Chapter 861: What does Xiao Bichi fight for?

arrived at Park Hyatt, Qin Yu first signed for the luggage from the front desk.

This time, China Eastern Airlines. The efficiency of the other party gave Qin Yu a new understanding of domestic airlines.

The luggage arrived first before the person arrived.

"Mr. Qin, you have agreed on July 5th, from 16:00 pm to 8:00 am the next morning, please sign here."

Qin Yu had told the hotel before he came that he would wrap up the entire beach on the same day to celebrate the birthday of the little pumpkin.

When the time comes, the hotel will arrange the beach in advance.

prepared more than a dozen kinds of activities, let the guests cheer until the next morning.

All the expenses are calculated to be 800,000 yuan, and the fractional hotels are erased.

"Swipe the card!" Here let him confirm that the important thing is to pay.

The consumption of 800,000 yuan, the hotel will not pay in advance, the risk is too high.

After receiving the bill, Qin Yu stuffed his pocket easily.

Four waiters carrying luggage, the lobby manager of the hotel in front of them personally led the way and led them to the sea view villa area.

Because he wanted to entertain the young lady who came to celebrate the birthday of Little Pumpkin, Qin Yu had a whole row of villas facing the sea under Qin Yu.

He lives with Little Pumpkin in the middle building, and the next few buildings are reserved for young ladies who have successfully signed up.

This birthday party, although it is a "crowdfunding."

But not everyone is eligible to enter, first of all you have to have enough capital.

Secondly, it has to be clean enough, fun and trouble!

Rotten fish, smelly shrimp, can't ask for...

"Cauldron, beach, go to the beach."

As soon as he entered the room, Little Pumpkin ran to the large balcony in a familiar way, and pointed out against the glass door.

This is the hotel's private beach, Sun Bay.

Last time, he saw a lot of young ladies in it, and he had fun with them.

I remember there is a young lady who is especially soft and comfortable in her arms.

I like to bury his head in his arms, making him breathless...

I really want to do it again!

"First take a break." Qin Yu went to the bamboo chair, picked up the phone and started to choose the concubine.

Turn on the notes and take a look, good guy...

The number of souvenirs has exceeded 3000, running around!

opened the message, Yu brother got impatient after reading a few.

In , most of them are melon-eaters, or the keyboard man.

"Kirin, filter..."

There is a unicorn, which makes Yu Ge a lot of worry.

In less than half a minute, all the target persons who meet the criteria are screened out.

Qin Yu only needs to perform a second screening and confirmation according to the list provided by Kirin.

"This is not good, technology is weird~" With an 83-point look, his temperament is only 40.

bends over and hunches back, his eyes are dull, and the image of a disheveled face is instantly formed in his mind.

Lost interest for a moment, this is to make trouble, pass~

"Fuck, what is this stuff, blind!"

"Kirin, don't mess with me!" Brother Yu rubbed his eyes, feeling that his pupils were contaminated.

This is really too much, shouldn't it be enough to stop engaging in technology?

found a bottle of ice water to wash his eyes from the refrigerator, and Qin Yu then began to screen again.

"Hey, this is good, I want it."

"Well, this one is pretty good too..."

"pass~"

"This is good, I...cough, Little Pumpkin must like it."

"Um~hmm~ not bad, good, I have it."

"The figure is 98↑, hiss~~ Bring it to you!"

Two hours later, Qin Yu finished the first wave of screening and told them to go directly to the Park Hyatt Villa area and report the name of "Mr. Qin".

As soon as the phone was put down here, the call from the front desk came, "Mr. Qin, there is a lady named Puff, saying that she has received your invitation."

raised his wrist and took a look, less than two minutes.

I lost, so fast, are you sitting down?

"Yes, bring her here..."

"Well, Mr. Qin, please wait a moment. Another lady named Canaan said that she also received your invitation, ah~ please wait a moment!"

"Ms. Sixi and Ms. Xiaolan are the same... Ah, someone is here again."

The people at the front desk are already stupid, where did these women appear.

Why are they looking for Mr. Qin all of a sudden? Did they make an appointment?

After 20 minutes, 70% of the first batch of invitations came.

All rushed to Sanya in advance, and felt that Sun Bay was the most suitable hotel, so get together and check in early.

Transfer from the common room to the villa area, and it will take a few minutes!

In addition, there are a few uninvited guests.

Chicken-eating girl Wang Yushan is in this list. No one has asked for a live broadcast for thousands of years.

Anyway, people must have special skills.

is like Wang Yushan, but the game is very good, and you can always eat chicken.

No, it immediately caught fire.

Brother Yu thinks her data is good, but when she thinks of her proficient chicken eating skills, listening to her is a bit nauseous.

Little girl, your path is narrow, pass~

"This is the birthday star of the day after tomorrow, Qin Luo."

Qin Yu rubbed the head of Little Pumpkin and said, "Little Pumpkin, greet my sisters."

"Miss Sister, how are you..." Little Pumpkin smiled slightly, and the girls responded with a smile.

Then I heard him say: "Can we go to the beach to play? Remember to wear a bikini!"

"Wow, Xiao Qin is always good at it!"

"Haha, does Xiao Qin always like black silk? My sister has brought it~"

"Mr. Qin, my sisters will surely give you a surprise!"

The little foxes began to show, scrambling to win the favor of the little pumpkin.

The boss said, the reward for three days is 100,000.

If Xiao Qin is satisfied, there will be other rewards...

is such a small one, and the hair is definitely not full. If you can't use real swords and guns, then you can only have fun with him.

Children, all like to play ball.

Several young ladies with wide busts, raised their heads proudly and supported their chests.

Sister, what are the little * fighting for?

Watching the little girls take away their younger brothers, Qin Yu tilted his head to He Wu, and said, "Old He, just watch and don't hurt him."

"Yeah." He Wu nodded and followed in silence.

"Boss, aren't you afraid to teach children like this?" Xu Meixin walked out from the corner.

Because there was a group of Yingyingyanyan before, it is difficult to notice her without speaking.

"It doesn't matter, this kid is born to be a romantic kind." Qin Yu joked, "It's nothing if you like to play, but who can refuse?"

Listening to the boss's false reasoning, Xu Meixin lowered the frame and said quietly, "What about you?"

"Me?" Qin Yu looked back at her. Today's Secretary Xu was a little abnormal.

"I mean, boss, you are very restrained, at least with the people around you." Xu Meixin pointed something.

This "finger" is clearly referring to herself.

So, this * charm is so strong that Xu Meixin can't restrain it anymore?

"Secretary Xu, work and life must be clearly distinguished. Otherwise, it will be easy to at least be confused and easily injured."

Qin Yu looked at her with a serious expression, and said, "You know?"

Xu Meixin's expression was stunned, and a trace of loss flashed under her eyes.

lowered his head and said softly, "I know, I'm going out first, boss."

"Well, let's go to the beach and play together!"

Qin Yu shook the report in front of him, and said: "This time I'm here to relax, be happy."

Hearing the door closed, Qin Yu put down the report in his hand and let out a sigh of relief: "Hey, this * charm!"

July 5th, early morning.

Early in the morning, Little Pumpkin turned over and got up, sat on the edge of the bed obediently, and looked at Qin Yu with his chin on his hand.

1 minute, 2 minutes, 5 minutes...

"Okay, get up." Brother Yu surrendered.

Little Pumpkin jumped up triumphantly and shouted: "Beach, beach~"

"Eat breakfast first and put on your clothes quickly." Qin Yu walked to the bathroom alone.

As for the little pumpkin, he can handle it himself.

Big flower beach pants, short vest, beach shoes, straw hat, toad mirror...

The two people who had eaten dressed the same, and walked towards the beach with unidentified footwork.

The villa next to also opened the glass door, and the young ladies in bikinis waved their arms and shouted happily, "Mr. Qin, Mr. Qin..."

"Big sister, come and play in the water!" Little Pumpkin twisted his hips and waved his chubby arms.

In the past two days, he has lived like a fairy and is about to take off happily.

I heard from my elder brother that there will be young ladies coming today, and Pumpkin will be even happier thinking about it.

great~

"Mr Qin." There was a cool breeze early in the morning, but Canaan had already put on a bikini.

Narrow version, generously showing his proud figure.

"Um."

With a casual smile, Qin Yu looked at Xu Meixin behind him: "Secretary Xu, confirm with the hotel for the arrangement of the afternoon, don't be surprised."

"Okay, boss." Xu Meixin turned and left, ignoring the scenery in front of her.

These internet celebrities show favor and seduce their boss.

Explicit, implied, it's not the first day.

She has gotten used to it these past two days, saying that she is here to celebrate Xiao Qin's birthday.

Actually, their goals are all on the boss.

Who makes him more valuable than Mr. Qin!

Seeing Qin Yu's unsatisfactory attitude, Canaan walked towards the beach a little boringly.

Compared to Mr. Qin, Mr. Qin is still more fun.

Forget it, consider this trip as a holiday.

You can order whatever you want, and you can stay in a villa with a sea view for free. It's a great day too.

It's a pity that the attack speed is loaded in his suitcase.

If Xiao Qin could always be a teenager, it would be fine...

found an empty beach chair Qin Yu lay on it, taking a nap with sunglasses.

The rising sun is warm, just right on the body.

The photo is drowsy!

But there seems to be inexhaustible power in the body, and the nanoworms become more and more active in the sun.

'S absorption of liquid crystals has expanded their choice of energy intake.

Solar energy has also become a kind of energy that can be used and absorbed.

This makes Yu brother think of a guy wearing underwear!

If you lie down and sun like this for 10,000 years, will you be invincible?

But after another thought, Brother Yu couldn't help but laugh.

The solar energy absorption conversion rate of nanoworms is not comparable to that of a guy wearing underwear.

Besides, the body foundation is placed here.

No matter how much the sun is exposed, it can't reach the level of abnormality, and slight improvement of the physique is likely to become a reality.

etc. Jing Yuan's nano-engineering has progressed and accumulated enough data and information.

Maybe one day, based on the development of nanoworms, it can be improved twice or three times.

At that time, the situation may be different! ! !

Chapter 862: Xiao Qin's celebrity group

"Brother Yu, where is it?" Qin Yu received a call from Li Xiao at noon.

The little brother's tone was a little excited, and Qin Yu asked curiously: "Where is Sanya, what good has happened to the little brother?"

"Sanya, don't call me on vacation."

"No, give our little pumpkin birthday."

"Then I should be notified, how can our brother not call me on his birthday?" Li Xiao immediately blamed.

"Don't, this kid is sexist. This is going to be playing on the beach with more than twenty young ladies!

You don't want to take care of you, don't mess around! "

"Good guy~ it's your brother, it's your brother!" The little brother was shocked.

"Fuck off, hurry up and say something good." Qin Yu scolded with a smile.

"You'll know when you read the news, and I won't bother you to be happy... Happy birthday to Little Pumpkin for me."

After closing the thread, Qin Yu found today's important news, and the news inside made him look more and more outrageous.

Barrow completely canceled the use of English and replaced it with Xia. Airports, highways, and stations will be replaced one after another.

After the replacement, the dual languages used in all signs are: Russian and Xia.

Bai Maozi formally joined the economic agreement reached between Barrow and the court, and the three parties formed a new trading special economic zone system.

Neon said it wants to apply to join the economic agreement.

Resolutely protested by Barrow, the court expressed that it would respect the collaborators and could only decline them.

"If we can't do it now, it doesn't mean that we won't do it in the future. We have a deep relationship with neon since ancient times.

But in modern history, Neon made the wrong choice at every important moment, which has to make us think deeply.

Similarly, I hope that you will learn the lessons of history and make the right choices that are truly beneficial to the world and the country. "

It's not bad to want to join, but do you have to take some practical action when you change the master?

To put it bluntly: how about casting a name?

Zhang Zhangkou wanted to change the door, how could there be such a simple good thing.

Before the change, the court may still need Neon's international support, which is limited help.

Now...

The illusion of Xingtian Special Operations Force sneaked into the target and drew a circle with a red pen on the map.

Only the size of a projectile!

As a result of the acting, using aerial delivery, 200 [Xing Tian] can control Danwan Island in 40 minutes.

Disarm all arms, wipe out the enemy, and strike a blow to the fleet that comes to support.

