

When She Stops Playing Nice by Hale Saxon

Chapter 281

Chapter 281

Spencer swallowed. It was obvious that Mr. Barnes was interested. He had to seize this rare opportunity to get associated with the Barnes family.

He quickly said, "I've asked around. Gina is not just the founder of Quaria. She's also..."

Colin wanted to put down the stick and sit down, but he suddenly felt light-headed and fell to the ground.

Spencer was shocked by his sudden fainting.

He stood rooted to the ground for a while. When he came back to his senses, he rushed forward to support Colin.

Colin fell face-first to the ground. His forehead hit the ground heavily and instantly swelled up with blood flowing out of his nose.

Spencer carefully helped Colin sit down.

"Mr. Barnes, you... what's wrong?" Spencer hurriedly took a piece of tissue to wipe Colin's nose.

Colin's face turned very cold. Why did he suddenly feel that his body was out of control? It was too strange. This had never happened before and he had always been in good health.

Was it Gina's doing?

Colin sneered. If that was the case, it was impressive. He didn't even know how Gina did it.

After sitting for a while, he did not feel any abnormalities. However, to be safe, Colin called his private doctor to check his body.

"Mr. Barnes, you took the roffie by mistake, but the dosage was safe. After you fell, the pain stimulated you, so you woke up very quickly."

'Roofie?' And just now, when he saw Gina, he suddenly felt his nose itch.

Colin sneered. Now, he was sure that it was Gina who had done this trick. She gave him a taste of his own medicine.

As he thought about it, Colin gnashed his teeth and laughed out loud. Spencer and the private doctor didn't know what he was laughing about, but they were terrified when they heard it.

Colin raised his hand, indicating that the private doctor could leave.

Then, he rubbed his eyebrows and said to Spencer, "Repeat what you wanted to say just now. I didn't hear you clearly."

"Gina is not just the chairman of Quaria. She's also a shareholder of Miller Jewels. She has 20 percent shares"

"So?" Colin asked.

"Quaria is an established giant. It won't be able to undermine its foundation and status for the time being, but Miller Jewels is different. Although Gina is a shareholder, she doesn't seem to care about this company at all. The revenue of Miller Jewels plummeted a few months ago. Now, it's on the brink of bankruptcy. It's still very easy to destroy Miller Jewels."

"That's it?" Colin was not satisfied with Spencer's plan. "It's just destroying a company that earns extra money for her. I thought you had some better ideas."

Spencer felt guilty. "I'm sorry, Mr. Barnes. My ability is limited and I'm not very smart. This is the only way I can think of."

However, Gina was not that easy to deal with.

Spencer continued, "Mr. Barnes, you might not know that Gina has cut ties with the Miller family. When Miller Group becomes bankrupt, their family will believe that they have been implicated by Gina. They will definitely make things difficult for Gina!"

“To create an internal conflict?” Colin asked nonchalantly. Gina Had the guts to retaliate against him, which made things interesting. Moreover, Gina was Gabriel’s fiancée, which was also a direction to destroy Gabriel.

“Yes!” Spencer nodded vigorously,

“Alright, I’ll help you.” Colin said.

In the near future, he would make Jackson Group and Quaria become the Barnes family’s assets.

After leaving the golf course, Gina went to Prover Hospital to look for Dylan and check on the hospital’s operations.

“Gina, there’s something I need to tell you,” Dylan said.

“Say it,” Gina said nonchalantly as she flipped through the financial statements.

“Since Jame’s received treatment here, they have been spreading that you are the director of the hospital and their family. They used your name to expand the connections or something.” Dylan frowned.

Prover Hospital patients were all rich and noble. The Miller family people did not spend any effort on the patient’s recovery and only wanted to take advantage of her. They were really shameless.

What was even more despicable was that Ella asked the medical staff for priority in taking care of them.

Of course, Dylan ordered that there was no need to give them preferential treatment. They were just staying in ordinary wards. If they wanted preferential treatment, they had to pay more, and not rely on their shameful speeches to build connections.

Dylan said helplessly, “I tried to stop them, but they said that it’s not my place to meddle in their family matters. They told me to get lost. If I’m not leaving. Ella will make a scene.

A trace of displeasure appeared in Gina’s cold eyes. She nodded and said, “I understand. I’ll go talk to them.”

Leaving Dylan’s office, Gina went to James’s ward.

Jat

When she was almost there, Ella walked out of the ward. The moment she turned around and saw Gina, she froze in disbelief.

She knew that Gina had a close relationship with Dylan. From time to time, she would go to Dylan's office and wait for her to show up. However, she did not expect Gina to take the initiative to look for them!

'Is she here for us?' Ella was uncertain.

She was very excited, but she was also afraid that she would be too agitated and push Gina away. Ella said carefully, "Gina, are you here to visit James? James recovered very quickly under your treatment. Now, he can even walk with a walking stick. Gina, thank you. If you hadn't arranged for your brother to..."

Gina frowned and denied it again, "I told you, I didn't."

Even though Ella was interrupted by Gina, she was still immersed in her own world. "Gina, I know you're just stubborn on the surface but kind inside. You're..."

Gina sneered and broke Ella's fantasy without hesitation. "You're overthinking. I won't be soft-hearted towards you guys."

Ella choked. She did not know what to say. She was about to ask Gina if she wanted to go in and visit James. When James heard the sounds outside the ward, he walked out of the ward with the stick "Mom, who are you

自

James looked up and saw Gina. At that moment, his eyes were filled with resentment and anger. He still remembered the day Olivia came to look for him and told him the truth about his car accident.

It was Gabriel who had deliberately tampered with his car to avenge Gina!

Gina did not pay much attention to James' resentful gaze

Gina said coldly, "I heard that you used my name to socialize in the hospital. There won't be a next time. Also, explain to whoever you've talked to that I have nothing to do with you."

Ella felt embarrassed. Did Dylan complain to Gina? That b*stard

James could not suppress his anger. "What's wrong with using your reputation? Isn't your surname Miller? Isn't the blood of the Miller family flowing in your body? Even if we wronged you in the past, we have apologized and atoned for our mistakes. You're the one who doesn't appreciate it!"

