Chapter 291

Chapter 291

Moreover, she had slept with Noal that night purely because that the jerk Noah forced her.

But she needed Ella to have a good impression of her for now, therefore she couldn't talk back to Ella.

Olivia lowered her head and said obediently, "Alright, I get it, Mrs. Miller"

Olivia's gentle attitude made Ella's heart soften. However, she resisted the urge to continue chatting with Olivia and turned.

to leave.

Olivia rolled her eyes as she watched Ella leave. She was sure that sooner or later, Ella would beg her to return to the Miller family.

When Noah returned home, he saw Ella sitting on the sofa with a cold expression.

"Was the escort you mentioned Olivia?" Ella asked angrily.

Noah was a little impatient. "Mom, do you have to be so mean to Olivia? No matter what, we have lived together for over 20 years. Don't be too cruel

Ella was angry and also amused. She said, "What did you say? Did you call me mean? If it weren't for Olivia, how could there be so many misunderstandings between us and Gina? And how would our family have been torn apart? Also, don't forget. that your father was killed by Cole. He's Olivia's father. She's our enemy!"

Noah was impatient. "Yes, but she is not Cole. If she was also guilty of my Dad's death, she'd have been in jail now. Mom, please. Forget about bringing Gina home. She is an ungrateful person. It's Olivia who's always been treating you like her real mom."

"Shut up! Also, stop seeing her from now on!" Ella said angrily.

"Mom! That's enough. Why can't I see Olivia?"

Ella took a deep breath. "What do you want to do? Marry her? You guys are shameless, but I still care about our reputation. don't want to see the Miller family become the laughingstock of Norwood!"

Noah was stunned for a moment before he realized that his mother was worried that he and Olivia would continue to sleep. together.

Noah looked a little embarrassed. "Mom, you're thinking too much. The thing you worried is not happening."

Ella was speechless. "Who knows what you guys do when you meet? It's not like I can watch you all the time."

If one day Olivia showed up in front of her with a big belly and told her that she was carrying Noah's child, Ella would faint due to anger.

Noah broke down a little. "Mom, I told you it's not the case. We can't do anything of that sort because Olivia is currently..."

Um...

Noah did not know how to continue.

"What? What's going on with her?" Ella asked.

"Do you remember Mr. Barnes? He is a very important client. And Olivia is currently his girlfriend. You'd better be nicer to Olivia because Mr. Barnes pretty much controls the future of Miller Jewels.

Ella's eyes widened. She could not believe her ears.

She immediately began to think of her conversation with Olivia today. Fortunately, she did not say anything too mean. Ella patted her chest in fear. She reprimanded Noah and said, "That's so important. Why didn't you tell me?"

Noah probed, "If I've told you, would you stop hating Olivia and allow her to come back to the Miller family?"

Ella shook her head firmly. "She's just Mr. Barnes' girlfriend, not wife. He'll find someone else when he's tired of her one day."

Ella didn't think Mr. Barnes would marry Olivia,

Noah was speechless. "No matter what, she's now Mr. Barnes's lover and we can't afford to offend her."

Ella did not say anything this time.

The next day.

Gina received a call from Neil.

"Hello, Neil.

"Hey, Gina, are you busy?" Neil asked.

Not really. I'm chilling at home." SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"I was afraid that I'd disturb you. Well, have you made any plans for next weekend?"

Gina realized what Neil wanted to say. "Neil, do you want me to attend Ashley's birthday banquet?"

"Yes, yes, I know. You rejected Ashley. She doesn't respect you. I can understand that you don't want to participate. Actually, want to invite you because I want her to apologize to you in person." He wanted Ashley to know that he valued Gina, his future daughter-in-law so that Ashley wouldn't dare to be rude to Gina in the future.

"Apologize?"

Cina was a little surprised. She actually did not care about Ashley's attitude towards her because she didn't think she would have a lot of interaction with Ashley "Forget it. I don't need her apology" Gina did not want to cause any more trouble. After all, Ashley was kind of annoying.

"Gina, I don't want to make things difficult for you. My niece has a bad temper... Sometimes, she's very stubborn. If she doesn't learn her lesson, she might even come to offend you in the future..."

Neil was afraid that Ashley would destroy the image of the Jackson family in Gina's heart.

Gabriel and Gina were finally together, Neil wouldn't allow anyone to ruin their relationship!

Neil coughed. "Actually, there's another reason why I want you to attend Ashley's birthday banquet. Many young ladies from noble families will be there, you know.

"Their families send those young ladies there for Gabriele. Gina, that's why I think you should come and show everyone that Gabriele is yours. They won't give up otherwise."

Gina smiled. "Oh. Really?"

"Yes," Neil said happily.

"Okay, then"

Gina agreed. She felt that sometimes it was not a good thing to have too many suitors. Jasmine had been annoying enough. It would be good if her presence would make some give up.

"Okay, see you then! Neil said happily.

The two of them chatted for a while longer. Then they hang up.

Gina started to think of what gifts to bring to Ashley. She couldn't go there empty-handed.

When Ella received the call from Blue Vale Hospital, she was a little nervous.

"Hello?"

The nurse on the other end of the line said. "Mrs. Miller, we got your physical examination results. You have to be mentally prepared."

Ella's heart skipped a beat. After the nurse said that, she was so afraid that she did not dare to continue listening.

"Mrs. Miller, are you ready?"

Ella was a little flustered. However, she managed to comfort herself in her heart. She had been having physical examinations every year. If she had some serious health issue, it would have been found out.

