“Reason?” Colin sneered. “I’ll take it if I want it. Is this reason enough?”

Ibrahim was silent. Didn’t Colin mean he wasn’t going to say anything? SEARCH THE WEBSITE to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

He had no choice but to test Colin’s attitude. “Mr. Barnes, I know I’m not worthy of being your friend. However, we won’t become enemies because of this machine, will we?”

In other words, after Colin received the machine and discovered the problem, he wouldn’t use the machine to deal with them, right?

Colin sneered. He knew there was nothing wrong with his intuition. There was something wrong with this bullshit all-in-one medical examination machine, but what did it have to do with him?

If Ander asked him to get one, he had to do it.

Colin asked, “Is there a need for me to become your enemy?”

Ibrahim was relieved and continued to be humble. “Mr. Barnes, you’re right. I’m overthinking. Moreover, we have the common enemies, Gina and

As long as Gina and Gabriel were not dead, they should work together instead of opposing each other to prevent Gina and the others from benefiting

Even though the collaboration between the two parties had set a trap for Gina and failed to do anything to her...

They would get a chance to kill Gina!

Ibrahim told himself he had to be patient.

“Okay, I see. Mr. Barnes, I promise you. The machine will be delivered to your house tomorrow.”

“Sure.

Colin hung up.

Ibrahim could not refuse Colin's demands. Otherwise, he would not dare to bet on what Colin, the lunatic, would do if he went crazy. He was also not worried that Colin would use some issues with this machine as leverage to blackmail him. Neither he nor Harry had long-term plans for the all-in-one medical examination machine.

However, they needed this project to clear their names.

Nothing can be kept secret. The all-in-one medical examination machine was a scam. There would be a day when it would be exposed. However, Harry and he were already prepared for the matter to be exposed.

He could talk to Ethan about giving Colin the machine, but he dared not to hide anything from Harry.

Harry was furious when he received the call “You agreed just like that without even asking me?”

“Mr. Jackson, we don't have the right to reject Colin, The royal family of Mosnioca is behind him. If we annoy him, we have another enemy. Doesn't that make Gina and Gabriel smug?”

“There is certainly something we need to work with Colin in the future. Even if he has something on us, he might be able to work with us in peace, which may be a good thing.” Ibrahim persuaded Harry/

Harry was silent for a moment. He felt what Ibrahim said made sense.

“Alright, that's it. However, you have to remember you were the one who gave him the machine. If anything goes wrong, you have to be responsible for the consequences. Do you understand?” Harry said with a slightly threatening tone.

Chapter 471

David was Gabriel's subordinate for many years, and Gabriel was kind to him, so David was just as worried about Gabriel's safety as Gina.

"Alright, I see."

Then Gina called Michael. Before she could speak, Michael knew what Gina wanted to say. "Do you want me to find Gabriel's whereabouts?"

Gina was stunned. "How do you know?"

Michael told Gina, "The day you were framed and imprisoned in Mosnioca, I called Gabriel. We discussed how to rescue you. I thought of a way later. I used the Skynet system you designed to find out Ellen, the daughter of the leader of the Lighthouse, was studying in Tixia. Gabriel said he would go to Toxin after he knew it."

So, the reason why the leader of the Lighthouse changed his words and cleared Gina's name was because Gabriel held the leader's daughter hostage.

Michael continued, "I know what he's planning. I originally wanted to go with him, or I could arrange for a few more people to go with him, which would more or less ensure his safety, but Gabriel said it was dangerous and he should go alone. He can get the job done, and bringing more people might become a burden, I can't dissuade him, so I can only agree."

Even though Michael did not like Gabriel, he hoped Gabriel would return safely when Gabriel set off. After all, if anything happened to Gabriel, it would be difficult for Gina. He also wanted to arrange for people to protect Gabriel secretly, but just as Gabriel said, the people arranged to go almost got exposed, affecting Gabriel's operation.

Michael had no choice but to let these subordinates withdraw.

Helpless, Michael had no

"I got it," Gina said. Her voice trembled slightly. She dared not to imagine what kind of danger Gabriel had gone through for her.

She had to find Gabriel's whereabouts in the shortest time!

After hanging up the phone, Lisa, who had learned of the situation, said, "Gina, I'll help you find news of your fiancé."

"Alright, thank you." Gina was touched.

The next day.

Gina did not sleep the entire night. With Lisa's help, she found out that Gabriel had left Tixia. His whereabouts were unknown. He had left Tixia from the sea. Moreover, the people of the Lighthouse were also tracking Gabriel's whereabouts. Gabriel had taken the leader's daughter hostage. The leader would not let Gabriel off even though Gabriel did not hurt Ellen.

When they reached the sea, it became hard to search again.

"Gina, you haven't slept for a day and night. Sleep for a while. I'll wake you up immediately when there's news."

Gina was silent. At that moment, she understood what it meant to be unable to sit still. She felt like she was sitting on the thorns. Her lover's whereabouts were unknown, so she didn't even have the heart to rest. She shook her head and said, "It's fine. I'm not tired."

She was Dr. Genevieve. If she could perform therapy on herself to control her sleepiness without harming her body, she could not sleep for five consecutive days.

Before confirming Gabriel's safety, she dared not, nor did she want to sleep.

Norwood.

“Mr. Ethan, Mr. Ethan?”

Ethan felt someone pat his face in his sleep.

He was in a sweet dream, so he couldn't help but get angry when he was woken up like that. Ethan opened his eyes in a daze and threw a tantrum. “Do you have a death wish? Can't you see I'm sleeping? Ibrahim, you fucking...”

Harry, who was sitting on the sofa aside, coughed. Only then did Ethan notice that Harry was also there. He immediately became much more obedient. He wiped his face and said respectfully, “Harry, there you are!”

“Yes,” Harry replied indifferently.

Ibrahim said, “Mr. Ethan, I wouldn't have been able to enter your house if Mr. Harry hadn't brought me here.”

Ethan glanced at Ibrahim and could not be bothered with him. “Harry, do you have anything to instruct me? L. dealt with my official business too late last night. I was catching up on sleep just now. I didn't go out to have fun. I'm still sleeping now!” Ethan said glatily.

Chapter 472

Ethan was worried Harry would think he was Lazy and not doing his job appropriately.

Ibrahim wanted to laugh when he heard Ethan's clumsy quibble.

What

It was there to be busy with their shell project? Only Ethan liked to pretend.

He sat down and continued to give the orders on behalf of Harry. “Mr. Ethan, we know you've been busy recently, but an important matter needs to be dealt with first.”

“What is it?” Ethan asked curiously.

“Gabriel was not in the office now!

“Did he go on a trip with Gina?” Ethan guessed.

Other than that, he could not think of any other possibilities. After all, Gabriel had always been a workaholic.

It was only after Gina came along Ethan discovered Gabriel had other things to do in his life besides work.

Ibrahim smiled and said,

1. “No. We don’t know where he went, but we can be sure he won’t return for a while. The Jackson Group is a little leaderless now.

