Wabout besitation, Noah krockeil his head against Gina's knees Please, just hear me out for a moment!"

Casa bahes shattering Neal's hopes with a blunt reality. "You can speak for two sentences, but if it's about something you're asking of me. I won't agree. So, do you still want to say it?"

Noh widened his eyes in disbelief Was Gina so heartless that she would reject him before he even spoke?

But he wasn'y about to be dismissed with just a few words from tina.

Summoning his courage, he clutched at Gina's trouser leg

Yama Miller Jewels is on the brink of collapse. I would appreciate it if you saved Miller Jewels. You're a shareholder with a twenty prevent stake! "Do you think I care about the meager returns brought in by that twenty percent stake?" Gina asked coolly

Nosh gritted hic teeth

Of course. Now could Gita, the renowned director of Prover Hospital, possibly care about the downfall of Miller Jewels and the meager returns it bought?

Yet Noah had nowhere else to turn but to Gina for help.

Would he have stooped to begging Gina if he wasn't afraid that Mr. Barnes would take their entire family's lives?

In Noah's heart at that moment, fear dominates his feelings toward Colin while resentment burned fiercely against Gina's sex indulgence, devoid of any familial compassion

Noah harbored a deep resentment toward her callousness, devoid of any familial sentiment.

Gina Let me speak plainly. I landed a massive order some time ago, thinking it could revive our business of Miller Jewels

Noah recounted to Gina the business dealings with Colin and the warehouse explosion.

Because of the fire, he couldn't deliver Colin's order on time, naturally causing Colin's fury. Colin explained that the batch of jewelry he had purchased from Miller Jewels was meant as a gift for a foreign royal acquaintance of his. This acquaintance intended to use them as wedding favors at his engagement party. But now, with the warehouse explosion, Miller Jewels couldn't meet the deadline.

Colin couldn't justify the situation to his royal acquaintance, which left him feeling embarrassed. The altercation soured their relationship. So, Colin flew into a rage and demanded that Noah pay an additional 100 million dollars on top of the 100 million dollars in damages stipulated in the contract.

That totaled 200 million dollars.

The Miller family couldn't pull it off, no matter how hard they tried.

At this point, Noah still dwelled on the 600 million dollars Gina had initially taken away.

If Gina hadn't threatened them and taken away 600 million dollars, they could have made things right. Why would he have to plead with Gina now?

“If Gina hadn't taken the 600 million dollars and coerced Elsen into withdrawing his investment, would Miller Jewels be in such dire straits

He wouldn't have signed a contract with Colin simply out of desperation to revive his company!

Chapter 301

Noah wasn't naive, he sensed something suspicious about the warehouse fire, likely orchestrated by Colin

Otherwise, how could such a disaster occur by sheer coincidence

But even if he suspected it, he wouldn't dare say it in front of Colin.

He couldn't afford to offend Colin!

At this point, what else could he do besides attempting to salvage the situation?

Initially, Colin hadn't planned to give him a week to raise the funds. But Noah mentioned Ella's kidney failure and dire need for a transplant. He had pleaded with Colin to allow him to handle Ella's surgery first before raising the money, and Colin had agreed.

Yet today, which marked the end of the grace period, Colin had come demanding the money. Since Noah couldn't produce it, he was subjected to such a beating

Noah pleaded relentlessly until Colin finally agreed to give him one more day to raise the money.

If they couldn't gather the funds, the entire Miller family would utter dire consequences.

"Gina! You're still one of us! Colin won't spare you just because you've distanced yourself from us. He'll come after you, too!"

Gina remained unfazed by Noah's warning, but she preferred to avoid trouble. Yet, even with Noah's persistence, she remained unconvinced.

However, something seemed off to her.

"You're saying Ella has kidney failure?")

How could that be!

During her time with the Miller family, she often added medicinal herbs and even the Spirit Orchid powder to their meals, which were known for their ability to prevent organ failure and slow down aging.

Less than a year after leaving the Miller family, Ella suddenly suffered from kidney failure. It seemed implausible.

Hearing Gina call out Ella's name directly, Noah felt a pang of discomfort, but he couldn't dwell on this minor issue. "Yes, the kidney transplant has already been completed!"

His hidden meaning was evident. He thought. Your concern then was too late!

Yet, he couldn't shake the thought that perhaps Gina, despite her apparent indifference, had seized upon this issue to inquire. Could it be... could she still retain a fragment of humanity and hold onto familial bonds?

Gina's curiosity was piqued. "How many of your sons were tested for compatibility?"

"No, it was Olivia!" Noah asserted Olivia's name with conviction. He aimed to convey to Gina the selfless act of their adopted daughter, Olivia, who had donated her kidney to Ella. It starkly contrasted with Gina, her biological daughter!

Olivia's act prompted the Miller family to reevaluate their position, realizing it was unjust!

Olivia had donated a kidney to Ella.

This was undoubtedly the most absurd joke Gina had ever heard favoritism towards Olivia and the mistreatment of Gina,

Given her understanding of Olivia, she was confident Olivia couldn't have donated a kidney to Ella. There had to be something suspicious going on.

Yet, she cared little for the details, and she lacked the motivation to delve into them.

It seemed Olivia was attempting to win over the Miller family, who, as usual, were easily swayed by her.

56%

Gina's voice dripped with indifference and sarcasm. "So, now you've all become one big happy family with Olivia, haven't

you

Noah fell silent. He knew he shouldn't have brought up Olivia's name in front of Gina.

But he couldn't stop himself

He couldn't resist the urge to contrast Olivia with Gina, this selfish and cold-blooded creature.

"That's not the point, Gina. 200 million dollars. Can't you consider it as lending to us? With your resources, coming up with 200 million dollars is relatively easy! We'll definitely pay you back!"

Noah found himself with no alternative but to plead with Gina.—

Yet Gina remained aloof "Repayment? How long until you can repay? And why should I lend it to you?"

Noah was on the verge of breaking down. "Gina, did you even hear what I said? Mr. Barnes won't spare you if he doesn't get his money. He knows you're wealthy, and your last name is Miller. I've come to you today. You give me the money, I'll give it to him, and this matter will be resolved. But it won't be so straightforward if we wait for Mr. Barnes to come for it!"

Chapter 302

"So, he's the one who led you here to ask me for money?" Gina's expression turned frosty as she countered.

Noah bowed his head in humiliation. He despised having to swallow his pride and beg Gina for money!

Yet if he didn't show up, Colin would come after him with a vengeance.

Noah glanced up at Gina, “Gina, tell me the truth. Did you offend Mr. Barnes? Is that why he set this trap for me?”

Gina smirked. “You know as well as I do that a sudden massive order is just bait.”

Just like in the past, when Olivia orchestrated various schemes to harm her and their family, despite lacking solid evidence, Noah and the others chose to turn a blind eye, opting to trust Olivia’s deceit.

