Chapter 941 RAW English: Play big

Too busy!

Graduating and going to society, which one is not busy?

If this is another person, it must be sprayed into SB.

Pretend to be Jill?

can be replaced by Yu brother, everything seems so normal.

The founder and chief technology officer of Miracle Group, the country's ongoing Martian immigration plan is solely presided over by his company.

If this is not busy, it would be weird!

"Be busy, so we can go to Mars as soon as possible!"

"Haha, that's right, I have already signed up."

"Me too, I used to ridicule Martian, Martian, I didn't expect it to be realized in my lifetime."

"I signed up for the whole family, and I'm just waiting to go to Mars to be a farmer!"

"When you look at your enlightenment, you can't do it, so how can you be called a farmer? That's a wastelander."

"Yes, yes, hasty, hasty."

"Everyone is still so active, I will definitely get together if I find a chance." Qin Yu.

was talking, the guide old Shen came.

"Oh, this is not our honorable comrade honorary alumni, what do you want?" Old Shen.

"Old Shen, you are getting more and more naughty now." Qin Yu.

Qin Yu, who was holding a mobile phone, was all smiles and asked again about the formation of the school team.

"There is this plan. This prevents us from propagating in the alumni group first, to see if anyone is interested. To do this, it must be donated by alumni." Old Shen.

"Why, are you interested?" Old Shen.

"If you are really interested, then this team will be established." Old Shen.

"Yes, the school must know that you are willing to support Brother Yu, and the team project must be launched immediately." Yan Er.

"Hey, the second brother has also exploded, rare guests!"

"It's a kind of project, but I don't know how the overall environment is, is the college league black?" Qin Yu.

The question was a bit straightforward, and the crowd of alumni who were still lively just now fell silent.

"Uh, let's talk privately." Old Shen.

"I also participate in a share, wait for me to pull the group." Yan Er.

Exited the group chat. There was already news in the small group of three people, and the mentor Shen Wanqian was pulled into the group by Yan Erji.

"Brother Yu, why suddenly remembered that he was engaged in a team? Rugby seems to be quite unpopular in China." Yan Er.

"Compared to other projects, it is quite unpopular, but in fact it has been developed for many years, but it lacks the overall environment and various supports." Old Shen.

"I will send you a link for the general situation, and you can go and see for yourself. As for what you just asked, the atmosphere of the college league is quite good." Old Shen.

"Send it, I'll take a look too." Yan Er.

"What are you talking about? What happened to football?" Shen Dong.

"The school wants to have a rugby team. Brother Yu seems to be interested." Yan Er.

"I have an idea, take a look first!" Qin Yu.

"A good thing, count me as one, and you can also be regarded as contributing to a strong country." Shen Dong.

The power of sports is infinite. It can not only strengthen the body, but also exercise personal will.

Strengthen self-confidence and enhance the sense of collective honor.

Going bigger can show the national strength and spiritual outlook of a country to the outside world.

is also the best way to increase national pride and honor.

Qin Yu is not opposed to sports, but if he wants to do it, he must be clean and upright.

Instead of bringing a group of young people who love and chase their dreams, face the darkest and disgusting side of the world.

After reading the information, Qin Yu found that the environment of CUFL was a bit too clean, purely generating electricity for love!

There are almost no official activities. Everyone has no time to play match-ups, do training, party and so on with their own teams on weekends.

If you have time and money, get in touch with the team you want to communicate with.

Make an appointment together for a time, place, and performance.

Then rushed to play a self-funded friendly exchange game, occasionally the college will provide very little funding.

The rest is like equipment, rental space, all kinds of miscellaneous expenses are all paid for by the members themselves!

This is not generating electricity for love, what is it?

"I have seen the situation, the school team will wait first." Qin Yu.

"It's okay, it's just an idea anyway." Old Shen.

"You tell me first, if you really intend to sponsor, I am sure that nobody will say." Old Shen.

"Well, I voted!" Qin Yu.

"However, the current alliance is too weak. If you want to play, you can play bigger." Qin Yu.

According to the data shown in the data, the current domestically strongest, most formalized, and capable league is CNFL.

CNFL.

CUFL.

A word difference, a thousand miles away!

CNFL is the only alliance on the right track in China, with the strongest strength, equipment, members and scale.

Another larger civil union, the City Bowl.

The game was temporarily suspended a few years ago due to funding and venue issues. So far, no new investors have been found.

Therefore, the entire market actually has a lot of blank areas waiting to be reclaimed and captured.

The nature of CUFL is the most simple and clean.

In the Bald Eagles, the NCAA atmosphere is more popular than the NFL, and the commercial potential is greater.

Since the NCAA announced its entry into the summer, its value has risen year after year.

has been almost on par with the NFL a few days ago, and CUFL can learn from the NCAA's development process.

Create a clean paradise for sports competitions on the Daxia campus.

If he can get the right to operate CUFL, Qin Yu is sure he can do it.

"What's wrong, this matter is troublesome?"

After seeing Qin Yu finished the phone call, he looked very worried, and Song Yuqiao asked slightly worried.

"Do not."

Qin Yu smiled and said: "It's a good thing. Our school has plans to establish a football team. I want to sponsor the establishment of the team and follow-up activities."

"Rugby?"

Song Yuqiao was stunned, and said, "Is it the violent activities of a group of people running around on the court and getting hit and flying from time to time?"

Emmm!

The physical conflict in rugby is quite serious, but it shouldn't be called a 'violent' activity.

At least as far as the rotten country's unequipped, fist-fighting, full-fledged rotten olives, it's still quite 'mild'.

Of course, the current style of Fuguo olive is becoming more and more gentle.

However, this is because the league's rules are becoming stricter and athletes have to restrain their behavior.

More and more beasts are restrained by their hands and feet, and they become cowered.

A few years ago, the two teams started fighting each other while playing.

If it weren't for wearing a team uniform, I thought I was watching the WWE Stadium Special Edition by looking at the clip.

However, in terms of risk and mortality, the NFL major leagues are indeed more serious.

First, there are factors of the nature of the game, and secondly, there are reasons for the equipment to increase courage.

"Rugby is an ornamental ball game that focuses on confrontation, but it does not mean that players only need to scare off the court and knock their opponents down.

It is a confrontation game with the largest number of participants, the largest venue, complex technology, variable tactics, and a combination of strength and wisdom. "

Seeing that Song Yuqiao still looked like he didn't understand, Qin Yu said helplessly, "Well, it's a game for the brave."

"Oh, get it!" Song Yuqiao nodded perfunctorily.

For her, it doesn't matter what football is. What she cares more about is how long Qin Yu will stay this time.

"I'm afraid I'm leaving now." Qin Yu checked the time, and he promised Master Mother to pick up the pumpkin from school this afternoon.

Saying goodbye to the reluctant teacher Song, and appointment with her tomorrow night's class, Qin Yu drove to Detai Nanhu International Kindergarten.

There are still more than 20 minutes before school, and Qin Yu intends to wait in the car.

Just turned on the phone and was about to read the notes, the car window was knocked, Keng!

turned to look, wearing a sleeveless high-necked vest and a windbreaker outside, the teacher with a ponytail smiled and said hello: "Hello, are you here to pick up the child?"

Lowered the car window, Qin Yu nodded politely: "Yes, I am the eldest brother Qin Luo."

"Hello, Mr. Qin, I am the reception teacher of our school, June Yao. Ms. Liang called before and said you will come."

"Let's have a while before the end of get out of class, or I will take you to the rest area to sit." Junyao pointed to the glass room on the side of the campus.

Thanks to his good eyesight, Brother Yu clearly saw several fathers sitting in the resting area drinking tea.

was accompanied by a young, beautiful, and good-looking reception teacher.

The same dress, the lower body is a JK pleated skirt, and the fresh and youthful breath rushes to the face.

Qin Yu was purely curious and looked out, and saw that Junyao was wearing the same JK skirt.

"Mr. Qin?" Junyao stepped back in a weird tone, pressing her skirt with her hands behind her back.

How can he be like him, blatantly sticking his head out the car window to look at people's legs.

This is too, what's the matter?

"It just happens to be thirsty." Brother Yu opened the door of the car as he said, and motioned to Junyao to lead the way.

On the way to the rest area, Junyao suppressed his embarrassment and tried to get closer to Qin Yu.

The voice of gradually turned to topics such as the importance of children's cultivation, interest and foundation for the future.

Just after listening to the beginning, Brother Yu understood that this is to promote the course for himself.

Three sentences, 180,000, I don't know if these two courses are related.

"Our courses are mainly based on enlightenment thinking. UU reading www.uukanshu.com expands children's vision and imagination, and stimulates children's interest.

Like robot programming, small kitchen, oil painting, music, dance, martial arts, etc. "

Brother Yu nodded as he listened, saying, 'this course is quite comprehensive, and if such a set is completed, hundreds of thousands of people may be gone. '

Last time I heard from my mother, that the neighbor's child learned stage modeling.

has enrolled in an elite class, with an optical fee of 300,000+ a year

The rest are like flying everywhere, participating in activities, clothing, food, shelter, and clothing items, all of which are money.

is roughly the same, it's almost the same if there are less than one million in the whole year.

People who can live in Nanhu Manor naturally don't care about this.

Maybe one day to entertain a table of important guests, the meal cost is more than the child's annual tuition.

For most ordinary families, one million is a lifetime.

Art, but wherever it is stained with these two words.

does not have a mine at home, unless the gods can admire it, have excellent talents, and reward you for this bowl of rice.

Ordinary family, you can play as a hobby.

Otherwise, the bankruptcy may not be able to afford it.

Other hobbies burn money, just one or two stages, gritted teeth and passed.

Art category burns money, that is always burning money, burning money, burning money!

When did you stop studying, or became famous.

This is not the end, the expenses behind are still huge!

Chapter 942 MTL English: Meet Han Jia again

Junyao's sales promotion was dismissed by Brother Yu saying "our family is a happy education".

Fresh value 62↓

The untamed wild horse, with its own green grassland, illuminate your beautiful life with green light.

No disease and no pain, just run a bit wild!

With this introduction, Brother Yu also had to retreat.

can't afford it, dare not to it!

"Mr. Qin, happy education is a means to fool the people and maintain class rule. It is not credible."

"Well, I know." Qin Yu looked at Junyao deeply, "So, he just needs to be happy."

Looking at his eyes, Junyao's weird tone made Junyao shudder.

There were countless possibilities in his mind, and his body shuddered involuntarily.

The water of the rich, is it so deep?

"Big Brother." Little Pumpkin ran cheering from a distance, hugging Qin Yu's leg and giggling.

"This is my brother, what can he do?" Little Pumpkin said to the little friend who followed behind him.

Seeing the admiring eyes of a group of little guys, the little pumpkin innocently and trustingly shows off his elder brother.

Junyao only felt cold inside, and the wealthy were too terrible.

Saying goodbye to the friends, Qin Yu took the little pumpkin and walked home. The little guy kept talking about school on the way.

Teacher, classmate, and girlfriend...

"Where is your girlfriend from?" Qin Yu asked amusedly.

"That's the most beautiful girl in our class, Yaoyao, she is pretty." Little Pumpkin said triumphantly.

The expression was full of ostentation, "Big brother, big brother, can I invite Yaoyao to play at home on Saturday?"

"Go ask mom." Qin Yu responded.

"Oh."

sat boringly on the chair, the little pumpkin's eyes rolled, and his expression suddenly became happy again: "Big brother, our teacher is so beautiful, but she doesn't like me, saying that I am too young."

"Then you grow up quickly." Qin Yu said.

"But when I grow up, when I grow up, she is an old woman." Little Pumpkin looked serious, "I will not like her then."

boy, hello reality!

Looking at Qin Luo who was thinking hard, Qin Yu paid a silent tribute to his beautiful teacher.

In the year of Fanghua, she became an old woman.

That's horrible!

The child's thinking, one thought per minute, before the traffic light, the little pumpkin talked about next week's activities.

