Chapter 211

Neil said to Harry,

“Pass the phone to Gabriel.”

75%

Harry turned on the speaker. “Neil, now just say it.”

“Gabriel, I think this project can be carried out. I understand your concerns, but 11 try. Even if it fails, you won’t regret not trying”

Gabriel knew that his father wanted him to agree.

I think it can benefit the public. It’s worth at

Apart from the concerns that it might be a waste of effort and that the funds might be pocketed, Gabriel also found it quite feasible for the time being. As for the potential problems that he thought of, he would do his best to strengthen supervision to prevent them from happening.

“Okay, I agree. But I’ll follow the entire process.”

“That won’t do. Gabriel, you’re usually busy with work. I’ve already arranged for someone to be in charge of this project.” Harry suddenly smiled smugly. Search the (F)indNOVEL.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“Yourself?” Gabriel looked up at Harry. He knew that Harry did not want him to interfere in this project.

Harry shook his head. “I’ll let him in.”

The office door opened again and Ethan walked in. He walked up to Gabriel with a faint smile. “Uncle Gabriel.”

“He’s the person in charge of this project.” Harry pointed at Ethan. “Gabriel, you won’t have any objections, right? I think very highly of Ethan. He has a lot of potential, but he lacks the opportunity to show it off. Now, I want to give him this opportunity. You won't say no, right?"

Neil had yet to hang up. Gabriel knew that if he said no, Harry would mention his father again.

Gabriel looked indifferent. "I have no objections.

Ethan heaved a sigh of relief. "Thank you for giving me this opportunity. I will work hard and never let you down. Uncle Gabriel, I was muddle-headed when I bought the land from the Bush Group previously. It made things complicated. I have already reflected deeply on my mistakes. From now on, I will be more cautious."

Gabriel's expression did not change. "Alright."

Harry was very happy. Everything was going according to his expectations.

Gabriel said, "Dad, since this is a medical project, I think Gina can also participate."

As soon as Gabriel mentioned her name, they all got shocked. Harry's expression instantly turned dark. Gabriel never Gina whenever and wherever. Was he possessed?

Ethan resisted the urge to exclaim. Gabriel was probably infatuated now. He always saved all the good things for that woman. If she was involved in Jackson Group's business, it was even possible that she would swallow the whole company. Why did he not guard against her at all?

Ibrahim had a fake smile as if he did not care much about this matter.

On the other end of the line, Neil was naturally happy. "Alright, Gina is the director of Prover Hospital. Then we'll be at strong team."

Harry took a deep breath and closed his eyes.

He had calculated everything and even called Neil to force Gabriel to agree, but he had missed out that Neil was also on Gina's side.

Gabriel's lips curled into a faint smile. "Alright, I'll find some time to ask her opinion."

"Okay," Neil said.

"How about this? Take Gina home to have a talk with us. I have seen her in a long time!" Neil sighed. He wanted to see

Gina, but he lacked an excuse because she always had her own things to do.

"Okay," Gabriel replied.

Neil was very happy. "Then that's it."

After hanging up, Gabriel asked Harry, "Is there anything else?"

Harry looked displeased. "No more. He did not expect to be defeated by Gabriel again.

Harry was furious. He stood up and left. Gabriel did not say anything.

Ibrahim said politely. "Mr. Jackson, I should go. See you."

Ethan came back to his senses. "Uncle Gabriel, bye,"

The three of them left Gabriel's office one after another.

Harry and Ibrahim got into the car. Harry was furious, "I knew it He's so scheming. I thought that the plan was already foolproof, but I was still tricked by him. Gina will ruin our plan

Harry did not object just now to avoid Neil's suspicion.

Ibrahim seemed very calm. "Mr. Jackson, don't be angry. It's not a bad thing for Gina to be involved.

Harry said disdainfully, "Don't tell me you think Gina will be willing to do that kind of business with us?"

"Well, I don't think she'll agree. Ibrahim smiled nonchalantly.

"Then it's over. If she gets involved, our project will be ruined."

"No, not necessarily. Mr. Jackson, listen to me first. Before she knows the real purpose of our project, we can drag her down. So even if she doesn't want to leave, she has no choice but to compromise and cooperate. Isn't that good?"

Harry felt his words made sense. However, he hated Gina's guts, so his first reaction was to exclude her from it.

Harry took a deep breath and said, "Then, you can handle the rest."

Ibrahim nodded. "Okay"

"However, Mr. Jackson, you're not really going to give this project to Ethan, are you? Do you trust him?" Ibrahim prob Harry's attitude towards Ethan. To be honest, he did not think highly of Ethan. Furthermore, Ibrahim had never exped that Harry would invite this outsider in.

Harry sneered "He's just the person in charge on the surface. If he knows what kind of business we're doing, he'll probab be scared out of his wits. Even if I want to train him, he's not capable enough. He doesn't have the courage or ability. He's timid and obsessed with alcohol and women"

Ibrahim understood. "So Mr. Jackson, you want him to be a scapegoat?"

Harry was not angry that his thoughts were seen through. Instead, he smiled and said, "That's why I like to talk to smart people like you. He's the perfect scapegoat."

Ibrahim lowered his eyes. "Mr Jackson, you're far-sighted."

Harry sneered. "Are you trying to say that I'm ruthless enough?"

After all, Ethan was his blood relative, and even trusted him so much.

However, he had been deceived like a fool.

"Ruthlessness is the mark of a truly great man," Ibrahim flattered.

"I like what you're saying." Harry exclaimed.

"To be honest, compared to Ethan, I prefer Gabriel. But he can't be used by me. Harry's expression turned cold.

There was a knock on the window.

Harry looked up and saw Ethan standing outside the car.

"Ethan, what's wrong?"

"I just feel that I should thank you in person. Without your trust and promotion, perhaps I can only live in the shadow of Gabriel for the rest of my life" Ethan said gratefully.

When Ibrahim heard Ethan's words, he almost could not hold back his laughter.

Harry looked at Ethan with a gratified expression. "I think highly of you in your generation. Gabriel is your uncle. His excellence is the history of his generation. The future of Jackson Group should still be in the hands of younger and more energetic people.

"And that's you."

Ethan was extremely touched. "I will definitely live up to your expectations!"

"Okay, that's fine, take it easy." Harry comforted this young man casually. "We still have something to deal with. Let's talk next time."

"Okay. See you."

At the café, Mason looked nervously at Olivia sitting opposite. "Olivia, you said that you wanted to talk to me about something. What's the matter?"

"Mason, you said you've always liked me. Is that true?"

“Of course, it’s true, Olivia. I’ve been into you for a long time. However, there see me. Mason said disappointedly.