It was a blend of foolishness and malevolence.

The business of Miller Jewels was teetering on the brink, partly due to Noah’s rash decisions made out of desperation and partly due to his misplaced hope. He believed Colin’s purchase of their unsold jewelry stock was a stroke of luck, oblivious that Colin harbored animosity toward Gina.

He had only considered this aspect once Colin bluntly instructed him to approach Gina for money, even providing Noah with the precise location where Gina should be attending Ashley’s birthday bash on a riverboat.

Only then did Noah realize something was seriously amiss.

“Answer me plainly, have you stirred trouble with Mr. Barnes? Noah’s voice held a sharp edge as he pressed.

Gina fixed Noah with an icy glare. “He’s the one who’s crossed me

Colin had sparked her fury with repeated provocations.

Noah’s reaction to her words was akin to hearing the biggest joke of his life. “Gina, you’ve got a bold tongue. Do you even comprehend who Colin is? Crossing him is like crossing Gabriel himself. Even then, there’s no guarantee of safety. The Miller family’s been torn apart all because of you! We’d never have come under Colin’s scrutiny if it weren’t for your actions!”

“I’ve asked you politely for the funds, which are rightfully yours!

Noah’s composure crumbled. He launched into a heated tirade against Gina, regardless of the potential repercussions.

Gina remained unfazed. “If Colin’s after money, let him come to me.”

She was ready for the standoff, poised to strike back without hesitation.

Gina sidestepped Noah and walked away without a second glance.

Noah, feeling defeated for failing to secure the funds, pleaded desperately, "Gina, don't leave, please don't leave!!!"

Noah entered the Blue Vale Hospital, his body battered and bruised.

Beside Ella, who had just undergone a kidney transplant, lay Olivia, the one who had selflessly donated her kidney.

Olivia, her face drained of color, lay on the hospital bed. In sacrificing her kidney for Ella, she had shown unparalleled filial devotion. Before Noah's arrival, Ella had been fretting over Olivia's well-being.

Chapter 302

"Noah, what happened to you?" Ella exclaimed in shock.

Olivia cast a worried glance at Noah. "What happened, Noah?" she asked, struggling to sit up.

50%

Quickly gesturing for Olivia to lie back down, Noah reassured her, "Olivia, I'm fine. Your health is what matters now. Lie down and rest,"

At that moment, Olivia felt a surreal sensation, as if she had been transported back to the time before she was ousted from the Miller family. She was once again the cherished jewel in their eyes, a feeling she had sorely missed.

Noah slumped into a chair, exhausted. "Ella, today is Mr. Barnes deadline for the money."

Hearing Noah's words. Ella understood the gravity of the situation.

"Ella, I've figured it out. It's all because of Gina. I don't know how she offended Mr. Barnes, but his retaliation against her has spilled over us. Ella, we're completely innocent! Noah's voice cracked with despair.

Ella was perplexed. "What do you mean?"

“Mr. Barnes mentioned he considered investing because he knew Gina had shares in Miller Jewels. He claimed it was for Elaine’s sake, but it was all a sham!”

As Colin spoke those words, he chuckled with delight, relishing the feeling of having Noah under his thumb. Noah recalled Colin’s laughter, it sent shivers down his spine..

Now, whenever

I dare not ask if he had a hand in the warehouse fire, but the signs point that way. What grudge do the rest of us hold against Mr. Barnes to deserve such treatment? We’re all paying the price for Gina’s actions!”

Noah’s voice surged with emotion as he spoke.

The memory of Colin wielding a baseball bat and beating him relentlessly flashed through his mind, intensifying his torment.

In a sudden realization, he exclaimed, “Ella, it’s Gina who’s been our family’s curse, plain as day!”

“Remember when I sought counsel from Mr. Lennon? It wasn’t in vain!”

“Despite Peter’s confession of Olivia’s bribery, implying Gina could be swayed as well, her efforts to shake off her tainted. reputation fall short against the harsh truth!”

Recalling Peter’s downfall at Gina’s hands, Noah felt his argument was justified.

Olivia was startled by Noah’s words.

She never imagined there would be an opportunity to bring up past events again.

“The title of “curse” seemed to reclaim its hold on Gina once more.

It appeared that everything was unfolding in her favor as if blessed by divine intervention...

Olivia lowered her gaze, concealing the smile in her eyes.

Ella thought, I chose not to dwell on the tangled mess of the past anymore. Now, my feelings were complex. I pondered whether my insistence on bringing Gina back to the Miller family was a mistake... If I hadn’t pushed so hard to reconcile with Gina, to sever ties with her completely, would Mr. Barnes’ wrath have ever fallen upon us?”

A sudden footsteps interrupted Ella's thoughts. She glanced toward the door of the hospital room, and Noah turned his head, too. When he saw Colin, Noah stiffened, speaking cautiously, "Mr. Barnes...."

Colin, impeccably dressed, smiled faintly. "Mr. Miller, how about it? Can you give me the 200 million dollars I requested? I've shown consideration for Ella's condition-kidney failure, surgery-you have to step up to care for her. I've given you a full week of grace period. Can you give me the money now? There's really no more leniency left."

Noah's forehead broke out in a cold sweat. His nerves stretched to their limit.

"Hey, don't be nervous. Take your time. I can stand here for a while. It's a bit tiring, though," Colin remarked.

Noah immediately offered him a chair and made a respectful gesture. "Mr. Barnes, please have a seat."

Chapter 303

Colin glanced at the chair. "Are you just going to let me sit here?"

Noah did not understand what was going on. After trembling in fear for a while, he tentatively wiped the chair with his sleeve. "Mr. Barnes, please sit down."

申

Colin sat down and continued teasing Noah. "Mr. Miller, you're too polite. I'm sitting down, so where are you going to sit? I'm here to discuss something. It's impolite to let you stand."

This was a hospital ward, and the smell of disinfectant filled their noses. This was not a place to talk. Noah knew that Colin was temperamental, so he did not dare to refute. He could only follow Colin's words and continue. "It's fine, Mr. Barnes. I'll just stand."

"Stand? Did I tell you to stand?" Colin's tone suddenly changed.

Noah immediately had a bad feeling. As expected, in the next second. Colin kicked his injured knee. Noah instantly knelt down.

Colin looked down at Noah and said teasingly, "You look much better now."

Noah lowered his head and did not dare to speak. He was worried that if he said too much, he would make more mistakes and get beaten up badly.

Ella and Olivia were both terrified.

"Is he a f*cking lunatic? He's so fickle: Olivia swallowed and thought to herself.

Ella came back to her senses and begged, "Mr. Barnes! Please don't hit my son. Let's talk things out, okay? We'll definitely think of a way to get the money you want."

Colin looked up at Ella and suddenly put on a smile. He patted his head and looked like he was blaming himself. "I'm sorry. was so angry just now that I forgot that there were two of you in the ward. I must have frightened you. I'm so sorry."