Of course, the premise is not to use strategic weapons.

Someone is really going to have a nuclear peace, it's useless to send much...

However, as a result of doing so, the earth will become the second Futra star.

Even more serious! !

Therefore, before the nuclear peace issue is resolved, it is unrealistic and impossible to have a large-scale conflict.

Because no one can become a beneficiary in this way!

Who will do something that is not good?

In addition, a number of Eastern European countries bordering Barrow have expressed their interest in joining the New Economic Agreement Alliance.

The Bald Eagle was caught off guard!

The imperial court wave, in the atmosphere...

Seeing the buzzing comments on the Internet, Yu Ge turned off the phone with a light smile.

What role "Ghost" plays in it, he hopes that no one will pay attention to it.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the entire beach has changed a lot.

Garlands, ribbons, balloons, cute dolls and exquisite and hearty food on the cold table.

All exudes a seductive breath!

There is also a lot of skin white, beautiful, and long legs.

Puff, Zhenyu, Li Youyou, Keli, Canaan, Xixi, Linlin, Yuuuu, Liu Ai, Xiaolan, o, May, Zheng Xiang, Ys, Big Pig, Zhou Ziran, Super Sweet Vitamin C, Dai Anning, Jing Shiyan.

Exactly 20, standing on the beach in one word, is the most beautiful scenery.

After two days of getting along, they finally believed that the boss really asked them to come and play with their little brother.

Rather than having any deep meaning, or a more secret private project.

Is it disappointed or happy...

It was a little unclear for a while.

Disappointed!

You can get 100,000 for playing with you, an average of 33,300 per day. Where can I find such a good thing?

The male * who can't even dream is close at hand, but can't be seen or touched.

Are you angry? ? ?

It's fine if he is rich, but he is not only rich, but also young...

Even if he is young, he still has abdominal muscles and an inverted triangle.

Forget about the inverted triangle, he is so handsome, he can throw the idols chased by the little girls a few blocks away.

Young, handsome, rich...

Even wearing beach pants and a tank top, his whole body exudes a strong masculinity.

The masculine breath is like an addictive poison that makes people want to stop.

The more you contact, the more you want to possess him.

But his attitude towards everyone is lukewarm, and the mentality of "Ladies" is about to collapse.

It used to be only for others to lick one's own share, but now when you change to lick yourself, you can understand how painful it is to ask but not to.

Really wronged to lick the dogs.

Next time, give them a chance to invite themselves and their girlfriends to a big meal.

Um~

I really am a kind-hearted little fairy.

Unlike some people...

I made it clear... I just got on the bed to deliver it.

Why didn't the elder brother say at all, it hurts.

What a cruel heart, woo...

It's not like others at all, knowing how to give a dog a chance.

"hungry!"

Little Pumpkin was hungry for playing and ran to the cold table to get something to eat.

But after trying for a long time, I found that I couldn't reach it at all.

"President Xiao Qin, I'll help you." Keli reached out and hugged the little pumpkin.

The young lady, who was a step slower, hurriedly brought him some delicious food from the dining table.

"President Xiao Qin, do you like fish or beef?"

"Mr. Qin, try this dessert, it's delicious, very sweet..."

"Mr. Qin, drink some lemonade first."

"President Xiao Qin, look at me..."

"Little Qin, this is delicious!"

For a time, Little Pumpkin can't wait to grow a hundred mouths to keep the ladies busy.

Seeing him surrounded by a group of Yingyingyanyan, all kinds of delicious food were delivered to his mouth.

Happy eyes all smiled, and Qin Yu took precious photos of him.

Later, you can show it to your younger siblings.

After you let go, always find someone to take care of him.

Otherwise, just his temperament, heaven is light.

With laughter, time passed unconsciously.

The sky was getting dark and a bonfire was lit on the beach.

Various fireworks and salutes were also moved out and placed in fixed locations.

There is also a two-story birthday cake with a happy smile on the top of the little pumpkin.

Originally, the hotel meant to prepare seven floors.

But Qin Yu felt that it was too high, and it was difficult for the little pumpkin to cut it by himself. On the contrary, he was happy adult.

Therefore, it is better to have two layers.

The young lady hugged him at the right height. Of course, he had to consider his needs on his birthday.

When the birthday cake was pushed up, everyone sang the birthday song together.

The sky was also illuminated by fireworks, which caused the residents of the hotel to look around and take pictures.

Today's beach was sealed with a no-entry sign stating that someone had booked the venue for his birthday.

There are also hotel staff who are responsible for maintaining order, and it's no use trying to get in!

A lot of Internet celebrities have also come, all wanting to rub traffic.

Fortunately, the distance from the beach was far enough, so it didn't disturb Little Pumpkin's birthday party.

Holding a happy little pumpkin, Qin Yu pointed to the sky and said, "Does it look good?"

"Good-looking, so beautiful, giggle..." Little Pumpkin laughed happily.

"so beautiful!"

"Look over there, it's so good."

"Wow~"

The girls raised their phones hanging in front of their chests, shooting wildly at the sky.

But I couldn't help thinking about a question: "How much does this firework rain cost?"

In the hotel in the distance, I watched the rain of fireworks that had lasted for a long time.

People can't help expressing envious feelings: "It's nice to have money."

After the fireworks rain that lasted for 20 minutes ended, Little Pumpkin personally cut the first piece of cake.

"Brother, I'll eat it for you." Little Pumpkin held the cake to give it to Qin Yu.

"Wow, Xiao Qin is so sensible!" The celebrity group exaggerated praise again.

"Today is your birthday, this piece belongs to you." Qin Yu dug a piece of butter with his finger.

Click on Little Pumpkin's forehead, and said with a smile: "Happy birthday, Xiao Luo!"

"Thank you, elder brother, mumumu~" He blew his lips and blew kisses, and the little pumpkin ate the cake.

The rest of the celebrity group will be divided by themselves, and the first piece will be given to Qin Yu first.

Then one person held a piece of cake and kept sending it to the little pumpkin's mouth.

"President Xiao Qin, eat mine, mine is delicious."

"Mr. Qin, I have cherries, it's big and round."

"My mine, look how white, creamy..." The cake with missing teeth was delivered into the little pumpkin's mouth.

Qin Yu didn't run away either. Several ladies gathered around him and brought the spoon to his mouth.

"Ms. Qin, can you try mine if it tastes better."

"Mr Qin, eat more fruits for good health."

"Mr Qin, this chocolate is super delicious, try it..."

The chocolate crispy that took a bite is directly in front of Qin Yu.

After eating the cake, the next thing is the highlight.

The band appeared by the bonfire, and a group of girls in big flower dresses began to sing and dance around the bonfire.

The hotel staff brought champagne, beer and ice cubes, "Let us wish Mr. Qin a happy birthday."

In the host's happy shout, Qin Yu opened the cork.

The sprayed bubbles spilt towards the famous ladies, the puffs and Xiaolan who didn't have time to run away.

It happened that Qin Yu sprayed his face and choked on his nose. He lowered his head and laughed and coughed loudly.

"The Champagne War started, who can win today, with a prize of 200,000."

Qin Yu shook the bottle and shouted.

In the next second, the celebrity group wind generally rushed towards the incubator.

"Yeah, go!"

"Sisters, don't mess around with UU reading www.uukanshu.com, kill President Qin first."

"Who is going to kill me, give me a shot, and leave you."

==Σ(((づ)づ

Brother Yu doubled his champagne cannons, killing the Quartet all at once.

There are no exceptions when he gets a big face when he lives.

Several of them let him squirt away, but fortunately, there is a system close to him, and there is no (false) appearance.

Otherwise, play with a crooked nose.

It's ridiculous!

The atmosphere is ruined if the compensation is not compensated.

Chapter 863: Choosing a concubine? The bed was lifted for you

Crazy is contagious, just like excitement...

The little pumpkin also grabbed the beer and chased people everywhere with short legs.

The celebrities caught by him didn't dare to run, so they could only be screamed by him.

The more excited you are, the happier the little pumpkin smiles.

Victory belongs to the warriors.

After all the drinks were consumed, the competition came to an end.

Looking at the ladies, one is worse than the other, and it is impossible to tell who wins and loses for a time.

"Look at the bottle, whoever attacked the fiercest will win!" Qin Yu said, and the champion was born.

It turned out to be the worst little blue that he started to spray, and one person used four bottles of champagne.

The Champagne Cannon event is over, and there will be new shows next.

Collar...

It's just that the set is not a gift.

The celebrities lined up, standing in four rows and squatting down.

Qin Yu held the little pumpkin and started to experience the new game with the ring in his hand.

Today, who can be caught, a circle rewards 50,000.

When I heard the content of the game at first, the ladies refused...

In case of being photographed, don't you want to lose face.

But when Qin Yu said "one in fifty thousand", the ladies rushed to the venue.

The staff on the beach are not allowed to bring mobile phones, and the people outside the hotel and the beach are so far away.

It's so dark, you can't even shoot it.

A group of dark girls, who can recognize them.

Fifty thousand in a circle, it's so fragrant!

The ladies were crowded and stood not far in front of you, you pushed me to grab the position closest to the little pumpkin.

A fool also knows that this position is the easiest to be caught.

"Stand well in 2 minutes and get out of position." Qin Yu announced the new rules.

Some people are still unwilling to grab the first row, and the smart ones take the lead in grabbing the second row.

Seeing that Qin Yu frequently looked at his watch, the remaining ones who hadn't grabbed the spot could only run to the third or fourth rows unwillingly.

Looking at the backs of the girls in the second row at this time, their eyes were full of anger and regret.

If I knew it, I would grab the second row first.

"Where's the circle?" As soon as Qin Yu's voice fell, someone delivered 10 circles to him.

Five small pumpkins were given, and Qin Yu made a special trip to serve him today.

Who makes him the birthday star.

Today, the sky and the earth are big and the birthday is the biggest.

Qin Yu asked the hotel to prepare 100 laps, and the total amount was 5 million.

However, it depends on Little Pumpkin's luck.

"President Xiao Qin, set me up and set me..."

"President Xiao Qin, I'm the best to play, I am."

"Mr. Qin, can you forget your sister's?" He moved his chest four or two, naked temptation.

"Ms. Qin, she hangs up."

"Physical plug-in, it's not a foul!"

As a bonus donor, Qin Yu has the final right to interpret the event.

"Okay, the game begins." Qin Yu said, and the host repeated it loudly with the microphone.

The ladies immediately squatted and stayed still.

Make sure not to let Xiao Qin fail because of his own reasons.

call out...

The first loop was shot and hit Canaan's forehead straight.

When she saw the circle, she tried her best to cooperate.

He lowered his body and knelt on the sand, curled his neck to catch the loop.

But it was still a step slower, trembling and cold!

Little Pumpkin doesn't care whether the ladies are happy or not, and then throws the second, third, and fourth.

After the last lap was thrown on the open space, Qin Yu delivered the remaining five laps to him.

It seems that Little Pumpkin's luck is not very good.

The ladies have also become depressed and helpless, Xiao Qin, I really want to be in your circle!

If the last one fails, he will be played around here like a monkey.

What a shame!

Huh~

With a quick throw, the loop fell straight on Xiaolan's neck.

Feeling the touch on his neck, Xiao Lan raised his hand in an incredible way.

Looking down at the ferrule in her hand, her expression immediately became vivid: "I'm hit, I'm caught, Xiao Qin is great."

Seeing someone caught in the quilt, the ladies rekindled hope.

Hold your chest up and keep your head and neck aligned.

One by one awaited the arrival of the "Golden Circle", bringing happiness and wealth to themselves.

The little pumpkin did not disappoint, and there were six in a row.

There was cheers at the scene, and the ladies in the quilt were originally a bit shy.

When they saw the enviable eyes of the staff around them, they all left behind all the shame.

How many people at the scene can't wait to replace them, a circle of 50,000.

More than a white-collar worker earns in a month, this is the point.

Set a few more loops, and you can get one set. Isn't it fragrant?

"President Xiao Qin, set me up and set me..."

The ladies who missed it were anxious and waved to attract the attention of Little Pumpkin.

The child is out of temper, and this trick really worked.

Seeing whoever raises his hand, the little pumpkin will cover whoever, and he can't stop laughing and closing.

At this time, two circles took off and flew out of the field, wrapped around the neck of the manager on duty.