Olivia sighed. “That’s all in the past. I’m down and out now. Nobody wants me

Mason was a little confused. “Didn’t you say that you have a new boyfriend recently?”

Olivia originally wanted to do some sadfishing first, but even she had forgotten about this. She hurriedly changed her “Yes, but I also said that I wanted to break up with him. He treats me badly and hits me.”

The timidity in Mason’s personality rose again.

He really didn’t dare to say he would help her. “Then, then did you say you wanted to break up? Will he be angry and h again? If he hits you, call the police.”

I did He agreed. He said that he was sick of me a long time ago. Mason, I have no one to rely on now. I’m really lonely an in pain. Are you willing to be my support?

Mason was excited. “Of course I’m willing Then, Olivia, do you want me to be your boyfriend?”

“Yes, I do” Olivia nodded firmly

Mason felt like he was about to walk in the air. “That’s great!”

Mason excitedly got up from his seat and hugged Olivia. “Olivia do you know how long I’ve been waiting for this day!”

When she smelled the sweat on Mason’s body, Olivia felt disgusted and almost vomited.

She suppressed her discomfort. “So, are you accepting me as your girlfriend?”

“Of course!” Mason was especially excited.

Olivia heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Mason was brainless and easy to fool, and he was also a spineless coward. She knew that when something really happened, Mason would cringe and run. He was even more unreliable than Ethan.

However, she did not want to rely on Mason. Instead, she wanted Mason to be silent forever in fear that Gina would find out that he had helped buy poison.

“Olivia. Then, do you want to move out of the house you rented before? Could you live with me?” Mason asked in Olivia almost rolled her eyes but she held it back. She knew that these da*n men’s head was full of these nasty garbage.

“It’s too soon. I don’t want to yet.”

“Alright, alright. I can wait.” In order to show that he truly loved and respected Olivia, Mason compromised.

“Mason, you’re my boyfriend now. When I’m in trouble, will you help me?” Olivia resisted the nausea and snuggled into Mason’s arms.

Mason’s heart skipped a beat. He asked uneasily, “What trouble?”

L

Before Olivia could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by Mason. “Olivia, if you’re talking about that Gina bullies you,, I’m sorry. There is nothing I can do. I admit that I’m not capable Gina has power and influence. I can’t compete.

“I don’t mean that I can’t handle it alone. Even if it’s Ethan, he can’t do anything to Gina, right?”

Olivia originally wanted to praise Mason. At the very least, he admitted his timidity. But he even slandered Ethan again to show that he was not that bad.

“Then what’s wrong?”

“I need money.”

Mason breathed a sigh of relief. "How much do you need?"

"40 thousand dollars."

"40 thousand dollars!"

Mason was shocked. It was a huge figure to him. He could not fork out so much money in a short period of time.

Mason's troubled expression made Olivia frustrated. Now, she had to depend on a man who could not even take out 40 thousand dollars. This was all Gina Miller's fault. One day, she would return the pain she suffered thousands of times to Gina

"You can't? It's fine. I'll think of some other ways myself," Olivia said considerately. "Or I'll find someone else who can help Mason immediately panicked. He did not want to be looked down upon by Olivia. "What do you need 40 thousand dollars.

for?"

Gina Miller said, "I offended the judge of the National Higher Education Design League Contest. He sued me for violating his reputation. I lost the lawsuit, so I have to compensate him for the damages. I also need to pay for the court costs."

Mason was even more puzzled. "Why did you offend the judge?"

Olivia explained, "Because that judge had a good relationship with Gina. After he found out that Gina had a grudge against me, we got into an argument. I did say something unpleasant, but he recorded it and reported it to the court. That's what happened."

Mason did not doubt the authenticity of Olivia's words and immediately believed her. He could not help but scold, "Gina is really a b*tch. She's a nasty bully!"

Chapter 213

Olivia cried even harder. With pitiful tears shining in her eyes, she touched Mason's chest. "If you can't help me, I won't blame you. Because I know that you have me in your heart. I know you want to help me but you aren't capable enough. It's okay. I'll think of a way to get this money myself"

Mason was instantly energized by Olivia's words. "Olivia, I'm your boyfriend now. I have to go through difficulties with you. I'll get money for you. I can borrow a loan."

Olivia was extremely disappointed. His heroic words were actually about borrowing a loan.

After talking for so long. Olivia finally got to the point. "Actually, there's no need to get a loan. I have a way to make money. but I don't know if you're willing."

"What is it?" Mason was a little curious.

"Selling blood.

"What?" Mason was puzzled. "It probably won't sell for much, right?"

"I have connections. Besides, it's a private hospital that needs blood. If it's of good quality, the price is considerable. I'm planning to sell some myself, but it's not enough for me alone."

"Then, where can we sell it?" Mason sincerely wanted to help Olivia.

I'll take you there."

Olivia brought Mason to a private hospital called Azure Hospital

“It seems to have been opened recently, right? I’ve never heard of it before.”

On the way here, Olivia contacted the blond man.

She brought Mason to his office. Opening the door, Olivia saw the blond man wearing a mask that covered most of his face She thought that she would be able to see his true face this time. She was indeed curious about his appearance, but he had never shown it to anyone. She did not force him. After all, the more she knew, the more dangerous she would be. She knew that curiosity was fatal.

According to their plan, Olivia said, “Dr. Jacquard, I’ve brought ray boyfriend to donate blood.” SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Dr. Jacquard’s gaze fell on Mason. This was the supply that Olivia had mentioned.

Dr. Jacquard smiled kindly. “Hello.”

“Hello” Mason was still a little confused. “Dr. Jacquard, are you a foreigner?”

“Yes, I am.”

Dr. Jacquard cut to the chase. “Do you smoke and drink?”

“Already quit

Previously, when he was with Ethan, Mason spent all his time fooling around to act cool. However, it was also because Ethan would foot the bill. But now that he had left Ethan, he had nothing in his pocket. He would save as much as he could.

“Already quit? So you used to smoke and drink. But it doesn’t matter. It’s a good thing now,” Dr. Jacquard said.

A bad diet would affect his organs. He asked this because he wanted to see if his organs were of good quality.

“Dr. Jacquard, how much is the price?”

Dr. Jacquard smiled. “Be patient. First, I need to draw some of your blood to test it and see the type and quality.”

Dr. Jacquard glanced at Olivia. “You guys can draw blood together”

Olivia was surprised. Why did she have to do it too? Then she remembered that she had told Mason that they were selling blood together. In order not to make him suspicious, Olivia braced herself and said, “Okay”

The two of them went for a blood test.

After the test results were out, Dr. Jacquard announced in surprise, “Mr. Greene, you have Rh-negative blood. It’s a rare type”

Mason had never undergone a physical examination and did not know his blood type. When he heard this, he was very happy because he finally had something special. “Is that so?”

