

When She Stops Playing Nice by Hale Saxon

Chapter 481

Chapter 481

Everyone fell silent again.

Everyone wanted to dig up gossip about the Jackson family, but if they dug up gossip about the Jackson family, they would definitely offend Gabriel. Their outcome would probably not be good. They were just working. They did not want to cause trouble and lose their jobs.

Indeed, no one asked such private questions again. Another reporter asked, "Dr. Rosario, you still don't seem to have answered the question. What's going on with the all-in-one machine that Miss Miller has obtained?"

Ibrahim's expression turned serious. "This matter is complicated. Well, a few days ago, we were contacted by a member of the royal family from Mosnioca. He expressed his intention to collaborate with us and hoped to get the all-in-one medical examination machine to use in Mosnioca.

"However, his request was rejected by Mr. Jackson. Mr. Jackson felt that the all-in-one medical examination machine's advanced high-end machine technology should be enjoyed by the people of his own country first. Moreover, building an all-in-one medical examination machine costs more than 200 million dollars. This is also the important reason why we have repeatedly said that mass production is impossible to achieve in a short period of time.

"However, after Mr. Jackson rejected the other party, they did not give up. They even used various shady methods to threaten Mr. Jackson. It was so serious that Mr. Jackson's life was affected"

Ibrahim's explanation was getting more and more ridiculous. Even though he was lying, he did so without blinking an eye.

The reporter interrupted Ibrahim. "Dr. Rosario, you're from Mosnioca. Why didn't you research and develop the all-in-one medical examination machine in your country? Why did you choose to come to Shyran and work with Mr. Ethan Jackson?"

Ibrahim was calm and composed. "it's because Mr. Harry, Mr. Jackson's uncle, is my benefactor, and Mr. Neil loves Mr. Jackson very much. Thus, I decided to work with Mr. Jackson. It's that simple.

“Alright, after explaining, let’s get back to the topic at hand. After Mr. Jackson’s life was threatened, we decided to think of a way to calm the other party down and stall for time. Then, we asked Mr. Jackson to hide in a safe place. After that, we sent a fake machine over. There’s only one authentic all-in-one medical examination machine in the world at the moment. It’s only found in Blue Vale Hospital.

“After sending the fake machine over, everyone saw what happened on the news. Miss Miller claimed to uphold justice and said that there was something wrong with our machine. She said that we collaborated with Blue Vale to make dishonest money. That’s so ridiculous.

“The reason why Mr. Jackson and I can work together is because we have the same idea. We both want to benefit the public so that ordinary people can have a physical examination at any time without any burden.

“Of course, our all-in-one machine still has many imperfections. Some tests, such as genetic testing, can’t be detected by our machine. We will continue to work hard. After all, we are only investing in a first generation machine now. It will be upgraded in the future. Please continue to pay attention.”

Ibrahim took a sip of water. After explaining so much, he was really a little tired.

The reporter asked again, “So, Dr. Rosario, in summary, this incident is a malicious competition caused by personal grudges?”

Ibrahim nodded and said sarcastically, “Yes, I’ve always known that Miss Miller is very capable. I just didn’t expect Miss Miller to be able to invite even the royal family of Mosnioca. How impressive!”

Someone else asked, “Since Ethan and Gina, who will marry into the Jackson family, are considered family, can this matter be considered an internal search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Ibrahim deliberately gave an ambiguous answer. “That depends on how you understand this incident. Alright, this live broadcast press conference will Neil’s ward to tell Gina about the live broadcast.

“He’s so shameless to have distorted the facts,” Dylan cursed.

However, Gina remained calm. Of course, Ibrahim and the others would not admit that they had done something bad. She had expected them to slander her instead. She did not expect to bring Ethan and the others down in one go.

“It doesn’t matter. Let them stay smug for a few more days. Even if we can’t make everyone believe that they and Blue Vale Hospital are up to no good, at least we can make some people take precautions. We’ve already achieved our goal.”

Dylan sighed. “That’s true.”

The phone rang. Dylan answered the call from the security department at the entrance. The security guard was confused and flustered. “Dr. Thomas, I don’t know what happened. Many people suddenly came to the entrance and smashed the door with rotten vegetables and eggs. There are so many people. We don’t know what to do now, so we called to ask you.”

Dylan frowned. He also heard the noise at the door from his phone.

“Gina, you vicious woman. You opened a private hospital for rich people, and now, you don’t even allow ordinary people like us to have checkups in a cheap hospital. How could you be so evil?”

“Ask that bitch to come out. Doesn’t she dare to own up to her actions? I don’t care if she’s powerful or is Gabriel’s fiancée. Today, even if she’s the queen, she has to accept our judgment.”

“Prover Hospital should close down immediately. Hospitals are meant to treat illnesses and save people. Yet, that vicious woman engaged in business wars. Doesn’t your noble Prover Hospital refuse to accept ordinary patients?”

It was not that they did not accept ordinary patients. It was just that ordinary patients could not afford the medical fees of Prover Hospital.

However, Prover Hospital’s top-notch medical resources were limited. They also needed to pay for the salaries of the doctors and such.

Gina also heard the voices on the other end of the phone. “Call the police and ask the police to evacuate the crowd.””

When the security guard heard Gina’s words, he immediately replied, “Okay.”

Dylan hung up the phone and rubbed his eyebrows. Those people who came to cause trouble must have believed Ibrahim’s words,

After a while, the police arrived and the crowd that was cursing at the entrance of Prover Hospital was evacuated.

However, there was still one person who had not left. He was not here to cause trouble. He only said that he wanted to look for Gina. The security guard called Gina again. "Miss Miller, there's a man called Xander at the door. He wants to see you."

"Let him in."

Xander was invited to the lounge, Gina was waiting for him in the lounge.

"Miss Miller, I saw Ibrahim's live broadcast today. I don't believe his words. I think there's really something wrong with Blue Vale Hospital's all-in-one medical examination machine." Xander continued, "Now that I think about it, my father and I went to Blue Vale Hospital for a physical examination. After my father and I got the physical examination reports, we couldn't understand what some of the numbers on them represented bec

"Today, I rechecked the physical examination reports. After comparing them with the reports we got from another hospital last year, I realized that some of the numbers are different, but the descriptions are almost identical," Xander said.

After saying that, he looked at Gina uneasily. "Miss Miller, I wonder if the clue I found today can help you prove that Blue Vale Hospis problematic?"

Gina nodded. "Yes. When I gather more evidence, I can prove to the public that the so-called all-in-one medical examination machine doesn't exist. This machine is just a cover for them to make dishonest money and conduct some illegal transactions."

"What illegal transactions?" Xander asked curiously.

"Organ trading."

Gina made this guess based on their behavior of attracting people to do physical examinations and take blood samples at Blue Vale Hospital.

"Then my father... Is he..." Xander broke down

Gina said helplessly, "Your father is probably... You have to be m e t l l y prepared. Last time, you were knocked out by someone and almost carried away quietly through an underground tunnel in a room, without being discovered by the surveillance cameras.

"If my people hadn't waited inside in advance, perhaps you would have encountered the same fate as your father. However, this also explains why the surveillance cameras didn't capture any traces after your father disappeared.

"These can be used as follow-up evidence. Don't worry, I will definitely help you bring the guilty to justice."

