Chapter 41

Gabriel thought, 'It should have been Gina who extracted the surveillance footage. He was too late to help Gina, feeling somewhat displeased.

David, quick-witted as always, hastily added. "But, Mr. Jackson. I have another discovery."

"Olivia's blood type isn't RH

Gabriel's furrowed brow relaxed. "Next time, be quicker. Also, send the evidence to Gina, anonymously."

"Yes, sir."

Gina arrived at James's hospital room.

Peter followed behind her.

She pushed the door open and saw four people inside. She smiled faintly, "Good, you're all here."

James, seeing Gina, recoiled. After all, it was because of Gina that he had gotten into the accident. Now with both legs severely broken, James couldn't even be transferred to Prover Hospital. He might end up disabled for the rest of his life.

And all of this was caused by Gina.

James firmly believed that she was a jinx.

He said angrily, "What are you here for? Get out! I don't need you to visit me."

Gina couldn't help but laugh. What made James think she was here to visit him?

Ella's face also turned sullen as she said, "Haven't you severed ties with us? Why are you showing up here? Let me tell you, you can regret what you have done!"

She wouldn't be the one with regrets.

Gina chuckled softly.

With her right hand in a cast, Olivia looked at Gina with a pretended look of fear. Noah, seeing this, felt heartache and shouted, "Why are you still here?"

Gina gave

Noah a cold stare and then said to Ella, "Yes, ties have been severed, but I still haven't shaken off the blame I've inexplicably shouldered."

The Miller family exchanged confused glances, not understanding what Gina meant.

"Come in."

Gina called out to someone outside the door.

As Peter walked into the room, Olivia's heart skipped a beat. She had an ominous premonition.

Ella stared at Peter. It took her some time to recognize him because Peter wasn't wearing his distinctive white robe and looked battered.

"Mr. Lennon!" Ella exclaimed.

It had been a year since she last saw Peter for a fortune-telling session. Ella always thought his predictions were accurate and had wanted to see him again for another reading. Unfortunately, it was impossible to make an appointment with Peter due to his popularity. She had no choice but to give up.

"How did you end up like this?" Ella asked.

She didn't know why he was in such a sorry state.

Ella couldn't believe what she was seeing.

Peter sighed, "Mrs. Miller, now is not the time for that. I'm here to clear up something with you."

Peter's gaze fell on Olivia, who was anxious and came up with an excuse, saying.

"Mom, my right hand really hurts. I'll go see a doctor first."

"Alright." Ella, not seeing any issue, agreed.

But Peter said, "Olivia, why are you leaving? This matter concerns you greatly. Listen first before you go. It won't take long."

Ella froze and wondered, "When did Olivia meet Mr. Lennon? I didn't even know about this..

She remembered that after she returned from Vaprebara Church, she was convinced that Gina was a jinx and shouldn't be approached. She even told Olivia about her visit to the church for a fortune-telling session, but she didn't mention Peter's name.

At that time, Olivia said, "Mom, I don't believe in these things. How could Gina be a jinx?"

Ella wasn't so sure that Gina was truly a bringer of misfortune, but after a series of unfortunate events in the family, she started to believe it.

"But my hand really hurts, and what does this have to do with me? We don't even know each other. What do you want to say?" Olivia insisted, secretly signaling Peter to shut up.

But Peter, full of grievances, ignored Olivia's hints and said straightforwardly, "Of course it concerns you. It's about how paid me to hint to Mrs. Miller that Miss Gina, who had just returned home, was a jinx."

Olivia's face turned pale. Being exposed left her at a loss for words, and she started to tremble involuntarily.

She insisted, "I don't understand what you're saying,"

Gina didn't waste any words and took out the surveillance footage of Olivia meeting Peter the day before Ella went to the church.

However, the footage didn't capture Peter and Olivia's conversation.

After watching the video, the room fell into an eerie silence.

Olivia tried to defend herself and said, "What does this video prove? I did meet Mr. Lennon, but it was just a coincidence. I just wanted to pray for my brothers and mom...."

Olivia paused and forced herself to meet Gina's cold gaze, saying, "And for you."

Gina couldn't help but laugh at Olivia's lies. Olivia still tried to cover up.

Ella didn't rush to say anything. Instead, she recalled Olivia telling her that she didn't believe in these things. But now, Olivia was claiming that she went to the church to pray for her family.

It didn't make sense.

So, Ella remained silent.

Noah gritted his teeth and defended Olivia, saying, "Yeah, this video doesn't prove anything. And I strongly suspect that you bear up Mr. Lennon and threatened him to frame Olivia to clear your own name."

Noah's passionate defense once again showed Gina how biased her brother was.

He was so partial to Olivia, who wasn't even blood-related.

Before Gina could speak, Peter cleverly explained, "Miss Miller didn't beat me. I was beaten as retribution for the wrongs I've done."

Olivia, unwilling to be exposed, continued to struggle. "Mr. Lennon, did Gina threaten you? Don't be afraid. We will protect you," Olivia said.

Then, Olivia looked at Gina and put on a pitiful expression, saying, "Gina, if you hate me, just come after me. Don't involve innocent people. Violence is illegal."

Gina quietly watched Olivia's performance.

Peter was also shocked by Olivia's thick-skinned behavior.

They said she was nothing...Gina Miller was found by her biological family when she was nineteen. She had expected a grand reunion and being showered by love. However, her parents and brothers looked down on her lowly upbringing and country manners and instead loved the daughter they adopted when Gina went missing. After much disappointment, Gina left and never looked back. He had everything but was dying... Gabriel Jackson was rich, successful, and handsome. He had everything others wanted and more. Too bad he was ill and was predicted to die before thirty. His father wanted to set him up with someone, but Gabriel was afraid of being a burden to her. Besides, Gabriel had his sights set on someone already. But she was more than she seemed...Gina didn't want to play nice anymore. No longer hiding herself, her various identities were revealed one by one. She was a multi-billionaire, superb doctor, top hacker, and renowned designer. The powerful respected her. Those who once disdained her were deeply regretful. After Gabriel took her side multiple times, Gina could tell he was interested in her. But Gina didn't remember that their paths had crossed many years ago...
