Chapter 381

"I'm not feeling well," Nancy replied.

How could Nancy dare to tell the truth!

"Why are you not feeling well" Shane was impatient.

"I'm on my period," Nancy explained.

"What?" Shane was a little surprised. He had originally planned to let Nancy bring strong wine to drink with Henry. When the time came, they could have a threesome. How exciting would that be? He did not expect Nancy to say that she was on her period.

"Damn it, why didn't you say so earlier? Damn it, how unlucky. Alright, alright, alright. Get lost." Shane scolded unhappily, Nancy felt as if she had been granted amnesty. She heaved a sigh of relief and hailed a taxi without hesitation. She immediately went out. In less than two minutes, the taxi arrived and Nancy immediately got in.

She hurriedly sent a message to Gina. "Miss Miller, I've discovered Henry's abnormality. This pervert has a broken finger hidden in the coffee table drawer in his house. He must have killed someone and dismembered the body. He must still be hiding the corpse in his own house. How terrifying. Miss Miller, I know Henry's secret now, If Henry finds out, he might kill me to silence me. You have to save me. You have to save me! Miss Miller, you also said that as long as I help you observe Henry and see if there are any abnormalities, you will protect me and pull me out of the quagmire."

Nancy did not expect that after observing for a while, she would really discover a shocking secret..

Gina quickly replied to Nancy, "What kind of broken finger is it? Do you have a photo?"

Nancy was dumbfounded. She was so scared that she did not dare to stay in Henry's house for a second longer. How could she have the guts to take photos? Even if such photos were only stored in her photo album, she would be scared to death.

"No, but from the looks of it, it's probably not an adult's finger. The shape is also a little strange. It's very curved. It doesn't look like a normal person's finger," Nancy replied.

"Alright, I understand. Don't worry. I promise to protect you, I will make sure that you are safe and sound, Gina replied.

"Okay, thank you, Miss Miller. I'll go home first." Nancy sent her home address to Gina.

Gina understood what she meant. "I'll arrange for someone to protect you near your house. I'll also get them to follow you when you go

"Alright!" After receiving Gina's reply, Nancy could finally feel more at ease.

Her current thought was to hurry home and hide.

Henry walked down from the second floor with a gloomy expression. He glanced at Shane, who was sitting leisurely on the sofa. "Where's Miss Steele?"

Shane was a little surprised, "Oh, you're usually not close to women, but you're finally interested in a woman now? You should have said so earlier. I told you before, you can play with Nancy as much as you want. I gave her to you to play with, but you didn't want her. Isn't this a coincidence? She's on her period today. Since she can't play, I asked her to scam home."

Henry did not want to play with Nancy at all. It was just that a minute ago, he saw from the surveillance camera that Nancy had opened the drawer of the coffee table and seen his collection. If his secret was discovered, it would not be a secret anymore. He had to think of a way to make Nancy keep her mouth shut.

Henry was too lazy to talk nonsense. "Give me her address. I have something to tell her."

Shane was surprised, "No, are you serious? You really like Nancy? But she's on her period today. Forget it, if you don't mind, it's not impossible

Shane laughed wretchedly.

He directly gave Nancy's address to Henry.

Chapter 3

Gina came to the Cingo Orphanage again.

She wanted to verify one thing

Gina went straight to Mindy's class. She was relieved when she saw Mindy sitting in the classroom safe and sound.

Mindy also noticed Gina. When it was time for class to end, Mindy ran out of the classroom and greeted Gina in sign language. Gina also saw that Mindy's hand was wrapped in gauze. She remembered that Henry had said that Mindy often felt inferior because of her six fingers. He was prepared to bring Mindy to undergo resection surgery.

From the looks of it, the surgery should be over. Moreover, the broken finger at Henry's house was most likely Mindy's finger.

What was Henry collecting a severed finger for?

Normal people would not do that

Gina was also worried that although Henry had only collected Mindy's severed finger, he might do something crazy to Mindy in the future.

*Gina, are you here to play with me?" Mindy tried to use sign language to attract Gina's attention.

Gina came back to her senses and patted Mindy's head. "I'm here to see you. I'll play with you next time"

When Mindy knew that Gina was about to leave, she was a little disappointed. However, she still nodded obediently. "Okay, Gina. I'll wait for you to come back and play with me."

Then, Gina waved goodbye to Mindy.

After Nancy returned home, she took a hot shower and drank a cup of calming tea. Only then did she feel that her heartbeat had returned to normal. She was now in a state of nervous breakdown. From time to time, she would recall the scene of her broken finger.

Although it was not terrifying and bloody, it was still the first time she had seen a limb that had left a human body. How could she not be afraid!

Nancy wrapped herself in a towel and sat on the sofa, shivering. When the doorbell rang, she was shocked again.

She got up and walked to the door. When she turned on the surveillance camera and saw that the person standing outside was Henry, her soul almost left her body. Her legs went weak and she almost collapsed to the ground.

Henry must have discovered something. After all, Henry usually ignored her. It was too strange and obvious that he was looking for her.

Nancy decided to pretend that she was not at home.

But the doorbell kept ringing

Nancy ignored him and ran back to her room. She closed the door, locked it, and hid under the blanket. At this moment, her phone rang again, scaring her again. Nancy really felt that she was about to go crazy from fear,

It was a call from Shane. Nancy did not want to pick it up. Shane calling her at this time was definitely not a good thing.

Nancy pretended she could not hear her phone ringing!

However, in the next second, Shane sent a threatening message.

“Bitch, how dare you not pick up my call. If you don’t pick up another one of my call, don’t blame me if I use a scandalous photo of you. If you don’t pick up, I’ll post it online for everyone to see how shameless you are”

Nancy was stunned. She did have sex with Shane, but she did not realize when he had secretly taken photos of her!

This bastard!

Nancy gritted her teeth. When Shane called her next time, she pretended to have just woken up and said, “Mr. Benderson, I really didn’t do it on purpose. I didn’t pick up your call because my stomach hurts too much during my period. I went home and went straight to sleep. I didn’t hear my phone ring just now

Shane did not really believe Nancy’s words, but he was too lazy to scold her. “Are you a dead pig when you’re asleep? You can’t hear the bell or the doorbell Henry is at your door. He wants to talk to you. Now, go and open the door for him,” her house? Wasn't

Nancy froze. She had a strong, bad feeling. If she opened the door for Henry now, wouldn't she be inviting a wolf into her house? Was she courting death?

However, Shane on the other end of the phone urged her sternly. "Did you hear what I said? Nancy, what right do you have to throw a tantrum at me? If I tell you to open the door, open it"

23 23 9 2 5

"Okay, Mr. Henderson, don't be angry. I'll open the door now.

Nancy never thought that she would fall into a trap because of a moment of haste.

She deeply regretted it, but she could not turn back time. It was useless to regret. Nancy chose to listen to Shane in fear and opened the door for Henry.

Outside the door, Henry's expression was gentle and gentlemanly. "Miss Steele, I'm sorry. I have something urgent to tell you."

Nancy swallowed her saliva and stuttered, "What's the matter?"

Henry smiled harmlessly. "Did you see the broken finger in the drawer!"

Henry

Nancy's face turned pale. At this moment, of course, she could not admit that she had seen something she should not have. "No, I didn't see anything!"

Henry said coldly, "Miss Steele, please don't misunderstand. Don't be afraid. That severed finger was just surgically removed from a six-fingered girl from the foundation"

Nancy did not quite believe it, but she still braced herself and nodded, "Oh, I see. Mr. Matt, I didn't mean to rummage through your drawer. SEARCH THE Find_Novel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"I'm fine. So, Miss Steele, you won't call the police, right? Henry asked.