"Okay, okay." Xander was very touched.

Gina's phone began to ring again. This time, it was Michael.

"Gina, we've found Gabriel."

Gabriel had been on an island surrounded by the sea for three to four days.

If he hadn't washed himself in the heavy rain yesterday, he would have felt that he was about to rot and stink. Fortunately, there were many edible fruits on this island, so he wouldn't starve to death. However, he still had to avoid the pursuit and attacks of the primitive people on this island every day.

On the first day, to escape from Lighthouse's pursuit, Gabriel swam to this island and was discovered by the primitive people. The primitive people here were cannibals. They were very hostile to outsiders. Therefore, on the first day of his arrival, Gabriel found himself jumping out of the frying pan and into the fire.

If he didn't have a year of experience as a mercenary, perhaps he wouldn't have been able to last until now.

However, the hand injury he sustained when escaping from the Lighthouse organization's members had not yet healed. He had treated it under limited conditions, but the wound still became inflamed and he had recurring fevers.

He didn't know how long he could last and whether he would die from the infection. However, every time he had a fever, he tried to endure it. After a while, the fever subsided by itself. It was as if his immune system had become stronger than before.

Gina must be very anxious right now. She must be looking for him all over the world. He believed that Gina would be able to find him. However, this sea area was really difficult to find and locate. Therefore, he had not been able to see Gina after such a long time.

At the thought of Gina being worried about him, Gabriel felt a little guilty. He had wanted to help Gina, but he did not expect to bring more trouble to Gina.

Chapter 482

Gabriel's wound began to hurt. He was hiding in a relatively hidden cave. He had also disguised the entrance of the cave. The primitive people with limited intelligence had not found any traces of him for the time being. He was safe now, but that did not mean that he would be in the next second. He felt uncomfortable, and he did not dare to sleep.

He did not want to die. He had to hang in there until Gina came to save him. If he died like this, Gina would definitely blame herself.

"Gabriel, hang in there," Gabriel said to himself.

Suddenly, Gabriel heard a very noisy sound nearby. Judging from his experience on this island over the past few days, it was the sound of the primitive people passing by.

The shouts between the primitive people were probably their language. Gabriel could not understand or know what had happened.

He thought, 'Could they have discovered me?'

Gabriel was a little worried.

With his current state, he really could not fight against so many primitive people.

The footsteps got closer, and Gabriel's breathing became more rapid.

He thought, 'Did they really discover me? How did they discover me?'

Gabriel did not understand. He felt that he had hidden himself very well.

However, after the sound of footsteps approached, it faded away.

Gabriel was a little surprised. He wondered if they were just passing by.

Gabriel felt an inexplicable sense of uneasiness. This cave was close to the sea, and the primitive people were moving in groups. Could it be that outsiders had invaded?

He thought, 'Have the Lighthouse's people found this place?'

Gabriel could not sit still and wait for death. He decided to go out and take a look.

On the shore.

Gina arrived on the island. Soon, she saw the primitive people on the island mobilizing as a group with cold weapons in their hands. When they reached a range where they could attack, they threw the weapons at Gina. Gina dodged nimbly. The primitive people did not approach Gina because they knew that modern people like Gina might carry an unknown virus that would poison them all to death. Therefore, they were very resistant to outsiders. They would attack when they saw outsiders approaching the island. Gina had dived over. Therefore, she was only discovered when she reached the shore. Gina was also wearing a protective suit. Even if the cold weapons hit her, it was not very painful. Gina did not know how to express to the primitive people that she did not have any ill intentions. Moreover, these primitive people planned to continue attacking her.

Now that she knew Gabriel was on this island, she did not want to waste time dealing with the primitive people.

Gina simply used intimidation. She took out her gun and shot near a primitive man. She did not hit anyone.

Some of the primitive people had seen guns before, so they knew how intimidating this little object was. The primitive people's eyes were suddenly filled with fear because they knew that the object in Gina's hand could kill all of them.

They instantly took a few steps back in fear.

When they saw that Gina had no intention of killing them, they tried to retreat. They finally decided to retreat to a safe area first.

Gina heaved a sigh of relief as she watched them leave. She did not want to have a conflict with these primitive people. She just wanted to find Gabriel's whereabouts.

"Ginal"

Gina was about to search the entire island for Gabriel when she heard a voice. It was a shout.

Gina looked up and saw Gabriel standing on a rock in ragged clothes.

Gina instantly felt a lump in her throat and her eyes turned red. She immediately ran towards Gabriel.

Chapter 483

When Gina ran to Gabriel, she wanted to hug Gabriel, but Gabriel refused.

Gabriel took a step back in resistance.

Gina was a little surprised. "What's wrong? Are you injured? Will it hurt if I touch you?"

Gabriel shook his head. He just felt that he stank.

Meanwhile, Gina walked up to him looking neat and tidy. He did not want the dirt on his body to contaminate Gina. He didn't want to stink her.

However, he was too embarrassed to say it out loud. He hesitated for a moment and said, "I'm a little dirty now and smelly. I'm afraid the stench will rub off on you."

Gina smiled helplessly and said, "It's okay. I don't mind. I just miss you so much."

Gabriel was stunned to hear that. He rarely heard Gina express her emotions so bluntly.

At this moment, when he heard her confession of love, he was in a good mood.

Gabriel stretched out his hand. "Then I'll hug you."

"Yeah." Gina nodded.

Gabriel hugged Gina tightly. "I missed you too."

He also wanted to kiss Gina, but he was too dirty, so he had to endure it. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

After hugging him for a while, Gina could finally calm down. She let go of Gabriel and said, "You do stink a little."

Gabriel was silent.

He started to get a little emotional. "Are you disgusted with me now?"

"No, no. Let's go." Gina felt a little guilty.

"I'm sure you're disgusted with me," Gabriel emphasized.

"It's not that I'm disgusted with you, it's just that the air on this island is not good." Gina suddenly began to make things up.

Gabriel looked at Gina's troubled expression and smiled. He was just teasing Gina Gabriel followed Gina back to the submarine.

There was a bathroom in the submarine

Gabriel showered for almost 40 minutes. After making sure that every strand of his hair was clean and fragrant, he walked out of the bathroom.

He sat beside Gina.

He approached Gina and asked, "Can we hug now?"

Gina smiled and said, "Alright."

Gabriel hugged Gina and suddenly hissed."

Gina became nervous. "The wound on your hand."

"I'm fine. I'm really fine. I was just slashed by a knife, and the wound had already scabbed over. I didn't expect that there would still be useful herbs. I applied them to the wound. The wound got infected, but it's not very serious. I don't know why. Could it be that my immune system has been strengthened?"

Gabriel was joking, but when he looked at Gina, he suddenly thought of something. "Is it the effect of the Spirit Orchid?"

He remembered that Gina had given him the precious medicinal herb that she had originally kept as an herb to save her life.

Gina nodded. She was very gratified. "I'm very glad now that I gave you that herb."

Gabriel could not help but kiss her.

The two of them cuddled for a while before Gina suddenly remembered there was something she had not told Gabriel yet.

“Harry took Ethan to Jackson Group when you weren’t around and took away the official seal in the safe. He told Neil that he only took 120 million dollars from Jackson Group and invested it in the medical project under Ethan’s name.