“Yes, and the quality of your blood is quite good. We can give you a good price.”

Mason was skeptical.

He felt that no matter how high the quality of the blood was, it would at most be sold for hundreds of dollars at most. He asked, “Then how much is my blood?”

Dr. Jacquard directly gave a number. “If it’s 1,000 cc, I can give you twenty thousand dollars.”

Mason was shocked by this price. Although 1,000 cc was already a lot, wasn’t it too much of a fantasy to give him twenty thousand dollars? He felt that this was simply a lie. He glanced at Olivia and asked in a low voice, ‘Olivia, are you sure this hospital is reliable? Is this price really possible?’

Olivia looked at Dr. Jacquard for help.

“Mr. Greene, don’t misunderstand me. It’s not enough to just donate 1,000 cc for once. From now on, you have to be our hospital’s exclusive blood donor. In the future, if we need your blood, you have to come over and provide it in time. This 20 thousand dollars can be said to be the cost of our cooperation.”

Mason finally understood. It turned out that the 20 thousand dollars tied him to this hospital. In other words, he was going to become this hospital's mobile blood bank.

Then Mason did not think that the 20 thousand dollars was enough. He said worriedly. "If you draw 1,000 cc every wouldn't I die? I'm afraid it's going to kill me."

Dr. Jacquard was amused and said, "Mr. Greene, what are you talking about? We're a proper hospital. Why would we kill money? Of course, it will affect your body. But didn't say that I want 1,000 cc every time.

"This is the first time, we'll draw a little less. What about 400 cc? We still need your support in the future. Of course, we h that you can recuperate well and become a stale blood source. We will also send you some supplements regularly."

"Could it be less? My boyfriend might not be in good health," Olivia said provocatively.

As expected, Mason was anxious. "Olivia, I'm healthy. How can 400 cc be too much for me? 400 cc, so let it be. But since you want me to supply blood to your hospital for a long time, I have request."

"Please go ahead," Dr. Jacquard said with a fake smile.

Mason quite ambitious this time. Olivia was gratified. It seemed that he was not that bad.

Dr. Jacquard glanced at Olivia. She looked at him pleadingly and continued, "Dr. Jacquard. I can also be a long-term blood donor. Just give my boyfriend 40 thousand dollars. We need money urgently. You can understand our difficulties, right?"

Dr. Jacquard smiled. "But, Miss Miller, you have normal type A blood. You're not worth an additional 20 thousand dollars, right?"

Olivia was worried. She did not expect Dr. Jacquard to be so tough to deal with even though he was cooperating with her.

At this moment, Mason's brain was especially sharp. He immediately pulled Olivia and walked to leave. "Since we can't reach an agreement, forget it. It's over now."

Dr. Jacquard raised his eyebrows in surprise. "Wait, 40 thousand dollars. Alright, I agree."

Mason stopped in his tracks and heaved a sigh of relief. He pretended to be very determined and said, "Alright, it's settled then."

Dr. Jacquard gave a half-smile. "Mr. Greene, we're signing a contract to guarantee our legal rights and interests. Please follow me,"

Olivia wanted to follow, but she was stopped.

Dr. Jacquard said, "Ms. Miller, please wait. It's not your turn yet.

Five minutes later, Mason and Dr. Jacquard returned from the room next door.

Dr. Jacquard said, "Alright, the two of you can go for blood collection now."

Mason and Olivia both donated 400 cc.

After that, Olivia entered the next room with Dr. Jacquard in the name of signing the contract.

"How could you really draw my blood?"

"Your blood is also useful," Dr. Jacquard said casually.

Olivia thought that Dr. Jacquard meant to take her blood to the blood bank.

“How long will it take for the match results to come out? When will someone buy his organs?”

“The match results won’t take long, but the buyer also needs to compare the quality of the organs. So even if the match successful, the other party doesn’t necessarily need Mason’s organ.”

Olivia was shocked. She could not imagine how rich and powerful the buyer was. He could even choose any organ he wanted. She did not dare to imagine how huge the organization behind Dr. Jacquard was

She swallowed in fear and asked, “Does anyone need vocal cords

Dr. Jacquard understood. “So, you’re hoping that I’ll help you silence him? Donating his organs was a cover from the beginning, right?”

Olivia felt guilty after being exposed She asked. “Kill two birds with one stone. Is it not good?”

Dr. Jacquard smiled. “I don’t know yet what organ the buyers need. Even if the organ is taken, he might not die. So your plan will fail. If you want to shut him up, making him unable to speak is not enough. He has to lose the ability to tell the truth.”

Olivia felt like she had been enlightened. She lowered her eyes and fell into deep thought.

Dr. Jacquard reminded her again. “Don’t forget that he’s for sale now. His organs can’t be damaged. Otherwise, you’ll have to

Olivia gulped. “Alright.”

She had another doubt. “Are you just using my blood as a backup?”

Dr. Jacquard did not lie to her. “No, you have to do a match too.

Olivia instantly panicked. “What did you say? Do you even want to sell my organs? Then why would I sell my life to you? You liar!

“Take it easy. I’m only doing this to make sure you don’t betray us. I’ve also done a match. It’s been more than 20 years, but I’m still alive and well, right?” Dr. Jacquard said casually.

“More than 20 years?” Olivia was surprised. “How old are you?”

“What?” Olivia could not believe her ears. Although she had never seen Dr. Jacquard’s face, from his exposed skin, she could tell that he really looked very young. No one would doubt that he was in his carly thirties.

Olivia even wanted to ask for advice to maintain her youth.

“I won’t betray you, but what you’re doing makes me worry about my safety.”

Dr. Jacquard was impatient. “Do you think you can resist us if I really want your organs? I can just knock you out anytime. Don’t argue with me. It’s a waste of time. If you really want to take revenge on Gina, you should work harder and serve me.”

“This 40 thousand dollars is considered a loan to you before Mason’s organs are bought. If you want to terminate the collaboration, I won’t force you to stay.” Dr. Jacquard’s eyes darkened.

Olivia was not st*pid. She knew very well that the moment she agreed to join him, there was no turning back.

What could be terminated was not their cooperation, but her life

“You did the right thing,” Dr. Jacquard said lightly.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave first,” Olivia said calmly.

“Alright, the money will be transferred to your card later.”

Before Olivia left, she added, “Gina already knows about your existence. She knows that you’re a man with blond hair. Aren’t you going to hide it?”

Dr. Jacquard said calmly, ‘It’s just a hair color. It’s fine.’”

Olivia did not say anything else and turned to leave.