Olivia's nerves were tense the entire time. She was afraid that Colin meant he had forgotten to beat them up together. She did not want to get hit, but she could not run now.

However, when she saw Noah being beaten up, she felt a sense of satisfaction. Noah, this b*stard, deserved it.

Colin continued, "Mrs. Miller, you said that you would find a way to get the money. Don't you already have a way? I've already pointed out a clear path for Mr. Miller, right? Isn't your biological daughter, Gina, very rich? She can fork out a mere 200 million dollars anytime."

Ella tried to explain carefully. "It's true that Gina is my biological daughter, but she cut ties with us a long time ago."

“It’s none of my business. Do you think I should consider whether your family relationship has broken down? I want it to be very simple. Compensate me with 200 million dollars. I have to see it on my account tonight.

“Or, what should I do?” Colin thought about it calmly. “I’ll break Mr. Miller’s legs first. I remember that Mr. Miller’s brother is also a cripple. When the time comes, he will have a company. That’s quite good. Moreover, if you delay for another day, I’ll break your legs. Anyway, don’t you have a lot of brothers?

“When your legs are done, I’ll cripple your hands. Wait, let me think. Should I leave someone to take care of the rest of you?” As Colin spoke, he made himself laugh and joked maliciously.

Cold sweat broke out on Ella’s back. She felt that Colin was like a demon.

Ella took a deep breath. “Yes, of course. Mr. Barnes, but could you please contact Gina? If we contact her, she will ignore us, so....

Colin was impatient. She still needed him to contact her? So useless.

Ella saw Colin’s dissatisfaction and hurriedly apologized “I’m sorry, Mr. Barnes. We’re useless. Please, we need your help.”

Colin said calmly. “It’s good that you know. Alright, I’ll contact her.” Colin took out his phone.

However, Ella stopped him. “Mr. Barnes, wait. L... I still need to prepare something.”

Gina, who had already returned home, received a call from “Gabriel.”

She did not answer the call immediately as usual. Instead, she realized that although the caller ID showed the name Gabriel, the number was not.

However, she still answered the call.

“Miss Miller.” Colin’s voice came from the other end of the phone. “I was afraid you wouldn’t pick up the phone. Looks like that worked.

“By the way, it’s not that I want to call you. Your family wants to contact you. Unfortunately, you won’t answer their calls, so I have to make this call. I’m just helpful and kind,” Colin said with a smile.

With that, Colin handed the phone to Ella.

Ella took it with trepidation. She tried her best to remain calm, but her voice sounded like she was crying. “Gina, don’t hang up. I beg you. I know you hate and never forgive us. But please help us this time!

Just this once. From now on, we will disappear from your world”

“What is it about you that is worth my help?” Gina asked coldly.

But if she hadn’t offended Mr. Barnes, why would Mr. Barnes take revenge on them? Ella wanted to say so, but she could not. If she irritated Gina now, they would also die.

The Miller family had never enjoyed the glory brought by Gina’s status, but they had to bear Gina’s sins. Why? That was not fair. Ella’s heart changed drastically again. She did not want Gina anymore. No matter how outstanding Gina was, no matter how capable she was, she could not be on the same side as their family. She would even bring disasters to them. What was the point of having such a daughter?

Ella gritted her teeth and went along with Gina’s words. “Yes, we don’t have anything worthy of your help, but... but what about your grandmother? Although your grandmother only saw you when you were born and it’s impossible for you to remember her, before she died, all she cared about was.... “Actually, your Grandma left a letter for you. I never told you. Now, let’s meet. I’ll give you the letter. After you read it, you can decide if you want to help Miller Jewels or not. Is that okay?”

‘Grandmother’s letter. Gina thought of her grandmother’s will, which was to give her all the shares to her. She felt that this deceased woman might be the only person in the Miller family who treated her as family

She was curious about the contents of the letter.

After a moment of silence, Gina agreed. “Okay.”

Ella finally felt relieved. Her back was covered in cold sweat and her clothes were almost wet. She was so scared that she almost burst into tears. She did not expect that that dead old woman would still help her at a critical moment.

Chapter 304

"Then, can you come to my place? I'll send you the address," Ella asked.

"Alright," Gina replied indifferently.

Ella heaved a sigh of relief and gave Gina the address of Blue Vale Hospital.

Before hanging up. Colin said leisurely to Gina on the other end of the line, "Miss Miller, please come over as soon as possible. I'm waiting for you."

"Gina, please hurry up!" Ella added fearfully.

Gina didn't say anything and hung up.

Noah knelt on the ground. His entire body was in so much pain that he broke out in cold sweat.

However, Colin did not let him get up, so he did not dare to move at all.

Colin suddenly felt a little bored. "I'm also deeply sorry about the fire in the warehouse. If it weren't for my foreign royal friends who got angry at me, I wouldn't have gotten so angry at you guys. Mr. Miller, can you understand?"

Noah did not dare to refute. "I understand."

"That's good. It's not easy for everyone," Colin said with a fake smile. "Alright, alright. Get up. Why are you kneeling?"

Noah stood up stiffly with his head down under humiliation.

However, he could only suppress his anger in his heart. His hatred for Colin was far inferior to his hatred for Gina.

Olivia had been trying her best to make herself invisible. She was afraid that Colin would hit her too.

Looking at Noah's swollen face, Olivia gulped in fear.

However, she would not leave Colin because she knew that Colin was the only person who could compete with Gina and Gabriel. He was the only one she could rely on.

Half an hour later, Gina arrived and walked into the ward. Colin got up from his seat and opened his arms. "Miss Miller, welcome!"

Gina ignored Colin.

Her gaze landed on Ella. At the same time, she glanced at the pale Olivia. The moment she met her gaze, Olivia shifted her look in fear and lay on the hospital bed.

At the same time, she felt inexplicably guilty. She was afraid that Gina would find out that she did not have donated her kidney.

Retracting her gaze, Gina asked Ella, "Letter."

Ella opened the drawer of the bedside table and handed Gina the last letter left behind by Evelyn without delay. The moment she took the letter, Gina said, "You better not be lying to me."

Ella saw a threat in Gina's cold eyes.

Ella felt a chill in her bones. "I didn't."

However, this time, she did not lie to Gina. Evelyn did leave a letter and asked her to show it to Gina after she came back.

Chapter 301

However, Ella did not take it seriously. She even wanted to burn Evelyn's belongings, including this letter, but she was stopped by Phillip, who was still alive at that time. That was why the letter was able to stay.

At this moment, Ella felt extremely lucky that she did not destroy the letter.

Gina opened the envelope. She had seen her grandmother's diary in the Miller family's storeroom. Therefore, the moment she opened the letter, she confirmed that it was her grandmother's handwriting.