“Go ahead, Ella said.

“The results show that you’re suffering from kidney failure. We suggest that you come to the hospital for treatment as soon as possible. Your condition isn’t very optimistic. If you don’t get treated now, you might end up with uremia, the nurse said.

Ella was stunned, and couldn’t believe her ears,

Ella’s hands and feet went cold.

Π

“Mrs. Miller, are you still there!”

“No way. What kind of hospital you are? How can you make such a mistake? I’ll sue you hung up the phone in a panic as if this could deny that her kidney was failing.

In order to verify that it was a misdiagnosis by Blue Vale as soon as possible, Ella found another private hospital for a kidney checkup.

Moreover, she paid more money, to get the result sooner.

The results came out very quickly.

It was the same. She had a kidney failure.

When he received the checkup report. Ella felt like the sky was falling.

With trembling hands, she called Noah and asked him to pick it up.

When Noah arrived, he complained. "Mom, didn't you have a physical examination just recently? Why did you have another one?"

Ella's legs went weak. She grabbed Noah's arm, and couldn't say a word for a long time.

At this moment, Noah realized that something was wrong.

He hurriedly helped Ella into the car.

Noah was a little nervous. "Mom, what's going on? What happened?"

Ella

was still speechless. She handed the medical report to Noah. When Noah saw it, he was dumbfounded.

Kidney failure.

After quite a long time, Ella finally calmed down and said. "The doctor said that I should be prepared for a kidney transplant..."

"He said that I have so many children, so there is a high chance of success, Ella looked at Noah and said.

Noah was sweating profusely. Did his mother mean that she wanted them to go for a match?

Noah felt scared. He was still so young and had yet to get married. He didn't want to go to lose a kidney.

He could not accept this.

However, Noah comforted himself that the match might not be successful. He shouldn't be panic for now.

Noah took a deep breath and said, "Mom, take some rest. Let's go home. I'll call my brothers to come back."

They went back to the Miller family.

Noah called his three brothers home.

Everyone's expressions were solemn.

Chapter 292

Ella told them she had kidney failure but did not want to live on dialysis. She hoped to have a match as soon as possible and undergo a transplant surgery.

"My good sons, why don't you take turns to make a match?" Ella asked.

After a moment of silence, Liam said, "Mom, as you know, I'm now a coach of boxing. This is what I live on. If the match is successful and I give you a kidney, I am afraid I'll have to stay at home in the future.

"So, Mom, I'm sorry. I am not going to have the match, but if you're hospitalized, I'll definitely pay and take care of you."

Since her son had said so, Ella did not know what to say. She had to admit that Liam had a point.

Liam's words caused Jason's dissatisfaction. "Liam, talking is easy. If the rest of us successfully match, we'll lose our health! Such a physical loss is not something that money can make up for. You're thinking about your career and the rest of your life. What about ours?"

"Either we all go for a match or none of us go!" Jason said.

James's face darkened. "My legs are already crippled. If I lost a kidney, I may die."

Ella felt a little pain when she saw her sons rejecting to save her.

However, she couldn't say anything. After all, she needed a kidney transplant.

However, she did not want to have more dialysis. She would die if it went on.

"Don't argue. It's okay if you don't want to go for a match. Let's wait. Maybe the hospital can help me find a suitable kidney," Ella said.

She just did not know how long she would have to wait. This was also what Ella was afraid of. She was afraid that she would die before the kidney was found.

Noah sighed and said, "In my opinion, Gina should go for a match. If it works, she might as well offer her kidney to you as a redemption for her sins against the Miller family!"

Gina wouldn't possibly agree to the match....

Ella was tired. "I'll pack up and go to Blue Vale to be hospitalized

She checked on Blue Vale and found that Blue Vale's medical resources were much worse than Prover Hospital's but better than those of other private hospitals in Norwood. Therefore, she chose to go to Blue Vale.

After packing up, Ella's sons sent her to the hospital.

For the next days, they would take turns taking care of Ella.

On the first day, Noah went to take care of her.

Noah was unhappy. Because he was busy too.

Noah comforted Ella. "Mom, you're a good person. I believe you will be alright."

As soon as Noah finished speaking, his phone rang.

It was a call from the secretary. "Mr. Miller... I am so sorry but there was an explosion and our jewelry store is on fire. I'm afraid the jewelry inside..."

"What did you say?" Noah could not believe what he had just heard.

He needed to deliver the goods to Mr. Barnes the next day. If he couldn't deliver the goods, he would face a huge compensation.

At that time, Miller Jewels would never have the chance to thrive again. Worse still, the Miller family would go bankrupt.

Noah's hands were trembling.

"What? How did it happen?"

"No, I don't know. I've already called 911. The firefighters said that there were flammable and explosive items, so it burned quickly and fiercely. It wasn't easy to put it out..."

When Noah heard this sentence, he actually felt that it was so familiar. He recalled the time when the old residence was on fire.

“Mr. Miller, the cause of the fire is still under investigation. What should we do now?”
The secretary was at a loss.

“How am I supposed to know?”

Noah broke down. The secretary did not dare to speak again. He was also very helpless!

Noah hung up the phone. Ella looked at Noah worriedly and asked, “Noah, what happened? Why are you so agitated?”

Noah knelt on the ground weakly. He grabbed his hair and said, Mom, it’s over. Everything is over.”

He was so unlucky.

His mother was diagnosed with kidney failure, and the company was on fire. Was the Miller family over?