Go to a village on the outskirts to experience the joy of life in farming!

"Mom, we are back." Qin Yu yelled into the room while pulling the little pumpkin into the living room.

"Ah, I see." Liang Chuyu's voice came from the building.

After a while, the people came down, and they didn't even look at the two of them. What were they looking for?

"What are you looking for?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"The necklace, the last time I went shopping, Qingqing bought it for me. Why did it disappear?" Liang Chuyu murmured in confusion.

Qin Yu got up to help with a search, and saw the little pumpkin dodge and glance everywhere.

"Well, where's mother's necklace?" Qin Yu stopped, standing in front of him and asked with a cold face.

"How does he know?" Liang Chuyu said casually.

Then, I saw the guilty conscience on the face of the younger son.

The expression of not arrogant, really hammered.

"Where is the necklace?" Liang Chuyu sat across from him and asked sternly.

"I gave it to Yaoyao." The little pumpkin said timidly, lowering her head.

"Who asked you to give it away, where did you find it?" Liang Chuyu felt angry and rushed to his forehead.

After burned, she was very angry, and her hands trembled.

"I took it." The little pumpkin means I took it myself.

"Where did you get it?" Liang Chuyu had already stood up, scared that Little Pumpkin hurriedly hid behind Qin Yu.

pinched his pants with both hands, looked carefully at his mother, and mumbled, "In the box."

took it from the jewelry box, Liang Chuyu remembered to put it away.

I thought it was a mistake in memory before. The original problem was with the thief.

"Bring me here." Liang Chuyu stretched out her hand to catch, the little pumpkin hid in Qin Yu's body and then evaded.

The back collar suddenly tightened, and the person was picked up and handed over to his mother.

"Take it lightly, just use the bed sweeping broom." Qin Yu sent a gentle suggestion.

"Wow" crying in the room, the phone in the living room rang.

"Hello!" The caller was Yaoyao's mother, saying that she was going home and hearing her daughter mentioned that someone gave a gift.

didn't take it seriously at first, but when I was eating, I found the necklace my daughter was wearing with real diamonds on it.

I was busy contacting the teacher and found their home number.

"Okay, I've written down the address. I'll wait for you at the door in 20 minutes...all kids are naughty."

Hanging up the phone, Liang Chuyu came back, followed by a small pumpkin with tears on his face and sobbing with his hands on his butt.

"Whose phone number? Going out again?" Liang Chuyu asked.

"The call from the parents came, and the gifts came." Qin Yu said with a smile.

"necklace?"

Seeing his son nodding, Liang Chuyu said hurriedly: "How can I let someone come, Xiaoyu, you can take it back."

Something must be taken back, but that is a gift Lu Qing bought for her.

If you let Qingqing know when you look back, it would be bad for you to misunderstand.

"Well, that's what I said, the address is there, I'll go there!" Qin Yu said and walked out the door.

"Look at the good things you have done, next time you are not allowed to take things privately from home, have you heard?"

"Well, woohoo!"

"Still crying, shut up, go and wash yourself. Xiaoyu, come back for dinner."

"Okay." Replied, people have already left the house.

looked up at the sky, the sky was clear, and it happened to be able to pull the convertible out for a stroll.

The car still has to be driven frequently to have the effect of lubrication. If the lubricating oil in it dries up, the car will be useless.

hum!

The engine roared, and the little pumpkin heard in the room riding his little Masha, his mouth "buzzing" and the dubbing hit the pillar.

Click...

The decoration on the top was out of a piece, and my heart just got excited.

DaDaDa, Liang Chuyu ran over: "What's the matter?"

咻.

A * mouse passed by, twisted his * and disappeared into the stairwell: "Mom, I'm going to read a book."

Looking at the debris on the ground, Liang Chuyu silently followed. A few minutes later, a rhythmic howling sounded in the room again.

came to the door of the agreed community, Yu Ge just parked the car by the side of the road.

The young woman holding the little girl in the gate came out, glanced at the open-top Rafa, and then looked around.

"Sister Han?" Qin Yu yelled to the person in surprise.

"Huh?" Looking at Qin Yu who got up in the car, Han Jia said in surprise, "You are, Qin Yu?"

"It's me, haha, what a coincidence!" Qin Yu opened the car door and got down.

"It's a coincidence, why are you here?" Han Jia asked somewhat unexpectedly.

She remembered that during the enlightenment class, Qin Yu accidentally said that she lived in Nanhu Manor, which was quite a distance.

Qin Yu didn't rush to answer, but instead said to Li Jiaying in her arms: "Your nickname is Yaoyao, right?"

"Well, Uncle Qin is good." Li Jiaying said obediently, her milky voice was super cute.

"Call Brother." Qin Yu patted her head gently.

Han Jia also reacted and asked nonchalantly: "Isn't the little fool who gave Yaoyao necklace a little pumpkin?"

It's no wonder that Han Jia didn't expect it to be him. Before, his daughter said it was given to her by a little fool.

Han Jia asked several times, and her daughter said that he was just a fool.

Thinking that everyone has this year, maybe people and children are really called by their nicknames.

After all, the older generation still believes in the notion that a bad name is good to feed.

"Little fool? Haha..." Qin Yu laughed loudly, and Li Jiaying gave it the name.

Well, it's very appropriate!

"This is a coincidence. Why didn't you see you on the parent visit day?" Qin Yu said and looked at Han Jia's dress today.

is the same as in the enlightenment class, intellectual, dignified and elegant.

Simple dressing is set off by the temperament of her getting up, and it immediately becomes an elegant private order.

The neckline was unconsciously scratched by Yaoyao, revealing a beautiful and * collarbone.

"I haven't seen you either." Han Jia responded with a chuckle.

"By the way, I'll give this back to you." Taking out the necklace in her pocket and exchanged it with him, Yaoyao put her head on her mother's shoulder unhappy.

is really a fool, he said it was a gift for others, how can I go back again.

The mind of a little girl is more difficult to ponder than a woman!

However, his face was clearly unhappy, and he was caught.

"This gift is of great significance to Auntie. Next time my brother will bring a small pumpkin to pick Yaoyao with a gift you like. Wouldn't he spend all his New Year's money?"

When Qin Yu said this, Li Jiaying turned her head and asked suspiciously: "Really?"

"Of course it is true, my brother never deceives." Qin Yu smiled, but turned his head to Han Jia.

The strange meaning of made her tremble inexplicably, and she looked away like a guilty conscience.

"Well, the last time I saw Ya Qing, UU read www.uukanshu.com and listened to her mentioning you." Feeling that her performance was a bit weird, Han Jia quickly turned back and changed the subject.

"Really? I occasionally visit the business of Sister Yaqing's restaurant, so I can be considered an old acquaintance." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

"In this way, let's find a chance to get together, and it's been a long time since I saw them." Han Jia was serious.

The few friends she met in the enlightenment class were the most memorable for her.

Everyone, you don't know me, I don't know you.

There is no interest or conflict with each other, and there is not so much gossip.

The labels on are only so-so mom, dad, elder brother, such a simple sign.

It's easy to get along with each other, and it's nothing like her daily communication.

is full of intrigue, fighting over and under, right and wrong...

"Jia Jia." A call suddenly came from behind, interrupting the conversation between the two.

Li Jiaying, who was held by Han Jia in her arms, shouted happily: "Dad!"

"Husband." Han Jia's expression flashed unnaturally, and then smiled and said, "Why are you down?"

"Looking at you for so long, just come down and take a look." A tall, thin, slender man with a suit and leather suit and combed hair came with a smile.

picked up his daughter, the other party smiled and stretched out his hand to Qin Yu and said, "Hello, you are the brother of classmate Yaoyao, and I am Li Kaize."

"Hello, Qin Yu." Qin Yu responded with a smile, and the glow of the other's eyes made his smile brighter.

Chapter 943: Creation

"It's not early, I'm leaving first, and the family is still waiting for me to go home for dinner." After a few greetings, Qin Yu found an excuse and left.

Watching the open top Rafa turned around and drove into the distance, Li Kaize stood still and looked at.

"People have gone far, what else are you looking at?" Han Jia asked with a slightly surprised smile.

"Jiajia, how did you meet each other? At first glance, you seem to be quite familiar." Li Kaize did not respond to his question, but asked about how they met.

"What are you asking about this?" Han Jia looked at him, wanting to know the reason.

"Do you know who he is?" Li Kaize grabbed her wrist, his expression full of excitement.

Han Jia frowned and struggled, "You hurt me."

"Sorry, Jiajia." Li Kaize said sorry, but he didn't look like he was sorry at all.

"Jiajia, that's Qin Yu, the founder of Miracle Group, Qin Yu." Li Kaize waved his hand and said, "Do you know how godly he is?"

"There is a gossip that the latest valuation of Miracle is as high as 5 trillion yuan, and his worth is at least one trillion yuan. How much is that, my God!"

Li Kaize can't imagine what it feels like to be worth a trillion.

Just imagine, he feels passionate!

Li Kaize is a business receptionist, if he can take such a big order from the Miracle Group.

You don't need the entire group, just one or two subsidiaries, it's enough for the rest of his life.

"Jiajia, you must introduce us." Li Kaize said seriously.

"You just didn't know each other, people obviously don't have much interest in you." Han Jia grabbed his wrist and lowered his head displeased.

Did he hear what he said just now, the red mark on his wrist, he didn't even care about it.

only cares about Qin Yu's identity and business, how much benefit it can bring him!

Life is very good now, how much money does he have to make to be satisfied? ? ?

"Don't you know each other? I have time to talk about my business in front of him. By the way, how is your relationship?"

Seeing Han Jia turned and walked away, Li Kaize trot to keep up: "Jia Jia, how is your relationship, please find some time to invite him to eat at home."

The next day, after eating breakfast, Qin Yu sent a little pumpkin to school.

"Goodbye, brother." Waving without looking back, Pumpkin had already ran into the school.

Watching him rush into the little buddies, he immediately became the focus of everyone.

Brother Yu couldn't help but laughed, "It's kind of like his brother back then."

"Brother!" Yaoyao grabbed his trouser legs and shook her, raised her head and said gruffly, "Little fool... Did Little Pumpkin buy me a gift?"

"It's Yaoyao!"

picked her up, Qin Yu politely nodded to Han Jia, and said softly: "Yes, but the gift takes time to make. It may take a while to give it to you."

"So, isn't it beautiful?" Yaoyao asked with bright eyes.

"Yes, very beautiful." Qin Yu nodded.

"What is it?" Yaoyao asked impatiently.

"I can't say it, it's a big surprise!" Qin Yu looked at Han Jia, "Sister Han, meet again."

"Yeah." Han Jia nodded with a weird expression.

She had been waiting in the car on the side of the road, and only when she saw Qin Yu got off the car and brought her daughter over, just to meet him on a special trip.

Although he was very angry at the time, Han Jia, who was soft-hearted, still couldn't beat Li Kaize.

Under his pleading and coaxing, he agreed to find an opportunity to ask Qin Yu whether he could outsource the company's reception business to his own company.

Just, how do you say this?

Han Jia had no clue before, but now she sees Qin Yu even more.

"Yaoyao, hurry down, I'm going to be late." Han Jia said to the daughter who was in Qin Yu's arms.

"Oh!" Holding Qin Yu's arm, Yaoyao laughed happily.

"Goodbye brother, goodbye mom." With a lovely wave, Yaoyao walked towards the classroom calmly.

"Yaoyao." From a distance, Little Pumpkin saw his girlfriend.

ran up and grabbed Yaoyao's hand, and the little pumpkin looked at her little partner triumphantly, as if she was declaring sovereignty.

Yaoyao lowered her head shyly, threw off his hand and said, "Go away!"

"No, I'm going to be my girlfriend."

"No more, go away!"

"I will buy you many gifts and delicious ones."

"Really? Can I ride a Trojan horse?"

"Well, we can sit a hundred times, a thousand times, I have a lot of money with my mother."

"Mom said that the boy's money should be kept by his wife."