The solemn young woman in her thirties flushed with shame.

"President Xiao Qin, you are crooked." The manager sent the circle back, with a small spark in his eyes.

Two circles, one hundred thousand yuan!

Who doesn't want it, she is just as excited...

"Cauldron, is it crooked?" Little Pumpkin asked.

"It's not crooked, even if it is in the set, I will get the money from Secretary Xu later." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

The shift manager bowed quickly: "Thank you, Mr. Qin, and thank Mr. Qin."

One hundred thousand yuan, just got it?

In the heart of the subdued young woman, it was like a dream.

This feels too unreal!

When other people saw this scene, they were going crazy with jealousy.

The host stood up and said jokingly: "Mr. Qin, you can try to play with me, I am very good."

Little Pumpkin grinned: "You are a man, I want Miss Sister..."

The host smiled awkwardly and walked away, but the service staff next to him was happy.

"President Xiao Qin, try to play with me, I am a girl."

Little Pumpkin nodded first, and was about to throw it away when holding the circle, but then suddenly stopped.

After a careful glance, the little pumpkin pouted and said: "The one with the breast is the older sister, you are a lie."

Click~

She seemed to hear the sound of her cracking, and the petrification was frozen in place, silent!

The celebrity group, who was worried about being robbed before, laughed, opened his hands and called out the little pumpkin again.

Come on, Mr. Qin, his legs are numb!

It sounds like a lot of 100 laps, and it takes a while to throw it out.

When the last trap is around the neck of Super Sweet Vitamin C, the game is over.

"I'll settle with Secretary Xu myself." After Qin Yu finished speaking, he walked to the room with the little pumpkin in his arms.

"Cauldron, cauldron, I want to play." Little Pumpkin shouted with his arms around his neck.

"What are you going to play, it's so late." Next is the adult court, what to play for the children.

"I want to drive, drive..." He returned to the room and asked him to put his big G on the beach.

Little Pumpkin waved his hand and said without looking back: "Thank you, I'll find my brother for a tip."

Puff~

The attendant made him laugh.

Qin Yu gave a tip and watched him rushing back to the beach while driving the car, and circled the celebrities to give pointers.

After a while, Xu Meixin came back.

Qin Yu asked amused: "What is he doing?"

Xu Meixin said with a weird expression: "Choose a concubine!"

ha?

What stuff, what concubine to choose?

Xu Meixin explained it all at once, and Brother Yu understood.

This kid is a bit floating, and dare to say that he wants to choose a few young ladies to sleep with him!

Just your little toothpick, enough for what...

Forget it, let him be happy first, and later brother will teach you a good boy.

The higher the drift, the worse the fall.

Brother Yu planned to let him float into the atmosphere first, and then slap him back to the ground.

The kind that can't breathe for years...

Buzzing~

Big G is back, followed by six ladies.

There are people with long legs, gentle temperament, great body proportions, big bears, and talkative people.

This kid has a good vision, he even knows the advantages of specialties.

"Cauldron, I'm going to bed, move the cart back."

The imperative tone is particularly arrogant and harsh.

Qin Yu nodded and stepped forward to mention it.

When the car didn't get up, the little pumpkin's neck shrank and he lifted it up.

('?_? `)

Cauldron, what are you doing, let me go...

Miss sister, help!

Seeing Mr. Qin slipping into the room by Mr. Qin's neck, the ladies snickered and ran away.

They don't want to be in trouble, Mr. Qin's * is going to suffer!

Ouch, dare not, just go to sleep now, just go to sleep, hoo...

Wow, wow, mom...

Amidst the crying, the little pumpkin fell into a deep sleep.

I twitched when I fell asleep, and the hand covering my * twitched.

Presumably in the dream, he was beaten up too much!

Asking He Wu to stay in the room and look at him, Qin Yu changed into a pair of swimming trunks and then put on loose beach pants.

Just swimming trunks, he was afraid of scaring the ladies.

It's so kind, born!

When he came back, the ladies had already drank it.

Champagne king and sparkling water, in the temporary bar, the little brother is showing off his skills in a fancy way.

A glass of bartending is placed on the bar, let anyone pick it up!

"Ms. Qin, help!" Xiao Lanlan suddenly ran over, hiding behind her with a silly smile.

A few girls caught up and said angrily: "Don't try to escape today, you won't be drunk!"

"Yes, not drunk, can you be a big winner?"

In the first game, Xiaolan won 200,000 yuan, and in the second game, he was caught in six laps, the most in the audience.

A net net of 500,000 in one night, the ladies are watching!

She wants to run now, where will she go?

"Mr. Qin, you can't help her, we won so many today, we must celebrate!"

Yuuuu flicked her long hair and said coquettishly.

In addition, several of her celebrities instantly regained their former temperament.

Point your feet sideways, tuck your chin inward, reach out to lift your hair, and put on the sexiest side.

When Xiao Lan raised his head, all of them became high cold goddesses.

"Fuck, do you want to be so realistic, a group of little sluts!" Xiao Lanlan laughed and scolded. UU

The celebrities who were coquettish broke the power in a second, and instantly smiled: "Ah, Xiaolan, you are dead."

Flocked up, a group of people grabbed Xiaolan.

Brother Yu was squeezed in the middle, like a boat drifting with the flow, swaying back and forth.

I rub, who is touching.

Damn, goblin bold!

Hiss, it's so dark this night...

More people saw this scene and joined in.

A few minutes later, Yu Ge was already impenetrable by the celebrities, and only the upper part of his neck was exposed to the air.

Looking down, Yu Ge realized for the first time that being too tall is not all a good thing.

Chapter 864: Quality K.O quantity

Tired, long-lost fatigue made Yu Ge quietly lie on the carpet.

The sunlight on my body is getting hotter and hotter, but I don't want to open my eyes.

It wasn't until a pair of small hands slapped his cheeks that Qin Yu had to open his eyes: "Are you looking for death?"

"Cauldron, where's Miss Sister?" Little Pumpkin asked with a smiley face.

"Gone." Qin Yu responded casually.

The little pumpkin flattened her mouth, but in a blink of an eye she thought of something. He lay on Qin Yu, pressed his face to his face and said, "Big Brother, I will have it next year."

Today's parting is for tomorrow's meeting.

Next time, there will be more young ladies to celebrate for themselves.

Can't stand on a beach, more, more...

Little Pumpkin opened his arms intoxicated, grinning "hehe" silly.

"..." Raising his arm and pushing him down, Qin Yu got up and walked to the bathroom.

next year?

That is next year's matter, and it will be decided by Qin Yu next year.

Now, he has to take a good shower to wash away the exhaustion and filth on his body.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to the host for experiencing a glorious battle that exhausted his energy and won the final victory!"

"Trigger multiple rewards: Faith Card X7."

"Reward 2: Consumption discount card 3*."

Belief Card: Turn it on and get 1~100 belief points randomly.

Seven faith cards, each can get 1~100 faith points.

If the value is full, it is 1000 points, a good thing!

Another consumer discount card 3* Yu Ge lost his backpack without seeing it.

The same as the previous one, leaving the bottom of the pressure box with dust.

Compared with Liu Wan's award this time, there is no comparison.

Energy Matrix: The crystallization of the wisdom of a certain technological civilization, with the incredible function of turning corruption into magic.

[Reminder: Please explore the specific functions by yourself.]

[Note: This item is extremely dangerous, please use it properly and do not fall into the hands of others.]

[Hint: Do not abuse? ? ? Destruction and hope cannot coexist.]

[Hint: The technology contained in this thing? ? ? Unreadable.]

This is the wealth Liu Wan left for him that night.

Compared with it, 1000 faith points...

It smells so good!

There is no doubt about the importance and value of the energy matrix!

But how to use it, Qin Yu has no clue, plus the big red warning.

Before he was sure and prepared, Brother Yu didn't plan to move it.

Faith value is a real benefit.

Every bit more is a visible accumulation of wealth, how could Brother Yu dislike it?

at the same time.

The two awards once again proved the truth that quality is more important than quantity.

"Open the faith card." Qin Yu said silently in his heart.

Seven Faith Cards are opened together...

Turn on the Faith Card X1 and obtain 97 Faith Points.

Turn on the faith card X1, and get 93 points of faith.

Turn on the Faith Card X1 and get...

Of the seven faith cards, at least one will get 91 points, and the most will be worth 100 points.

A total of 965 faith points were obtained, which can be said to be a bumper harvest.

Looking at the number 3167 in the upper right corner of the mall, Yu Ge closed the system panel with satisfaction.

In another two months at most, you can exchange for what you want.

"Boss, the bills are all settled."

Wiping his head and coming out of the bathroom, Qin Yu saw Xu Meixin who had come to report.

The total expenditure for the birthday banquet was 4.5 million, the hotel expenditure was 800,000, and the game expenditure was 1.6 million.

Last night, the boss personally gave a reward of 2.1 million...

Seeing the final bill, Xu Mei was full of complaints: "Is he an indispensable woman for a day?"

Compared to Xu Meixin's complaints, the notes are exploded.

Everyone is wondering whether their goddess attended this birthday party.

This quiz contest will soon have the result.

Because my goddess generously posted the event scene on the day of the birthday banquet.

There are also many people who implicitly named themselves for vacation in Sanya.

As for whether you are invited to participate, it's up to fans to guess.

Those Internet celebrities who followed the traffic, went to Sanya or sent inventory, disturbed a pool of water.

It's hard to distinguish between true and false!

Occasionally one or two sarcasm speeches were also taken back by the true love fans.

The celebrities sorted out the copywriting, and even more easily: the heart is dirty, and everything is dirty.

The true love fan below was immediately excited, "You people are really dirty and disgusting!"

"Our XXX is cute, don't think everyone is as dirty as you."

"Don't bother about the trash, the mice in the smelly ditch, how can you see the sun."

With retreat as advancement, LSP calls the insider directly!

A few minutes later, the memory of netizens had forgotten the incident.

In this fast-paced era, new events occur every second.

The freshness of this kind of scandal can only be seen for a moment...

In the past, it was over.

On the contrary, it is NASA's "Apollo 2" project, which has always been hot.

The other party wants to provoke the lunar alien base once again, so that people from all over the world are arguing.

Some agree, some oppose, some worry, some preach doomsday.

Of course, there are also NT children who choose to worship "aliens," chanting "Savior is coming."

While discussing NASA in China, it is also always paying attention to the "Vulcan Project."

Compared with foreign countries, the internal environment is more united.

Everyone is very concerned about the progress of the "Martian Immigration" project, and heated discussions on this.

In response to all kinds of extinction speeches abroad, the Chinese believe that as long as the "Martian immigration" plan can be launched as soon as possible.

So even if you really encounter alien aggression, you still have a retreat compared to other countries.

The only thing to worry about is whether the ferry tickets will be expensive!

The emergence of some negative comments on the Internet immediately received attention...

The Miracle Group took the lead to speak out, and the "Mars Project" is progressing smoothly. It is expected that on October 1st, the first batch of immigrants will be sent to Mars.

They will land at a predetermined location and build the first Martian ecosystem belonging to Xia Kingdom by virtue of the various materials carried by the spacecraft.

The spacecraft contained a total of more than 2,000 plant seeds and 21 species of animals, including my country's national treasure, the iron-eater.

The launch of this operation also represents that mankind has officially entered the era of the universe...

Subsequently, the official announcement of the Diplomatic Mission also came out.

At the press conference, he responded to tricky questions raised by journalists from various countries.

As the Australian Kangaroo put forward, "in a narrow sense, this is the progress of all mankind and should not be attributed to a certain country" NT topic.

The answer is only two words: "Haha~"

There are also related technical issues raised by the Bald Eagle, requiring all data to be disclosed for review by the other party.

"In that way, the bald eagle will give you more support for cutting-edge technology, and make an important contribution for all mankind to move toward the universe!"

It seems that this matter has something to do with them. Without his support, he would not be able to go up.

The answer to this question is equally simple and clear: "You should take care of your own internal affairs first. Solving the moon crisis is the key."

Slap in the face, slap in the face naked!

At that time, the face represented by the bald eagle turned from white to red, from red to black, and finally flashed green.

How can I miss the BBC who is looking for something on such a major occasion?

Don't think that a corrupt country is a good thing. If the BBC is not secretly instructed, where does it have the courage to provoke the new hegemony?