“The warehouse is on fire. The jewelry that Mr. Barnes wanted has been burned. Mr. Barnes wants it tomorrow. If we can’t give it to him, we have to compensate Mr. Barnes 100 million dollars.

Ella was terrified. Miller Jewelry couldn’t even take out 10 million dollars, not to mention 100 million dollars.

“Why would there be a fire all of a sudden? I’m sure that someone is trying to harm us!”
Ella said.

“Who did it? Who the f*ck did it?” Ella was so angry that she found it difficult to breathe. She did not expect the Miller family to fall into such a situation.

“I don’t know. We don’t have any enemies. Who would want us dead at this critical juncture?” Noah muttered to himself.

He was so flustered that he was in a daze. He did not know how to explain it to Mr. Barnes tomorrow.

Suddenly, Noah thought of Olivia.

If Olivia could ask Mr. Barnes to give him some time....

Noah hurriedly took out his phone and called Olivia. “Hey, Olivia, can you do me a favor? Please, we have been family for twenty years. Help me.”

Hearing Noah’s trembling voice, Olivia also became nervous. “Calm down. What happened?”

Noah told Olivia about the business deal with Colin.

“Burned?” Olivia was also very surprised.

“Yes, but now, I don’t have time to deal with it. I’ll find someone who set the fire. I have to think of a way to give Mr. Barnes an explanation tomorrow. Can you help me?” Noah pleaded.

Olivia frowned. “I’m telling you the truth. You’re thinking too much. Mr. Barnes has countless women. He won’t listen to me

Noah was silent. His last bit of hope was destroyed. He broke down. “Why is our family so unlucky? The storage warehouse is on fire, and now Mom’s kidney is failing. She needs a kidney transplant. And James’ legs haven’t recovered yet!”

In addition, his brothers couldn’t even work together. Instead, they always made things a mess.

Olivia pretended to be surprised. She asked, “What did you say? Mrs. Miller has a kidney failure?*

Hearing the way Olivia called Ella, Noah was also stunned.

“Yes. She was diagnosed with kidney failure at Blue Vale, but she didn’t believe it. So she had another check in a private hospital but the result was the same.”

Of course, the result was the same.

Ella had already been targeted by Nicolas. Nicolas's power was immeasurable. It was not difficult for Dr. Jacquard to bribe some doctors to make the result look the same.

Olivia pretended to be sad. "I am so sorry to hear that. I guess she needs a kidney now?"

"Yup."

"Have you and your brothers made the match?" Olivia asked.

Noah complained, "All of them are making excuses.."

Olivia said, "I can do the match."

Noah was stunned. He looked at Ella. Ella also heard it on the phone. At that moment, her heart was in turmoil.

"Olivia, are you serious? However, you're not related to mom by blood. The match rate might not be high..."

"Let's do the match first. As for James's leg, let James come to Blue Vale for treatment. I work here and manage the blood bank. When I'm free. I can help take care of him."

Olivia sounded very sincere.

It was hard for Noah not to be impressed. "Olivia, is everything you said true?"

"Of course. Why would I joke with you at this point? By the way, I can talk with Dr. Jacquard and ask him to reduce James's treatment fees"

Noah was stunned. "Are you sure you can persuade Dr. Jacquard

"What's your relationship with Dr. Jacquard?"

Noah had the same question as Ella.

Olivia was very frustrated. They kept thinking that she had an affair with Nicolas. But she had no daddy issue.

Therefore, she had to make up a story to shut them up. "I saved Dr. Jacquard.

"Long story. I'll tell you later. We need to fix the current matters. Olivia changed the topic. "Where are you now?"

"Mom is hospitalized at Blue Vale, Noah said.

Olivia said. "Alright, I'll come over right away to make the match

Are you not at Blue Vale? Don't you work here?" Noah inquired.

"I'm off today," Olivia casually said.

Noah didn't ask these unimportant questions.

After Olivia arrived, she did various checkups. She had been busy the entire day.

Most of the test results were out today. A small portion would only be known tomorrow.

However, the doctor said that the adaptability rate was very high

"I'm willing to offer my kidney, Olivia said righteously in front of Ella and Noah.

Ella found it unbelievable. She did not expect that it would be her adopted daughter who was willing to save her life..

Otherwise, before she could find a suitable kidney, she would be suffering

She didn't expect her problem to be solved so soon. Ella's opinion about Olivia changed. That was a kidney after all.

She was deeply touched. "Olivia... Thank you."

Olivia said calmly, "Mrs. Miller, you're welcome. You raised me up. From now on, we don't owe each other anything.

Olivia started crying.

At that moment, Ella could no longer face Olivia coldly. "Olivia, my daughter! I made a mistake. Please forgive me. You're my daughter. I raised you for more than 20 years. How can I abandon you?"

"You sound so nice, Olivia thought.

In order to please her rich and powerful daughter, Ella abandoned Olivia because she thought Olivia was useless to her, 11:06 Tue, May 28.

Chapter 293

Now she used a little trick and the Miller family finally realized her “goodness” and wanted her to return to the family.

But the Miller family was a mess. She couldn't enjoy her life even though she returned.

72%

However, she didn't care about the Miller family's wealth anymore. Honestly speaking, the wealth of the Miller family was nothing compared with that of Gina's.

She wanted the Miller family to regret abandoning her. She would climb up step by step and take everything from Gina.