Ethan was puzzled for a moment and then began to make bold guesses. He asked, “Harry, what did you say? Do you mean... that I should replace

Gabriel?”

Ethan carefully said those words. He actually felt a lingering fear after saying so. It was as if he was worried that the wall had ears and that Gabriel would know about it.

Gabriel had once wanted to strangle Ethan to death. If Gabriel wanted to seize power, he would not let him off.

However, Ibrahim almost burst out laughing when he heard Ethan’s words.

“The fool dares to think about replacing Gabriel What can he use to replace Gabriel?’ thought Ibrahim.

Harry was speechless when he heard how stupid Ethan was. “What are you thinking? How are you going to replace Gabriel? Even if I help you become the Jackson Group’s president now, will Nell agree? Will the other shareholders respect you?”

Ethan lowered his head after being criticized. He was desperate to surpass Gabriel.

He talked big in a moment of confusion.

“I’m sorry, Harry. I have no self-knowledge.”

Harry was speechless again. He had only said a few words to Ethan, but Ethan started to feel sorry for himself again “Let’s get down to business. Gabriel isn’t in the company now. We have to hurry up and do something serious.

Harry added, “Didn’t you say you wanted to build a medical equipment company? Have you chosen the location yet?”

“Yes, I have!” Ethan nodded.

“What about the funds? Are they ready?” Harry asked again. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

The question made Ethan fall silent. He was sure of the land but did not have much money now. He was also worried someone would buy the land over time.

Although the side business of lending that Ibrahim helped Ethan expand was now profitable, it was not enough. The piece of land he wanted was worth 120 million dollars. He really could not fork out that much money in a short time. If he had not taken out 100 million dollars to show his filial piety to Harry, he might have been able to buy it in one go. However, Ethan could not mention this in front of Harry, in case Harry got mad when he thought Ethan regretted it.

Upon seeing Ethan was silent, Harry began to say earnestly, “I know you don’t have much money in your pockets now because you helped me last time.

“Ethan, I’ve always remembered your filial piety, so it’s time for me to help you get the money.”

Ethan’s eyes lit up. He thought, ‘Does Harry want to help me money? What will he do?’

“Harry, thank you. You’re always thinking about me. I’m grateful to you!”

Harry waved his hand.

“Isn’t it a little odd for a family to say thanks? Aren’t you treating me like an outsider? You helped me when I was in trouble. I certainly have to help you when you’re in trouble. This is a family with blood ties. We’ll share glory and honor!”

“Yes. Harry, you’re right!” Ethan nodded vigorously. With an elder like Harry who loved him so much, his life was worth it!

“We will take the money directly from the Jackson Group. Now that Gabriel isn’t around, no one can stop us from getting the Jackson Group’s appropriation!” Harry said in an imposing manner, “Okay, I see!” said Ethan.

Harry stood up. “Then, let’s go. We’ll go straight to the Jackson Group”

Ethan followed behind Harry arrogantly and swaggered to the Jackson Group, Gabriel was not in the company. David was so swamped to keep the company running.

Harry pushed open the president’s office door. David, who was busy, looked up. He suddenly had a bad premonition when he saw Harry, Ethan, and the bodyguards behind them. He temporarily put down the document in his hand and asked warily, “Mr. Harry, what’s the matter? Mr. Gabriel is not here today.

Harry sneered. “I know he’s not here.”

come when Gabriel wasn’t around?

David’s expression was solemn. He knew Harry was up to no good. “Mr. Harry, what do you want?”

“Nothing. I only want to use the company seal in my nephew’s hands,” Harry said casually David’s expression was solemn. “Mr. Harry, if there’s anything, you can discuss it with Mr. Gabriel in person when he returns.”

Harry acted as if he did not hear David’s words. He asked directly, “Where is the official seal? Take it out and use it. I don’t want to make things difficult for you.

“David, you’re only Gabriel’s assistant. Gabriel and I are family. He can’t return now, and I’m in a hurry to use the official seal What’s wrong with me using it? I’m his uncle, Would I harm him?” Harry said unhappily.

David still refused. "Mr. Harry, even though you're Mr. Gabriel's uncle, you still have to go through the process when you want to get the company's official seal. I can't give the official seal to you when Mr. Gabriel is not here."

It was impossible for David not to know Harry was scheming, David was not stupid enough to give the official seal to Harry.

However, it completely infuriated Harry, "David Gray, I'm talking to you nicely. You're not listening to me, are you? Whatever I tell you to do, you do it. Don't give me that! Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

David was not afraid. "Mr. Harry, no matter how you threaten or bribe me, I won't give you the official seal."

Harry sneered "Do I still need to use such methods to threaten and bribe you? Someone, come here and beat him up!"

Harry:

The two bodyguards behind Harry immediately received his order and went forward to subdue David. David could fight them for a while at first, but two fists were no match for four hands. Soon, David was at a disadvantage. David was pinned to the ground by one of the bodyguards, while another punched and kicked David as he asked where the official seal was Ethan was enjoying watching David being beaten up. Although he hoped the person being beaten up was Gabriel, his hope was slightly slim.

However, David was Gabriel's man. He felt good about hitting David and even kicked David. He cursed, "You ungrateful son of a b**h. Don't tell me you think you're loyal to Gabriel by doing this. Let me tell you, now that Gabriel is not around, you're nothing."

"Alright, Ethan. Don't talk nonsense to him. It's a waste of time. Hurry up and find out where the official seal is most likely placed."

"Okay" Ethan began to look around.

23:30 Sat, 15 Jun R

Chapter 473

After rummaging through everything, Ethan came to the lounge next door and found a safe. He felt the things inside the safe were not simple. The official seal might be inside, but a key was needed to open the safe,

Ethan returned to the office to look for the key. He even asked two bodyguards to search David for the key

After finding a bunch of keys on David, Ethan took the keys to the safe and tried them one after one. He actually opened it Fortunately, there were not many keys on the bunch of keys.

He opened the safe and saw there were indeed some important things inside, It was related to the company's confidential documents, but he did not see the official seal. Ethan closed the safe again.

Exasperated, Ethan returned the way he came. Without hesitation, he kicked David's head. David instantly felt a sharp pain in his head. Ethan interrogated him, " n it. Where did you put the official seal? I tell you not to get yourself killed, okay? My p a t i e ce is Emitted. You still don't tell me where the official seal is after being beaten up like this, Aren't you just a f**g worker? Are you going to sacrifice your life for Gabriel? Is it worth it?"

David refused to say anything.

On the other hand, Harry was thinking about where the official seal might be. Harry thought of a possibility. He went to David's assistant's office and found a safe in the desk cabinet. A safe that required a password.

Harry now suspected Gabriel used this safe. The one in Gabriel's lounge was just a cover.