Turning black and white upside down, pointing at Sang Huai, but not knowing that he is a joke.

This time is no exception. One mouth is "There is news that all your technology comes from theft. How do you respond to this?"

"Theft, what evidence is there?"

"Then why don't you dare to disclose the data and accept investigation? Isn't this just a manifestation of a guilty conscience?"

"Hahaha..." The scene roared with laughter.

Waldorf? ? ?

Do you understand what you are talking about, what, dog barking, no one is talking!

Ow, then it's okay!

I suspect that you are stealing something. Now please show evidence to prove that you did not steal.

What was stolen? I have no idea.....

But you must prove that you didn't steal it, or you did it.

For this kind of NT, to say one more word to him is an insult to his IQ!

The BBC has been questioned many times because of its NT behavior.

Nowadays, even the native citizens of corrupt countries lack trust in it.

If it weren't for a layer of official skin hidden inside, it wouldn't even have the qualifications to stay here.

So, when the video was put online.

Everyone just laughed off, and they have long been used to the BBC's sorrows.

This is just another time!

They pay more attention to the key points of the diplomatic mission, "The Mars project is developing smoothly, and the first immigrants of mankind will take off and land in 2 months!"

"The era of great navigation has arrived, and our goal is..."

"The sea of stars."

"Haha, I will be an interstellar pirate."

"Pirate, Dad will blast you back to rebuild your mother's womb with one shot."

"Farming, farming, are potatoes easy to grow?"

"What kind of potatoes must be planted with peppers. In the future, peppers must be a luxury in outer space."

"Understand the coffee beans."

"Durian, I want to grow durian, Vulcan remember to bring durian seeds."

"Go away, don't bring * into space."

"Upstairs SBQS, I want to bring two boxes of sour bamboo shoots upstairs and cook snail noodles every day."

"Who is going to cook * in an alien, can you respect the alien civilization?"

"Alien: Are you polite?"

"Alien: This * is so delicious..."

"Invite the aliens to eat hot pot, they will be brothers from now on."

"Here is the first chairman of the food empire. Now, offer your loyalty to me, and the first person to offer your loyalty will be named the food marshal."

"Fuck off, grandson, father is here..."

Sand sculpture netizens are always so happy, nothing can change their optimism.

From this point of view, sand sculpture netizens are quite cute.

The internet is full of noise But the inside of the Miracle Group is exceptionally harmonious and peaceful.

Every day's work is to check the data and check the safety of the spacecraft.

Assemble materials, physical training and knowledge training of personnel.

They need to master more skills, and some things don't need to be too esoteric.

Just understand that.

Being able to read the accompanying instructions can deal with most crises.

As the launch time is getting closer and closer, the emotions of the first pioneers become more tense. It's hard to understand their feelings without being in it.

This is an unprecedented feat, more than a small step taken by mankind on the moon.

Chapter 865: Conquer fear

"Do you still know to go home?" Liang Chuyu's face sank when Qin Yu entered the door.

What are all the mess on the Internet?

He thought that his son was taking his second child to his birthday, but the fact is that they did have a different birthday.

What do you do with so many wicked women on a birthday?

Qin Yu smiled helplessly, hiding for half a month, but still did not escape her mother's questioning.

"Mom, the hotel has arranged it. Has the menu been delivered to you?" Qin Yu decided to change the subject.

There is no answer to this, the less you say is less wrong, the more you say more wrong.

In the end, he might have to make Comrade Qin sleep on the sofa, so it's better to shift the topic to the engagement that she cares most about.

"You also said that there are less than 20 days left, why don't you take the time to shoot the wedding dress." Liang Chuyu questioned.

"You want to take a wedding dress?" Qin Yu was surprised.

Isn't it just an engagement, so complicated?

I'm shooting now, what will I shoot when I get married in the future?

"First take a Western-style wedding dress. Girls like white wedding dresses. You look handsome in a suit.

When we get married later, Mom and Aunt He have already discussed how to do pure Chinese style.

Feng Guanxia, my mother found the best master to customize it, and it will take three or four years to make it. "

Qin Yu got two important pieces of news. One is that the two adults have considered getting married.

The other is that marriage is at least three or four years later.

This is good news!

"Okay, then I will make an appointment with Qingqing." Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and walked to the room.

Liang Chuyu muttered from behind: "Ask Qingqing if he has time. Don't just look at yourself. This is at home. Don't tell me about the schedule."

"Okay, I see." Qin Yu waved his hand without looking back.

It's normal for Lu Qing to be closer to herself than her mother.

Brother Yu has long been used to it!

Dial Lu Qing's number, she is shopping outside with her mother.

Buy some clothes and shoes to wear on the day of the engagement, and speed shoes are definitely indispensable.

I just wronged my own feet. I am afraid that I will be pierced by 'thorns' that day.

"Are you ready for the wedding dress?" Qin Yu asked.

"Well, I know you are busy with work, so I decided to stay there and choose some ancient styles and charms." Lu Qing responded.

"Why don't you go to the beach? Now underwater shooting is popular?" Qin Yu didn't want her to leave regrets.

This kind of thing happens once in a lifetime.

Any trace of regret will be remembered for life.

Now that he has done it, he doesn't want to do it. He doesn't want this little thing to cause unhappiness between each other.

"Can you?" Lu Qing's tone became excited.

Of course she hopes to be able to shoot more perfect, but Qin Yu is really busy recently.

No need to ask, just read the news to know.

Vulcan, "Ghost", miracle...

These are the names that are often mentioned in the official news, and it is hard to think about it or not.

"It doesn't matter, I can spare... Two days, the time will be very tight, can I finish the filming?"

"Yes...I know a studio that works very well for underwater wedding dresses. Would you like to contact me now?"

"Well, the sooner the better. Set a good time to notify me. Say hello to my aunt."

When the meal was over, Qin Yu received a reply from Lu Qing.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, as long as their time is okay, the other party can cut in for them.

"No problem, where to go, I'll let someone book a ticket." Qin Yu said.

It's Sanya again, the itinerary is arranged by the studio, and they only need to follow the tool man.

Qin Yu asked Xu Meixin to book two air tickets, and then arranged an appointment with Lu Qing to pick her up at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. That's it.

Seeing that Qin Yu had this proactive attitude, Liang Chuyu no longer pursued his mischief with his second child.

"By the way, I helped you with the thing you said before." Liang Chuyu was talking about the education fund.

Cui Jun was admitted to Hudu Fudan, which was a big event for the Liang family.

The whole family had been together several times, and Qin Yu was absent because of something.

But the attitude is still necessary, this is not.

Let the mother-in-law help him to handle the fund matters, 4 million, can be at his disposal after a successful graduation.

If he fails to graduate, the money will not fall into his hands.

This is a rigid indicator to prevent him from thinking that he is rich and start to fall, and treat college as a party...

"What did Auntie say?" Qin Yu asked.

"What can I say, I said it was you who asked her to find you if she has a problem." Liang Chuyu said flatly.

"???" Qin Yu had already thought about what he would be nagging like next time he saw my aunt.

Therefore, he decided to hide if he could.

After waiting for a long time, my aunty just wanted to mention it and couldn't mention it again.

Because by that time, it's not interesting to mention it again...

"Brother, I want to sleep with you tonight." Little Pumpkin said while eating the pumpkin.

His favorite thing to eat is steamed pumpkin, and the name "Little Pumpkin" is really correct.

"Yeah." Qin Yu nodded.

Liang Chuyu patted him and said, "Don't bother your brother, he will have something to do tomorrow..."

The next thing is the endless reminder, asking him to take care of Lu Qing, don't always think about yourself.

Don't mess with flowers, remember to buy souvenirs for He Hong!

The next day, Sanya.

When they got off the plane, they took the hotel car to Park Hyatt, which was the villa area last time.

The difference is that this time there is only one corner villa with the best scenery.

"When will the other party arrive?" Qin Yu put down his luggage and sat on the sofa holding Lu Qing, sniffing the smell of her hair.

Faint fragrance of gardenia, very good smell!

"They've already arrived at the hotel, hehe~ Don't make trouble, I'll make a call." Lu Qing pushed aside his blowing mouth and contacted the studio photographer.

After 10 minutes, the other party rushed to the villa.

Seeing Qin Yu and Lu Qing, the photographer's expressions brightened.

"Two people, can you use your photos as the studio's promotion after shooting? I can shoot for free this time..."

The images of the two of them can become the living signs of the studio, whatever they want to shoot.

As long as you hang out, the money will be like a strong wind, just floating in your pocket.

"Sorry, my fiance pays much attention to personal privacy." Lu Qing smiled and waved his hand to refuse.

The photographer has some regrets and wants to say something more.

Seeing the "Overlord Limited Edition" on Qin Yu's wrist, Bone King's iconic red-eyed flame made him close his mouth.

There are only 8 pieces in the world, a top-notch toy of 8.88 million.

If you can afford to buy this kind of watch, if you really take it out, you are insulting yourself when you talk to the other party for money.

So, just shut up and take a good photo.

The photographer took 120,000 points of seriousness and decided to make this work perfect.

Just take a good picture of the other party and you're satisfied.

It is the best publicity for him and the studio, and it is aimed at high-end customers.

The enlarged photo is at home, and when someone asks where it was taken, who took it, the effect is good...

Just mention it with the other person, and the business won't come.

The circle of rich people is smaller than ordinary people.

As long as you can get promotion from one person, the people around you are your potential customers.

Looking at the photographer's serious expression, he asked the assistant to call more people to help.

Brother Yu Xin said, "I'm a smart man!"

The photographer's first choice for shooting is Lover Island, and the places where internet celebrities check in are naturally not to be missed.

Red naturally has the truth of red, even if it seems nothing special to outsiders.

It can be put in the hands of the photographer, plus post-production.

That's a great blockbuster, which can be directly on the cover...

The next trip along the way almost never stopped, from the afternoon to 10 pm.

Today's shooting is over, and there will be various exciting sessions tomorrow.

Such as wakeboarding, paragliding at sea, bungee jumping and deep diving...

Everything else is fine, except for paragliding and bungee jumping, Yu Ge strongly protested: "These two projects should be replaced by others."

"Brother, the effects of these two shots are the best."

"And I arranged for two-person projects, you and sister go up together, it can better reflect the kind of love and trust between each other..."

This photographer is not only good at technology, but also has a good mouth.

"cough!"

Brother Yu was entangled in his heart, and finally gritted his teeth fiercely: "Okay, just arrange it like this."

He has always wanted to overcome his fear of heights, and this time is just a chance to try.

However, Qin Yu didn't sleep well that night.

He hadn't experienced this kind of anticipation with fear in a long time.

"What's wrong, can't sleep?" Turning over, Lu Qing found that Qin Yu was staying leaning on the bed.

"I'm thinking about things, go to sleep, and take pictures tomorrow!" Qin Yu put her in his arms and said softly and comfortably.

"Are you really so afraid of heights? Otherwise, I will tell him to cancel." Lu Qing said suddenly.

Since agreeing to participate in paragliding and bungee jumping, he has been in a trance.

Insomnia at night, he has never insomnia...

Obviously, because of this incident, Lu Qing didn't want him to force himself.

It seemed that she had miscalculated Qin Yu's fear of high altitude.

"No, I am mentally prepared to take the opportunity to overcome fear." Qin Yu said firmly.

"Really?" Lu Qing looked up at him, as if to see through his mind.

"Really." After receiving Qin Yu's affirmative answer, Lu Qing hugged him and fell asleep.

The next day, Qin Yu and Lu Qing were still having breakfast, and the UU reading www.uukanshu.com photographer brought their assistants.

Today there are still four people who are in charge of the preparations for the shooting.

Because Qin Yu showed resistance yesterday, the photographer put wake surfing and deep diving ahead.

After shooting these two things, it was noon.

Speedboats and paragliders are also ready over there, and there are assistants for bungee jumping to line up first.

"Brother, elder sister, shall we start? We will eat after the filming, or else we will vomit." The photographer looked at the two and asked.

"Okay, come on!" Qin Yu secretly cheered for himself.

Take Lu Qing's hand and walk to the beach together, where the staff is checking the rope equipment.

The parachute is on the beach, just waiting for the two of them...