Anyway, her so-called kidney donation was just an act. Dr. Jacquard had already arranged everything

After finding a suitable kidney for Ella, they would sell Ella's kidney to another buyer who needed it. She was just acting to please the Miller family.

Olivia pretended that she had just recovered from her sadness. Mrs. Miller, don't say anymore. You don't have to accept me as your daughter again just because you're touched. I know there is no way back. My father killed my foster father. Because of my father, my brothers lost their father. I will find a way to change my surname to Yale.

“No need. You don't have to change your surname, Olivia, Cole killed Phillip. It has nothing to do with you!” Ella said.

Chapter 294

Olivia knew that Ella said all these nice words because she was afraid that Olivia would change her mind.

Olivia sneered in her heart.

But on the surface, she managed to maintain her tears.

At this moment, Noah also believed that Olivia truly treated them as family.

He helped publicize Olivia's other "good deeds". "Mom, actually, Olivia paid for the physical examination."

Olivia said, "I told you it's not worth mentioning. I grew up in the Miller family, this little bit of money is nothing."

"Olivia, my dear. Everybody makes mistakes. You made mistakes, and so did I. I apologize to you now. I was too mean to you some time ago..." Ella said nicely. She was indeed worried that Olivia would change her mind. She also sincerely believed that Olivia cared for her.

In comparison, Gina didn't care much about her.

However, Ella couldn't give up on Gina.

If Olivia was rich and powerful enough, maybe she would give up making Gina call her mom.

She was tired. She had been so humble when she asked for Gina's forgiveness, but Gina didn't care. She didn't treat her as family although they were by blood. Gina didn't even look at her

It was such a small matter.

But now, her adopted daughter was willing to donate a kidney to her.

Even her own sons wouldn't do that.

Olivia shook her head. "No, Mrs. Miller, it wasn't your mistake. It was mine. I did many wrong things because I was afraid being abandoned. If it weren't for me, Gina wouldn't have cut ties with you."

Olivia tried to test their attitude in case Ella just wanted her kidney but did not want her back to the Miller family.

At the mention of Gina, Noah gritted his teeth. "Gina is an animal. Even without you, she probably wouldn't be close to us. After all, when she returned home, she pretended to be a country bumpkin. She was misunderstood and despised by us, but she refused to reveal her true identity. She never treated us as family."

Olivia helped him solve an urgent problem. Noah felt the benefits of having a reliable sister. This was how families should be! Supporting and helping each other!

Although he still had thoughts about Olivia that he shouldn't have, they really couldn't be together. Noah had decided that he would treat Olivia as his sister in the future.

Ella sighed. "Olivia, would you like to come home?"

Olivia refused. "No, Mrs. Miller. My mind is in a mess now. Let's not talk about this for now"

She wouldn't return to the Miller family so easily.

When they begged Cina, they were so humble. But when they were in front of her, they sounded like her opinion didn't

She would wait until they begged her to go back.

Dr. Jacquard walked into the ward.

Ella and Noah were surprised to see Dr. Jacquard.

"Dr. Jacquard, why are you here?" Ella asked.

"I learned the results of your examination from Olivia. I'm very sorry."

Dr. Jacquard sighed and said.

Ella was a little confused. Dr. Jacquard seemed to be a little concerned about her. This was too strange.

Dr. Jacquard seemed to have seen through Ella's thoughts and said, "Olivia is my savior, I feel sorry for her family... or rather, her former family. Also, I'm here to tell you that all treatment fees, including the subsequent treatment fees for Mr. James, are waived."

Hearing Dr. Jacquard's words, Noah and Ella were shocked.

"Thank you, Dr. Jacquard. Thank you so much..." Noah said excitedly.

Dr. Jacquard shook his head. "You don't have to thank me. You should thank Olivia. I asked her how I should repay! saving my life. She told me that she hoped that I could help her family."

With Dr. Jacquard helping to cover up the lie, Noah and Ella were already extremely touched.

Olivia appeared very calm. Dr. Jacquard glanced at Olivia and said, "Olivia, there are some preoperative examinations and preparations for the transplant. Follow me."

"Okay."

Olivia followed Dr. Jacquard to his office.

Olivia immediately wiped away the tears on her face. She was so tired from acting.

She was a little curious. "Why did you even waive James's treatment fees?"

Dr. Jacquard sneered. The more they owe you, the better. Don't you want that? I'm helping you."

Olivia did not think that Dr. Jacquard would make a losing deal. She said with a fake smile, "Dr. Jacquard, I don't think there are free lunches in this world."

Dr. Jacquard explained, "Because my team is developing a medicine that can quickly repair damaged nerves for patients with fractures.

Olivia understood. Dr. Jacquard wanted to test it on James.

She knew that Dr. Jacquard would never make a loss.

"If it works, James will recover, right?" Olivia asked.

Dr. Jacquard nodded. "Yes."

"But what if it doesn't?"-

Dr. Jacquard smiled sinisterly. He will be paralyzed."

Olivia sucked in a breath of cold air. As expected, there was nothing good about cheap things. Free things may take lives.

And now, it was James who might lose his life.

Olivia was not worried about James.

"All in all, it's a pleasure working with you," Dr. Jacquard said.

Olivia smiled. "Same"

In the blink of an eye.

was the weekend.

Lu Mingzhu's birthday party was held on a cruise ship.

Although it was Lu Mingzhu's birthday, most people's attention was on Gabriel.

