.

Nothing matters. Our most important goal is to find the crew and let them go home safely.

The fact is, the bald eagle doesn't care about the life and death of those people at all.

In NASA's mind, the probability of their survival is less than one in a million.

The mission of "Apollo 2" is to explore the moon base, and it is best to capture it.

Complete the unfinished work of "Apollo 1" and let the bald eagle flag be inserted over the moon base.

Once again to proclaim to the world how powerful the bald eagle's hegemony is.

This is their only purpose!

After watching the international situation, turn the channel back to the domestic channel.

There is such an important news being broadcast. Our country and Barrow are engaged in mediation negotiations in various fields...

Barrow and our country have a deep friendship... The two sides will start more strategic-level cooperation...

The cooperation between the two countries will be more conducive to the stability of the entire international community...

In short, the signal released is that the relationship between the two countries will be further strengthened, and closer and important cooperation will soon be launched. U U Reading

The international community (countries) want to think clearly about what to do and what not to do, just take it easy!

Otherwise, be careful of Brother Mao hitting you!

In the final stage of this news, there was a brief mention of Miracle Technology Network Corporation.

Terminals will be opened to Barrow to strengthen the connectivity and economic effects of the electronic pan-entertainment market.

Qin Yu didn't say anything, and directly picked up the phone and dialed Xu Hao: "Mouse, did you read the news just now?"

"Brother Yu, I just saw it, good news!" Xu Hao said with joy.

"The order is coming, get ready to prepare." Qin Yu also smiled, which is indeed good news.

"No problem!" Xu Hao thought for a while, and asked, "Well, do we have to set a period of obsolescence?"

"One that was passed down for three generations has all gone bankrupt," Qin Yu said.

"Understood, enjoy your graduation season!"

Chapter 850: Gather together

In the evening, Qin Yu was arranged in the guest bedroom.

This was Shen Bing's last stubbornness, so he didn't say anything, and honestly went back to the room to rest.

Just open the door and take two more steps.

No trouble!

...

The next day, I went to the construction site to see the progress.

Soft furnishings, office supplies, and various instruments are coming in one after another.

Responsible for receiving express delivery during the day, and [creator] will naturally deliver everything to where it is needed at night.

Thanks to the efficiency of the [creator], everything that arrives every day is installed and organized that night.

Seeing that the city is becoming more and more "human," Qin Yu looked forward to the day when he saw it filled with smoke and smoke.

In the afternoon, Qin Yu left early.

Yangpu, a street in the South Road Night Market.

Li Xiao booked the location in advance, it is an authentic old restaurant in Guandong.

Parked the car on the side of the road, Qin Yu saw Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun sitting on the side of the road through the window.

In addition to the two of them, Han Hu, Liu Xing and Li Xiaoxiao were also there.

"Brother!" Qin Yu yelled and walked straight to the round table.

"Ge Yu (Ge Yu)!" A group of people laughed and stood up.

Qin Yu waved his hand and said, "Don't come to this set, I will definitely not buy this one today."

"Haha, I definitely can't let you buy it, I'll come today." Han Hu said first.

"Tiger, don't grab it with me, count me." Liu Xing patted his chest to grab the order.

"You two get half of it."

The tomboy Li Xiaoxiao finished speaking and nodded to Qin Yu with a smile: "Brother Yu."

"Yeah." Qin Yu nodded in response. As soon as he sat down, a strange figure came over again.

"Brother, Sister Xiao Xiao, I just grabbed the saliva chicken that just came out of the pot." Xiao He triumphantly put the plate on the table.

The business is booming, and the orders are a bit messy.

If no one is staring, I don't know when the food will be served.

No, Xiao He volunteered to run to the door of the kitchen to guard him, halfway through the dish and press the table first.

"You are... Xiao He!" Qin Yu remembered who he was.

One of the members of the Three Qin Club, Han Hu was brought by Liu Xing.

"Yes, it's me, you can call me Xiao He, Qin Shao still remembers me, it's a great honor." Xiao He said flatly with a smile.

He can't afford to provoke anyone in this room, not only.

Being able to climb a thigh is the blessing of eight lifetimes of cultivation, and the great blessing of the ancestors' graves.

As long as you can take care of these big guys, just dial a sentence or two.

Or let go, their business can rise to several steps.