"Then I'll go back and tell mom..."

Brother Yu, who was outside the school gate, was already laughing, quickly distracting himself, and stopped listening to the innocent conversation between the two little guys.

"Qin Yu, do you have time?" Han Jia said as he watched the children disappear into the teaching building.

"What's the matter with Sister Han?" Qin Yu raised his wrist and glanced at the black starry dial: "I have a meeting this morning, can it be half an hour?"

"Enough, let's go to the opposite side for a cup of coffee." Han Jia pointed to the cafe diagonally opposite.

"good."

In the deck, Han Jia took a sip of milk foam, but there was a bitter feeling in her mouth.

Don't look at her gentle and gentle, but she is very strong in her bones.

The most annoying thing in this life is to ask for help.

Now, I want her to take the initiative to open her mouth to Qin Yu...

"What does Sister Han's family do?" Seeing the embarrassment between her eyebrows, Qin Yu took the initiative to speak.

"what?"

Han Jia, whose thoughts ran to the outside of the cloud, was taken aback, and then he came back to his senses and said: "Our family, the business banquet, reception and planning, mainly..."

"I know what it is, is business okay?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Fortunately, I don't really understand it!" Han Jia smiled bitterly: "Since I have Yaoyao, I have always stayed at home."

"Very good, women are weak, but mothers are strong."

Qin Yu nodded in understanding: "For a mother, children are always the most important thing. The childhood with you must be very happy."

"Yes!" Han Jia responded with an awkward smile.

also don't know if he agrees with the former or the latter.

Time passed by, and Han Jia's heart was impatient as the coffee in Qin Yu's cup was about to bottom out.

Finally, he gritted his teeth and said decisively: "Qin Yu, your company's receptionist, do you know whether you need to outsource?"

Qin Yu raised his brows, looking a little embarrassed.

Han Jia's heart also mentioned Midair, and said dryly: "I am abrupt, and if I don't need it, just treat it as if I haven't said it."

"No." Qin Yu raised his head, smiled and waved his hand: "I really don't know about this."

"Since Sister Han asked, I must know my identity." Seeing Han Jia nodded and admitted, Qin Yu continued: "You said that for such a big company, how could I take care of such trivial matters as receptions? They are all the following people. I'm doing it, I don't know."

"However, when I go back, I can ask if there is any outsourcing." Qin Yu did not bite to death.

After thinking about it, he thought it over and said: "You ask Mr. Li to submit a proposal, and I will ask the following people to include your company in the consideration list."

In this world, what is easily obtained will never be cherished.

Only those who have gone through hardships and trials will be more precious.

A game, if it just starts, it ends.

What fun is there?

Saying goodbye to Sister Han, Qin Yu drove straight to the company.

Feeling the warmth of the sun shining on his body, Qin Yu smiled and said, "The weather is really good!"

Coming out of the elevator, Qin Yu quickly said as he passed the secretary area: "Secretary Xu, ask about the progress of land approval in Lingang, and help me connect with Ye Jinlan, Shangdu."

"Okay, Qin Dong." Xu Meixin nodded slightly, and people followed into the office.

Seeing the closed door, Madoka who sat back in the chair pursed her mouth glumly.

Qin Dong didn't look at anyone again today. He has been dressed up for so long, so why he just can't see it.

Isn't he only Secretary Xu in his eyes, and he doesn't have his own secretary, Madoka?

eh, when will the boss pay attention to me?

faintly resentful and self-pity looking at the mirror and put on makeup, Madoka cheered for herself in her heart, "Come on, Madoka, you can do it."

"As long as you persist, the boss will see you one day, Ollie will give it."

The city of miracles.

The life in the small town is still so quiet and peaceful.

can be underground, the miserable cry and wailing, intersecting a terrifying single.

"Success?" Standing in the observation room, looking at the struggling woman on the laboratory operating table, Mark's expression was full of indifference.

"It's almost there," Shi Cui, in a white coat, said feverishly.

Despite a series of great changes, the pursuit of science in my heart is still as pure as before.

If this were not the case, he would not risk injecting himself in despair.

Now Seeing the results of the experiment are about to appear, how can Shi Cui calm down?

You must know that the experimental body inside is the genetic evolutionary body made by the first person in the true sense.

Its value is in Shi Cui's heart, more precious than Mark beside him.

After all, he is naturally contaminated.

The woman named Daisy on the operating table was personally contaminated by Shi Cui, and then proceeded to the next step of treatment.

is about to complete the gene fusion and become his own child. '

At every step, Shi Cui personally participated in the guidance and did not miss any details.

For this reason, he has been sleepless for a week!

During the conversation, the body on the operating table appeared fluid, twisting and struggling like a puddle of mud.

"Hold on, you must hold on!" Shi Cui murmured with a hot expression.

Now she is at a critical point of integration, as long as she can survive, she will usher in a new life.
fail!

The gene collapsed, and the fairy Daluo couldn't save him when he came.

The twisted jelly splits and fuses repeatedly, and is on the verge of collapse several times.

Shi Cui was trembling nervously, his expression turned hideous, and unconscious radiation spread out from his body.

A hand suddenly grabbed his wrist, and his scarlet eyes shot at Mark in an instant.

Every cell in his body was trembling, and Mark insisted on fear and said, "Doctor, calm down!"

Chapter 944: Sisters

"Thank you, Mark!" The fierce and cracked face returned to normal, and Shi Cui responded with a smile to his concerns.

"Your willpower, even I envy." Shi Cui's praise did not make Mark relaxed, but the body naturally tightened to the extreme.

is like being ready to do it all the time. This is an instinctive response mechanism.

"I'm just alone." Mark replied calmly.

Shi Cui Ruo nodded with enlightenment: "Is there nothing to worry about?"

What his words reminded Mark, his heart tightened, and he said calmly on the surface: "Everyone's thoughts and experiences are different, and the results will naturally be different."

"That's right." Shi Cui no longer struggled, and cast his gaze into the glass window again.

Daisy's transformation has been completed and she is gradually returning to her original shape.

The skin on the surface bursts off like a snake peeling off, revealing the smooth and flawless skin underneath.

"This kind of reborn effect, women will definitely be crazy about it." Shi Cui said affirmatively.

Seeing him shift his attention, Mark's tense nerves finally relaxed completely and his muscles regained their elasticity.

At this moment, a tentacle suddenly wrapped around his neck.

The threat of death was beating in my mind, and Shi Cui's cold voice came from my ear: "Put away your little cleverness in front of me."

"Next time, you will become a nutrient for my body, understand?"

"Understood, father." Mark lowered his head, showing respect in a respectful manner.

In the laboratory, Daisy opened her eyes again as if experiencing a nightmare.

The dazzling daylight luster on the top of her head made her close her eyes unnaturally, and instinctively wanted to block the light with her hands.

found that his hands were imprisoned in the iron handcuffs, and the picture before the coma began to appear in his mind.

哐当, 哐当.

Daisy struggled hard, trying to raise her head and shout, but found that her neck was also firmly fixed on the operating table.

"FK, * bastard, come out, I'm going to kill you, shit!" Daisy cursed frantically, who couldn't break free.

There was a crisp tapping sound beside , and Daisy turned her head to look in the direction of the sound.

is that doctor, damn, damn...

The fear flashing in her mind made Daisy start to tremble uncontrollably, and asked in a trembling tone: "What are you going to do, stay away from me, and walk away."

"Isn't you going to see me?" Shi Cui put his hands in his pockets and looked at her body with a smile: "It's perfect. Congratulations. You made it."

"What has succeeded, what have you done to me?" As she spoke, Daisy found out of fear.

She actually felt a sense of awe and dependence on him, and that feeling reminded her of her dead father.

Impossible, how could I feel this way to a stranger.

"Open the handcuffs." Shi Cui said to himself.

The fetters made of titanium and rhodium on the operating table bounced off. Daisy instinctively wanted to get up, pushed her backhand on the bed, and her body flew out uncontrollably.

咚!

The whole person stuck to the glass window, and Daisy wanted to catch it in a panic.

Her hands immediately turned into soft plasticine, and her body was firmly fixed on it.

"what!"

Amidst panicked screams, Daisy fell to the ground.

Looking at her hands that were restored to their original form, Daisy asked blankly, "What did you do to me?"

Two hours later, Daisy accepted her fate.

She has become a monster!

"Okay, you can move around freely, but only here." Shi Cui took her to familiarize herself with the living area at the bottom of the hive.

finally pointed to the dark passage in the corner and said, "Remember, don't go there."

"What's there?" Daisy remembered what she saw and heard, while her brain was spinning fast.

She wants revenge, revenge everything.

There was a raging hostility in her heart that was devouring her will, and the frantic whispers made her restless.

At the same time, intense anger kept burning her heart.

Damn, they, all damn!

"That's not what you should care about, just keep it in your mind." After explaining everything, Shi Cui took the elevator and left.

Daisy seemed to be the only one left in the entire living area, and her loneliness made her more irritable.

walked aimlessly along the passage, and the dark passage appeared in Daisy's eyes again.

Where is there?

Curiosity suppressed the restlessness, Daisy lifted her foot uncontrollably and walked inside.

When her figure was swallowed by darkness, Mark, who had been hiding in the corner, walked out.

"She went in." Mark seemed to be talking to the air.

tap, tap.

Shi Cui, who had disappeared before, reappeared, standing beside Mark with a smile and said: "Everything is as expected. Human beings are really a race lacking self-control."

Mark wanted to say, you and I are humans too!

I can see my palm deformed and restored in an instant, and all desires disappear in an instant.

"Where do you think she will go?" Mark asked.

"I don't know, but I hope she can make the right choice." Shi Cui said worriedly.

This time, he is sincere.

For this precious experimental subject, he still has many tests and records that have not been completed.

If you just throw it away like this, you will inevitably feel distressed.

"Okay, you should go now."

Hearing Shi Cui's reminder, Mark's dim eyes regained luster, and he lifted his foot to walk into the passage where Daisy had previously disappeared.

There was nothing in the silent passage, and walked along the passage to the end.

The air became moist and cold, and there was only a deep pool in the empty cave, and the water splashed against the artificial embankment due to pressure.

This is a dark harbor connecting the sea and one of the secret passages of the base.

At this time, the dark harbor was empty. The small submarine that should have been parked there disappeared, and Daisy disappeared along with it.

"Girl." Mark.

The mountain wall on the side of the cave rose upward, and a brand new single-person fast submarine was sent into the dark harbor in the slight shock.

sat in the cockpit, the submarine sank and drove towards the sea quickly.

On Mark's screen, a small green dot is blinking.

"Have you set off?" Before the call, Qin Yu listened to the report from Shi Cui.

"Yes, it seems that she made a clear choice." Shi Cui said with a light smile, his tone full of ease.

Being able to keep this precious experimental subject is a delightful piece of good news for him.

"Well, go ahead!" Hanging up, Qin Yu couldn't help but laugh.

It seems that the impression she left on Ms. Daisy is so deep that she still does not have the courage to face her after she has evolved.

ran back to the bald eagle, did you want to avenge the former high-level organization?

It seems that the bald eagle will be lively for some time in the following days.

I hope people are okay, Sie!

Putting the progress of the experiment aside, Qin Yu recalled the previous conversation with Ye Jinlan.

The CUFL side is not deeply involved, and Ye Jinlan can help negotiate peace and make the two sides reach a cooperation.

He paid a sum of money to get the right to operate CUFL, and how to operate it is his own business.

However, the Miracle Group is well-known.

Especially after the conclusion of an investment transaction with a valuation of RMB 5 trillion, represented by Bai Ze.

The other party will definitely not let go easily, and must bite a piece of meat from him severely.

Ye Jinlan can only try his best to lobby, as for the final transaction price!

It also depends on the outcome of the negotiations after the two sides meet, which requires him to prepare in advance.

Qin Yu is also thinking, how much will CUFL bid?

And what is the price standard he can accept? ?