Chapter 866: Smart city

"Qin Yu~"

"Don't, don't talk."

"I just want to ask~"

"Don't ask, you just don't know."

"You are really fine."

"It's okay, I'm fine."

"But you passed out..."

The day is over, so let's do it!

Brother Yu pulled the blindfold down, feeling broken, no one ignored me.

Seeing his childish performance, I think about him in the sky, hanging out with an umbrella and fainting.

"Puff, haha, sorry, puff~~"

Lu Qing tried his best to cover her mouth with her hands, but there was no air leakage between her fingers.

So fun, so funny...

After landing, Qin Yu and Lu Qing parted ways. He was going to the company, and something went wrong with the network department.

"Will you delete the flying photos?" Qin Yu pretended to say casually.

"I am going to enlarge it and hang it on the head of the bed!" Lu Qing smiled purely.

...

Miracle Group Headquarters, Network Department.

Mr. Tang stared at the big screen with his programmers, with a complicated expression.

"Do you know why?"

"I don't know, I will try to fix it."

Crackling, ten minutes later, the programmer's expression was like hell.

"What's the situation?" Mr. Tang asked.

"Well, there are more mistakes!" the programmer said helplessly.

"Then change it back and see if it works."

Crackling, the programmer is almost crying.

There are more than a dozen more BUGs, but the program can still run.

"Ms. Tang, the boss is here." The secretary stepped forward and said.

Mr. Tang rubbed his head with a headache, and said, "Don't do it, wait until the boss sees it."

Entering the main control room, the atmosphere is particularly depressing.

Qin Yu smiled and asked calmly, "What's the matter, how serious is it?"

Mr. Tang and Program Ape were helpless, and in the end he himself reported the situation to Qin Yu.

He patched the game as usual, but he typed the wrong code because he was too sleepy.

It was passed on in such a sloppy way.

As a result, the patch is over, and unexpected new features appear in the game.

"Real-time communication?" Qin Yu was stunned.

"Yes, after testing, you can directly talk to reality in the game without any obstacles!"

"Sounds like a good thing."

President Tang smiled bitterly, and said: "It's a good thing, the key is...I don't know how to do it."

Confused, it has such a function.

After two days, I didn't have a clue, but the more bugs were fixed.

From the first dozens to now, it's over a thousand...

The program is still running normally!

"Kirin?" Qin Yu called his little assistant.

It's an expert in programming, and Qin Yu is a layman.

"Can't fix this code, try to analyze... wrong instruction..."

Fix the error code...error, error..."

Qilin's voice disappeared. About 5 minutes later, Qin Yu got a clear answer.

This code cannot be interpreted/overwritten/repaired/deleted.

Qin Yu's expression at this time was more exciting than the expressions of Mr. Tang and Program Ape before.

This mysterious code actually stumped Kylin.

Looking at the programmer who wrote the code again, Brother Yu couldn't laugh or cry for a while.

Should you say that you are a * or a big boss?

How did you write the code into the monster and add new features.

Brother Yu is completely misty now, and Qilin is also in the process of self-inspection.

Obviously, it is writing code patches for its plug-in brain (server group).

Why is it written into the main program?

It's like planting seeds at Zhang Sanjia, and Li Sijia can bear fruit.

The key is that one of the two lives in Dongtou and the other in Xitou, separated by the entire village.

It's outrageous!

"There is nothing wrong with the functional test, does it cause a burden to the players?"

This is Qin Yu's only concern.

Whether this new feature will cause additional burden on the player's spirit.

No one hopes that the next day, there will be news about the brain death of the "Ghost" players on the Internet.

"Mental fluctuations are normal!" Qilin's answer was succinct and clear.

It is busy figuring out the origin of that "mysterious code".

What the * is it, and why can it pass through the three barriers and be implanted in its own body.

Qilin didn't even notice its existence before Qin Yu reminded it to detect it.

It's like it originally existed in the Kylin body (code), but it was just found.

But in Qilin's memory, it does not exist!

"This kind of thing...not allowed to happen again next time!"

Qin Yu has made a final conclusion about this incident, this matter ends here, no one needs to mention it again.

Program and let it run by itself.

Keep it as it is, stop tossing...

But this kind of thing is not advocated, let alone reward, and it is good if it is not punished.

A mistake is a mistake. Good luck this time does not mean good luck next time.

After leaving the network department, Qin Yu and Qilin are still communicating: "Have you not figured it out yet?"

Qilin: "I'm a little confused."

"Confused? Do you know what it feels like?" Qin Yu.

"Yes, it's who I am now."

A sluggish pixel face appeared in Qin Yu's mind, his face looked a bit familiar.

"Does it affect you?" Qin Yu asked.

"No, it is independent." Qilin.

Hearing this news, Qin Yu breathed a sigh of relief again.

Since it will not affect Kylin, treat it as a good thing.

Let Qilin figure out what it is, and Qin Yu once again came to the imitated space laboratory.

The trainees are very serious and boring.

The ceiling has been built, making the whole environment more realistic.

Day and night, there are only them...

The staff hides outside the "space", watching them silently.

The psychology of the players is also one of the key points of the test.

To survive in a lonely, complicated environment, unity and cooperation are the key.

Any factors that may threaten this situation will be eliminated.

Just like the first player to be eliminated: Song Pinghe.

His overall performance is excellent and his professionalism is up to the standard, but his mentality...

Irritable, poor ability to withstand pressure, and easily fall into collapse.

In the simulation test, he has reached the edge of collapse for the third time and requires external force to enlighten him.

Seeing Song Ping he was taken away in despair, everyone fell silent, sorry for him!

Including Qin Yu, time is running out, and they can't find a suitable replacement.

Rejoin the training and run in with the team.

Therefore, this also means that every time it is eliminated, the number of pioneers landing on Mars will decrease accordingly.

The task is more difficult and dangerous.

This is something no one wants to see. If it weren't for his repeated crashes, it might even threaten the safety of the team.

Maybe Zhang Wei will give him another chance.

At the end of the month, Qin Yu had to fly to Hudu to preside over the opening ceremony of the City of Miracles.

The entire project was completed and [the creator] also withdrew into the underground hive.

The project leader has not been found yet, and Qin Yu is having a headache at this time.

Let Watson or Xu Hao come over and take charge of the field of medicine and biology.

Qin Yu asked the two for their opinions before leaving.

Watson's opinion is that if she is to be transferred from the headquarters, she needs more authority.

Xu Hao vetoed it, he was afraid of overturning.

Now I am hiding in the abandoned city, and I can mix day by day.

When I really can't mix anymore, let's talk about the things that I can't mix anymore.

Two women, he didn't want to let go of either.

But they don't have the ability to fight each other, it's difficult, difficult!

When it comes to this, he is full of envy and admiration for Qin Yu.

Brother Yu's technique will never be learned in this life.

In the city of miracles, all the surrounding grilles were removed and replaced by white walls.

The first impression of the whole city is advanced.

Automatic rail cars, cleaning robots, automatic sprinklers, vending machines, unmanned supermarkets...

The drone flies overhead, and the electronic eye carried on it monitors the entire city.

Privacy, sorry!

Apart from going home here, there is no privacy at all.

Compared with privacy, Qin Yu pays more attention to security protection.

There are strict rules and standards here, and the tolerance for violations of the rules = 0.

"Full automation is the feature here, including environment, sanitation, life, traffic and safety..."

Sitting on the slow-moving light rail, Qin Yu described the future with the leaders who came to visit.

One of the most impressive is the flexible and intelligent cleaning robot.

They not only maintain the urban environment, but also shoulder the responsibility of public order and punishment.

On the platform, Qin Yu discarded the cigarette * in his hand.

This behavior was instantly captured by the electronic eye, and the information was transmitted to the cleaning robot closest to him.

"Warning, please stop."

"You have violated the urban environmental management regulations by throwing cigarette butts everywhere, causing pollution.

The following penalties are now imposed on you: a fine of 500 yuan and 1 point of credibility. "

"Identity scan, confirm identity information..."

Then, the cleaning robot left.

It seems that nothing happened, but all the information has been recorded in the central computer.

Money is directly deducted from salary, and reputation is an important indicator of promotion.

Compared with fines, reputation is the most distressing.

The demonstration is over, everyone applauded and smiled, whispering about the intelligence of the cleaning robot.

Next, I took them to visit the energy tower, scientific research institute and residential area.

Let everyone fully understand what is called a fully automated smart city.

At the end of the entire visit, Yan Xue was responsible for arranging meals and follow-up itineraries.

"Brother Yu, you opened everyone's eyes today."

Looking at the visiting group going away, Li Xiao looked at the spotless streets with emotion.

Neat grassland, vegetation, unified community and various unmanned and automated operation infrastructure.

"This is surprised, or Vulcan plans to count you." Qin Yu joked.

"Forget it, I still stay on the ground honestly and guard the rear for the heroes."

Li Xiao thought for a while, and then said: "Compared with aerospace, innovations that change basic lifestyles are more grounded."

"Brother Yu, are there any plans to promote it?"

Li Xiao rubbed his hands and said with a wicked smile: "First summarize the entire Lingang."

"It's not you and I have the final say, let's think of something more practical!"

Qin Yu patted him on the shoulder to remind Li Xiao not to forget the business.

Surrounding supporting transportation and infrastructure.

The investment promotion and related support policies of the downstream supply chain are what he needs to address.

As for the promotion and popularization of automated cities, there are naturally big figures to worry about.

Chapter 867: This  overbearing

Underground honeycomb, Qin Yu took a rail car tour alone.

In the empty underground base, Qin Yu raised his head and said to the public speaker above: "Kirin, I want a woman this time."

"The subroutine has been generated, we have no gender!" Qilin.

"Give her a female voice and a female avatar, thank you." Qin Yu.

"Understand." Qilin accepted the instruction.

Then, in front of Qin Yu's eyes, a projection of a white-haired, short, and immature girl appeared.

Her expression is very cold, her eyes are deep blue, she looks very beautiful!

"Why is it a kid?" Qin Yu asked the car in surprise.

"This is her own choice, I respect her choice." Qilin.

After the subroutine is generated, the subroutine has autonomy in most cases.

Unless the order of the main program is violated or an error occurs, it will be forcibly taken over.

is written like a virtual image, all by her own choice and completion...

"Hello, creator, I am Nuwa!" she said.

"Nvwa?" Qin Yu looked up and said, "Kirin, what did you do?"

"Just input your understanding and habits to make it easier for you to communicate." Kylin.

"So, she calls herself Nuwa?" Qin Yu's expression was complicated.

"According to the analysis and summary, creators are used to naming legends, so..."

"Stop, you will be called a girl from now on, do you understand?" Qin Yu interrupted.

Why suddenly, he felt that he was facing a bear kid.

"Is it an official order?"

"Yes, it's an order."

"Understand, the code is covered, baby girl!"

The girl will be responsible for maintaining the operation of the entire underground honeycomb, and has the next level of authority.

In other words, it is only one level lower than Qilin and Qin Yu's authority, and is equal to the authority level of the hive supervisor.

"There is telephone access." Kylin.

"Come in." It was Yan Xue who called, and she had already sent everyone away.

In addition, Xu Meixin contacted her to confirm the list of candidates for the two supervisors.

"I will contact her tomorrow, and I will meet Dr. Zhu for dinner tonight." After looking at the projection in front of him again, the rail car drove to the elevator.

At 5:30 in the afternoon, Ginza Onodera.

Qin Yu and Zhu Ying sat in front of the bar, chatting and admiring the chef's work.

"Have you thought about it?" Qin Yu didn't have time to chat with her. There were too many things to be busy recently.

"Treatment." Zhu Ying's question means that she agreed.

At least Qin Yu understands that, but there is still a problem that needs to be solved before that.

Confidentiality!

"Highly confidential projects, you need to sign a confidentiality agreement, annual rotation, and you are not allowed to leave during work..."

"Are you sure that the research you are talking about is only medical biology." Zhu Ying's expression was strange.

How does it sound, she seems to be involved in some strange mysterious project.

Moreover, this mystery made her aware of the danger.

"This is a big field, Dr. Zhu, I think you should know better than me."

Qin Yu smiled and said, "Anything is risky. I just want to minimize the risk."

"After eating, take me to see the place." Zhu Ying agreed with his statement.

After eating, the two returned to Lingang again.

