Chapter 126

He had become the common target.

At first, Neil still reasoned with the netizens nicely. However, by the end, he ignored them and started scolding them.

“Mr. Jackson, being angry is not good for your health. Miss Miller had instructed me to take care of you.”

Isaac did not dare to hand the phone to the old man. It was not a good idea to argue with the people online.

“I can’t stand it anymore. They’re badmouthing Gina. I don’t believe that she’s a murderer!”

“Neil, I’m afraid Gina will be letting you down,” a voice said.

Jasmine walked into the Jackson family’s backyard energetically.

Isaac’s expression darkened when he saw Jasmine, “Miss Bush, why did you come here uninvited?”

Jasmine could hear the hostility in Isaac’s voice. She thought, ‘How dare a st treat me like that? However, she didn’t care about that now. She glared at Isaac, then turned to look at Neil with a faint smile. “Neil, you and Gabriel were deceived by that bh. That sociopath fooled everyone.

“She’s not being framed. She’s the murderer. Her fingerprints are on the murder weapon. The police have already issued a warrant for her arrest. Her freedom has been restricted.”

“What did you say? Fingerprints?”

Neil found it unbelievable.

That’s right, Neil. You won’t be able to accept this fact for a while, right? It’s all Gina’s fault for being too good at acting before. She deceived you and Gabriel, but it’s okay. Now that the truth is out, Gina will receive the punishment she deserves!”

The more Jasmine spoke, the happier she became. She was also a little anxious. She couldn’t wait for Gina to be executed.

Neil’s expression turned ugly as he pondered. ‘Impossible... How is that possible?’

“Neil, what’s impossible? She’s a vicious woman. The death penalty is her best ending for her. Besides, she can’t produce any evidence to prove her innocence. Who else could have done it but her?”

Neil didn’t respond to Jasmine. He didn’t like what she said.

He felt a little suffocated.

Neil took a deep breath and interrupted Jasmine, who was gloating, “Stop talking.”

He then instructed, “Isaac, send her away!”

“Understood,” Isaac replied.

Jasmine immediately became anxious. She thought, ‘All of them want to chase me away!’

Chapter 126

She became angry and yelled, "Neil, why? Did I make you unhappy? Or did I say something wrong? But what I said is the truth. You don't still believe Gina, right?"

"I told you to stop talking- Neil suddenly coughed violently. Isaac quickly stepped forward and patted Neil's back. However, Neil did not recover. He even spat out a mouthful of blood.

Jasmine wanted to say something, but she was so shocked that she could not speak properly when she saw Neil coughing blood. "Neil, w-what's wrong?"

Isaac couldn't take it anymore. He shouted, "Miss Bush, hurry up and leave! Nothing good happens whenever you come! You don't have to make "kind" visits or so-called revelations as an excuse to make your presence known in front of the old man! Mr. Jackson is not in good health, to begin with. It wasn't easy for him to recover slightly, but you agitated him to this extent!"

Just what are you trying to do?" Isaac finally questioned.

Jasmine panicked, "I-It wasn't me! I didn't do it on purpose!"

"Neil, are you alright? I-I'll call you an ambulance immediately. I'll call the doctor!"

Jasmine looked like she was about to cry.

It was not that she cared about Neil's health, but she was worried that Neil would feel unwell whenever she appeared. She did not mean to provoke Neil. She did not expect things to develop like this.

She was also worried that Gabriel would blame her when he found out.

"I told you to leave. Can't you understand?" Isaac asked angrily,

Jasmine gulped. She didn't dare to be arrogant anymore. Fine, I'll leave. Neil, calm down. Don't get too agitated."

Jasmine turned around and left quickly.

Isaac glared at Jasmine's back and hurriedly went to get the medicine that Gina had made for the old man.

"Mr. Jackson, come, drink this slowly."

Isaac fed Neil the medicine, then asked, "Mr. Jackson, do you feel better?"

Neil nodded.

Isaac was worried. "Mr. Jackson, why don't we go to the hospital for a checkup?"

"It's okay. There's no need. Give me the phone," Neil said as he reached out his trembling hand.

"Mr. Jackson, what are you going to do? Isaac was a little worried and did not dare to give Neil the phone. Neil was already in such a state and should not be agitated further.

Neil took a deep breath. "I'm calling Gabriel

"Okay."

Isaac dialed the number and handed the phone to the old man.

The call connected.

Chapter 126

Gabriel's tone was exceptionally low. "Dad, what's wrong?"

"Gina was taken away by the police?" Neil asked.

Gabriel was silent for a moment. "Yes."

“Someone must have planted her fingerprints on the dagger to frame her. They have prepared well. Gabriel, I want you to find a way to prove Gina’s innocence no matter what. Do you understand?” Neil said firmly.

“I will,” Gabriel replied.

He was also very determined.

He would never let someone frame Gina

The next day.

Gina was brought to a meeting room.

Gina saw Olivia through the transparent glass window when she walked into the room.

Olivia could not hide the smile on her face no matter how hard she tried when she saw Gina wearing the prison uniform. She had a bright smile on her face.

Unfortunately, she could not see Gina being haggard and downtrodden, Gina still looked calm and composed even in the prison uniform.

Olivia thought, “Why is this bh so fearless? She’s about to die! Olivia could not understand. Gina sat down and spoke to Olivia. Olivia said, “Gina, I’m here to see you.” Gina looked at Olivia with a faint smile. “You’re still putting on an act.” Olivia’s expression immediately changed. “Gina, I’m showing you some respect. You’re about to be sentenced to death. I can’t be bothered to argue with someone who doesn’t have long to live.” She added contemptuously, “I’m the only person in the Miller family who cares about you and is here to visit you. Don’t be ungrateful!” She was trying to hurt Gina by saying no one cared about her. However, Gina was immune to it. She did not even bother to frown when she heard what Olivia said. “If you came here today just to tell me this nonsense, get lost. Don’t disturb my sleep, Gina said calmly. Olivia was shocked. She thought, ‘She has already been arrested and thrown into jail, but this bh can still sleep?’”