The young ladies from the aristocratic families who came to the banquet with ulterior motives were all paying attention to their appearances and competing for beauty. They hoped that when Gabriel arrived later, he would be able to see them for the first time. It would be even better if Gabriel could fall in love with them at first sight.

"Mr. Jackson is here!"

Someone in the crowd said excitedly.

Everyone's gaze fell on the entrance.

The tall and slender Gabriel appeared in front of everyone with a woman in his arms.

Everyone was stunned.

When Ashley saw Gina, she sneered. Didn't he say that she wouldn't come?

Jasmine, whose face had not recovered, was wearing a mask.

won't come?" Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Ashley didn't know why Gina suddenly appeared either. She snorted coldly. "Don't worry. I'll chase her out later!"

Gabriel couldn't protect Gina at her birthday banquet.

Jasmine was still a little worried. Just now, Ashley had promised to hint to all the young ladies of the aristocratic families that Jasmine was Gabriel's future wife so that the girls would give up.

But now, Gabriel had come with Gina. Everyone had seen it. If Ashley was to make the hint, Jasmine would look like a clown.

Someone went to greet Gabriel. "Mr. Jackson! Who is this lady?"

In the silence, Gabriel said slowly. "My girlfriend."

Some young ladies from aristocratic families were heartbroken, while others were disdainful. They hadn't gotten married anyway. All could change.

When Jasmine heard this, she clenched her fists, digging her nails into her palms.

She should be standing beside Gabriel and being introduced to everyone!

Gina was a thief!!

Gabriel held Gina's arm. He had no intention of bringing Gina to greet Ashley. he was glad that Gina came. Gabriel would not let Ashley make things difficult for Gina.

Ashley had been waiting for Gabriel and Gina to greet her. After all, it was her birthday.

However, she saw that Gabriel was about to sit down with Gina!

She thought, "What does that mean?"

"Is he ignoring me on my birthday?"

That's ridiculous.

Ashley walked towards Gina and Jasmine with a glass in her hand

When Gabriel saw Ashley rushing towards them, he stood in front of Gina.

Ashley was angry instantly. She said unhappily, "Why are you protecting her? Do you think I'll eat her or something?"

Gabriel said coldly, "Don't bother Gina."

Ashley was furious. "Gabriel, do you know what you're saying? Today! Now! On this cruise ship, your sister is holding her birthday banquet. How can I remain silent when I see someone unwanted here?"

Ashley looked at Gina and said, "Gina, I called you and invited you to my birthday, but you rejected me. What did you ask Gabriel to take you over then? Is it fun fooling me around? Get out!"

"Ashley!"

Gabriel's expression darkened.

Ashley glared at Gabriel. "Are you going to hit me for her?"

Of course, Gabriel would never hit Ashley unless Ashley harmed Gina.

He would never allow anyone to hurt Gina.

"You are being unreasonable," Gabriel said coldly.

"How am I being unreasonable? Ask her to leave now. Or you leave with her too, Ashley said unhappily.

"What about me? Should I leave too?"

Neil's voice sounded.

Ashley was stunned when she heard Neil's voice.

Ashley suppressed the anger in her heart and said, "Uncle, you don't know what is going on..."

"You don't have to say anything. I know what's going on because was the one who called Gina over," Neil said.

Ashley was speechless. She could not go against Neil. "Why?"

"She needs to come here so some people will give up" When Neil said that, she glanced at Jasmine. And Jasmine got it. She felt pain in her heart.

She met Gabriel first. Even if Gina was the director of Prover Hospital, in terms of family background, Gina was definitely not comparable to her.

Gina was not good enough for Gabriel at all. Jasmine did not understand what Neil was thinking.

Ashley felt it was unfair. "Uncle, Gina never agreed to date Gabriel before. Why did they suddenly date? Why? Is it because she feels threatened? Is she afraid that Gabriel will be taken away? What was she doing earlier? Why did she keep hanging for so long?"

"I don't think she likes Gabriel much, right? Besides, people can divorce even if they get married. Now they are just They can break up."

Ashley was trying to cheer Jasmine up, telling her that she still had chances.

Jasmine knew that Ashley was on her side. She felt less hopeless

She got the confidence to interrupt.

“Ashley is right. Most people have more than one relationship nowadays. The fact they are together now doesn’t mean they will be together forever.”

Ashley nodded in agreement.

Gabriel’s expression turned ugly. They cursed that Gina would break up with him.

Neil immediately said, “You guys reminded me. Gina, why don’t we talk about your engagement today?”

When Jasmine heard this, her face turned pale. What was going on?

It sounds like Neil couldn’t wait for Gina to marry the Jackson family.

She wouldn’t allow it to happen.

Ashley was also stunned. “Uncle, today is my birthday.”

Why did Gabriel and Gina talk about the engagement?

It was her birthday!

Neil looked at Ashley. “Oh, I am glad that you still remember today is your birthday. Then what are you doing here? Go greet the guests and see what gifts you get. Why are you bothering Gina? Do you want to ruin your birthday party?”

Neil rendered Ashley speechless.

Jasmine suddenly rolled her eyes and said, ‘Miss Miller, did you prepare any gifts for Ashley? Don’t tell me you didn’t prepare anything. That’s rude.’

Gina raised the handbag in her hand. “Here”

Jasmine glanced at the plain bag. There was no logo of any luxury brands. She immediately sneered. “Such an ugly bag. I’m afraid there is no good thing inside, right?”

“It’s the thought that counts, not the price!” Neil immediately retorted Jasmine.