In this letter, Evelyn first expressed her regret that she would not be able to see her granddaughter one last time. She also mentioned Olivia. She said that the family had spoiled Olivia. But she did not like this way. Evelyn also said that because she was worried that the family would treat Gina badly, she had especially left 20% of the shares of Miller Jewels to her so that she could make a living.

Evelyn also hoped that Miller Jewels could last forever. However, it was obvious that her vision could not be fulfilled.

Even though Gina had never seen her grandmother before, from this thin letter, she could feel the kinship she had always been expecting.

It was the kinship between family members flowing in their blood.

Ella realized that the coldness on her face eased a lot when she looked at the letter. She said carefully, "Gina, can you help Miller Jewels for Grandma's sake? I swear that as long as you help us this time, none of us will disturb you from now on."

Gina did not reply to Ella. Instead, she turned around and looked at Colin who was sitting on the chair. She went straight to him and said. "You were the one who arranged to set fire to the warehouse. Who did it?"

Colin refused to admit it. "Miss Miller, look at what you're saying. How could this be arranged by me? However, it seems like you really don't care about the Miller family at all. The arsonist has already been arrested and thrown into jail. Unfortunately, he is poor. He's a scumbag who takes revenge on society. He doesn't have the money to compensate."

And he was just a scapegoat. It made it impossible for her to find trouble with Colin under the permission of law.

Gina's expression was cold. "You can come at me directly. There's no need to beat around the bush and get irrelevant people involved

Noah sneered when he heard Gina's words. Stop your act

What was the use of saying such dignified words now? They had already been implicated by her.

Colin continued to play dumb. "Miss Miller, what are you talking about? I don't understand."

Gina did not know why Colin was targeting her. He was the one who provoked her first.

However, it was also possible that there was no need for a sufficient reason because it was Colin's pleasure to cause trouble for no reason.

Gina could not be bothered to talk nonsense with him. She was concise and said to them. "200 million dollars, I can pay."

Noah's eyes widened. He felt as if he had been reborn. He did not expect the letter left behind by his grandmother to be so useful.

"But I have a request," Gina said coldly.

Ella was afraid that Gina would go back on

There was nothing more important than covering that 200 million dollars.

her word. "What request? Gina, feel free to say it

Gina said indifferently. "From now on, Miller Jewels has nothing to do with you."

Ella was stunned. She even suspected that she had heard wrongly. Her eyes were filled with disbelief.

Noah could not help but say, "Gina, are you crazy? Do you want to monopolize Miller Jewels? You're crazy! What about us? What should we do?"

Although the profits from Miller Jewels were not as good as before, it was still their main source of income.

Gina asked, "Then you're hoping that I'll give 200 million dollars selflessly? Impossible."

Noah wanted to say something, but he was stopped by Ella. "Alright, we agree!"

"Mom!" Noah was heartbroken. "We definitely can't give the company to this heartle beast!"

Ella broke down. She raised her voice and questioned, "Then what should we do? Tell me, what else can we do?"

Noah had no idea what to do, but he was still unwilling to reconcile and give Miller jewels to Gina.

Gina said indifferently. "I'll give you one more chance. Do you want 200 million dollars or see Miller Jewels step grave you dig.

Noah gritted his teeth. "Gina! You bi*ch, if it weren't for you... How would we...

'How could we get targeted by Colin? Noah dared not to say the full.

Gina frowned slightly. She stepped forward and gave him a loud slap. "Shut up."

Noah lowered his head and stared at the ground with bloodshot eyes. He hated that he did not dare to retaliate and hated that he was helpless.

If not for the fact that he could not give out that 200 million dollars, he would definitely beat Gina to the death!

Then Gina directly said to Colin, "200 million dollars will be transferred to your account tonight."

Colin was satisfied. "Alright, then..."

He glanced at the others. "I'm leaving. It looks like you have family matters to attend to. Goodbye. With that. Colin left.

The air in the ward was oppressive and suffocated.

Gina walked directly to Olivia's bed and asked with a sneer. "You donated a kidney?"

Olivia did not dare to look Gina in the eye. However, this time, she was fully prepared for a perfect show

Dr. Jacquard had drawn 400 cc of her blood in advance, so her weakness and pale face were true at this moment.

Olivia ignored Gina.

Noah dragged his painful body and blocked in front of Olivia. "Didn't you say that the Miller family's matter had nothin do with you? So don't ask about it. Mom's kidneys are failing, but you don't seem to care!"

"It's impossible for her to have kidney failure," Gina said bluntly

Olivia's heart skipped a beat. She did not know why Gina sounded so confident. Did she have any evidence?

Olivia was very afraid that they knew Ella did not have kidney failure at all and that everything was a lie she made up.

to

Noah was stunned. "What nonsense are you talking about? Are you more accurate than the results of the hospital? Olivia has been so kind and helpful in taking care of Mom. You're just jealous that we accepted her again, right?"

Olivia wished she could hide behind Noah. She said when trembling. "Miss Miller, I really donated a kidney. I don't know why you suspect me. See it, how do you feel now?" Olivia turned around and pulled up her sleeves to show. Gina the scar on her lower back. It was a hideously stitched scar.

To make the scheme flawless, Olivia made great sacrifices to let Dr. Jacquard cut her waist.

When Gina saw the scar, she was shocked. However, she still felt that something was wrong with Ella's kidney failure.

But she would not investigate further. In her opinion, Olivia's so called kindness was more likely to be her revenge on the Miller family who had abandoned her.

Now the whole family was once again fooled around by Olivia.

"Can you leave now?" Noah could not help but chase her out. Every second Gina showed up in his sight, he had to try his best to control his temper. It was too infuriating to suppress his hatred.

Gina had a cold expression on her face. "Whether I believe it or not is not important. What's important is whether they believe it or not."

"We trust her. That's enough. Since you're so eager to cut ties with us, we'll do as you wish now. We promise you that we will keep a distance in the future. Miller Jewels is also yours now. What else do you want? Do you still want to see the family break down?"

Ella was crying silently.

Gina turned around and walked out of the ward. Ella looked at her back and could not help but say, "Gina! I would rather never have a cold-blooded and heartless daughter like you!"

For a moment, Gina stopped in her tracks. Noah was stunned. He did not expect his mother to break out finally. He also sensed from his mother's words that she no longer had any expectations for Gina.

Olivia felt the same way. Her heart was blooming. She had donet. She had completely cast in a bone between the Miller family and Gina. She had won, she had won!

Olivia tried her best to suppress the joy but her shoulders could not help shaking.

Gina glanced sideways and said lightly, "Is that so? Unfortunately, it's too late for you to regret it. Mrs. Miller. After saying that, Gina left without looking back.

Ella burst into heart-wrenching tears. It was gone, everything was gone.

Their Miller family was ruined by her daughter!

Noah hugged Ella and comforted her by patting her back. Olivia also got down from the bed and held Ella's hand. "Mrs. Miller, don't cry. You just had surgery and you need a break."