Gina could not be bothered to talk nonsense with them. "If you don't clarify it, I'll let you get discharged."

Ella was stunned. She hurriedly said, "Gina, I'm sorry! I'm sorry! It's all my fault. I was too greedy. Miller Jewels's business is not doing well. I had no choice but to use your name to get some investment.

"After all, you're also a shareholder of Miller Jewels, right? It'll be good for you."

"Do you think I care about the profits?" Gina asked coldly.

Ella was speechless.

Gina had said everything that needed to be said. She turned around and prepared to leave.

I can't let her go!" James's heart was roaring.

Every day of his recovery, he swore in his heart that he would definitely take revenge on Gina and Gabriel. Unfortunately, he had been staying in the ward and did not have the chance to see them.

Now that Gina had come knocking on his door, how could he let go of such a good opportunity?

James endured the pain of walking quickly and walked back into the ward as quickly as possible. He took the thermos flask and walked out.

Ella was grabbing Gina's arm, stopping her from leaving.

"Let go of me!" Gina said impatiently.

"Mom, let go!" James suddenly shouted. Ella got scared and let go. She turned around to see James unscrewing the cap of the thermos flask. Then, he splashed the boiling water on Gina, who had her back facing him.

Gina's thin clothes were soaked and the water scalded her skin. She frowned in pain.

Ella screamed and grabbed James's arm. "What are you doing? She's your sister!"

Hearing this, Gina smiled mockingly. Sister? She had probably forgotten how they had treated her.

James's eyes were red as he cursed, "Sister? She's just a bit*h! She's a slut!"

"Mom, you still don't know, right? It's all thanks to Gina that I became like this. She asked Gabriel to tamper with my car and caused my accident."

Ella was stunned. She did not know if James was telling the truth or not.

Gina asked coldly, "Do you have evidence?"

"Of course I do!" James's mind was filled with Gabriel's cold and heartless order to cripple him.

Chapter 282

James took out his phone and played the recording that Olivia had sent him.

Gina could tell that it was indeed Gabriel's voice, but she did not think that Gabriel would do this for no reason.

Seeing that Gina did not say anything after listening to the recording. James sneered. "Why are you silent? Are you guilty?"

Gina remained indifferent. "Stop overthinking."

James gritted his teeth. Gina looked down upon them as air. After all, he was now a cripple. The Miller family was no longer the richest in Norwood, which was still declining step by step.

As for Gina, she was so glorious, rich, and powerful that he couldn't beat her.

However, he would definitely do his best. Even if he had to sacrifice his life, he had to take revenge on Gina and Gabriel.

Ella was shocked, but she could not accept the truth. "Impossible that's impossible. Where did you get this recording?"

James did not hide it. "Olivia gave it to me."

When she heard Olivia's name, the corners of Gina's mouth curled up sarcastically. It was her trick again. SEARCH THE WEBSITE TO ACCESS CHAPTERS OF NOVELS EARLY AND IN THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

"It's fake. The recording must be fake. Olivia wants to see us mess with Gina. James, hurry up and apologize to Gina. Tell her that you know your mistake. Tell her you were just misled by Olivia. Ella said anxiously and helplessly.

James shook off Ella's hand. "Mom, don't be stubborn. Gina is a heartless beast. No matter how bad Olivia is, no matter how many things she has done wrong, her heart will always be on our side. We are family. Why do you think Gina arranged for -me to receive treatment in her hospital? It's because she's guilty. She's afraid of karma!"

"Shut up!" Ella raised her hand and slapped James.

She was afraid of their conflicts deepening.

Gina was still calmly facing the angry James. She walked forward and raised her hand to slap him. Under her full force, James's nose bled and he fell to the ground with his vision blurred.

"Ah!"

Ella was shocked. She squatted down to help her son up, but she was afraid that Gina would hit James again. She knelt down, and begged, "Gina, I beg you, stop hitting your brother. He is weak. Just hit me! Don't be angry, calm down!"

When she saw her mother begging such a vicious ingrate, James roared, "Gina, if you dare to hit Mom, you're a beast!"

"Come at me. Come on! Beat me to death!"

Dylan rushed over. When he saw Gina's wet back, he went forward and asked, "Gina, what's wrong? What's on your back?"

Dylan touched Gina's back and was shocked to find that it was scalding hot..

Looking at the thermos flask on the ground, Dylan understood. He couldn't stand it anymore and said, "Shame on you! You should know how much Gina has sacrificed for the family. Why do you hurt her? What's wrong with your heads?"

James spat fiercely. "Who cares? She pretended to be an ignorant bumpkin when she returned home. If she had revealed her identity earlier, would we despise her? It's all her fault!"

Dylan was furious. Gina hid her identity to protect them. "You are the real ingrates. Gina didn't tell you her identity because..."

"Stop." Gina interrupted Dylan. There was no point in saying anything more. "Dylan, let James be discharged immediately. Prover Hospital will never accept this patient."

Chapter 283

Ella grabbed Gina's leg tightly. "Please let James stay here for treatment. Even if... even if the costs are doubled, it's fine!"

"Mom!" James pulled Ella's hand away. "Don't beg her!"

"Fine, I'll leave. I don't need their treatment."

Ella cried bitterly, not knowing what to do.

Dylan said to Gina, "Gina, your back is scalded. Go and treat it first."

"Okay." Gina turned around and left.

She took a cold shower and applied the ointment in Dylan's office.

Dylan went back to report to Gina, "Gina, they have left the hospital."

Gina nodded. "Yes, I understand."

"Are your burns serious?"

"It's fine/It's just a small problem," Gina said.

In Miller Jewels, Noah was feeling frustrated about the company's poor performance when he received another call from Ella.

"What? Gina let James get discharged? What happened), Mom? Don't cry and make yourself clear."

Ella was crying on the phone and told Noah everything that happened.

Noah was rendered dead silent by James's manic behaviors. Even if he had a grudge against Gina, couldn't he wait until he recovered?