“However, I’ve found out that there’s a huge problem with the medical project under Ethan’s name. Therefore, the 120 million dollars must not enter their pockets. Otherwise, if anything happens to his project in the future, Harry will take out that appropriation contract to indicate that Jackson Group has invested in that project. That might affect Jackson Group’s share price or bring about even more serious consequences.

“By the way, they also injured David because David refused to let them take the official seal”

Gabriel’s expression darkened. He had only been gone for a few days, and Harry had already brought Ethan to tyrannize others.

“I’ll settle the score with them and get the 120 million dollars back.”

Gina nodded. “Yes.”

She believed that Gabriel would not let Harry and the others have their way.

Now was a rare moment of leisure. Gina still had many questions to ask Gabriel. She wanted to show concern for him. “Tell me what you’ve been through these past few days. Tell me everything.”

Gabriel said, “Okay.”

“I held the daughter of the leader of Lighthouse hostage. After forcing the leader to testify for you, I was about to leave. However, too many people caught up to me. When I was dealing with them, I was accidentally slashed.

“Fortunately, I managed to escape unscathed because I ran to the beach. Aheri bandaged my wound, I jumped into the water. After that, I didn’t stay in the water for long. Instead, I was lucky enough to encounter a boat. After I sneaked onto the boat, no one discovered me.

“But I couldn’t stay on the boat for too long. Otherwise, my identity would definitely be exposed. At that time, I might be treated as a dangerous person and controlled. So, I jumped back into the sea.

“After that, I arrived on this island and was discovered by the primitive people. I shook them off and hid in a cave. My luck was also good. There were quite a lot of fruits on this island, so I didn’t starve to death. I felt that my luck along the way had been especially good. It should be the good luck you gave me, Gina. You are my Lady Luck.”

Gina was in a daze. After all, half a year ago, she was still considered a jinx by the Miller family.

“Fortunately, you’re fine.”

Gina sighed. She had failed to protect her adoptive mother, Ruby. Now, she could not lose Gabriel too.

Two days later, in Norwood.

Ethan was playing cards with a few friends at home when Harry called

When Ethan saw that it was a call from his respected uncle, Harry, his expression became much more serious. He immediately removed the cigarette from his mouth and signaled his friends to be quiet.

when Ethan picked up the call, he was extremely polite. “Harry, what’s wrong? What’s the matter?”

“Gabriel is back,” Harry said.

Ethan was a little surprised. He thought, “Isn’t Gabriel missing?”

However, Ethan felt that the probability of Gabriel dying in an accident was extremely small because Gabriel was a really tough guy.

Gabriel had been involved in many accidents since he was young. There were situations where he was injured but not on the verge of death. Moreover, he had also gone missing and could not be contacted a few years ago.

Gabriel disappeared for an entire year when he was 23 years old. His whereabouts were unknown either.

the’s heart disease became more serious that year.

However, Ethan did not expect Gabriel to suddenly return unscathed. This time, Gabriel returned so soon, which surprised Ethan a little.

Chapter 484

Harry was not very satisfied with Ethan's reaction. "That's your reaction?"

Ethan was stunned. He thought, 'Otherwise, how should I react?'

However, Harry had expressed his dissatisfaction. Ethan definitely wanted to please Harry.

Ethan thought that he was very smart and said angrily, "Damn it, why could he still come back? Why isn't he dead?"

Harry was speechless.

He knew that Ethan wanted to show his loyalty in front of him, but he did not want Ethan to react by cursing.

"He's back. Don't you have any sense of crisis?" Harry suddenly felt disappointed.

Initially, he only wanted to call Ethan to inform him about this matter. He did not intend to lecture Ethan, but Ethan's reaction made him feel that he had to educate him. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Even if he only wanted to make use of Ethan, as Ethan's elder, he suddenly wanted to preach. Otherwise, he would find it embarrassing to have such a stupid junior.

"Sense of crisis?" Ethan did not understand. Why should he feel a sense of crisis? He had a successful career now. He was very idle and stable every day.

There was no sense of crisis.

He wasn't working under Gabriel in Jackson Group anymore. So what if Gabriel was back? What could Gabriel do to him?

Ethan suddenly felt that Gabriel's insistence that he separate the medical project from Jackson Group was a decision that was extremely beneficial to him.

His current life was wonderful. He did not have to be bullied. Every day, he either played cards, drank wine, went out to race, or played golf. His life was sheer paradise.

Harry felt like he was about to have a heart attack after he called Ethan. ‘Did Ethan really not understand what I meant? Did I have to explain it clearly to Ethan word by word so that Ethan would understand?’ he cursed inwardly.

‘ལ་ཁྲོལ་བཏུར་ལ་སྐྱོན་’

Harry had a headache. He rubbed his temple and decided to be straightforward. “Did you forget that we just took 120 million dollars from Jackson Group a few days ago?

“Now, Gabriel is back, and we even got someone to beat David up. Although David is not as important as Gina in Gabriel’s heart, David has worked for Gabriel for so many years. Do you think Gabriel will let this matter rest?

“You have to know that Gabriel is in a state where he doesn’t care about his relatives now. Even if we’re his family, he definitely won’t give us the 120 million dollars for nothing. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have spent so much effort to get the official seal to get this sum of money back then.”

Ethan agreed, “Harry, you’re right. So, what should we do?”

Harry almost fainted from anger. Did they need to think of a way? No, because there was an official seal on the contract. So what if Gabriel was angry? Gabriel could not take back the one hundred twenty million. As for David....

At most, they would compensate him with some money. However, Harry needed Ethan to deal with Gabriel. Unexpectedly, Ethan was brainless. He did not know how to deal with Gabriel.

Previously, Harry had rarely contacted Ethan. He had always asked Ibrahim to contact Ethan. Therefore, he rarely got angry at Ethan’s stupidity. This time, he contacted Ethan personally on a whim and almost fell sick from anger.

Chapter 484

Harry took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down. He thought, I’m not angry, I’m not angry...

It wouldn’t be good if he got sick from anger. He might even have to go to Prover Hospital for treatment. That would be awkward,

Harry tried his best to be calm. "Let me tell you first. If Gabriel goes looking for you, you can throw the contract in front of him and tell him. In any case, the contract has already been stamped and has legal effects. It's impossible for Gabriel to take back the 120 million dollars. When the time comes, you have to be as unyielding as possible. Do you understand?"

"As for me, I'll mediate with Neil. We only took away 120 million dollars and didn't do anything harmful to Jackson Group. Neil isn't like Gabriel. At least Neil is willing to be a peacemaker for the sake of our brotherhood. As for David, if there's really no other way, you will apologize to him."

Ethan listened with relish and felt quite good. When he thought about how Gabriel could not get back the 120 million dollars even if he caused trouble for them, he felt good.

However, after listening to the second half of Harry's words, Ethan felt upset. He even asked again in confusion, "Harry, do you mean that if Gabriel pushes me too hard, I should apologize to David?"

Ethan was in disbelief. He thought that Harry had another solution.

Ethan thought, "But the point is, why do I have to apologize to that lowly assistant? Besides, I wasn't the one who asked someone to beat David up back then."

However, Ethan did not dare to say that. After all, Harry had done so much. Saying such words that seemed to indicate disloyalty would affect their relationship.