Jasmine's eyes were red as she said, "Neil, you are right. It's the thought that counts. Ashley, do you like Gina's gift?" Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Ashley already knew that Gina was the CEO of Quaria. But even if Gina's gift was jewelry from Quaria, she wouldn't be friendly to her.

Yet the box Gina took looked like garbage. No one knew what was inside.

It'd even be better if she brought nothing.

"To this bi*h trying to humiliate me in public just because Gabriel and uncle are siding with her? Ashley thought.

The more Ashley thought about it, the angrier she became. Even if Neil was standing with Gina today, she would not be nice. to her.

"Gina, are you trying to embarrass me? What the hell is that? I don't want it."

Ashley's voice attracted the attention of the surrounding people, but when the bystanders saw Gabriel and Neil, they did not dare to gossip.

Neil knocked on the ground with his walking stick in dissatisfaction.

"Ashley, don't be so rude to Gina!"

Ashley retorted unhappily. "Uncle, I am treating her the same way she is treating me.

"I know you are siding with her, but you can't expect me to like her junk. That's unfair."

Gina said calmly. "It's not junk. It's medicinal herb.",

She slowly took out the box and opened it. Inside was a plant with white roots and green leaves. However, the tip of the leaf was blue, and some roots looked very strange.

It kind of looked like a green onion.

Ashley laughed. "What is this? A green onion?"

Jasmine also felt that it looked like a green onion. She immediately laughed. "Cina, do you think we were born yesterday? this onion the gift you prepared for Ashley? You are Gabriel's girlfriend. Won't you pay a little bit more attention to his family?"

Gina ignored Jasmine.

"It's not a green onion. It's a medicinal herb called Greenrel," she explained calmly.

Ashley still found it look like some sort of green onion. Although she had never seen such a green onion, she was not interested in collecting onions.

Ashley felt fooled. She threw the box on the floor angrily.

The medicinal herb fell to the ground too.

Gabriel's face instantly turned cold. He grabbed Ashley's wrist and said, "Ashley, enough is enough!"

Ashley glared at Gabriel "Look at what your girlfriend has done! The birthday gift she prepared for me is an onion! Does she plan to put it on my birthday cake?"

In the crowd, a woman recognized the medicinal herb on the ground and could not help but exclaim, "Is that Greenre? I've only seen this medicinal herbs in the Treasure Fund. It is worth million dollars. Oh my god, why is it on the ground?"

The woman's exclamation successfully attracted everyone's attention. When the woman realized that everyone was looking at her, she immediately became nervous. So she said in a daze, "What's wrong? Did I say something wrong?"

Gabriel looked at the woman and said indifferently. You're right Say it again?

The woman was a little terrified. "Well, when I was pregnant, my husband heard there was a type of herb sold in Treasure Fund called Gavemel which is very helpful for pregnant woment even makes skin better. And it can make sure that the baby is healthy.

"Unfortunately, when my husband went to buy it, it was already fold out. We waited for a long time, but there wasn't any replenishment. I've seen many women eat it, and they all sand it good. They say that after giving birth, they recovered Pregnancy is really consuming to a woman. Its also helpful to young girls. It's very good for the skin" After the woman finished speaking, she observed Gabriel's expression nervously and said, "Mr. Jackson. I've finished. Is there anything else you want to know?"

Gabriel shook his head and said. "No."

Only then did the woman heave a sigh of relief. She was really afraid that she had said something wrong

The guests Ashley invited all had some sort of interaction with lar. They wouldn't help Gina for no reason.

Only then did Ashley realize that she was too blind.

Ashley looked at the herb on the ground and felt a little awkward. She did not expect this small medicinal herb to be so

Chapter 297

Ashley's good impression of Gina dissipated because of Gina's words.

She was instantly angry again.

She thought, 'What is the attitude?

'Does she think she is my senior?

How dare she speak to me in such a tone?'

Jasmine was originally worried that Ashley would change her opinion of Gina because Gina had given her medicinal herb. However, when she heard Gina speak to Ashley so disrespectfully, Jasmine was relieved.

She thought. 'Idiot. You missed the chance.'

In fact, it was very easy for Gina to please someone but she found it disdainful.

She did not care if Ashley's attitude towards her would change. She just wanted to say what she wanted to say.

Ashley did not want to ruin her birthday party, so she did not intend to argue with Gina.

She gestured to the waiter to pick up medicinal herbs from the ground. At this moment, Neil said, "Ashley, pick it up yourself."

"Uncle... Ashley did not want to.

"What? You threw it on the ground. Shouldn't you pick it up?" Neil asked.

Ashley had nothing to say. She bent down reluctantly and picked up medicinal herb from the ground.

Then she put it away.

"Alright, alright. Sit down now. It's time to eat," Neil said.

Gabriel also said to Gina, "Gina, take a seat."

Gina nodded and sat down.

Seeing that Gina could sit at the same table as Neil, Jasmine was about to go crazy with jealousy. She wanted to sit with them too. "Ashley, can I sit with you?"

"Sure. Sit next to me," Ashley said.

Jasmine was very happy. Fortunately, Ashley had returned from overseas. She had someone who supported her in the Jackson family.

Ashley got someone to bring an extra chair for Jasmine.

After all, she'd already found out the truth about the car accident...

Ethan told her that it was Gina who paid Mike. The tanker accident was plotted by Gina. She wanted to kill her and take Gabriel away.

But she had to remain silent for the time being because she didn't have evidence.

But she had sworn to make Gina pay back a hundredfold.