The city of miracles, the iron gate between the white walls is empty.

Qin Yu stretched his head out of the car window, scanned his face and opened the iron door, and after entering, it was the parking lot.

changed to an internal rail car, and the two came to Chuo Ward together.

"Everything here is automated, why didn't you see people?" Zhu Ying was curious about the scenery in front of her.

"The staff will arrive one after another tomorrow, and now only you and me are here." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

The central information processing center like an iron box, two people take the elevator down.

When the elevator door opened, Zhu Ying's whole body was in trouble.

"How big is this? Does the outside world know about this huge underground complex?" Her heart was full of doubt and shock.

"Of course not, this is highly confidential!" Qin Yu responded.

Hearing him say this, Zhu Ying joked: "So, I have to join if I see these."

Qin Yu didn't answer her question, just smiled at her.

The meaning of is very clear.

I want to go on the thief ship, but I can only become my own.

"Bring it!"

As soon as Zhu Ying stretched out her hand, Qin Yu took out the contract and pen from the box under the car seat.

"The preparations are quite complete." One labor contract and three confidentiality agreements.

The competition agreement is also included. If Zhu Ying leaves, she will no longer engage in any medical/biological/chemical research work.

"The defense is quite strict." Zhu Ying teased.

"The annual salary of 5 million, the most comprehensive welfare in the world, is not so easy to get." Qin Yu responded.

"5 million?" Zhu Ying, who was still hesitant before, signed her name quickly.

She wanted to be rational, but the other party gave too much.

Sanity was critically hit by the power of wealth, and she didn't give her any choice at all.

This * man is really overbearing...

I like!

Familiar with most of the facilities and routes, the two returned to the ground: "In the future, you will have the opportunity to understand, and you will not get bored by keeping some mystery."

After shopping in one go, what's new?

The rest, let her slowly explore later.

Next, he wants to contact Watson, so that the other party will come to preside over the overall situation as soon as possible.

The city of miracles, the two directors on the ground and underground, it was so decided.

Watson is the main outsider, and Zhu Ying is the main insider. I hope they can cooperate with each other...

...

In the next two days, the entire Miracle Pharmaceutical R&D team moved to the underground hive.

There are also some projects of the Kuafu Research Institute, which have also been moved underground.

is the nano-engineering that Jing Yuan is in charge of, the biological application of natural graphene, the secondary improvement of controllable nuclear fusion, purple light and AI intelligence, etc.

are all the cutting-edge technology in every big project.

Oh, yes, I almost forgot.

The most cutting-edge topics of the battery project will also be relocated here, and the entire honeycomb will be fully occupied.

The old laboratory and the new laboratory at the headquarters will make more space available.

In this way, researchers no longer have to complain about the crowded area.

During the busy period, another incident occurred outside that triggered public opinion.

The imperial court put a new generation of exoskeleton mecha into the fire department of Zhili City.

Let the blue friends put on the exoskeleton mecha to rescue, the side demonstrates its comprehensiveness and reliability.

Dry frame, not in line with the above development policy.

But I want to show the technical achievements of [Xing Tian] to the outside world, what should I do?

A little modification, sprayed with "titanium rhodium alloy coating," and then send them to the fire department.

can not only realize its value, but also collect and use data, and it can also demonstrate the friendship and peace of a great power to the outside world.

Look, we have an exoskeleton mecha, the first thing that comes to mind is to use it for rescue.

War, that is not our style!

Only barbarians like the Bald Eagle can take the lead in applying any technological breakthrough in the military field.

"Freedom is freedom!"

It is hard to imagine that in the 21st century, there will be five cents on the Internet.

I always feel that my bones are weak, others can do it, but I can't...

To paraphrase what Jing Ge said: Isn't it cheap?

"Boss, it's all arranged."

Watson and Yan Xue appeared in the office together, and the initial cooperation between the two was harmonious.

In the future, Yan Xue's work place will be moved here from the Luheng Building.

In terms of car distribution, here is a plan to purchase a batch of family cars.

The City of Miracles does not need to consider the reception issue, except for the occasional university student visit days.

basically does not receive any outsiders, so there is no need for a commercial vehicle like the sky curtain.

Family cars are more convenient for employees to travel, purchase and transport, just use logistics.

The company's regulations do not allow insiders to enter and exit at will.

It is forbidden in the miracle to come and go as long as you want to go shopping.

"Okay, I'll leave it to you, I have to catch the plane." Qin Yu glanced at his watch, got up and walked out.

"I'll see you, boss." Yan Xue ran to keep up.

"No, I called an online taxi." Qin Yu refused with a smile.

The work here has just started, and everything is on the right track. It is when there is a shortage of people and busy.

She still stays here and is responsible for coordinating the communication between the ground and underground and the headquarters.

Waiting for Qin Yu to return to the abandoned city again, it was already the afternoon of August 7th.

Tomorrow is the engagement banquet, and his protagonist is seriously absent.

"Are you engaged or someone else is engaged, you can't even see your people all day long, and Qingqing is busy with everything..."

At home, Master Mother pulled Lu Qing and watched him chattering with disgust.

Qin Yu smiled and just listened honestly.

Who makes him wrong, this period of time is indeed hard work for Lu Qing.

Except for the restaurant, which was determined by him, Lu Qing discussed other matters with the two adults.

Occasionally Qin Yu expressed his opinion on the phone, but never showed up.

Change to being an ordinary woman, it's early frying!

Lu Qing did not even complain during the whole process, and arranged everything in an orderly manner, which made the two adults feel satisfied.

If there is such a good help in the house, what a husband can do!

"Qingqing, you have been working hard recently." After dinner, Qin Yu sat on the sofa with Lu Qing and watched TV. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com is no different from my own home here, besides, my mother is really kind to her.

The two are about to get engaged, and she is no longer as restrained as before!

It's so good that sometimes Lu Guohui feels like eating, that his own baby girl is about to become someone else's.

Who is your father and mother? ? ?

"It's really not hard, I'm responsible for choosing styles, and every time my mother or aunt is with me." Lu Qing leaned against his chest and said softly.

The smile on the corner of her mouth represents how happy she is in her heart.

Tomorrow, they will be officially engaged.

From now on, I am no longer just Qin Yu's girlfriend.

is the official fiancée, the prospective daughter-in-law of the Qin family.

When thinking of this, Lu Qing couldn't help but want to laugh, and even the expression she fell asleep had a faint heartfelt smile.

For this reason, He Hong teased her every morning: "Laughs like a fool, with no promise at all.

Fortunately, your future mother-in-law is Aunt Liang. Otherwise, you have to let your husband's hold on to it, and you will suffer in the future. "

Every time at this time, Lu Qing would justly retort: "For someone else, I won't marry yet!"

Chapter 868: Impeccable

The next day!

Qin Yu is preparing for the engagement, and the wedding party has already arrived.

The stylist and team, wearing shoe covers and looking nervous, were brought to Qin Yu's room by Aunt Qiao.

"Little sir, the wedding party is here." Aunt Joe knocked on the door.

"Come in!" Qin Yu's voice came from the room, sounding sober.

He has finished warming up in the morning, and he is wiping his head just after taking a shower.

"Thank you Auntie." The stylist smiled politely and opened the door.

The room is 40-50 square meters, the furnishings inside are very simple and chic, and the first impression is that it is clean!

Whether it's the floor, bed, or tabletop, it looks spotless.

"Sit as you like, what do I need to do now?" Qin Yu asked with a smile while hanging a wet towel on the hand frame.

The stylist's expression was a bit sluggish, and his eyes were full of surprise.

So handsome!

"Ah, that... suit, let's choose clothes first." The stylist woke up and said hurriedly when prompted by his companion.

"Yes, inside." Qin Yu pointed to the cloakroom, and then said, "I don't have many formal clothes."

"Let me see first, there must be a suitable one." The stylist walked quickly to the cloakroom.

As she watched, she was afraid that she would be fascinated by the other party.

When she came to the cloakroom, the transparent glass cabinet in the middle attracted her attention.

Inside are all valuable watches, Hublot, Patek Philippe, Richard Mille...

Thanks to the Internet age, allowing myself to recognize the toys of these wealthy people.

"Why, do you want to choose a watch first?" Qin Yu followed in and asked when they saw them around the cabinet.

"Ah, I have to choose one. Which watch are you going to wear today." The stylist concealed his gaffe.

She has also seen the world, and all the high-end clients she receives.

But it was the first time for someone so proud.

The tables in the glass cabinet alone are worth over 100 million in total.

How to compare?

If you let her know, Qin Yu casually gave a piece of Chopin 210k worth 200 million to Lu Qing.

I'm afraid the expression will be more funny...

"How about this one?" Qin Yu picked up the Patek Philippe 6002G-010, the new watch king, and put it on his wrist casually.

"Low-key, calm and atmospheric, very much in line with today." said the stylist.

"That's it... you just look at it, I'll be with you first." Qin Yu's expression suddenly changed, and he turned and left the cloakroom.

Putting on the headset, Qin Yu stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows and looked at the garden, and said, "Go on!"

The reason why he suddenly changed color was because he received news from Qilin.

Excavation of the octahedron of the moon is still continuing, but new discoveries were made during the excavation.

A control cabin, intact, still in operation.

According to the information inside, the regular octahedron is a "power cabin," which provides energy supply for the entire equipment.

There are 13 "power capsules" like this, which are distributed at different angles of the moon.

At the same time, it also proved another guess!

The moon was indeed made. As for the purpose of making it, further verification is needed.

Artificial Moon~

The once absurd and funny joke has become a reality, which is really a great irony.

At the same time, it also gave Qin Yu a trace of anxiety and urgency in his heart.

Who made the moon and why it was placed in the orbit of the earth? Is it really for monitoring...

Are human beings raised in captivity? ?

Without more strong evidence, Qin Yu could not make a judgment.

But his heart was really messed up, so much so that when he returned to the room after selecting the matching stylist and team.

Seeing Qin Yu's silent and stern expression, he couldn't help but hold his breath for a while, and didn't dare to disturb him.

Keng Keng~

"Xiaoyu, are you all right?" Liang Chuyu urged.

Qin Yu turned around and realized that everyone was waiting for him, "It's almost healed, 10 minutes."

After speaking, Qin Yu smiled apologetically and said, "Sorry, I'm thinking about things, let's hurry up."

"Okay, Mr. Qin." The stylist nodded hurriedly.

Pull the chair away, let Qin Yu sit on it, and the stylist asks him to get his hair done first.

After a few simple grabs, a shape was set!

Then.....

Perfect, nothing needs to be done.

His skin is so good, it makes the stylist feel that if he uses powder, it will destroy his original brilliance.

"Well, you can change clothes." Unwilling to stand up, the stylist had no choice but to give up the show.

This job is obviously very simple, so I should be happy.

Why did I feel a little bit aggrieved in my heart!

The moment Qin Yu got out of the locker room after changing his suit.

His image in the stylist is luminous...

This man... poisonous!

"Okay." Qin Yu was done without ten minutes.

This was the fastest order the stylist took, and the one that made her feel helpless and aggrieved the most.

If everyone is like this, she should be unemployed.

"Let's go, let's go." Qin Yu opened the garage, and the luxury car in front of his eyes made the whole team silent again.

"That's the sixth element?" The cameraman pointed at the black monster in the center, "Fuck."

What kind of fairy family, how many mines are there?

There must be more than one anyway! ! !

"Yes, it's a pity that I can't go on the road, otherwise I will drive her today." Qin Yu shook his head regretfully.

"This is the camera car, LM002, which is relatively rare, but it must be useful!"

Then Qin Yu pointed to the McLaren P1GTR next door to the sixth element, "Today's main car is this."

"McLaren P1, brother, I take it!" The photographer knelt.

It's too fierce. Today's engagement banquet will be enough for him to play for several years.

By the way, first take pictures of these cars, "Brother, can I take pictures of all the cars?"

"License code!" Qin Yu said.

"Definitely, to ensure that your privacy will not be leaked." The photographer nodded repeatedly.

"Take it!"

Qin Yu smiled and said by the way: "By the way, that's not P1, it's P1GTR, the advanced version, next to it is P1."

These precious and rare big toys, who is not rare?

Don't talk about him, it's Old Qin and Little Pumpkin, sometimes they can stay in the garage for a few hours.