Back then, in order to let James get admitted to Prover Hospital for treatment, the entire family begged Gina grovelingly and received her humiliation.

Now, his leg had not been cured but he was kicked out. So the family's humiliation and efforts had all become aj vain.

However, Noah still targeted Gina and said, "That b*tch never lets us go. No matter how unwilling she is to admit has the Miller family's blood.

"Mom, don't get your hopes up. Don't wish that she would come back and acknowledge us as her family again. She's heartless ingrate."

On the other end of the phone, James heard his brother criticizing Gina. He echoed indignantly. I really regret not splashing that boiling water on her face, If her seductive face was disfigured, would Gabriel still like her?"

When James mentioned Gabriel, Noah's heart skipped a beat. "James, you splashed Gina today? If she told Cabriel later, wouldn't Gabriel be coming at us?"

"What are you afraid of? Come on! I'm already a cripple now. What's there to be afraid of? It's best if Gabriel has some backbone and comes to settle scores with me in person. If I can exchange my life for his, I won't have any regrets!" James said angrily.

"Don't talk nonsense! I won't allow you to give up your life!"

James looked at Ella's haggard face and said, "Mom, don't worry about me. Have a break. It's been tough taking care of me recently."

Ella shook her head. "I can't feel at ease. There are a bunch of things at home, it's a mess, and the company is not doing well."

As Ella spoke, she suddenly retched. James was a little nervous. "Mom, what's wrong?"

Ella waved her hand. "I'm fine."

James said to Noah on the other end of the line, "Take Mom to the hospital for a checkup when you're free."

Noah was silent. He was extremely busy every day. After work, he only wanted to lie down. But James was free. Not only did he not have to worry about the company's matters, but during the time he was hospitalized, the entire family had to serve him alone.

Now, he was ordering him to do things again.

Noah was filled with resentment. He really wanted to pass the buck back to him who had been free for a long time.

Moreover, James was able to walk on crutches now. Accompanying Ella to the hospital would be very easy for him. But James still shifted the task and avoided responsibility.

“Hello?” James wondered if Noah had hung up.

“Sure, let’s see when I’m free. Noah gave a perfunctory reply.

-Ella said, “I’m fine. Go ahead with your own things. I just feel a little dizzy and nauseous. It’s not a big deal. Perhaps I didn’t rest well. Don’t worry about me. I don’t need to do a checkup.”

“Mom, have a good rest. I’ll hang up first.”

“Okay”

Hanging up the phone, Noah sent Liam a message asking. [When are you free? Could you take Mom to the hospital for a checkup?]

[I’m training students. Very busy every day.] After Liam won the championship in the International Boxing Competition, he teamed up with some partners to open a boxing club. His title of champion had attracted many students. Previously, he had his ribs broken by Gina, and there were endless family matters that delayed his work for a long time. Now, he wanted to focus on his career.

Noah replied: [Okay.]

He then sent another message to Liam, asking if he was free.

Liam replied: [Sorry, but you know my career has been ruined by Gina. I’ve also terminated my contract with Star Entertainment. They still think that I’ve had a lot of negative impact on the company. I’ve even been sued. I’m extremel busy now. I want to make a comeback and fight a lawsuit with the company. I don’t have time.]

[Got it.] Noah gave up. He put down his phone and scolded impatiently, “D8mn it, so you guys are the only ones who are busy. And I’m free!”

Now, Ivan and Ronnie were both overseas. He had no one to rely on.

After work, Noah did not go home immediately. He felt that the house was in a foul mood. He felt that everyone was filled with resentment. Noah was depressed, so he went to a new bar called King

Noah sat alone in the booth and drank alone. He watched the men and women in the other booths laughing. He suddenly felt a little irritated and got up to go to the washroom.

When his gaze landed on the woman who had been hit, he widened his eyes and said, "Olivia?"

Olivia was still thinking that it was better to avoid trouble and apologize to this drunkard. Unexpectedly, this man was Noah!.

After hearing him call her name, Olivia sneered, "What a small world. It's you."

Chapter 284

Noah gulped and felt extremely depressed at this moment. He was the one who had completely fallen out with Olivia in the whole family, but now he even recalled the days when they were so harmonious.

He teased. "How's the money you owe Gina?"

Olivia's face darkened. If she put the money into her account, it would immediately be transferred to Gina. She was using Mason's account to save her living expenses. However, she could not put the money into her bank account. If she did not return Gina's money for a long time, Gina would make things difficult with her.

Olivia said angrily. "About 18 million dollars."

Noah burst out laughing. He felt much better that Olivia was in a much worse state.

Olivia rolled her eyes. She knew that Noah would react this way. She sneered and said. "You don't have to worry about debt. I'll be able to repay the money in no time."

She was now in charge of a mysterious business that earned a big fortune.

my

However, Olivia did not want to stop there. She still wanted to get close to Colin, so whenever she was free, she would come to King for drinking and fun. But She did not expect to meet Noah today.

Noah sneered. "You're so confident? Have you hooked up with some rich guy again?"

But how could that be the case? You're pathetic right now. Which man would fall for you?"

Olivia said disdainfully. "Do you think I only rely on men?"

"What else could it be?" Noah retorted.

Olivia was furious. She had long disliked Noah. She went forward and slapped Noah. "How dare you! Stop acting like a snob, Noah. I'm no longer the Olivia I used to be!"

After the slap, Olivia was afraid that Noah would fight back, so she immediately bypassed him to leave.

Noah came back to his senses and was furious. "Olivia, stop right there. How dare you hit me!"

Olivia wanted to flee, but she was wearing high heels and could not run fast. Her wrist was grabbed by Noah. Noah clenched his fist and punched Olivia in the face. Olivia closed her eyes in fear.

“What are you doing? No one hits women in my bar.”

When Noah heard this, he was stunned. He turned around and saw a man in a suit with a smile on his face, but he gave a cruel feeling.

Olivia heard a familiar voice and opened her eyes. “Mr. Barnes?”