Looking at the safe with the password, Harry was in a dilemma. Even if he pl ed David today, David might not tell him the password, Moreover, it was very likely that even David did not know the password to this safe. He could only try it himself. But how could he try to find out? Harry thought for a while and entered Neil's birthday.

It was not right.

Then, he entered Emily's birthday. That was also not right... let alone Gabriel's birthday.

Could it be... Gina's birthday?

Harry guessed as much. If the password was Gina's birthday, he did not know whether to cry or laugh.

No matter what, he had to give it a try. However, he did not know what Gina's birthday was.

"Perhaps Neil knows?' Harry thought.

He immediately called Neil. "Hello, Neil, what are you busy with?"

Neil was still fishing. Because David had helped to hide it, Neil still did not know about Gabriel's whereabouts. "I'm fishing. What's wrong? Are you coming over to accompany me?"

Neil could roughly guess Harry had called him out of the blue for something. Neil didn't like that his brothers had some beneficial relationship. He would be happy if Harry would come fishing with him.

"I'll be there later. I still have something to deal with. Oh, by the way, Neil. I have something to ask you."

Neil had expected that. "Speak, what is it?"

"I want to know what Miss Miller's birthday is." Harry went straight to the point. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Chapter 474

"I'm just asking. I'm going to the church in two days. I know a priest. When the time comes, she is with the Jackson family and Gabriel."

Harry just made it up.

Neil was speechless. "If that's the reason, there's no need."

I'll show Gina's birthday to the priest and see how compatible

Harry choked. After a moment of silence, he said, "Alright, Neil. That's not the real reason. I... I don't want to stop Gina and Gabriel from getting married now. Frankly, you've agreed to the marriage. What right do I have to say anything?"

"Furthermore, Gina also treated Ashley and allowed her to preserve her fertility. Neil, you know me. I'm a person who cares about my reputation. Right now, I also want to build a good relationship with Gina. After all, she will marry into the Jackson family. We have to see each other often. This family has to be harmonious. I thought of asking about Gina's birthday first.

"When it's her birthday, I'll buy the gifts for her and turn hostility into friendship!

"Neil, you will help me find a way out, right?" Harry said sincerely. He knew Neil valued their family's peace and prosperity, so he said it on purpose.

As expected, Neil was moved. "Do you think so?"

"That's right, Neil. That's exactly what I thought!" Harry said, Neil didn't think Harry was up t up to no good. "Gina's birthday is far from now. It's December 15."

Harry could not hide his joy. "Alright, I got it. Then I have enough time to prepare a gift. During this time, I will work hard to get along well with Gina. I will give her a gift she wants for her birthday."

Harry made it up and said it against his conscience,

How could he prepare a gift for Gina? He wished he could send Gina to her grave.

"Alright, you work hard. Are you still coming to fish with me?" Neil asked

"I have something on. I'll come over after I'm done. Wait for me for a while," Harry said leisurely.

Neil was silent for a moment. "Alright, don't make me wait too long."

"Absolutely not." Harry made a solemn yow

Harry was even more energetic after hanging up the phone. He decided to use the password to open the safe himself.

Harry was already confident at that time. Gabriel's love for Gina was almost obsessive, Harry felt Gina's birthday must bet the password to Gabriel's safe.

Hence, Harry entered Gina's birthday as the password, but he still did not hear the sound of the safe opening a moment later.

Harry's expression instantly turned awful.

What he was so confident about was actually just his imagination.

He was so angry that he kicked the safe hard. Since there was no way to remove the password, he could only use external forces to open the box with a password,

Two hours later.

Due to the hardness and sealing of the safe, Harry even used laser cutting to chisel a hole in the safe. Then, he opened the lock of the safe from the inside through this hole. Sure enough, he saw the official seal in the safe. He sighed deeply the moment he got the official seal.

23:30 Sat, 15 Jun R

Chapter 474

He had spent so much effort to obtain such a small seal.

After receiving the official seal, Harry quickly gestured for Ethan to take out the appropriation contract. After sealing the official seal on the agreement to appropriate one hundred twenty million dollars, he asked his subordinates to buy a new safe and put the official seal inside. Harry put it back in its original position after locking it. He wanted to take the official seal away and sit on the throne of the number one leader of the Jackson Group.

However, this matter still needed to be considered a long shot. If he were too anxious, it would not end well. Therefore, Harry was a little reluctant before putting the official seal in.

Ethan, who had received the appropriation so smoothly, was excited. However, with Harry as his backer, he became much bolder. He even suggested to Harry, "Harry, why don't we take advantage of the fact that Gabriel isn't around to approve more money? If he comes back, we won't be able to get the appropriation. If I had to say, it would be great if the person in charge of the Jackson Group was you!"

Harry wanted to criticize Ethan for not using his brain. It wasn't like Gabriel would never come back. They took one hundred twenty million and argued with Gabriel when he returned. This matter would be over. After all, they were a family, so they wouldn't make things too ugly for one hundred twenty million.

He would cross Gabriel's bottom line by taking too much money. What if Gabriel fell out with them? However, Ethan's last sentence hit the nail on the head, so he did not reprimand Ethan.

He said righteously, "When your all-in-one medical examination machine program gets larger, why do you need his appropriation? Besides, if you take too much money while he's not around, he will think you don't have the ability and can only steal money from him. We're only responding to an emergency now.

"What you want to do now is not to take more money while he's not around. You want to prove to him it was a mistake for him to ask you to separate the project from the Jackson Group. You don't care about the Jackson Group's investment and support. Do you understand?*

Ethan thought Harry was sincerely treating him well. "Okay. I got it, Harry!"

"You're worth teaching."

Harry gave him an unintentional compliment.

When Harry and Ethan left, David was covered in injuries and was unconscious in Gabriel's office. Harry's subordinate approached him and asked, "Mr. Harry, what do you want us to do with David?"

Harry glanced at David, who was unconscious on the ground. He did not care about David's life or death. He told his subordinates, "Just leave him there. Anyway, someone will find him and send him to the hospital. We don't have to worry." Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"Yes!"

Ethan also glanced at David and sneered. It would be great if the person lying on the ground were Gabriel. However, he was happy after beating up Gabriel's man. As expected, he could do whatever he wanted with Harry!

"By the way, Ethan, I'll sign the contract for the land you bought to build the private hospital," said Harry.

Ethan was stunned. He was puzzled and asked carefully, "Harry, may I ask why?"

Harry chuckled. "Go ahead and ask. Why can't you ask? Well, do you have some concerns? Do you think I'll occupy your land and not let you build an office building?"

"No, no. Harry, please don't misunderstand. I didn't mean that!"

Chapter 475

Chapter 475

Ethan quickly denied it. He had followed Harry to achieve what he had today. Harry was the only elder who treated him sincerely. Harry had even helped him more than his parents. How could he suspect Harry?

Ethan even said generously, "Harry, even if you want the piece of land that I like, what's wrong with me giving it to you? At most, I postpone my plan to build a medical equipment company. After the all-in-one medical examination machine is mass-produced and listed, I'll consider buying land to build a medical equipment company!"