"No, I won't," Nancy replied and smiled awkwardly.

The corners of Henry's mouth curled up. "Alright, sorry to disturb you. Also, I hope that you will keep your word"

“Of course!” Nancy answered affirmatively

Then, Henry turned around and left. Nancy was shocked by the sudden turn of events. When she came back to her senses, she immediately closed the door and held her chest, hoping that her heartbeat would calm down quickly.

The next second, the doorbell rang again. Nancy saw from the surveillance camera that it was Gina. She opened the door without hesitation. “Miss Miller? Why are you here!”

“Henry came to look for you just now?” Gina asked directly.

“Yes.” After Nancy finished speaking, she looked fearfully at the elevator not far behind Gina and the stairs. She was afraid that Henry would appear again before he left.

“Miss Mill

ler, come in first. Let’s talk inside, Nancy said.

Gina entered Nancy’s apartment,

They sat on the sofa.

Nancy repeated the explanation that Henry had given her to Gina. “Miss Miller, he must be lying. He must have killed someone and dismembered the body to have a broken finger. Now that Henry knows that I’ve discovered his secret, he definitely won’t let me off. Miss Miller, you must protect me!

Gina said calmly, “That severed finger is indeed as he said. It’s a severed finger that was surgically removed”

“What?” Nancy was stunned. Did she misunderstand Henry again!

Gina did not continue to dwell on the matter of the severed finger. She asked, “Did you find anything else?”

Nancy was stumped. She did not seem to have found anything else

After holding it in for a while, Nancy probed, “I also realized that Henry seems to be quite affectionate? He’s always been thinking about his dead first love”

Chapter 382

“Is there anything special about his first love” Gina asked subconsciously.

“Special?” Nancy thought about it. “She’s pretty, but not as pretty as you, Miss Miller.” Nancy said what was on her mind.

“I’m not asking about her appearance, Gina said,

Nancy smiled awkwardly. “His first love? If there’s something special about her, it would be that she was especially miserable. She was originally a normal person, but she got into a car accident and had her leg amputated. However, Henry said that he still loved her very much and was willing to take care of her for the rest of her life. Unfortunately, she still committed suicide out of depression.

Amputation?

Gina felt that her conjecture was correct. Henry had a fetish for disabled people.

Nancy felt that Gina was praising her and her mood improved.

After hesitating for a moment, Nancy said solemnly to Gina’s back, “Miss Miller, I’m sorry.”

Gina stopped in her tracks and turned around to ask, “Why are you suddenly apologizing?”

“Previously, I was shameless. I wanted to rely on the suspected mistress of Mr. Jackson to make a name for myself. At that time, I really was crazy. I really know my mistake now, so I sincerely apologize to you. I hope you can be magnanimous. Nancy repented. At that time, she was still smug that being famous for bad news was still good. Now, she was clearly at the edge of the abyss.

“That matter is insignificant to me. However, everyone makes mistakes. It’s not too late to repent. Also, the opportunity to repent is limited. Don’t miss it. Gina said.

Nancy understood what Gina meant. Before she caused a disaster, repentance was the most useful. “Miss Miller, I will remember your teachings”

Gina could not help but laugh. She had no intention of teaching Nancy.

She did not say anything else.

They left Nancy’s house.

When Gina walked out of the neighborhood, in a Porsche by the street, Henry’s cold eyes were staring at Gina through the car window.

Henry knew that something was amiss with Nancy. He had a feeling that Nancy was trying to spy on him. So she was entrusted by someone?

Smack!

Colin slapped Olivia's face. The force was terrifying. Half of Olivia's face instantly turned red and swollen.

Ignoring the fact that she was seeing stars, Olivia knelt down and begged, "Mr. Barnes, please calm down."

"Calm down? You and that piece of trash James didn't even hurt a strand of Gina's hair. How can I calm down?" Colin questioned.

However, in reality, he was not very angry. He knew better than Olivia how good Gina was

After all, Gina Miler was a woman who could dodge the layers of surveillance in his bar, sneak into his underground wine warehouse, and turn the place upside down. With James's semi-crippled body, it would be strange if he could kill Gina.

However, what amused Colin was that Ashley was actually injured. It was so stupid that it was funny.

Colin just wanted to torture Olivia for fun and pretend to be very angry.

"He was too impatient. I've advised him not to be too hasty if his marksmanship isn't good, but he didn't listen. So, he didn't even hit Gina, Olivia said weakly as she covered her face.

As she spoke, she was speechless.

Colin himself could not do anything to Gina, so why should he have any expectations for James?

"Trash! The police almost found out about me because of the gun. Do you know how much trouble you almost caused me?" Colin

That was the truth. However, Colin chose someone from his subordinates and asked his subordinates to turn themselves in. He said that he sold guns illegally to James and temporarily dealt with it.

Olivia did not even dare to breathe loudly.

Colin did not want to act anymore. “Forget it. Get up. This matter will be over for now. Don’t do anything that disappoints me in the future. Do you understand?”

“Yes, Mr. Barnes.” Olivia was submissive.

She stood up, but did not dare sit down.

Colin suddenly asked, “Is there an all-in-one medical examination machine project under Ethan’s name?”

Olivia thought that Colin was interested in this project and hurriedly said, “Yes, do you want to invest? I can help you contact Ethan!”

Colin sneered in disdain. I’m not interested in investing”

Olivia immediately shut up..

Colin asked again, “Did you invest

Olivia nodded.

t in it?

Colin suddenly laughed sinisterly. “Only a fool would invest in that project.”

Olivia felt that Colin had scolded a lot of people with one sentence, but she did not dare to say anything since she was on the same side. She did not understand why Colin would say that. Did he know about Ethan’s project?

“There’s nothing else for you to do. Go, Colin said.

“Yes.” Olivia felt as if she had been pardoned. She did not dare to stay for a second longer.

Norwood prison.

Gina suspected that Henry had a fetish for the disabled, so she took the opportunity to investigate his first love’s car accident. Unexpectedly, there was indeed something fishy about the car accident that caused her amputation.

That car accident was deliberately created by Henry in order to make Wendy disabled and satisfy his shameless desires. After Wendy found out the truth, she fell out with Henry. Henry was afraid that Wendy would reveal his secret fetish to the public, so he directly chose to kill her to silence her.

Henry fed Wendy a whole bottle of sleeping pills and faked her suicide.

Now, Gina came to look for the man who was bribed by Henry and deliberately caused the car accident to disable Wendy. As long as this man retracted his confession, Gina would be able to obtain evidence of Henry’s crimes and let Henry accept the punishment of the law She would find out how he provided the ashes to Ben.

Henry was very cautious, Gina hacked into all of Henry’s equipment, but she could not find any traces of his crime. There was indeed nothing wrong with Clago Orphanages accounts.

It was not until Nancy mentioned Henry’s first love that Gina tried to use his dead girlfriend as a breakthrough point to find evidence of Henry’s crimes. Unexpectedly, she really made a major discovery.

Gina guessed that Wendy’s ashes had probably been sold long ago and made into Milaper pills.

After a while, the police officer came with the man who had caused the accident. The man’s originally dispirited face instantly lit up when he saw Gina Beautiful girl, why are you looking for me?”

Gina looked up at the unshaven man in front of her. I’m looking for you to retract your confession and admit that you by someone to deliberately drive and maim Miss Wendy”

were instructed

The man’s face suddenly turned gloomy “I don’t understand what you’re saying. Are you her friend? I don’t know Henry I was drunk driving that day and accidentally bumped into her. I’m also in jail now and have paid the price. What else do you want to find me for?” Gina did not want to talk nonsense with the man. “You still have two years to complete your sentence and be released, right?”