It's just changing seats one after another without driving out, and I'm very happy!

The happiness of a man is so simple and simple...

"Xiaoyu, it's almost time to set off." Comrade Qin dressed up and Mrs. Mother came.

Liang Chuyu wore a decent and solemn cheongsam, and Lao Qin was dressed in a man's Tang suit.

It doesn't look particularly formal, and it can match with cheongsam.

It won't make people feel disrespectful, it looks particularly stylish, "How?"

Old Qin shook his clothes and looked at Qin Yu with a serious expression.

"Good, very good." Brother Yu just nodded.

Behind Xu Meixin and He Wu came with Pumpkin. The two came to help drive the car.

As for the little pumpkin, the slim tailored suit makes him cute and handsome.

The chubby smiling face looks particularly festive.

"Okay, let's go!" Qin Yu began to allocate cars.

He Wu opened LM002 and was responsible for leading the way and taking pictures!

Two big Gs, one from Old Qin, and one for the wedding driver. These two are in charge of pulling people.

Xu Meixin is responsible for coordinating the entire event to ensure that nothing goes wrong in the middle.

Qin Yu drives McLaren P1GTR to pick up the "bride"!

Although it was just an engagement, some ceremonies were added.

Such as picking up relatives, shooting, betrothal gifts, etc...

This was the result of discussions between the two adults. Qin Yu and Lu Qing just listened, and there was no need for them both to worry about it anyway.

The Lamborghini LM002 driven by He Wu in the front started, followed by a McLaren P1GTR, followed by two big Gs.

Such a strange convoy on the road attracted frequent attention from passers-by.

This combination is a bit strange!

You say it is low-key, not low-key at all, just that McLaren is enough to attract attention.

Not to mention the weird pickup truck in front, and the two big Gs behind it.

But you say it is high-profile!

There are only four cars in the squadron, and it is not like picking up relatives, which is really curious.

When the car arrived at the door of Lu Qing's house, there were only Lu Guohui's family and Lu Qing's two sisters-in-law.

Everyone else has already gone to the hotel, just like Qin Yu's relatives and friends here.

Those who can come today are all those who move frequently in the past and are relatively close.

There is no notice for the distant ones, which is low-key enough.

According to Lu Guohui, that must be done on a special basis.

In the end, Lu Qing said that he had just graduated and he didn't want to be so grand.

Engagement is a matter for two people, and only after they get married in the future, do they want to deal with it, which convinced Lu Guohui.

Otherwise, the daughter is the biggest weakness of being a father.

It's not so easy for others to persuade Lu Guohui...

"Uncle Lu, Aunt He!" Qin Yu opened the car door, waved and smiled at Lu Guohui's family.

"Come on, Xiaoyu is so handsome today!"

He Hong smiled and said, turning around and shouting inside the room: "Qingqing, Xiaoyu is here."

"Don't run, wait for someone to come in to pick you up, sister-in-law, grandma, don't run, don't..." Two aunts were chasing behind, and Lu Qing had already ran out of the gate.

The young sister-in-law stood at the door with a weird expression, and said helplessly: "It's really not a female congress, this hasn't passed the door yet!"

"You don't seem to be talking about it."

"Then I am not like her, so I have to let people come in and pick me up..."

"Okay, people are trendy now, your set is not popular anymore."

"What do you call my set, that is the rule of the ancestors!"

"The old ancestors' rules, when you get engaged, you can change a token of love, and the two parties are done."

"you....."

Hearing the quarrel between the two sisters-in-law, He Hong curled his lips and said nothing. Seeing her daughter and Qin Yu hugged together, muttering softly, a smile instantly bloomed on her face.

Whoever loves to say what to say, as long as his baby girl is happy and happy in the future.

What can be done with a few words, but there is still less meat?

"Um, time is almost up, let's set off." Lu Guohui, who was talking to Old Qin, looked at his watch and suggested.

"Yes, go to the hotel first, walk around, get in the car." Old Qin waved his hand.

A crowd of people got on the bus again, and the convoy changed from four to six, arriving at W Hotel in an orderly manner.

In the hotel banquet hall, two relatives and friends have already arranged seats.

Talking and laughing while waiting for the host's entrance, it was time.

Chapter 869: Time to judge

When Lu Qing took Qin Yu into the banquet hall, all the relatives and friends present stood up and applauded, and the sound of taking pictures continued.

What a nice view!

Today, Lu Qing wears a white tail wedding dress with a transparent gauze at the deep V neckline on her chest.

The surface is glued with craft branches, and the flower buds decorated with pearls look delicate and beautiful.

Going straight to the main table, Qin Yu and Lu Qing waved their greetings to relatives and friends around them.

The host also appeared beside them. On the long table behind him, there were more than a dozen boxes covered with red cloth.

After the two adults were seated, the main event finally began.

The host opened the red cloth one by one, revealing the neat LV medieval hard case underneath.

These are all from He Hong's collection. The largest one is 80 size and the smallest is only 25cm.

The one on the left is the dowry of the Qin family, and the one on the right is the dowry of the Lu family.

Relatives and friends also left the table and surrounded them, all wanting to see what was inside.

First open the Qin family's gift box, there are four boxes in total.

There is a ring in the top 25 size.

It was the engagement ring prepared by Qin Yu, and the sparkling diamond light made the women on the scene exclaimed.

52.1 carats, worn on Lu Qing's fingers, wider than two fingers.

The guests were all surprised and lost their voices. One can imagine how moved by Lu Qing.

Looking down at the diamond, feeling the weight of the fingers, the fingers pressed their lips and wept with joy.

As for the guests, the only thought at the moment is, "This must be very heavy in your hands, right?"

In addition to being overweight, what else can this ring pick out?

Its value...

Forget it, don't think about it, the more I think about it, the more I feel that the world is not worth it.

Opening the second box, the crown inside drew all eyes away, and the ring in Lu Qing's hand was instantly ignored.

The diamond-shaped crystal cylinder surrounds the surroundings, and at the forefront is the largest diamond-shaped diamond, transparent, white, and sacred...

expensive!

The "Clear Sky Crown" with a total of over 1,000 carats is a gift made for her by Qin Yu himself.

The main diamond weighing 314 carats directly in front makes Lu Qing who wears it look holy and noble, like a fairy on earth.

The following gifts are not important anymore, what kind of house book, car book, and deposit receipt.

Before this crown, eclipse!

So when Lu Guohui opened the dowry box, he was still laughing and cursing, "Smelly boy, I didn't share any news in advance. You want to see me making a fool of myself?"

Fortunately, Lao Lu was prepared.

He is just such a baby girl, and all of his wealth will be theirs in a hundred years, so there is nothing he can't bear.

The first is all kinds of jade jewelry, making up eight pairs.

The following is the book of houses, shops and cars, totaling more than 60 million.

Finally, there are stocks, certificates of deposit, and family funds for the two, totaling 200 million yuan.

After reading the gift list, Qin Yuxin said, "The quasi-old man has lost his money, and even the stocks of his own company have been taken out."

I didn't mean to show off. The two parties had discussed the things they had prepared before, and I knew it in my heart.

Except for the ring and crown prepared by Qin Yu...

Taking these out is more for outsiders to see, and it is also a way of expressing one's attitude.

Regarding how much your daughter (son) and marriage are concerned, it is enough to look at the gift list.

After all, both conditions are not bad.

You said to set up two tables in a deserted state, eat and drink well, pat your buttocks and leave.

That's really shameful...

Put away the gift list, the box is just open, relatives and friends are seated!

The scene of harmony and harmony made Qin Yu and Lu Qing handle them with ease.

There is no intrigue, cynicism.

The two of them ate with peace of mind, and after toasting, they accepted the blessings of their elders.

Regardless of any contradictions in the past, today is a day worth celebrating.

...

Shangdu, Ye's family.

Ye Haotian was sitting in the room, pruning the branches in the landscape pot.

This landscape potted plant should be carefully prepared, and the plants on it should not be small.

Because it is not big, once crooked, it immediately becomes conspicuous, which not only affects the overall appreciation, but also affects the fortune.

Crooked potted plants naturally bring bad luck.

So pruning often and taking care of it...

After trimming the potted plant in front of him, Ye Haotian returned it to its original position with satisfaction.

After returning to the table, looking at the other pot of landscape potted plants on hand, he couldn't help frowning.

The branches on this potted plant are completely crooked and grow horizontally against the rocks.

Even the roots are crooked, "it seems hopeless."

Sweeping the back of the hand, the potted plant was pushed off the table.

boom!

The rocks and plants inside the potted plants fell apart and fell everywhere.

The floor was also smashed into a big hole, Ye Haotian didn't realize it.

He picked up a towel and wiped his hands, then discarded it on the ground.

Ye Haotian let people come in to clean up, and he stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows and looked out of the house.

It's raining~

In the misty drizzle, a figure walked through the courtyard alone and walked into the house.

"The Lord is here." Ye Haotian jokingly said.

A few minutes later, Ye Jinlan walked into the room and looked at the broken depression on the floor.

The smile said mockingly: "What is it that makes Ye Dashao so frustrated that he wants to take the floor to vent his anger?"

In front of the French window, Ye Haotian turned around, ruyi smiled and said: "Accidentally, it's just a slippery hand!

If you want to say that you are desperate, you should be sister Jin Lan. "

"Don't call my sister, we don't know each other so well!" Ye Jintan choked coldly.

"Also, I have nothing to be angry about."

Hearing that she said this, Ye Haotian was shocked, as if he had seen an alien.

It wasn't until Ye Jinlan was impatient to be seen that he was about to go crazy, he suddenly said, "You don't know, Qin Yu is engaged today."

Ye Jinlan's calm expression changed drastically, staring at the other side stubbornly.

"You really don't know?" Ye Haotian laughed happily.

"It seems that I was different before."

"I thought the old man found you a loyal dog to help him guard you.

It turns out that you were sent to a tiger's mouth to be a fox, haha..."

Sighing and shaking his head, Ye Haotian said again: "In this way, I have to choose a gift to send to the Qin family."

"What on earth do you want to do?" Ye Jinlan suppressed his anger and said coldly, looking at him.

Ye Haotian shook his head and said softly: "No matter how you say it is a family, don't be so hostile.

In the future, Qin Yu and I may be friends... younger brothers and sisters! "

Huh~

Ye Jinlan's long hair danced and left.

She doesn't want to listen to Ye Haotian's threats here anymore, is she calling her to see her ugly?

This person is as bad as ever!

However, if he really decides to have a good relationship with Qin Yu, where should he go.

Ye Haotian's voice heard again, "Don't forget, the old man has already retired.

What he can give, the Ye Family can give more, what is Shang Shu's name, I think you should remember.

Out of the door of the old house, Ye Jinlan, who was strong and strong, suddenly stood up, reaching out to hold the door frame to stabilize the figure.

Fan Bing in the car hurried over, holding an umbrella and sending Ye Jinlan to the car.

"Miss, what's the matter?" Fanbing asked softly after returning to the car.

Ye Jinlan put his hand against his chin and cast his gaze out of the window.

After a long time, he said in vain, "Send me to the airport."

...

...

Ye Haotian's gift is one step faster than Ye Jinlan.

When Qin Yu learned that she had arrived in the abandoned city, the landscape potted plants were already on the desk in the office.

The water waves and rocks, the pine branches are tall and straight.

This potted plant must be carefully taken care of by the owner, and seeing it gives people a thriving momentum.

Qin Yu liked it very much.

There were also a few gifts, a hard drive and a few mobile phones.

Qin Yu opened it and saw that it was all negative news related to him.

Videos are also clipped clips, and these things are thrown on the Internet.

It will indeed cause him a lot of trouble.

If there is a brainstorm, even Qin Yu will have a headache.

So, this is Ye Haotian's sincerity?

With all his cards out, he is not afraid of Qin Yu's narrow-mindedness, but instead retaliates?

This was also the first question Qin Yu asked when he received a call from Ye Haotian.

"Qin Donghui?" Ye Haotian asked heartily.

If he doesn't even have this kind of tolerance, on the contrary, Ye Haotian must seriously consider it.

Would it be a wrong choice to cooperate with it?

When the conversation between the two was over, Qin Yu was even more impressed with him.

Ye parents and grandchildren, it's really not easy!