Harry smiled insincerely and patted Ethan's shoulder, "Silly boy, I'm just joking with you. I don't have to fight you for a piece of land. When Gabriel returns and wants to recover one hundred twenty million dollars or take the land directly, the land is under my name, and it won't be easy for him to take it away. Do you understand what I mean?"

Ethan looked enlightened and touched. "Harry, you're... always thinking for me!"

Harry put on a fake smile and said, "You're the Jackson family's descendant. Who am I thinking for if I'm not thinking for you?"

As Ethan's uncle, Gabriel would not treat Ethan so well. From now on, Ethan would be willing to go up everything for Harry. "Okay, Harry, I got it!"

Late at night in Mosnioca.

Gina did not sleep either and had been searching for Gabriel's whereabouts. She could sleep peacefully without the news of Gabriel.

Finally, they found some traces of Gabriel with her perseverance.

He was unscathed. After Gabriel captured the daughter of the leader of the Lighthouse in Tixia and was chased by the leader, Gabriel, injured, could not escape. However, he did not fall into the leader's hands. He resolutely jumped into the sea, and his tracks became mysterious again.

Michael kept in contact with Gina. "Gina, there are many small islands in that area, and I think Gabriel is on one of the islands. Gina, you haven't rested for nearly 48 hours. Go and rest. I'll send someone to search near that area. I'll inform you immediately when the investigation results are out, okay?"

Gina refused. "Michael, I can't sleep"

Michael fell silent. He felt a little sad at the same time. Gina loved Gabriel so much...

Michael did not intend to continue persuading Gina because he knew once Gina made up her mind, it was useless for him to persuade her.

"By the way, Gina, the leader of the Lighthouse did not continue searching for Gabriel after he jumped into the sea. The reason I deduce from my investigation is that there is a small island near the sea where the primitive people live. The primitive people there are dangerous. They are resistant to outsiders and extremely aggressive. They are also an internationally protected primitive race. The leader of the Lighthouse should be afraid of alerting those primitive people and causing an international conflict with them. He can't take it if all countries join forces to deal with them."

Michael paused before continuing "However, let's hope Gabriel doesn't reach the island where the primitive people live."

The International Congress did not disclose the exact location of the primitive tribe's island. It was most likely to prevent people from going there.

"I see." Gina could not help but worry about Gabriel's safety. Gabriel was injured.

Gina did not dare to imagine how difficult it was for Gabriel. The fool was willing to give up his life for her?

Gina's nose stung, but she had no intention of crying. After all, crying wouldn't solve anything, and she didn't want to waste time venting her emotions.

Gina wanted to continue searching for Gabriel quietly, but her phone rang and interrupted her thoughts.

She answered the phone. "Hello?"

(7.

David's weak voice came from the other end of the phone. "Miss Miller, I'm sorry. I couldn't contact Mr. Jackson, so I had no choice but to contact you. Harry brought Ethan to the company today. He violently broke open the safe and took the official seal. I don't know why they took the official seal, but later on,

they placed it in a new safe and sent it back.

“During this period, I didn’t know what happened because I was beaten into a coma by the people they brought over. Later, I was sent to the hospital by my colleagues. I was worried that they would do something harmful to the company, and I couldn’t deal with it now, so I could only ask you for help.

Gina’s pupils suddenly shrank. Harry knew Gabriel was not around and deliberately brought Ethan to cause trouble. Her eyes became sharp, and her anger rose.

“Miss Miller, could you. you come back and settle this matter?” David asked.

He believed that with Gina’s ability, she could perfectly resolve this matter.

There was nothing he could do.

However, Gina hesitated. On one hand, she could not figure out what Harry had done by taking the official seal. If it was harmful to the Jackson Group, Gina was worried the Jackson Group would be devastated if she did not go back and help Gabriel stabilize the situation.

On the other hand, Gina still wanted to continue searching for Gabriel’s whereabouts. Gabriel was missing because of her. She had to find him. However, she could not split herself up. She couldn’t solve both matters personally.

After hesitation, Gina said, “I want to find Gabriel first.”

David understood Gina’s feelings. He was also worried about Gabriel’s safety, not to mention Gina was Gabriel’s lover.

“Okay, Miss Miller. I understand. There’s nothing I can do about finding Mr. Jackson. If there is a problem with the company, I will do my best to hold it together until the day you return!” David said firmly.

However, his chest hurt as soon as he started to speak.

“David, don’t worry. They dared to hit you, and I will settle the score with them. If Gabriel finds out, he will certainly get an explanation for you,” Gina promised David.

David smiled. “I know, Miss Miller.”

“Alright, that’s all for now.” Gina was not in the mood to interact with others. She had been sitting in the guest room that Lisa had prepared for her for almost two days and one night, constantly searching for Gabriel’s whereabouts.

Neil was eating when Harry came late.

“Neil, I’m sorry I’m late, I originally agreed to fish with you, but it’s fine. Coincidentally, I haven’t eaten yet. We haven’t eaten together for a long time. How about we go fishing together after the meal?” Harry said happily. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Neil put down his fork and sighed. “What did you do at the company today? Why did you ask about Gina’s birthday?”

to attend to at the company. Moreover, Neill.

Harry sat down. The smile on his face disappeared because of Neil’s question. “Of course, I have a business to attend to at th didn’t I explain to you the reason why las ked Gina’s birthday?”

Neil slammed the table angrily. “Business? Your business is to beat David to the hospital? What did you do with the company’s official seal? Do you still care about our family?”

Harry was not surprised Neill would find out about the matter. He was also fearless because what was done was done. He had obtained one hundred twenty million dollars. Neil was angry with him, but Harry would not return it. Instead, Harry’s expression darkened. “Neil”

Harry was interrupted before he could finish his sentence. Neil said, “You don’t have to guess. It’s not that David came to me to complain. It’s been long since I asked about the company, but I'm not dead!

"Tell me, what did you do with the official seal?" Neil was furious.

However, Harry remained calm. "Neill, you're so agitated because you think I'll do something harmful to the Jackson Group if I take the official seal, right? Let me ask you, do you think I'm part of your family? If I am, you can't have such concerns!"

Neil was slightly stunned,

Harry snorted. "If David gave us the official seal directly, do we need to use special methods? He dominated when Gabriel was absent and was rude to us. I couldn't stand it, so I taught him a lesson. I'll be responsible for his medical fees. After Gabriel returns, if he wants to find trouble with me because of David, I'm happy to accompany him!"

"I'm asking you, what did you do with the official seal?" Neil asked. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"I took some money! If you don't believe me, follow me home now. I'll show you the contract. Ethan needs funds for his all-in-one medical examination machine project. I don't have that much money now. Previously, Gabriel forced Ethan to take the project out without any explanation. Ethan did as he was told. I don't know why Gabriel did it. Was he instigated by Gina? Or did he not want to see Ethan having a career ambition?"