Ella's eyes were filled with tears as she held Olivia's hand excitedly. "Don't call me Mrs. Miller, my girl. You're my daughter. Let bygones be bygones. From now on, we're still a family!"

Olivia tried her best to squeeze out some tears and cried with Ella.

After the procedures were completed, the Miller Jewels officially became Gina's assets.

If Miller Jewels was not in her hands, it would go bankrupt.

Noah was too greedy. Not only did he hope that she would pay the 200 million dollars, but he also hoped that she would help Miller Jewels on account of their grandmother.

She could prevent Miller Jewels from collapsing, but she could not let it remain in the hands of the Miller family. To be honest, now that she had gained Miller Jewels, she wouldn't gain a single cent. Instead, she also needed to invest a lot of money.

Therefore, she had to make the company completely independent from the Miller family. She couldn't let them take advantage of her.

Gina made a call to Michael.

On the other end of the line, Michael sounded surprised. "Announce to the public that Quaria has bought Miller Jewels? Gina, did you..."

"Did you sever ties with them? Michael was full of questions.

Gina said calmly, "Don't misunderstand. I'm not helping the Miller family. It's a long story. Let's deal with the deal of Miller Jewels.

Michael was a little puzzled, but he still listened patiently to what Gina said next.

“After the announcement of the acquisition. Miller Jewels will officially change its name to Quaria Jewels, as a low-priced jewelry brand. Make a selection among its original designers. Those who are good enough can stay. Those who are not enough will be compensated and leave.”

“Alright, I got it,” Michael replied.

“Also, arrange for a few people to monitor a bar called King. I need its location.”

Michael asked curiously, “Whose bar is it?”

“Colin Barnes

Michael was a little surprised. “Gina, what did Colin do?”

Although Gina’s tone was calm and gentle, Michael could tell that Gina would be coming at Colin for revenge.

“He robbed my money, Gina said calmly,

In Blue Vale, Noah saw the news that Miller Jewels had been bought by Quaria. The comments below were all saying that it was really lucky to be saved at the last moment. People said it was a blessing for Miller Jewels to gain the recognition of Quaria

He was so angry that he threw his phone to the ground.

Ella, who had come to sleep, was shocked awake.

“What’s wrong

Noah was so furious that he panted and could not speak for a while. When he calmed down, he said angrily. “Quaria announced the acquisition of Miller Jewels! What did she do?”

“What?” Ella could not believe what she was hearing. After all, she had always felt that their company definitely had the potential to become an internationally famous brand like Quaria

“I suspect that she has been wanting to do this for a long time. Colin gave her a chance. No, could it be that she colluded with Colin? They put on a show and took away Miller Jewels, right?” Noah suggested.

Ella’s heart turned cold. She felt his reasoning was barely possible Now that fact was that they did not get a single cent but had sold Miller Jewels to Quaria.

How could she be so scheming?

Ella’s hatred for Gina burned again. So what if she was her biological daughter? She did not contribute to the family. Instead, she cheated them again and again.

It was better to let her die outside back than

But Gina must be clear about Miller Jewels’s financial situation. “What’s her relationship with Quaria? How could she persuade Quaria to buy it?”

Olivia interrupted, “I know. Cina knows Quaria’s CEO, Michael Clark. They’re quite close.”

Ella was shocked. How did Cina know the CEO of Quaria?

“Olivia, how did you know?” Ella asked curiously.

“Mom, didn’t I say that my dream has always been to become Quaria’s designer?

“So, when Quaria was recruiting. I ran into Gina before the interview. At that time, I had a bad feeling. I begged her not to cause trouble before I finished the interview, But she chased me out just because he knows Quaria’s CEO.”

When Ella heard these words, her heart was full of sympathy with Olivia. She said lovingly. “My poor girl, I’m so sorry to hear that.”

“It doesn’t matter, Mom. It’s all in the past now. Besides, I did something wrong before. It’s right for Gina to take revenge on me.

Olivia lowered her head and her eyes turned red.

Ella's motherly love instantly overflowed. "My good daughter, don't worry. From now on, I'll protect you forever!"

Olivia pretended to be touched and nodded in hypocritical tears

"Protect me With what? Olivia felt disdain.

Speaking of revenge, Noah thought of something very serious. "Olivia, the money you owe Gina... How is it?"

Olivia knew very well that Noah was afraid that they would have to bear her debt together.

Hence, Olivia said frankly, "I'm working hard to return it slowly, Noah, Mom, don't worry. I won't let it become your burden.

Olivia's sudden frankness caught Noah off guard.

Noah coughed to hide his embarrassment. T'm not worried that you'll drag us down. We're family again, there's no need to be so distant."

You're not worried, really?' Olivia sneered in her heart. Fortunately, she never counted on them.

Ella chimed in, "Olivia, I'm sorry. I also want to help you, but you know there's nothing I can do. We've lost everything."

Olivia nodded. "Mom, I'm already very satisfied that you can accept me again."

"My good daughter."

Ella looked at Olivia lovingly. Although they were not related by blood, Olivia was still so kind and grateful. Without Olivia, she would probably live in misery for the rest of her life.

Ella suddenly thought of something important. "Olivia, there's something I have to make clear to you. You and Noah..."

"The two of you..." Ella was still unable to say it directly. It was really difficult for her to face the truth, and it even made her feel disgusted.

“Anyway, you can only be siblings! In the future, don’t do anything st*pid.” Ella was solemn.

Olivia knew very well that Ella still held a grudge against her sleeping with Noah. She was also disgusted to have slept with Noah. On that day, she had no choice.

Anyway, if it wasn’t for the fact that she had no choice, even if all the men in the world died, she would even look at Noah for a second.

To be honest, the experience Noah gave her was really bad.

Olivia lowered her head and pretended to be aggrieved. “I understand, Mom. I remember it.”

Ella felt much better after making it clear.

“Noah, did you hear me? Olivia is your sister. If you dare to have improper thoughts about her, I’ll break your legs.”

Noah looked embarrassed. “I understand.”

Then Ella received a call from Ivan. When she saw the caller ID, Ella paused in surprise. This son had not contacted her for a long time, so when she saw him calling. Ella was kind of irritated up the phone and said angrily, “Why call me so late? Do you want to wait until I die? Why not just come to my funeral? You’re so heartless. You didn’t care about your family at all. I contacted you so many times, but you never reply!”

"I almost thought you were dead, do you know how worried I was? Ella scolded and cried. "What's wrong with you and Ronnie? You disappeared after you went overseas! Do you know what happened to the family? Why are you so heartless!"

Ivan said calmly. "Mom, don't cry. I'm not sure about Ronnie's situation. After all, I'm not in the same country as him. I also left in a hurry to deal with something urgent. Now that the matter has been resolved, I contacted you immediately.