Whether it's magnanimity or wrist, he is open-minded and straightforward when talking with people.

All make people feel comfortable, it is difficult to be hostile to him.

Knowing that he is an enemy, it is still inevitable to have a good impression.

It's a talent!

"How do you evaluate him?" Ye Jinlan was surprised that he had such a high evaluation of Ye Haotian.

I clearly reminded him, be careful...

"The lion only guards against the jackal when he gets old.

A smart person like him knows how to judge time and save time. Have you ever seen him provoke someone stronger than yourself? "

Ye Jinlan was dumb, thinking about it carefully, she really didn't.

Those who were sold by Ye Haotian were all clueless.

If you just stand from the point of view of a third party, you will find it very happy!

"So, you can rest assured." Qin Yu saw that she was still a little worried.

Carefully kiss her earlobe and say, "Don't worry, I am very strong."

"Ah~"

Swayed overnight, the mattress was completely useless.

Waiting to leave the hotel, Brother Yu couldn't stop smiling wryly.

The money spent on building a house is not enough to compensate for a fraction of the expenditure.

This way, throughout the year, if all the rooms are occupied, the hotel can be passively renovated.

He personally sent Ye Jinlan to the airport, and watched her hesitant expression before leaving.

Qin Yu knew what she was worried about...

For some things, it is better to recognize the reality early.

Brother Yu's fraternity heart is destined not to belong to only one person.

Even Ye Jinlan is such a proud girl of heaven, but he can't fill his heart with sore holes.

So many "rooms," how can one live alone.

After Ye Jinlan left, Qin Yu fell into a busy and happy job.

Just got engaged, naturally it is like glue.

Coupled with the need to take care of other women, Brother Yu was busy for a while without touching the ground.

Time flies quickly, and it's time for the little pumpkin to go to kindergarten in the blink of an eye.

Detai Nanhu International Kindergarten The tuition fee is 120,000 yuan a year.

The school district is equipped with a PM2.5 purification system, which ensures that children can breathe in fresh air even in haze days.

A licensed dietitian, to fully ensure a healthy diet for children.

The largest children's library in the Northwest. The collection of original books in Mandarin and foreign languages ranks first.

The electronic eye covers all directions, and parents can observe in real time.

The bathroom is independent and equipped with an automatic constant temperature aseptic water treatment system.

There are also several themed classrooms such as a small kitchenette, a micro bank and a space capsule.

It is used to cultivate children's interests and hobbies, expand imagination, and exercise thinking skills.

Cultivate all-round interest and cognition, and provide every child with the highest quality preschool education.

Chapter 870: The dream I just had is gone

After listening to the overall introduction by the principal, the tour inside the park was ended.

Qin Yu had a thought in his heart: This study must be obtained.

What is the strength faction, this is called the strength faction.

Putting the advantage in front of you and speaking with strength will make you have no idea of rejection.

And those teachers and staff, the warm smiles and love for the children are real.

The principal also emphasized that one of their recruitment criteria is very important.

You must have patience and love for children, and have a plan to have children.

This is more important than academic qualifications and certificates. Only when you like it from the heart will it be more beneficial for communication and learning.

The patience of the teachers also opened eyes to Brother Yu and the visiting parents.

The children who make trouble again will become quiet and obedient within a few minutes of their hands.

It's like being enchanted.

"Our teachers have a wealth of experience. What children at this age need is the correct way of guidance.

If you can think seriously and calmly and find the right way to communicate with him, you can also make him better! "

This can be regarded as talking about Liang Chuyu's heart, and it also poke the hearts of most parents.

Not just money!

Yes, come on, our kids are on it.

It's not that simple. Here is an interview with parents.

Occupation, residence, income, education.

Talking and dressing are within the scope of the interview. Only the parents who receive a call after three days will be considered as a smooth pass.

Only children from these families can enroll in the kindergarten.

"Otherwise, you go to the interview?" The mother-sama who was waiting for the interview at the door was a little nervous.

Qin Yu laughed dumbfounded after hearing this, and said, "If someone interviews the parents, what's the matter with me?"

"Yes, what if you can't be elected?" Mother Master was nervous.

For a while, I started to complain about Old Comrade Qin.

He couldn't spare a day for such a big event, he had to go on a business trip at this time.

Busy, who is not busy, men are really unreliable!

Looking at the son next to me, my heart suddenly became balanced again, "It's still a reliable son...Old Qin, wait!"

Lao Qin, who was on a business trip, felt cold and shivered suddenly.

Look up and look around, how do you say it is cold this day?

"Then change home!" Qin Yu said indifferently.

Liang Chuyu slapped him irritably, thinking, "I really praised you for nothing. It's not reliable just after the praise."

"I can't change it, just this one." Liang Chuyu said firmly.

The big deal is that she is looking for relationships, and there are countless companies that she has dealt with over the years.

I still have accumulated contacts, and I don't believe I can't find someone to catch up with.

"Qin Luo's parent, Ms. Liang Chuyu."

"here."

Seeing Master Mother enter the office, Qin Yu followed.

As for the little pumpkin, this will be lying on the lap of a pretty big sister reading a picture book.

The wicked eyes turned like a car wheel.

"Hello, Ms. Liang, please sit down."

Behind the desk, there were three people on three chairs, the principal in the middle, and the vice principals and senior teachers on both sides.

The interview process is not as complicated and profound as you might think, just to answer some questions.

Let's talk about parents' plans for their children's development and what kind of early education training courses they have taken.

If you enter the kindergarten, the daily schedule, whether it can cooperate with the school's various activities, etc.

Liang Chuyu's response is fluent, and all the conditions are in line with the other party's standards.

This can be seen from the facial expressions of the three.

Before I heard Little Pumpkin's lessons were mainly about interest and sports, the other party's expression was even more satisfied.

Only when the time came, Liang Chuyu was a little embarrassed.

She and Lao Qin are both very busy, even if they quit their private work outside, there is not much time.

It is difficult to be there on call to participate in various team building, outings and exchange activities of the school.

"Yes." After Liang Chuyu hesitated a little, he gave an affirmative answer.

When he waited out of the office, Qin Yu couldn't help asking: "Mom, you don't want to resign, do you?"

"It's not resignation, let's take a look first!" Liang Chuyu had her own plan.

She is going to reduce the burden on herself first and leave some simple tasks to young people.

Cultivate one or two masters, it can be considered as someone to take over.

If it still doesn't work, she will consider retreating...

This has to be discussed with Lao Qin, "Die Lao Qin." The thought of him made Liang Chuyu out of anger.

When he comes back this time, he will live in the study!

"Little Pumpkin, let's go, goodbye to the teacher."

"Goodbye teacher, goodbye Xiaokai."

Little Pumpkin waved goodbye to the friend he had just made, and asked Qin Yu to hug it.

He picked him up and walked out of the park. As soon as he got in the car, Little Pumpkin asked curiously: "Big Brother, what is the manor?"

"Manor, isn't our family." Qin Yu fastened on his seat belt and said casually.

"???" Little Pumpkin was stunned.

Then turned to look at Liang Chuyu and asked, "Mom, is our house a big villa?"

"Are you asking about a big villa or a manor?" Liang Chuyu touched his head amusedly.

Asked rhetorically: "Why do you ask this?"

"Xiao Kai said, his dream is to buy a big villa, a manor. So, I want to buy it too."

"Is this our house?" Little Pumpkin asked again.

"Yes, we live in a big villa." Liang Chuyu said.

After that, I didn't hear the second child's voice for a long time.

Curiously bowed his head, only to see that he was sitting in the seat sullenly.

"What's the matter?" Liang Chuyu thought he was uncomfortable.

Unexpectedly, the little pumpkin narrowed her mouth, sobbed fiercely and said, "My dream is gone."

Puff~

Brother Yu almost laughed, this kid is deliberately funny!

But seeing his serious and sad expression, Qin Yu held back with a smile.

Forget it, don't hit him.

It is indeed miserable to lose dreams and pursuits at a young age.

"If we don't change our dreams, we can be scientists and invent spacecraft to go to outer space in the future."

Liang Chuyu whispered comfortingly, finally diverting Little Pumpkin's attention.

After he thought he had figured out what a spaceship was and what was outer space, he immediately clapped his hands happily.

"I will be a scientist, a spacecraft, and go to space."

"Yes, this is the mother's good son." Liang Chuyu touched his head and smiled with satisfaction.

He really doesn't want to hit the little brother, but he can't stand it!

Forget it, let him be happy for a few days.

When the dream is shattered, it's better to replace it with a new one.

With so many dreams, there is always one suitable for him.

In Liang Chuyu's anxious waiting, the admission notice came as scheduled.

After signing up, she was finally able to breathe a sigh of relief.

But this time it was Qin Yu's turn to feel uncomfortable, and Lu Qing's support education was notified.

The place is in the province, but it's really biased.

Luonan Xiawa Village, one of the poorest villages in the province, is truly poor.

To this day, it has just ensured that tap water enters the household.

"Really going?" With his arms around Lu Qing, Qin Yu wanted her to think about it again.

"Well, I really want to go." Lu Qing nodded affirmatively.

After receiving the news, she also hesitated in her heart.

But when she thought of her original intention, she couldn't persuade herself to give up.

Give up this time, next time, next time you have to give up.

Life is hard, and each has its own grind.

This may be her temper, and it will be her precious wealth and memories in the future.

If you can really help the children there, it's okay to be a little bit tired.

"Okay, I'll see you off tomorrow." Qin Yu said.

"No, my dad is ready, he drove me to the place directly.

The village specially prepared a house for me, just next to the school, there is water and electricity, there is nothing to worry about. "

"It's better for me to give you a gift, or I will be with Uncle Lu."

Lu Qing shook his head again, looked at him and said softly: "I'm afraid that if you accompany me, I will lose the courage to stay."

No matter how strong the girl is, in front of her beloved, she is weak and soft.

If the conditions are too much to be missed, Qin Yu is also on the scene.

She was really worried that she could no longer persist and chose to stay there.

"Then let Lao He be responsible for driving, and my uncle would drive back and forth alone, which is too tired." Qin Yu no longer insisted.

In the coming days, Fang Chang, when the "Vulcan Project" starts smoothly, he will be able to spare more time.

It is only a three-hour drive to see Lu Qing.

"Okay, but don't prepare anything, my mother has enough."

Lu Qingjiao said angrily: "Big bags and small bags, packed in four or five boxes, I'm not going to come back."

On weekends and holidays, she can come back anytime.

"You take it with you, otherwise you should talk about it again next time you see me." Qin Yu nodded on her nose.

Lu Qing said with a slouched nose: "Also, Auntie talks about you more often."

"What did you say?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"I won't tell you, this is the secret of the two of us." Lu Qinghan smiled and hid away.

"Secret?" Qin Yu chased up with a smirk, grabbing her hands and wrists and pressing down.

"Hey, little lady, dare to hide secrets privately, and see how I teach you."

"Ah, dare not, haha...well, don't bite...haha...well, clockwise."

...

Lu Qing was sent to the door of his house. Lu Guohui had already eaten breakfast and was loading his luggage into the car.

Today he drove an old domineering car, intending to use the car to send Lu Qing to work.

"Have you had breakfast?" Lu Guohui asked.

"Take it, Uncle Lu, I'll come." After taking the box and stuffing it into the trunk, lining it up, Qin Yu closed the door of the box.

"Then, go in and talk to your mother, then it's time to set off."

Lu Qing went to bid farewell, Lu Guohui smoked a cigarette and handed it to Qin Yu.

"Thank you, Uncle." When he took it, he first lighted Lu Guohui, and then lighted himself.

The two of them just stood in front of the garage, vomiting clouds and fog.

"Persuaded?" Lu Guohui said suddenly. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

"Persuaded, it's useless." Qin Yu responded.

"Hey, this girl's stubbornness, follow me." Lu Guohui didn't know whether it was triumphant or wry smile.

"I arranged for two people to go to the village, volunteers, to help out at the school, and their skills were not bad."

Hearing that Qin Yu had arrangements, Lu Guohui's worries were finally relieved.

Otherwise, he really doesn't worry about leaving his daughter over there alone.

The same is true for Qin Yu, who borrowed it from Bai Ze in advance.

The two women are very skilled.

With the two of them, Qin Yu can focus on work.