“Wendy’s brother always felt that you were the one who injured her and caused her to commit suicide due to depression. Therefore, he wished he could kill you. He didn’t even want to wait until the day you were released from prison to settle the score with you. If you don’t tell the truth, I don’t mind helping him,” Gina said. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

The man was stunned for a moment. Being threatened by an unfamiliar woman had damaged his dignity as a man. He said unhappily, “Stop playing tricks on me. You don’t mind helping him? What do you mean? Are you trying to say that you can bring Wendy’s brother in and kill me? Do you think I’m a three-year-old child who can be frightened by you?”

Gina remained indifferent in the face of the man’s mockery.

The man was disdainful and stood up to leave. Before he left, he did not forget to mock Gina. “You look like a beautiful woman, but you’re full of nonsense. Are you crazy? What a pity.”

Gina continued to sit calmly because she knew that the man had to come back in less than three minutes.

The man was about to return to the prison under the lead of the police officers when he was suddenly hit on the arm by someone walking towards him. The man clicked his tongue in dissatisfaction and turned his head to see who hit him. Unexpectedly, the other party happened to turn his head at the same time. In the next second, the man’s legs went weak because the person who bumped into him was Wendy’s brother, Xander. Not only that, Xander was also wearing the uniform of a prison guard.

Xander naturally recognized the man. He sneered at the man with hatred in his eyes, as if telling the man indirectly that from now on, he would not have a good life in prison

The man was dumbfounded. He did not expect Gina to really do what she said. When he looked at Xander’s eyes, he found that Xander’s eyes were filled with hatred. Xander was really willing to die with him for his dead sister.

No, the man did not want to die yet!

The man immediately turned around and ran towards the visitation room without hesitation. The accompanying police officers could not stop him even if they wanted to.

The man shouted as he ran, I want to retract the confession! I want to retract the confession!"

After leaving the prison, tears welled up in Xander's eyes. He even wanted to kneel down to Gina. "Miss Miller, thank you. If it weren't for you, I'm afraid I would have been kept in the dark by that beast Henry for the rest of my life."

Gina raised her hand and helped Xander up. "You're welcome. I was able to find out the real cause of your sister's death because of your persistence and your acting skills."

Xander was amused. He did not really become a prison guard, but Miss Miller had discussed it with the police and put on such a show. He borrowed the prison guard's clothes and met with the perpetrator to let the perpetrator think that he had come for revenge.

Xander took a deep breath. "It's not that I'm good at acting, but I really hate the perpetrator."

Even if the culprit was not the murderer who directly killed Wendy, he was still an unforgivable accomplice.

"If I could, I would kill Henry to avenge my sister" Xander gritted his teeth.

Cina comforted, "Don't do anything stupid. The law will help you deal with Henry."

Xander nodded solemnly. At the same time, he was a little worried. "But Henry is the president of Clago Orphanage. He's rich, powerful, and has a wide network. Will it be very difficult to sentence him to death?"

He did not know that Gina could change the president of Clago Orphanage with just one word.

"Don't worry, there's no such possibility, Gina said firmly.

Before Mindy's left hand wound healed after the surgery, Henry removed the gauze wrapped around her wound.

Chapter 384

The wound had not completely healed

The cut surface was newly grown flesh, and the color was much lighter than the other skin on Mindy's hands.

Henry looked at the cross section and thought of Wendy.

After Wendy's amputation, the cut on her leg was much more "shocking than this small cut. At that time, Wendy did not want Henry to see it for fear that Henry would despise her. The poor girl did not know that not only did Henry not despise her, he even liked her to death.

Compared to Wendy's healthy body, Henry loved her broken limbs more.

Although Mindy was still a child, she keenly sensed that something was wrong with Henry. She retracted her hand in fear and asked in sign language. "Henry, why did you remove my gauze? The wound hasn't healed yet. It's so ugly."

Henry smiled and shook his head. "It's not ugly. It's beautiful."

Mindy had an indescribable, strange feeling and continued to use sign language. I used to have six fingers, but now that they're normal, they look better."

Henry shook his head. "Actually, just because you have five fingers doesn't mean you look good. You'll look better if you have fewer fingers.

Mindy did not understand what he meant.

After a while. Henry heard the sirens outside the door.

His face darkened. Gina must have found something and called the police to arrest him. Ever since he realized that he could not contact Ben, he had a bad feeling. Coupled with the fact that Gina began to appear frequently in the orphanage, he knew that something was going to happen. Even though he thought that he was cautious and did not leave any traces, Gina still found a breakthrough.

In the end, he would not be able to escape.

Henry knew that he was no match for Gina. He might as well go all out.

However, before he went to prison, he wanted to have one last good time.

When Gina and the police appeared in front of him at the same time, Henry grabbed Mindy's neck without hesitation. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Mindy was frightened and struggled desperately.

The police officer began to advise Henry, "Don't do anything wrong again. Come with us. It's your best choice.

"I've done too many wrong things. I don't care about this one. Don't worry, I won't kill her. I just want to cut off a few of her fingers for fun. After that, I'll leave with you. Don't act rashly. Otherwise, I might change my mind. I won't just cut off a few of her fingers." Henry said.

Mindy was extremely afraid, but she could not break free from Henry. Henry let go of Mindy's neck and grabbed her hand. Mindy cried silently. Henry even coaxed her, "Mindy, be good. Don't be afraid. I'm just helping your hand become more beautiful,"

Mindy shook her head desperately. Henry had wanted to cripple Mindy's hand bit by bit, but unfortunately, there was no time or opportunity. He could only choose such a rough method.

Picking up the fruit knife on the table, Henry's eyes were cold. He aimed it at Mindy's finger and prepared to cut it ruthlessly. Human bones were quite hard. It was impossible not to use force.

At this moment, the police officer did not dare to shoot. After all, Mindy was in Henry's arms and firing at them could easily hurt her.

However, Gina attacked. She did not give Henry a chance to hurt Mindy. The silver needle flew away from her fingertips. The moment the silver needle pierced into Henry's neck, Henry suddenly felt his entire body go numb. He could not control his body at all.

The knife also fell from his hand. He was so shocked that he could not even turn his head. He could only roll his eyes. What the hell was going on?

Chapter 381

The police officers were also very surprised. They thought that Henry had suddenly found his conscience and could not bear to do. After all, the silver needle was very thin and it was really difficult to notice it at a glance.

Gina went forward and pulled Mindy from Henry's arms. She used the opportunity to knock Henry out with a slash to prevent Henry from resisting uselessly

Then, she took the silver needle from Henry's neck.

The police officers went forward to take Henry away

Mindy was terrified. She hid in Gina's arms and cried. She could not speak and cried silently. Her tears could not stop flowing

Gina was not very good at comforting people. She tried to pat Mindy's back. "Mindy, don't be afraid. I'm here."

Mindy did not respond and just kept crying. Gina had no choice but to ling her. She thought that Mindy might not be able to recover from the shock she had just suffered for a while. It was not something that she could resolve with a few words of comfort.

Unknowingly, Gina accompanied Mindy until night time.

Gabriel had already gotten off v work and came to the fund house to look for Gina.

Gina told him what happened to Mindy today. Although Gabriel sympathized with her, he thought that since Gina had accompanied Mindy for so long, she should let the other people in the fund department accompany her now. Gina should accompany him during the rest period!