Harry was about to lose all his patience. "Did I speak too softly and you couldn't hear me clearly? Do you want me to repeat it once more? I want you to apologize to David. Otherwise, I'm afraid this matter won't be easily resolved."

Ethan thought, "Did Harry call me just to tell me about this?"

"Alright... alright." Ethan tried his best to sound less reluctant.

Harry was not done explaining. "But remember, when Gabriel really goes looking for you, don't give in so quickly. After all, we have an appropriation. contract. Be it David's matter or the appropriation, you have to be firm. Do you understand? Don't let Gabriel think that we're easy to deal with. It will increase his confidence and undermine our prestige."

"I got it, I got it." Ethan nodded. However, when he thought about how Gabriel might come to settle the score with him, he still felt a little panicked. After all, he was almost strangled to death by Gabriel That was so traumatic for him.

This time, he wondered if he should arrange for a few more bodyguards at home and wait for Gabriel to come looking for him.

If he was found by Gabriel elsewhere, he was afraid that he would not be safe without someone to protect him.

He felt that it was safer to stay at home these few days.

Otherwise, if Gabriel saw him walking around with a group of bodyguards, wouldn't Gabriel know that he was especially cowardly?

If that b a t a r d Gabriel sensed that he was very afraid of him, Gabriel would probably be very proud of himself.

Harry thought about it seriously. He wanted to see if there was anything he had yet to tell Ethan. After all, Ethan was dim-witted. If he did not give instructions for everything, Ethan would probably not know how to deal with it.

Hence, Harry added, "if Gabriel hits you, don't be so cowardly. You must hit him back, understand?"

Ethan felt awkward. Harry seemed to be educating a three-year old child, telling him that if he was beaten up, he had to fight back and not suffer in vain

If someone else had said this to him, Ethan would definitely be angry with that person for telling him this and treating him as a rd. However, the person on the other end of the line was Harry whom he most respected, Ethan could only obediently listen to the lecture. However, he looked around. He had signaled his friends to be quiet just now. They did not speak and looked like they were not paying attention to him. They were all playing with their phones.

However, Ethan knew that they must be listening attentively. They wanted to know what he was talking about with Harry Ethan regretted not going into his room to answer the call.

It was too late now.

He could not continue to be so submissive. Ethan suddenly became especially unyielding. "Don't worry, Harry, leave this matter to me. Do you think I will still be afraid of Gabriel? When the time comes, just watch how I deal with him."

Harry was puzzled. Why did Ethan suddenly become excited as if he had been injected with steroids?

Harry's mouth was a little dry from all the explaining. There was nothing else to talk to Ethan about. He was about to hang up. "Alright, that's all for now. What are you doing now?"

Ethan thought that Harry was checking if he was working hard, so he quickly lied. "Didn't we get 120 million dollars? I'm choosing a location to build the medical equipment company, Harry."

"Alright, go ahead." Harry was just asking casually.

Just as Harry was about to hang up the phone, he saw a familiar figure walking towards his living room. It was none other than Gabriel.

Gabriel actually came to look for him. To avoid Gabriel, Harry bought a plane ticket and found a person who looked similar to him to board a plane to travel overseas.

To the outside world, he also announced that he was going overseas for a period of time.

He did not expect Gabriel to see through his plan so quickly and come straight to him to confront him.

Harry was a little angry from embarrassment. search the Find_Novel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

However, to prevent Gabriel from thinking that he was panicking, he still tried his best to appear calm and looked at Gabriel as if nothing had happened. Ethan's voice on the other end of the line pulled Harry back from his thoughts. "Harry? Are you still listening? I'm hanging up, okay?"

"Wait, come to my house immediately," Harry corrected himself.

At this moment, Gabriel had already walked in front of him and sat down.

"Why?" Ethan hadn't had enough fun yet. He thought, Why did he suddenly call me to his house? He hasn't finished explaining this matter over the phone and has to say it in person?"

Ethan was speechless. However, he did not dare to complain.

Harry looked coldly at Gabriel, who was sitting opposite him. Gabriel was calm and indifferent. When he sat there, he had the nobility of a superior divert Gabriel’s anger.

“What? Alright, alright,” Ethan agreed. At this moment, he still felt that if Gabriel wanted to do anything to him, Harry would definitely stop Gabriel. He would definitely not be alone and helpless

He would have to face Gabriel sooner or later. He might as well resolve the matter in one go today. Every day he delayed meant another day of fear.

After hanging up the phone, Ethan planned to ask his friends who were playing at his house to leave. “Alright, alright. All of you can leave. I have something to do at Harry’s house.”

Ethan’s friends could not help but gossip.

“Mr. Jackson, is Gabriel going to cause trouble for you?”

“Do you need our help?”

Ethan rolled his eyes. What could a bunch of useless people do to help him? Besides, how could he allow outsiders to be privy to the internal affairs of the Jackson family?

Ethan said fiercely, “Fk, stop being glib-tongued in front of me. Don’t assume that I don’t know what you’re up to. You just want to watch the show. Let me tell you, it’s not as exciting as it looks. Also, I’m not afraid of Gabriel. Do you understand?”

Everyone agreed.

“Yes, yes, yes, Mr. Jackson, you are also a business tycoon now. Gabriel is nothing. Sooner or later, he will be replaced by you. In the future, Jackson Group should be yours.”

“Mr. Jackson, you are awesome.”

“Alright, alright. Stop sucking up to me. I told you to leave.” Ethan appeared to be impatient, but those words of flattery just now still made him very happy.

After his friends left, Ethan went upstairs to change into a suit and groomed himself before setting off,

On the other side, after Gabriel sat down for a while, he did not immediately start to confront Harry. He even leisurely poured himself a glass of water.

Harry originally wanted to wait for Gabriel to speak because he felt that Gabriel must be feeling terrible at this time. He came with anger and should not be so calm.

Even though Harry knew that Gabriel was able to keep his cool, it was not to the extent that he was not angry at all.

However, Gabriel was calm and did not speak at all. This made Harry a little anxious.

Therefore, he took a deep breath and said, “You’re here about the 120 million dollars, and about David being beaten up, right? Actually, the situation that day was like this. We originally wanted to have a good talk with David, but...”

Gabriel suddenly interrupted Harry and said, “Harry, don’t be in a hurry to tell me. Since you’ve called Ethan over, let’s discuss these things when he arrives.”

Harry clenched his fists in dissatisfaction after being interrupted. He did not know why Gabriel had to wait until Ethan arrived before continuing the discussion, but he did not want to reject this request.

He added, “Gabriel, no matter what, you can’t take back the 120 million dollars.”

Gabriel did not react.

Harry changed the topic, “Speaking of which, Gabriel, where have you been for the past few days? Neil is really worried about you.”

“I went to visit my father as soon as I came back. Moreover, my father was saved by Gina again. He is also recovering well. You don’t have to worry about these things,” Gabriel said coldly.

Harry's expression was grim. "What do you mean you don't need my concern? Are you saying that we're not family anymore?"

"Those who are ill-intentioned can't be called family," Gabriel said directly.

Harry frowned. He thought, What does Gabriel mean? Does Gabriel know something? Did he find out that Emily's death has something to do with me?"

At the thought of that, Harry could not help but feel a little flustered. However, on second thought, if Gabriel had concrete evidence to prove that he killed Emily, how could Gabriel still speak to him so calmly? Hence, Harry forced himself to calm down.