Jasmine thought to herself.

After a while, two waiters came over with a painting.

Jasmine said. "Ashley, this is my gift."

Ashley turned around to take a look. The painting was still covered by the canvas, Jasmine gestured for the waiter to remove the canvas.

A painting of a rose manor was displayed in front of everyone.

Jasmine said, "Ashley, I specially asked Mr. Ocean to draw this for you as a birthday present."

Mr. Ocean was a world-renowned oil painter. Jasmine had spent 18 million dollars on the painting.

However, she did not expect that the onion-like medicinal herbi brought by Gina actually worth 40 million dollars. That was unbelievable. But it was the fact.

It was obvious that Ashley believed her.

Jasmine thought. If Gina hadn't come, my gift would have been the most valuable gift.

"B*tch! She stole my limelight."

Her resentment towards Gina increased.

Hearing Mr. Ocean's name, Ashley liked the gift very much. She niled and nodded. "Thank you, Jasmine."

Jasmine smiled happily.

Ashley was about to ask the waiter to put the painting away when Harry arrived. He was already late.

When Ashley saw Harry, she immediately stood up and said, "Dad! Didn't you say that you were busy and wouldn't come to my birthday banquet?"

"I was lying to you. My dear daughter, you finally came back. How can I miss your birthday?" Harry said in a delighted tone.

He had lied. In reality, he came because he heard Gabriel had brought Gina here.

He said he wouldn't allow Gina to marry into the Jackson family, She had ruined his things several times. If she became part of the Jackson family, things would be harder for him.

In his opinion, Gina was not easy to deal with.

Ashley hugged Harry's arm happily. "Dad, if you're busy, you don't have to come. I'm an adult now. I won't be mad at you."

When Ashley was young, Harry was busy with business overseas. They barely spent time together. Later, Harry divorced his wife and Ashley was brought overseas by her mother. Originally, her mother did not allow Ashley to have any more contact with Harry.

However, as Ashley grew up, her mother gradually lost control of her. So Ashley could occasionally return to the country to visit her father.

In her heart, she hoped for a family.

Harry looked at his daughter and smiled. He touched Ashley's head and then noticed the painting that the waiter was holding. "What's this?"

Ashley said. "This is a gift from Jasmine."

Harry praised perfunctorily. "It's wonderful."

Ashley agreed. "Yeah. It's great! It was drawn by Mr. Ocean."

Mr. Ocean...

After hearing this title, Harry suddenly had an idea....

Harry suddenly said, "Ashley, today is such a good day. Why dont we take a family photo?"

Ashley agreed. "Sure, of course, we have to take photos to record this happy moment!"

Let's take a photo with this painting. Let's raise our glasses!"

Harry suggested, "Take the painting and stand in the middle. The rest of us will stand beside you."

Ashley agreed.

However, they can't take the photo in the dining room of the cruise ship. Ashley planned to have it taken on the board.

Speaking of which, Neil had not seen Ashley for many years. After all, she was Liam’s daughter. He also loved his niece. If Ashley did not have any hostility towards Gina, Neil would have been even nicer to Ashley.

However, he could not reject the invitation at this time just because he cared about Ashley’s attitude towards Gina. “Okay He stood up.

Gabriel asked Gina, “Do you want to join us?”

Gina shook her head. “No,”

She wasn’t interested.

“Alright...” Gabriel respected Gina’s wishes.

Harry glanced at Gina and said sarcastically, “Gabriel, Miss Miller is not part of our family. Why did you ask her to join us?”

Gabriel looked at Harry coldly. He didn’t want to argue with him, therefore, he remained silent.

However, Harry did not stop. He glanced at Jasmine, who was also sitting there, and said, “Jasmine, come join us! We will put the photo in the album room at the old residence.

Jasmine widened her eyes and asked, “Harry, do you mean it? Can I really join you? But I am not part of the Jackson family either.”

If the photo was placed in the Jackson family's album, the Jackson family's descendants would all see it. Didn't this mean that she was seen as a member of the Jackson family?

Jasmine was overjoyed.

Harry waved his hand. "Hey. It's fine. I watched you grow up. Besides, you're so close to Ashley. You're closer than a family. Besides, although you're not part of the family now, it doesn't mean you won't be in the future."

Jasmine felt that Harry was encouraging her to work hard and pursue Gabriel, who was meant to be hers.

She was extremely happy, but she touched her face nervously. "The scar on my face hasn't healed yet. I'm afraid I look bad on camera...

Although she was wearing a mask, the scar on her forehead was still very obvious.

Ashley comforted her. "It's alright. I will edit it later. I promise it won't be noticeable."

"Alright." Jasmine smiled in relief.

Harry added, "Jasmine, stand beside Gabriel later."

"Harry!" Neil shouted in a slightly reproachful tone. He could tell that Harry was deliberately causing trouble.

"I refuse," Gabriel said coldly.

Harry was displeased. "Why can't she stand by your side? When Jasmine was young, she used to follow you everywhere. She is like a little sister to you. Why can't you stand beside your little sister?"

"You guys go ahead. I'll skip it." Gabriel returned to his seat because he knew that Jasmine would definitely stick to him when they took photos later. Gabriel did not want to give Jasmine a chance to approach her.

—Ashley was a little impatient. If Gina didn't come, none of those would happen. Her dad was arguing with Gabriel for a photo yet Gina was sitting there as if it had nothing to do with her.

Gina didn't care about anything.