Gabriel looked at Mindy, who was hiding behind Gina and looking at him warily. He tried his best to coax her gently. "Mindy, can you let other sisters and brothers accompany you? It's getting late. I'm going to bring Gina home to rest"

However, Mindy was very insecure now because Gina had saved her. Only by staying by Gina's side could she feel safe.

Mindy shook her head.

Gabriel was speechless.

He wanted to spend some alone time with Gina!

After a busy day's work, he could not even chat with Gina for a while. It was not easy for him to get off work and go on a date with Gina, but Gina had a third wheel by her side!

Gabriel felt a little bitter.

Gina was worried that Mindy would be traumatized by today's incident. She was also worried about leaving Mindy behind..

"Mindy hasn't eaten yet. Come eat with us," Gina said.

Gabriel quietly cracked open. However, since Gina had suggested it, he could not refuse. He was unwilling to reject any of Gina's requests.

Cina turned around and asked, "Gabriel, is that okay?"

"Of course" Gabriel nodded.

Mindy followed Gina and sat in Gabriel's custom Rolls Royce.

She stayed close to Cina. Even though she had cried for a long time and had lost all her strength, she still did not dare to sleep. She was afraid that Gina would leave while she was sleeping.

Gabriel booked a five-star restaurant in advance and ordered a candlelight dinner. However, at the moment, there was no romantic atmosphere of a candlelight dinner. After all, there was still a third wheel.

The table was filled with delicacies, but Mindy did not eat them.

Gina lowered her head and asked gently, "What's wrong? Is there nothing you like to eat? You can tell me what you want to eat. I'll buy it for you.

Mindy shook her head and gestured in sign language. "I don't have money. Gina, you guys can eat."

Chapter 384

Gina was stunned. Could it be that Mindy felt that the food on the table was very expensive and was embarrassed to eat without paying?

Mindy had no parents and was taken in by the orphanage. Such cautiousness and sensibleness made one's heart ache.

Chapter 385

Mindy thought for a moment and nodded.

Gma picked up some food for Mindy. “Come, eat more,”

Looking at Gina taking care of Mindy, even if the other party was a child and a little girl, Gabriel still felt a little jealous.

Gina’s attention was diverted and not only on him.

Gina probably noticed Gabriel’s faint melancholy gaze. She turned around and picked up some food for Gabriel. “You eat too.”

Gabriel felt much better.

After the meal, Mindy was finally less tense. She even started to feel sleepy. Gina saw that her eyes were about to close and touched Mindy’s head. “Do you want to sleep? If you want to sleep, sleep. It’s fine. I’ll always be with you.”

Mindy wanted to open her eyes wide to show that she was not sleepy, but she really could not take it anymore. She leaned against Gina and closed her eyes. In a few seconds, she fell asleep.

“Gina, Gabriel said.

Gina made a shushing gesture at Gabriel, signaling him not to wake Mindy up. Gabriel lowered his voice and said, “Shall I carry her to the car first?”

She could not possibly sleep in a private room in the restaurant,

5 5 3 3

Gina nodded in agreement.

Gabriel got up and carried Mindy back to the car. Gabriel carefully placed Mindy in the backseat.

Then, he asked Gina, “Shall I send her back to the orphanage?”

Gina shook her head. “Send her to my house first. She was so frightened today that she can’t leave me. It’s better for me to accompany her through this buffer period.”

Gabriel remained silent.

Originally, he wanted to invite Gina to return to the old residence with him. After all, his father also wanted to see Gina. At the same time, Gina could stay overnight

He did not want to do anything with Gina. Even if he just hugged Gina and fell asleep with her in his arms, it would be a blissful thing. However, with this child around, it was obviously impossible for it to happen!

Gabriel felt wronged!

Helpless, Gabriel could only listen to Gina. He first sent them back to Gina's apartment and carried Mindy into the apartment.

After placing Mindy on the bed, Gina said caringly, "You should go back and rest early too."

"Alright." Although Gabriel was a little reluctant, with Mindy around, Gina still had to take care of her all the time and accompany him. Would it be too tiring? After all, Gina had been busy for the entire day.

Gina sent Gabriel off. Before parting, Gabriel hugged Gina reluctantly and kissed her forehead. "See you tomorrow."

"See you tomorrow." After saying that, Gina kissed Gabriel's lips. Gina's unexpected initiative surprised Gabriel, and his mood improved.

He wanted to kiss Gina again, but Gina stopped him and reminded him, "There's still a child at home."

Mindy was a light sleeper. Gina was afraid that Gabriel would not be able to control himself after kissing her,

Gabriel was helpless. "Alright, I'll be leaving then."

"Okay. Drive safely on the road," Gina said.

Chapter 661

Gabriel nodded and left reluctantly. He wished he could turn back three times with every step.

After Gabriel entered the elevator, Gina closed the door and returned to her room to accompany Mindy, who was sleeping,

The next day.

When Mindy woke up, she was a little nervous when she saw the unfamiliar environment. She did not know where she was and there was no one in the room. She was instantly afraid Just as she was about to cry in fear, Gina walked into the room

You're awake! Come and have breakfast. Gina invited.

Mindy immediately stopped crying and got out of bed to wash up. After breakfast, Gina asked her. "Do you want to watch TV?"

Mindy nodded Gina was usually at home alone. She had never turned on the LCD television that was hanging on the wall. This was the first time she had turned on the television

Gina taught Mindy to use the remote control and let her watch television for a while. She returned to her room to change her clothes. Later, she still had to go to Prover Hospital to do something

Aher changing her clothes, Gina watched TV with Mindy for a while and asked. "Im going out to do something. Do you want to go with me or watch TV at home?"

"Together" Mindy did not dare to leave Gina at all.

"Alright, let's go."

Gina took Mindy out. Before driving, Gina took t Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

the time to reply to Gabriel's message. He asked her what she was doing.

Gabriel sent a dynamic emoji wearing sunglasses. The sunglasses slowly moved up to reveal two streams of tears. Gina looked at this expression and felt a little amused. She replied: [What's wrong"]

Gabriel 1 envy her for being able to stick to you]

Gina smiled and replied: [Are you going to be jealous of a little girl!]

[Yes] Gabriel answered without hesitation.

He only wanted to monopolize Gina.

Gina started the car and stopped chatting with Gabriel for the time being.

When she reached Prover Hospital, Gina went to look for Dylan as usual, but this time, she was followed by her sidekick, Mindy.

Dylan was a little surprised. "Gina, who is this little kid!"

"A child from the orphanage, Gina explained concisely

Dylan understood and made a joke. "I thought you suddenly had a daughter."

At the mention of the orphanage, Gina continued the topic. "Henry is in prison. Quentin's body is already at the end of its rope. It's impossible for him to come back and continue being the president."

Previously, when Gina went to visit Quentin, Quentin was extremely skinny and weak. Gina could not even bear to talk to Quentin because just by breathing, she could tell that Quentin had used all his strength. Gina accompanied Quentin for a while and let him rest before leaving.

Looking at Quentin's weak appearance, Gina's heart ached. However, no matter how good her medical skills were, she did not have the ability to revive the dead. She was really helpless.

The foundation lacks a president to take charge of the situation. I want you to take over; Gina said as she collected her thoughts.

Dylan Thoas was a little surprised. "Me?"

Dylan was her subordinate. As Prover Hospital's second-in-command, he had always managed the hospital well. Gina also trusted Dylan's character more..

"Can't you?" Gina asked.

"Yes, yes. Gina, you trust me. Of course, I can do it!" Dylan nodded.

"Alright, then. Thank you for your hard work," Gina said.