Judging from the influence and scale of CUFL today, hundreds of thousands is its limit.

can take into account its background and potential, as well as the university student group. There is such a special type, and it can't be said only by value.

What's more, the vertical sector is backed by it.

If the price is premium, 20 million is the limit. I believe this price can satisfy every aspect.

If it exceeds 20 million, Brother Yu will really laugh.

Just as he was watching the progress of Vulcan while waiting for the news, Song Yuqiao first brought him a piece of good news!

"Have you decided?" After eating cold noodles made by Song Yuqiao himself, Qin Yu looked at her unexpectedly.

"Well, they decided to try!" Song Yuqiao nodded with a complicated expression.

To be honest, she herself couldn't figure it out.

are already adults, the job has just entered a stable period, and the next promotion and salary increase is only a matter of time.

chose to resign and enter the entertainment circle at this time, what combination to go for!

Did they really think clearly?

Song Yuqiao has already asked about this.

The answer got was, "Life is too short. If you can't live for yourself and go crazy once, what's the meaning of just living a life?"

I don't know why, these words repeatedly appeared in Song Yuqiao's mind.

made her upset, and there was an illusion that she was affected instead of being able to persuade them.

"Have you thought about the name of the combination?" Qin Yu said.

"Yeah." Song Yuqiao said in a weird tone: "Call my sisters."

"Sisters?" Qin Yu was taken aback first, and then thought that the name was very interesting. UU reading www.uukanshu.com has characteristics, novelty, can capture people's psychology and eyeballs, and has precise positioning.

The average age is 27 years old, my sisters, from this name.

Ness!

"However, they decided that the four of them will debut together, and only Ye Bai chose to be the agent." Song Yuqiao said.

Qin Yu thought for a while, nodded and said, "It's not impossible, let's try it first."

The four people have different styles. The eldest sister Wen Ru, the lead singer, has a cheerful and outgoing personality, and it is perfect to be the captain.

Mei Xin, lead dancer + lead singer + appearance, the enchanting and * style is bound to attract a wave of fans.

Yumeng, cute and love, who can resist the temptation of a cute thing.

It's okay to be a mascot!

Come again to Ya'er, introverted, shy, and well-behaved. Such a character will definitely be loved by otaku and mother fans.

Thinking carefully, these four people are simply a perfect combination.

As for whether it can be achieved, it will be evaluated by professionals first. Even if it is not qualified now, it will be trained and packaged.

has a reputation and Qin Yu is behind the push, it is hard to think about it or not!

"Why, are you also heart-stirring?" Looking at Song Yuqiao who was uncertain, Qin Yu stretched out his hand and squeezed her face.

plump apple muscle, every time he sees it, he can't help but want to play with it.

How can someone be so cute and sexy, such a natural little fairy.

Chapter 945: Is it exciting?

The rain is majestic at night, leaving a spot of water stains after it fades away!

The hardworking teacher Song lay in Qin Yu's arms and said softly: "I seem to be really affected."

"What was your dream when you were a kid?" Qin Yu asked, playing with her hair.

"Be a teacher!" Song Yuqiao couldn't help but smile.

"Isn't that a dream come true." Qin Yu smiled in surprise: "Aren't you satisfied like this?"

"No." Song Yuqiao shook his head and said, "It's just that I suddenly felt that my life is a bit too simple and boring."

One line at three o'clock every day, lesson preparation, lesson preparation, and lesson preparation.

Occasionally social activities are shopping with my little sisters and singing K.

Other than that, it seems to be team building and dinner organized by school teachers.

This kind of activity is about two or three times a year.

Then, there is no more.

Thinking back carefully, life seems to be repeating yesterday's experience every day!

There is something I didn't realize at first, but when I think about it, it will give people a sense of dazed horror.

For a moment, the end of life is near.

The kind of strong impact brought only fear, hesitation, unwillingness and helplessness.

"But everyone's life is actually like this." Qin Yu said comfortingly.

"You are not." Song Yuqiao raised his head and retorted.

Qin Yu wanted to refute, but suddenly found himself speechless.

In my own life, it seems that new colors and elements are added every day.

"Haha!" The awkward smile was Qin Yu's only answer.

Glancing at him, Song Yuqiao said quietly, "Heh, man."

"Well, isn't it just exciting!" Qin Yu snapped his fingers and pulled Song Yuqiao up and walked out.

"What are you doing?" Song Yuqiao panicked and put her hand on her chest.

"Of course I went out, and I will take you to find excitement." Qin Yu said loudly.

Looking at the clothes he threw, Song Yuqiao realized that he was different.

'S face flushed, and hurriedly ran into the bathroom to freshen up.

40 minutes later, Song Yuqiao, who was renewed, gave Qin Yu his hand and walked out of the apartment side by side.

The elevator went up, and Song Yuqiao asked curiously: "The rooftop door is locked."

"Leave it to me." Qin Yu said confidently.

When he came to the rooftop security gate, Qin Yu put up a finger and said, "I will open this gate with my finger, do you believe it?"

Song Yuqiao pushed the door first, then shook the handle, then shook his head and said, "I don't believe it!"

"I'm optimistic." Slowly stretched his finger to the keyhole, pressing the pad of the finger on it.

Click!

The sound of the lock cylinder popping into his ears, Song Yuqiao grabbed his fingers in surprise and placed them in front of him, "How did you do this?"

"Secret." Qin Yu responded with a smile.

opened the door and came to the rooftop. The cold night breeze contained the cold air after the rain, and the blowing people trembled.

"The weather was short-sleeved yesterday, and I will wear a coat today." Song Yuqiao stomped and complained.

"Perhaps, the earth is already dissatisfied with the virus that parasitizes itself." Qin Yu said jokingly.

"Humanity is a virus, how can you describe it like that." Song Yuqiao smiled and scratched his waist with his hand.

Qin Yu dodged with a smile, but kept his arms around her.

"do not move."

Suddenly, Qin Yu's expression became serious, and he raised his head and said solemnly, "Look, UFO."

"Don't want to lie to me, do you think I am a three-year-old child?" Song Yuqiao laughed and spit out, but still couldn't help but raise his head.

"Ah!" The magical flying object appeared above her head, causing her to open her mouth wide.
what is that?

Are there really aliens? ?

Why is UFO like this? ? ?

"It's here, it's going to fall." Qin Yu said nervously, and the arms that held her tightened gradually.

"What to do, what to do, Qin Yu." Song Yuqiao said in a panic: "Call the police, no, let's run first!"

Seeing the tears appearing at the corner of her eyes, Qin Yu's nervous expression could no longer be stretched: "Puff~"

"What are you laughing at, it's down." Seeing the aircraft fall, it is within reach.

Song Yuqiao's voice was already crying, sobbing and changing the voice, as if he would perform a dolphin sound in the next second.

"Don't be afraid, it belongs to me." Qin Yu held her tightly, raised his head and snapped his fingers.
slap~

The light came on and hit the two of them directly, and Xi He whirled around the two steadily and silently.

At this moment, Song Yuqiao couldn't help but raised his hand and patted his face.

hurts, really, really...

So, is he an alien?

Hearing Song Yuqiao's questioning, Qin Yu was really anxious about her brain circuit.

If you are like this, don't you really teach bad children?

"Come on!" The Xihe was suspended 5cm above the ground, and Qin Yu led Song Yuqiao into the cabin step by step.

The cabin full of science fiction dazzled Song Yuqiao.

Every corner and button are full of novelty to her.

"Qin Yu, am I really dreaming?" In the cabin of the day, Song Yuqiao still couldn't believe his eyes.

"Of course not, it's called Xihe, and it's my...private car."

Mining is only a part-time job, in fact it is Yu Ge's personal account.

That's right, that's it, don't make a mistake.

"I want to go to heaven, let me go to heaven, okay?" Song Yuqiao said coquettishly while hugging him.

For this kind of request, Brother Yu naturally has no reason to refuse.

but...

"Wait first, let us fasten our seat belts, and give you a position by the window, the scenery is better."

Qin Yu pressed her against the window and fastened her seat belt.

then sat next to her, fastened his seat belt and pulled it a few times again, after confirming that there was nothing wrong.

then said in a relaxed tone: "Xihe, take off, destination Mars."

"Mars?" Song Yuqiao was surprised at the same time, Xihe had already entered stealth mode.

The scenery on the ground instantly turned into a small spot, but the cabin seemed to be standing on a stable ground, without the slightest movement.

"Ah, we really flew, haha..." Seeing Xihe penetrating the clouds like a missile, it broke through the atmosphere and gravitational force and flew into deep space.

Song Yuqiao was excited like a child, raising his arms and shouting loudly.

"Hmm." Qin Yu's faint voice came.

Song Yuqiao, who was overly excited, couldn't help but blush, and quickly put down his arms to tidy up the skirt.

turned his head, but found that Qin Yu was closing his eyes and leaning on the back of the chair.

Before Song Yuqiao could understand the reason, she saw the hands holding the handrail tightly, so powerful that the handrail kept groaning.

Wan is about to be crushed by his huge force in the next second.

"You, are you not afraid of heights?" Song Yuqiao couldn't help pressing his hand on his hand.

"How is it possible?" Brother Yu said confidently.

It's just that the hands holding the armrests pressed harder, and the panels on both sides have already appeared a little deformed depression.

"Don't be afraid, haha~ I, haha, I will hold you." Pulling his hand away from the armrest, Song Yuqiao unfastened the seat belt and sat on his side.

"Don't, this is very dangerous, we have to obey the traffic rules." Yu Ge said solemnly.

his hands start to walk unconsciously.

Well, why is this hand disobedient again?

"But your hand doesn't say that."

Song Yuqiao glanced at the distant blue planet and bit his ear softly: "Also, we are in space now, you can do whatever you want with me."

Above Mars, the invisible Xihe hovered diagonally above the ecosphere.

"Those are the pioneers, they are really great."

Song Yuqiao said with emotion: "In school, teachers often talk about them and show students to watch live broadcasts and videos."

"They are true pioneers, worthy of being remembered and respected." Qin Yu said affirmatively.

At this moment, his eyes are open.

Although unconsciously keep a certain distance from the window, at least it is a good signal!

"There are really red flags flying, how did they do it?" Song Yuqiao asked curiously, pointing to the red flag flying below.

There is clearly no wind here, how did they keep it flying.

"The secret is there." Qin Yu pointed to the grid on the surface of the ecosphere and said, "The air flow from the ventilation just passed the flag."

The gravitational acceleration on the equatorial surface of Mars is 3.72m/s, and the gravitational force is approximately equal to two-fifths of the earth's gravitational force.

Therefore, only a small amount of wind can keep the flag flying.

"What to do, I'm so excited."

Song Yuqiao standing in front of the window kept shaking her legs, because she was afraid that she would soften to the ground as soon as she stopped.

She is so excited!

"Would you like to take you to the South Pole? If there may be life on Mars, it must be discovered from the South Pole." Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Okay." Song Yuqiao suppressed his excitement, and couldn't help shaking while sitting on the chair.

Today, she may be unable to control her two legs.

At the South Pole of Mars, a vertical circular hole with a diameter of 3 meters was opened on the ice surface.

has a lifting device built on it, because it is the base expansion day, so there are only reinforced and stranded equipment here.

Qin Yu was a little moved, and wanted to go down and find out.

Unfortunately, there is no space suit on board.

Although Brother Yu doesn't need it, he doesn't want Song Yuqiao to be treated as an outlier either!

This made him secretly remind himself that next time he has to prepare more.

"Okay, it's time to go back." As Qin Yu's voice landed, the invisible Xihe turned towards the earth.

The distant blue is zoomed in a little bit until the two are down to earth again.

The heart that Yu is holding is at ease, and he is finally back!

"Unexpectedly, you also have a scared side, haha, so fun."

Recalling Qin Yu's performance before, Song Yuqiao couldn't help laughing out loud.

Seeing her mischievous appearance, Brother Yu slid her finger in anger.

The laughter stopped suddenly!

Stayed up all night, Qin Yu drove Rafa on the way to the company in front of Zhaoxia.