Mason was waiting for her outside the door. ‘Olivia, why did you take so long?’

“I had a chat with Dr. Jacquard.” Olivia said calmly.

Mason felt uneasy. “You don’t tell me you’ve taken a fancy to him? Or does he like you?”

It was natural for Mason to overthink when his girlfriend was staying alone with a man in a room.

He had just become Olivia’s boyfriend and felt a strong sense of crisis.

When Olivia heard this, she was a little angry. What are you thinking about: Do you know how old he is? 54! Why would I like an old man?”

When Mason heard that Dr. Jacquard was already 34 years old, he immediately felt relieved.

He hurriedly apologized to Olivia Tm sorry. I’m so sorry, dear. I’m just paranoid”

Olivia decided not to be angry with this idiot since he had no idea that he had already been deceived. “Dr. Jacquard said that the hospital’s blood supply is inadequate. He asked me if I could find a few more people to donate blood.”

Mason nodded. "I see. I'll pay attention to this matter too. I'll see if anyone needs money urgently and get them to come here to sell their blood"

Olivia rolled her eyes. "If you have any friends who want to sell their blood, remember to tell me immediately?"

Chapter 215

In the Jackson family, Ibrahim arrived late. "I'm sorry. I got delayed by something."

"It doesn't matter," Harry spoke up for Ibrahim.

Neil did not pay much attention to it. Before Ibrahim came, he had been chatting with Gina. It had been too long since they last met. He missed Gina very much.

"Mr. Rosario, please take a seat," Neil said politely.

"Thank you, Mr. Jackson."

Ibrahim's gaze landed on Gina, who also noticed his gaze.

Gina looked up at Ibrahim's brown hair.

Ibrahim asked, "I heard that Miss Miller was hospitalized the day before yesterday. I wonder how are you feeling now? Are you alright?"

Gina asked toldly, "How do you know?"

Ibrahim smiled and said, "I heard it from Harry." That day, Gina was poisoned and fainted in Gabriel's office. Harry saw it.

However, Gina did not expect Harry to tell Ibrahim about this.

It was quite baffling. Why were two middle-aged men concerned with her affairs?

Gina had no intention of continuing their gossip. "I've seen your proposal. I think it's not feasible."

When Harry heard Gina's words, he was instantly enraged. "Gina, you're too arrogant. Mr. Rosario is a famous doctor who has won an international award and treated many foreign royal families. Can you deny his capability by just saying it's not feasible?"

Gina felt that this machine was just an empty talk. At the very least, with the current technology around the world, it was impossible to achieve its goal. She even suspected that Ibrahim was planning an unprecedented scam.

"What I said is the truth and also my personal opinion. Mr. Jackson, you can disagree, but you can't force me to say something against my heart."

Harry was furious. He turned around and complained, "Neil, look! I'm very optimistic about this project. But Gabriel had to rope Gina in, and we agreed. But now she looks down on us. It looks like our project is too small for her."

Neil did not expect Liam to fly into a rage. He raised his hand, indicating for him to calm down. "Harry, calm down. Gina only said what she felt,"

After hearing Neil's words, Harry was even more furious. His face was like a volcano that was about to erupt.

Ibrahim smiled kindly. "Mr. Jackson, don't be angry. It's normal for Miss Miller to have concerns. After all, she is still young! She must have different experiences from me, an old man over 50."

Although Ibrahim used the word "different, in other words, he was mocking Gina for being short-sighted and not as experienced as him.

Of course, Gina also sensed his mockery. "Dr. Rosario, as a foreigner, you quite have a talent in language."

Ibrahim put on a fake smile. "I've been learning your language for more than ten years. If I can't speak it well, then I must be a joke."

“That’s right. You learned it quite well. Now you’re an expert in mocking people without using dirty words, Gina said coldly.

“Miss Miller, you’re really eloquent.” Even though Ibrahim told himself to keep his cool, he was still unhappy when he saw Gina’s sharp tongue coming back at him.

His

turned vicious as he secretly glanced at Gina. Looking at her smooth, fair, and young skin, he really wanted to peel

Harry could not hold it in anymore. “Neil! I know you like Gina, but you can’t be so biased towards her, right? Since she thinks that our project is infeasible, it seems like there’s no need to continue discussing”

On one hand, Harry was happy that Gina did not get involved. On the other hand, he was angry that Gina looked down on their project.

Gabriel asked. “Gina, so you’re not willing to join?”

Gina nodded. “Yes, and I suggest that Jackson Group not start this project,” Gabriel was surprised that Gina would say that. He still wanted to hear what Gina would say but Harry chimed in in a rage. “Bstrd, Gina, who do you think you are? Who are you to our family? Who are you to Jackson Group?

You’re not the one to make decisions! You suggest? You suggest a*shole! James and Gabriel are on your side, but don’t think that you can get involved in Jackson Group’s matter?

Neil frowned when he saw how fierce Harry was “Harry, what are you doing? Control your temper and calm down. Gina didn’t say anything wrong. Why are you so agitated!”

Harry's chest heaved violently I can't calm down. How dare she say that! I don't need a rookie to teach me.

"Also, Mr. Rosario has been in the medical industry for 30 years. No matter what, he's her senior, right? She doesn't take him seriously. She is too arrogant!"

Gina still had the same indifferent expression as before. The medical skills she learned were traditional. Ibrahim should call her senior in this field.

"Harry, sit down. We need communication, not a quarrel," Gabriel said coldly.

Harry was still angry. "You told her to get lost. I can't see her. She makes me mad. If she's not here, then I can calm down. Who does she think she is? She has no right to boss around here

"She has the right"

Gabriel looked up at Harry. Although Gabriel was sitting, the oppressive aura in his eyes was abnormally strong. Harry subconsciously avoided his sharp gaze.

Gina did not want them to argue because of her. "I can leave, but since I'm invited today, I think there's no problem with expressing my opinion. But to be honest, I still don't recommend you take this project.

Harry was about to go mad. The calmer Gina was, the crazier he was. He felt that Gina's calm and composed appearance was deliberately showing off to irritate him. She was protected by Neil and Gabriel. Nobody dared to do anything to her.

Ibrahim interrupted, "Miss Miller, can I assume that you don't want Jackson Group to enter the medical industry because you're worried that in the future, it will be a strong competitor with your Prover Hospital?"

"You don't agree to join us because you just don't want to share your resources with us, right? Actually, I'm still looking forward to working with you, but you don't seem willing. What juty

“You refuse to sacrifice and also don’t want your business stolen. Are you wishing to have all the good things?” Harry took the opportunity to mock Gina.

Gina’s expression was normal. “I have no need to worry.”