"Not at all!" Dylan said enthusiastically. After all, Gina was his savior. He was also very happy to be able to serve her as much as possible to repay Gina for saving his life.

"Oh yeah." Dylan suddenly thought of something.

Chapter 386

Dylan said. “The all-in-one medical examination machine project that Ethan is in charge of is officially in operation. I heard that their project team has trached a collaboration with Blue Vale Hospital. Blue Vale Hospital will be the first hospital to accept and apply this machine. Now, the price of the medical examination is very low, and there are many more people going to Blue Vale Hospital. It’s said that their all-in-one medical examination machine only needs to draw a tube of blood to get dozens of physical examination results.”

Dylan felt that this sounded ridiculous, so he told Gina what he heard.

He felt that something was wrong with this project. “By the way, Gina, was Gabriel involved in this project?”

Gina shook her head. “No.”

Dylan relaxed his frown. “Oh, it’s alright then.”

Thinking about it, it made sense. With Gina around, Gabriel would definitely not interfere in this project. He could feel that something would definitely happen in this project in the future.

Dylan smiled and said. “I heard that Blue Vale Hospital wants to surpass us and become a private hospital that benefits the common people. It’s not like our Prover Hospital, where the patients we accept are all rich”

Before Dylan could finish his sentence, someone said that Gina had deliberately built such a hospital to cozy up to the rich and powerful. However, the truth was that because of Prover Hospital’s top medical conditions, the rich and powerful wanted to cozy up to Gina. It was just that Gina did not have the intention to do this. To her, socializing was useless. There were people who wanted to cozy up to her, but they did not have the chance.

Blue Vale treated Prover as a competitor?

It was a useless comparison.

Gina smiled indifferently. “Let them be. I don’t have the time to care about them”

However, recently, I have a new medical project that I want to do. Gina said.

Dylan's eyes lit up, and his face was just short of the words "Tell me what to do". Moreover, he had always felt that Gina's medical skills were so good. If she had the intention to do medical research, she would definitely make a huge contribution that would shock the world. What project?" Dylan asked.

"Artificial uterus." Gina said.

Dylan was stunned for a moment before he said thoughtfully. "This project is very good, but unfortunately, I can't help much."

He was a neurosurgeon, so he was not good at reproduction.

"You can help too, but won't it be too hard on you?" Gina saw that Dylan was a little disappointed and continued to ask.

After all, she had just given Dylan the position of president of Clago Orphanage.

Gina was worried that Dylan would be too busy.

"No, no. You know that I'm more energetic!" Dylan Thoas was happy again.

"Then I'll say it. Isn't your family a pharmaceutical family? So, I want to ask you to help me find a few scientific and medical experts in fertility to participate in this project, Gina said.

"Alright, leave it to me!"

Dylan nodded firmly.

Dylan was the same as Michael. He was efficient and Gina was very relieved. Therefore, she had nothing else to say. "I'll leave first. You go ahead"

"Alright, goodbye, Dylan waved happily. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

After leaving Prover Hospital, Gina looked at Mindy, who was obediently following her. She planned to temporarily not deal with official matters for the time being and spend time with Mindy. She wanted to eliminate Mindy's psychological trauma and let her enter

She

Mindy was too embarrassed to take the initiative to make a request. She only used sign language to express that it was fine as long as she could stay with Gina Gina did not force her to say something

Hence, Gina planned to bring Mindy around.

When passing by the amusement park. Mindy stared at the entrance of the amusement park and paused..

Gina bent down and asked, “Do you want to go in and play?”

Mindy hurriedly shook her head and gestured. “No, I can’t spend Sisyourer’s money recklessly.”

Cina comforted her, “I also want to go in and play, but I don’t want to play alone. Mindy, can you accompany me?”

Mindy laughed and nodded.

While queuing up to take the pirate ship, Gabriel sent a message asking Gina what she was busy with.

Gina told him that she was accompanying Mindy to the amusement park.

Gabriel sent a crying emoji. He replied: [I’m envious.]

Gina laughed and replied: [What’s wrong? Mr. Jackson, do you want to come to the amusement park too?]

Gabriel: [No, I’m just envious. That little girl can stay by your side for an entire day.]

As soon as he replied, he had more work to do. He could only reluctantly report to Gina. [I’ll deal with my work first. You accompany that little girl first. When I get off work, you accompany me too!]

Gina: [Okay.]

After playing all the events in the amusement park, Mindy happily followed Gina back to the car.

Gina realized that Mindy was not as tense as the day before.

She decided to start counseling Mindy.

“Mindy, don’t be afraid. I’m here. I won’t allow anyone to hurt you again. I’ll protect you.”
Gina stroked Minmin’s hair.

Mindy looked up at Gina and expressed in sign language, “Gina, I don’t understand. Why did Henry suddenly become so scary? He wasn’t like this in the p past.

Henry, who was clearly such a gentle gentleman, suddenly held a knife and said that he wanted to cut off her fingers. He even said that her hand would look good without her fingers. Mindy could not understand and even felt that it was terrifying. It had a huge impact on her young heart.

Gina tried her best to explain to Mindy, a 6–year–old child, about Henry having a fetish for disabled people, and the fact that one could not judge a book by its cover.

Then, she continued to comfort Mindy.

Mindy did not fully understand, but with Gina’s promise that she would protect her, Mindy was not so afraid anymore. In the end, she even took the initiative to suggest. “Gina, send me back to the orphanage tomorrow. I don’t want to trouble you to take care of me anymore. Henry has already been arrested by the police. I’m not afraid anymore.”

“Do you really want to go back” Gina asked gently.

She did not want Mindy to choose to go back because she did not want to trouble herself. Gina was not at ease letting Mindy go back without untangling the knot in her heart.

Mindy nodded seriously. “I miss my friends in the academy. I want to go to class with them and play with them.”

Gina could tell that Mindy meant what she said.

“Alright, then, is there another reason why you want to go back to the house tomorrow?” Gina asked. She did not have any experience with raising children, so she did not know if she was doing well or if there was anything that made Mindy feel uncomfortable.

Mindy hesitated for a moment before asking in sign language. "There is. Can I say it?"

Chapter 387

"Of course, you can say whatever you want," Gina said patiently and gently.

Mindy gestured "Cina, your boyfriend doesn't seem to like me very much, especially since I'm sticking to you. Does he hate me now?"

Mindy did not want to be hated

Gina Laughed. "No, he doesn't hate you. He's just a little jealous."

Jealous!

Mindy did not quite understand the meaning behind it

After leaving the amusement park. Gina planned to take Mindy to a nearby mall to have some food and rest.

She brought Mindy into a ice cream shop.

Not far away, Jasmine, who was shopping with Ashley, suddenly stopped.

Did she just see Gina!

Seeing that familiar back view, Jasmine would not be mistaken. Jasmine's expression turned cold

During this period of time, she had been sent overseas by Jabari to receive treatment for the scar on her face from the car accident.

The effect was very good. There were no scars at all. The first thing she did when she returned to the country was to curry favor with Ashley. After all, Ashley was currently the most supportive of the Jackson family. She was with Gabriel and squeezed out Gina.

In order to make Ashley happy. Jasmine accompanied Ashley to shop. Just now, she was still asking about Ashley's condition, but after seeing Gina, she no longer cared about Ashley.

Ashley noticed Jasmine's abnormality. "What's wrong? Jasmine?"

"Ashley, look, that's Gina, right? Who's that little girl beside her!" Jasmine asked.

"How would I know? Ashley's expression changed when she heard Gina's name.