The restless music seemed a little out of sync with the morning, and the fingers on the door swayed to the rhythm.

Today he is in a particularly good mood, and hopes that this good mood will last longer.

Arrived at the company, Xu Meixin reported to him the current work progress.

Well, everything is so smooth!

Until Yu Ge received a call from Hudu.

Then, Brother Yu made it amused! !

Chapter 946: Long live the father of the gold master

The news of CUFL is here, and the ceiling in Yu Ge's heart is 20 million.

This price is judged by any reasonable person, it is definitely lying flat and slaughtered by the other party, willing to be taken advantage of.

As long as I can create a clean sports paradise, Brother Yu is willing to be a pig!

That's what he thought, and he planned to do so.

But now, he just wanted to say one thing: Success gave him a big smile.

200 million, this is the quotation he received over the phone.

outrageous?

The two words are not enough to describe, and no accurate adjective can be found in human dictionaries.

hung up the phone with a smile, and Brother Yu dialed Ye Jinlan's number on the spot: "I just received the call, I believe you have also heard of it."

"They are a bit too much, or I will let Grandpa come out." Ye Jintan felt empathetic and said coldly.

"No need." Qin Yu changed his tone and said relaxedly: "Since they value it so much, keep it for yourself."

"Then what are you going to do?" Ye Jinlan asked curiously and worriedly.

She was afraid that Qin Yu was young and energetic, so she would be motivated to do something beyond the line...

"Don't worry, I just suddenly felt that the City Bowl is a good choice." Qin Yu has made up his mind to invest in the City Bowl.

Then, cooperate with the universities connected with Miracle Group.

The competition system is divided into two different divisions, the college league and the regular season, both inside and outside.

In the early stage, 200 million yuan was injected.

"Secretary Xu, come in." Qin Yu released the answering machine, and already had a detailed plan in his mind.

"Boss." Xu Meixin pushed the door in.

"I need detailed information about the city bowl, besides, I am in a very unhappy mood now." Qin Yu said coldly.

"Okay." Xu Meixin turned and left. When she returned two minutes later, she had an extra white pillow in her hand.

Madoka's voice came from the answering machine: "Boss, the detailed information of the City Bowl has been sent to your mailbox. There is also the detailed information of AFLC."

"Hmm!" Qin Yu closed his reply lazily.

Ge Lao lay paralyzed on the chair, Qin Yu quickly scanned the relevant information displayed on the screen.

To Madoka arbitrarily call the shots, adding AFLC information in it.

After reading the details of the two alliances, Yu Ge just wanted to say: Nice work!

Now, he wants both.

I don't know if one family is 100 million, is it enough?

Or else, if the two are merged into a brand-new major alliance, Brother Yu feels that he still needs a professional to be responsible for this matter.

opened the information again, and Qin Yu found a suitable candidate.

Hudu, Frank is sitting on a park bench, looking brightly at the teenagers running on the field.

Although this is just a random game of a few kids who want to get together.

But he still watched with all his attention, as if he saw the scene of the players sweating on the field again.

When the children were tired of playing and walked out of the field with each other jokingly, Frank got up and applauded softly, giving them encouragement and blessings!

When the children disappeared from sight, Frank looked at the empty stadium, the luster of his eyes disappeared like an extinguished flame.

"Huh!" He sighed deeply, and Frank walked forward in loss.

The team that I once loved is already torn apart, and if you love it again, you have to live and eat.

Now, let's go to work honestly!

Ling Ling...

Frank took out the phone mechanically, and put it in his ear without looking at it: "Hallo?"

"Hello, is this Mr. Frank?" A woman's voice came on the phone.

"Yes, I am, are you?" Frank glanced at the number quickly, it was a strange call.

"This is the office of the chairman of Miracle Group. I am Mr. Qin Yu's working secretary..."

As time passed, Frank's eyes opened wider and wider, staying where he was like a ghost.

After a long time, he suddenly raised his arms and laughed wildly and said, "Okay, I will take the first flight...Yes, thank you very much, okay, thank you, thank you!"

thanked him several times, and when he heard the other party hang up, Frank screamed and ran forward like crazy.

ran to the subway station under the gaze of passers-by watching fools. He wanted to rush home immediately to pack his luggage and take the fastest flight to the abandoned city.

It was already the next day to see Frank in the office.

The evil fire in Qin Yu's heart has long since disappeared. At this moment, he sat on the chair refreshedly, looking at Frank who was sitting on the opposite side.

As the senior founder of the Tigers, Frank's resume is simple and wonderful.

'S love for rugby is also a fanaticism from the heart.

As a team manager, investor, and coach, in order to maintain the team, all his savings are invested on it.

Even if the team ended up disbanding, they still maintained this love.

Where there is a competition, whether formal or informal, he will rush to the scene if he is capable.

A person like can be called a pure love of sports!

Of course, if Yu Ge does sports to make money, then such people must stay away.

Because, when the capital is to be realized, the fanatical Frank must be the biggest obstacle.

But he didn't have the purpose of making a profit at the beginning of the game. It was pure coincidence that he thought of this.

I want to create a pure land again, and return the purity and cleanliness that the sport should have!

Therefore, Frank became an ideal candidate.

There is another reason for choosing him, that is his connections...

Whether it is a domestic team or a foreign league, he has deep connections.

This paves the way for the future development of the alliance, which can reduce a lot of trouble and avoid detours.

There are people in North Korea who are easy to do things. This sentence is common at home and abroad!

At this time, Frank was also looking at Qin Yu, who was too young to be a legendary genius.

There are many rumors about him, and I can't finish counting the days and nights.

The evaluation is also polarized, and the positive ones will go to heaven, and the negative ones can't wait to step him into hell.

But no matter what the evaluation is, there is a consensus that everyone agrees: He is a man with the ability to make money!

And now, this man with the ability to make money has turned his attention to football.

Excited, making Frank's face flush, his breathing accelerated, and his eyes towards Qin Yu burst into excitement.

"Ahem." A light cough interrupted Frank's focused gaze, and Qin Yu said straightforwardly: "Frank, I believe you already know the purpose of coming here!"

"Let's get straight to the topic now. I want to merge City Bowl and AFLC to form a new major league. Tell me, what can you do?"

asked his value as soon as he came up, Frank liked this kind of straightforward conversation.

"I know almost all team leaders or management and can persuade them to transfer to the major leagues.

I can contact NCAA to bridge the cooperation between the two parties, and bring in foreign aid, rules, and coaches.

Train young players, maintain the vitality of the team, strengthen publicity, and tap the commercial value of the league..."

Frank talked about his plan endlessly. After the team was disbanded, his most was time.

All the passions are transformed into thoughts by him.

Although he hadn't had time to act, Qin Yu didn't find him now.

His strong capital and background, coupled with his love and detailed plans, will surely turn the end of the past.

When Frank put all the plans out of his head, regret and tension arose in his heart.

What if he regrets it, he hasn't got any promise yet!

Why still can't change the impulsiveness and recklessness, "Frank, Frank, you are such an idiot."

If it weren't for Qin Yu to sit opposite, Frank would surely slap himself on the head fiercely.

"Sounds good!" After Qin Yu was silent for a few seconds, he chuckled and said, "Now, you can mention your own conditions."

"Money." Frank forgot his previous worries in an instant, and said straightforwardly: "I need sufficient financial support. The initial expenditure of the alliance may be relatively large, but please believe me, as long as we survive the difficult period, we will definitely succeed."

Nervous, uneasy, uneasy, anticipating, Frank stared at the opposite Qin Yu without blinking.

Every second of his silence is as long as a century for Frank.

Until Qin Yu raised his head again, he showed a small smile.

Frank knows that he really did what he promised back then: one day, he will rebuild the Tigers and return to the battlefield again.

Under Madoka's personal escort, Frank, who walked into the elevator, was still in a sluggish state.

The only thought in my mind is: I am rich, I am rich!

200 million, he actually agreed to inject 200 million into the unshaded alliance.

At this moment, Frank just wanted to kneel down in front of him, shouting: Long live the golden master father!

After the excitement, Frank's mind turned quickly. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

The promise is made, and the money can be in place at any time.

There is another premise. He needs to find enough team management endorsements and promise to join the new league.

And, to get the NCAA preliminary letter of intent for cooperation.

Although the former is difficult for Frank, he believes he can do it.

The latter is the key to his headache.

An alliance that only exists on paper. It wants to cooperate with a mature olive giant like NCAA.
ha?

If someone said to him before meeting Qin Yu, Frank would definitely use his * to greet him!

Now, he can only pin his hopes on Qin Yu.

I hope his name and the gold-letter sign of Miracle Company are equally useful in NCAA.

At the top-level chairman's office, Qin Yu stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, looking at Frank who was gradually going away.

turned around and picked up the phone, Qin Yu dialed Fink's number: "Hello, dear Mr. Fink, are you interested in joining a great sports career?"

Far away in Hudu, Fink, who was remotely directing the entire operation of BlackRock, got up and walked away from the computer, and went to the unmanned reception room for a telephone conversation with Qin Yu.

When he walked out of the reception room, no one knew that the future CRAL alliance had been quietly established in the conversation between the two.

This meeting will inevitably be engraved in history along with greatness and glory due to the rise of CRAL.

Chapter 947: Daisy's Adventures

The development of the matter was completely different from what Frank thought.

The progress of contacting teams around the country is slow and difficult. On the contrary, it is the NCAA who expressed interest in his proposal!

However, this is not because of Frank's face, or the sign of the Miracle Group.

It was the great Mr. Capitalist, Fink greeted the NCAA chairman and told him that CRAL would achieve miracles and BlackRock's support.

One is a Western capital giant, and the other is an Eastern giant crocodile, a typical local snake!

If you want to open the Eastern market as soon as possible, how could the NCAA, which is not eliminated by future trends, refuse the friendly signal of cooperation.

Agree to Fink's request for the first time and send a positive signal to the outside world.

And publicly declared in private: NCAA has found the most suitable partner in the East, and in the future the two sides will definitely show their strengths in the sports field!

At the same time, several sports product giants also took the initiative to come to their door and contact Frank and the NCAA to discuss possible commercial sponsorship in the future.

This made Frank surprised and delighted, and his heart was more of an inexplicable absurdity.

Why did your world change overnight?

Bald Eagle, Big Apple City.

The moment the ragged and unkempt Daisy set foot on the harbor, tears could not help but flow out.

Finally, she finally swam back.

Damn bald eagle navy, * Honolulu, * pirate, and * submarine.

Along the way, Daisy felt the strong malice from the world!

First, the submarine stalled after 600 nautical miles in Neon, and then Daisy was locked by the Bald Eagle fleet.

Before she knew how to respond, two torpedoes pushed aside the water and blasted her submarine to pieces.

The kind-hearted Daisy almost ran away at that moment.

Her thighs turned into a blood dance and disappeared at the sound of the explosion, but then the blood mist that spread out seemed to be summoned.

Flowing back to her short limbs, condensed into two long white and smooth legs.

This scene shocked Daisy and calmed her about to run away again. Thinking that she had nothing to lose, she decided to let go of the soldiers above.

Counseling is impossible, Daisy just doesn't want to hurt the innocent!

As a former intelligence officer, senior agent.

Daisy knew very well that today's fleet was like a frightened bird, frightened by the vicious events that had happened before.

The two ends can be transformed into strange variants of strange birds, attacking them without any protection from the fleet.

More than 860 people were killed, 6 new fighters were lost, and the damage to the aircraft carrier reached 21.6%. The preliminary estimate of the loss reached tens of billions!

Since then, any strange signals will be warned, and birds approaching the fleet will be cleaned by machine guns.

Sailors can often see blood packs exploding in the sky on both sides of the fleet.

Daisy is innocent, she is just a victim in a big environment...

To blame, you can only blame those * abnormal monsters!

After a wave of forced explanations, to restore balance to her mentality, Daisy made new discoveries.

Under water, she can breathe freely like a sea creature!