Harry slapped the handle of the seat angrily. "Gabriel, make yourself clear today. What do you mean by I'm up to no good? What did I do to you? When my father had a heart attack and was sent to Prover Hospital, why did you bring Ibrahim and try to force your way into my father's ward? At that time, my father's body was weak. Did the two of you barge in to do something? This is not the first time you've done this."

"Alright, alright, alright. It turns out that I was wrong to care about you, Harry, Ibrahim is an internationally famous cardiovascular doctor. If you don't believe me, you can check his resume and see if what I said is true," Gabriel said.

"Now, you're slandering me instead. What do you want? To send me to jail? Alright, if you have evidence that I want to harm my brother, show it now. Let's call the police and deal with it. Can you send me to jail?" Harry became more and more agitated as he spoke. The veins on his forehead were bulging.

Gabriel was still calm. "But I'm not here today to argue with you about this. Let's put this matter aside for now because you're right. I indeed don't have any concrete evidence to prove that you want to harm my father. If I do, I'll definitely send you to prison. Don't worry, Harry."

The calmer Gabriel was, the more he seemed to have everything under control. Harry was so angry that he wanted to kill someone.

He could not stay calm at all. He suddenly stood up and picked up the ashtray on coffee, pretending to throw it at Gabriel. Gabriel continued to sit on the sofa and looked up at Harry coldly to see if he dared to hit him. Harry gritted his teeth. After hesitating for a moment, he finally threw all the ashtrays to the ground.

“Gabriel, you actually said such heartless words. From now on, we’re no longer uncle and nephew! We’ll be strangers from now on! You can also tell my brother not to see me again,” Harry shouted,

“Sure. Harry, I’ll convey your words to my father. Even if he can’t bear to part with you, his biological younger brother, I’ll make him do it forcefully,” Gabriel said.

Gabriel went along with Harry’s words again.

Harry was dumbfounded and speechless. Every time Gabriel went along with his anger, he felt powerless and did not know how to refute.

Harry

However, at this moment, Ethan arrived.

Ethan greeted Harry warmly, “Harry!”

Then, he ignored Gabriel’s existence and sat beside Harry.

Harry also sat down.

Ethan was concerned for Harry. “Harry, you’re not in good health either. It’s best not to get angry.”

Harry also played along with Ethan. “Alright, Ethan. Since you’re genuinely concerned about me, I’ll listen to you. Anyway, Gabriel said that he has something to talk to you about. Have a good chat with him. Gabriel is going to cut ties with me now. There’s really nothing else I have to say to him. You Cuys can talk.”

Ethan was a little surprised. He had already rushed over as fast as he could. Why was it that after arriving, Harry was about to cut ties with Gabriel? What happened?

However, Ethan also knew that now was not the time to ask such a boring question.

Hence, he turned to look at Gabriel and tried his best to pretend that he was not afraid or flustered. Ethan said righteously, “Gabriel, I know you’re here to denounce me, but I can tell you clearly that there’s no way you can take back the one hundred twenty million. We stamped the official seal and went through the normal approval process.”

Chapter 486

Ethan was very fearless.

Gabriel was not angry. He said calmly, “Official seal? Are you sure that the seal you took out of the safe and stamped on the contract is the real official seal? Who told you?”

Ethan was stunned. He had not expected such a situation. However, he would not be frightened just because of Gabriel’s words.

Ethan sneered. “Gabriel, who are you trying to scare? Do you think I’ll believe what you say? You tricked me, and I’ll return one hundred twenty million to you. Do you think I’m easy to fool?”

Gabriel sneered. “I’m giving you one last chance now because I don’t want to waste time fighting a lawsuit with you. In the end, I’ll get the money back. I’ve never let the real official seal stay in the company alone for a day.”

Gabriel carried it with him every day.

He was in a high position, so he naturally knew that someone

The official seal in the company’s safe was fake.

He would covet his position. He had always made second-hand preparations.

Harry was stunned. Could it be that they had all been tricked by Gabriel? Gabriel’s disappearance this time was not because he wanted to avoid Lighthouse’s pursuit, but because he wanted to set them up? Pretending that his whereabouts were unknown, and then letting David act as if he was desperately resisting and did not want them to find the official seal, letting them think that he had obtained the real official seal, stamped the contract, and took away one hundred twenty million. Now, Gabriel came to bite them back. Was Gabriel really planning to send them to prison?

Although Ethan was a little flustered at this moment, he remembered that Harry had instructed him on the phone just now that he had to be unyielding no matter what. He continued to be unyielding. “Gabriel, don’t make it seem like you’re still half soft hearted. If you have the ability, call the police immediately. If they come to arrest us, there’s no need to talk about it!”

“Alright, I don’t mind doing my job. Without another word, Gabriel called the police.

Ethan was really stunned this time. The call to the police had gone through. Gabriel was really going to let the police come?

Harry patted Ethan's arm hard. "What are you waiting for?"

Harry wanted Gabriel to stop it. Ethan panicked and was shocked that Gabriel even dared to call the police.

This meant that what G

Gabriel said just now was true.

Ethan was so young and had just achieved success in his career. How could he accept going to jail now when he wanted to obtain another happy love and live a better life than Gabriel?

He immediately went forward to snatch Gabriel's phone, but Gabriel gave him the chance to kick Ethan's knee. Ethan immediately fell to the ground

When Gabriel heard this, he first apologized to the police. "I'm sorry, the other party agreed to settle it privately. There's no need to trouble you."

Then, he hung up

"Get someone to transfer the money." Gabriel didn't waste any time.

Ethan gritted his teeth and called his secretary. Fortunately, because he was playful, he had not spent the money to buy land. He could still return it now.

"I've returned it to you!" Ethan roared indignantly.

Gabriel said slowly, "Alright, then we should settle the matter of David being beaten up. He has been with me for many years. It's not something you can touch. Between the two of you, who asked someone to do it?"

His sharp gaze swept across Harry and Ethan.

Harry's heart skipped a beat. It was over. This kid seemed to be determined to disown his family. Beads of sweat began to appear on his forehead. "Didn't you want us to apologize to him? Ethan, since you were the one who asked someone to do it, go apologize to David. We're family. There's no need to make things too awkward for an outsider. Remember to buy some compensation."

Ethan was shocked. Although he had indeed attacked David, wasn't Harry the one who asked him to attack in the beginning?

How could he blame it all on him? However, when he thought about how Harry had done him a favor, Ethan felt that he had to be a grateful person.

He would admit to this matter. At the very least, he could let Harry see that he knew how to repay kindness. Harry would definitely think more highly of him in the future.

Ethan put on a heroic expression. "Yes, I was the one who got someone to hit David. I'm not afraid to admit what I've done. I can apologize to David! However, Gabriel, let me tell you, if you want me to kneel and apologize to David or something like that, dream on. Impossible, I won't do that. I'll say this now. If you're not convinced, strangle me if you can! If you strangle me to death, Harry will immediately call the police for me. Don't even think about escaping

Ethan gave up. Although he was afraid, he refused to "surrender".

Harry was speechless. Ethan's words were too unqualified, making him feel embarrassed. Fortunately, this kid did not cower just now and admitted that he had beaten David.

"I don't need you to apologize to David," Gabriel said unhurriedly.