She did not see the private hospital under Jackson Group as an enemy at all. Patients have the right to decide which hospital they want to go to. How could it be called “stealing business?”

Gina felt that Ibrahim had spoken like a true businessman. Based on this fact alone, she would not want to work with someone like Ibrahim.

Neil wanted to stop this argument. “Since Gina refuses to join, let’s forget about it. Let’s not talk about this anymore!”

To save his brother’s face, Harry decided to stop arguing and changed the topic to talk about love. “Gina, let’s talk about the matter between you and Gabriel

“I see that Gabriel has been pursuing you for a while now. He’s also generous to you. The only thing he hasn’t done is to gift you Jackson Group’s shares. He even bought you a diamond mine worth 600 million dollars. And yet, you’re still not his girlfriend? What’s your purpose then? Are you planning to lead Gabriel on?”

Gabriel frowned. “Uncle, this is a private matter between Gina and me

“Am I not allowed to ask questions as an elder? Do enlighten me, Gabriel. As a man with so much power in the business world, why are you making your life revolve around a woman? Have you gone mad?”

When Neil heard Harry’s words, he also felt uncomfortable. “Harry, the relationship between Gabriel and Gina and its progress is their problem. As for the diamond mine, the money that Gabriel spent is his own. It has nothing to do with us. don’t you agree?”

Gina remained civil. Indeed, I don’t have plans to get together with Gabriel yet. But I have no intention to lead him on. If he falls in love with someone else and wishes to be with them, I won’t have any objections. As for the diamond mine, I can spend the money to buy it and then return the money to Gabriel.

Harry snorted. "You'd better keep your word. Given what you said, and since Cabriel is not young a blind dates for him!"

This wretched girl was playing hard to get?

Harry seemed determined to interfere in the matter between Gina and Gabriel. He would never agree to let Gina step into the Jackson family's house.

"That's not necessary!" Gabriel said angrily.

"In this life, I will only marry Gina, Gabriel said firmly.

Harry was furious. "What if she doesn't marry for the rest of her life?"

"Theil I'll never marry."

Gabriel said without hesitation.

Harry sneered, "Alright, alright, alright. It seems the Jackson family has produced a huge romantic. It's useless for an elder like me to speak. I won't say anything else. Just take it that I'm meddling in other people's business!"

The atmosphere was awkward. Gina stood up calmly. "Neil, I'll come and see you next time."

"Okay, okay"

Neil knew that Gina felt uncomfortable staying here with Harry being so overbearing, so he agreed to let Gina leave.

Gina looked at Gabriel. I'll get going first."

“I’ll drive you.”

Gabriel nervously walked Gina out.

When he reached the door, Gabriel said anxiously. Gina, my feelings for you will not change. Waiting is not a problem for me. I can wait for the day you’re willing to be my lover.”

Gina lowered her gaze. “I don’t deny what your third uncle said. It makes sense. Gabriel, I don’t want to hinder your pursuit of happiness. If you don’t want to wait for me anymore, feel free to pursue your happiness. I guess it’s good I could take this opportunity to make things clear to you.”

“Diamond mines are indeed too expensive. I pay you back for it

Gabriel felt a little sad. He could not help but hug Gina. His voice was a little hoarse as he said. “Gina, I love you. I’m willing to do anything for you. Don’t return it to me. Don’t draw such a rigid line with me. No matter what my family says, my feelings for you won’t change.”

“You don’t want me anymore?” Gabriel sounded aggrieved.

Gina didn’t know that Gabriel knew how to act coquettishly. However, she answered seriously, “When did I want you?”

Gina was under the impression that she had rejected Gabriel’s request to be in a relationship.

Gabriel did not know whether to laugh or cry. “I mean, do you really want me...to be with someone else?”

Gina shook her head and told the truth, “No.”

Gabriel was very happy. “That’s good.”

“Does that mean that I’m leading you on?”

Gina relaxed and snuggled into Gabriel’s arms. “I prefer to take things slow...”

“I understand.”

The corners of Gina's lips curled up. "Alright, I want to go back. You should continue discussing the project with them."

She had said everything she wanted to say and had refused to join the project, so it was indeed time for her to leave.

"Goodbye."

Gabriel said reluctantly.

When Gina got into the car and her back disappeared from his view, Gabriel was still standing there.

"Mr. Jackson

Gabriel said coldly.

Ibrahim did not beat around the bush. "Actually, Mr. Jackson said that he wanted to introduce you to a blind date out of goodwill. He hoped that this would make Miss Miller feel threatened so that the two of you can get together quickly.

"I didn't need it."

Gabriel's cold words stumped Ibrahim. He did not know what to say.

Ibrahim smiled awkwardly. "I'm sorry, Mr. Jackson. I spoke too much."

“However, Mr. Jackson, I still hope that you have confidence in our project. I also hope that you can achieve something in the future and make Miss Miller look at you in a different light.

Gabriel was not in the mood to listen to Ibrahim’s boasting. “Since you and Uncle Harry have already chosen to byp*ss me and do my father’s job of thinking about my future, you should know very well that I won’t stand in the way of a project my father has agreed to.”

“So what’s the point of you deliberately trying to please me now? Or rather, what’s your motive?”

Gabriel’s cold gaze landed on Ibrahim.

Ibrahim’s expression became a little stiff. After all, Gabriel still needed to approve the project allocation in the future. Of course, he wanted to build a good relationship with Gabriel. He also knew that their project would undoubtedly end if Gabriel wanted to terminate the project.

However, Gabriel clearly did not want to give him a chance to build a good relationship.

Ibrahim pretended to smile helplessly. “It seems that I have to work harder. Not only do I have to change Miss Miller’s opinion of our project, but I also have to make Mr. Jackson trust our team even more.”

“Then show it to me instead of telling me, Gabriel said coldly before striding into the villa.

Ibrahim, who was left behind, sneered with a dark expression on his face. Gina and Gabriel were really a match made in heaven. Both of them were arrogant and looked down on Ibrahim, who was an elder to them.

One day, they would kneel at Ibrahim's feet and worship him.

Ibrahim took a deep breath, put on a smile, and walked into the villa.

After the negotiations ended, Ibrahim followed Harry and left the Jackson family's residence.

was still upset. He felt like the anger from Gina's situation was about to give him a heart attack.

"This wretched girl only knows how to stir up trouble. We have to teach her a lesson," Harry said angrily.

Ibrahim was deep in thought. "I wonder what kind of lesson you hope to teach her, Mr. Jackson.

Ibrahim's rhetorical question hit the nail on the head. Harry wanted to kill Gina, but it was obvious that now was not the time. Gina had both the influence and the power. Gabriel and Neil were also so protective of her. If anything happened to Gina, Gabriel would definitely get to the bottom of the matter.