Therefore, even after running as a horse, Xiao He didn't feel any embarrassment.

"Brother Yu, you guys talk first, I'll go take a look." Xiao He ran to the store as he said.

"Eh~" Qin Yu wanted to call but didn't stop.

Can't help but laugh: "Since they are all friends here, let him not be busy and sit down and chat together."

"Just keep him busy. I'm afraid he won't sit down if he doesn't do anything." Li Xiao said.

Now that the little brother said so, Qin Yu no longer reluctantly.

"Boss, first two barrels of draft beer." With a move, someone over there places an order and serves wine.

Put two barrels of wine on the empty stool next to them, and install the exhaust port.

The big draft beer glass is slammed in front of you, picking up the wine and starting to drink!

"Cold dishes are here, and there are spicy crayfish." Xiao He came back again with two plates full of sweat.

After a short while, let him cut six dishes.

Talent!

"Don't be busy, sit down." Yang Chengjun beckoned and motioned for him to sit next to him.

Seeing that the others didn't say anything, Xiao He sat down next to the stool with half of his **** on the side, ready to get up at all times.

At this table today, he must come to greet him, and no one else will come.

"Everyone is there, then let's take one first." Qin Yu said, raising the cup.

Surprisingly, Li Xiaoxiao pressed her hand and said, "Brother Yu, wait, there are still few people."

"Oh? Who else is coming?" Qin Yu put down the cup curiously.

"Brother Yu!" There was a sneer laugh behind him, and Qin Yu didn't need to look back to hear that it was Xu Hao.

"Fuck, why are you back?" Qin Yu said with a little surprise.

Han Hu next to him gave up his position, let Xu Hao sit down next to Qin Yu, and changed his position next to him.

Xu Hao sat down grinningly, "Why can't I come back, can this kind of occasion lose me?"

Qin Yu will figure out why Li Xiaoxiao came to catch this.

The co-author is "The drunkard doesn't mean to drink!"

However, his Xia Ke...

Forget it, I can't worry about my own affairs, and I'm worried about what other people are doing.

"Come and drink." Qin Yu toasted again.

There was no more episode this time, and everyone stood up and toasted.

The draft beer cups gathered in the middle and "jingled", shouting with a smile: "It's done."

"A mouthful, whoever raises fish will punish himself for a cup."

"Don't talk nonsense, do it."

"Dry."

咚咚咚~

Qin Yu wiped the corners of his mouth with his hands, and looked at other people happily.

Xu Hao had a good life today, and he went straight to the end without stopping.

Then went to grab Li Xiaoxiao's cup: "You drink less."

Without giving her a chance to refute, Xu Hao drank the remaining half a cup.

"Hiccup!" After a full hiccup, Xu Hao didn't sway when he sat down.

Li Xiaoxiao smiled and took the empty cup, no one could see the joy in his eyes.

Liu Xing roared, "Sister Xiaoxiao, Brother Hao, congratulations!"

"I didn't expect it, I didn't expect it."

Han Hu shook his head and said with emotion: "Sister Xiaoxiao can actually look at Brother Hao, this...Is there any difference between me?"

"Fuck you, you are far behind." Xu Hao scolded with a smile.

"Hey, I'm not convinced by this."

Han Hu grinned and retorted: "In terms of appearance, I only serve Brother Yu."

Xu Hao made him choke at this, tilted his head and glanced at Qin Yu.

He shook his head suddenly and said: "He can't, he's suspended."

"..." Brother Yu said amused: "I'm banned for what I'm doing."

"Your appearance is unscientific, it is banned, or it is unfair to other players." Xu Hao responded.

"Mouse is right. If you want to participate, you will be awarded a medal directly! What is the effort?" Li Xiao nodded in agreement.

"Okay, don't say anything."

Qin Yu picked up the cup and looked for Li Xiao: "Come on, brother, we have to do one."

"...It was the mouse that said, you find him first." Li Xiao pointed the finger at Xu Hao.

"Come on." Xu Hao held up the cup very proudly, without any futility.

For three days, Shi Bie should be respectful, he is no longer the Xu Hao he used to be.

Socialize every day, drink wine like water.

Now, if you don't blink at two pounds of liquor, who does the draft beer scare you?