Although she did not know why Colin was helping her, she was pleasantly surprised that Colin was protecting her.

e off a

Do they know each other?’ Noah instinctively felt that this man was not to be trifled with. The so-called Mr. Barnes seemed to be the owner of this bar.

He let go of her.

Olivia immediately ran behind Colin and said, “Mr. Barnes, thank you for saving me.”

Colin ignored her. Stopping violence was just his responsibility, nothing special.

Noah panicked and explained, “I didn’t hit her just now,”

Colin laughed. “I know, I saw it. But I saw that you two know each other. What’s your relationship?”

Noah was surprised. Why was this man still so nosy?

Olivia explained. “We used to be siblings.”

“Used to be siblings? Colin smiled. “What a special relationship. What’s your name?”

“Noah Miller.”-

Colin’s eyes pretended to brighten up. “So you’re the president of Miller Jewels?”

Noah was stunned. The other party seemed to be quite kind and polite towards him.

Noah nodded in a daze, but he felt quite relieved now.

Colin pretended to be very happy. “It’s my honor to meet you”

Behind him, Olivia’s eyes widened when she heard Mr. Barnes regarded it as an honor to meet Noah. But she felt it sounded hypocritical

James saw that this person called Mr. Barnes did not seem to have any hostile intention of hitting him, so he was not as cowardly as before. He straightened his back and was about to greet Colin and reach out his hand. “Hello, Mr. Barnes. Yes, I am the president of Miller Jewels, Noah Miller. Mr. Barnes, how do you know about our company?” James’s heart was filled with anticipation.

Colin said with a faint smile, “You have a jewelry series quite popular on the market. I remember that it’s called Wish collection, right?”

Upon hearing the words Wish collection, Noah and Olivia’s expressions changed. They both thought of bad memories about Gina.

Noah was embarrassed. “Yes”

Colin was puzzled. “But I find it a little strange. Aren’t these shoes selling very well? Why haven’t I seen them again?”

This was because Gina did not allow them to sell these shoes again.

However, Noah would not be so foolish as to reveal the fact.

He stammered, “It’s our inside problems. I can’t say that.”

“Alright.” Colin did not probe further.

“My sister also likes your jewelry very much.”

“Is that so? What an honor!” Noah quickly seized the opportunity to flatter him.

Colin raised his eyebrows and said, “Actually, I have the idea of buying a batch of jewelry. I wonder if it’s convenient for you to talk about business now?”

Noah's eyes lit up. "Yes, of course!"

"I'm not free. However, Colin was in a good mood today. He did not intend to get angry at Olivia..

Noah was curious about their relationship. He boldly asked, "Mr. Barnes, may I ask what's your relationship with her?"

Colin smiled. "Mr. Miller, why are you interested in it? L... slept with her before."

Chapter 285

Chapter 285

Colin's words shocked them both.

The corners of Noah's mouth twitched slightly as he cursed in his heart. 'I slept with her too.

Olivia did not expect Colin to reveal their secret right before Noth.

"What's wrong? Do you have any questions?" Colin asked when he saw Noah still in a daze.

Noah shook his head. "No, no,"

"Alright, let's sit down and have a talk." Colin said.

"Alright, alright." Noahs nodded repeatedly.

Olivia was very angry when she saw Noah chatting happily with Colin. She felt that Noah had stolen her chance to get close to Colin Bastard!

Olivia could not bear to leave just like that. She sat in a booth no far from them. She just watched and saw them talk. After about half an hour, Colin stood up and left. Olivia wanted to chase after him, but Colin was drowned in the crowd soon.

Olivia stomped her feet in anger.

Noah walked to her and said in mockery, "I didn't expect that you've slept with Mr. Barnes"

Olivia rolled her eyes at Noah. "So what? Are you jealous? Go lie on Mr. Barnes's bed. Let's see if he wants you."

"You!" Noah pointed at Olivia with his trembling finger. But Olivia was more or less related to Mr. Barnes, so he couldn't beat her up. If he did, Mr. Barnes wouldn't let him off.

Moreover, Mr. Barnes had just negotiated a big deal with him, which would save Miller Jewels from bankruptcy.

However, when he thought about how he had to give Gina dividends for the money he earned, Noah got furious.

If only he could make Gina lose her shares.

Noah rolled his eyes and his gaze landed on Olivia. "I'm sorry. I said something improper just now. Please don't hold it against me. After all, we were once a family."

Olivia was shocked. Was Noah crazy? Was he apologizing for what happened just now? Did he think that she had a close relationship with Mr. Barnes? Was that why he suddenly changed his attitude?

Olivia lowered her eyes. 'Idiot'

Noah sighed. "Olivia, to be honest, if it weren't for Gina, our family wouldn't have become like this.

"She's an ingrate! Why didn't she die back then?" Noah gritted his teeth.

Noah remembered that Ella had said that one day his father pushed the pram out for a walk, and he forgot to bring her home. When he looked for her again, she could no longer be found. Ella was depressed for some time, but after adopting Olivia, her life gradually got lightened up. She accepted the fact and felt that Gina might not be destined to stay in this home.

Anyway, she still had so many children. As time passed, she naturally did not take the loss of Gina to heart.

Noah's words hit Olivia's heart. Without Gina, she would still be the Miller family's daughter.

"Why did this bi*ch have to be found! She should have died a long time ago. Why wasn't she stab to death when she got

Jost?

Olivia gritted her teeth in anger. Tears of resentment flowed from her eyes. It was because of Gina that she had become so miserable. She hated Gina in bones and was dying to cut her into pieces.

Olivia swallowed and wiped her tears.

“So, what’s the point of saying all this now? Can you turn back time?”

Could they still go back and be a family again?

Olivia wanted to, but Ella did not give her a chance at all.

“Sigh. I’m just sighing. Noah rubbed his eyebrows. “How have you been recently? Did Gina trouble you?”

Olivia did not want to look like in dire straits. She said, “I’m doing very well. Gina has no reason to cause trouble for me. I didn’t provoke her.”