"Ethan came to ask you for funds but was also stopped. Ethan had no choice but to look for me. Am I supposed to ignore him and watch his project fail because of funding issues? I'm also doing this to support Ethan's career!" said Harry, looking painful..

"Then you shouldn't have beaten David. You can bring Ethan and discuss it with me!" Neil was still excited.

"You can do whatever you want when Gabriel goes overseas to pick up Gina?"

Harry did not want to continue arguing with Neil.

He deliberately said, "Neil, what did you say? Do you still think Gabriel went overseas to pick up Gina? Gina has encountered such a big incident. Gabriel definitely won't sit still and wait. He has thought of ways to save Gina. Perhaps Gina is fine now because of Gabriel

"But I'm afraid things are not so good for Gabriel right now because no one can contact Gabriel!"

Neil was shocked. He did not expect the outcome to be like this. He only heard from David that Gabriel had gone overseas to pick Gina up. He thought he would not disturb their private time. David also helped to hide it and said Gabriel would be back soon.

As for Gabriel not replying to his messages and phone calls, it had happened before. In addition, Gabriel was overseas now. With the time difference, Neil felt there was no problem until Harry said Gabriel might be in danger before him.

Harry added, "Neil, you can ask Gina directly if you don't believe me!"

Harry sneered and paused before continuing. "You don't trust me, but you can always trust Gina. Ask her and she if Gabriel is missing!"

Then Harry stood up and left. "Neil, you don't have to argue with me. My ability is limited, but I will do my best to find Gabriel. After all, Gabriel is my nephew, I'm also worried about Gabriel's safety!"

Before Harry left, he secretly observed Neil's expression and noticed Neil's expression was awful. He secretly smiled.

"Gabriel and Gina, the shit, is not here. Perhaps this would be a good opportunity... thought Harry.

Isaac was guarding outside the dining room. The soundproofing in the dining room was good. He did not know what had happened inside. However, when he saw Harry come out so quickly, he inexplicably felt something was wrong and entered the dining room.

At that moment, Neil already felt a little uncomfortable in his heart. He endured the discomfort and wanted to call Gina to find out what was happening

However, Neil could no longer control his trembling hands. He could not even control his hands to find Gina's phone number.

When Isaac saw the scene, he rushed to support Neil and said, "Mr. Neil, Please tell me what you want to do. I'll help you do it. Don't be agitated. What is going on? Come and sit down!"

Neil wanted to speak, but when he opened his mouth, he realized he could not make a sound. Then, he felt his vision go dark, and he fainted.

Mosnioca.

Gina came to Ander's house. She did not give up on searching for Gabriel, but Ander told her that the all-in-one medical examination machine she wanted had been delivered to his house, so she took the time to come over.

The machine was placed in a box. It was squarish and did not look big like a washing machine with a capacity of about 2.6 gallons. When Ander saw Gina coming, he asked someone to open the box.

Gina saw the all-in-one medical examination machine's true colors. Without a word, she asked Ander for the tools. The moment she saw the machine, she could confirm the broken machine could not detect what was wrong with the body of the medical examiner by taking a tube of blood from a patient.

Therefore, she decided to dismantle the machine to conclude its function!

After dismantling the machine, Gina concluded the so-called all-in-one medical examination machine could be said to be just a large glucose monitor!

She knew something was wrong with this project but did not expect it to be so ridiculous. With the help of others, Ethan deceived everyone and created such a big scam. Gina immediately thought of Harry and the doctor who had always been by Harry's side—Ibrahim Rosario.

There was something wrong with them all!

Ander's voice pulled Gina back from her thoughts. "Miss Miller, have you finished your research?"

Gina should quickly leave if she finished her research. Ander felt it was unlucky when he took one more look at Gina. However, Ander did not dare to be rash again after suffering losses at Gina's hands many times. He spoke rather politely.

Gina stood up and said, "I'm done with the research, I'll leave immediately. I'll also take this machine with me."

"Alright," Ander said with a fake smile. He had yet to recover.

Ander understood what Gina meant. He instructed the servants to help Gina transport the machine.

Gina returned to the royal castle. She wanted to put the all-in-one medical examination machine's matter aside first. Since she had investigated the truth, everything else was easy to handle. There was no need to be anxious.

Chapter 477

Nothing was more important right now than Gabriel's safety.

When Lisa saw Gina had returned, she tried to persuade her, "Gina, can you at least rest for a while? I'm worrying when you don't sleep or rest"

Gina said calmly, "I isa, thank you for your concern. However, I know my limits. I'm fine. I can still hold on."

Lisa was helpless. There's no way she could not convince Gina.

She was even considering whether she should secretly put some sleeping pills in the water Gina drank later and force Gina to rest.

Her phone rang. Gina saw it was Neil calling. She felt uneasy and felt something bad was about to happen. She picked up the call "Hello?"

The person on the other end of the phone was not Neil but Isaac. He sounded anxious. "Miss Miller, can you come back at once? Mr. Neil is not doing well!" Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"What?" Gina was a little surprised. "What happened?"

"Mr. Neil found out Mr. Gabriel's whereabouts are unknown. He had a heart attack"

Neil's condition had been effectively controlled since Gina gave Neil a consultation and specially prepared medicine to nourish his body. After such a long time, Nell had no other problems other than the time Jasmine sent tonic.

"Who told him?" Gina asked.

She had agreed with David she would hide this matter from Neil for the time being. Neil was not in good health and could not withstand major shocks.

"It is Harry. He came back to have dinner with Mr. Neil tonight. They parted on bad terms in the end. I have no idea what they talked about, but Mr. Neil said he wanted to contact you when I entered the dining room. However, he was already weak before he could press the phone number. I immediately sent Mr. Neil to Prover Hospital,” Isaac said.

“Thank you for your hard work, Isaac.”

Upon hearing that Isaac had sent Harry to Prover Hospital, Gina was temporarily relieved. Her hospital was safe.

“There’s a doctor called Dylan Thomas, Isaac, you can look for him if you need anything!” said Gina, “Okay. I understand, Miss Miller, but when can you come back?” Isaac asked worriedly.

Gina was stumped.

Isaac said, “Miss Miller, I know it might be difficult for you to decide now. I didn’t want to bother you. I had no choice. After all, only you can control Mr. Neil’s illness. If Mr. Gabriel returns and finds Mr. Neil can’t make it, I don’t think this is the ending Mr. Gabriel wants to see.

He finished the sentence in a choked voice.

Gina could not help but tear up. There were a lot of people searching for Gabriel. There were many small islands near the area where Gabriel disappeared. It might take a few days to investigate them one by one. She stayed in Mosnioca because Mosnioca was closest to that area. Before finding any traces of Gabriel, she could return to Shyran to save Neil.

Whether it was Neil or Gabriel, she would not and was unwilling to give up. However, she needed to prioritize it now.

Gina took a deep breath and said, “I’ll be right back.”