"Immediately? Is this your concept about time? If not for Olivia, I'd probably been lying in the grave! At that time, you don't have to contact me anymore. Just take some flowers to see me. Bila cried out of breath.

Noah patted Ella's back and said, "Mom, calm down. You shouldn't be agitated. You're weak now."

Ella took a deep breath and took the tissue from Noah to wipe her tears. "How can I calm down? Can't I say that our family is ruined?"

"Noah, tell me what happened." Ivan only knew that his father had passed away. Ella had sent him a message about the ins and outs of the matter. He had seen it, but he did not have time to reply. Ella had also asked him to come back for the funeral, but he was really too busy to attend it.

He was sad when he found out that his father had passed away. However, he was used to such a scene, so this matter did not affect him much, so he was not in a hurry to return.

After all, even if he returned, his father couldn't come back from the dead.

Because they could not contact Ivan and Ronnie, Phillip's funeral had been delayed.

Noah took a deep breath. "In short, Cina ruined our family"

"What?"

Ivan was shocked. "What happened?"

Noah explained everything that had happened in the past six months to Ivan. His throat felt hoarse.

"This bi8ch has unfathomable connections. We can't do anything to her. Now Mother is sick." Noah felt a headache coming on.

He complained, "You and Ronnie were always uncontactable. Don't you care about family matters? What's

's wrong with you? What are you doing? Is there anything you can't say? Don't tell me the two of you want to avoid responsibility. You can't ignore us just because you're hiding overseas. Now that the family has become a mess, you come back right now!"

Ivan said calmly, "Alright, I'm almost done with my matters here. I can come back soon. Thank you, for taking care of the family. Is Olivia okay? She donated a kidney to Mom."

Noah sighed. "I want to buy some supplements for Olivia and Mom. But the problem is that we don't have any source of income now. I don't even know how to pay the medical bills. Looks like we can only rely on you and Ronnie."

Miller Jewels had changed hands. What was worse was that James was now a disabled person, which meant another huge cost.

Noah thought about how the four of them had quarreled over the kidney transplantation for Ella. Next, they would probably quarrel again about the medical fees. It was really a headache. Although he and James had been dealing with both the company and family matters, it did not mean that Ivan and Ronnie could not bear the responsibility. They had to come back to take care of the old and weak mother.

"Is 4 million dollars enough? Ivan asked.

When he heard this number, Noah's eyes widened. "What did you say? How much? 4 million dollars?"

If it was in the past, Noah would dismiss 4 million dollars as cheap as air. But now, his eyes were shining.

Olivia was also surprised. Ivan was usually quiet and taciturn. He had dropped out of school a long time ago. Last year, he suddenly said that he wanted to go work overseas. Every time he came home, he looked slovenly and dispirited. She thought that Ivan was not doing well. But now he could provide 4 million dollars.

Olivia felt astonished.

“4 million dollars. It’s enough. Noah’s tone softened.

“Alright, I’ll transfer the money to your account later. Noah, thanks for your dedication to the family. The rest of the money...

Noah interrupted, “I don’t think there will be much left. There are three of us in the hospital now. We need to pay medical bills and cover our daily expenses. Are you worried that I’ll take all your money?”

Ivan said calmly. “No, I wanted to say that you can spend the remaining money as you like. It’s been tough for you to deal with business while taking care of Mom. Also, when Dad was still alive and James couldn’t walk, you were also the one to look after him. You’ve had hard days. Thank you. You can treat yourself and our family better with this money.”

Ivan’s words made Noah feel comfortable. “Alright, then let me see if there’s any business that I can do with the rest of the money. Although Miller Jewels was stolen by Gina, I am still young and I can make a comeback. One day, we will return to being Norwood’s richest family!”

Ivan grunted in agreement. “I’ll let Gina regret it when I get

Noah was shocked. “What are you going to do? She has too many backers now. I have to remind you that she’s not someone ” to trifle with. By the way, Ivan, what exactly are you doing? You earned a lot of money”

Ivan sneered. “So what if she has backers? I have my own methods. The existence of such a heartless ingrate is equivalent to shame to our Miller family. I will make her pay the price and end her life.

Noah thought, Execute Gina?

Noah's immediate reaction was that Ivan was really arrogant.

"Ivan, are you serious? Execute Gina? Stop joking. It's not funny, Noah said.

Ivan's words were too pretentious.

"I mean it, I'm serious." Ivan's tone did not change. He sounded very certain.

Noah suspected that Ivan was out of his mind. He decided to drop the topic. "By the way, you haven't said what work overseas. How did you get the money? It isn't... ill-gotten money, right?"

you do

Although Noah was happy to receive the money and solve his urgent problem, he was also worried that Ivan did not earn the money through legal means. He was afraid it was ill-gotten money. Even if he had the money, he would not get to spend it.

"No, it's all my hard-earned money," Ivan said calmly.

"Hard-earned money?" Noah was suspicious. "Then tell me, what exactly are you doing overseas?"

Ivan thought for a moment. "Alright, I can tell you now. I worked as a mercenary overseas."

Mercenary?"

When the three people in the ward heard that profession, they were very shocked.

Although Ella did not know much about this profession, it sounded dangerous. "Ivan, do you often need to fight and kill in this job?"

Ivan sneered. "More or less. Occasionally, I would fight with others and shoot at them."

Ella gasped. "Guns? This job is so dangerous. Don't be a mercenary anymore. Come home. Good grief, how could you become a mercenary without saying anything? You scared me to death. Didn't you say that you were going overseas to work?"

Olivia listened to their conversation thoughtfully.

It sounded cool to be a mercenary.

She did not expect the most useless Ivan to become a mercenary

"Mom, I didn't tell you back then because I was afraid you would worry about me. It seems that my decision back then was right. Don't worry, I'm still fine, right? Besides, I could only earn a lot of money because I became a mercenary. When our family needs money urgently, I can fork out morey, right?"

Ella was silent. "No matter how poor our family is, we don't need you to risk your life for money. If something happens to you, what will I do? Your father and the company are gone. This family is in a mess. I really can't take it anymore."

She started to cry as she spoke.

Noah quickly patted Ella's back to calm her down. "Mom, calm down. Don't cry."

Ivan sighed. "I'm sorry for making you worry, but I'm really fine it's also because I became a mercenary that I can find Gina now and settle the score with her for causing our family to be in such a miserable state. Don't worry, I'll settle the score with Gina as soon as I return to Shyran and ask her to return Miller Jewels."

Chapter 308

"Really?"

Noah was skeptical but looked forward to it. After the company was gone, he did not know what he could do anymore. He was used to being a boss, so it was impossible for him to find a job.

“Of course. Even if she is the director of Prover Hospital, has Gabriel’s protection, and is a good fighter, under my absolute suppression, I don’t believe that she will risk her life to go against me, Ivan said.

Noah was puzzled. “What advantage do you have?”