Neither of them was in the mood to shop now.

In particular, when Jasmine thought about how Gina was now Gabriel's public and legitimate girlfriend, the jealousy in her heart surged. Without a word, she walked towards that ice cream shop.

Ashley pulled her back. "Jasmine, what are you doing?"

Jasmine said, "Ashley, I want to eat ice cream too. Do you want some?"

Eat ice cream? Was Jasmine looking for trouble?

How could Ashley not understand what Jasmine was thinking?

However, it just so happened that her resentment towards Gina was not any less than Jasmine's.

Jasmine wanted to make things difficult for Gina. Ashley had no reason to stop her. "Alright, go buy it. I won't eat."

She did not want to eat cheap ice cream

Jasmine entered the shop and bought ice cream on a cone. She turned to look in the direction of Gina and realized that Gina had gotten up and gone to the washroom.

Jasmine took the ice cream and walked in Mindy's direction. Mindy was eating ice cream and did not notice Jasmine approaching Jasmine pretended that she did not hold it properly and smashed the ice cream on Mindy. Mindy was shocked and immediately got up from her seat She looked at Jasmine in horror.

Jasmine felt at ease. Even though this ice cream cone was not splashed on Gina, the fact that this little girl could stay by Gina's side, who was usually alone, meant that her relationship with Gina was not ordinary.

Chapter 387

After smashing ice cream on Mindy, Jasmine acted carelessly again. "Oh, little girl, I'm really sorry. I didn't hold the ice cream cone firmly just now. I'm sorry. Come, let me help you wipe it."

Mindy was shocked and stood rooted to the ground. Jasmine was still surprised. Why did this little girl not make a sound even after being splashed?

Hence, while pretending to help her wipe the water stains, she deliberately pinched Mindy. Mindy was in pain, but because she could not make a sound, she could only frown.

Jasmine was amused. So the girl was mute.

Could this girl be a child that Gina secretly gave birth to behind Gabriel's back?

Jasmine's imagination was running wild when she heard Gina's cold voice behind him. "What are you doing?"

Before Jasmine could turn around, she was pulled by Gina, Jasmine staggered away from Mindy. She steadied herself and said angrily, "Gina, what are you doing?"

Gina looked at her coldly and slapped Jasmine's face without hesitation.

"What the hell?" Jasmine did not expect Gina to slap her without saying anything. She was stunned.

"You don't dare to provoke me, so you're bullying a little girl?" Gina retorted. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Jasmine went crazy. "How dare you hit me? I'll tell Gabriel and let him see that you're a shrew!"

"Are you introducing yourself? Jasmine, if you court death in front of me again, the Bush family won't be able to protect you." Gina sneered and warned.

Seeing that Gina actually dared to spout nonsense, Jasmine was so angry that she was about to go forward and beat Gina. At this moment, Ashley, who had walked into ice cream's shop, quickly grabbed Jasmine. "Jasmine, that's enough!"

She had witnessed how vicious Gina was.

If they really fought, Jasmine might not even know how she died.

Today, Jasmine was out shopping with her again. If something really happened, Ashley would not be able to explain it to the Bush family.

Jasmine did not understand. Logically speaking, shouldn't Ashley be on the same side as her! Even if they could not openly deal with Gina together, Ashley should not stop her, right?

Ashley pulled Jasmine behind her. “Miss Miller, Jasmine was really careless just now.”

Before Ashley could finish her sentence, Gina picked up the unfinished ice cream and smeared it on Jasmine. Jasmine was shocked and screamed. Ashley could not dodge in time and the cheap ice cream spilled on her expensive clothes. Her face was about to turn red with anger.

Ashley was about to explode from anger.

Gina was too lazy to listen to Ashley's excuses for Jasmine. She simply said, “Get lost.”

Jasmine broke down and went crazy, but she was powerless to resist.

Ashley was furious, but because of Gabriel, she could not fall out with Gina.

She took a deep breath and pulled Jasmine away. “Let's go.”

Gina retracted her gaze and looked at the frightened Mindy. She felt a little guilty. She said that she would protect Mindy well, but in the end, Mindy suffered an undeserved calamity.

Gina rarely wiped Mindy's clothes first. “Can I buy you another ice cream cone? I'm sorry. I didn't protect you well just now

Mindy shook her head. “No, Gina, I want to thank you. You helped me chase away the bad guys again. You're so amazing. When I grow up. I want to become a powerful girl like you.”

Although Mindy's sign language could not express her tone, the admiration in her eyes could not be concealed.

Gina smiled gently. "Sure."

She bought Mindy a new cup of ice cream, then brought her to buy a new set of clothes.

On the other side, Ashley and Jasmine returned to the car. Because Jasmine was "humiliated" by Gina in public, she broke down and cried.

Ashley was even more upset by Jasmine's crying, "Why are you crying?"

Jasmine sobbed. Tll get the surveillance camera in the shop and give it to Gabriel. I'll let him know that Gina is a shrew!"

Ashley was speechless. Do you think it's useful? Jasmine, don't tell me you still haven't recognized the reality? Gabriel has been bewitched by Gina and is about to disown his family. Do you think you can make Gabriel hate Gina with just a surveillance camera? Don't be stupid, okay?"

Jasmine knew very well that this would not be of much use, but she had no other choice.

Ashley was disappointed. "Besides, you pretended that your hand slipped and smeared ice cream on that girl. The surveillance camera. captured it clearly. If you want Gabriel to hate you even more, don't listen to me. Show the surveillance camera to Gabriel."

Jasmine wiped her tears and became agitated. "Ashley, I hate Gina so much. The car accident when the tanker exploded was directed and acted on by Gina. She wanted to kill me and even pretended to be the victim!"

Every day Jasmine used a laser to remove the scars on her face overseas, her hatred for Gina deepened.

Ashley was shocked. "You have evidence?"

Jasmine shook her head. "No, Gina is too capable. In addition, the driver is already dead. There's no evidence. Ethan told me the truth."

Ethan said that? Search the Find_Novel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

But since Ethan also had no evidence, it was the same as not saying anything.

Ashley was speechless. She had been happy for nothing and thought that she could send Gina to jail.

Jasmine cried and begged Ashley for help. "Ashley, what should I do? I want to win Gabriel's heart back."

Her question stunned Ashley.

When did Jasmine even manage to grasp

Gabriel's heart?

Ashley wanted to ask, but now, Ashley did not want to say such hurtful words to Jasmine. Jasmine was not the ideal sister-in-law in Ashley's heart.

At least Jasmine was better than Gina.

However, to be honest, she did not have any good ideas. Ashley mocked, "Look at Gabriel's obsession with Gina. I'm afraid that only when Gina dies can he fall in love with someone else!"

Jasmine really remembered Ashley's casual words. She wanted Gina to die.

Gina must die!

After a day of shopping. Mindy was very tired. She fell asleep as soon as she lay on the bed.

Gina was resting in the living room when she received a call from Lisa.

"Gina, congratulations on solving the problem of selling illicit drugs. After I received the news that you said you could publicize this case, I got the media to report it. I also successfully helped you deal with this transnational case and attacked the domestic consumption family's black industry. I promoted the friendship between the two countries and entered the public's vision. Now, the public has a good impression of me. I'm very grateful to you."

Lisa's tone was full of joy.

Previously, she had asked Lisa not to publicize the case because she did not want to alert the enemy. Now that Henry had fallen into the net, there was nothing to hide.

Chapter 3ka

Lisa said sincerely, “Gina, when will you come to Mosioca again! I really want to meet you again. I think you’re really my lucky star. If you’re willing to help me fight for the position of royal heir, I promise that I won’t treat you badly”

Gina believed that Lisa could keep her word. However, she really had no intention of participating in the battle of the foreign royal family.