Ethan was stunned. "Then what do you want? Compensation? How much?"

Gabriel shook his head. "I think an eye for an eye is good enough."

Ethan immediately broke out in cold sweat.

"What do you mean?" Ethan asked.

Gabriel did not waste any time and called the bodyguards who were waiting outside in. Then, Gabriel ordered, "Beat him up."

Before Ethan could dodge, he was pinned to the ground by five to six bodyguards

Gabriel's bodyguards beat Ethan up as hard as Harry's bodyguards once hit David.

Ethan could not take it anymore. "Help, help, Harry, help, I'm going to be beaten to death, help!"

Harry rolled his eyes. He felt that he could not just stand by and do nothing. Otherwise, what would he do if Ethan became disloyal and stopped helping him in the future?

Harry pretended to step forward and looked like he was about to stop him. "Enough, enough, Don't hit Ethan anymore. Gabriel, are you really that cruel?"

The bodyguard felt that Harry was in the way and pushed Harry away. It was exactly what Harry wanted. He fell on the ground. "Alright, you guys are really capable. You even dare to push me. Are you going to hit me soon? If you have the ability, come and hit me. Don't bully Ethan."

Ethan covered his head and sat on the ground, not even daring to raise his head. However, he heard Harry's voice from the bottom of his fist. When he thought about how Harry doted on him so much, he straightened up.

Ethan took the time to shout, "You b a s t a r d s, if you hit Harry, you're dead. Let me tell you, I won't let you off!"

Gabriel said, "it seems like Harry feels sorry for Ethan. However, I have a lot of people, it doesn't matter if they hit you too. Guards, beat him up"

Harry was stunned. He did not expect Gabriel to really let the bodyguards hit him. When the two bodyguards walked towards Harry, Harry could not even escape in time. "What are you doing? How dare you hit me? I'll remember your faces. How dare you hit me? Gabriel, are you crazy?"

Gabriel's face was cold as he said, "Be careful, guys/ After all, Harry is old."

In fact, Gabriel was reminding the bodyguards not to hit vital parts and to pay attention to places with thick skin.

The bodyguards naturally understood.

After taking care of the two of them, Gabriel left with his bodyguards. Harry was hit relatively lightly and could still get up from the ground. He gritted his teeth, got up, and sat on the sofa.

Ethan was covered in injuries and still had to care about Harry. "Harry, are you alright?"

Ethan's entire body was in pain. He was pulling and grimacing as he got up.

Harry sat on the sofa and panted. "Ethan, you must not forget today's humiliation. If you work hard, you must help us avenge our previous humiliation!"

Harry was not beaten very badly, but this beating was extremely humiliating to him.

Ethan endured the humiliation and said, "Harry, don't worry, I will work hard!"

At the Miller family.

Recently, Olivia felt that Jason was a little strange, even though Jason had locked himself in his room and never left his house.

However, Olivia had seen Jason go out a few times recently. She felt that Jason had become even more lifeless.

Jason exuded an aura of death. However, the relationship between Jason and Ronnie was getting better and better. Olivia did not know what happened between the two of them, but she felt that these two people were very strange.

Olivia woke up in the middle of the night and was about to go downstairs to get a glass of water. When she passed by Jason's room, she realized that the door was open. She looked inside and did not see anyone, but there was a particularly strange aura in Jason's room.

Olivia did not know what kind of aura it was. It was neither pleasant nor unpleasant.

Olivia did not go in and continued to go downstairs. As soon as she reached the living room, she saw Jason lying on the ground in disheveled clothes. When Olivia saw this situation, she was also frightened and felt disgusted. What was Jason Miller doing?

Olivia really could not bear to watch.

Olivia did not want to care, but when she thought about how she still had to walk back, she really did not want to see this scene again. Hence, she could only cover Jason with the blanket on the sofa.

Olivia was just about to leave when she realized that there was a lot of white powder t e Olivia's heart a beat. She wiped the powder with her hand and sniffed it. She felt that the smell was very pungent, but after smelling it, she felt more than that. She also felt a little dizzy and wanted to vomit. This thing was not simple. Could it be drugs?

Although she was not a virtuous person, Olivia knew that this thing could not be touched. However, Jason actually kept possession of such a thing now. Was he trying to kill the rest of them?

Olivia cursed in her heart. She wanted to wake Jason up and ask him what was going on.

Olivia would never accept being implicated to death.

Olivia was about to pick up the glass of water on the table and splash it on Jason to wake him up. However, just as she was about to do so, Ronnie grabbed her wrist ruthlessly.

Olivia turned around and saw Ronnie's gloomy expression. She was shocked and felt inexplicably guilty. "Ronnie, what are you doing?"

"Come here," Ronnie said.

Ronnie pulled Olivia to the study at the side. "What did you find?"

Olivia was still a little confused, but after a while, she reacted. "The two of you took drugs together?"

Olivia was on the verge of breaking down. It made sense. Jason had never taken drugs in the past. What were the two of them doing?

"Don't ask what you shouldn't ask. Just pretend that you didn't see anything." Ronnie was too lazy to explain further.

Olivia was a little angry. "Do you think I want to see it? I just want to say that if you guys want to mess around, don't drag others down with you."

"If you don't spout nonsense, nothing will happen," Ronnie said.

"I won't spout nonsense. Just don't make any mistakes. Alright, I'm still sleepy. I'm going back to sleep," Olivia said.

"Wait a minute." Ronnie suddenly regretted his decision. He had been living a life of bloodshed for a long time. He knew that verbal agreements did not count. He needed benefits or a secret bond to be able to trust someone. Therefore, he changed his mind. It was no longer as simple as telling Olivia not to say things that she should not say.

"What's wrong?" Olivia no longer had the patience to pretend to be obedient. The Miller family was now a pile of mud. She regretted it now. She had put in so much effort to return to the Miller family, but she did not expect the Miller family to have such a huge bomb buried inside.

She really wished she could leave the Miller family immediately.

Ronnie suddenly placed a packet of pills in Olivia's hand. Olivia was shocked and did not dare to hold it in her hand, causing the packet of pills to fall to the ground. "Ronnie, what are you doing?"

"I want Gina's life?"

Ronnie's tone was cold, "Didn't you search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality."

Olivia sneered. "Ronnie, doesn't everyone in the Miller family want to see Gina die?"

It would be best if after Gina died, her huge inheritance could still fall into their hands.

If Ronnie wanted Gina to die, he could have done it himself. Why did Olivia have to be the bad guy?

Everyone knew very well that Gina was not easy to deal with. They had also seen the news two days ago. Clearly, there were big shots who had set up a trap for Gina.

In the end,

Gina still escaped unscathed. Even the foreign royal family could not do anything to Gi
Gina.

What else could ordinary people like them do? Ronnie was too evil. He actually wanted Olivia to be his scapegoat.

How could Olivia send this pill to Gina's mouth?

Ronnie said expressionlessly. "But out of all of us, you should be the person who most desperately wishes for Gina to die. From the first day Gina returned to the Miller family, you've been wishing for her to die, right? You've done so many bad things and tried to frame Gina, but in the end, you failed. Gina also made you pay the price. Your biological father died at her hands. You're the one who hates Gina the most. Am I wrong?"