Noah chuckled and said unhappily. “We didn’t provoke her, but she kicked James out of Prover Hospital.”

Olivia was not surprised. She did not care too much and asked casually, “How’s James’s condition?”

Noah said, “He can walk on crutches now. He just got discharged when he started to get better. I don’t know if he can recover fully in the future. If he returns to Vegate Central Hospital, I’m afraid the effect won’t be that good. His leg is still limping. Now, Mom doesn’t seem to be feeling well. The family is in a mess. It’s really annoying.

“I’m so busy every day that I don’t even have time to bring Moin for a checkup.” Noah complained.

Olivia was deep in thought. “I can take her to the hospital/”

Noah was a little surprised. Although Olivia had already been chased by them, they had still been living together for more than 20 years.

They used to be a family.

“Do you have time? Are you willing to take her to the hospital? Noah wanted to confirm again.

Olivia nodded and gave full play to her acting skills. “Yes, although Mom no longer acknowledges me, the Miller family has raised me for so many years. I’m not heartless.”

Olivia was not as concerned about Ella as she appeared to be.

She was just unwilling to be chased out by the Miller family and not get acknowledged. She had to see them beg her to go back like how they begged Gina.

She had been thinking about this scene for a long time. Finally, her chance had come.

Noah thought about how Olivia had invested 200 million dollars into Miller Jewels. Even though Olivia had obtained the money from Gina with tricks, the first thing she thought of was to repay the Miller family's kindness. So she was grateful and kind, not like that cruel Gina.

As a shareholder of the company, Gina did not care about the Miller Jewels at all. It seemed that she had insisted on taking 20% of the shares mainly to piss them off.

Noah was kind of touched by Olivia. "Okay, I'll tell Mom,"

"If she is unwilling, then forget it. I won't force you," Olivia said calmly.

At Gina's apartment. Gabriel sent a message to Gina, but she did not reply. Gabriel remembered that before he got off work, Gina told him that she was sleepy. Gabriel felt that Gina was probably sleeping at this moment. As Gina's boyfriend, he now had her house's password. He tried to open the door with the password tentatively.

Chapter 286

Chapter 286

Gabriel walked through the door and found Gina lying on the sofa, who seemed to be asleep.

She was wearing a shirt, and her back was bare.

However, what Gabriel saw was not Gina's smooth skin. Her back was still red and swollen with some blisters on it,

Gabriel instantly frowned.

He closed the door and walked to the sofa to check on Gina's injuries.

Even though Gabriel had already closed the door very quietly, Gina, who was a light sleeper, still woke up the moment he approached.

However, she knew that the person who came in was Gabriel.

Other than Gabriel, no one knew the password to her apartment

Therefore, she was not in a hurry to open her eyes.

Gabriel wanted to know how Gina got injured.

However, when he saw that Gina was still sleeping, he could not bear to disturb her.

He began to look around for the first aid kit. Finally, he found it in a cabinet. Coincidentally, there was ointment inside. He took it out and squeezed it on a swab to apply it on Gina's back.

"Hiss!" Gina grunted.

Gabriel immediately stopped. "Gina, did I hurt you? I'm sorry."

Gina shook her head. "No, it is starting to take effect, kind of stimulating"

Gabriel still felt that Gina did not want him to feel guilty. "I'll be gentler now."

He finished applying the ointment for Cina and asked, "Gina, what happened to your back?"

Cina sat up and put on her shirt. She did not answer Gabriel's question immediately. Instead, she asked, "Gabriel, did you tamper with James's car?"

Gabriel was surprised that Gina knew about this. After all, David did things without leaving any traces. Moreover, Gabriel had never planned to tell Gina about this. Gina did not like to owe people favors.

However, now that Gina knew about it, Gabriel felt that there was no need to hide it. He nodded and said, "Yes, Gina, do you remember going back to school on the day you left the Miller family? I bumped into James on the way. He drove his car towards you. He wanted to kill you, so I didn't stop his car. So I let David rig his car. He was the one to kill you first, so I didn't want to let him off."

James still wanted to kill her? She did not know that there was such a thing, but she was not surprised at all. Back then, the Miller family was united to take her life.

When Gabriel saw that Gina did not speak, he asked tentatively, "Did I do something wrong?"

Gina shook her head. "No, James deserved it."

If Gabriel did not come that day, James might not have bumped into her. However, Gina would still not let him off.

Gabriel heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good. So, Gina, your burn

James splashed a bottle of boiling water on me, Gina said nonchalantly.

"What?" When Gabriel heard this, his expression turned cold. "The courting death? I'll go to him now."

Gina pulled Gabriel back. "There's no need. I've already settled it. Do you think I'll let him off if he dares to kill me?"

Gabriel knew that Cina would definitely retaliate, but he just wanted to do his best to help Gina.

Gabriel sat down again. "How did he splash it on you?"

Gina told him the whole story.

Gabriel was surprised. "Recording? What did I say in the recording?"

"You said you would find an opportunity to cripple him," Gina repeated. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Gabriel's expression was solemn. He had said this to David in his car back then. He was also surprised that this recording was sent by Olivia,

How did Olivia get it?

Gabriel suspected that his custom-made Rolls Royce was wiretapped, Gina thought so too.

Gabriel immediately contacted David and asked him to check the car.

Fifteen minutes later, after a careful investigation, David replied "Mr. Jackson, no device detected."

Or rather, it had already been removed.

"Alright, I got it

There were no clues for the time being, so Gabriel could only put this matter aside for now.

After hanging up the phone, Gabriel just wanted to cherish the moment with Gina.

Gina lay in Gabriel's arms. "How's Neil recently?"

"He's all right."

"That's good."

"Gina, you don't have to go back to Oriata City anymore, right? Quaria's new product launch is over." Gabriel had been quite busy recently.

If Gina still insisted on going to Oriata City, he would not be able to accompany her this time. Last time, he came back halfway.

However, if he did not even have time to send Gina there, wouldn't he have to start a long-distance relationship with Gina? They had only been together for a few days. Gabriel felt bitter that they were about to separate.