Ivan sneered. “I have a weapon, a gun. When I point the barrel of my gun at the head of that ingrate, Cina, will she still dare not to return Miller Jewels?”

Noah felt that Ivan’s words were quite domineering. He was also looking forward to it. “Alright, Ivan. The hope of our entire family is on you now.”

“Well said.” Noah was motivated by Ivan’s passionate speech.

Olivia rolled her eyes. It seemed that Ivan could also be her backer.

She said with a sobbing voice, “Ivan, we’re all waiting at home for you to come back and stand up for us. You have to take good care of yourself when you’re overseas. Don’t get injured. Don’t do any dangerous work. I think money is secondary. The most important thing is that our family is together.”

When Ivan heard that Olivia was concerned about him, his heart warmed. “My good sister, don’t worry about me. You, on the other hand, have just donated a kidney to Mom. You have to take good care of yourself. Alright, that’s all for today. I’ll be back in two days.”

“Alright.” Noah replied expectantly.

In the apartment.

After Gina had dinner with Gabriel, she said, “I’m going to a bar tonight.”

Gabriel was puzzled. “Are you inviting me to go with you?”

Gina smiled. “Actually, I think it’s best if you don’t come with me

“Why?” Gabriel did not understand and felt a little aggrieved. “Could it be that you have an appointment with someone else

Gina shook her head. “No, it’s just that if you go with me, you’ll probably... be implicated.”

Gina's trip to the bar tonight would mean that she and Colin were officially at war. Gabriel would be implicated by her. After all, the Miller family was already completely unrelated to her, but Colin still caused trouble for them. Although Gina did not care how Colin would torture the Miller family, she had to admit that she found it annoying to get the Miller family involved.

She did not want to have anything to do with the Miller family again.

"So what? Whatever you want to do, I want to accompany you. I'm not afraid of being implicated. Gina, I'm afraid that you won't want me."

Gabriel grabbed Gina's hand.

Gina's cheeks were a little hot. "How mushy."

Spencer quickly said, "Mr. Barnes, I'm sorry. I was presumptuous. I don't have the right to clink glasses with you."

Colin couldn't help but laugh. "Mr. Wilson, you're quite humorous."

When Spencer saw Colin smile, he heaved a sigh of relief. "No, no.

Colin suddenly said, "Mr. Wilson, I helped you take revenge on Gina. Shouldn't you help me now?"

Spencer was especially terrified. "Mr. Barnes, how can I be able to help you? You think too highly of me."

Colin's expression changed. Without another word, he picked up the wine bottle on the table and smashed Spencer's head with it. Spencer's head was split open.

Spencer did not understand why he was hit, but because he was afraid, he instinctively bowed in front of Colin. "Mr. Barnes, I'm sorry. I'm really stupid. I don't understand how I made you angry. Please explain.

Ignoring the blood on his head, Spencer bowed repeatedly to Colin.

Colin put down the wine bottle and said unhappily, "I already said that I helped you take revenge on Gina, yet you said you couldn't help me. Do you want me to help you for nothing? Spencer, do you think I'm your tool?"

Spencer gulped nervously. Before he approached Colin, he had already asked around. Colin was famous for being temperamental. However, to take revenge on Gina, Spencer could only choose to rely on Colin's help. Spencer could only bite the bullet and go down the path he chose.

“Mr. Barnes, I definitely don’t mean that. It’s just that I’m too stupid. I really don’t know what I can do to help you. However, if you need my help, I’ll go through fire and water. If there’s anything you need me to do, I’ll do my best to accomplish it.”

Colin sneered. “You are indeed quite stupid”

He stopped talking, but Spencer became even more flustered.

Cold sweat broke out on Spencer’s forehead. He had to appease Colin’s anger tonight. Otherwise, he was afraid he would not be able to leave King Bar tonight.

Spencer was suddenly enlightened and immediately said, “Mr. Barnes, actually, I brought you a thank-you gift today.”

Colin gave a half-smile. “Oh? What is it?”

“Stop.” Colin stopped Spencer, who suddenly stood up. Spencer’s body stiffened, but he had no choice but to stop and turn to look at Colin ingratiatingly. “Mr. Barnes, what’s wrong?”

Colin smiled and asked, “Mr. Wilson, you’re not finding an excuse to leave just like that, are you?”

Colin hadn’t even teased Spencer to his heart’s content. How could he let Spencer leave just like that?

Spencer hurriedly shook his head and denied it. “No, no, Mr. Barnes, I wouldn’t dare to leave without saying goodbye to -you.

Colin was tired of hearing flattery because of fear. Colin felt Spencer was like a broken record. He only knew how to beg for mercy. Colin found it boring.

Not only did Colin feel that teasing Spencer was too boring, but he also felt that teasing those who were inferior to him was too boring. There was no sense of accomplishment at all, and those people did not fight back. Colin found it unchallenging.

Chapter 309

After some time, he felt especially bored.

Therefore, at this moment, Colin thought of Gina. Although he was furious at Gina for making a fool of him, he also found it quite interesting. After all, despite being a woman, Gina dared to resist him, whereas many men did not dare to Colin found Gina especially interesting.

If he could subdue Gina and torture her slowly, he dared not imagine how interesting it would be. He wanted to see fear and panic on Gina's aloof and beautiful face. It would definitely be beautiful.

Colin had taken 200 million dollars from Gina this time. Colin knew that Gina would definitely not let the matter rest and take it lying down. Colin knew that Gina would definitely do something that made him unhappy, but instinctively, he was looking forward to it.

"Go." Colin said.

Only then did Spencer dare to walk out of the door

Spencer walked through the crowd with his head bleeding, but the men and women in the bar only glanced at him and continued doing what they were doing. It was as if it was not something worth making a fuss about if someone with a bloody head suddenly appeared in the bar

After all, everyone knew that no one dared to cause trouble in Colin's territory. Therefore, this person must have been personally beaten up by Colin. The reason why he was beaten up was not something that they cared about. Some people even voluntarily requested to be Colin's punching bag to curry favor with Colin. However, Colin despised such people and did not agree.

Everyone was used to Colin beating people up. They also thought it was an honor because some people couldn't get beaten up by Colin even if they wanted to.

Although Spencer was not surrounded, he still felt his pride hurt when people glanced at him. After all, he was the CEO of the luxury jewelry brand, Top Shrine. It was really embarrassing to be beaten up and appear in front of everyone like this. However, he could not ask them to stop looking at him. He could only pray that no one present knew him, and no one familiar with him would greet him. After walking out of King Bar. Spencer felt dizzy. He went to the trunk of his car and took down two suitcases. He looked up and casually glanced around. Suddenly, he saw a custom-made Rolls Royce.

He was a little amazed by the design and nobility of the car. He couldn't help but take a few more glances. Then, he remembered that Colin was still in the private room. If he made Colin wait for too long, he would probably be beaten up again. Hence, Spencer didn't dare to delay and quickly walked into the bar with the two suitcases.