After finishing the work here, Xiao He, who was waiting to receive the wine, snatched the glass.

"Brother, it's our turn now." Qin Yu didn't forget Li Xiao.

My eldest uncle, you can't give him a drink.

It doesn't show Lao Qin's enthusiasm and goodness...

Li Xiao gritted his teeth and said: "Okay, I still don't believe it."

He didn't believe it, there were so many people tonight, and he couldn't get one back.

"No one is robbing you, can't you eat two mouthfuls of food and then drink it?" Li Xiaoxiao joked while holding Xu Hao the food.

"Tsk tusk, we are not like some people, some people care, take a look, take a look..."

Qin Yu pointed to Xu Hao's pile of plates, "It's outrageous!!"

"Haha~"

Everyone roared with laughter, and Li Xiaoxiao shook his head in a cool manner, "If you are not convinced, call it too!"

Brother Yu folded his hands together, begging for mercy and surrendered: "Sister Xiao Xiao is mighty!"

"Yes, Xiao Xiao and Brother Yu are scared of you. You deserve to be the eldest sister. I have to respect you."

Yang Chengjun said that he wanted to respect her, but it was obvious that he wanted to drink wine like that.

It seems that Xu Hao and Li Xiaoxiao are going to lie down today...

"I'm here to drink." Xu Hao slapped his chest proudly and stood up. At this time, he couldn't persuade him.

Besides, Brother Hao is a bit confused about his drinking capacity now.

"Anyone can drink it." Yang Chengjun didn't get entangled at all, and directly aimed at Xu Hao.

Xu Hao's expression was stunned, and then he smiled and cursed: "Okay, Brother Jun, you are already a great idea."

"Hey, don't say that, you made it up by yourself." Yang Chengjun smiled.

"Brother, don't look at it, our wine is not clear yet!" Qin Yu touched him while holding the glass, and then went to work.

Seeing him so refreshed, Li Xiao had nothing to say.

It's done!

With two big draft beer cups in a row, people are going to be bad right away.

His head heated up, his sanity faded, and he took the vegetable and delivered it to his mouth vigorously.

Over there, Yang Chengjun and Xu Hao did another job, and Li Xiaoxiao, the maiden army, couldn't sit still.

When he got up, he had to pay tribute to Yang Chengjun, and didn't give him a chance to catch his breath at all.

"Why, the husband sings and the wife sui?" Yang Chengjun teased.

Li Xiaoxiao's cheeks were red, but her complexion was not particularly white, and she couldn't see clearly at night.

"Don't worry about it, anyway, I respect you, do you want to drink it or not?"

After speaking, I picked up the cup, raised my head and drank it.

With a sigh of relief, without any hesitation...

The crowd applauded and shouted: "Okay."

"Brother Jun, Sister Xiao Xiao did it." Han Hu said with a smile.

"Brother Jun, you have to hesitate, buddy can look down on you." Xu Hao also added fuel and jealousy to the side.

"Drinking, I've been afraid of it." Yang Chengjun said stiffly and poured it into his mouth when he picked it up.

It's refreshing when I drink it, but it's not so good after drinking it.

It took less than ten minutes to open the table and finished three cups in a row.

This taste...

"Brother, I have to respect you for this cup. Thank you for taking care of mice for so many years."

Before Li Xiaoxiao was over, he turned to Li Xiao.

"Xiao Xiao, I didn't say anything." Li Xiao only felt that his head hurts, can I still drink this wine.

"I'll do it first, you are free." Li Xiaoxiao was still so bold and bored.

Seeing that she finishes drinking without a drop Li Xiao has anything else to say.

I didn't even have time to pick up a peanut, it's another cup...

Seeing two obvious blushes on Li Xiaoxiao's face, everyone thought the wine was over.

"Sister Xiaoxiao, sit down and rest and eat some food."

"Yes, you are too fierce."

"As expected of Sister Xiao Xiao, domineering."

"Don't worry." Li Xiaoxiao raised his hand, calmed his emotions, and looked up at Qin Yu.

Before she could speak, Qin Yu directly held up the cup in front of him, "I did it."

Gudongdong!

Snapped!

Seeing that there were only some beer bubbles in the empty glass in front of him, it was Li Xiaoxiao's turn to be dumbfounded.

Brother...Is it too late to regret now?