If Harry was not careful and some old matters were dragged into this, things would not be good.

Prover Hospital.

Olivia had waited at the door for an entire afternoon. Finally, in the evening, he saw Ella's figure.

"Mom!"

Olivia jogged over to Ella. The moment Ella saw Olivia, she was furious. She said coldly, "How dare you appear in front of me?"

"Your biological father killed my husband! You don't have the right to the Miller name. I don't care how you do it, change your name to Olivia Yale and disappear from my life."

Olivia lowered her head. "Mom, Cole killed him. It has nothing to do with me. Don't you know that the reason why I still shamelessly come to look for you despite our falling out so many times is because you were the one who raised me for 2 years? In my heart, you're my mother. Dad is also my father!"

"I have never thought of Cole as my biological father."

"I hate him. He ruined my peaceful life and cost me my dear family!"

These words were true. Olivia was disgusted and a little afraid of Cole.

However, today, although she refused to face the truth, the fact is that she was already walking down the same path as her biological father.

"Mom. I heard that Janes entered Prover Hospital. I wanted to come and visit."

Ella was indeed moved by Olivia's words. However, Ella knew that if she forgave Olivia, she would never be able to acknowledge Gina as her biological daughter in this lifetime.

75%

After weighing the pros and cons, Ella decided to be cold to Olivia. There is no need for you to visit. Also, there's no need to make it sound so nice. Aren't you just here because you can't pay back the money you owe Gina and you want to leech off of the Miller family?"

Even though Olivia was mentally prepared, her heart still trembled. “No, I’ll think of a way to return Gina’s money myself.

“It’s good that you know. You keep saying that you hate Cole, but you also spent the money that Cole extorted from Gina without any qualms. When will you be able to tell the truth?”

At this moment. Ella was also blaming Olivia for failing to meet her expectations.

“But I didn’t spend much on myself. The first thing I thought of was to invest in Miller Jewels. I didn’t hesitate to invest 200 million dollars! Mom, can’t you see that I really treat you as my family?”

Ella was a little impatient. “So what if it’s 200 million dollars? It’s not your money! Besides... Besides, Gina didn’t take 200 million dollars. To be precise, Gina invested 200 million dollars

“But without the premise that I invested the money into Miller Jewels, would it have appeared in the accounts for Miller Jewels?”

Olivia retorted.

Ella was anxious. “Alright, shut up. No matter what you say this time. I won’t agree to let you return to the Miller family. I might as well tell you directly then. You will never become Miller Jewel’s design director. Impossible. You’re not qualified!”

Olivia gritted her teeth. She dug her nails into her palms and used her trump card. She took out a bank card and placed it in Ella’s hand. “Mom, you’re thinking too much. I really just wanted to visit James. You know the rules of Prover Hospital. Only family members are allowed to enter.

“There’s 10 thousand dollars in this bank card. The medical fees for Prover Hospital are not cheap. I hope that I can help a little. It’s not a lot of money. I just want to do my best to repay your kindness and love.”

Ella refused and threw the bank card on the ground. “How did you get this money? I don’t dare to take it.”

Olivia was furious. She was already so humble. What else did Ella want?

Ella was really putting her on the spot.

However, when she thought about the purpose of his trip, Olivia endured it. She picked up the bank card from the ground and made herself cry in a second. “Mom, I worked hard to save this money. I didn’t steal or rob it. It is also not Gina’s money.”

In reality, she had taken 10 thousand dollars out of the 40 thousand dollars she had gotten from Dr. Jacquard. Olivia had lied to Mason. Although Caleb had really sued her for defamation, she only needed to compensate 20 thousand dollars. Olivia had wanted to use the extra money for her daily expenses so that she would not be too tight on money. However, she did not expect that this money would come in handy so soon.

However, Olivia was still betting that the Miller family people would not want the money. Her original intention was to use the money as a pretense.

Liam got out of the car. He rushed over from home to take over Ella’s shift and to take care of James.

“Mom, you... Liam stepped forward and saw Olivia. He had mixed feelings. After all, Olivia was the daughter of the person who killed his father.

However, Liam had always been ambivalent towards Olivia. He was neither the elder brother who doted on Olivia the most in the past, nor was he someone who hated Olivia. However, the fact that Olivia had an affair with Noah still shocked him. It was big news.

“Liam, I want to go in and visit James, but since Mom doesn’t want to let me in. then forget it.” Olivia turned around and stuffed the bank card into Liam’s hand. This money is for James treatment. The password is six sixes”

Liam sighed and walked around Ella. He pulled Olivia’s arm and said, ‘Come, follow me.’”

Hearing the familiar voice, Liam looked up in surprise.

The moment he saw Olivia. James’s expression turned ugly.

Olivia glanced at Liam Liam, can I talk to James alone?”

Although Liam found it strange, he did not say anything and left the ward.

Olivia looked at James and said. James, I know that you might not want to see me now, but I’m here today to tell you something very important.”

James was ambivalent. “Our with it then.”

“You were in a car accident. Your legs were injured. It wasn’t an accident. It was planned.”

James had thought of this before. After all, it was too strange for the brakes to suddenly fail.

However, he didn’t find anything.

“And”

“It’s Gabriel. Gabriel had someone tamper with your car.”

James was shocked “What did you say?”

He thought that there was no enmity between him and Gabriel. Why did Gabriel treat him like this?

James asked in disbelief. “Why, how did you know that Gabriel asked someone to do this? Where’s the evidence?”

Olivia took out her phone and played a very short recording

At first, there was the sound of a sudden brake. Then, Gabriel's low and cold voice sounded. "Find an opportunity to c him"

"Yes sir!" The sound came from the recording.

James was skeptical. "What does this recording mean?"

Olivia said in one go, "James, back then when Gina had a falling out with us, you went to the school to wait for her. This recording happened when you bumped into Gabriel while you were there. It was recorded in Gabriel's car. Not long after that, you got into a car accident. Gabriel had arranged for someone to cripple you."

James trembled all over. After the accident, because he could not find any evidence, he only thought that it was because Gina was a jinx. After he interacted more with Gina, bad luck automatically came knocking on his door. He did not expect this matter to be related to Gabriel.

Seeing that the time was right, Olivia began to add oil to the fire. "James, Gabriel must have done this for Gina. Perhaps it was Gina who requested it."

James's mind was in a mess.

He had always thought that Gina had only hooked up with Gabriel after leaving the Miller family. But now, it seemed that they had hooked up a long time ago.

James felt his blood boiling.

Olivia's chattering voice rang in his ears. "I reckon that Gina was afraid that she had committed too suffer retribution, so she agreed to let you stay in Prover Hospital for treatment."

my sins and would

James instantly exploded. He grabbed the glass from the bedside table and threw it to the ground. "Who needs her hypocrisy? This bit*h. If it weren't for her, how could I have become like this!"