Jasmine's brain worked fast this time. He said aggrievedly, "I guess I shouldn't join. Please don't argue because of me."

When Ashley saw that, she felt sorry for Jasmine. She said, "It's not your fault but the fault of someone who doesn't care about other people. Jasmine, come over, join us."

Harry could not suppress his dissatisfaction and said, "Gabriel, you're an adult. Stop throwing tantrums. Must we beg you? Jasmine won't stand beside you anymore, can you come over now?"

Neil had a headache. He did not understand why they were arguing for such a small matter. He said helplessly, "Gabriel, let's take a photo together. After it's done, send me home first, I am tired."

He was hinting to Gabriel to brush off Harry and Ashley so they could leave sooner.

Gabriel had no intention of continuing the stalemate. He wanted to leave as soon as possible with Gina. He knew that Gina wouldn't want to stay there for any longer.

"Gina, let's go to the deck to get some fresh air. I'll get someone to take photos of you and Gabriel later. How about that?"

Neil was worried that Gina would be bored sitting here alone.

Gabriel realized that since they were together, they had never taken a photo together. He felt that his father's suggestion was a good one.

Gina did not decline. "Okay."

When Ashley saw Gina get up, she hated her even more.

Today was her birthday. Ethan's parents didn't attend Gabriel almost strangled Ethan to death because of Gina. Neil didn't want Gabriel to apologize to Ethan, so they refused to come when they knew that Gabriel and Neil would be there.

It was all Gina's fault.

If it weren't for her, the relationship between the Jackson family wouldn't be so tense.

If she hadn't come today, her birthday party wouldn't be so messy.

She would rather not have Gina's gift.

Ashley sat down and thought about her poss.

Harry was at the back. He looked at Gina, who was walking behind Jasmine, and sneered silently. Then he quietly pushed Gina.

Undefended, Gina fell forward and hit Jasmine's back.

Jasmine staggered and the wine glass splashed in Ashley's direction. Ashley saw that the wine in the glass had spilled on the painting, and Jasmine had fallen to the ground.

Ashley couldn't care less about the painting that had been splashed with wine.

Harry snorted, "Me? I am old. So I accidentally touched you. But you didn't have to react so much. You knocked Jasmine to the ground. Did you do that on purpose?"

"Look, the painting Jasmine prepared for my daughter is ruined.

Ethan told Jasmine that Gina plotted the car accident. So now, Jasmine completely believed Harry.

She thought that Gina must have deliberately knocked her down to embarrass her at Ashley's birthday banquet.

Jasmine gritted her teeth in anger. She glanced at the painting that was contaminated by alcohol. "Gina, that's so shameful of you! That's Mr. Ocean's painting! Do you know how difficult it is to get it? I spent so much time and effort to invite Mr. Ocean to draw this painting, and you just destroyed it!"

Jasmine furiously rushed to Gina.

Gabriel wouldn't believe Harry's nonsense.

Harry was doing so just because he was a senior and no one could go against him.

However, Gabriel would not let Gina suffer for no reason.

He said coldly. "Lightly?"

Gabriel's gaze landed on Harry. "I think Harry's light touch was quite strong"

"Harry, there's no point in acting," Gabriel said directly.

Neil frowned deeply. He didn't want to reprimand Harry in front of the younger generation as a big brother. After all, they were already old and cared about their reputation. If he scolded Harry, Harry would probably hate him.

As Neil got older, he valued family more. Therefore, Neil did not say anything. However, he did not stop Gabriel either.

Harry quibbled. "I told you, I just bumped into her lightly. Gabriel, you didn't believe me but believed Gina. That's not fair."

Jasmine felt that what Harry said made too much sense. At the same time, she felt a little sad. Gabriel was so protective of Gina. She really hated Gina.

Gina knew that if they continued, the conflict would only be bigger, which was what Harry wanted.

She was tired of this kind of boring battle. Harry wanted to humiliate her but she wouldn't let it happen.

Jasmine was stunned. Things didn't go the way she imagined.

Jasmine even suspected that she had heard wrongly. "I'm said before tomorrow!

"I know."

Gina looked at Harry. "No matter how hard you pushed me, let's split our responsibilities equally. I'll contact Mr. Ocean any you will pay, Mr. Harry."

Contacting Mr. Ocean and persuade him to work overnight was much more difficult than buying. Harry didn't think that Gina couldn't afford 18 million dollars, but he was curious if Gina could contact Mr. Ocean.

Even if she managed to contact Mr. Ocean, would Mr. Ocean agree to work overnight?

That didn't sound possible.

Harry did not believe it. He wanted to see what was Gina capable of.

People on the deck were stunned.

Is this da*n girl so close with Mr. Ocean?' Harry thought.

He was worried.

Cold sweat broke out on Harry's forehead. Gina's power seemed to be unfathomable. It would be hard to destroy her.

It took her a week to contact Mr. Ocean. To do that, she spent a lot of money on connection. She begged him for a long time before Mr. Ocean accepted her order.

But it took less than a minute for Mr. Ocean to agree to Gina's request.

Why?

"Alright, save it. By the way, Mr. Ocean, I know it's hard to redo the painting. But I won't let you work for nothing. The price of this painting is 18 million dollars. I'll pay three times of it."

Mr. Ocean refused. "Gina, you don't have to. It's just a piece of cake."

Ashley sucked in a breath of cold air. It seemed that Gina's relationship with Mr. Ocean was so good. He even rejected 54 million dollars.