Isaac cried tears of joy, “Alright... Alright, Miys Miller. I’ll guard the door of McNeil’s ward and wait for you to return!”

After hanging up the phone, Gina looked up at Lisa. “Lisa, something happened to my fiancé’s father. Now, I have to go back. Thank you for taking me in for the two days. See you next time.”

Lisa could tell that Gina was in a hurry to go back. "Gina, I'll have a private plane to send you back!"

Gina was a little surprised. Now that the matter was urgent, she could not be polite to Lisa. "Thank you!"

The next day.

Isaac did not sleep the entire night. He sat outside the ward when Dylan came over to check on Neil's situation. When Dylan saw Isaac's haggard face, he said, "Sir, go and rest for a while. Don't worry, Mr. Neil is in our hospital. We won't let anything happen to him."

The Prover Hospital was Tina's private hospital, Isaac was not worried about Prover Hospital's medical conditions. He had been with Neil for nearly 30 years. They were friends, as well as master and servant. Isaac was worried about Neil.

Isaac sighed. "Dr. Thomas, thank you!

for your concern.

It's fine. I... I'm not sleepy yet."

"Eat something, then." Dylan handed the breakfast he bought to Isaac,

"Thank you."

Dylan glanced at the time and comforted Isaac. "Sir, Gina is already on her way back. If you're worried, go and rest when Gina returns."

Isaac nodded.

The footsteps sounded, and Isaac and Dylan looked up. It was Harry and Ibrahim,

When Isaac saw them, his expression immediately became vigilant. He put down his food and stood up. "What are you doing here?"

Harry sneered and pointed at the ward, "Isaac, your question is funny. The person lying inside is Neil, my brother. I came to visit him when I knew he was hospitalized. Why do you have a problem with it?"

"Isaac, do you think that you're one of us? Aren't you just a male nanny who has been hired with money?" Harry mocked.

Isaac took a deep breath and said, "Harry, you claim to be close to Mr. Neil, so you should know the young master's current whereabouts must be kept from him. However, you still revealed it to him. Don't you know his heart is not good?"

"Is it wrong for me to tell Neil the truth? Even if you can hide it for a day or two, at most a week, can you still hide it if Gabriel doesn't show up after a week? Neil will find out sooner or later. I just said it a little early!"

"I didn't know Neil would be so agitated! Hasn't Gina been treating him? Isn't she a miracle doctor? Why did Neil's condition worsen after being agitated?" Harry tried to shift the blame.

Dylan could not take it anymore and retorted, "The heart problem can only be controlled and not cured. Gina is already at the highest level of medicine. If she can completely cure heart disease, she won't be a miracle doctor but a god!"

Harry glanced at Dylan coldly. "Why are you getting involved? Now, we're discussing the internal affairs of the Jackson family. It's not for an outsider like you to interrupt. Shut up."

Dylan sneered. "Don't tell me that our Prover Hospital is your territory. You tell me to shut up, and I'll shut up?"

Harry laughed in anger. "I can't be bothered to argue with you about these useless things. Right now, I'm only concerned about Neil's condition."

He turned to Ibrahim and said, "Go in and have a good check on Neil"

Ibrahim nodded. "Okay, Mr. Harry,"

Isaac immediately blocked Ibrahim's way. "You can't go in."

Ibrahim stopped in his tracks and asked in confusion, "Isaac, what do you mean? Don't you want Mr. Neil out of danger quickly and wake up from his coma?"

"Of course, I want to, but I don't trust you!" When Isaac said so, he glanced at Harry. If Harry cared about Neil's health as he claimed, he would not have told Nell about Gabriel

Harry noticed Isaac's gaze and immediately got furious. "Ibrahim is the top international doctor | brought here. Are you saying that I can't be trusted, too? That's ridiculous. Neil and I are blood-related. Who the hell do you think you are?"

Ibrahim also wanted to push Isaac aside to get into the ward. After all, this was such a good opportunity...

He did not know when the next one would be if he could not seize it. All Ibrahim wanted to do now was to hurry up and help Harry complete what he wanted to do so that he could escape this life of being controlled by others as soon as possible.

Isaac blocked the door with his body. "Anyway, I won't let you in today!"

Harry cursed, "L u a t i c, whom are you doing this for? Do you think I'll harm Neil? F**k off!"

Dylan did not choose to stand by and do nothing. He called the security.

Harry noticed it. He went forward and knocked Dylan's phone away. "What are you trying to do?"

"Mr. Neil's condition is not good. As a family member, you should not disturb him too much. Now, you're going to force yourself in with someone. I must stop you out of consideration for the patient's safety!" Dylan said confidently.

Harry's face turned cold, and his anger rose. "Do I need you to be a busybody?"

Harry immediately wanted to attack when his anger flared up. He clenched his fists and was prepared to swing it at Dylan's face!

"Think about the consequences if you want to cause trouble in my Prover Hospital!"

Gina's voice sounded. She appeared in front of the four.

Harry was a little surprised and thought, "How did the b i t h get back so fast?"

He forced himself to calm down and did not forget to mock Gina. "Well, Gina, the Miracle Doctor. You're late"

Gina ignored Harry's sarcasm and walked up to Ibrahim. "Bugg e r off"

Ibrahim pouted indignantly, but he had a consensus with Harry. Now, it was not the time to fall out with Gina.

Ibrahim returned behind Harry.

Harry did not give up on mocking Gina. "Gina, don't tell me you're rushing back because you care about Neil, You seem like a great person. All of this is because of you. If it weren't for you inexplicably provoking so many enemies, how could Gabriel go missing because of you? If Gabriel's whereabouts weren't unknown, Neil wouldn't have come to the hospital with an upset heart. You came back to treat Neil, which is all you should do. Don't think we must be grateful to you because of this!"

Gina turned to look at Harry and slowly shifted her gaze to Ibrahim. "Don't act up in front of me anxiously. I have a score to settle with you when Mr. Neil is out of danger"

Harry said disdainfully, "You want to settle scores with us? Alright! Go ahead and do it. Also, don't try to be mysterious. Tell me what t Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

the score is!

Gina sneered. "The so-called all-in-one medical examination machine doesn't exist. What's your main motive for setting up this project? Is it a crime?"

Harry's expression changed. "What nonsense are you talking about? Also, Mr. Rosario and Ethan are involved in that project. If you want to slander them, get it right!"

Ibrahim could not help but mock, "Miss Miller, the all-in-one medical examination machine is already in use. Many people have gone to the Blue Vale Hospital, where it is in use, for a physical examination. Those who have experienced it say it's terrific. You have no evidence. What right do you have to say that our all-in-one medical examination machine doesn't exist? Are you jealous? We have developed such a great medical machine!"

Sat, 15 Jun

Chapter 478

Gina was amused by Ibrahim's comical expression of lying without changing his look. "I'm jealous? I'm jealous that you cheat your way out of an investment and create a bunch of crap? A large glucose monitor?"