Initially, Olivia did not have much of a reaction. However, at the mention of her biological father, Olivia exploded. "Don't mention that person. I don't even admit that he's my biological father. Ronnie, stop pretending here. You just look like you want to help me. It's just that I exposed your secret. You're afraid that I'll tell others, so you're forcing me to become your accomplice now?"

Ronnie smiled. "Accomplice? That sounds terrible. Olivia, although you're not related to us by blood, we've lived together for more than 20 years. In the past, I've always treated you like a sister. I've seen your true colors now, and I know that you don't love your parents as much as you seem on the surface. You want to fight with Gina and fight with her because you're jealous."

Olivia did not expect Ronnie to fall out with her so suddenly, Olivia even felt that Ronnie's personality was a little similar to hers.

They were indeed biological siblings.

But so what if they were biological siblings? Didn't they still end up turning against each other?

Olivia was a little frustrated. "Ronnie, if you have something to say, just say it. I'm really sleepy now and don't have time to waste with you here. I'm really tired. Just tell me what you want to do to me if I don't agree to your request. Okay? Anyway, you don't want to believe me. Don't think I'll keep your and Jason's secret"

"I'm giving you this to help you and myself. If Gina dies, I'm confident that I can transfer her assets to the Miller family. At that time, the Miller family will be able to return to its former glory. At that time, you can also be a rich young lady. However, these things have to be completed before Gina marries Gabriel. After all, if the two of them get married, Gabriel will become the heir to all her assets," Ronnie said.

Of course, Gabriel did not lack Gina's assets, but if Gina was dead, as her spouse, Gabriel would definitely not let Gina's inheritance fall into their hands when he knew that Gina had severed ties with the Miller family.

Ronnie had considered all these.

Return to being the young lady of a rich family?

Olivia sneered, If Ronnie had said such things earlier, perhaps she would really have been excited,

However, now that things had come to this, she had already boarded another black ship.

It was impossible to become the carefree young lady of the Miller family again.

Olivia recalled the happiness of the past. Suddenly, she felt a lump in her throat and wanted to cry.

At the same time, she hated Gina even more.

It was all Gina's fault. Why don't Gina die outside? Otherwise, Olivia's life trajectory wouldn't have become so complicated.

Now, her life could be said to be incomplete and messy. She had crawled out of a quagmire and fallen into another quagmire. To be honest, Olivia often did not know what to do in the future.

However, there was no doubt that she really could not give this pill to Gina.

Olivia's mind was blank. What could she do? However, Ronnie was forcing her to take action.

Ronnie probably saw her hesitation, so he simply said, "If you think you really can't do it, take this pill yourself. I don't want to make things difficult for you. This pill is very poisonous, but it won't cause you much pain. It can kill you in your sleep. It can be said to be euthanasia."

Olivia's eyes widened. She did not expect Roghie to say such cold and heartless words. Just because she had seen him taking drugs with Jason, he Ronnie was a lunatic, even crazier than Olivia!

Olivia looked at at the bag of poison pills in Ronnie's hand and knew that she had no choice. "It's very poisonous? Can one die after eating one pill?"

"Eating one pill can keep her alive for a week. There are ten pills in there. If you give Gina a few more pills, she won't last until the next day," Ronnie said.

"But she's Dr. Genevieve. What if she cures herself and finds out that I'm the culprit? What should I do? If I die, Ronnie, I won't let you off," Olivia stopped pretending and said.

"She can't cure herself. This kind of poison tablet is made from deep-sea poisonous plants that have been frozen under the glacier for a thousand years. It's been upgraded. Even if she's Dr. Genevieve, she can't find the cure. It takes time for her to cure herself, doesn't it? But once she takes the pill, she won't have time," Ronnie persuaded.

To be precise, it was to take advantage of this extremely short period of time to make Gina unable to reverse the situation.

"Make it into powder and pour it into something like Gina's drink. Also, don't use your hands. Just touch the pills and wear gloves," Ronnie said.

Olivia wanted to roll her eyes. Was there a need for him to explain this to her?

Since Ronnie said that this thing was so poisonous, she definitely wouldn't touch it with her hands. She still wanted to live for a few more decades.

"Alright, I understand," Olivia said.

Olivia could not be bothered to waste her breath. She turned around and left.

Ronnie seemed to be a little worried as he said, "Don't forget that we're now in the same boat. There's no benefit for you if you betray me."

In other words, if she dared to tell anyone about the two of them taking drugs, she would die another day.

Olivia really could not tell that Ronnie was such a ruthless person. That night, Olivia could not close her eyes and sleep well,

The next day, Olivia went to work at Blue Vale Hospital as usual and arrived at the hospital.

She ran into the bruised and battered Ethan, Olivia was a little surprised. She sized up Ethan and asked, "Who beat you up like this? Could it be Gabriel?"

Ethan did not want to say anything, but Olivia was right about who hit him. He instantly frowned and said, "Who did you hear it from? Or did you investigate me and follow me?"

Olivia was speechless, Ethan's brain was really not working well. However, when she thought about her current cooperation with Ethan, she suppressed the urge to ridicule Ethan and even began to flatter him "Other than Gabriel, who else dares to be so bold now? Who would dare to hit you on the way, Mr. Jackson? After all, Mr. Jackson, you are now a conscientious and very socially responsible future entrepreneur. The project under your name, the all- in-one medical examination machine, will benefit all mankind."

Ethan Jackson listened to the flattery and sneered. "I was beaten up by Gabriel. He plotted against me and got a bunch of bodyguards to beat me up. If he were to fight me alone, I'm telling you, he's definitely not my match. I'm younger and stronger than him."

Olivia was speechless

Ethan was only two or three years younger than Gabriel, but he actually had the cheek to say that. Olivia could not mock Ethan Jackson now. Instead, she was a little enthusiastic. "Have you applied medicine? If you haven't, I'll bring you to apply some medicine. If there are any other wounds, I'll help you bandage them."

Ethan looked wary. "Olivia, although we're in the same boat now, it doesn't mean that I can let bygones be bygones and accept you. Don't come eagerly anymore. I can't marry you a second time. Do you understand?"

Olivia was shocked. What was Ethan thinking? Not to mention, she did not have any true feelings for Ethan at all. In her heart, she looked down on Ethan.

They had fought so badly at the engagement banquet in the past. Did they want everyone to laugh at them again?

Besides, she felt that Ethan was not worthy of her.

"Don't worry, I don't have such thoughts. However, Mr. Jackson, I have something to discuss with you." Olivia suddenly rolled her eyes and thought of making good use of him.

"What is it?" Ful

"What is it?" Ethan asked impatiently.

"It's very easy to avenge your previous humiliation," Olivia said.

Ethan did not believe her. "Olivia, I suspect that you're trying to cheat me of my money again. You said yourself that you'll definitely think of a way to kill Gina. If you want to join forces with me, I'll fork out the money and you'll contribute. Gina is still alive and kicking. You cheated me of my money previously, so I don't intend to argue with you anymore. Let me tell you, if you still want to cheat me, I won't let you off. Do you really think I'm a fool and easy to cheat? You've lied to me time and time again! Last time, I already agreed to let you invest in my project and let you be a shareholder after my medical equipment company is established. If you dare to threaten me with the car accident again, I'll kill you too, understand?"

was just saying it. He actually did not have the guts to kill anyone.