“No, although it’s over, I still have some things to deal with. Not a big deal. I’ll be back soon when I’m done.”

With that, Gina added, “I’ll be back soon.”

Unknowingly, she did not want to be separated from Gabriel.

“Alright, Gabriel said as he held Gina’s hand.

He said excitedly, "I met a rich man tonight. He wanted to place big order for our products. As long as this order is completed, the cash flow problems will be solved."

"Who?" Ella asked curiously.

Noah said, "Colin Barnes. The Barnes family has a huge business overseas. This time, they came back intending to return home. By the way. Mr. Barnes said that his sister likes our company's jewelry very much. Otherwise, he wouldn't have thought of investing in jewelry."

Ella was puzzled. "His sister likes our jewelry. Has she ever bought our products? You said that they have a big business and it would definitely be a big order. So his sister should be a VIP customer."

Noah remained silent. Colin told him that his sister's name was Elaine. Noah thought about it carefully. There was no VIP in their company with this name.

However, Noah quickly justified himself. "Mom, they stay overseas all year round. To be honest, our company isn't that famous internationally.

"They just came back home and found out about our brand. Maybe Mr. Barnes just said so out of courtesy, I couldn't ask him how much they bought, right?"

Ella also felt that his son's words made sense. Then, did he say which series his sister likes the most? We can give Miss Barnes some as a gift."

Noah's face darkened. How could he not have thought of this?

"He said his sister loved the Wish collection."

Both of them looked embarrassed when mentioning it. So they tacitly skipped this topic.

Ella coughed again.

Noah patted her back and calmed her down. "Mom, you must have been exhausted taking care of James recently. But I have such an important order to deal with now. I can't accompany you to the hospital for a checkup, but I've hired a caregiver to accompany you to the hospital."

Ella understood the importance of Mr. Barnes's order and did not say anything else. She nodded and said, "Alright, actually there's nothing wrong with my body. I'll be fine after resting for a few more days. It's not a bad thing to do a checkup."

The next day, in Quaria

"Gina, I've investigated it. Although the post on the company's intranet was on Alison's account, we found that someone had hacked her account and logged in..."

"Someone hired a hacker to do this."

"Who?" Gina looked up and asked.

"Zelda Jensen."

Gina arrived at the marketing department. When Zelda saw Gina, she gladly smiled at her. "Gina! The new product launch is over. Are you leaving?"

It was a pity that she had always wanted to curry favor with Gina but she did not. However, since Gina had connections and status, it was not a bad idea to make friends with her. Zelda just did not know if Gina treated her as a friend. After all, she had helped her out at that banquet.

Gina went straight to the point. "Why did you frame Alison?"

When Zelda heard Gina's words, her heart skipped a beat and her expression stiffened.

"What are you talking about? I don't understand. Did I frame Alison?" Zelda pretended to be confused.

"You placed an order of 30 thousand dollars to hire a hacker to hack Alison's account. Then, you used her account to post the so-called anonymous post."

Although stealing accounts was a piece of cake for hackers on the dark web, hacking into Quaria's intranet still required high-level skills, which was why the price was so high.

Gina told the truth word by word.

Zelda was flustered. "No, Gina, I really don't understand what you're talking about. What hacker? I don't know." She began to avoid Gina's gaze.

Gina requested that she not avoid the question. "You should know that it's useless to pretend. I can investigate everything you've done, so let's not waste time, okay?"

Zelda was on the verge of breaking down. "What... what are you going to do to me? Fire me like Alison?"

Gina nodded. "Yes."

Zelda burst into tears. I just hoped that Alison would become the target of blame and be suspended for some time so that I could vent my anger. I didn't expect that she would leak the secret to Top Shrine!"

Zelda did not expect Alison to do such a crazy thing in a fit of anger. At the same time, she was afraid that what she had done would be discovered. But on second thought, she believed that she would not be incriminated because she hired the hacker on a little-known website.

Unexpectedly, within two days, Gina found her.

"Ayleen has paid the price for her mistake. As for you, you have to pay the price for slandering her," Gina said calmly.

Zelda cried bitterly and could not say a word.

Gina waited for her to calm down. "Come with me to see Alison. You need to apologize to her."

Zelda did not dare to refuse. After all, the person behind Gina was Mr. Clark.

She nodded unwillingly. "Okay"

Gina dialed Alison's number.

Alison swallowed hard. Just meet at the cafe downstairs from the company. I'll go over."

When Alison arrived at the cafe, she saw Zelda sitting with Gina with red eyes.

She sat down and glanced at Zelda. "Is this your doing?"

Zelda glared at her. "So what? Alison, let me tell you, even if I end up like you, I've never regretted it. This is the price you have to pay for looking down on me!

Ayleen was a little puzzled. She glanced at Gina again. Could it be that Gina had also fired Zelda?

"I spent money to find a hacker to hack your account and write flat post, Zelda confessed.

Alison was very angry and splashed a glass of water on Zelda's face. "B*tch"

Chapter 288

Zelda was so angry that she almost fought with Alison.

Gina stopped them and said. "I've already asked Zelda to publicly apologize and make it clear that you weren't the person who posted the thread at that time. Jade said that when she calmed down after some time, she would make an apology to you."

Actually, Alison did not care if they apologized or not. She did not expect that Gina would really do what she said to investigate this matter's ins and outs. She regretted betraying the company, but what was done couldn't be undone.

Alison asked Zelda, "So, how did you know that Jade was almost nolested?"

Zelda confessed, "Alban told me. We are friends in private."

On weekends, they would go to the bar to drink together. However, the two of them rarely met in the company and would not eat together, so no one knew that they were still friends.

Alison said sarcastically. "It's true that birds of a feather flock together. You make friends with those disgusting people

Zelda snorted coldly. "Sp. Alison, are you good people? When I first entered the company, we were still considered friends. I said that my dream was to be able to become the director within a year. You mocked me for being delusional. Why? Just because you were my senior?"

So this was how the feud between the two of them was formed.

However, Gina was no longer interested in listening to their past grudges. She said, "Zelda, apologize to Alison right now."