Ibrahim's pupils trembled. If he could still respond to Gina's mockery just now, he was guilty and flustered at that moment. Gina was right. The so called all-in-one medical examination machine was just a cover. They established this so-called medical project to benefit the public only to deceive and accumulate wealth.

There was also the collection of blood so that they could find someone to match it with and secretly trade organs.

Ibrahim panicked because Gina had uncovered the truth about the all-in-one medical examination machine. Could the next step be the o r g a n trading? Ibrahim never thought he could hide this from the world for the rest of his life, but it was not the time to expose it now!

When Harry saw Ibrahim had lost his composure, he hastily spoke to try to distract Gina.

“There’s no evidence. Is it a large glucose monitor if you say it is? Dr. Rosario has spent countless efforts on it. It’s not something that you can deny with a few words!”

Gina didn’t waste any time. She directly showed them the dismantling video and photos of the all-in-one medical examination machine on her phone so that they could be completely defeated.

Harry could not calm down the moment he saw the photo. He remembered Ibrahim had reported to him Colin had asked Ibrahim for the all-in-one medical examination machine.

He had some concerns then, but Ibrahim said he believed Colin would not harm them. However, the truth was that the only machine given out had fallen into Gina’s hands. What on earth was going on?

Harry stared at Ibrahim angrily. Ibrahim sensed Harry’s angry gaze and avoided it. He did not expect Colin to do such a crazy thing. Colin directly handed the prototype he sent over to Gina

This was outrageous. Ibrahim never expected that no matter how crazy Colin was, he would not be crazy to this extent!

Ibrahim had a headache and was having trouble breathing. He was speechless. Colin had screwed them over this time.

Right now, Gina had something on them, and she was going to

to ma n it, Colin Barnes!

Gina saw the panic on their faces. She put away

ay her phone unhurriedly and said,

“You’re

on your own.”

Then she pushed open the ward door and went inside to treat Neil

Harry was no longer in the mood to continue looking for trouble. He glanced at Ibrahim and angrily said, “Why are you looking at me? Let’s go!”

Ibrahim hurriedly followed Harry and left.

Back in the car, Harry immediately flew into a rage. “Ibrahim Rosario, is this what you said that Colin won’t go against us? Is there a need for him to go against us? He forcefully took the prototype from you and gave it to Gina. Is this what you said nothing will happen?”

Ibrahim was also frustrated, but he had to calm Harry down first. “Mr. Jackson, wait a moment. I’ll ask Colin what’s going on.”

“You asked, and then what? Can you change the fact that the machine is already in Gina’s hands? Ibrahim, you’re disappointing me more and more!”

Harry was so angry that he kicked the front seat.

Ibrahim was also furious. “Mr. Jackson, you’re right. I can’t change anything now, but we should also investigate how the machine got in Gina’s hands to find out what Colin is trying to do and whether he can still be our ally”

“Call him! Call him!”

Harry decided to give up. “No matter who you want to call, you can call. I’m just reminding you how to plan. Now that Gina is causing trouble with that demolition video. You think about how you’re going to resolve it!”

Ibrahim nodded. Even though he was criticized, there was no trace of anger on his face. Instead, he was extremely obedient and humble.

Harry stopped talking and got angry. He gave Ibrahim a chance to make a call. Ibrahim called Colin three times in a hurry, but Colin did not pick up his phone. Ibrahim had considered if he called three times more and still did not get through, he might as well go straight to Colin's bar and catch him. Anyway, he saw Colin often staying late at the bar.

After the call was picked up, was picked up. Colin's hungover voice was g r E R Y-

Ibrahim suppressed his anger and said, "Mr. Barnes, I want to ask you about the all-in-one medical examination machine. You said you wanted a prototype machine, and I gave it to you, but you didn't tell me what you used it for. I trust your character, so I didn't ask further. But I didn't expect you to give that machine to Gina.

"I don't understand what you're thinking. Can you tell me the reason? Don't misunderstand. I'm not calling to denounce you. Mr. Barnes, even if you want to join forces with Gina to mess with us, can you at least let me die knowing why?"

Colin had sobered up a bit, but he was still confused. He asked, "You said the machine is in Gina's hands?"

Ibrahim took a deep breath and answered patiently, "Yes, and Gina has learned the secret about the machine and intends to mess with us."

Colin was deep in thought after hearing that. Of course, Colin knew Ibrahim was calling to denounce him but dared not to be rude,

Colin thought, 'It's... Ander gave that machine to Gina'

Although he did not understand why Ander did that, he couldn't call Ander and question him as Ibrahim did to him. It was also impossible for him to tell Ibrahim the truth.

"Let me tell you, I wanted that machine on someone's behalf. I have no idea what they will do with it. I'm just doing it. I'm just like you. You can't say no to me, and I can't say no to him.

Gina wants to use that secret to mess with you, shouldn't you be thinking "As for what secrets your robot has, I don't know, and I'm not interested. If about countermeasures now? You even have the time to call me and chat with me, Could it be that you want me to think of a solution for you?" Colin said lazily.

Just because he had the same enemies as Ibrahim did not mean he was friends with Ibrahim.

“I don’t mean that. In fact, I only want to know/Mr. Barnes. Even if we can’t be partners forever, can we at least not be enemies until we get rid of Gina?” asked Ibrahim.

“Alright.” Colin yawned and hung up.

He was angry and helpless to control his anger. He turned around and smiled at Harry again. “Mr. Jackson, Colin didn’t know the machine would be delivered to Gina. He was also entrusted by someone... I don’t know who it was, and Colin can’t tell me. But I guess it should be some noble on good terms with the Barnes family.”

Harry was depressed and did not want to listen to Ibrahim’s analysis. “Alright, stop speculating, What’s the use of speculating? The best important thing now is to prepare to face Gina’s attack.”

thing

At Prover Hospital, Gina waited until Nell woke up after giving him the therapy.

Neil was a little o excited when he saw Gina. He raised his hand and touched Gina’s arm. “Gina, aren’t you looking for information about Gabriel abroad?”

Gina held Nell’s hand and slowly put it down. “Mr. Neil, Gabriel... I’ll get someone to help look for him. Don’t worry, and I’ll find Gabriel”

Neil saw those instructions that were thick enough to be bound into a single book on his bedside table. He knew his illness had worsened again. He also understood why Gina suddenly came back. Neil looked at Gina’s slightly haggard face and knew she must be searching for Gabriel day and night.

“Gina, it’s been hard on you. You have to run back and forth.”

“It’s not hard at all.” it was equally important to treat illnesses and save lives, regardless of the severity.

Gina thought about how she was about to expose the medical project run by Ethan was only a trash project.

It was better to tell Neil about it. She would say it gently so as not to stimulate Neil's heart.

"Mr. Neil, I have something to tell you. Ethan directly led his medical team to develop an all-in-one medical examination machine. It's a useless machine. They are already committing fraud by doing so.