Such a new discovery made her excited, trying to turn her hands into fins and twist her feet into two webbed feet.

Just dive into the bottom of the sea, swimming with the fish to the far shore.

At this moment, Daisy, who was immersed in the new experience, did not notice that she was in the gloomy sea obliquely behind her.

A submarine in a silent state recorded everything that happened to her.

In the cockpit, Mark was recording what he saw: "The experimental subject has perfectly inherited the healing ability of the original gene, and the ability to deform is initially mastered. The emotions are on the verge of losing control. IQ...

Decline, so far the mastery of one's own abilities is still like a child, obsessed with revenge, unable to calmly think, stupid! "

"Thank you for the report, Captain Mark." The image of the girl appeared on the screen.

The ruthless corner of his mouth raised maliciously, and said provocatively: "In addition, I need to remind me that your performance at the time was not better than her!"

"Thank you." Mark's forehead had a tic-tac-toe.

Who set this * bad personality, really want to * the designer.

The initial freshness passed and Daisy began to feel irritable and hungry.

The stomach wall is like a fire. It is the gastric juice that is forcibly burning the mucous membrane.

"Damn capitalist, don't you even want to give it a nutrient solution?"

Angrily, Daisy looked at the school of fish wandering beside her, the red light in her eyes even better.

Hula~

The sky full of slender tentacles suddenly appeared, piercing the school of fish swimming beside him as fast as lightning.

The school of fish that did not know what happened, disappeared within 0.5 seconds.

There are only a few small scales that fell off when the body was pierced, which lit up in the weak light.

Hungry~

Daisy who killed the school of fish and turned it into nutrients was even hungry.

Hunger stimulates the instinct of hunting, her smell is strengthened, and a picture appears in her mind.

A fan-shaped arc summed up the sea area one kilometer ahead, and any slight fluctuations in the current could not escape her eyes. '

The turbulent fluctuations represent delicious food and can provide her with fresh protein.

Huh~

Cutting the water in front of her like an arrow, Daisy seemed to become a swordfish and swept forward silently.

At this moment, the cruising marine creatures do not yet know.

A cruel hunter at the top of the food chain has quietly attacked them.

A tiger shark is swinging its body arbitrarily and swimming forward leisurely. After eating and drinking, it is planning to find a comfortable place to take a walk and digest.

The dangerous breath suddenly coming from behind made the tiger shark more vigilant, its tail fin swung and turned around, intending to see which little thing dared to provoke itself.

Then, countless silk threads penetrated the sea water and inserted into the tiger shark without warning.

The tiger shark covered with 'silk threads' looks like a strange sea hedgehog.

The strength disappeared little by little, and before the tiger shark struggled a few times, its body collapsed inward, dry and cracked.

The silk thread inserted into its body from all directions came out from the other end.

Then he turned his head and plunged into the epidermis again, cruising raging in his body.

These humble and dangerous threads consume all the nutrients and flesh and blood in the tiger shark's body.

A hundred meters away, Daisy stood in the water with her face full of enjoyment, drifting along with the flow of feeling the pleasure of being filled in her body.

She is finally full!

Continue to the destination, the fishes, shrimps and crabs, sea urchins, jellyfish, octopuses encountered on the way...

Everything she saw was turned into energy and poured into her body.

Until the treatment came back to the surface to observe the position and was swept by a group of pirates with AK, she was in a happy mood.

The bullet penetrated her body, and the pirates with their teeth and claws held up their weapons and screamed "Ao Ao Oh" to celebrate the harvest.

"That must be a mermaid, I saw it." Daisy's mood got worse when she heard the idiot voice above.

They actually think of themselves as a fish.

Perhaps it is time for you to understand the fear of the ocean and maintain your due respect for nature.

Dense thread gushes out, wrapping Daisy into a huge black plush.

Next, miserable wailing and roaring, accompanied by strange tears and gunfire sounded on the surface of the sea.

A few seconds later, the riot suddenly came!

Only a broken speedboat was sinking slowly, and the surrounding water was dyed scarlet, exuding a strong * atmosphere.

The stump and broken arm slowly drifted away as the waves of the sea washed up and down.

"Maintaining the bottom line of humanity in a state of out of control...evolution speeds up...suspected to love seafood???"

Pressing the last question mark, Mark raised his head and looked forward.

Daisy's figure has disappeared from sight, but he is not worried at all.

The experimental subject should have the consciousness of the experimental subject, no matter what, it is impossible to escape the control of the organization.

Looking at the beating green dots on the screen, Mark started the submarine forward again.

When Daisy finally arrived in Honolulu, she set foot on the beach to celebrate her return home.

For this, I feel grateful, happy, and enjoy the free and sweet air...

The Coast Guard surrounded her and shot her involuntarily!

Her body was pierced by the rain of bullets, and Daisy danced wildly like an electric doll, twitching and falling into the sea.

When the Coast Guard fired up half of the bullets and came forward to search for her body.

Only some rags with burnt marks were found, and the surging waves covered all evil and fear.

Awesome, they should be in awe!

After all these experiences, Daisy finally set foot on the land of Big Apple City, "Ah, this * freedom... The smog is really serious."

At this moment, an insignificant crack appeared in Daisy's firm belief.

Is this really what she thinks is a beautiful country of love and freedom?

"Hey, watch." The man in a hurry shouted to Daisy who was in the way.

The clothes were all ripped, wet and dusty, and Daisy, who was even more embarrassed than a tramp, stayed in place. UU reading www. uukanshu. com

Crazy killing intent raged in my mind, "Kill him, these lowly reptiles, they are only worthy to be trampled under the feet by the strong..."

"Tear his body, twist his neck, the miserable wailing is the most beautiful music in the world. Killing, joy, enjoyment, hahahahaha..."

Must do everything possible to suppress the killing intent in her mind, making Daisy's body tremble like epilepsy.

Pedestrians on the way dodge like avoiding the plague, leaving a small blank area around Daisy.

This change aroused the attention of the police. The two patrol officers put their hands on the holsters, carefully and cautiously dispelled passers-by, and approached Daisy step by step.

"Madam, are you having any trouble?"

"Hey, ma'am, please turn around!"

The holster opened, and the voices of the two police officers became tough: "Madam, please turn around immediately and let me see your hand."

"Madam, Oumai Karma!"

The flying black silk thread soared into the sky, swaying backwards and thrusting into the body of the patrolman.

The bodies of the two of them were lifted into the air by the slender silk thread, getting higher and higher...

"Ah~"

Amid the harsh screams, the crowd rushed around and the Big Apple City fell into a haze of fear again.

Chapter 948: Experimental field

"Husband, have you heard about the news that happened in Big Apple City?" Lu Qing, lying in Qin Yu's arms in Xiawa Village, mentioned the latest big news.

The insect girl of Big Apple City, the overwhelming black nematode swept the Fourth Avenue.

That scene is so miserable!

"You should be sympathetic, baby, although your smile looks beautiful."

Qin Yu couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Big Apple City, it's too miserable!

"Is everything going well in school?" Qin Yu asked about her current situation in school.

With the financial support of the Miracle Charity Fund, there is definitely no problem in funding, but it is not possible to run a school well with money.

There are only two teachers in the school, Lu Qing and a fresh graduate!

It's not that they haven't hired people, and many people have come.

It's just that people are coming and going as usual, and few people are willing to stay.

Lu Qing is skeptical of how long this new female college student can hold on.

She can understand how she is used to seeing the feasting and bustling of big cities, how can she be a support teacher here with peace of mind.

What's more, they are all small family members, who is not the darling of their parents in the palm of their hands!

It is difficult to adapt to the simple, unpretentious and boring pace of life in Xiawa Village without enough belief in the superior life from childhood.

It is easy to change from frugality to luxury, and it is difficult to change from luxury to frugality.

What reason or qualification does Lu Qing have to stand at the commanding heights of morality and accuse others of right or wrong in choosing the future?

"You are quite tolerant to others, but you always forget that you are the same." Qin Yu caressed her profile with pity.

Kind-hearted people will always use higher standards to demand themselves.

And smile at her...

But she is just an ordinary girl. She likes beautiful skirts, beautiful makeup, and goes shopping with friends, watching movies, singing K, and dancing.

Talking about the world, living in a beautiful big house, there are cars in and out.

Simple, fast and comfortable, enjoy the intelligent life belonging to the younger generation.

Now, facing the loess, she is exhausted every day, and even her complexion looks yellow. Does this make Qin Yu feel sorry for her?

"Actually, even if I am alone, it will be harder, but children can enter township schools as long as they pass elementary school.

Moreover, the population of the village is also exodus, and in a few years there may be no more children. "

Lu Qing's eyes are shining with a ray of hope, and she sincerely hopes that the children in the village will be better educated.

"You, you, or else let Miracle Charity give some subsidies and keep a few more people down."

Qin Yu had previously proposed that Miracle Charity provide cash subsidies to teachers who come to support teaching.

But Lu Qing was stopped, and her reason was also very good.

Subsidies can only change for a while. If you give less, you will not be able to attract people. If you give more, the nature will change.

Not only will it cause unnecessary troubles, disputes and comparisons, it will make the original unsophisticated environment misty.

It may even attract public attention and public opinion, and never overestimate the offline of online celebrities.

At that time, it will not affect one or two people, but the entire Xiawa Village and the children in the school.

Lu Qing didn't want the children to see all kinds of live broadcast equipment and overwhelming leading questions when they arrived at school!

"This has already been discussed."

Lu Qing said resolutely, resting his head on his chest again.

He whispered softly and softly: "As long as you can come and see me occasionally, you will be satisfied!"

The breathing gradually weakened and became smooth, and the tired Lu Qing fell asleep in his arms.

Giggle~

The * crowing made Lu Qing's consciousness regained.

Opened his eyes and stretched his arms comfortably, his eyes met Qin Yu's eyes.

"You, haven't you slept all night?"

Seeing his wide-eyed innocent look, Lu Qing asked with a smile and distress.

"What are you suspecting?"

Qin Yu pointed at her and vomited: "This way, can I sleep?"

Looking down at her open neckline, Lu Qingqiao blushed and threw herself proud and helpless.

Gentle comforting said: "Well, I was wrong. Yesterday was too tired. How about I make it up to you tonight... In the afternoon, how about the afternoon break?"

Seeing her acting pitifully, Qin Yu rubbed her head and said amusedly: "I'm kidding you, I'm going back to the company to take part in the test flight tonight."

"Ah, I forgot all about it. I really want to watch the spacecraft take off." Lu Qing muttered, disappointed.

"October, I will let the car come to pick you up. I will stay in the hotel for two days first." Qin Yu stretched out his hand and grabbed it with a smirk.

Um~

Soft, moist, and familiar feeling!

Amidst the laughter, Qin Yu drove away before the children arrived at school.

After getting acquainted with the little guys, every time I meet, I have to make jokes about the relationship between the two.

Once or twice, Lu Qing stopped letting Qin Yu appear in front of the children.

If this continues, how majestic is Teacher Lu?

Returning to the company, it was lunch time, but the dining hall was quiet, and the atmosphere was slightly heavy and depressing.

"Head, do we want to do the self-inspection again?" The engineer sitting next to Zhang Wei said softly.

"It's been four times, if you really want to see the problem earlier, can you give yourself some confidence?"

Zhang Wei said with a smile.

At this time, he was also nervous. It was the first test flight in the afternoon. Which of the companies would dare not be nervous.

Other departments are paying attention to the test flight experiment of Vulcan today.

Not to mention their makers and participants...

"It's not the first time, as Zhang Gong said, let's have more confidence."

Some people pretend to be relaxed.

"Yes, the last time that ship was not passed by once."

"Eh~ You don't want this mentality, no matter how many times you succeed.

Every time it is a new attempt, it must be foolproof. "

"Yes, yes, Li Gong is right."

"Haha, you have been taught! Let your boy scream."

"Well, hurry up, and we will have another meeting before the test flight. The departments will meet for the last time to see if there is anything missing."