“Gabriel. Gina, I’m going to kill them, kill them!”

James’s eyes were bloodshot. If it weren’t for the fact that his injury did not allow it, he wanted to grab his knife and charge straight at Jackson Group.

If not for this car accident, he would not be lying in the hospital like a cripple! Miller Jewels was now entirely under Noah’s command

However, Miller Jewels’ business had never been good. The Miller family was no longer Wrinster’s richest family. Moreover, the cost of treating his legs was very expensive. His mother would sigh in front of him from time to time. He was really afraid that his mother would give up on him like she gave up on his father and transfer him to an ordinary hospital. If that happens, he may never be able to stand up again.

But Prover Hospital was Gina’s hospital!

James looked up at Olivia. “How did you know about these things? How did you find out?”

James’s gaze at this moment was a little scary. She swallowed her saliva and said, “Actually, I don’t know the other party exact identity either. I only know that he, he’s a doctor.”

“Who? What’s his name? Tell me. I want to talk to him in person

“I don’t know.”

“Olivia, things have already gotten to this point, why are you still keeping it a secret?” James yelled.

Olivia jumped in shock.

Liam, who was sitting on the chair outside the door, was alarmed, but he didn’t push the door open and enter the ward. Instead, he asked from outside the door.

“James, calm down first. I don’t know his true identity. I’ve never met him in person. I don’t even know what he looks like. Although I said that he’s a doctor, his identity might be fake. He also asked me to let you listen to this recording. He also told me not to expose his identity. He won’t meet you.”

James tried his best to calm himself down. After a moment of silence, he asked, “Since he can obtain such secret evidence, he is definitely not an ordinary person. Help me ask him if he is capable of killing Gabriel and Gina.”

“I’ll pay however much he asks for.”

James gritted his teeth and said.

“James...he might not have the ability.”

If Dr. Jacquard had that ability, he would have attacked Gina long ago. He wouldn’t have asked Olivia to cause trouble.

James lowered his head. He was crying.

He cried with hatred.

“I’ll make them pay.”

Olivia held James’s hand. “Brother, I will always stand by your side and support you. If you want to take revenge on Gina and Gabriel, feel free to ask me if you need anything

James looked up at Olivia.

Although he did not know what the relationship between Olivia and the doctor she mentioned was, it seemed that Olivia might be able to help him. At this moment, the matter of her father killing his biological father was no longer important.

James held Gina’s hand tightly. “Olivia, my sister. You are my forever sister,”

Olivia smiled and looked back at James.

She had said that she would always be the only daughter of the Miller family!

Jackson Group.

Ethan walked to Gabriel's office with documents in his hand. The door was ajar. Just as he was about to knock on the door, he heard the conversation between David and Gabriel in the office,

David said, "Mr. Jackson, are you sure you can let Ethan be in charge of this project? I don't think he's qualified. After all, he has no experience managing and operating a project. I think it's quite risky to let him be in charge of such a big project."

Upon hearing David's words, Ethan was instantly enraged.

Gabriel responded calmly. "Third Uncle wants Ethan to be in charge. Dad agrees. I have nothing to say."

When Ethan heard this, he felt a chill in his heart. It was obvious that Gabriel and David did not believe that he could be in charge of a good project. Without Harry's insistence, such a good thing would not have happened to him.

David did not say anything else.

Ethan decided to forgo knocking on the door. He just pushed it open and entered the office.

Gabriel looked up. The moment he saw Ethan, he noticed Ethan's calm demeanor. It was likely that Ethan had heard his conversation with David.

However, Gabriel did not mind. He asked as usual, "What's the matter?" Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Ethan's expression did not look good. He placed the document on Gabriel's desk. "Uncle Gabriel, this is the appropriation approval. Please take a look."

Gabriel flipped through it.

David was about to go back to doing his things when Ethan suddenly called out to him, "Wait."

David looked back at Ethan in confusion.

Ethan said unhappily, "David, do you think that you'd get to be in charge of the project regarding the all-in-one medical examination machine if you say bad things about me to my uncle? Who do you think you are? Are you worthy of snatching the project from me?"

"You are just an obedient dog under Uncle Gabriel!" Ethan thought but was smart enough not to say this part out loud.

David was surprised to hear that Ethan would think this way after overhearing his conversation with Gabriel.

He said calmly. "Ethan, you're thinking too much. I'm not trying to compete with you for the project. I'm just raising in reasonable doubts."

Ethan was even angrier. "Are you suspecting that I'm incompetent? What right do you have to suspect me!"

Gabriel frowned and said coldly, "Be quiet."

"If you're not convinced, prove it with your actions. Don't throw tantrum here."

Gabriel said coldly.

Ethan felt a little disappointed.

Gabriel did not like Ethan because of that bi*ch Gina. Now, Gabriel even wanted to stop him from scolding an assistant.

Gabriel signed the document and placed it on the table. Although Ethan was not convinced, he knew that it was useless for him to lose his temper here. He took the document and glared at David before leaving.

The more Ethan thought about it, the angrier he became. He went downstairs and planned to take a breather outside.

After he went downstairs, he sat down at a cafe near Jackson Group. Suddenly, a man pulled out the chair opposite him and sat down uninvited.

Ethan was immediately displeased. He vented all his pent-up anger on this unfamiliar man. 'Are you blind? Can't you see that someone is sitting here? Do I even know you? You're not worthy of sitting at the same table as me.'

The man was unshaven and had dark circles under his eyes. He stared straight at Ethan, making Ethan's hair stand on end. He wondered if he had encountered a lunatic. If the other party was a lunatic, it was better not to provoke him. If the man suddenly flew into a rage and stabbed him, wouldn't he be finished

Ethan took a deep breath and suppressed his anger. He cursed in his heart and got up to leave.

The man asked, "Do you want to kill Gina Miller?"

Ethan was immediately shocked. He turned to look at the man, who was still looking at him with bright eyes.

"Who are you? Who asked you to look for me? Olivia?"

After all, only Olivia had expressed her want to cooperate with Ethan to hire a killer and kill Gina. However, after so long, Gina was still alive and well.

Ethan felt that Olivia must have taken his money and squandered it.

However, because he had been quite busy recently, he did not care about this matter.

He thought about the project he had taken from Harry. If it was really successful, he would be a business elite who could stand shoulder-to-shoulder with Gabriel in the future. Would he still care about the small sum of money given to Olivia?

He would treat it as a gift to a beggar!

Therefore, he decided to work hard during this time and not find trouble with Olivia for the time being.