However, he felt that if he did not threaten this s I t, Olivia, she would not be obedient.

If Olivia wanted to push her luck, Ethan would definitely not tolerate it.

If Olivia dared to use this matter to threaten him again, he would tell Harry to deal with her. He believed that Harry would definitely be able to cover up her death.

Of course, Olivia understood the principle of not pushing people too hard.

Desperate times called for desperate measures. Besides, Ethan had not established his own company yet and had not fulfilled the promise to make her a shareholder. Why would Olivia continue to threaten Ethan with the car accident?

She was not that stupid.

How invest

Hence, Olivia denied, "Don't worry. Since you're a man of your words, I definitely won't go back on my word. Last time, I already agreed to let you in my project and let you be a shareholder after my medical equipment company is established. If you dare to threaten me with the car accident again, I'll kill you too, understand?"

Ethan looked at Olivia. "Tell me, who do you think I hate the most?"

Olivia smiled and said, "In the past, it might have been Gina, but now Gabriel should be ranked first."

Ethan widened his eyes as if he was afraid that someone would hear Olivia's words. He immediately pulled Olivia aside and said, "Keep your voice down! Alright, I'll talk to you. Take me to a quieter place and we'll talk in private, okay?"

He did indeed want to kill Gabriel, but the problem was that he did not have the ability now. If Gabriel knew that he had such thoughts, he would probably make the first move and kill him first.

Olivia nodded. "Alright, follow me."

office. Olivia said politely, "Mr. Jackson, please take a seat."

Ethan said coldly, "Don't keep me in suspense. If you have something to say, just say it. My time is very precious."

"I understand." Olivia took out the packet of poison pills that Ronnie had given her last night.

She told Ethan about the effects of the poison pill. "Mr. Jackson, as long as you grind this tablet into powder without anyone knowing and add it to Gabriel's food, Gabriel will suddenly die of a heart attack. At that time, the doctor won't be able to find out the reason. In the end, they can only attribute it to a heart attack. They definitely won't be able to trace it to you. Besides, this pill was made by a very powerful poison master. There's no way to crack it in this world, and there's no way to detect it. As long as you're careful when you drug it, it'll be foolproof."

Ethan was disinterested. "That's easy for you to say. How can I get close to Gabriel and put this in his food?"

The corner of Olivia's eyes twitched. "Do you need to get close to Gabriel? Aren't you and Gabriel family? For example, when you go back to the old residence for dinner?"

Speaking of the Jackson family's old residence, Olivia recalled the past. When she was Ethan's fiancée, she had gone to the Jackson family's old residence once, which was Neil's birthday. However, because she met Gina, the memories were as unbearable as they could be.

Thinking back, it was just bad luck.

Olivia wanted to sulk as she thought about it

Ethan interrupted Olivia. "Stop, let's not discuss this for now. If I want to drug Gabriel, is it simple or easy? I just want to know, are you trying to use me?"

Olivia thought so, but she refused to admit it. "Mr. Jackson, I can't get close to Gabriel and the others. With my current status, I have too few opportunities to interact with them unless they take the initiative to cause trouble for me. That's right. I did boast a lot in the past that I could kill Gina. As long as you give me money, I'll have a way. That's because I didn't know the immensity of heaven and earth in the past. I didn't know that Gina had so many damn aliases. If I had known that she was such a capable person, I wouldn't have said that I could kill her. In the past, I was very confident that I could kill that slut, Gina. However, reality tells me that I can't just rely on my imagination. I have to have the ability and means to do so."

The more Olivia spoke, the more she gritted her teeth.

"I admit that I'm useless, but Mr. Jackson, you're different. Look at how successful you are now. When the all-in-one medical examination machine mass-produces and you establish your own medical equipment company, won't you surpass Gabriel? You're such a capable person. How can something as small as drugging you be difficult for you? That's why I placed my hopes on you. This matter is beneficial to both of us! If the two of them don't die, we will never have a good life. Do you believe me? Mr. Jackson, let's work together one last time. Don't worry. If we don't succeed this time, I won't bother you again, okay?"

Ethan did not pay much attention to the others, but when he heard Olivia begin to suck up to him, he could not control his emotions and began to feel smug

"Mr. Jackson, in order to show my sincerity, if this matter is exposed, can you push this matter to me and let Gabriel and Gina kill me? I promise that I will take all the responsibility alone and never turn you in. It took me a lot of effort to get this bag of pills. It's a poison pill that can kill people without leaving a trace. I'm just short of a chance. I only hope that you can help me. Helping me means helping you." Ethan hesitated, but the image of Gabriel bringing his bodyguards to Harry's house and beating him and Harry up suddenly flashed through his mind. When Ethan thought of these things, he was furious.

Ethan thought that if he had any conflicts with Gabriel, Gina, and the others in the future, Gabriel would really dare to beat him to death. Moreover, he seriously suspected that Gabriel was jealous of his current achievements and could not bear to see him surpass him in the future. He would definitely suppress him even more.

Chapter 490

Gabriel was so rich, but he was not even willing to share one hundred twenty million dollars to achieve his career. They were a family! Gabriel was so generous when spending money on Ginal He gave away 600 million dollars of diamond mines just like that. Ethan was really getting angrier. He thought that Gabriel really deserved to die.

Harry had also taught Ethan that a man must be ruthless. Since Gabriel already wanted to kill him, why couldn't he kill Gabriel?

Ethan asked, "Is the poison pill in your hand really that magical? If the person who took the poison pill dies, the forensic examination will only show that he has a myocardial infarction and won't be found to have been poisoned to death?"

"No!" Olivia promised, but in reality, she was not sure either. However, Ronnie had said so last night, so she had said the same thing to Ethan.

"I don't believe you. If this isn't as magical as you say, I'll be ruined by you. I might ever lose my life!" Ethan felt that it was better to be cautious.

In order to reassure Ethan, Olivia said, "Then let's experiment. Won't it be fine?"

Ethan's heart turned cold. "What do you mean? Are you going to kill someone to test the power of this pi

Olivia was so speechless that she almost laughed out loud. What was Ethan thinking? pill?

Was there a need for them to do such a risky thing ing now? Were they not in the hospital now? They could just find a white mouse to test it out.

Blue Vale Hospital had a laboratory. Ethan finally heaved a sigh of relief after hearing Olivia's words. Fortunately, Olivia was not looking for a person to kill

The two of them arrived at the laboratory. Coincidentally, there was no one in the laboratory to help them test the pills.

After Olivia put on the protective gloves, she carefully ground the pills into powder and sprinkled it on a piece of bread. Then, she threw the bread into a box with a white mouse. The white mouse died not long after eating the bread.

Olivia could see the effect immediately. The dosage was quite large. After the mouse died, she called a doctor to check the results of the mouse's death.

After the test results were out, the doctor said, "Myocardial infarction. It's quite sudden. The hearts of this batch of mice used for experiments are quite healthy. How could this mouse suddenly have a heart attack? It's too sudden. Speaking of which, why do you want me to check the cause of death of this little mouse? If this little thing dies, so be it."

I was just a little curious. Whenever I'm free, I come and feed them. Besides, aren't these white mice usually used for experiments? If it died because of your experiment, wouldn't it be convenient for you to calculate the data? That's why I called you over," Olivia lied through her teeth without changing her expression.