"Well, every time there is more pairing, the more peace of mind will be."

Everyone suppressed their smiles and went all out to cook their food.

When the greeting of "Dong Qin, Teacher Qin" rang in the canteen, he raised his head and looked at the door.

"The boss is here." Zhang Weiren had already stood up when his colleague reminded him.

"boss."

Zhang Wei waved his hand and smiled: "I think you should be there too."

"Well, sit and eat." Qin Yu pressed his hand down, and went to the table to grab the dinner plate.

Everyone was surprised at this. Qin Yu would often come to the cafeteria to have a meal. At the beginning, he was nervous, but later he got used to it.

"Any noodles? Give me two bowls."

Putting the dinner plate aside, Qin Yu ordered two bowls of bashful noodle soup and brought them to Zhang Wei's table.

"Boss, sit here." Li Gong beside him moved out.

"thanks."

Sitting down next to Zhang Wei, Qin Yu grabbed the chopsticks and noodles while eating and said, "How are you doing, are you all ready?"

"Well, we are saying that after we have eaten, we will have another meeting to make sure there is nothing wrong." Zhang Wei responded.

"Well, this kind of rigor must be maintained, and we must be free from arrogance and discouragement at all times."

Qin Yu said with approval.

"The boss is right." Zhang Wei nodded repeatedly.

"Okay, let's eat! I'll listen to the meeting later."

After dinner, the company's large conference room was prepared in advance, and Qin Yu and Zhang Wei walked into the room together.

Behind them are the heads of various departments, filed in, looking for a seat by themselves.

"Well, everyone is here, let's check a pair of data first."

Zhang Wei sitting in the center of the conference table opened the folder in front of him.

"It's from the general control side to start first." Zhang Wei called by name.

"Okay, everyone, please look, Kylin..."

A holographic projection appeared in the middle of the meeting room, perfectly presenting the situation of the spacecraft in front of everyone.

During the time that the master control explained, Qin Yu was also observing the detailed structure of the spacecraft through projection.

He is most concerned about the two points, one is the power cabin and the other is the welding point.

In terms of system and general control, there are other people and Kylin responsible for checking, so he does not need to pay too much attention.

On the contrary, these two places must be extra cautious.

In the event of an accident, it would take the initiative to send the lives of hundreds of people to the hands of Lord Yan.

The meeting progressed very quickly, and all data and self-checks were normal.

A group of people came to the take-off observation platform and looked at the two giants with a total length of 213 meters in front.

"The one painted with red stripes on the west is the Suiren, with bonfire spray signs symbolizing civilization on both sides.

To the east is the Immigration, and the oval bulge in front is the launch port of the super-heavy orbital gun. "

"Is the location of the weapon test set?" Qin Yu asked, looking at the immigration ship with a cylindrical head more than the Sui Ren.

"It's fixed. When the spacecraft returns, it will orbit Mars and arrive at the back of the planet to conduct an attack test in deep space." Zhang Wei responded.

"No real target?" Qin Yu frowned. UU reading www. uukanshu. com

"For the sake of confidentiality, we think it is safer to use virtual targets for the first test!"

Zhang Wei is worried that foreign astronomical institutions or private enthusiasts will discover the powerful war potential of the Immigration.

In fact, Zhang Wei's decision is also related to Qin Yu.

He has always explained that we must proceed with caution and keep a low profile.

Weakened the threatening power of Vulcan in the eyes of the public.

Define the company as a profitable organization that develops civilian spacecraft, not a manufacturing plant for the space fleet.

If this is aimed at a certain planet, or ran into the asteroid belt and fired randomly.

That also hides a fart! !

"The super-heavy railgun is independently developed by the company and must be tested in actual combat."

Qin Yu's eyebrows locked tightly and opened the star map projection, looking for a suitable target while turning.

In the solar system, the farthest planet from the earth is Pluto.

And it happened to be despised by the astronomical world, and was ruthlessly removed. Astronomers and observing agencies no longer focused on it.

Isn't this a ready-made test ground for Vulcan?

"That's it." Qin Yu stretched his hand forward.

The hovering star map instantly zoomed in, and a gray-brown planet froze at the fingertips.

Chapter 949: Carnivorism in action

"The Flintlock makes its first test flight, and the countdown is 5 minutes!"

In the auditorium of the control center, Bai Ze couldn't help clenching his fists, looking excited and restrained at the spaceship picture on the big screen.

The bonfires burning on both sides represent the origin of civilization!

It also symbolizes the mission purpose of the Suiren, to explore and find unknown civilizations in the universe.

With him, there were several flagpoles wearing casual clothes and looking cold.

Sitting in a precarious position, with both hands clenched into fists, placed straight on the knees, legs facing each other, and one toe pointed.

It looks more like a machine than a robot, and the waist is even more straight.

There are also a few bookworms with heavy eyes, their expressions are enthusiastically pasted on the glass partition, and their eyes are piercing and watching various data flashing by on the console.

Regarding the origin of these people, Bai Ze did not say, Qin Yu did not ask!

Both sides have maintained their due tacit understanding...

"Countdown for 1 minute."

The atmosphere became more tense, and everyone's expressions were inexplicably solemn.

Outsiders, Internet celebrities and tourists who came to visit this test flight surrounded the company's surroundings.

Several trucks were also blocked outside. In the end, the company's security guards showed up to guide them, and then they drove slowly to the factory from the crowd.

"A countdown of 30 seconds... a countdown of 20 seconds..."

"The countdown is 10 seconds, 10, 9, 8..."

Outside, the neat shouts and the broadcast converged into the same shout: "3, 2, 1, light up."

Hum~

The six plasma jets distributed in a circular shape released powerful power, and in everyone's attention, the huge hull rose into the sky.

"Oh~" The scene was plunged into joy, and the waving flag formed a red ocean.

In the control room, cheers and warm applause also sounded.

All the participants, except for monitoring and communication, stood up and applauded, venting their excitement and pride with applause.

If the ignition is successful, then as long as the test flight is completed, the test will be half completed.

The other half naturally depends on the 'Immigration Number. '

Compared with the Flintlock, which took off first, the Immigration was different from its previous specifications.

The extra superstar barrels under the cockpit of the bow are still full of deterrence even after camouflage, and the dark metal luster exudes a dangerous warning atmosphere.

Bai Ze had also asked before, why there was an extra hammer under the immigration number.

Qin Yu's explanation is that "in order to prevent the collision of space junk and meteorite equipment, this equipment is also tested for the first time!"

As for whether Bai Ze believes it or not, it's not about Guan Yu.

"Immigration made its first test flight, with a five-minute countdown."

When the Suiren broke through the atmosphere and entered a predetermined orbit, the Immigration flight test mission officially entered the countdown stage.

"The communication is normal, the radar signal is normal, the system self-check procedure is correct, and it is ready."

"Immigration is ready, there is a 1 minute countdown to take off..."

"Countdown to 30 seconds..."

The neat and loud countdown sounded again, and the torn voice became hoarse, but it still couldn't stop the public's enthusiasm.

When the immigration number took off smoothly, before TV, tablet, mobile phone, phone watch.

Regardless of men, women and children, the whole people are caring!

Far across the ocean, watching the test flight, the beautiful wailing voices are everywhere, "Damn it, has God forgotten his people?"

"Oumaika, who can save the bald eagle!"

"I seem to have seen the flag of liberty fall from the goddess. We need to fight."

"We have the most powerful fleet in the world, and it's time to teach them some lessons."

Xia Yi was angry when he saw these remarks and wanted to fight back.

The page refreshed, and the complaints from the Bald Eagle's own family drowned the previous NT comments in the vast ocean.

"Fleet, are you referring to those targets?"

"Haha, the stupid pig upstairs made me understand why some people think that the bald eagle is a foolish stupid, because your head is full of shit!"

"Cooperation is the only way out. You are pulling the bald eagle into hell."

"My God, I don't want to fight against Daxia who can travel in space. They are the best hiding people in the world. Who knows what else they are hiding?"

"Haha, idiots, have you forgotten the lesson on the moon, a group of stupid pigs, why do we let such pigs lead the country?"

"Because of the existence of these idiots, the bald eagle will decline, silly beep beep, beep beep, FK, go to hell!"

Seeing these two-sided comments, someone thought about it and forwarded the screenshot back to China.

At this moment, the control room is still celebrating the complete success of this test flight and discussing where to hold the celebration banquet.

Busy for so long, before the official mission.

It should also allow everyone's tense nerves to relax appropriately.

If you continue to fill it up, sooner or later you have to break it!

On the Internet, in just a few minutes, cut images spread and spread like a virus.

Within an hour, almost everyone saw this screenshot through various channels.

New media and mainstream media have also hung up screenshots and made connotative comments on the matter.

The continued fermentation of the incident reached a climax after the diplomatic delegation collectively liked and reposted it.

As for what you said, please make up your own mind!

For one week in a row, news about bald eagles was inexplicably sent to hot searches, even the news that a cow on a certain farm gave birth to seven cows.

Outrageous!

"Brother Yu, the online discussion about when the bald eagle will split is very lively, and it is more lively than the New Year, have you watched it?"

Holding the tablet in his hand, Xu Hao lowered his head and slid the news to open the door.

"Do I look idle?" Qin Yu raised his head and said.

Xu Hao raised his head and glanced, turned off the tablet and sat down, jokingly said: "It's really not normal for you recently. When have you been so dedicated?"

Qin Yu glanced at him and said, "I think some people are very leisurely. I should consider sending him the next time the planet opens up."

"Ah, I have always said that the most dedicated person in the company is the boss, so let the people below take a good look at what it means to be dedicated."

Xu Hao waved his finger outwards, and said seriously: "I should let them all come to see and learn."

Putting down the pen in his hand, Qin Yu asked with satisfaction: "Let's talk about it, what's the matter?"

"Brother is here, and I'm arguing that I will make arrangements at night. You shouldn't do this." Xu Hao looked at him innocently.

I am a wage earner and a tool man.

Let the ready-made capitalists do not exploit them, to exploit their own tools, what about their conscience?

Doesn't it hurt? ?

"Oh, when will it arrive?" Qin Yuxin said that Li Xiao's coming this time must have some good news.

Has the land in Lingang been approved?

It should be so right, otherwise his busy feet will not touch the ground, and wherever there is any waste, he will come to him and Xu Hao to open the meat.

The brothers are all carnivores, and when a few people get together, of course they have to whole meat dishes.

Being vegetarian is not the style of Brother Yu!

"Since the little brother said it, I'll leave it to you." Qin Yu slapped his butt, got up and said, "I'll take a nap first, and call me at the end."

"Brother Yu, Brother Yu, did you tell me where to decide?" Xu Hao wanted to cry as he walked into the suite and closed the door.

He has been busy with work for the past two years, and occasional social gatherings are not suitable for small gatherings with his brothers.

Playing too wild, none of them are clean.

Suddenly let him come to support the market, Brother Hao is so tired!

"By the way, I almost forgot, isn't there a ready-made one?" Xu Hao took out his cell phone, and it took a long time to find the number he hadn't called in a long time.

"Hey, Xiaojie, it's me, your brother Hao..."

At ten o'clock in the evening, Qin Yu drove open-top Rafa and appeared in front of the door with Xu Hao.

All kinds of luxury cars are parked in the alleys, young men and women come and go, and they feel the fiery atmosphere before they even enter the door.

"Shao Qin." Xiaojie, who was waiting at the door punctually, saw Qin Yu and Xu Hao in Lafary at a glance.

"Brother Hao, Shao Qin... The car parks here. I have reserved parking spaces for two people." Xiaojie pointed to the lane in front of him.

There is a single space at the corner, which is pulled by a spacer.

"Thanks!" Qin Yu nodded and turned to park the car in the empty space.

When the two came out, Xiaojie pulled up the isolation belt again, said hello to the security, and then led them inside.

"Are you switching here now, or are you playing?" Xu Hao asked casually.

"Where Qin Shao and Brother Hao are, where I am, it all depends on the arrangements of the brothers." Xiaojie nodded and replied with a smile.