Zelda did not dare to disobey Gina's orders. "I'm sorry"

Her phone rang. Gina took a look and saw that it was a call from Gabriel. She stood up and said, "Settle your grudges on your own. I'll leave first."

"Yes," Zelda nodded.

Gina stood up and left. Alison suddenly called out to her, "Gina"

Gina stopped in her tracks and turned to look back.

Alison said. "I'm sorry. I shouldn't have suspected that you wanted me to take the blame. Also, I shouldn't have betrayed Quaria.

Gina nodded and walked out of the cafe.

She picked up the call. "Gabriel? Are you busy now? Why are you calling me?"

"Because I'm Ashley, the person on the other end of the phone said.

"Miss Jackson, what's the matter?"

"You agreed to date Gabriel?" Ashley asked.

Gina replied calmly. "Yes."

Ashley snorted. "Do you feel threatened now? However, even though Gabriel is your boyfriend now, that doesn't mean you will be his wife. Let me tell you...."

Before she could finish her words, the phone hung up. Ashley's face turned red with anger. After all, she was Gabriel's sister!

In the future, if Gina really married into the Jackson family, she would be her sister-in-law. But now Gina dared to be so disrespectful.

Ashley was furious and called back indignantly. Fortunately, Gina accepted it.

"Why did you hang up on me?" Ashley said angrily.

Gina replied calmly. "I'm very busy. Miss Jackson, if you're calling to educate me or warn me, I don't have time."

"You..." Ashley was so angry that she was at a loss for words. It took her a while to calm down. "You're Gabriel's girlfriend now. You should be polite to me. Is this how you treat people? You're so disrespectful."

Seeing that Gina was silent, Ashley had an intuition that Gina was probably about to hang up again, she hurriedly said, "Don't hang up!"

"Alright, I stop it. I have something to ask you, but I don't have your contact information, Gabriel's phone is on the table in his office. I'm just calling you with his phone."

"Sai it," Gina said simply.

Ashley held back her dissatisfaction with Gina. "Does your hospital have a high success rate in IVF?"

Gina was a little surprised, but she did not ask the reason why she asked about it. "Yes,"

Ashley rolled her eyes. "Can you just say more words?"

wwwwww

She felt that Gina was quite similar to Gabriel. Especially when they were cold and aloof, they would spend their words like gold. However, Gabriel would not be so frigid in front of Gina.

Ashley secretly took a look at the chat history between Gabriel and Gina. Gabriel's messages were all long paragraphs. Sometimes Gina even replied after a long time but it was also very concise.

What the hell? Gabriel was also someone who got snubbed.

"I plan to go to Prover Hospital to do IVF. I bought sperm from a foreign sperm bank and plan to have a child myself," Ashley continued.

"Oh." Gina actually did not understand why Ashley wanted to explain. She was not interested in Ashley's matter.

Ashley panicked. "Oh? Is that your reaction?"

Gina did not understand. "Do you need my blessings? Then I wish you success."

Ashley suspected that Gina did it on purpose, or she really knew nothing about how to get along with people.

She took a deep breath and said, "I'm going to your hospital to do it. So I'm supporting your business. Shouldn't you be grateful for my trust in your hospital?"

"Miss Jackson, don't you think it's strange to say that you're supporting a hospital's business? Also, it's your choice whether you choose Prover Hospital or not. I don't have to thank you for your choice, Gina said calmly.

Ashley fell into dead silence again. She wanted to curse.

At this moment, Gabriel returned to the office. "Ashley, what are you doing?"

Ashley felt a little guilty and wanted to hang up the phone, but it was too late. Gabriel took the phone back and saw that Ashley was calling Gina. Gabriel frowned, but he was not in the mood to scold Ashley now. Instead, he said to his girlfriend first. "Gina?"

Ashley stomped her feet in anger. "I have something to say to Gina!"

“What’s it?” In order to prevent Ashley from saying anything unpleasant, Gabriel did not give Ashley a chance to speak to Gina,

Ashley was furious. “I want to invite her to my birthday party next weekend. She is your girlfriend. I just want to invite my brother’s girlfriend to my birthday party. Anything wrong?”

On the other end of the line, Gina heard what Ashley said.

However, she was not interested in her birthday party. Moreover when Ashley first met her, she was the only one who bore malice towards her. Hence, Gina rejected her without hesitation “I don’t have time.”

Ashley revealed a shocked expression.

Gabriel asked, “Gina has already answered you. Can you leave now?”

Ashley was about to get into a rage. She had never been treated like this before!

She snorted and left the office in a huff.

Gabriel could finally have a moment with Gina alone. “Have you settled the matters in Oriata City?”

“Yes Olivia tried her best to lower her voice and make it sound tough so that Ella would not recognize her.

Ella looked at her for a while and still recognized her. “Take off your sunglasses and mask. I know who you are.”

How could she not recognize someone she had brought up just because of a little disguise?

Olivia took off her sunglasses. “Mrs. Miller

Ella’s heart skipped a beat. She did not expect Olivia to call her in such a distant way.

“You can leave. I can go to the hospital myself,” Ella said.

Olivia was puzzled. “Mrs. Miller, are you worried that Gina will see me with you? You’re worried that she would never come back, right? If both of us don’t tell her, she won’t know at all.”

After all. Gina did not care about the Miller family at all.

“Mrs. Miller, you’ve raised me for over twenty years. It doesn’t matter that you hate me. I admit that I did too many wrong things back then, causing a misunderstanding between you and your biological daughter. I know that it’s useless to apologize now, but I was just too afraid of losing the family that loved me.

“After all, if it weren’t for you. I would just be a pitiful orphan abandoned by my biological parents. So now, I just want to express my gratitude. Mrs. Miller, don’t worry. I won’t pester you. Just treat me as a free nanny and order me around.” Olivia choked.

Ella’s heart was touched to some extent. She had worked hard for so long, but Gina was not even willing to give her a chance and even chased James out of the hospital.

Also, the car accident that James mentioned was caused by Gabriel.