Apart from Olivia, Ethan could not think of anyone else who would make this man look for him for no reason.

“Who’s Olivia? I don’t know what you’re talking about. I’m asking you if you want to kill Gina. I can help you.”

Ethan sneered. “Do you think I’ll believe you don’t know Olivia just because you say so? Is Olivia in need of money She’s not st*pid enough to just come to me for money so she has entrusted you with the excuse of helping me kill as a way to ask me for money. Unexpectedly, the man strode behind him and pressed the fruit knife hidden in his sleeve against Ethan’s back. “I said I help you, but you don’t believe me. Then I’ll kill you. Anyway, I’m at my wits end now.”

Ethan was shocked and said in fear and disbelief. “Are you f*cking crazy? You you said you wanted to help me kill Gina. I

"F*ck, who are you? Can you at least introduce yourself? How can I work with you if I don't know anything?"

"Mike.

"That's it?"

"That's it." Mike said.

Ethan was speechless. "Don't you have a job?"

Mike rolled his eyes. "I've already become an outlaw. Do you think I'll still have a job?"

Besides, he had just been released from prison. What kind of job could he have?

Previously, in the countryside, he had "accidentally" destroyed Cona's medicine land, as well as beaten up Gina's adoptive mother. He was sent to prison and even asked to pay compensation for Gina's medicine land.

Sixty million dollars!

Even if he started working centuries ago, he wouldn't be able to repay the money. Although he only needed to go to jail for two years, after he was released from prison, he was in debt of over 20 million dollars. His life was ruined. He didn't even want to live anymore. He had attempted suicide in prison, but he was saved.

Just as Mike was about to give up all hope, someone had come to him and fished him out. They told him that there was chance for him to take revenge on Gina and asked if he dared to do it.

Why wouldn't he dare?

Anyway, his life had been ruined by Gina.

"Why do you want to kill Gina?"

"It's all Gina's fault that I became like this. Of course I hate her. Alright, I don't want to talk to you anymore. Give me the money and I'll help you kill someone. Let's just make a simple deal."

Ethan did not think that the other party could really kill Gina, but he did not dare to question him directly. He was afraid that the other party would be angry and kill him first.

"What if you don't succeed and are caught by Gina?"

"There's no way it won't work! I have to plan to exchange a life for a life. Gina will definitely die, so there's no such thing as what you said. If I'm caught and killed Gina, I won't be able to live either. I won't give you up."

Ethan was a little afraid. "What if, what if they trace it back to me?"

"I'm already dead. Moreover, there's already a grudge between me and Gina. They'll only think that I want to take revenge on her."

"I'm worried," Ethan said.

Mike could not help but curse, "You're such a*ucking coward."

*Then spend some money and delete the surveillance footage in the cameras in the coffee shop. There are no surveillance cameras nearby that can capture the two of us. This way, nothing will go wrong." Mike said.

Ethan felt inspired. He nodded and said, "Alright, I'll get someone to delete the surveillance footage."

After Ethan was done settling the surveillance cameras in the coffee shop, he went to find a more hidden corner to meet

Mike.

Mike said, "I need 200 thousand dollars."

Ethan was shocked by this number. "200 thousand dollars? Why do you have to spend so much money to kill someone?" Mike rolled his eyes and said. "Is Gina an ordinary person? Don't need to make preparations in advance? And I want to ensure that she will definitely die."

Mike had said it with gritted teeth. The hatred in his eyes seemed to be overflowing.

At this moment, Ethan finally believed that Mike was determined to exchange his life for Gina's.

"Alright, 200 thousand dollars it is, but I can't transfer it to you directly. I'll pay you in cash!"

Mike agreed.

Ethan spent a lot of effort to transfer the money to Mike.

Ethan had taken the time to investigate Mike's background,

Mike was the only son in the family. His parents lived in the countryside...

Mike looked up at Ethan. "Don't worry, I'm really not here to cheat money. You don't have to use my parents to threaten me

“It was 200 thousand dollars. It makes sense for me to have some guarantees, right?”

Ethan asked.

Mike shrugged. “Alright.”

“Just wait for the good news to reach your ears.”

Ethan was skeptical. “Alright...”

“Cina, Quaria’s new round of recruitment has already begun. There’s also the matter of new products. Look, are you coming back to take charge this year?”

Michael called Gina.

It had indeed been a long time since Gina had interfered with matters about Quaria. The main reason was that she was very comfortable with Michael and trusted him to handle things at Quaria. She did not have to worry about Quaria at all.

Gina thought for a moment. “Alright, I’ll go over tomorrow.”

“Okay

Michael was a little happy

After knowing that Gina had been poisoned, he had rushed back to Norwood worriedly. He originally wanted to stay in the hospital to take care of Cina, but Gina refused. In addition, there had been a lot of things at Quaria for him to deal with, so he had returned to Oriata City helplessly

Michael thought that he would not see Gina again for a long time. He did not expect that Gina would agree to return and take charge of the situation this time.

He was elated.

After hanging up the phone.

Gina was about to take a break when the door of the ward was pushed open. Gabriel walked in with a bouquet of flowers in his hand.

Gabriel placed the flowers into the vase on Gina's bedside table and pulled out the slightly wilted flowers from yesterday.

For the past few days, Gabriel would bring a bouquet of flowers when he visited Gina..

"Gina, are you planning to be discharged tomorrow?"

Gabriel asked.

Gina nodded. When she was chatting with Gabriel just now, she mentioned being discharged.

"Yeah."

Actually, there was nothing wrong with Gina's body and she could be discharged at any time. However, she did not want to return to the lonely apartment where she stayed alone.

In the past, when Ruby was around, she still had the motivation to go home because someone was waiting for her. However, now that Ruby was no longer around, she felt that home was just a place to sleep. It did not matter if she went back or not. It did not seem to matter where she stayed.

However, she did not want to stay in the hospital forever and occupy a bed. She wanted to give the bed to those who needed

"Then, can you come back to the old mansion with me to have dinner with my father tomorrow? Dad said that he misses you very much," Gabriel said expectantly.

"Didn't we just meet two days ago?" Gina asked.

Gabriel also smiled. "It can't be helped. I'm getting old. Maybe I just want more company."

to go for a while. I won't

Cina said in embarrassment, "That won't do. I have to go to Oria City tomorrow, and I might have to be coming back to Norwood for the time being."

Gabriel was a little surprised. "Why?"

Gina's answer was more concise. "There are some things that need to be dealt with."

Gabriel felt terrible at the thought of not seeing Gina for a few days. He said, "There's nothing urgent for Jackson Group recently. I think I can go with you. Is that okay?"

He seemed to be clinging to her more and more.

Gina thought.