"You kid!" Xu Hao patted him on the shoulder, realizing that he was a stubborn talent.

"Brother, are you satisfied with the location?" Leading the two to the deck next to the stage, Xiaojie explained: "Knowing that you don't like being too crowded, this location is the best place to see and the performance is the most enjoyable, away from the outside. The girls are not far and near, so it's very convenient."

"Well, that's it." Seeing that Qin Yu had no objection, Xu Hao nodded and sat down.

"How to arrange today?"

Xiaojie took out the phone and put it in front of Xu Hao and whispered, "I have a group of girls who just came out to play, what do you think?"

Xu Hao glanced twice and said in amazement: "Oh, you are quite alive. Look at this profession.

Flight attendants, white-collar workers, white-collar workers, dance teachers, announcers, and art students at school.

His resource is kind of interesting!

"Brother Yu, take a look." Xu Hao leaned close to Qin Yu, intending to open his eyes.

"Is my little brother here?" Qin Yu asked after taking the phone.

"Let me ask, you watch first." Xu Hao said.

After flipping it a few times, Qin Yu found that there was nothing interesting, so he returned the phone to Xiaojie: "You look at the arrangement yourself."

Seeing that the eldest brother seemed dissatisfied, Xiaojie gritted his teeth and opened the work trumpet.

"Brother, take a look at these." Xiaojie put the phone in front of him and motioned for him to take a look.

There are all customers who have come to play, Xiaojie himself is not sure to be able to call it out, but he will not be able to do anything.

The big brothers haven't been here for a long time, he is worried in his heart!

Customers like Qin Yu and his entourage cannot be met casually.

This time Xiaojie did everything he could, and he must satisfy his eldest brother.

As long as Brother has something to say, if you say anything today, if you ask grandpa to tell grandma, Xiaojie has to call him.

If it doesn't work, I can only ask my old sister to support the scene.

Chapter 950:

"Sister, help, you have to save my brother!"

"No, what do you think of your sister? I really want to die by your filial piety. Is there such a trick to my own sister?"

"No, you should just come to play, can't young people make friends?"

"Don't go, if you say no, don't want to cheat me!"

"...I remember you told me last time that your male * is the boss of Miracle Company."

"Yes, what's the matter? What's wrong with you?"

"I'm talking about him!"

"What is him, let me tell you... Qin Yu is in your store, don't joke with me, otherwise I will be a deadly scissor, and the Tianling cover will be removed for you."

"Can I make a joke about this kind of thing?"

"Ten minutes, show me the person."

"I..."

There is no sound on the phone, and the other party has hung up.

In the booth, Qin Yu was fighting with Li Xiao, "Brother, we haven't had a drink for a while, don't say anything today, let's do three first!"

despair!

Without saying anything, Li Xiao slapped the wine glass on the table: Come on!

Clang Clang, do three in a row.

The Xu Hao people next to him are all looking silly, what's wrong with these two eldest brothers?

"Haha, satisfied." Li Xiao said happily, wiping the wine stains on his mouth.

"It's okay, I have to change three bottles next time." Qin Yu said inexplicably.

Xu Hao's eyes turned, thinking thoughtfully that there must be something in it...

"Actually, Wanxing himself did not let her family interfere, but it wasn't that I insisted on letting her be bullied."

As soon as he said this, Xu Hao understood everything psychologically.

The little conflict in the door of the natal house, my housework, "Miss Sister, it's full, let's drink another one!"

Xu Hao hugged the young lady beside him and continued the previous game.

Put a kind of fruit in your mouth first, and then put the wine in your mouth. After Hao drank it, he guessed what the taste was.

If you get it right, you can hehehehe...

It took a long time to indulge, and today Xu Hao completely let go.

Qin Yu and Li Xiao also revealed what happened before!

In fact, it is not a big deal, that is, when Li Wanxing took over the family business, some people were not convinced, and felt that she was a woman who could sit in such a high position.

Just because she is a direct line of the Li family, and her blood is noble?

Therefore, there is always someone who stumbles on her, and makes Li Wanxing tired of coping.

There are no major disturbances, and small problems continue.

It won't cause any major trouble, but it makes people tire of it and feel sick.

Li Wanxing refused to let Qin Yu interfere, and declined the help provided by the family, hoping to gain the respect of everyone by virtue of her own strength.

Therefore, it is really strange that this matter did not get Li Xiao's head.

Qin Yu just expressed his attitude to make them realize their dissatisfaction.

Sometimes a subtle attitude of a big man can make a huge difference in things.

Qin Yu didn't dare to say that after what happened today, it would make everyone afraid to target Li Wanxing again.

Use some infamous little tricks on her, to stumble, just to make her feel bad.

But at least, they will think more before doing these things.

Just for the sake of disgusting Li Wanxing, the picture is refreshing for a while.

Is it worth it to run the risk of Qin Yu's heart and settle accounts after Autumn?

Who would dare to assert that he wouldn't have the day to ask him.

The Miracle Group, from scratch in just over four years, has created one miracle after another.

From energy, to medicine, to space exploration, alien immigration.

Exoskeleton armor, intelligent AI...

This has yet to be considered, although there are internal rumors that the AI intelligence of the Miracle Group is simply more exaggerated than the movie.

But after all, it is just a rumor, and there is no substantive evidence from the outside world.

There has never been a relevant video or insider to confirm, so there is a question mark behind this achievement.

However, judging from the performance of the evil demon, even if it is not as exaggerated as the rumors, it is almost the same.

The smart assistant in "Ghost" is the best proof!

There are also many aspects of cooperation with the country. Although there is no news so far, sometimes no news is the best news.

The miracle really didn't make any contribution, and it was disqualified from the contractor's pilot project a long time ago.

Where else can the number of places be refilled? Think you are the VIP of the bad street?

As for why the conversation tonight was spread, Yu Ge blindly guessed that it was his eldest brother's drunk and careless gibberish.

Seeing the little brother also ran to play the game of passing notes with the little sister, Qin Yu sat there alone drinking, Xu Hao shouted to the outside: "Xiaojie, Xiaojie."

"Hey, brother, I'm here!" Xiaojie trot over.

"I said that the girl you found for Brother Yu? The wine is going to be empty, did you kid knock me money on purpose?" Xu Hao said jokingly.

Xiaojie waved his hand quickly, and said with a serious face: "How dare I, people will be here soon, a good girl who is very serious."

Seeing that he was hesitant to speak and stopped, with a worried expression, Xu Hao joked: "Why, I am familiar with you?"

"Uh, my sister." Xiaojie leaned over and whispered.

Xu Hao was all stupid, put down the wine glass, picked up the bottle, and pointed to the empty glass on the table.

Xiaojie picked up the cup and leaned forward, and Xu Hao filled it up for him himself: "Don't say anything. After you finish this cup, take another set."

"Okay, thank you Brother Hao for your care." Xiaojie raised his head and drew off quickly, and he left with interest.

"Brother Yu."

Xu Hao smiled and moved to Qin Yu's side, put his arm on his shoulder and said, "It looks like you want to buy this order tonight."

Qin Yu looked at him without saying a word, and clearly asked, "Why?"

"Do you know who Xiaojie's name is?"

Retelling it softly in his ear, Yu Ge's expression became more and more strange.

Sister, nonsense, right?

"Brother Yu, people are here." I was thinking that Xiaojie brought people.

The tall girl in the middle attracted his attention, a round-neck umbilical dress with a round neck, a pair of high-waisted jeans, and a pair of AJs on her feet.

Her long black hair is draped behind her, beautiful, simple and clean!

"Ah, then I won't bother."

Xiaojie turned around and squinted at his old sister, "I'm right below, calling me for something."

"Fuck off."

The disgusting expression instantly turned into a bright smile, and Meng Jiao Luo Luo walked towards Brother Yu generously: "Hello, my name is Meng Jiao, and my friends call me Jiaojiao."

Scan data:

Mengjiao:

Age: 25.

Height: 172cm.

Weight: 58kg.

Specialty: Girlfriend squats, electric hip master, one-second cross-dressing, workaholic.

Face value: 93-[face value 88] [temperament 93] [fortune 5]

Body: 88↑ 【Development potential *****】

Mood value: 80↑ 【Get excited】

Favorability: 79↑[As long as you speak, we have a story]

Freshness: 91-[Goddess of the workplace, thorny roses can also be delicate orchids]

"Qin Yu, sit down!" Brother Yu patted the empty seat beside him.

"This is my good girlfriend, Qianqian, Lele, Shao Qin doesn't mind if we are together?" Mengjiao asked.

"Sit as you like." Qin Yu pointed casually, showing a lack of interest in the two of them.

Mengjiao saw this scene in her eyes, faintly complacent in her heart.

Bringing a girlfriend is to set off her beauty, and her goal has been achieved.

"Qin Shao, I am actually a fan of you and I admire you very much."

After sitting down, Mengjiao was straight to the point, and she knew that she was coming at Qin Yu.

I admire him very much and regard him as his idol!

Men like to be admired and praised by women. In the past, in the company, she only had to show her little appreciation.

Men are like being beaten up, 996 is a kind of enjoyment.

I believe he will be no exception, not to mention that a beautiful woman like herself expresses her heart to him.

Mengjiao's thoughts were correct, as any man would especially enjoy the gaze of being worshipped by a woman.

Of course, this is under normal circumstances.

However, Brother Yu is not one of the norms. He is super handsome and has an exploding stature, which can make the rotten girl lick the screen every night, chanting the golden ratio of "husband, XX".

Plus the bonuses of wealth, achievement and temperament!

It is no exaggeration to say that when Brother Yu went to the wild card to hook his fingers, a group of girls were willing to open a room with him in the neighboring Motie.

The big guy is free white prostitution, and the * silk increases the price to kneel and lick.

It may not be licked, it is so realistic...

worship?

There are too many people who admire him, and there are too many to count.

Now that I'm here to play, it's over when I meet you frankly.

Why do you want to engage in cultism and want to continue to develop?

Five stars for development potential, which is a bit interesting.

The rest are barely reluctant, and there is nothing that makes Yu Ge's eyes bright!

Long-term development depends on her performance...

After all, there is already Xu Meixin who knows how to hold a 'white pillow' next to Brother Yu.

Breaking the rules, in exchange for all his illusions about the workplace are satisfied.

No, UU reading www. uukanshu.com should not be described as satisfaction alone.

It is far beyond his expectations, all the workplace roles that Yu Ge can think of, the temperament, performance, dialogue and clothing required.

No matter what kind of performance you need, Xu Meixin can handle it perfectly!

In the workplace, Xu Meixin is definitely a ceiling-level existence, which cannot be refuted.

"Drink one first."

Qin Yu smiled lightly and picked up the wine glass, turning his gaze to the stage while turning, showing her admiration in a flat manner.

This made Mengjiao a little discouraged, and she secretly recalled her previous performance, as if there was nothing abrupt.

"Shao Qin, can you tell me your story? I especially want to know how you founded the miracle company. Do you think I have a chance to go to work?"

Seeing Qin Yu frowned, Mengjiao's heart trembled suddenly.

Oops, you said the wrong thing?

She didn't know Qin Yu's rules, and naturally she didn't know where she was wrong.

On the contrary, I feel a little helpless, this man is too difficult to do!

Not only does he ignore his favors and charms, but his mind is also elusive.

Could it be that this is the so-called real boss, I love it!

Thinking of Qin Yu's net worth and the open-top Rafa parked outside in the VIP parking space, Mengjiao's past arrogance turned into gentle spring water.

Delicate and silently rushed towards Brother Yu, "Today, you are a piece of iron, and my old lady has also softened you."

For a moment, her body seemed to become a boneless animal, leaning softly to the man beside her, Mengjiao's voice was even sweeter and soft like honey.

"Shao Qin, you will be sad when you treat them like this."

Holding his hand on her chest, Mengjiao murmured: "If you don't believe me, touch it, people's heart is cold!"