“Sorry, Lisa,” Gina said simply.

Lisa understood what Gina meant. She did not want to force Gina for her selfish motive. Lisa knew that Gina was not an ordinary person. If she had Gina’s help, she would be able to snatch the position of the heir of the royal family from her brother very quickly. She wanted Gina to become a sharp weapon in her hands.

However, how could someone as outstanding as Gina be willing to be someone else’s tool?

Lisa could come up with a bargaining chip to get Gina to agree to collaborate.

Just throwing money at Gina was definitely not enough.

“Okay, that’s okay. But even though you rejected me, I don’t think the fact that we’re friends will change, right? I really want to be friends with you.” Lisa said.

“That’s good. Come to Mosnioca when you’re free! I’ll pick you up at the airport!”

“Alright,” said Gina.

After hanging up the phone, Gina felt a little tired. She lay on the sofa and planned to rest for a while, but before she knew it, she fell asleep.

After Gabriel got off work, he did not receive any news from Gina. He went straight to Gina’s apartment and was relieved to find that Gina was only asleep.

Looking at Gina, who was sleeping soundly on the sofa, Gabriel did not want to disturb her.

He bent down and Gina on the forehead.

Then, he carefully picked Gina up from the sofa.

He carried Gina into the room and placed her on the bed. Gina slowly opened her eyes. When her gaze met his in that moment, Gabriel smiled and said in a low and gentle voice, "I woke you up."

Gina naturally reached out and hooked her arm around Gabriel's neck. "No, actually, I woke up the moment you entered"

She was a light sleeper. No matter how careful Gabriel was, she still woke up.

Gabriel touched the tip of her nose. "Were you pretending to be asleep?"

"I'm just tired. I don't want to open my eyes, Gina explained.

"You've been playing with a little kid all day. Are you so tired that you don't have the energy to play with me anymore?" Gabriel was a little disappointed.

"Sleeping together counts as accompanying you, Gina said seriously.

A sly look appeared in Gabriel's eyes. "Alright, let's sleep together."

With that. Gabriel got up and took off his suit jacket, followed by the lining.

Ti saying, sleep properly!" Gina quickly explained.

Gabriel smiled. "I'll take the initiative. I won't tire you out

Gina blushed. Gabriel had only unbuttoned his shirt. His perfect and tight muscles were hidden by his fluttering shirt, making hum look and beautiful.

"Do I look good? Gabriel noticed Gina's subconscious gaze as she looked up at him. Gabriel did not give Gina a chance to answer anal her on the lips.

Gradually, things got steamier

Gina hugged Gabriel's back. Everything went according to plan.

However, this beautiful atmosphere was interrupted by a knock on the door, Gina suddenly felt as if she had woken up from her infatuation. Chapter 389

The next day.

Dylan returned to the Thomas family.

Ever since he quarreled with James last time and parted on bad terms, he returned home less frequently. The relationship between the two brothers was not good to begin with, and his father was biased towards James. He did not get involved in the family's business and did not come back. It was not a big deal, and he was happy to be free.

Mr. Thomas was drinking tea. When he saw his youngest son return, he was pleasantly surprised. "You're back?"

"Yeah."

Dylan sat down and the atmosphere eased up. No one mentioned the previous quarrel and just treated it as the past.

He first chatted with his father.

Then, he mentioned that Gina had asked him to help find a few experts in fertility to form the "artificial uterus medical team.

Can..

"Evan, you have connections in this area.

you help me contact them?" Dylan asked.

"Sure, no problem, Evan said and agreed readily.

After all, Gina was his youngest son's savior. It was not an unreasonable request. It was not a problem for him to help.

Hearing his father's affirmative answer, Dylan's mood became very good. "Sorry to trouble you, Evan."

"You and I are father and son. Why are you being so polite? Evan smiled.

"The artificial uterus project sounds good," Shawn said. Search the Find_Novel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Shawn came down from the second floor.

When Dylan saw Shawn's figure, his expression changed slightly, but he still greeted him politely, "Shawn."

Shawn responded indifferently. He also sat on the sofa. "Dylan, I heard that Gina arranged for you to be the president of Clago Orphanage."

"That's right," Dylan replied calmly. He did not want to continue this topic.

Because he knew that if he continued this topic, there would definitely be unhappiness.

However, it was obvious that Shawn's thoughts were completely different from his. "Gina trusts you very much and has placed you in an Important position. Does she also want you to be in charge of the artificial uterus project?"

"No," Dylan answered truthfully. Gina probably wanted to be in charge of this project herself.

Shawn continued, "Dylan, although Gina saved you, you've been doing your best to help her these past few years. She's ordering you around so casually, and you're willing to do anything for her? Even if she wants your help, aren't you going to raise any conditions?"

Dylan's expression darkened. The last time the two brothers parted on bad terms, it was because Shawn had instigated him to arrange for his family members to work at Prover Hospital. Shawn had accused him that since he was Prover Hospital's second-in-command. why did he not lead his relatives to climb up the ranks!

Dylan directly refused. Shawn wanted him to bring in Prover Hospital's relatives, but Dylan knew that if those relatives were not the real deal, letting them work would not only ruin Prover Hospital's reputation, but it would also be no different from killing people for money

Naturally, Dylan did not agree. Shawn tried to coax and pester him, but he did not succeed, so the two of them started arguing. Shawn accused Dylan of being inflexible and disregarding the prosperity of his family. He only knew how to serve Gina loyally At that time. Evan was also present and watched them argue. However, Evan was on Shawn's sade, Evan felt that it was not a problem i him to use Gina's resources to make the family members successful

Dylan did not want to do something that went against his conscience and hurt others.

"You're talking about how Miss Miller int Treats me?"

Chapter 359

Before Dylan could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by Shawn. He knew what Dylan wanted to say next, so he directly interrupted. "She saved your life, so it's only right for you to help her. You don't expect anything in return, right? You've helped her do her best for so long. Isn't that enough to repay her kindness? Besides, this time, she wants to make use of the Thomas family's resources. What's wrong with asking her for something in return? Isn't that very reasonable?"

Shawn sneered in disdain..

Dylan did not want to talk anymore. He felt that if he continued to chat, he would have to quarrel with Shawn again.

He simply said goodbye to Evan. "Evan. I'll get going first."

Shawn clicked his tongue in dissatisfaction. "Dylan, I say, why are you so single-minded? Can our family's resources be handed over to others for nothing without asking for anything in return? If you're embarrassed to ask Gina for benefits, I can help you."

Dylan frowned. Just as he stopped in his tracks, he heard Shawn say, "Evan, don't help Gina anymore. It's so strenuous and Gina just treats Dylan as free labor. Forget it. Does our entire family have to work like cows and horses for her?"

Dylan felt that Shawn's words were too much. "Miss Miller will not treat us as free labor. If we help, of course she will reward us!"

"Reward? Does our family lack money?" Shawn asked.

What the Thomas family lacked now was fame. As a pharmaceutical family, how could they not want to be famous in history? If Gina's artificial uterus project could succeed, it would not be an exaggeration to say that the names of all the participants would be remembered for generations.

Shawn wanted a piece of the pie. It was not like the Thomas family did not have a gynecologist, but in terms of qualifications, he could not be considered an expert.

Dylan could tell what Shawn was planning. He did not want to help Shawn scheme against Gina.

Dylan looked at his father. “Evan, you promised me just now that you would help.”

Evan listened most to Shawn.