After returning home from Prover Hospital, they tacitly did not review the car accident. After all, they knew in their hearts, that even if they had evidence that Gabriel had caused it. When they used to be the richest family in Norwood, they did not have the chance to compete with him, let alone now.

She was also tired and had been trying to win back a daughter that would never come back.

Olivia’s eyes flashed with surprise. It seemed that her heartfelt words” had worked.

After getting into the car. Olivia said, “Mrs. Miller, I’ll take you to a private hospital called Blue Vale for the checkup”

It was Nicolas’s private hospital.

Olivia had already contacted Nicolas in advance. When Ella went for a checkup later, she would not need to pay. However, she told Noah that she would pay the bills. So she didn’t need to spend a single cent, but she had earned a favorable impression. It would be much easier for her to return to the Miller family in the future.

Ella did not say anything. She felt that it was very awkward to stay with Olivia.

Olivia continued, “I heard from Noah that James had left Prover Hospital. How about this? Why don’t we transfer him to Blue Vale Hospital? Although it was opened half a year ago, its medical resources are not inferior to Prover Hospital’s.”

Their marriage was canceled by Ethan, her biological father killed her adoptive father, and she was kicked out of the Miller family.

After so many disasters had happened, how could she still stay at Trowell University? Also, she got admitted because of the Miller family's bribery. Without their protection and under the impact of the scandal, Mr. Baker had directly expelled her. Anyway, she had not gone to school for a long time, so she might as well drop out.

Ella was surprised, but she felt that it was expected. She asked. "So, you're working now as a caregiver?"

“No, I work at Blue Vale. I manage the blood bank. Olivia spouted nonsense.

Ella just had a rough idea but didn't ask further.

The two of them arrived at Blue Vale Hospital without a word.-

Olivia accompanied Ella to finish the examination and wait for the results.

Ella went to the bathroom. Olivia was sitting on a bench in the corridor as Dr. Jacquard came looking for her.

“Your foster mother's urine test is out.”

Olivia asked, “How is it?”

Dr. Jacquard gave a vague smile. “It's not a big problem, but she looks haggard. She must have been too tired these days.

He sat next to Olivia and said in a low voice, “But her kidney might be compatible with a buyer's. She needs to be examined further.

Olivia's eyes widened. “What do you mean? I didn't bring her here to sell her organs!”

Dr. Jacquard nodded. “I know, but the other party is not an ordinary buyer. It's a member of a foreign royal family. The price is also very impressive. Let me tell you, if the transplant is successful, you can get at least 200 thousand dollars.”

‘200 thousand dollars! Olivia was shocked by this price. At the same time, she was tempted.

“Sick? Kidney failure? Tell her that she needs a kidney transplant and then take out her good kidney. Is it okay?” Her speech became hurried. Olivia was worried that Ella would suddenly come back and hear them plotting openly here.

Dr. Jacquard smiled. "You're wise. Yes, just lie to her in this way. I give a cheap kidney to her."

Olivia licked her lips in excitement.

"Will the match be successful? Olivia was a little worried.

"Are you worried that you won't be able to earn money? Since I've been here to talk, of course, it's a big chance. But I have to do further fitting checks in the future. I'm informing you first now so that you can be prepared."

Olivia understood. Hearing footsteps, her heart beat faster. "Let's not talk about it for now. We'll talk about it in private later!"

"Sure." Dr. Jacquard nodded.

Ella returned. She was a little surprised to see a doctor with blond hair and azure eyes sitting beside Olivia. However, the doctor was wearing a mask, so Ella could not see his face.

Seeing that Ella was staring at him. Dr. Jacquard stood up and greeted, "Mrs. Miller, hello, I'm Olivia's friend and also her boss."

"Oh, hello" Ella's lips twitched awkwardly.

"I heard that your son's legs have been seriously fractured. He's in the recovery stage. Now, he needs to find a better hospital to recover?"

Ella nodded. "Yes"

"If you don't mind, welcome to our hospital for treatment," Dr. fequard said with a smile.

"Well... Ella seemed a little hesitant.

Dr. Jacquard continued. "Mrs. Miller. I'm just recommending. Of course, it's your freedom to choose which hospital. By the way, some of the results will be out tomorrow. You can go back now and wait."

“So, what’s the general condition of my body? Is it good or bad?” Ella asked worriedly.

Dr. Jacquard said, “I still have to wait for the final results. In short, Mrs. Miller, you have to be mentally prepared.”

Ella’s heart skipped a beat. It must be serious.

“Mrs. Miller, don’t be afraid. Don’t worry. If you’re sick) we’ll treat you. Please maintain a positive mentality. It’s never wrong. With that, Dr. Jacquard left.

Ella was still in a daze. She went for a physical examination every year and her condition was not bad. Why did her body suddenly could not take it this year?

“Mrs. Miller, don’t be nervous. I’m sure you’ll be fine.” Olivia comforted her.

Ella did not speak. After a moment of silence, she asked Olivia, What’s your relationship with Dr. Jacquard?”

Olivia was stunned. “What?” She did not understand why Ella asked this question.

“Did you and him...” Ella was unable to say the word ‘sleep.

Olivia got it. “Mrs. Miller, what are you thinking? I just know Dr. Jacquard. He’s the owner of this hospital and the boss v pays me. Do I have to rely on my body for such a simple job? Am I like this in your eyes?” Olivia’s eyes turned red. She looked very aggrieved.

Ella was silent for a moment. “I’m sorry, I said something wrong. You can leave. I can go back by myself.”

Olivia nodded. “Alright. Anyway, I’m taking leave to accompany you today. Now I can continue working. Just now, Dr. Jacquard also asked me if I was taking leave to accompany you to see a doctor. I was just chatting with him. Our relationship is not like what you think. Besides, he’s already over 50. Can you get me?”

It seemed that she had misunderstood her. Ella thought that it was mainly because Olivia had said that she had slept with Noah before. It was too shocking, and it really gave her a blow,

Before he left, Ella turned around and reminded her, “From now on, you’d better not contact Noah.”