Back in the private room, Spencer opened one of the suitcases and showed it to Colin. "Mr. Barnes, thank you. You helped me take revenge on Gina. This is a small thank-you gift."

Spencer thought. "But don't you hate Gina too? If you didn't hate Gina, would you have dealt with her? Definitely not. Why do you have to say that you did me a favor?"

Spencer only dared to criticize Colin inwardly.

He also didn't get a single cent of the 200 million dollars Colin got from Gina.

Moreover, he understood that some people might be envious that he hooked up with Colin. However, this was also akin to associating with a criminal. There was no turning back for him. In the future, whatever Colin wanted him to do, he would probably have to do it for Colin even at the expense of his life. Therefore, Spencer was a little regretful at this moment. He had chosen to seek Colin's help in a moment of hot-headedness. Unfortunately, there was no going back.

Colin picked up a gold bar and sized it up with boredom. It was an entire suitcase full of gold bars. In his opinion, it was nothing. It could be said that Spencer's thank-you gift disappointed him greatly. In the next second, Colin threw the gold

The crisp sound fell into Spencer's ears as if it were about to break his tense nerves. Then, Colin shouted. "Are you assuming I'm short of gold? Do you know how many assets I have?"

Spencer was sweating profusely. He suspected Colin wouldn't stop anytime soon. To his fear, Colin continued. "It seems you understand nothing, Mr. Wilson. You've disappointed me."

"Mr. Barnes, there's... there's another box. I beg you, please give me a chance to open it!" Spencer hurriedly begged.

"Could it be money inside? Spencer, you've humiliated me by making me feel like this. Do I look like I'm short of money? Do I need you to give me money?" Colin questioned coldly.

Spencer shook his head vigorously. "No, it's not money."

Colin crossed his legs. "Alright, I'll give you a chance to open it.

Spencer didn't waste a second and opened the box. The lights in the room were dim, but the jewelry in the box was sparkling.

When Colin saw the box's contents, he laughed out loud. However, he didn't like it. Instead, he felt Spencer was messing out with him.

"You gave me Top Shrine's jewelry? Do you think this brand is good enough to be presented to me and my family

Before Colin could make things difficult for him, Spencer explained, "Sir, this is not Top Shrine, it's Quaria Jewelry!"

Colin was stunned. He didn't expect Spencer, the Top Shrine CEO, to buy him Quaria Jewelry, whereas Spencer regarded them as his company's rival. However, when he heard it was jewelry from Quaria, Colin was curious to see what it looked like. He frowned and said, "But what do you mean by giving me women's jewelry? Are you making fun of me?"

"No, Sir, this isn't for you. It's for your sister!"

“For Elaine?” Colin was interested. “Really? For my sister? Are you telling me you want to marry my sister?”

“I wouldn’t dare! I’m not worthy of her, Sir” Spencer had never seen Elaine before. But even if Elaine was more beautiful than Gina, he didn’t dare to dream of being her lover.

“It’s mainly because I heard Miss Barnes likes Quaria Jewelry, so bought this for her. I know you’re looking after her well, s as long as Miss Barnes is happy, I think you’ll be happy too.” Spencer explained fearfully.

Colin finally smiled sincerely. He stood up and patted Spencer’s shoulder, scaring Spencer so much that his legs weak. He subconsciously knelt before Colin, and Colin praised, “Okay, okay, Mr. Wilson, I misunderstood you. You do know how to cater to my interests. I believe my sister will like it very much.”

Elaine would never complain about having too much jewelry. However, Colin hadn’t told Elaine that Gina was the chairman of Quaria Jewelry. He wondered if his sister would still like the brand after she found out.

Spencer laughed awkwardly, trying to please Colin, and Colin pressed down on his shoulder. “Alright, Mr. Wilson, why are you st SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

still kneeling? Please, sit down.”

“Okay, okay. Spencer sat down in fear.

Colin also sat down. He took a piece of paper and slowly wiped the hand he had touched Spencer with. Spencer saw it and didn’t dare to protest.

“Mr. Wilson, the jewelry you gave me is quite good. I wish us a happy collaboration. Colin raised his cup. “However, I still have one more condition, and I hope you’ll agree.”

“Mr. Barnes, please, ask me anything!” Spencer said confidently.

“I want you to sabotage Quaria’s ownership and give it to my sister. That way, my sister will be forever happy. As for me, I will also be forever happy. After all, I love my sister very much.” Colin smirked.

Hearing his condition. Spencer was scared silly. He couldn’t sabotage Quaria. If he had the ability, he wouldn’t bother asking for cooperation from Colin. However, he knew he was powerless to reject Colin’s request. If Spencer said he couldn’t do it. there would only be one outcome: Colin would swallow him whole.

Spencer met Colin’s gaze and gulped. He nodded and said, “Alright, Mr. Barnes, I’ll do everything in my power”

The KING wine warehouse was on the basement level. Gina took the elevator directly there. Sneaking into that place was a simple matter for her. She didn’t have to avoid the surveillance cameras because she had hacked into KING’s surveillance system. Therefore, the current surveillance footage was a scene that she had tampered with. The staff in the surveillance room would only see an empty elevator and corridors.

Gina walked out of the elevator. The wine vault was right in front of her. However, she needed a password to open it. Gina didn’t know the password, but she could decipher it. Three minutes later, Gina inputted the password and pressed enter. Sure enough, the door opened.

The password lock of the wine warehouse had an alarm device. If someone entered the wrong password, it would trigger the alarm automatically. Gina wouldn’t let that happen. Not because she thought she couldn’t enter the wrong password, but that she had destroyed the alarm system. If she didn’t deduce the correct password within three times, she would choose to smash the door. In any case, she was there to smash the wine warehouse. It was just a matter of convenience to smash another door.

After entering the wine warehouse, Gina saw four tall closers filled with all kinds of wine. They were all expensive. Each bottle was worth at least four thousand dollars.

However, the most valuable thing was kept in a safe. It was a bottle of 79 Lof wine. The bottle had been sold for over 20 million dollars. It was one of the rarest wines in the world since only three bottles were made. Moreover, all three bottles had been sold to three different buyers.

Gina chose to open the safe immediately. From the safe, she took out the Lofi wine. The bottle was slender and inlaid with diamonds. It only contained 300ml, which showed its astronomical value. Gina took a look at it before letting it go without hesitation. The bottle fell to the ground. Wine spilled all over the ground, filling the air with its fragrance. It smelled good.

Then, Gina began to open the cabinets in rows. She calmly and casually poured the rows of wine. The crisp sound of the wine bottles shattering reverberated in the quiet wine warehouse Gina frowned slightly because of the noise she caused. She should have worn earplugs when doing it. So far, it was the only mistake she made.