Moreover, Evan felt that Shawn was very considerate of the family’s collective interests and the overall situation. He was very gratified.

Evan said slowly, “Dylan, what you said makes sense. How about this? Contact Miss Miller. I’ll talk to Miss Miller.”

Dylan was speechless. He felt helpless about his father’s favoritism. “Evan, if you don’t want to help, then forget it. Just pretend that I didn’t come today.”

With that, Dylan left without looking back.

Shawn looked at Dylan’s determined back and his face darkened. He scolded his younger brother to his father, “Evan, look at Dylan. We’re not asking him to violate Gina’s interests, but he’s so stubborn and willing to work for free. He doesn’t care about the family at all. I think he’s been brainwashed by Gina. Has his brain been damaged? Gina is quite good at winning people’s hearts. It’s also possible that my silly brother is too stupid and is being ordered around by Gina”

Evan sighed helplessly. Let him be. It’s fine if he can’t be persuaded.”

However, Shawn did not think so. “Evan, Gina is going to start a medical project for the artificial uterus. The chances of success are very high

After all, back then, Dylan could be said to have half of his body in the gates of hell. The various hospital experts had indicated that they could take care of the poisoned Dylan’s funeral. However, by chance, Gina appeared and made a move. Not only did Dylan survive, but he was also extremely healthy now, Therefore, they recognized Gina's medical skills. It was definitely not wrong to follow Gina.

However, they did not have the qualifications to follow Gina. This time, they finally had a chance. His silly brother actually did not think about helping his family fight for it!

Then Shawn, the eldest son, could not sit still and wait for death.

let

Shawn seemed to be deep in thought. "Evan, I have a way to definitely get Gina to agree to the Thomas family joining the project"

Evan looked at Shawn, eager to hear the details.

After leaving the Thomas family, Dylan returned to the car and called Gina.

"Hello!" Gina answered.

Dylan took a deep breath. He wanted to sigh but held it in. He said apologetically, "Gina, I'm sorry. My father can't help

Gina did not have much of a reaction. She had just sent Mindy back to the orphanage and was about to leave. "Alright, I understand." Gina said

"Sorry." Dylan felt a little guilty.

Gina said nonchalantly. "What's there to apologize for? It's fine. I'll think of another way." SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

It would be much more convenient to use the Thomas family's connections to save time, but it was not a problem not to rely on them.

"Okay, Dylan mumbled.

He did not know what to say. Then I'll hang up first,"

"Alright," Gina replied calmly.

After the call ended, Gina received another call from Gabriel.

"There's an entrepreneur's party tonight. We'll attend it together. I'll pick you up

"Okay," Gina agreed.

after work?"

The entrepreneurs' night banquet was held at Scrumptuous Delights.

Lots of famous people attended.

In the past, we only knew that the CEO of the Jackson Group, Mr. Jackson, was a business genius. Little did we know that his nephew was also so outstanding! Mr. Jackson, the new generation really surpasses the old!"

Ethan was surrounded by a few bosses. As he listened to their flattery, the smile on his face became even more smug. However, when he heard them mention Gabriel, his expression changed and he was not so happy.

"I'm me, Gabriel is Gabriel. My current success has nothing to do with Gabriel, Ethan said as he straightened his suit and cleared his

The few bosses surrounding him also understood the meaning behind Ethan's words. Ethan did not like others to tie him to Gabriel. After a while, someone shouted from the crowd. "Mr. Jackson is here!"

Everyone's attention shifted to Gabriel, who had appeared in front of everyone with Gina

Although Ethan's medical project had just begun to show signs of success, it was still in the stage of showing off. The subsequent development still needed to be seen. There were people who wanted to curry favor with him, but there were definitely not as many people who wanted to curry favor with Gabriel

There

soon as Gabriel arrived, everyone intentionally or unintentionally approached him

When Ethan realized that he was not the center of attention, he cursed in his heart. He snorted coldly and found a corner to drink

Gabriel, who was surrounded by people, politely dealt with the CEOs of various industries.

Someone said, “Mr. Jackson, the all-in-one medical examination machine project under your nephew’s name must have been led by you, right? With a business genius senior like you, it’s very difficult for the juniors to not be outstanding. The Jackson family genes are really too outstanding!”

“Ethan’s project is his responsibility. It has nothing to do with me or Jackson Group, Gabriel said coldly.

Everyone understood. It seemed that this uncle and nephew were going to “split up!

“So that’s how it is.” That person changed the topic again and prepared to inquire about Gabriel’s recent investment intentions, whether there were any new projects that were yet to be developed with Jackson Group, or if Gina had any intention of collaborating

The two of them were pestered for a long time. Gina coughed lightly and Gabriel understood Gina’s hint, He said, “My wife is tired. Everyone, let’s talk another day.”

Everyone was stunned. Then, someone teased Gabriel

“Wife! Looks like Mr. Jackson and Miss Miller are very close? Although the wedding banquet hasn’t been held yet, you’re already addressing her as your wife.”

Gabriel announced, “Gina and I are about to get engaged.”

“Oh! Congratulations, congratulations! When the time comes, can you invite us to your wedding?” asked someone.

“Of course,” Gabriel said as he held Gina’s hand.

After leaving the crowd, Gina felt that there was something wrong with her ear. She touched it and realized that her earring had fallen off.

If she had bought it casually and dropped it, Gina might not have cared too much. However, Gabriel had bought the earrings for her. She did not want to lose the gift Gabriel had given her and planned to find it herself.

Gabriel noticed that Gina’s gaze was fixed on the ground as if she was looking for something.

“What’s wrong?” Gabriel asked gently.

Gina was a little apologetic. “The earring you gave me fell off.”

“I’ll get someone to look for it.” Gabriel stopped a waiter and asked him to help mobilize people to look ok for Gina’s earrings. He also began to look for it himself.

On the other side, Ethan ate the snacks on the table and drank wine.

“Mr. Jackson”

A woman called out to him

Ethan turned around and saw a woman dressed .

The woman snuggled up to him coquettishly. “Mr. Jackson, if you don’t mind. I’ll drink with you.”

Ethan saw that the woman was quite good-looking and had a good figure..

Eshan readily agreed. The wonun moved closer to Ethan and flattered him. “Mr. Ethan, actually, I think you’re much more handsome than Mr. Gabriel. After all, Mr. Gabriel is old and not younger than you.”

If anyone else heard the woman’s flattery, they would definitely mock her. If she wanted to please Ethan, she should have done her homework. Gabriel was actually not much older than Gabriel Gabriel was not even 30 years old. How was he old in terms of being young and promising, Gabriel, who had started from scratch was naturally much better than Ethan.

However, the drunk Ethan did not care so much.

When he heard the woman praise him, Ethan instantly became complacent. “Gabriel is nothing. One day, I. Ethan, will definitely be able in surpass him just wait and see. Gabriel will be my defeated opponent!”

The woman was happy to flatter Ethan, but before she could speak, she noticed Gabriel, who had appeared near the dining table

Coupled with the fact that Ethan had spoken loudly just now, Gabriel must have heard Ethan’s “treasonable” words.

Ethan wanted to hear the woman praise him, but when he saw the woman lowering her head awkwardly, he was instantly dissatisfied. “Why aren’t you saying anything? Are you mute?”

The woman’s eyes hinted at Ethan. When Ethan turned around and saw Gabriel’s cold face, he immediately sobered up. When he thought of his shameless words just now, he felt a chill on his back. He swallowed his saliva and became much more obedient. He braced himself and greeted Gabriel, “Gabriel, you’re here.”