"Fortunately, Gabriel had the foresight to let Ethan separate the project and cut ties with the Jackson Group. Therefore, it doesn't matter if they expose the scandal. It won't implicate Gabriel and the Jackson Group"

Actually, Gina had the foresight. In the beginning, Gabriel had also thought about supporting Ethan's project for the sake of their blood relationship. However, Gina had insisted on not letting Gabriel invest, and Gabriel had chosen to listen to her.

"Okay."

Neil quickly accepted the matter.

Gina stood up and said, "Neil, rest well. I still have some things to deal with. I'll see you later."

Neil did not want to become a burden to Gina. He nodded and looked at Gina's haggard face. He knew how much energy Gina had spent on Gabriel.

"Gina!" Neil called out to Gina. "You have to rest, too!" said Neil caringly.

The next day. "Mr. Jackson. Mr. Jackson? Wake up. Something big has happened!" The secretary patted Ethan's shoulder hard.

Ethan, who had woken up from his sleep, was confused. He felt so sleepy that he couldn't speak three sentences in a row. Now that he was woken up by violence, it disturbed his sweet dream and made him furious.

The secretary was angry but did not dare to say anything. "Mr. Jackson, but something happened to the project. I don't want to disturb your sleep, but I have no choice!"

"What's wrong? What happened?"

The secretary told him that Gina exposed their all-in-one medical examination machine as a hoax, a large glucose monitor. She urged the public not to go to Blue Vale Hospital for a physical examination. Even if the physical examination fee in Blue Vale Hospital was cheap and the full-body examination fee only cost about one hundred dollars, it was not only a price paid for one's foolish behavior but could also be dangerous. Gina said Blue Vale Hospital was probably illegally collecting blood samples for an unspeakable secret.

Ethan watched the news from beginning to end and was furious. The all-in-one medical examination machine in the video was indeed the machine developed by them, but he could not understand why it was in Gina's hands.

Who gave the machine to Gina when he didn't know anything?

The secretary asked, "Mr. Jackson, what should... we do now?"

"Get out!" Ethan grabbed his hair in frustration.

The secretary couldn't wait to get out. He immediately slipped away.

Ethan called Ibrahim. "What's going on? What's with the news? How did Gina get the machine? Also, what did she mean when she said our machine is just a large glucose monitor?"

Ibrahim was amused when he heard Ethan's last sentence. A fool was a fool, indeed. However, Ethan could not be blamed for being stupid. After all, his parents had poor genes. Besides, if Ethan were clever, wouldn't he be unable to be used by them?

Moreover, how could Ethan care about how machines were developed? The number of times he had been to the laboratory could be counted on one hand. Ethan's level of knowledge and intelligence also determined that Ethan could not see any problems. Even now, Ethan probably felt their medical team had developed a machine that could examine the entire body with just a drop of blood.

Ibrahim said slowly, "Mr. Jackson, you just woke up, right? Calm down. Gina's actions are purely slander, Don't worry. I've thought of a way to resolve it. After 10 o'clock, I'll hold a press conference and broadcast it globally to prove how Gina distorted the truth."

Ibrahim's reply made Ethan feel he had nowhere to vent his anger. He immediately felt much more at ease. "Gina, the bitch, just can't bear to see me. Why? Is it because I went to the Jackson Group with Harry two days ago and took away 120 million dollars? Is she unhappy and deliberately causing trouble?"

Ibrahim agreed and added fuel to the fire. "It's very likely that Gina thinks the Jackson Group's assets are not something you can take just because you want to. As your future aunt, she's not convinced you can take away that much."

Ethan's anger was immediately ignited. "Fuck, the slut, What kind of aunt is she? Oh, right, I don't even want to acknowledge Gabriel, the bastard anymore. She's still putting on airs for me? She hasn't even married him yet. Does she think she's the Jackson family? Pilt!"

"Mr. Jackson, calm down. In short, I have had a way to deal with this matter. Don't be anxious. If you're tired, you can continue sleeping," Ibrahim said considerately.

Ethan rolled his e yes eyes. How could he still be in the mood to sleep? He also wanted to see Ibrahim hold a press conference!

Ibrahim held a press conference as he promised to clarify the matter at ten o'clock in the morning. The reporters present asked excitedly.

Chapter 480

"Mr. Rosario, I heard you are the main developer of the all-in-one medical examination machine project. Do you have anything to say about the statement released by Miss Miller from the Prover Hospital that the machine is only a large glucose monitor?"

"Mr. Rosario, many people who went to Blue Vale Hospital for a physical examination have to refund the money. May I ask if you will return their money?"

The reporters spoke one after another, asking more than a dozen questions. Ibrahim couldn't interrupt even if he wanted to.

He stood on the podium and gestured for everyone to be quiet. “Everyone, please quiet down. I knew that you and the global audience watching my live broadcast wanted to know the answers. I’ll answer you one by one. Please don’t be anxious.”

Everyone waited quietly for Ibrahim to speak.

Ibrahim stared straight at the camera. Although he was unsure if Gina was watching his live broadcast, his posture had to be self-righteous. Even if Gina was not watching, he had to show it to the people watching.

After Ibrahim was done keeping the people in suspense, he officially said, “First of all, Miss Miller said our machine is a large glucose monitor. I don’t deny it, but I don’t approve it. Because our machine does have the ability to check the blood sugar level!”

When Ibrahim said the first half of his sentence, everyone thought he was preparing to confess and admit to deceiving the public and illegally collecting funds.

“Before I get to the point, I must apologize to everyone because our project has taken up public resources. I’m sorry!

“To summarize, the incident is Miss Miller’s one-sided slander and malicious competition. Telling the public the truth about the ins and outs of the matter is also the purpose of my immediate press conference.

“First of all, everyone knows Gina is the director of the Prover Hospital. The Prover Hospital’s medical resources are undoubtedly excellent, but it’s not something ordinary people can afford. The private Blue Vale Hospital has always treated wealthy or powerful individuals. As for Blue Vale Hospital, the medical hospital can’t compare to the Prover Hospital, but it’s a hospital for the general public. This is why our project team chose to work with Blue Vale first-hand.

“The Blue Vale Hospital’s reputation has been improving since the collaboration, Miss Miller feels that the Blue Vale Hospital’s rise has made the Prover Hospital no longer the top hospital in the hearts of Norwood people, causing Miss Miller to be dissatisfied.”

Ibrahim spouted nonsense in all seriousness. “Of course, I don’t think that’s enough reason for Miss Miller to make such a big deal out of us. The more important reason is that Miss Miller has a conflict with Mr. Ethan, the main investor in our project. Their conflict is deep. The specific reason is suspected of internal conflict between the Jackson family. As an outsider, I really can’t say anything.”

A bold reporter said, “Mr. Rosario, please don’t keep us in suspense! Only by revealing it can you make what you just said more credible and convincing!”

Ibrahim asked casually, “Everyone, have you forgotten Miss Miller is Mr. Gabriel’s fiancée?”
