Chapter 123

Jack heard Gina's laugh. "To think that you can still laugh. Gina, die alone if you want to. Don't drag others down with you. Don't you understand that?"

"Also, Gabriel is so concerned about the fire in the school dormitory because the person who set the fire was targeting you, right? You're so young, but you've already made enemies who want to kill you. I don't think you're a good person either. Stop nagging. Hurry up and sign the withdrawal application form and send it to me."

"I won't sign it." Gina said calmly.

Jack was indignant. He felt that his authority had been challenged. Gina had already lost Gabriel's protection, so why was she still so arrogant?

"You! Fine, you sure are gutsy. Just wait to be expelled!"

Jack hung up the phone angrily.

Gina was about to put her phone down when it vibrated again. It was a message from Gabriel. "Gina, what are you doing now?"

Resting. I'm quite bored, Gina replied. "How about I get someone to bring you to the Jackson Group?" Gabriel saw that Gina had become notorious online and was worried that someone would dig out her address and find trouble with her. In the end, he added, "Ask Ruby to come over too. It's not convenient for you to go out these few days. Will it be too boring for you at home? Why don't you and Ruby come to my house for a few days?" Gina could not help but laugh. "You're worried that someone will find out where I live and cause trouble for me, right?" "Yes. "Don't worry, it won't happen. Some people tried to dig out her address, but Michael had already intercepted them. Therefore, although the netizens were scolding her fiercely, none of her personal information was leaked. "I'll be worried if I don't see you," Gabriel replied.. A strange feeling spread in Gina's heart. Gabriel sent another message. "Gina, can you not say things like you won't see me again in the future?" Gina paused for a moment before replying, "Sure, okay." "You must be very busy right now, right?" Gina asked. Because of her situation, Gabriel, being the person in charge of the Jackson Group, must be busy with the PR crisis and appeasing the shareholders. "Fortunately, I still have time to chat with you. If you're bored, I can chat with you anytime." Gina looked at his reply thoughtfully.

Suddenly, she became interested in Gabriel's usual life. 11:53 Fr, 24 Mayr Chapter 123 "Get someone to pick me up," she said. "You're coming to Jackson Group?" Gabriel asked, a little surprised. "Well, I haven't been there yet." "Okay, okay. I'll get David to pick you up." Gabriel was a little excited. Jasmine arrived at the Jackson Group. She got the secretary to inform Gabriel and sat in the guest room to wait. "Mr. Jackson, a lady wants to see you, the secretary reported when she arrived at the CEO's office. Gabriel thought that David had sent Gina here. He did not think too much about it or ask further. He got up and went to the guest room. Jas-Why are you here?" Gabriel strode into the guest room. When he saw that it was Jasmine, the gentle expression on his face disappeared and was replaced by his usual coldness. Jasmine was a little unhappy.

*"Then who did you think it was, Gabriel?" The disappointment in Gabriel's eyes pierced her heart. "Is something wrong?" Gabriel asked. He couldn't be bothered to answer Jasmine's question. "Gabriel, I came here today to have a good talk with you. You must have been bewitched by Gina before, right? "She pretended to be innocent and harmless, which made you have a good impression of her. Now her identity has been exposed. She's a vengeful person who dares to hurt her father. Gabriel, you didn't expect that, right? "She's not good enough for you, to begin with. Gabriel, you deserve better. Forget about that vicious woman. Don't ignore the fact that there are better choices around you." Jasmine was just short of saying that she was his best choice. Gabriel frowned impatiently. "Did you come all the way here just to tell me this nonsense?" Gabriel glanced at the secretary. "See her out!" The secretary nodded and gestured for her to leave. "Miss Bush, please leave." ed. "No!" Jasmine refused, "No!" Gabriel could not be bothered with her. He would let her stay here shamelessly if she wanted to. He did not care about her. Chapter 123 24 May She would leave when she was bored. He didn't chase Jasmine away because the Bush family was on good terms with the Jackson family. 90%1 He wouldn't be so polite if she wanted to push her luck and not know what was good for her. Gabriel was about to leave when Jasmine stepped forward angrily and grabbed his arm. "Gabriel, can you not be so cold to me? I don't understand. How am I inferior to Gina! Tell me, why do you like her but not me?" "Let go." Gabriel furrowed his brows. He did not have to explain too much to Jasmine. I don't want to!" In the midst of the pulling, David entered the guest room with Gina, Gina saw Jasmine hugging Gabriel's arm tightly the moment she arrived. When Jasmine saw Gina, she finally understood why Gabriel had a smile on his face when he first came to the guest room. She thought, 'So he thought that Gina was waiting to see him?' Jasmine gritted her teeth. She couldn't understand why Gabriel was looking forward to Gina's arrival even though she was a murderer. She was extremely indignant. She had an idea when she saw Gina's gaze land on the two of them. She hugged Gabriel's arm even tighter. She said proudly to Gina, "What are you doing here? Don't tell me you're in trouble and want to ask Gabriel to help you. Didn't you see the Jackson Group's announcement? You're a jinx and the s*m of society. Don't implicate Gabriel, the Jackson Group, or the Jackson family, okay? You'll pay for what you've done." Seeing how "close" they were, Gina felt like she had come at the wrong time. However, she was not angered by Jasmine. She ignored her. Instead, she looked up and said to Gabriel, "If you're busy, I won't disturb you anymore." With that, Gina turned around and prepared to leave. Gabriel had never felt so anxious before. He pushed Jasmine's hand away and roared, "Get lost!" Jasmine was shocked and instinctively let go. Gabriel's cold gaze was like a blade as he glared at Jasmine.*
